Credentials

All media attending LSU baseball home games must present a media pass for admission to Alex Box Stadium. Credentials for home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible.

- Requests for credentials should be made in advance by mail on company stationery and directed to Associate SID Bill Franques.
- Requests will be screened to insure a working press box. Children, spouses, dates and pets are not permitted.
- Requests are honored from sports editors of daily and weekly newspapers, editors of sports periodicals, and sports directors of radio and television stations who broadcast regularly scheduled daily sports reports and talk shows.
- Credentials not mailed may be picked up beginning 90 minutes prior to game time at the Will Call window in front of Alex Box Stadium.
- LSU reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the university. Any requests placed less than 24 hours prior to the game may not be honored.

Press Box Services

A complete NCAA box score and pertinent game facts will be distributed to members of the working media.

- Press packets are provided 30 minutes prior to the first pitch, or earlier upon request. Press packets include a scorecard and team rosters, updated statistics for each team, conference statistics and game-day notes.
- A meal ticket, redeemable for refreshments from the concessions stand, will be issued to each media member during the game.

Parking

Media parking is located in the lot across the street from Alex Box Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking passes should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Phones/Fax Machine

There are two phones available in the press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Fax service is also available upon request.

Radio/Television

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Head Coach Smoke Laval

Coach Laval is available for phone interviews on weekday mornings (9 a.m.-Noon) during the season. Please coordinate all requests for personal interviews with Coach Laval through his office. Appointments and interviews may be arranged through Virginia Robertson at (225) 578-4148. Coach Laval will talk to reporters approximately 10 minutes after the end of a game in the LSU dugout.

Players

Media members are invited to attend LSU baseball practice sessions. Players are available for interviews before each practice at approximately 1 p.m. in Alex Box Stadium.

Requests for live player interviews on the field prior to a game should be made through Bill Franques in the Sports Information Office.

Post-game player interviews are conducted in front of the LSU dugout at the conclusion of a brief team meeting on the field. The LSU locker room is closed to the media.

The Program

*R*aymond "Smoke" Laval begins his second season in 2003 as the head coach of the LSU Fighting Tigers. Laval is a former University of Louisiana-Monroe head coach (1994-2000) who served as the legendary Skip Bertman's No. 1 assistant coach at LSU from 1984-93, helping lead the Tigers to two national championships (1991, 1993), six College World Series appearances and five Southeastern Conference titles in 10 seasons. In his first season as the LSU head coach, Laval directed the 2002 squad to the school's fourth straight NCAA Super Regional appearance. The Tigers completed the '02 campaign with a 44-22 record and a consensus No. 11 national ranking.

FIVE

NCAA Championships won by the LSU Tigers

LSU is one of only four schools to win five national titles in the 56-year history of the CWS. The other schools are Southern California, Arizona State and Texas.

LSU's success, however, has been more immediate, as the Tigers have claimed five CWS titles in the past 12 years.

By comparison, Southern Cal has just one national title in the past 24 years; Arizona State has gone 21 years without a CWS crown; and Texas has won two CWS titles in 20 seasons.

1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000

*I*n the first season of the Smoke Laval era, the 2002 Tigers played host to an NCAA Regional at Alex Box Stadium for the 13th straight year. LSU captured its seventh consecutive regional title with two wins over Louisiana-Lafayette on the tournament's final day to advance to the Super Regional at Rice University.

For his outstanding efforts in his inaugural LSU season, Laval was named the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association.

Prior to his new tenure at LSU, Laval resuscitated the UL-Monroe program, as in seven seasons he guided the Indians to a 241-159 record, including NCAA Regional appearances in 1995, 1999 and 2000. The 2000 ULM club posted a 41-22 mark en route to the Southland Conference title, tying the school record for wins. Laval, the 1999 SLC Coach of the Year, also led the Indians to the 1999 regular-season league title and to the 1995 conference tournament crown.

Skip Bertman is LSU's all-time winningest coach, as he compiled an 870-330-3 (.724) record in 18 seasons. Bertman, the National Coach of the Year in 1986, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 2000, and the 1996 United States Olympic head coach, guided the Tigers to five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) and 11 College World Series appearances (1986, '87, '89, '90, '91, '93, '94, '96, '97, '98, '00). In a poll released by Baseball America in January, 1999, Bertman was voted the second-greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Under Bertman, LSU finished no worse than seventh in the final national polls in 12 of his final 16 seasons.

Bertman is one of only two coaches to have won five College World Series titles in the 56-year history of the event (Southern Cal's Dedeaux won 10 CWS crowns in the 1950s, '60s and '70s). Bertman has the fourth-highest total of CWS victories (29) and the fourth-highest CWS winning percentage (29-13, .690).

Bertman's record in SEC games was 328-159-2 (.673). Under Bertman, LSU dominated the SEC from 1989-2001, registering a 654-235-2 (.734) overall mark (an average of 50 wins per year) with five national championships, nine CWS appearances, six conference titles and eight 50-win seasons.

Significantly, LSU was 146-149 overall (.495) in the six seasons prior to Bertman's arrival -- after eight years as an assistant coach at Miami (Fla.) -- in 1984.

Bertman directed LSU to its fifth national title in 2000, as the Tigers recorded a 52-17 mark, including a perfect 13-0 post-season record. LSU won the SEC Tournament with four straight wins, and the Tigers raced to a 9-0 mark in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers captured the national title with a thrilling 6-5 win over Stanford in the CWS championship game, as LSU scored four runs in the last two innings to overcome a 5-2 deficit. Catcher Brad Cresse's RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning drove home shortstop Ryan Theriot with the winning run. LSU became only the third school in NCAA baseball history to win five national championships, joining Southern California and Arizona State.

LSU's road to the NCAA crown was arguably the most difficult in CWS history, as the Tigers had to defeat perennial powers Texas (28 CWS appearances), Southern California (20), Florida State (18) and Stanford (12) in order to claim the national championship.

Smoke Laval (right) took over as LSU's head coach in 2002, as Skip Bertman (left) has assumed the job of athletics director.

The 2000 squad was Bertman's most productive offensive team, setting a school record for team batting average with a .340 mark. The Tigers also established Southeastern Conference records for hits (864) and doubles (194). For the fifth time, Bertman was voted National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine.

In addition to the five national titles, Bertman directed LSU to 13 NCAA Regional championships (1986, '87, '89, '90, '91, '93, '94, '96, '97, '98, '99, '00, '01), one NCAA Super Regional title (2000), seven Southeastern Conference regular-season titles (1986, '90, '91, '92, '93, '96, '97), six SEC Tournament crowns (1986, '90, '92, '93, '94, '00) and nine 50-win seasons (1986, 1989-93, 1996-97, 2000).

In its Jan. 19, 1997, issue, Baseball America magazine named LSU the "Team of the '90s."

Baseball America listed the top 100 college baseball programs based upon a formula which encompasses the following categories: winning percentage, NCAA regional appearances, College World Series appearances, national championships, all-Americans, players who have been drafted, major league players and total attendance. LSU, which won four national championships (1991, '93, '96, '97) in the '90s, was No. 1 in the survey with 308 total points, easily outdistancing second-place Florida State with 257 points. Arizona State was third (247), followed by Texas (244), Cal State-Fullerton (240), Miami (236), Wichita State (227), Clemson (211), Stanford (209) and Oklahoma State (208).

LSU claimed its fourth NCAA title in June, 1997, as the Tigers overwhelmed Alabama, 13-6, in the College World Series final. LSU became the first school to win back-to-back national championships since Stanford in 1987-88. The Tigers completed the year with a 57-13 mark, setting the Southeastern Conference record for most single-season victories. The Tigers also established the NCAA record for single-season home runs, as LSU unloaded a remarkable 188 round-trippers en route to the national championship. LSU joined Southern California (six titles in the 1970s) as the only schools to win four CWS crowns in one decade.

LSU claimed its third national championship of the 1990s in 1996 when second baseman Warren Morris belted a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift the Tigers to a thrilling 9-8 College World Series title game win over Miami (Fla.). The '96 Tigers were one of the most prolific offensive teams in Southeastern Conference history, establishing league records for home runs (131), runs scored (648), RBI (549) and total bases (1,331).

In 1993, LSU won its second NCAA title in three years with an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the CWS final. The 1993 Tigers also captured the Southeastern Conference title, as LSU became the first SEC school to win the league championship in four consecutive seasons (1990-93).

In 1991, LSU captured its first national championship with a record-setting performance at the CWS in Omaha, Neb. The Tigers defeated Wichita State, 6-3, in the title game and established Series marks for home runs, runs per game, slugging percentage and fielding percentage.

In the 1990s, the Tigers posted a .737 winning percentage (503-179-2, an average of over 50 victories per year).

LSU is one of only four schools to win five national titles in the 56-year history of the CWS.

The others are Southern California (12 titles), Arizona State (5) and Texas (5). LSU has claimed its five CWS titles in the past 12 years. By comparison, Southern Cal has just one national title in the past 24 seasons; Arizona State has played 21 seasons without a CWS crown; and Texas has won two CWS titles in the past 20 seasons.

LSU was one of just three schools in the country with seven College World Series appearances in the 1990s. Miami (Fla.) and Florida State also earned seven CWS trips in the last decade. All 11 of the Tigers' CWS appearances have come since 1986 -- LSU is one of only 10 schools to have made at least 11 CWS trips since the Series began in 1947. The Tigers have the third-highest all-time CWS winning percentage (minimum 20 games) -- LSU has a 29-13 (.691) CWS mark, trailing Southern California (74-26, .740) and Minnesota (17-7, .708).

LSU has the highest all-time NCAA Tournament winning percentage (.734) with a 94-34 record. Remarkably, LSU has a 23-5 record in championship rounds of NCAA post-season play. The Tigers are 5-0 in CWS finals, 17-

1 in NCAA Regional final rounds and 1-4 in NCAA Super Regional final rounds.

The Tigers have won more College World Series games (29) than any other Southeastern Conference school. South Carolina is second among league schools with 13 CWS triumphs. LSU is the only SEC squad with 11 CWS trips; Mississippi State is second with seven all-time CWS berths. Since 1986, while LSU has made 11 CWS appearances, no other SEC school has reached Omaha more than four times. Other league schools in the CWS since '86 are Florida (four appearances), Mississippi State (three), Alabama (three), Georgia (three), Arkansas (two), Auburn (two), Tennessee (two) and South Carolina (one).

LSU claimed six Southeastern Conference championships in the 1990s, including an unprecedented four in a row from 1990-93. In 1997, the Tigers claimed their sixth SEC title in eight years, posting a 22-7 conference mark. The conference championship was the 12th in LSU's history and the seventh during Skip Bertman's tenure.

LSU has finished either first or second in the overall conference standings in 11 of the past 14 years. LSU has won six SEC Tournament crowns (1986, '90, '92, '93, '94, 2000), and the Tigers are the only SEC team to have appeared in every conference tournament since 1985.

In 1993, LSU became the first team in Southeastern Conference history to win four straight league titles. The '93 Tigers, who registered an 18-8-1 SEC mark, clinched the overall championship by winning the SEC Western Division Tournament title in Alex Box Stadium. LSU defeated Mississippi State, 7-3, in the final game after battling out of the tournament losers' bracket. In 1992, LSU became the first league team to win three straight championships since Alabama in 1940, '41 and '42. Alabama also won three straight from 1934-36 and is the only other school with three consecutive titles since the SEC began recognizing a champion in 1933.

LSU has reached the 50-win plateau eight times in the past 14 years. LSU posted five consecutive 50-win seasons from 1989-93. No other Southeastern Conference team has had more than two consecutive 50-win campaigns. LSU in 1997 established the SEC record for most wins (57) in a season, breaking its own previous league mark of 55 set in 1986, 1989 and 1991. While LSU has nine 50-win seasons in its annals, no other SEC school has more than four 50-win campaigns in its history.

LSU made its first-ever CWS appearance in 1986, when the Tigers finished fifth with a 1-2 record. LSU lost its CWS debut, 4-3, to Loyola-Marymount before rebounding with its first Series win, an 8-4 triumph over Maine. The Tigers were then eliminated by defending CWS champion Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

LSU returned to Omaha in 1987, marking the first time a Southeastern Conference team made back-to-back CWS appearances. The Tigers placed fourth in '87 with a 2-2 mark, as LSU was eliminated when Stanford's Paul Carey sent a Ben McDonald pitch over the left-field wall with the bases loaded in the ninth inning to give the Cardinal a 6-5 win.

After an incredible two-game sweep of top-ranked Texas A&M -- the Aggies entered the regional final round with a 58-5 record -- in the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, LSU joined the 1989 CWS field, placing in a tie for third with a 2-2 record. In 1990, the Tigers again emerged from an NCAA regional tournament losers' bracket to earn a CWS berth, as LSU captured the South I Regional at Baton Rouge with two scintillating one-run wins over Southern California. LSU finished in a tie for third at the '90 CWS, recording a 2-2 mark in the summer classic.

LSU claimed its first NCAA championship in 1991 as the Tigers decimated the CWS field, outscoring their opponents 48-15 in four games. LSU, which won the SEC regular-season title for the second straight year, became the first team since 1982 to win the national championship without a loss in the NCAA Tournament -- the Tigers won four consecutive games in both the NCAA South Regional and the College World Series. LSU's domination in Omaha was evidenced by the fact that the Tigers set CWS team records for most runs per game (12), highest fielding percentage (.993), highest slugging percentage (.603) and most home runs (nine).

LSU returned to Omaha in 1993 for another national championship crusade as the Tigers posted a 4-1 CWS mark, including an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the final. Perhaps more memorable than the championship contest was LSU's 6-5 victory over Long Beach State in the CWS semi-finals, as the Tigers scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning for the win. LSU, which won the SEC for an unprecedented fourth straight year, advanced to the CWS by capturing the NCAA South Regional championship at Alex Box Stadium, which played host to a regional tournament for the fourth consecutive year.

In 1994, LSU became the first defending national champion to return to the CWS since Stanford accomplished the feat in 1988. The Tigers earned the CWS berth with four straight wins in the NCAA South Regional at Baton Rouge, including a thrilling 12-10 triumph over Southern California in the regional final. However, for the only time in its CWS history, LSU went "two-and-out" in Omaha, as the Tigers dropped consecutive decisions to Florida State and Cal State-Fullerton.

In 1996, LSU played host to an NCAA regional tournament for the seventh straight year, and the Tigers swept to four wins over Austin Peay, Nevada-Las Vegas, New Orleans and Georgia Tech to advance to the CWS. LSU also won four straight in Omaha, defeating Wichita State, Florida (twice), and Miami (Fla.). The championship game versus Miami provided the greatest finish in the 50-year history of the CWS as LSU second baseman Warren Morris launched a two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Tigers an electrifying 9-8 triumph.

