QUOTES FROM LSU'S JERRY STOVALL

"We wanted to run right at them. The I allowed us to do that. We will continue use it. (On Martin) He's got speed, I don't think there is any substitute for it. He certainly showed it tonight. I was pleased. We had an emotional game and we an ~~agf~~ aggressive effort. (ON the Kickoff return) They go down and score and then have a lightning bolt come right back at them. (On the win) I've never seen an ugly one. I'm still not satisfied with the way we had our brains turned to scrambled eggs toward the ~~end~~ end of the game. (Injuries) Mark Johnston got hurt in the first half and was bruised...Todd Durkee is on crutches...and didn't play the second half....Al Richardson might have a broken nose after a hard blow to the head... (Was he upset over TD called back) ~~byx~~ I was very ~~mx~~ upset with that call. But we will have to see the films to verify that. They called that blocking below the waist, but we will have to see the film.

QUOTES FROM KENTUCKY'S FRAN CURCI

"We never touched the ball until we were 10 points down. (About the kickoff return) We were definitely in the game until then and the kickoff (return) hurt us. Two things very critical hurt us early...first two freshmen backs didn't get the ball from the quarterback and secondly, two backs ran into each other on the goal line. One thing no one seems to want to except is ~~that~~ that we're both (LSU and Kentucky) very, very young. We really showed our immaturity tonight. LSU is doing the same thing. They are very, very young and the production is not there, but it will be. I don't think either side showed much tonight. (Did LSU do anything to surprise you offensively?) Nothing. (About Eric Martin) I think he ~~is~~ is one of the better kickoff ~~return~~ return guys in the country. He'll be up there after tonight, that's for sure. ~~Ok~~ Ok guys, that's it.
