QUOTES FROM LSU'S JERRY STOVALL
ABOUT THE PEACH BOWL

"I was concerned about our concentration in the beginning of the week. The speculation just ~~x~~ kinda got out of hand., so I met with the seniors and told them this is the story ~~xx~~ as I understand it. and I want ~~x~~ you (the seniors) to take the leadership responsibility and make the decision

"I wanted them (the peach bowl) to tell us, if you beat Tulane, you have an automatic bid, but they weren't willing to do that. How would you like to be those kids after playing this kind of game ~~x~~ and then hear XYZ is going to the Peach Bowl instead of us? I didn't want that to happen.

ABOUT THE SEASON... Overall I'm just tickled slap-dab to death.

ON THE WEATHER "I was very fearful of the weather, but it helped us a great deal in stopping their passing game. Did you see hall in the pre-game warmups. He was throwing that thing like a baseball. Later on, as it got ~~wetter~~ wetter, he wasn't able to do nearly as much with it.

"Our putn protection was excellent. We put our front line kids back on the special teams this week, because we didn't have to worry about getting ready for another game next week. The last couple of weeks, we had much younger kids in there.

"I don't think we were playing cautiously. An option play when it is raining is not conservative football.

"I thinkg dduring the ebb and flow of the game, different things can happen to change the mood of the team. I got our attention real good when Johnston got hit.

QUOTES FROM TULANE'S VINCE GIBSON

"If we would have played in the Dome we would have had a fighting chance. The whole key to the ballgame was the kicking game. We turned the ball over and they did not. They did a great job. We made bad snaps and looked for LSU to turn over the ball in the seoncd half and they never did. It's simple, ~~xxx~~ we can't aatch or throw in the rain. We have to throw to win, and we couldn't do it. And ~~bx~~ being behind, makes it all the more tough. Risher did a good job running the option on us. On a dry day we would have had a helluva better fighting chance. If I had to say one guy won the game for LSU, it would be ~~xxx~~ their kicker (Wagner). We just can't play catch-up in the rain."