In 1997, the Tigers played host to the NCAA South I Regional, defeating North Carolina-Greensboro and Oklahoma in their first two games before suffering a third-round loss to South Alabama. The Tigers rebounded for a thrilling 14-7, 11-inning triumph over Long Beach State before posting a double-header sweep over South Alabama (14-4 and 15-4) to claim the regional crown. For the second straight year, the Tigers went 4-0 in the College World Series, defeating Rice (5-4), Stanford (10-5 and 13-9) and Alabama (13-6). LSU became the first team to win back-to-back national titles without losing a CWS game. The only other teams to win consecutive national championships are Stanford (1987-88), Southern California (1970-71-72-73-74) and Texas (1949-50).

The 1998 LSU squad earned the Tigers' seventh CWS berth of the '90s by capturing the NCAA South II Regional title in Baton Rouge with victories over Nicholls State (18-4), Southwestern Louisiana (15-6) and Cal

Ben McDonald received the 1989 Golden Spikes Award as the nation's best amateur baseball player.

188

Home runs by the Tigers in their 1997 National Championship season

The total was an NCAA record, shattering the previous mark of 161 set in 1988 by Brigham Young. LSU hit at least one home run in all 70 of its 1997 games.

State-Fullerton (13-11 and 14-3). LSU defeated Southern California (12-10) and Mississippi State (10-8) in its first two CWS games, increasing the Tigers' Series winning streak to 10 games over three years. However, LSU suffered back-to-back losses to Southern Cal (5-4 and 7-3), and the Trojans advanced to the national championship game, where they defeated Arizona State.

LSU earned its 11th CWS trip in 15 seasons in 2000, as the Tigers played host to and won both an NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional. The Tigers defeated Jackson State and Louisiana-Monroe (twice) in the regional before sweeping two super regional games from UCLA to claim the ticket to Omaha. LSU then posted four straight victories in the CWS, securing the national title with wins over Texas (13-5), Southern California (10-4), Florida State (6-3) and Stanford (6-5). The Tigers completed the year with a perfect 13-0 post-season mark, as LSU also won four straight games in capturing the SEC Tournament crown.

The Tigers were 89-29 (.754) in NCAA post-season play during coach Skip Bertman's 18-year tenure and have won 66 of their last 84 tournament games, including 22 of their last 27 CWS contests. LSU has also won 64 of its last 81 games in NCAA Regional or Super Regional play. LSU has advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 14 consecutive seasons and in 17 of the past 18 years. Of LSU's 17 NCAA Tournament appearances since 1985, the Tigers have failed to reach the College World Series only six times (1985, 1992, 1995, 1999, 2001, 2002).

LSU first qualified for NCAA regional play in 1975, when the Tigers posted a 1-2 mark at the South Regional in Starkville, Miss. In 1985 -- the Tigers' first NCAA appearance under Skip Bertman -- LSU dropped two consecutive games at the Central Regional in Austin, Texas, before advancing to its first College World Series a year later with a four-game sweep through the 1986 South I Regional field in Baton Rouge, La. The Tigers returned to Omaha in 1987 after taking four straight games at the South II Regional in New Orleans, La. After failing to receive an NCAA bid in 1988, LSU won five of six games at the 1989 Central Regional in College Station, Texas, to secure its third CWS berth in four years. LSU earned its fourth berth to the CWS in 1990 as the Tigers took five of six games at the South I Regional in Baton Rouge.

In 1991, LSU posted four straight victories at the South Regional in Baton Rouge to set the stage for its national title drive in Omaha. In 1992, LSU played host to an NCAA Regional for the third straight year; however, the Tigers were eliminated in the South I semifinal by Cal State-Fullerton. The loss marked the first time since 1985 LSU did not win a regional after receiving an NCAA Tournament bid. In 1993, after a second-round loss to Kent State University, LSU won three straight NCAA South Regional games to earn its sixth CWS trip. The Tigers defeated South Alabama, 9-4, in the regional final.

The Tigers played host to an NCAA Regional for the fifth straight season in 1994, as LSU defeated Southeastern Louisiana, Fresno State and Southern California (twice) to earn another trip to Omaha. Alex Box Stadium again served as the host site for an NCAA tournament in 1995, as the Tigers participated in the South Regional, finishing third behind champion Cal State-Fullerton and runner-up Rice. In 1996, LSU captured the South II Regional crown in Alex Box Stadium, defeating Georgia Tech, 29-13, in the championship game. The contest featured a record-setting seventh inning in which LSU scored 18 runs on 13 hits with 17 consecutive Tiger batters reaching base.

In 1997, the Tigers claimed the South I regional title in Baton Rouge, defeating South Alabama twice (14-4 and 15-4) on the tournament's final day. LSU hit .339 (82-for-242) in its six regional games, outscoring the opposition 76-29 while unloading 20 home runs. In 1998, the Tigers swept four games in the NCAA South II Regional at Baton Rouge, including two wins over former post-season nemesis Cal State-Fullerton. LSU hit .406 in the tournament while launching 20 homers in regional play for the second straight year.

In 1999, LSU claimed the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional as the Tigers emerged from the losers' bracket and posted consecutive victories over East Carolina. LSU advanced to the NCAA Super Regional in Tuscaloosa, Ala., where the Tigers dropped consecutive decisions to Alabama to end their post-season drive.

The 2000 Tigers played host to both a regional and super regional, marking the 11th straight year Alex Box Stadium served as a site for NCAA post-season play. The Tigers blitzed Jackson State (19-1) and Louisiana-Monroe (21-0, 5-3) to win the regional, and LSU overwhelmed UCLA (8-2, 14-8) in the super regional. In its five regional/super regional games, the Tigers hit .366 (70-for-192) with 18 doubles, one triple and 11 homers.

The 2001 Tigers captured LSU's sixth straight NCAA Regional championship with a 14-9 title-game victory over Virginia Commonwealth in Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers advanced to NCAA Super Regional play against Tulane at Zephyr Field in Metairie, La., where the teams played three games before sell-out crowds of nearly 12,000 per contest. LSU won a 13-inning thriller, 4-

3, in Game 1, before the Green Wave rebounded for consecutive victories (9-4 and 7-1) to earn Tulane's first trip to the CWS.

The 2002 Tigers claimed LSU's seventh consecutive NCAA Regional crown, defeating Louisiana-Lafayette twice (by identical 12-2 scores) on the tournament's final day in Alex Box Stadium. LSU advanced to the NCAA Super Regional at Rice University, where the Owls blanked the Tigers twice (6-0 and 3-0) to capture the CWS bid.

Former LSU pitcher Ben McDonald, a right-hander from Denham Springs, La., capped a magnificent 1989 season by receiving the Golden Spikes Award, given by the United States Baseball Federation to the nation's most outstanding amateur player. McDonald, the consensus College Player of the Year, was the first player chosen in the free-agent amateur draft and made his major league debut with the Baltimore Orioles in September, 1989.

McDonald, who set an LSU career mark with 373 Ks, established Southeastern Conference standards for single-season strikeouts (202), innings pitched (152.1) and consecutive scoreless innings (44.2). A two-time All-American and a 1988 Olympic gold medalist, he finished his LSU career with a 29-14 record and a 3.24 ERA.

Lloyd Peever, a right-handed pitcher from Stonewall, Okla., was named the 1992 National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine. Peever, one of nine finalists for the 1992 Golden Spikes Award, was named first-team All-America by Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association. He finished the season with a 14-0 record and a 1.98 ERA in 104.2 innings, and he became the first SEC pitcher to post 14 straight wins in one year. Peever signed with the expansion Colorado Rockies in 1992 after being selected in the fourth round of the major league draft.

LSU first baseman Eddy Furniss culminated a sterling four-year career by receiving the 1998 Dick Howser Trophy as college baseball's most outstanding player. Furniss finished his career as the SEC's all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He is also No. 1 on the LSU career list for slugging percentage (.727) and walks (191). In NCAA annals, Furniss finished his career No. 3 all-time in total bases, No. 4 in home runs and doubles, and No. 5 in RBI. The Nacogdoches, Texas, native -- who posted a .371 lifetime batting average -- hit .403 in 1998 with 27 doubles, three triples, 28 homers, 85 runs and 76 RBI, earning First-Team All-America and all-SEC honors. He was also voted a second-team Academic all-American with a 3.5 gpa in zoology.

In 1997, Furniss helped lead LSU to its second straight NCAA title, earning second-team all-America and all-SEC recognition and first-team Academic all-America honors. He batted .377 with 25 doubles, 17 homers and 77 RBI.

Furniss, a 1996 consensus first-team all-American, was voted the '96 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year after batting .374 (89-for-238) with a school-record 26 homers and an SEC-record 103 RBI. Furniss, whose home run and RBI totals were the best in the nation, also was named a second-team Academic all-American with a 3.7 gpa in zoology. Furniss became the third LSU player in four years to be named SEC Player of the Year (Todd Walker was the '93 recipient and Russ Johnson was the '94 honoree).

Todd Walker was voted in 1996 as the second baseman on the College World Series All-Time Team by the readers of the Omaha

World-Herald. Walker completed a brilliant three-year LSU career in 1994 as he became the SEC's all-time leader in hits (310), runs (234), RBI (246) and total bases (557). Walker, a native of Bossier City, La., was a 1994 finalist for the Golden Spikes Award and the Smith Award, as he batted .393 with 18 homers and 68 RBI. A consensus '94 All-American, he was also named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA South Regional, and he was selected to the College World Series All-Tournament team. Walker finished his career as LSU's all-time leader in hits, runs, RBI, total bases, home runs (52), doubles (61), triples (15) and batting average (.396).

Lyle Mouton (21), catcher Gary Hymel and the Tigers won LSU's first NCAA championship in 1991 with a victory over Wichita State in the CWS.

In 1993, Walker led LSU to the national championship as he was named the Most Outstanding Player of the College World Series and the SEC Player of the Year. Walker batted .350 in the CWS with three homers and 12 RBI. On the year, he hit .395 with 22 homers while establishing single-season SEC records for RBI (102), total bases (214) and hitting streak (33 games). Walker, a 1993 consensus first-team All-American and a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, also set the LSU career RBI mark with 178 in only two seasons.

Walker was named the 1992 National Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball and by Baseball America. He enjoyed a phenomenal rookie season, batting .400 with 12 homers and an SEC-high 76 RBI. Walker also led the conference in runs (72) and total bases (163), and he became the first player in LSU annals to hit .400 in a single season. Along with being a first-team Freshman All-American, Walker was named second-team All-America by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America.

Shortstop Russ Johnson was named the 1994 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year after enjoying one of the best seasons in LSU annals. Johnson, a native of Denham Springs, La., batted .410 -- the highest single-season average in school history -- with 17 homers and 74 RBI. He led the SEC in doubles (26 -- an LSU record), walks (67) and on-base percentage (.532), and he completed his three-year career with a .367 lifetime batting average.

Johnson was named a 1994 first-team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, and he was voted Louisiana Collegiate Player of the Year by the La. Sportswriters Association. He was also selected as the Most Outstanding Player of the SEC Western Division Tournament, and he was named to the NCAA South Regional All-Tournament team. A Freshman All-America selection in 1992, Johnson finished his career in second place on the all-time LSU lists for runs (216), RBI (181), batting average (.367), doubles (60) and total bases (445).

Pitcher Brett Laxton was named the 1993 National Freshman of the Year by Baseball America and the National Co-Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball, marking the second straight season an LSU player received such an honor (Todd Walker was the 1992 recipient). Laxton posted a 12-1 record and an SEC-best 1.98 ERA with five complete games, 98 strikeouts and 47 walks in 109 innings. He pitched a three-hit shutout in the CWS title contest against Wichita State, establishing a World Series championship game record by fanning 16 Shockers. A native of Audubon, N.J., Laxton earned first-team All-America and first-team All-Southeastern Conference recognition.

Shortstop Brandon Larson in 1997 became only the fourth player in NCAA history to hit 40 home runs. The consensus all-American from San Antonio, Texas, enjoyed a phenomenal season, batting .381 with SEC-record totals of 40 homers, 118 RBI and 250 total bases. Larson was named the Most Outstanding Player of the '97 CWS, leading LSU to the national title by hitting .368 (7-for-19) with three homers, eight RBI and six runs. Larson, a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Reds, established the LSU mark for most hits in a season (110), and he was named the Louisiana Collegiate Player of the Year.

Catcher Brad Cresse was a 2000 first-team all-America selection, as he led the nation in home runs (30) and RBI (106). Cresse, a native of Seal Beach, Calif., was named the 2000 recipient of the Johnny Bench National Collegiate Catcher of the Year award, and he was a finalist for the 2000 Golden Spikes Award.

Cresse, the fifth-round selection by the Arizona Diamondbacks in the 2000 major league draft, helped lead LSU to the 2000 national title by hitting .388 (106-for-273) with 21 doubles, 30 homers, 106 RBI, 73 runs, 217 total bases and a .790 slugging percentage. He provided the game-winning RBI in the 2000 national championship game versus Stanford, as his single in the bottom of the ninth inning scored shortstop Ryan Theriot from second base to give LSU a 6-5 win.

Cresse completed his career in second place on the SEC all-time HR list with 78 round-trippers, trailing Eddy Furniss, who hit 80 homers for LSU from 1995-98. Cresse ranked No. 2 in LSU career RBI with 257; Furniss was No. 1 with 308 RBI.

Second baseman Mike Fontenot was named 2000 National Freshman of the Year by The Sporting News and by Collegiate Baseball. Fontenot, a Slidell, La., native, became the third LSU player to earn freshman of the year accolades, following second baseman Todd Walker (1992) and pitcher Brett Laxton (1993). Fontenot, who was also voted the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches, helped lead LSU to the 2000 national championship, as he batted .353 (103-for-292) with 13 doubles, three triples, 17 homers, 93 runs (SEC leader) and 64 RBI. He posted a .452 on-base percentage and stole eight bases in nine attempts. His 17 homers set the LSU freshman HR record formerly held by Blair Barbier (15 HR in 1997).

Fontenot was LSU's leading hitter in the College World Series, as he batted .462 (6-for-13) with two doubles, one homer, two RBI, six runs and five walks, earning CWS all-tournament honors.

He was also the Tigers' top hitter in nine NCAA Tournament games, batting .432 (16-for-37) with four doubles, two homers, nine RBI, eight walks and 13 runs.

Pitcher Lane Mestepey was voted the 2001 National Co-Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball. Mestepey, a left-hander from Zachary, La., shared the honor with Wake Forest first baseman Jamie D'Antona. Mestepey emerged as the Tigers' No. 1 pitcher during the 2001 season, posting an 11-3 record and a 3.75 ERA with 79 strikeouts and 37 walks in 139.1 innings. He was voted first-team all-SEC and SEC Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches.

Mestepey also earned third-team all-America honors from Collegiate Baseball, and he was voted to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional all-tournament team.

