LSU DRESSING ROOM

HEAD COACH CURLEY HALLMAN: The best way to explain tonight is like it's been the season leading up to this. We had some situations early that if we executed, things could have been different. The first half was close. We didn't help ourselves. In the second half, we had some turnovers, interceptions and a poor punt.

Congratulations to Joe Kines and his players. It's time now for us to clear our minds and clear our heads. We need to look at everything from A to Z. I feel bad for our players. They are a fine group of men. They nne to put this behind them and get on with their lives. It's been a tough year--a very tough year.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Recruiting is the number one priority. We've got to get us a punter and some speed. YOu can always use defensive linemen.

At 23-0, I still thought we had time left. We didn't get any points in the third quarter, but even with 15 minutes left, I thought we had a chance. Starting the ballgame, I thought we were ready to play. As the night went on, it's hard to say. This is probably the coldest night some of our players have ever played in.
