NOTES FROM LSU COACH JERRY STOVALL:

"Congratulations are in order for the staff. I thought they did a super job of preparing for this game. We were prepared on both sides of the ball."

- "Some of the mistakes that hurt us in the first two games were minimized tonight."

"I was surprised we could score so many points against them because they are an outstanding team as shown by a number nine ranking."

"Younger players are growing up everyday and their improvement was apparant tonight."

"Jeff Wickersham played a fine game. He is maturing and becoming a better leader every day. He's helping us grow as a team."

QUOTES FROM WASHINGTON COACH DON JAMES:

"I think LSU looked pretty good. We got outhit, outcompeted and outplayed. I think we're lucky that the score wasn't any higher than 40."

"They (LSU) ran harder, faster and got much stronger than us today."

"Our defense just didn't play well enough to give our offense a chance. We fell behing last week and had to throw. I was disappointed that were were not able to run tonight. They just got ready to play and we didn't. They (LSU) just did an excellent job."