Mestepey became the fourth LSU player to earn National Freshman of the Year recognition. The others are second baseman Todd Walker (1992), pitcher Brett Laxton (1993) and second baseman Mike Fontenot (2000).

Forty-four former LSU players have played major league baseball, including 30 big-leaguers since 1985. During his 18 years at LSU, Skip Bertman produced 111 players who signed professional contracts. Thirteen Bertman-coached LSU products played major league baseball in 2002, including Mark Guthrie (Mets), Russ Johnson (Devil Rays), Andy Sheets (Devil Rays), Todd Walker (Reds), Keith Osik (Pirates), Paul Byrd (Royals), Jeff Reboulet (Dodgers), Armando Rios (Pirates), Warren Morris (Twins), Brandon Larson (Reds), Kurt Ainsworth (Giants), Brian Tallet (Indians) and Trey Hodges (Braves).

LSU has established an outstanding international reputation with representatives on each of the last four U.S. Olympic squads (1988, '92, '96, 2000). Skip Bertman served as the head coach of the United States Olympic team in 1996, directing the Americans to the bronze medal in Atlanta. As the USA Baseball head coach for two summers (1995 and '96), Bertman guided the U.S. to an incredible 71-11 record (.866 winning percentage), culminating his tenure with a victory over Nicaragua for the 1996 Olympic bronze medal.

In 1995, Bertman led the United States to an unprecedented four-game sweep of Cuba, the reigning World and Olympic champion, and the squad ended its summer tour on a 21-game win streak, the longest in the history of USA Baseball. The '96 U.S. team added to the streak by winning its first 18 games before dropping a 5-1 decision to Cuba on June 29.

In the fall of '96, USA Baseball presented Bertman with its annual Achievement Award, which is given to an individual who has participated in amateur baseball and has gone on to excel in his professional endeavors.

LSU second baseman Warren Morris and shortstop Jason Williams were two of the '96 Olympic team's brightest stars as the starting middle infielders. Morris was the Americans' leading hitter in the Olympics, batting .409 in nine games with five homers, one double, 11 RBI and 10 runs. Williams batted .367 in the Olympics with three homers, nine RBI and 10 runs.

Bertman served as the pitching coach of the 1988 U.S. Olympic team which captured a gold medal in Seoul. The '88 squad featured Alex Box Stadium has played host to an NCAA Regional Tournament for 13 straight years.

LSU has led the nation in attendance in each of the past seven seasons. The Tigers drew an average of 7,532 fans to Alex Box Stadium in 2002.

LSU pitcher Ben McDonald, who posted two Olympic victories. LSU pitcher Rick Greene was a member of the '92 Olympic team which competed in Barcelona, but fell short of earning a medal. LSU pitcher Kurt Ainsworth helped lead the U.S. to the gold medal at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney. Ainsworth pitched the Americans to wins over Holland and Australia en route to the Olympic title.

LSU led the nation in attendance in 2002, as 271,159 fans purchased tickets for games in Alex Box Stadium, which played host to an NCAA Regional tournament for the 13th consecutive year. LSU placed first in total attendance for the seventh year in a row in a national survey released by Collegiate Baseball magazine, as an average of 7,532 fans witnessed Tiger baseball in 2002. The Tigers have finished among the top six nationally in attendance in each of the past 12 seasons. Over two million fans have seen LSU baseball over the past 19 seasons. A total of 2,858,628 patrons have experienced "Baseball at the Box" during that period.

LSU's single-game attendance mark was established in 2000 when 8,622 fans jammed "The Box" for an April 11 game against Louisiana-Lafayette.

Innovative promotional schemes, record-breaking crowds and increasing revenues characterize LSU's baseball program. In 1983, the year before Skip Bertman's arrival as head coach, LSU drew only 10,002 fans for 22 dates at Alex Box Stadium, an average of 454 per game.

First-class is an appropriate description for LSU's playing and practice facilities, which are among the nation's finest. The latest improvement at Alex Box Stadium was the installation in 1999 of bleachers in left-center field, increasing capacity by about 800 seats. The stadium scoreboard was moved in the fall of 1998 from left-center field to right-center to make room for the new bleachers. A major renovation project was completed at Alex Box Stadium in 1997, as four of the facility's light towers were moved behind the seating areas, providing all fans with an unobstructed view of the playing field.

In 1995, a squad meeting room was constructed which is also utilized for press conferences and receptions. The 1995 campaign also marked the debut of the "Home Run Village," a seating/picnic area behind the outfield fence. In 1994, the players' locker room and lounge were renovated and expanded, additional chair-back gold seats were installed, and the press box was refurbished. In 1993, Alex Box Stadium featured a new, advanced outfield drainage system. In 1992, the facility included a new umpires' locker room behind the visiting team dugout, terrace-level seating just above third base and bleachers behind the left-field wall.

Other improvements completed in recent years include the installation of a new grandstand roof, the insertion of chair-back seats in the grandstand and adjacent to the first-base dugout, and the addition of playground/picnic areas behind the outfield-line bleachers.

Alex Box Stadium also features a modern scoreboard and message center, an underground field sprinkler system, modernized restroom and concessions facilities and a beautifully landscaped entranceway. Other significant projects include the installation of luminous field lighting and a state-of-the-art public address system, and construction of a coaches' office building.

The coaching staff's influence on LSU Baseball goes beyond the Tigers' achievements on the playing field. The primary ingredient in the Tigers' winning formula is a commitment to the education and emotional development of the players. LSU's steadfast emphasis on academics has produced exceptional results. Nearly 100 percent of the players who competed for at least four years at LSU have received their degrees. In addition, student-athletes who leave the university early to play professional baseball often return at a later time to earn their degrees. For example, pitcher Clay Parker, who completed his athletic eligibility in 1984, received his LSU degree in 1995 after enjoying a lengthy major league career. Boston Red Sox second baseman Todd Walker, who signed a pro contract in 1994, received a business degree from LSU in the fall of 1998.

Thirty-six former baseball players have earned LSU degrees over the past three years.

In December, 1999, five Tigers became LSU graduates -- pitchers Doug Thompson and Kevin Shipp, outfielders Danny Higgins and Wes Davis, and infielder Mike Neal. Twelve more former Tigers earned degrees in the 2000 calendar year -- pitchers Matt Colvin, Trey Hodges, Jeremy Loftice and Ben Saxon, outfielders Tom Bernhardt, Mike Koerner, Jeremy Witten, Christian Bourgeois and Antoine Simon, and infielders Mike Daly, Josh Dalton and Eddy Furniss. Infielder Trey McClure, a three-time team captain (1997-99), received his LSU degree in May, 2001.

Former Tigers earning degrees from May-December, 2002 include: infielders Blair Barbier and Jeff Leaumont; outfielders David Raymer, Bryon Bennett, Johnnie Thibodeaux, Tommy Morel and Christian Bourgeois (master's degree); catchers Jamin Garidel, Courtney Hernandez and Kevin Ward (MBA); and pitchers Billy Brian, Justin Hill, Weylin Guidry, Tim Nugent, Patrick Coogan, Barry Manuel, David Miller, Chucky Son and Bhrett McCabe (Ph.D in psychology).

LSU placed six players on the 2002 SEC Academic Honor Roll. The honorees included pitcher Brad David (3.1 gpa in management), pitcher David Miller (3.1 gpa in civil engineering), pitcher Tim Nugent (3.2 gpa in general business), third baseman Wally Pontiff (3.3 gpa in biology), pitcher Justin Hill (3.5 gpa in general studies) and pitcher Chad Vaught (3.5 gpa in zoology). Pontiff was named to the 2002 GTE/CoSIDA District VI Academic all-America team.

Former LSU first baseman Eddy Furniss was named a 1997 first-team Academic all-American by GTE-CoSIDA, and he received second-team Academic all-America recognition in 1996 and 1998. LSU's other Academic all-America selections include pitcher Chris Demouy (third-team, 1996), second baseman Warren Morris (first-team, 1995) and catcher Tim Lanier (third-team, 1994).

The scholastic progress of the players is closely monitored by both the coaching staff and by the counselors in LSU's Academic Center for Athletes. Monthly reports are sent to the players' parents detailing the athletes' educational and social advancement. Study sessions and exams always take precedence when conflicting with a baseball practice schedule.

Major leaguer Warren Morris a 1995 Academic All-American, was one of 13 former LSU players appearing on 2002 major league rosters.

Alex Box Stadium

Alex Box Stadium, the home of the LSU Fighting Tigers, has a storied history which spans several decades. Always known as an excellent facility, recent efforts to upgrade the stadium have made it comparable to that of most professional minor-league clubs.

Last season, the Tigers drew 271,179 fans to Alex Box Stadium as LSU finished first in the nation in overall attendance for the seventh straight year.

LSU has been among the nation's attendance leaders for the past 12 seasons, finishing No. 5 in 1991, No. 6 in 1992, No. 4 in 1993, No. 3 in 1994 and 1995, and No. 1 in 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002.

Over the past 19 seasons, the Tigers attracted nearly three million fans to Alex Box Stadium. A total of 2,858,648 patrons have watched the Tigers play at "The Box" since 1984.

The stadium is recognized both for its old-fashioned charm and for its modern renovations. Since 1985, it has been the site of four Southeastern Conference tournaments, 14 NCAA regional tournaments, one NCAA super regional series and one ABCA Hall of Fame tournament. Each year, "The Box" undergoes facility-improvement projects designed to enhance the comfort and enjoyment of LSU baseball fans.

Prior to the 1999 season, the stadium scoreboard was moved from left-center field to right-center field. Bleachers were then installed in left-center field, increasing seating capacity by approximately 800.

Visitors to Alex Box Stadium in 1998 had for the first time the opportunity to enjoy a concessions/picnic area behind the right-field bleachers, complementing a similar facility behind the left-field bleachers.

A major renovation project was completed at Alex Box Stadium in 1997, as two of the facility's light towers were moved behind the seating areas in order to give all fans an unobstructed view of the playing field. The project began in April, 1996, when two of the four light towers were moved. The remaining two towers were moved in February, 1997.

The "Intimidator" billboard depicting LSU's NCAA titles was unveiled in Alex Box Stadium prior to the '97 season. It stands above the right field wall as a testament to LSU's baseball excellence. Some of the other recent additions to the stadium include a players' meeting room which can also be utilized as a facility for receptions and press conferences, and a "Home Run Village" parking area behind the outfield fence which allows fans to tailgate before and during games. A new outfield fence was installed in 1995 with a 15-foot hitters' backdrop in center field.

In 1994, "The Box" featured a freshly renovated and expanded players' locker room and lounge, along with a refurbished press box and additional chair-back seats in the grandstand. In 1993, an advanced outfield drainage system was installed along with additional bleacher seating behind first base.

In 1992, the stadium featured the installation of expanded chair-back gold seats, an umpires' dressing room, terrace-level seating above the third-base dugout and bleachers behind the left-field wall. Renovations for the 1991 season included the installation of a new grandstand roof and the construction of a playground/picnic area behind the left-field bleachers.

The stadium began to resemble its present form with the arrival in 1983 of Skip Bertman. In 1985, the Tigers' locker room was given a facelift, and a fully-equipped training room, a coaches' dressing room and a players' lounge were installed.

Larger dugouts were constructed in 1986 along with a new outfield fence. The press box was expanded, and the stadium's right field fence was moved to make room for additional bleachers. In 1987, the stadium's restroom facilities were enlarged, and a new concessions stand was built beneath the grandstand.

"The Box" also features a modern scoreboard and message center, a state-of-the-art sound system, luminous field lighting, an underground field sprinkler system, a beautifully landscaped entranceway and spacious restroom facilities.

Originally a 2,500-seat facility, the concrete and steel grandstand of Alex Box Stadium was completed in 1938. Funding came from the Works Progress Administration, a federally sponsored agency which constructed public athletic facilities, among other such projects.

In its first two years, Alex Box Stadium was the site of spring training for the New York Giants. Such legendary baseball figures as Mel Ott, Carl Hubbell, Bill Terry and Dick Bartell were on hand with the Giants.

Alex Box

(1920-1943)

LSU's baseball stadium was named in 1943 for Alex Box, a letterman on the 1942 team. Box was killed while fighting in North Africa during World War II.

Siméon Alex Box was born August 5, 1920, in Quitman, Miss., and attended George S. Gardiner High School in Laurel, Miss. Box came to LSU in 1938 and majored in petroleum engineering. He also played football and baseball, served as vice president of the junior class in engineering and was a member of several professional societies.

Box pursued his advanced ROTC studies in the engineering regiment. A handsome, popular figure on campus, he met and developed a close relationship with Earle Hubert, an attractive member of Delta Zeta sorority from Plaquemine, La. They had an understanding that she would complete her elementary education degree while he was serving in the military; then, they would later marry. Tragically, the terrors of warfare changed those plans.

After being commissioned in the U.S. Army, Box made short stops at camps in Florida and Pennsylvania and went on to England in August, 1942. He was posted to the First Infantry Division, called the "Big Red One" in North Africa. Lieutenant Box, a tank commander, displayed his heroism on November 9, 1942, when he risked his life in helping destroy six enemy machine gun nests and an artillery emplacement near Arcole, Algeria. His brave acts earned him the Distinguished Service Cross, the Army's second-highest decoration.

Only two months later, there was a fierce battle in Tunisia, and Box's tank was shredded by a German mine. He was killed instantly on February 19, 1943, at the age of 22. Brigadier General Theodore Roosevelt wrote a letter of condolence to Box's mother, Mattie, saying "the deeds and death of your son have gone to make up the spiritual background that is this country."

Laurel, Miss., superintendent of schools R.H. Watkins eulogized Box as a "perfect example of an athlete, a Christian gentleman, a scholar and a soldier . . . His beautiful life may be compared to a great piece of music which ends on a high note."

On the LSU campus, there was a spontaneous movement that spring to commemorate his sacrifice in some tangible way. At its May meeting, the LSU Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to name the baseball stadium for Box. That was considered such an unusual decision that the student newspaper, The Reville, observed, "For the first time in the school's history, the service and memory of the military hero came to be esteemed so highly that a structure on the campus was named in his honor."

The Box family made a special presentation of Alex's personal memorabilia to LSU during the 1991 baseball season. The memorabilia, enclosed in a specially-constructed glass case, is permanently housed in the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame and Museum.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 142-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world through extensive multipurpose programs encompassing instruction, research and public service. The University continuously develops programs of breadth and quality that make it one of the nation's outstanding educational institutions.

The University influences the educational, economic, social and cultural lives of its citizens throughout the state – indeed, in some way, it touches the life of every person in Louisiana.

Because of its designation as a Research I University – the top category of the Carnegie Foundation's ranking of research institutions – LSU ranks in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. The Research I designation is shared by only 59 public and 29 private universities across the nation. One of only 25 universities nationwide designated as both a land-grant and sea-grant college, LSU is also actively pursuing space-grant status.

