QUOTES FROM LSU'S JERRY STOVALL

"The thing that impressed us last week was, they were behind ~~XXX~~ 56-0 against UCLA and they didn't give up. We knew we had a fight."

on the exchange of mcCready for Risher on the last drive

"I put Risher in when we got close and felt like we could run a goal-line offense that did not count on the ~~mx~~ quarterback for execution. At that point it was either put in Risher, or use me or Bob Gatling, and I couldn't run at all because my legs were too weak."

"You have to understand, we are still a young and inexperienced football team. These young men have not had ~~w~~ a winning ~~xxx~~ streak of two before, they haven't been there long enough to know how to react."

ON ERIC ELLINGTON... "Well he played some in the first game, more last week and we'll probably use him some in the backfield. He almost broke that punt. It was beautiful."

GOING FOR IT ON LAST TOUCHDOWN INSTEAD OF PUNTING..."absolutely not. I thought we had a better chance of getting a field goal than a touchdown."

ABOUT THE TIME THEY DIDN'T TAKE AWAY..."I called him (the official) over and said, 'they 'you can't do that, you have to give us a warning first', He said 'you're exactly right,' thank you for ~~remingx~~ reminding me."

QUOTES FROM CHUCK FARIBANKS:

"The kids played their hearts out and I'm very proud of them. But they're still not as good enough executing the football game to keep them from getting in trouble."

"Execution will come with maturity, repetitions and experience."

Did he consider going for two points with score 20-19? "No." (Very emphatically)

On Charles Davis, QB:

"Charlie played real hard, but I don't think, from looking at his execution, that it was a good game for him."

"Our defense played much better (than the offense)...we made some big plays in the game."

Comparison with last year's LSU/Colorado game:

"We have ~~much~~ a little more quickness, but we're not as strong and we're not as good defensively this year as we could be."
