LSU dressing room:

Coach Charles McClendon:

"We felt like our offense should be our strength this season and I am encouraged by our performance tonight.

"Our defense came to play, too. We didn't let them get outside, and that hurt us last week. We gave them scoring opportunities ~~in~~ late in the game and it put pressure on our defense. They responded real well, too.

"Our end play was much better and this was a key on defense.

"We gave the game ball to Paul Lyons. He got our offense moving and passed for two touchdowns. Paul had some teeth knocked out, but he'll be alright.

Tommy Casanova has a pulled muscle. We hope he'll be ready to go next week.

■ Norm Hedges, a sophomore, moved in to replace Casanova after starting the game at safety, and did a fine job at cornerback.

"We played everyone on the bench tonight. Our squad wanted to win this one. Their ~~maximum~~ enthusiasm in practice all week was just good and I had a feeling they couldn't wait to get on the field tonight.

"Charles Stuart made two blocks on one ~~the~~ play to spring Jimmy LeDoux on that touchdown.

"I was real proud of the way we bounced back tonight.