History and tradition began with LSU's founding in 1853 by the General Assembly of Louisiana as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy near Pineville, Louisiana. The institution opened January 2, 1860. When the Civil War began, the school's first superintendent, William Tecumseh Sherman, resigned to assume a command in the Union Army. Fire demolished the Seminary in 1869 and the school moved to Baton Rouge.

In 1870, the Seminary was renamed Louisiana State University. In 1874, under the United States Morrill Act, the Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans. The two institutions were merged by the Legislature in 1877 to become Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College.

Construction on the present campus began in 1922 and the first classes were held in 1926. LSU experienced major growth in the 1930s and 1940s, expanding its student body, curricula and services. During the 1960s, the University began to place increasing emphasis on research.

Recognizing the importance and extent of statewide agricultural activities of units in the LSU System, the LSU Board of Supervisors in 1972 established the Center for Agricultural Sciences & Rural Development. This unit was renamed the LSU Agricultural Center in 1982. Components of the LSU Agricultural Center include the Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station, the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service, International Programs and Administrative Services.

The primary mission of the LSU Agricultural Center is to conduct research in agricultural and natural resource development and to provide off-campus extension education that disseminates technological, economic, and management information to Louisiana residents.

In 1977, the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, established as the LSU Law School in 1906, was made an autonomous division of the LSU System. The Law Center provides legal education characterized by an unyielding demand for academic excellence. Its unique curriculum, based on civil law as well as substantial elements of common law, provides law graduates with qualifications and training for not one, but two legal systems.

LSU, located on more than 2,000 acres in the southern part of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is bordered on the west by the Mississippi River. The University's more than 250 principal buildings are grouped on a 650-acre plateau that constitutes the main part of the campus.

LSU and A&M College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The Hebert Law Center holds membership in the Association of Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association.

Student Recreational Sports Complex

The Student Recreational Sports Complex houses the administrative offices of the Division of Recreational Sports. This 112,000 square-foot, $8.4 million facility, which was completed in August 1992, provides students and the University community with a comprehensive and innovative sports facility that includes:

- 25-YARD EIGHT-LANE INDOOR SWIMMING POOL WITH SUN DECK
- FIVE BASKETBALL COURTS
- FIVE VOLLEYBALL COURTS
- NINE BADMINTON COURTS
- TWELVE HANDBALL/RACQUETBALL COURTS

Academic Center Expansion

Paramount to the success of the “student” half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom. For more than 20 years, the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Academic Center for Student Athletes has undergone a $15 million renovation that will not only keep it among the nation’s premier centers – but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services. Renovations were completed in November of 2002.

What is CHAMPS?

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!

How can CHAMPS help?

By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS Program not only assists the student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but also enhances student-athlete's growth in their college years and beyond.

CHAMPS at LSU

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program at LSU is operated out of the Academic Center for Athletes, and the focus of the program is on five commitments viewed as critical to personal growth:

- I. Academic Excellence
- II. Athletic Excellence
- III. Career Development
- IV. Personal Development
- V. Community Service

Student-Athlete Advisory Board

The Student-Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB) is made up of athletes that have been chosen by the coaches and/or athletes to represent that particular team.

The student-athletes attend regular meetings on their team's behalf and put forward the opinions and ideas for discussion that are brought to them from coaches and student-athletes. If there is an issue that is important, coaches and student-athletes are urged not to hesitate to inform their representative.

This year's President is men's basketball player Collis Temple III.

LSU CHAMPS Program Gets National Honor

The LSU CHAMPS life skills program, under the direction of Miriam Segar, was recently announced as one of five schools receiving the Program of Excellence award from the National Association of Athletic Directors.

A "Program of Excellence" award is designed to recognize Division IA athletics programs that have established student-athlete welfare as the cornerstone of their operating principles. In identifying LSU's CHAMPS program as a "Program of Excellence", the school had to show:

- ALL FIVE COMMITMENTS OF THE CHAMPS PROGRAM BE IN PLACE AND DEMONSTRATE BOTH SUBSTANCE AND LONGEVITY, I.E. THE PROGRAM EXISTS AS A TOTAL DEPARTMENTAL COMMITMENT AND IS A PART OF THE OPERATING PRINCIPLES OF THE ATHLETICS PROGRAM.
- GOALS AND OBJECTIVES ARE STATED FOR ALL COMPONENTS WHICH ARE DESIGNED TO ADDRESS THE NEEDS OF THE STUDENT-ATHLETES AND AN EVALUATION PROCESS IS DEFINED.
- STAFF AND BUDGETS ARE AVAILABLE TO SUPPORT ALL FIVE COMMITMENTS OF THE CHAMPS PROGRAM.
- THE PROGRAM SHOWS EVIDENCE OF MARKETING THE CHAMPS PROGRAM TO THE STUDENT-ATHLETES, STAFF, UNIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY.
- COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAMMING IS AVAILABLE TO ALL STUDENT-ATHLETES IN ALL FIVE AREAS OF THE CHAMPS PROGRAM.

Athletic Training

DR. MARTIN J. BROUSSARD CENTER FOR ATHLETIC TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete Athletic training facility in all of collegiate athletics. Focused on aggressive rehabilitation, the Broussard Center for Athletic Training is furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. Some of the features of the 23,000-square foot facility include an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as state of the art hydrotherapy pools. The Broussard Center for Athletic Training is equipped with the largest hydrotherapy pools in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, as well as on-site x-ray room. LSU is also the only school in college athletics with a training room equipped with a full-service vision center. The facility is named in honor of legendary trainer Dr. Martin J. Broussard, who served as LSU's athletic trainer for over four decades.

Strength and Conditioning

The LSU strength and conditioning facility was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment. Measuring 10,000-square feet, LSU has one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation.

The LSU strength and conditioning team took a new direction in 2000 under head strength coach Tommy Moffitt. Moffitt, who was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society, is in charge of the LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium.

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities.

Retired Numbers

The five men on this page are the only athletes/coaches to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., and No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal. Football's only retired jersey is the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon, while baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and current athletics director Skip Bertman.

LSU Greats

Bob Pettit, Jr. • #50

Led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame and in 1997 he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Billy Cannon • #20

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner that helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. The top-ranked Tigers trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter when Cannon fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards as the Tigers went on to win 7-3. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

Pete Maravich • #23

Nicknamed "Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. Maravich was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50+ points an amazing 28 times. After LSU he went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

Shaquille O'Neal • #33

Was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and the Finals MVP in 2000, 2001 and 2002 after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Skip Bertman • #15

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also skippered the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and is currently the LSU athletics director.

Steve Van Buren

A halfback for the Tigers from 1941-43, Van Buren was an All-SEC selection in 1943, helping LSU to an Orange Bowl victory. An NFL Hall of Famer who enjoyed an eight-year career with the Eagles.

Marie Ferdinand

The eighth pick overall in the 2001 WNBA draft by the Utah Starzz and a 2002 WNBA all-star. A First-Team All-American in 2000-01 and helped the Lady Tigers to the Elite Eight in 2000 and to the NCAA Tournament three times.

Y.A. Tittle

A standout quarterback for the Tigers from 1944-47. Tittle went on to a Hall of Fame NFL career spanning 15 seasons where he was selected NFL MVP on two occasions ('57 and '62).

Ben McDonald

Named National Player of the Year in 1989 and he was later the first player chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft by the Baltimore Orioles.

Jimmy Taylor

Tiger All-American fullback in 1957. Taylor became a Hall of Famer with the Green Bay Packers and was on both Super Bowl winners under Vince Lombardi.

Todd Walker

Capped his LSU career as the SEC's all-time leader in hits, runs, RBIs, and total bases. Walker, who is a member of the All-Time College World Series Team, led LSU to the national title in 1993.

Josh Reed

An All-American, Reed re-wrote both the LSU and SEC record books. The winner of the Biletnikoff Award in 2001, Reed finished his career with an SEC record 3,001 yards receiving.

David Toms

The two-time SEC Player of the Year, Toms has gone on to a successful career on the PGA Tour. Among his PGA Tour victories was a thrilling win at the PGA Championship in August of 2001.

Esther Jones

A 21-time All-American while at LSU. Won an Olympic gold medal in the 4x100 meter relay in Barcelona in 1992.

Walter Davis

A track Olympian in 2000, Davis helped LSU to national titles in 2001 and 2002. The SEC Male Athlete of the Year in 2002, he won six NCAA titles and earned a school-record nine All-America honors.

Peta-Gaye Dowdie

A 19-time track All-American. Dowdie was a member of three NCAA Championship teams during her time at LSU and went on to compete for her native Jamaica at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

Pat Henry

Has led the LSU track and field program to 23 national championships and 19 SEC titles. The only coach to win both men's and women's titles in the same year.

Wall of Honor

Pontiff, McDonald, Smith Receive Permanent Recognition of Their Achievements

Three of the finest men to wear an LSU baseball uniform - third baseman Wally Pontiff, pitcher Robbie Smith and pitcher Ben McDonald - are recognized on LSU's Wall of Honor, the center field wall of Alex Box Stadium. Their jersey numbers have been painted on the wall as permanent tributes to LSU student-athletes who brought esteem to the university through their exploits on the field, and through their accomplishments as vital citizens. Pontiff and Smith have been honored posthumously.

Pontiff died on July 24, 2002, in his parents' Metairie, La., home due to heart abnormalities.

A three-year letterman, the 21-year-old star was the designated hitter on LSU's 2000 NCAA championship team, and he was the Tigers' starting third baseman in 2001 and 2002. A biological sciences major with a 3.25 gpa, Pontiff was named to the 2002 District VI Academic all-America team, and he was a two-time of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

Pontiff was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the 21st round of the 2002 major league baseball draft. Prior to his death, he was considering a decision to either sign with the Athletics or return to LSU for his senior season.

As a freshman, Pontiff helped lead the Tigers to the 2000 national title, batting .347 with 20 doubles, seven homers and 45 RBI. He was voted the Most Outstanding Player of the 2000 SEC Tournament, and he was named an honorable mention Freshman all-American by Collegiate Baseball magazine.

Pontiff also hit .347 in 2001 with nine doubles, seven homers and 58 RBI. He earned first-team all-SEC recognition, and he was voted to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional all-tournament team. The Tigers reached the NCAA Super Regional round and completed the season ranked No. 9 in the country.

He batted .339 in 2002 with 20 doubles, six homers and 46 RBI, earning second-team all-SEC honors as the Tigers advanced to an NCAA Super Regional and finished No. 11 in the nation.

Pontiff completed the 2002 season on the LSU career Top 10 lists in three offensive categories -- hits (9th, 254), doubles (tied for 7th, 49) and batting average (10th, .344).

Prior to beginning his collegiate career, he was an honor roll student and all-state baseball player at Jesuit High School in New Orleans.

Pontiff is survived by his father Wally, Sr.; his mother, Terry; a younger sister, Haley; and a younger brother, Nicholas.

Pontiff's jersey number 31 will formally be unveiled on the Wall of Honor prior to LSU's 2003 season opener.

Robbie Smith served as team captain of the 1985 LSU squad that won the SEC Western Division title.

Wally Pontiff, a two-time all-SEC selection, helped lead LSU to the 2000 NCAA championship.

On February 13, 1999, Smith and McDonald were honored in a special Alex Box Stadium ceremony prior to the Tigers' game with Texas. Former LSU head coach Skip Bertman unveiled two insignias on the center field wall bearing each player's name beneath the No. 19 -- the jersey number worn by both McDonald and Smith during their LSU careers. McDonald and members of Smith's family joined Bertman on the field to take part in the ceremony.

McDonald, a 6-7 right-hander from Denham Springs, La., capped a magnificent 1989 season by receiving the Golden Spikes Award, given by the United States Baseball Federation to the nation's most outstanding amateur player. McDonald, who was also named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball, was the first player chosen in the free-agent amateur draft and made his major league debut with the Baltimore Orioles in September, 1989.

McDonald, who set an LSU career mark with 373 Ks, established Southeastern Conference standards for single-season strikeouts (202), innings pitched (152.1) and consecutive scoreless innings (44.2). A two-time All-American and a 1988 Olympic gold medalist, he finished his LSU career with a 29-14 record and a 3.24 ERA.

McDonald, who enjoyed an excellent 10-year major league career with the Orioles and Milwaukee Brewers, also lettered as an LSU basketball player. He was a member of the 1986-87 Tiger hoops squad which advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

McDonald has volunteered his time to several philanthropic endeavors, including Special Olympics, Sojourner Truth House (prevention of domestic violence) and Child Abuse Prevention. He has also made significant financial contributions during his professional career to the LSU Scholarship Fund.

Smith, a trooper for the Florida Highway Patrol, was killed in Miami in July 1997, when a man slammed his car into the back of Smith's parked police cruiser. The 34-year-old Smith, was trapped inside his car, which exploded on impact on Interstate 95.

Smith, a four-year veteran of the Florida Highway Patrol, had served with the Tri-County DUI Task Force for the 18 months prior to his death. The federally funded program allows nine state troopers from Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties to stop drunk drivers and bring them to jail. For four years, Smith had been a member of the "One Hundred Club," a group of troopers recognized by the Florida Highway Patrol and Mothers Against Drunk Driving for having arrested more than 100 drunk drivers annually.

Smith came to the LSU baseball program in the fall of 1983 as a transfer from Miami Dade South Junior College. He pitched for head coach Skip Bertman's first two LSU teams in 1984 and 1985, serving as the '85 team captain. Smith earned 1985 all-Southeastern Conference honors, posting a 6-1 record and a 3.83 ERA in 80 innings of work. He recorded 71 strikeouts and 35 walks in helping the '85 Tigers win the SEC Western Division and advance to an NCAA regional for the first time in 10 years.

Smith pitched in the Minnesota Twins organization from 1985 to 1989, and he earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in 1989.

Smith is survived by his wife Lisa; their twins, Todd Michael and Taylor Marie; his parents David and Brenda Smith; and his brother Danny Smith, a former Florida Highway Patrol trooper now employed by the Coral Gables (Fla.) Police Department. Danny Smith pitched at the University of Miami when Bertman worked as an assistant coach there.

LSU in the Olympics

LSU's profound success in Olympic competition began in 1988, when head coach Skip Bertman and right-hander Ben McDonald helped lead the United States to the gold medal in Seoul, South Korea. Bertman served as the pitching coach of the 1988 U.S. squad, and McDonald pitched the Americans to complete-game victories over Korea and Puerto Rico. In the two wins, McDonald allowed just two earned runs in 18 innings, recording 17 strikeouts and four walks.

Reliever Rick Greene, LSU's all-time saves leader (29), continued the Tigers' Olympic tradition by pitching for the 1992 U.S. squad which competed in Barcelona, Spain. The '92 team, however, failed to advance to the medal round.

Skip Bertman coached the U.S. to a bronze medal in Atlanta.

Skip Bertman served as head coach of the 1996 United States Olympic team, guiding the Americans to the bronze medal in Atlanta. LSU standouts Warren Morris (second base) and Jason Williams (short-stop) were the starting middle infielders for Team USA, which defeated Nicaragua for the bronze medal in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

Morris and Williams each enjoyed a spectacular summer of 1996 which culminated in the bronze-medal triumph. Morris was Team USA's leading hitter at the Olympics, batting .409 (9-for 22) in nine games with one double, five homers, 11 RBI and 10 runs. Williams hit .367 (11-for-30) with three homers, nine RBI and 10 runs.

Team USA's '96 pre-Olympic tour was highlighted by a stop at LSU's Alex Box Stadium on June 20. The game served as a homecoming for Bertman, Morris and Williams, as the Americans defeated Australia, 11-6, before a standing-room only crowd of 6,926.

LSU right-hander Kurt Ainsworth pitched the U.S. to two wins at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, en route to the gold medal. Ainsworth defeated Holland and Australia with a pair of dominating performances. In the victories, Ainsworth worked a total of 11.2 innings, allowing just two earned runs on 10 hits with three walks and 10 strikeouts.

LSU second baseman Warren Morris was Team USA's leading hitter in the '96 Olympics.

Infielder Aaron Hill is a 2003
pre-season all-American.

2003 Season Outlook

Catcher Dustin Weaver

The 2003 squad begins the second year of the Smoke Laval era with aspirations of returning LSU to the College World Series for the first time since 2000, when the Tigers captured their fifth national championship.

Laval, who in his first season directed LSU to a 44-22 record, an NCAA Super Regional berth and a No. 11 final national ranking, welcomes 12 returning lettermen and 18 new players for the '03 campaign.

The Tigers will feature five starting position players and four starting pitchers from the 2002 team, which finished second in the SEC Western Division and won the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional in Alex Box Stadium.

However, only one returning position player - infielder Aaron Hill - has played as a full-time starter during his LSU career. The other players with starting experience have performed mostly on a platoon basis.

Absent from the list of returning players is all-SEC third baseman Wally Pontiff, who tragically died in July due to abnormalities in his heart. Pontiff, a three-year starter and team leader, was also an Academic all-American with a 3.25 gpa in biological sciences. Filling the emotional void left by Pontiff's death will be one of Laval's most difficult challenges this season.

The pitching staff features three outstanding veteran starters in right-handers Jake Tompkins, Brian Wilson and Bo Pettit, who last season combined for 26 wins, six saves and 302.1 innings. However, the Tigers will likely be without the services of all-SEC left-hander Lane Mestepey, who underwent off-season shoulder surgery. Mestepey, who has won 22 games in two seasons, is expected to receive a medical redshirt this year and return to the mound in 2004 as a junior.

POSITION PLAYERS

Returning position players who started at least 20 of LSU's games last season include sophomore infielder/outfielder J.C. Holt (.349, 3 HR, 23 RBI in 2002), junior infielder Aaron Hill (.329, 9 HR, 47 RBI), sophomore infielder Blake Gill (.292, 1 HR, 26 RBI), senior first baseman Eric Wiethorn (.278, 3 HR, 17 RBI) and sophomore outfielder Jon Zeringue (.245, 2 HR, 8 RBI).

Holt, named a 2002 second-team Freshman all-American by Baseball America, may be moved to center field this season after starting 35 games at second base in 2002. Hill, who helped lead the U.S. National Team last summer to the silver medal in the World University Games, was LSU's starting shortstop in 2002; however, he could be moved to third base in '03. Hill's move could give the starting shortstop position to true freshman Matt Horwath, who posted a .411 career batting average at Lake Mary (Fla.) High School.

Gill, LSU's most versatile performer, is capable of playing all nine positions, and he will start either at first base or in the outfield. Wiethorn will also contend for playing time at first base, and he could serve as one of the Tigers' right-handed designated hitters. True freshman Will Harris of Slidell (La.) High School could also make an impact in the 1B/DH role.

Ivan Naccarata, a transfer from Chipola (Fla.) Junior College, will occupy second base in '03. Naccarata was the 21st-round selection of the Houston Astros in last summer's draft.

Zeringue, who started 19 games in left field in '02, is projected to play right field this season. Along with Holt and Gill, other players who should make an impact in the outfield include junior college transfers Quinn Stewart (Odessa JC), Ryan Patterson (Texarkana College) and Bruce Sprowl (Shelton State CC).

Rhett Buteau, used primarily as a pinch-runner in 2002, lends depth to all three outfield positions.

The catching duties will likely be shared by true freshman Matt Liuzza, an all-state selection from Rummel High School in Metairie, La., and sophomore Dustin Weaver, who received a medical redshirt last season after suffering a knee injury.

PITCHERS

Senior right-hander Jake Tompkins should work in the starting rotation this season after serving as LSU's closer in 2002 (7-1, four saves, 2.68 ERA, 87.1 IP, 96 Ks). He was the 28th-round draft selection last summer of the Texas Rangers.

Tompkins will be joined in the rotation by junior Brian Wilson (10-5, two saves, 3.54 ERA, 94 IP, 71 Ks) and senior Bo Pettit (9-7, 3.35 ERA, 121 IP, 121 Ks), who was selected last summer in the 13th round of the major league draft by the Minnesota Twins.

Sophomore right-hander Clay Harris, who worked primarily as a middle reliever in 2002 (3-0, 4.15 ERA, 47.2 IP, 37 Ks) will provide valuable innings again in '03.

Two hurlers recovering from arm surgery - redshirt freshman left-hander Jason Determann and senior right-hander Chad Vaught - hope to return to the mound early in the '03 campaign.

The returning pitchers are complemented by a talented corps of freshmen and JC transfers. Right-handers Nate Bumstead (College of Southern Idaho) and Justin Meier (West Orange HS - Windermere, Fla.) should work as mid-week starters. Right-handers Billy Sadler (Pensacola JC), Will Harris (Slidell, La., HS) and Justin Gee (Sarasota, Fla., HS), and left-hander Greg Smith (Alexandria, La., HS) will also make contributions on the hill.

The Tigers' closer will be junior right-hander Brandon Nall, a transfer from Wallace State (Ala.) Community College. Nall, who features a side-arm delivery, recorded a 0.89 ERA in 20.2 innings during LSU's fall intra-squad games.

2003 Post-Season Tournaments

SEC TOURNAMENT

The 2003 SEC Tournament, which will be held May 21-25, returns to Hoover (Ala.) Metropolitan Stadium for the sixth consecutive year and for the eighth time in the event's history. Last year, the tournament attracted 124,440 fans for the five-day, 15-game event. The total attendance was the largest in tournament history, and the championship-game attendance (13,023) was the second-highest among tournament title games.

The top two teams from each division receive automatic berths in the tournament, with wild-card berths going to the next four teams with the highest winning percentages, regardless of division.

This will mark the sixth year the tournament has been contested under the "Omaha" format, as eight teams compete in two four-team brackets, with the bracket champions meeting in a one-game championship. The tournament champion earns the SEC's automatic berth to the 64-team NCAA Tournament field.

The championship game, two semi-final contests on Saturday and two elimination games on Friday will be televised as part of the SEC's television package on Fox Sports South. The first and second-round games on Wednesday and Thursday, and two games on Saturday (if necessary) will be televised by ComCast Sports Southeast.

LSU posted a 2-2 mark at the 2002 SEC Tournament, dropping a 5-4 decision to South Carolina in the semi-finals. In reaching the "Final Four" of the event, the Tigers kept alive a 17-year streak of winning at least one game in the SEC Tournament. Skip Bertman's LSU clubs won six tournament titles (1986, '90, '92, '93, '94 and 2000) and finished as runners-up on five occasions (1987, '91, '95, '97 and 2001).

The 2003 SEC Tournament will be held at Birmingham's Hoover Metropolitan Stadium.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

The 2003 NCAA Tournament will feature a 64-team field for the fifth straight year, as the tournament was expanded from 48 to 64 participants in 1999. The teams selected for the tournament will be placed in 16 four-team NCAA Regional brackets at campus sites across the country May 30-June 1.

The brackets are set up like the NCAA basketball tournament, with the top eight teams in the country earning "National Seeds." The brackets will be used to determine Super Regional pairings, as well as the two brackets for the College World Series.

The 16 winners of the Regionals advance to the Super Regionals, where teams will be matched up for best-of-three series at eight sites June 6-8. The eight winners of the Super Regionals advance to the College World Series June 13-23 at Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium, marking the 54th Series that will take place in the venerable facility.

The eight CWS teams compete in two four-team brackets. From 1988-2002, the bracket champions met in a single game to determine the national champion; however, beginning this year, the bracket champions will meet in a best two-of-three playoff to determine the national champion.

In 2002, the fourth season played under the 64-team format, LSU played host to and won an NCAA Regional before dropping two straight games to Rice in the Super Regional at Reckling Park in Houston. The Tigers have advanced to Super Regional play in each of the four seasons of the expanded format, making LSU one of only six schools to accomplish that feat.

LSU played host to and won both a 2000 NCAA Regional and Super Regional.

LSU has the highest all-time NCAA Tournament winning percentage (94-34, .734).

CAREER RECORD

285-181 (.612,eight seasons)

AT LSU

44-22 (.667, one season)

Raymond "Smoke" Laval completed his inaugural season as LSU's head coach last June, directing the Tigers to a 44-22 overall mark, an appearance in the NCAA Super Regional and a No. 11 final national ranking. The first-year coach, named the 2002 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association, continued the phenomenal tradition of excellence created by his predecessor, the legendary Skip Bertman.

Laval, who served seven seasons (1994-2000) as the head coach at the University of Louisiana-Monroe, assumed control of the LSU program from Bertman, who led the Tigers to five NCAA championships and 11 College World Series appearances during an 18-year (1984-2001) tenure. Laval, 47, worked as Bertman's top assistant coach for 10 seasons (1984-93), helping lead LSU to its first two NCAA titles in 1991 and 1993. During Laval's 10 years as assistant coach, LSU posted a 483-

182-1 record, won five SEC titles, appeared in six College World Series and captured two national championships.

Laval helped Bertman create what has become the nation's No. 1 college baseball program.

Accordingly, Bertman - now LSU's athletics director - rewarded Laval with the opportunity to perpetuate the Tigers' outstanding heritage.

Laval established a reputation at LSU as one of the nation's best recruiters and brightest assistant coaches, as the Tigers reached the College World Series in only the third season (1986) of the Bertman-Laval regime. LSU followed the '86 CWS appearance with Omaha berths in 1987, 1989 and 1990 before the Tigers claimed the school's first baseball national title in 1991. After LSU captured its second NCAA crown in 1993, Laval departed Baton Rouge to become the head coach at Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe).

During his assistant coaching tenure at LSU, Laval -- who worked as the Tigers' primary recruiter - tutored 24 players who would eventually reach the major leagues. Some of the major leaguers with whom Laval worked include all-stars Albert Belle (Cleveland, Chicago White Sox, Baltimore) and Paul Byrd (New York Mets, Philadelphia, Kansas City, Atlanta), and first-round draft picks Ben McDonald (Baltimore, Milwaukee), Rick Greene (Cincinnati, Minnesota), Todd Walker (Minnesota, Colorado, Cincinnati,

"Smoke certainly deserves this opportunity. He has done everything necessary to earn the position of head coach at LSU. He was with me at the beginning, when nobody believed baseball could be successful at LSU, or in the SEC. The only thing on the locker room walls when we got here was food. That obviously has changed, and Smoke played a large role in making it happen."

-- Former LSU head coach and current athletics director Skip Bertman

Smoke Laval helped lead LSU to national championships in 1991 and 1993.

"I know as well as anyone the magnitude of the expectations to win at LSU. That's why I'm here, and that's why our players are here."

Laval compiled a 241-159 (.603) mark as the head coach at ULM, guiding the Indians to NCAA Regional appearances in 1995, 1999 and 2000. The 2000 club posted a 41-22 mark en route to the Southland Conference title, tying the ULM record for wins. Laval, the 1999 SLC Coach of the Year, also led the Indians to the 1999 regular-season title and to the 1995 conference tournament crown. He was voted the 1995 Louisiana Coach of the Year by the Louisiana Sportswriters Association.

Laval helped make ULM baseball one of the hottest attractions in the Northeast Louisiana region. The Coaches Committee, a baseball booster organization started by Laval, grew from 62 members in its first year to over 200 members by the end of his tenure.

Laval supervised major improvements to ULM's Indian Field, including the addition of an outdoor batting facility, a picnic area for Coaches Committee members, renovations to the locker room, a players' lounge, a new sound system and a new scoreboard.

Laval began his coaching career in 1977 as an assistant at Jacksonville University before moving to Wolfson High School in Jacksonville as a baseball and football coach. He served as a graduate assistant at LSU in 1979 under former Tiger head coach Jack Lamabe before working two years as an assistant at Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Fla.

Laval served as an assistant coach at Florida for two seasons (1982-83) before returning to LSU to work under Bertman.

Head Coach

During Smoke Laval's tenure as an LSU assistant coach from 1984-93, the Tigers won two national championships and five SEC titles.

"I am extremely pleased that Coach Laval has returned to LSU. This appointment provides continuity and leadership for the best collegiate baseball program in the nation and allows for a smooth transition. Coach Laval's record of success, his approach to the game, and his concern for his student-athletes make him an excellent fit with LSU."

- LSU Chancellor Dr. Mark Emmert

Laval holds a bachelor's degree (1977) from Jacksonville in physical education and a master's degree (1979) from LSU in administration. The McDonald, Pa., native played two seasons at Gulf Coast Community College, where he lettered as a catcher. He completed his playing career at Jacksonville, where he led the ninth-ranked Dolphins in hitting at the 1976 NCAA South Regional.

Laval and his wife, Pam, are the parents of two children, Brandon and Jamie.

TURTLE Thomas

#17 | Assistant Coach

Entry "Turtle" Thomas joined the LSU staff on July 1, 1999, after serving 12 seasons as an assistant coach at Miami (Fla.). Thomas serves as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator and hitting instructor, and he supervises LSU's catchers. As the recruiting coordinator and hitting coach at Miami, Thomas helped lead the Hurricanes to six consecutive College World Series appearances (1994-99), including the 1999 national championship.

Thomas' success has continued at LSU, as he helped direct the Tigers to the 2000 CWS title. Under his supervision, LSU's hitters established Southeastern Conference single-season records for hits (864) and doubles (194), and the Tigers set a school mark for batting average (.340). Thomas' star pupil in 2000 was LSU catcher Brad Cresse, who led the nation in home runs (30) and RBI (106). Cresse also won the 2000 Johnny Bench Award as the nation's most outstanding collegiate catcher.

Thomas has developed a reputation as one of the nation's best college baseball recruiters, as Collegiate Baseball has ranked his LSU signing classes among the top three in the nation for three consecutive years.

His 2000 and 2001 classes were rated No. 2, and his 2002 class earned the No. 3 ranking.

Collegiate Baseball ranked each of his Miami recruiting classes from 1989-99 in the top 10. The 1989, '92 and '94 classes were ranked No. 1, and the 1991 and '99 classes were ranked No. 2.

More than 50 of Thomas' recruits have gone on to play professional baseball, including major leaguers like catcher Charles Johnson -- a four-time National League Gold Glove recipient -- pitcher Alex Fernandez and catcher Jorge Fabregas. Thomas also recruited third baseman Pat Burrell, the No. 1 selection in the 1998 major league draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

In addition to his recruiting duties, Thomas served as Miami's hitting coach from 1996-99. In his first three seasons in that capacity, the Hurricanes posted a .334 team batting average and a .557 slugging percentage while averaging more than nine runs per game. Miami's 1999 NCAA championship team batted .333 and launched 104 home runs.

Thomas is a 1975 graduate of High Point (N.C.) College, and he earned a master's degree from UNC-Greensboro in 1978. He was a four-year letterman at catcher, playing two seasons at Campbell University before completing his final two undergraduate years at High Point.

Thomas worked as an assistant coach at Clemson from 1979-85 before joining the Georgia Tech staff under current Miami head coach Jim Morris. Thomas worked two years at Georgia Tech, where he was elevated to assistant head coach. He was then hired by legendary Miami coach Ron Fraser on October 13, 1987.

Thomas is married to the former Maria Carmen Nateman, and they have three children, Kevin, Kristen and Keith.

Finally, why the name "Turtle?"

Thomas explains, "It wasn't because I was slow, some kid in junior high school thought I looked like a turtle."

BRADY

Wiederhold

#26 / Assistant Coach

Brady Wiederhold was promoted to pitching coach last summer after serving as the Tigers' administrative assistant in 2002. He replaces Dan Canevari, who is now the head coach at Southeastern Louisiana.

Wiederhold served as the LSU administrative assistant in 2002 after working two seasons as the pitching coach at Louisiana-Monroe. He was Smoke Laval's pitching coach in 2000, when the Indians advanced to the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, and he served in 2001 under current ULM head coach Brad Holland.

Prior to his tenure at ULM, Wiederhold worked four seasons as the pitching coach at Kennesaw (Ga.) State.

Wiederhold in 2000 directed the ULM pitching staff to a Top 15 national ranking in team ERA, and the Indians' top three pitchers -- Kevin Orga, Kenny Holubec and Mike Wombacher -- combined to form the nation's fifth-best rotation. Under Wiederhold, ULM in 2000 set the school's single-season strikeout mark en route to a school-record 41 wins.

During Wiederhold's tenure at Kennesaw State, the Owls appeared in four Division II College World Series. KSU won the 1996 national title and were runners-up in 1998 and 1999. Wiederhold's KSU pitching staffs led the nation in ERA in 1997 and 1998.

Prior to his stint at KSU, Wiederhold spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Oglethorpe University in Atlanta. During his stay at Oglethorpe, the Stormy Petrels went 46-28 overall (.622 winning percentage) with a Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Eastern Division title in 1994.

Wiederhold was a four-year letterman at Kennesaw State from 1990-93. The former catcher was named the squad's top defensive player as a senior and was selected to the 1990 Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference all-Freshman team.

Wiederhold, 32, earned his bachelor's of science in sports management from Kennesaw State in 1994. A native of Columbus, Ga., he is married to the former Aimee Wooster, and they have a one-year-old son, Dalton.

JODY Autery

#20 / Assistant Coach

Jody Autery is in his second season as LSU's volunteer assistant coach after working two seasons as a student assistant for the Tigers.

Autery, 28, coaches the LSU outfielders, and he serves as the Tigers' third-base coach. He also works as director of the Smoke Laval Baseball Camp.

A native of Pine Hill, Ala., Autery was a pitcher at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tenn., where he helped lead his team to a runners-up finish at the 1995 NAIA College World Series. Autery also played tight end for the Cumberland football team.

Autery played baseball, football and basketball as a prep athlete at Catherine (Ala.) Academy, which captured two Alabama state football titles during his career.

He won all-state football honors in 1992 and all-state baseball recognition in 1992 and '93.

A 2001 LSU graduate, he earned a master's degree in sports management in 2002.

Autery and his wife, the former Beth Collins, were married in 1996. They are the parents of triplets - Beau, Gracie and Faith -- born October 1, 2002.

TED White

Administrative Assistant

Ted White, a former all-Southland Conference catcher/third baseman at Louisiana-Monroe, is in his first season on the LSU staff as administrative assistant. White, 23, played at ULM from 1998-2002 and performed for his first three seasons under the tutelage of current LSU coach Smoke Laval.

White received first-team all-SLC honors in his junior season, leading the Indians to a second-place finish in the 2000 NCAA Baton Rouge Regional.

A thumb injury forced White to receive a medical redshirt in 2001, and in 2002, he served as the Indians' team captain and received second-team all-conference accolades as a third baseman.

White earned honorable mention all-conference recognition as a freshman, and he was a second-team all-SLC choice in his sophomore season.

He was the battery mate for two seasons (1998-99) of ULM all-American and Olympic gold medalist Ben Sheets, who currently pitches for the Milwaukee Brewers.

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, White was a four-year letterman in baseball and basketball at Bethel Park High School.

SHAWN
Eddy

Assistant Trainer

Shawn Eddy is in his seventh season as an assistant trainer for the LSU athletic department. His primary responsibility is working with the baseball program, as he supervises the Tigers' needs in the areas of medicine and rehabilitation.

Eddy came to LSU in July of 1996 from Vanderbilt University, where he worked as a graduate assistant trainer for two years.

Eddy earned a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology in 1994 from the University of West Virginia. He also earned a master's degree from Vanderbilt in health promotion and education.

Eddy, 31, was married in July, 2002, to LSU softball assistant coach Ashlee Ducote, a former all-SEC player for the Tigers.

WILL
Jones

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Will Jones is in his first year as a full-time member of the LSU strength and conditioning staff after being promoted to assistant coordinator in the summer of 2002.

Jones, who graduated with a Master of Science degree within the LSU kinesiology department in May of 2002, served as a graduate assistant in the LSU weight room for two seasons prior to his promotion.

As a graduate assistant, Jones worked with the LSU football program, and he was also responsible for developing and implementing strength and conditioning programs for the volleyball and soccer teams.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Jones worked in the private sector as a fitness consultant and trainer, as well as an exercise specialist.

Jones graduated from Louisiana-Lafayette in May of 1999 with a degree in exercise science. He was a defensive back for the Ragin' Cajuns football team for four years.

RECORDS

Final Record: 44-22

SEC Record: 19-10 (2nd in West Division, 4th overall)

SEC Tournament: 2-2 (tied for third)

NCAA Regional: 4-1 at Baton Rouge (champions)

NCAA Super Regional: 0-2 vs. Rice at Houston, Texas

General notes on the season:

For the second time in the last five years, LSU was the pitching king of the SEC. The Tigers finished the season with a 3.42 ERA, the Tigers' lowest mark since a 3.38 ERA in 1996. LSU lowered its ERA by 1.32 runs per game after posting a 4.74 mark in 2001.

The big reason behind the pitching success was the Tigers' starters. LSU posted 14 complete games, more than 10 of the 11 other teams in the SEC (Alabama had 11) and five shutouts after posting only two in 67 games in 2001. For the year, Tiger starting pitchers were 32-15 with a solid 3.19 ERA.

LSU also allowed the fewest extra base hits in the SEC, giving up just 145 (105 doubles, 7 triples, 33 home runs) in 589.2 innings. In 2001, the Tigers yielded 51 home runs and 170 extra base hits in 595.2 innings.

The turning point of the season came in a 15-4 loss to Mississippi State on March 29, which dropped LSU to 16-12. After that point, LSU went 28-10, batting 33 points higher (.316 to .283) and lowering its ERA by nearly a run and a half per game (2.81 to 4.22).

LSU can look back on a season that saw it win 40 games for the 14th consecutive year, a streak that is only eclipsed by Florida State's 25-year string of 40-win seasons. No other team in the SEC has won 40 or more games in four consecutive seasons at any time, and the Tigers are the only SEC team to reach the NCAA Tournament in every year since 1996.

LSU was the only one of the 16 super regional participants from 2002 to have to go through the loser's bracket to win its regional. Ten of the 16 super regional participants went 3-0 to reach the round of 16, while five others won one of two games on the final day to advance.

LSU is the only team under the current format to win two regionals after going into the loser's bracket. The Tigers defeated East Carolina twice in the 1999 Baton Rouge regional after losing to the Pirates in the second game of the tournament.

Outfielder Sean Barker led the 2002 Tigers in batting average (.382), RBI (62) and stolen bases (24).

LSU is now 94-34 all-time in NCAA Tournament play, as its .734 winning percentage keeps it atop the heap in all-time win percentage in the post-season.

The Tigers' regional victory was their seventh in a row, the second longest active streak of regional victories behind Miami's nine in a row.

LSU coach Smoke Laval became the first rookie coach to lead his team to the super regional since the format began in 1999. Laval is also the second winningest coach among rookie mentors in the SEC, trailing only the 46-19 mark posted by Pat McMahon at Florida in 2002 (although McMahon coached for four years prior to that at Mississippi State).

The Tigers continued their legacy of excellence by winning 18 league games for the 14th time in the last 15 years, missing only with a 17-12 mark in 1995. LSU is also the only SEC team to have a winning record in the conference in every year since 1999, and the Tigers have had a winning record within the SEC West in 10 of the 11 years since the league returned to division play in 1992.

LSU was 2-6 in 2002 against College World Series teams, going 2-

4 vs. South Carolina and 0-2 vs. Rice. None of those games were played in Baton Rouge, with three games against the Gamecocks coming in the SEC Tournament in Birmingham.

LSU played it close in 2002, as 20 of 66 games were decided by one run, with the Tigers going 12-8 in those contests. LSU played a total of 19 one-run games in 2000 (7) and 2001 (12) combined.

LSU set a single-season per-game attendance record at Alex Box Stadium, as 271,159 people went through the turnstiles for 36 home dates, an average of 7,532 per game, an NCAA record for per-game attendance.

LSU defeated Tulane, 9-5, on April 10 in the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans before an NCAA-record crowd of 27,673 (paid). The actual attendance of 25,101 also broke the former NCAA attendance mark of 24,859, which was set for a 1999 College World Series session that featured games between Miami and Alabama and Rice and Oklahoma State.

A total of 18 different position players started at least one game for the Tigers in 2002, including 10 who did not wear an LSU uniform in 2001. Ten different pitchers started at least once, with four of those starting only one game each. Five of the 10 starting pitchers had not seen action for LSU prior to 2002.

Five Tigers were selected in the 2002 major league draft: outfielder Sean Barker (sixth round, Colorado); pitcher Bo Pettit (13th round, Minnesota); pitcher Brad David (17th round, Atlanta); third baseman Wally Pontiff (21st round, Oakland); and pitcher Jake Tompkins (28th round, Texas).

Notes on Tiger position players:

Senior RF Sean Barker made the most of his chance to be a full-time starter, leading the Tigers in batting average (.382), RBI (62) and stolen bases (24). Barker never saw his season average fall below .333, and he had 13 games of three hits or more and 33 multi-hit games for the season.

Barker finished the season with 102 hits, making him the eighth different LSU player and 11th Tiger overall to record 100 hits in a single season. The 102 hits are seventh most in a single season in LSU baseball history.

Barker finished his career with a .372 batting average (129-for-347), the second highest career average behind former three-time All-American Todd Walker, who batted .396 from 1992-94.

Barker was named the SEC Player of the Week on February 11 after going 9-for-15 in the Tigers' season opening series vs. Birmingham-Southern. He also batted .400 to earn all-tournament team honors at the Baton Rouge regional.

The biggest surprise of the season was senior catcher Chris Phillips, who was used sparingly as a junior after transferring from Northwestern State. Phillips rose from third string in the pre-season to win the starting job full-time in early March, keeping it by batting .344 on the season and driving in 44 runs.

Phillips was at his best when it counted most, batting a team high .378 in the post-season and hitting .455 on the year with runners in scoring position.

Junior 3B Wally Pontiff earned second team All-SEC honors and batted .339 on the season and led the Tigers with a .443 on-base percentage.

Pontiff completed his LSU career in seventh place in doubles (49), Outfielder Matt Heath led LSU in homers with 10, and he was named to the SEC all-Tournament team.

The Tigers celebrated with the LSU fans after defeating Louisiana-Lafayette to win the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional in Alex Box Stadium.

ninth in career hits (253), and 10th in batting average (.344). Pontiff had hitting streaks of 19 and 12 games during the season.

The Tigers found a rising star in freshman 2B J.C. Holt, who finished second on the team with a .349 batting average and batted a team high .407 in the NCAA tournament.

Holt platooned much of the season at second but won the job full-time in mid-May, batting .411 over the second half of the season.

First-year head coach Smoke Laval became the first rookie coach to lead his team to an NCAA Super Regional.

Holt hit safely in the Tigers' last 16 regular season games, the second longest streak behind Pontiff's 19-game streak for LSU.

Matt Heath was LSU's team leader in home runs with 10. The senior left fielder, a converted catcher, was named to the all-tournament team at the SEC Tournament for batting .455, his second straight all-tourney team selection.

The 10 home runs were the fewest for an LSU team leader since Tim Schneider led the 1984 Tigers with 10 home runs. The last Tiger to lead the team with single-figure home runs was eight by Ken Mulshenock in 1982.

Notes on Tiger pitchers:

It was another sensational season for Lane Mestepey. Mestepey earned first team All-SEC honors for the second straight year, making him only the second player in LSU history, along with Todd Walker, to earn first team All-SEC honors as a freshman and a sophomore.

Mestepey also earned third team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball for the second straight year.

Mestepey finished the year 11-5 with a 2.59 ERA, as he is the only LSU hurler to win 10 or more games as a freshman and a sophomore. The ERA figure is the lowest posted by an LSU starting pitcher since Eddie Yarnall's 2.38 ERA in 1996.

Mestepey also walked just 17 batters in 143.1 innings this year, or an average of a meager 1.07 per nine innings. For his career, Mestepey has walked just 54 batters in 281.2 innings, or 1.73 per nine.

Mestepey also led the SEC with eight complete games and pitched two shutouts (April 26 vs. Arkansas, May 18 vs. Alabama), as he now has 12 complete games heading into his junior season.

Mestepey did his work without much support from the Tiger hitters. In the 18 games he started, LSU hit just .287 and scored 95 runs, an average of 5.3 per game. In the four starts Mestepey lost, LSU scored a grand total of three runs, including two shutouts.

Another major reason for LSU's success was junior RHP Jake Tompkins. The transfer from Sacramento City College started the year in the rotation, but his move to the bullpen sparked LSU to a 28-10 finish in the final two-plus months of the year.

Tompkins finished the year 7-1 with a 2.68 ERA in a team high 25 appearances, and out of the bullpen, he was 3-1 with four saves and a 2.50 ERA.

Tompkins proved to be best with the most pressure on the line, as he left 18 of 20 inherited runners stranded on base, and he gave up a .200 batting average with runners in scoring position and allowed just one hit in 13 bases-loaded situations.

Tompkins, who was a second team All-SEC choice and the Most Outstanding Player of the Baton Rouge regional, also proved he could start when needed, as he gave up no earned runs in 6.1 innings on June 2 to keep LSU alive against UL-Lafayette in the regional.

Junior RHP Bo Pettit missed his turn to start in the super regional when a blister prevented him from taking the mound in Game 2, but it was a spectacular season for the Houston native. The fourth-year junior went a career best 9-7 with a solid 3.35 ERA for the year, and he was 7-3 with a 2.64 ERA from April 2 until the end of the year.

Pettit led the Tigers with 121 strikeouts in exactly 121 innings, and he struck out 10 or more batters four times in a game, setting a career high of 12 on February 15 vs. Mercer, then tying it in a four-hit shutout of Vanderbilt on March 15.

Pettit's best week came mid-April, when he beat Tulane and Georgia in a span of five days to earn SEC Pitcher of the Week honors.

For sophomore RHP Brian Wilson, it was a tale of two seasons. As a reliever, Wilson struggled, as he blew late inning leads to Houston, Vanderbilt and Ole Miss, posting just a 4-2 record with a 4.01 ERA. Once moved to the starting rotation on April 13, though, Wilson became a different pitcher, going 6-3 with a 3.37 ERA and two complete games to finish at 10-5 with a 3.54 ERA on the year.

Wilson's pitched a three-hit shutout on April 27 against Arkansas, but saved his best for when LSU needed it the most, pitching a complete game in the regional championship game vs. UL-Lafayette. In that game, Wilson threw 126 pitches just 48 hours after throwing 87 pitches in the regional opener vs. Southern.

Wilson combined with Mestepey to give LSU two 10-game winners for the first time since Patrick Coogan (14-3) and Doug Thompson (12-3) did so in 1997.

The Tigers found a future star in true freshman Clay Harris. Harris, a righthander, went 3-0 with a 4.15 ERA in 16 outings (5 starts), walking just five batters in 47.2 innings while allowing none of the nine inherited runners he had to score.

Notes on the super regional:

Despite the super regional loss to Rice, LSU maintained its streak of being one of only six teams to make every super regional since the round was instituted in 1999. The other five schools to reach every super regional are Clemson, Florida State, Miami, USC and Stanford.

For the third time since the current NCAA tournament format was instituted, LSU's season ended in a super regional away from Baton Rouge. Rice swept the Tigers to advance to the College World Series, dropping the Tigers to 1-6 all-time in super regional road games. In those seven road games, LSU has been outscored 54-20, with the only win being a 4-3, 13-inning victory over Tulane in game one of the 2001 series at Zephyr Field.

LSU's only super regional win remains its 2000 sweep of UCLA in Baton Rouge. The Tigers were swept at Alabama in 1999 and lost in three games to Tulane last year at Zephyr Field.

The consecutive shutouts suffered by the Tigers at Rice were the first since dropping 3-0 and 8-0 decisions to Ole Miss to close the 1982 season. Counting the regional loss to UL-Lafayette, LSU was shut out three times in six games for the first time since 1971. LSU suffered five shutouts in 2002, the most since being blanked six times in 1978.

The three hits by LSU against Rice's Stephen Herce in Game 1 were a season low for the Tigers, Lane Mestepey earned first-team all-SEC honors of the second straight year, posting an 11-5 mark and a 2.59 ERA.

tying the three they recorded against Auburn on May 22 at the SEC Tournament. LSU has not been held to fewer than three hits since March 25, 2001, when Mississippi State limited the Tigers to a single hit.

The 10 strikeouts by Herce not only set his career high, but also were the most by any single pitcher against LSU in 2002, tying the 10 by Jeffrey Terrell of Tennessee in the second game of a May 4 doubleheader in Knoxville.

Five of Rice's six runs in game one were unearned, as LSU allowed 85 unearned runs during the year, six shy of the school record of 91 set in 1994.

The six runs scored by Rice in the third inning of game one tied the most scored by an opponent in a single inning against LSU in 2002. Ole Miss scored six in the eighth inning on March 24, while Auburn put up six in the sixth inning on April 6. The last time LSU gave up more than six runs in an inning was a nine-run ninth inning by Ole Miss on April 14, 2001.

The Tigers led the NCAA in attendance for the seventh consecutive season, drawing 271,159 fans to Alex Box Stadium.

LSU's 1939 SEC Champions

The Early Years

Louisiana State University has a colorful 110-year (107 seasons) baseball history which began with the first team in 1893 and has continued uninterrupted since 1905.

Although baseball was played at LSU prior to 1893, no contests had been scheduled with any clubs outside of Baton Rouge. The team of 1892 won all of its games against local competition.

On May 13, 1893, in connection with a military field day, LSU was engaged in its first intercollegiate athletic contest and defeated the nine from Tulane University.

That was the only game of 1893 and captain E.B.Young,in selecting materials for uniforms to be used for the May 13 contest, chose the colors of Old Gold and Purple. The baseball squad of '93 had the honor of first wearing the colors that later were adopted as the official University colors.

In 1904, a game was scheduled to start the year against a local professional club. That game, however, was cancelled when the Tiger captain and manager resigned upon the refusal of the university president to grant permission for the cadets to attend the contest. The team disbanded and no further contests were played that year.

In 1915 C.C. "Doc" Stroud took over as Tiger coach and eventually became the first man to lead LSU for more than two seasons. In 1919 Stroud led LSU to a 12-4 campaign, a mark that had been bettered only one time before and would not be surpassed again until 1936. In that 1919 season, the Tigers had a fine young pitcher named Tom Staples who threw a perfect game in a 9-0 win over Louisiana College. He also pitched and won both games of a doubleheader that same year.

In 1927 Harry Rabenhorst was named head coach and served in that capacity until 1956, with the exception of a three-year period from 1943-45. During that three-year span,A.L. Swanson was the Tigers' field manager. In Swanson's first year, the Tigers lost their first three games of the season, but bounced back to win 12 of the next 16 and LSU's second SEC championship.

The first SEC title came back in 1939 under Rabenhorst. The '39 team was one of LSU's best as it posted a 22-5 record for an .815 winning percentage. The team was led by first baseman Paul Brotherton,outfielder Ken Kavanaugh,Sr. and pitcher Jesse Danna, and had a winning streak of 13 games before losing to Minnesota in a swing through the Western (Big 10) Conference.

Besides the 1939 and 1943 championships, LSU also won conference titles in 1946 - under Rabenhorst - and in 1961 under Ray Didier, but not again until 1975 under Jim Smith. During Smith's tenure,however, the Tigers won or tied for the SEC Western Division title on three occasions.

The 1975 team became the first LSU squad to participate in the NCAA Tournament, as the Tigers played in the South Regional at Starkville, Miss. LSU won its first regional game over Murray State, but was eliminated from the tournament after consecutive losses to Florida State and Miami (Fla.).

LSU coaches in the early years supplemented their collegiate schedules with competition against professional opponents. This gave the Tigers excellent chances to gain experience, but rare chances for victory. Among the Tigers' most noteworthy losses was a 17-7 defeat at the hands of the Chicago White Sox in 1925. Other pro opponents included the Detroit,Cleveland,New York and St. Louis major league teams, Indianapolis of the American Association, Nashville and New Orleans of the Southern Association, plus several teams from Louisiana's celebrated Class "C" Evangeline League.

Through the early years,numerous Tigers made it into the professional ranks.A.W. Baird in 1916 was the first Tiger known to have signed a pro contract. Since then, many players from LSU made their mark in the major leagues, including Walker Cress, Cincinnati Reds; Dave Madison,Detroit Tigers; Buddy Blair, Philadelphia Athletics; Mark Freeman, New York Yankees; Connie Ryan, Boston Braves; Alvin Dark, New York Giants; Joe Bill Adcock, Milwaukee Braves; Art Swanson,Pittsburgh Pirates; Mike Miley, California Angels; and Randy Wiles, Chicago White Sox.

Those and other outstanding players have played on a number of diamonds on the LSU campus. In 1929, the Tigers' home games were played on a field located on the Campanile Parade Grounds. In 1936, the playing field was located north of the football stadium and was equipped with wooden bleachers. In 1938, LSU baseball moved into what was later to be named Alex Box Stadium, the present home of the Fighting Tigers.

Tom Staples (middle) fired a perfect game in 1919 against Louisiana College.

Joe Bill Adcock enjoyed a 17-year big league career.

Venerable Alex Box Stadium has served as the Tigers' home since 1938.

The Bertman Years

On July 18, 2000, LSU baseball coach Skip Bertman announced that the 2001 season would be his 18th and final at the helm of the Fighting Tigers, the team he had built into the nation's premier collegiate baseball program.

To Skip Bertman, striving for excellence isn't just a catchy motto or slogan; it's how he has approached every task he has undertaken in his life -- from his playing days at the University of Miami, to his highly-successful 11-year stint as head baseball coach at Miami Beach High School, to his eight years as associate head coach at UM, to his time here in Baton Rouge.

Bertman, who now serves as LSU's athletic director, led the Tigers to a sterling 870-330-3 mark (.724), giving him the highest winning percentage of any SEC baseball coach and the fourth-highest percentage among active coaches at the time of his retirement, trailing only Wichita State's Gene Stephenson, Gary Ward of New Mexico State and Florida State's Mike Martin. Bertman and USC legend Rod Dedeaux are the only coaches to win four or more national championships.

In addition to the five national championships (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) Bertman's LSU teams captured, the Tigers also claimed seven SEC championships, nine 50-win seasons, 11 CWS berths and six SEC Tournament championships during Skip's tenure.

Bertman's jersey #15 has been retired by LSU – the first baseball number to receive that designation from the university – and the street in front of Alex Box Stadium has been re-named Skip Bertman Drive. Bertman was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

As much as LSU's dominance can be attributed to Bertman, the players have also had a huge part in that success. During Bertman's tenure at LSU, more than 100 players were drafted into professional baseball, with 30 of those players reaching the major leagues. Bertman produced 11 first-team

The street in front of Alex Box Stadium was re-named Skip Bertman Drive on May 13, 2001, in a special ceremony after Bertman's final regular-season home game.

Skip Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001.

Skip Bertman and his wife, Sandy, wave farewell to the Alex Box Stadium crowd after Bertman's final regular-season home game.

Skip Bertman's LSU program was characterized not only by winning championships, but also by its accessibility and courtesy to Tiger fans.

The only men to win five College World Series titles: LSU's Skip Bertman and former Southern California coach Rod Dedeaux.

The Skip Bertman Years (1984-2001)

All-America performers, and more importantly, nearly 100 percent of those who played four or five years in the Tiger program earned their LSU degrees.

Bertman came to LSU after a highly successful eight-year stint at Miami, where he was associate head coach and pitching coach under Hall of Fame coach Ron Fraser. The Bertman-Fraser partnership produced 427 wins and five berths in the CWS, including the Hurricanes' first national championship in 1982. Bertman's recruiting also laid much of the groundwork for Miami's second national championship in 1985, which was Bertman's second year at LSU.

Jerry Weinstein	Olympic Assistant, 1996	Former head coach at Sacramento City College the Centennial Olympic Games in Atlanta in 1996.

In addition to becoming an accomplished coach, Bertman has authored two books (Coaching Youth League Baseball and Skip: The Man and the System), produced a motivational video (Motivation and Teamwork: Winning the Big One), and has been a featured speaker and clinician at banquets,civic organizations and youth groups around the country.

Bertman's Era of Excellence as LSU's baseball coach has ended, but his service to the university continues on a more comprehensive level. On January 19,2001, the LSU Board of Supervisors paved the way for another Bertman era,as the panel unanimously approved LSU Chancellor Mark Emmert's selection of Bertman to be the school's seventh permanent athletics director since LSU became a charter member of the Southeastern Conference in 1933. Bertman assumed his duties as athletics director on August 6,2001.

As athletics director, Bertman oversees a 20-sport program that has brought home 38 national championships,more than any other SEC school. With a diverse and talented coaching staff as well as some of the best facilities in the nation,Bertman should have no trouble keeping the LSU program near the top of the heap both in the SEC and on the national stage.

LSU completed a magnificent 1991 season with a 55-18 record as the Tigers captured their first baseball national title and the 19th overall national championship for the school.

Head coach Skip Bertman directed the Tigers to the 1991 NCAA title after having led his team to the College World Series in five of the past six seasons. Bertman was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Baseball magazine shortly after LSU's World Series victory.

The Tigers became the first team since Miami (Fla.) in 1982 to win the national title without a loss in the NCAA Tournament; LSU won eight consecutive games in the tournament, including four in the South Regional and four in the College World Series.

As a team, the Tigers set a College World Series record by averaging 12 runs per game, breaking the previous mark of 11 per contest established by Notre Dame in 1957.

LSU also set a new Series mark with a team fielding percentage of .993. The Tigers committed only one error in 148 chances.

LSU equaled the College World Series mark for most home runs with nine, tying the record set by Arizona State in 1981. Catcher Gary Hymel blasted four homers, rightfielder Lyle Mouton belted three, designated hitter Pat Garrity contributed one and centerfielder Armando Rios launched a two-run shot in the championship game win over Wichita State.

The Tigers outscored their four Series opponents, 48-15, while recording a team batting average of .329, including five doubles, four triples and nine home runs.

Hymel was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series, as he batted .500 with four homers and 10 RBI. Hymel finished the season with a .310 batting average and a school-record 25 home runs to go along with 79 RBI. Hymel, Mouton, pitcher Chad Ogea and first baseman Johnny Tellechea were named to the College World Series All-Tournament team.

Mouton batted .429 in the Series with three homers and 10 RBI; Ogea earned wins over Florida and Wichita State, compiling a 1.74 ERA in 10 1/3 innings; Tellechea hit .438 with two doubles, one RBI and five runs.

LSU culminated its championship year on July 9, 1991, with a trip to the White House. President George Bush recognized the Tigers in a special Rose Garden ceremony which also honored major league legends Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams. LSU became only the third collegiate baseball team to receive an invitation to the White House.

A century of baseball excellence was culminated in June, 1993, as LSU captured its second NCAA title in three years with an 8-0 victory over Wichita State in the College World Series final. In the 100th anniversary season of the Fighting Tiger program, head coach Skip Bertman and his players reinforced LSU's status as the nation's premier baseball power.

The Tigers began the 1993 campaign as the nation's No. 1 team in all three of the college baseball polls. The Tigers' pre-conference schedule featured a 12-game winning streak which extended through the month of March as LSU prepared to defend its SEC title. The Tigers' drive to win their fourth straight league crown was spearheaded by Todd Walker, who established an SEC single-season record with a 33-game hitting streak. The regular-season also featured a "Turn Back the Clock" game against Tulane in Alex Box Stadium, as players from both teams wore old-fashioned uniforms and used wooden bats. The Tigers defeated the Green Wave 6-3 in a game which commemorated LSU's 100-year baseball history.

LSU went on to become the first team in league annals to win four straight SEC championships and, after a 9-4 win over South Alabama in the NCAA South Regional final at Alex Box Stadium, the Tigers advanced to the College World Series for the sixth time in eight seasons.

The Tigers returned to Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium for another National Championship crusade. The fifth-seeded Tigers disposed of fourth-seeded Long Beach State to open the Series as left fielder Jim Greely launched two home runs and collected a personal-best five RBI. Left-hander Mike Sirotko hand-cuffed the 49ers with a three-hit, nine strikeout performance.

LSU posted a furious rally against top-seeded Texas A&M in the next round, overcoming a 7-2 deficit and grabbing a 9-8 lead on an eighth inning single by Armando Rios. Then, with the bases loaded, Todd Walker provided one of the series' most scintillating moments, unloading his third grand slam of the season to cap the 13-8 triumph.

The momentum generated by the win over the Aggies was vanquished three days later as Long Beach State rallied for an improbable 10-8 victory, striking for four runs in their final at-bat.

Now LSU faced a third meeting with Long Beach, with the winner advancing to the World Series championship game. The Tigers, on the strength of a two-run double by Rios, tied the game 5-5 in the bottom of the ninth before Walker delivered the game-winning single for a thrilling 6-5 victory. LSU was one victory away from fulfilling a season-long dream.

LSU faced Wichita State in the national championship game for the second time in three years, and unlike the first meeting in 1991, this game offered little suspense. Todd Walker's two-run homer in the first inning began LSU's surge to another World Series title. LSU added three runs in the second inning as Armando Rios sandwiched a sacrifice fly between RBI singles by Walker and by Jason Williams.

While the Tigers bolted to the big lead, freshman right-hander Brett Laxton was in the process of making College World Series history. Relying primarily on an exploding fast-ball with an occasional paralyzing slider, Laxton set a CWS championship game record with 16 staggering strikeouts. Laxton limited Wichita State to a mere three hits while retiring 16 of the final 20 Shocker batters, including Wichita State's last hope, outfielder Carl Hall, who flied weakly to Harry Berrios in right field to conclude the Tigers' 8-0 triumph. For the second time in three years, an unquenchable desire for victory was LSU's most prominent characteristic as it catapulted the Tigers to college baseball's summit.

Todd Walker was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Series and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Mike Sirotko, Brett Laxton, Adrian Antonini, Jim Greely and Armando Rios. Walker, the 1993 SEC Player of the Year, recorded a conference-record 102 RBI on the season and surpassed Albert Belle as LSU's all-time RBI leader with 175.

Mike Sirotko ended a fantastic four-year career as LSU's career leader in innings pitched with 372. He tied Ben McDonald's school record with 10 complete games, including eight in his final nine starts. Laxton's dazzling performance in the national title game capped a phenomenal season as the National Freshman of the Year was 12-1 with an SEC-best 1.98 ERA.

The 1993 team was expertly guided by Skip Bertman, who for the third time in his 10-year career was named National Coach of the Year. The Tigers completed the year with a 53-17-1 record, marking LSU's fifth-straight 50-win season, a feat unmatched by any other school.

Second baseman Warren Morris launched a two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift LSU to a pulsating 9-8 victory over Miami (Fla.) in the 1996 College World Series final. The blast marked the first time in the 50-year history of the CWS that a team had won the national championship with a homer in the bottom of the ninth.

As the ball cleared the right-field fence and landed in the third row of the bleachers, Morris raised his arms into the air triumphantly as he rounded first base. Upon reaching home plate, he was mobbed by his jubilant teammates and cheered by 23,905 fans who had just witnessed the greatest finish in CWS annals.

The LSU Tigers, for the third time in six seasons, were the champions of collegiate baseball.

Fittingly, it was the only home run of the season for Morris, as the Alexandria, La., native had missed 39 games due to a broken hamate bone in his right hand. He returned to the LSU lineup for the NCAA South II Regional, and he led the Tigers to eight straight victories, with the final win giving his team the national title.

LSU became just the seventh school to win three or more CWS titles in the 50-year history of the event, and Skip Bertman became only the sixth coach to win three or more baseball national championships. LSU also became only the third school to win three national titles in one decade (1991, 1993, 1996).

long list of achievements for the 1996 Tigers, including establishing an SEC record with 131 home runs on the season. The Tigers posted a 52-15 record, marking LSU's sixth 50-win season in eight years and the seventh in school history. LSU recorded a 20-10 SEC mark, sharing the conference title with Florida and Alabama.

Shortstop Jason Williams became the SEC career leader in runs scored (270), and he became LSU's all-time hits leader with 327. First baseman Eddy Furniss, a first-team all-America selection, set the SEC single-season mark for RBI (103) and the LSU single-season home run record (26). Pitcher Eddie Yarnall was also a first-team all-America choice, as he posted an 11-1 record, including two victories in the College World Series.

Furniss and pitcher Chris Demouy were named Academic all-Americans; Furniss had a 3.7 gpa in pre-medicine and Demouy a 3.8 gpa in management. Seven Tigers earned Academic all-SEC recognition, including Furniss, Demouy, Morris (3.5 gpa in zoology), catcher Tim Lanier (3.6 in kinesiology), designated hitter Brad Wilson (3.0 in general studies), catcher Kevin Ward (3.6 in electrical engineering) and pitcher Brian Daugherty (3.1 in kinesiology).

For the third time in six seasons, Bertman was named National Coach of the Year, an honor he received from Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

LSU was No. 1 in the grandstand as well, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance by drawing a school-record 226,805 fans to Alex Box Stadium.

It was a remarkable season, culminated by arguably the greatest moment in LSU athletic history, a decisive swing of the bat by Warren Morris, who magnificently added his name to the list of Tiger legends.

On June 7, 1997, the LSU Fighting Tigers justified the pre-season status bestowed upon them by Baseball America magazine as college baseball's "Team of the '90s" by defeating Southeastern Conference rival Alabama, 13-6, in the championship game of the College World Series. The game was witnessed by a record crowd of 24,401 in Omaha's Rosenblatt Stadium.

LSU won its fourth NCAA championship of the 1990s (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997), and the Tigers became the first team to win back-to-back titles since Stanford accomplished the feat in 1987-88. Head coach Skip Bertman joined Rod Dedeaux of Southern California as the only coaches to win four College World Series championships. Bertman was named the 1997 National Coach of the Year, receiving that designation for the fifth time in his storied 14-year career.

Ironically, a month before the title match, the Crimson Tide humiliated the Tigers, 28-2, the worst loss in LSU's 104-year baseball history. But in the CWS championship contest, the Tigers exploded to a 9-0 lead after two innings and never looked back. LSU won its eighth straight CWS game over two seasons, and the Tigers improved their mark in NCAA (regional and CWS) tournament championship games to a phenomenal 16-0.

Prior to the win over Alabama, the Tigers posted CWS victories over Rice (5-4) and Stanford (10-5 and 13-9). LSU batted .328 (45-for-137) in the Series with seven doubles and 10 home runs. The Tigers averaged better than 10 runs per game in the CWS, outscoring their opponents, 41-24.

The championship game completed a 57-13 campaign for Skip Bertman and his club, as the Tigers established the Southeastern Conference record for most victories in a season. LSU, which returned only two starting position players from its 1996 national championship club, also claimed the '97 SEC championship, the school's sixth conference crown of the 1990s.

LSU roared to a blistering 19-0 start, establishing the SEC mark for most consecutive victories. The Tigers, who began the season ranked No. 8 (Collegiate Baseball) and No. 13 (Baseball America) in the pre-season polls, ascended to No. 1 by March 10, holding that position for 10 consecutive weeks.

After claiming the SEC title, LSU played host to the NCAA South I Regional, where the Tigers, after suffering a third-round loss to South Alabama, battled back to claim their ninth CWS berth in 12 seasons. LSU posted a thrilling 14-7, 11-inning victory over Long Beach State in an elimination game to force a rematch with South Alabama in the regional championship round. Needing two victories over USA, the Tigers launched eight homers in a doubleheader sweep en route to the regional title. LSU hit .339 (82-for-242) in its six regional games, outscoring the opposition 76-29 while unloading 20 home runs. Third baseman Trey McClure was named the regional's Most Outstanding Player, as he hit .435 (10-for-23) with five doubles, two homers and 10 RBI.

LSU completed the year with an NCAA-record 188 home

Junior right-hander Doug Thompson was the winning pitcher in the 1997 national championship game, working the final 4.2 innings in the 13-6 win over Alabama.

Senior rightfielder Tom Bernhardt led LSU with a .615 batting average in the CWS.

runs, breaking the previous mark of 161 homers set by Brigham Young in 1988. The Tigers homered at least once in all 70 of their games.

All-American junior shortstop Brandon Larson enjoyed a remarkable season, batting .381 on the year with 40 homers and 118 RBI. He established SEC single-season records for homers, RBI and total bases (250), and he became just the fourth player in NCAA history to collect 40 or more homers in a season.

Patrick Coogan (14-3, 4.63 ERA, 144 K), a junior right-hander, earned first-team all-America honors, while first baseman Eddy Furniss (.378, 17 HR, 77 RBI) was a third-team all-America selection. Second baseman Blair Barbier (.353, 15 HR, 57 RBI) earned Freshman all-America recognition.

Also enjoying outstanding campaigns were junior center fielder Mike Koerner (.353, 22 HR, 69 RBI), senior right fielder Tom Bernhardt (.322, 17 HR, 49 RBI) and Doug Thompson (12-3, 4.63 ERA, 158 K), a junior right-hander who earned the victory in the national championship game.

The '97 Tigers magnificently maintained LSU's reign as the "Team of the '90s." Not since Southern California won five straight national titles in the 1970s was one school so dominant in the college baseball landscape.

Trading Stanford 5-2 with one out in the bottom of the eighth inning of the 2000 national championship game, the LSU Tigers appeared to have little hope, especially with Cardinal ace Justin Wayne on the mound. Wayne had subdued LSU's bats, allowing no hits while recording seven strikeouts in 3.1 relief innings. In fact, Wayne and Stanford starter Jason Young had combined to hold the Tigers hitless since the second inning, when left field Jeremy Witten singled during a two-run LSU rally.

LSU's only highlight after the second inning had come on defense, when right fielder Ray Wright robbed Stanford's Edmund Muth of a third-inning, two-run homer by leaping above the wall to make a sensational catch.

Thus, when LSU team captain Blair Barbier stepped to the plate with one out in the eighth, everything pointed toward a Stanford victory celebration. After all, the Cardinal were just five outs away from a national championship with arguably the best pitcher in the country on the mound.

Barbier, undaunted, envisioned a much different scenario. Prior to the inning, he had gathered his teammates in the dugout, imploring them to remain focused, asking them, "DO YOU BELIEVE?" He hoped his words would spark a positive reaction, yet he knew they would be meaningless should he fail in this at-bat, likely the final at-bat of the senior third baseman's brilliant college career.

So, Barbier stood in against Wayne and battled for his team's survival. He stubbornly fouled off several two-strike offerings, before finally ripping a line drive over the left field wall of Rosenblatt Stadium. Barbier's solo shot was his third homer of the College World Series, and the Tigers had life, now down by two runs.

Wally Pontiff then drew a walk from Wayne, but the Stanford right-hander retired center fielder Cedrick Harris on a fly ball to right field for the second out. Witten, who was hitting just .200 (3-for-15) in the CWS, would be Wayne's next challenge.

In his only other at-bat against Wayne, Witten, a fifth-year senior, fanned on just three pitches. And, in this at-bat, Witten again quickly fell behind in the count. Knowing that this was perhaps the final at-bat of his college career, indeed the final at-bat of his entire baseball career, Witten would not succumb to Wayne's darting slider. Instead, he launched a soaring liner into

The Rosenblatt Stadium crowd of over 24,000 erupted as Witten triumphantly rounded the bases, celebrating just his seventh homer of the season. LSU 5, Stanford 5 . . . and the drama was just beginning.

Wayne retired Wright on a liner to left to end the eighth inning, but Stanford could not recover its lost momentum. LSU right-hander Trey Hodges, who had kept the Tigers in the game with three scoreless relief innings, easily retired the Cardinal in the top of the ninth, setting the stage for the game's final act.

LSU shortstop Ryan Theriot grounded Wayne's first pitch of the ninth into left field to place the winning run on first base. Head coach Skip Bertman, electing not to bunt Theriot down to second base, allowed second baseman Mike Fontenot to swing away. Fontenot skillfully drew a full-count walk from Wayne, placing the Tigers' destiny in the potent bat of catcher Brad Cresse.

Cresse, like Barbier and Witten before him, was standing at the plate for the final time in an LSU uniform. The nation's leader in home runs (30) and RBI (105), the senior was just 1-for-12 in the College World Series. He had struck out in his two previous at-bats against Wayne, who desperately needed a double play to work his way out of the jam.

As he had in his first two encounters with Cresse, Wayne opened with his devastating slider. Strike one. Wayne fired the slider again, but this time Cresse smashed it, sending the ball sharply into left field. Theriot raced around third base as Topham picked up the ball and heaved it toward home plate. But, the throw was up the line and Theriot slid safely across the plate as his teammates burst from the third-base dugout to embrace him. The wave of jubilant Tigers then moved to the infield, engulfing Cresse at first base.

LSU 6, Stanford 5. The Tigers had secured the school's fifth NCAA title since 1991 with a courageous effort, scoring four runs in their final two at-bats to erase a three-run deficit. Blair Barbier's eighth-inning challenge to his teammates was answered in resounding fashion. The 2000 LSU Tigers, without question, did believe.

The Tigers posted a 52-17 record, including a 13-0 post-season mark.

History of LSU

1860s - 1920s

- The institution opened January 2, 1860 and subsequently closed June 30, 1861, because of the Civil War. It reopened on April 1, but was again closed on April 23, 1863, due to the invasion of the Red River Valley by the federal army.
- The seminary (as it was originally referred) reopened October 2, 1865, only to be burned October 15, 1869. Just over two weeks later, the institution resumed its exercises in Baton Rouge, where it has since remained. In 1870, the name of the institution was changed to Louisiana State University.
- In 1875, the institution became racially integrated. Just two years following, LSU's official title was changed to Louisiana State University and A&M College and became a land-grant institution.
- In 1886, the federal garrison grounds (now the site of the state capitol) were formally declared the domicile of the University. Land for the present campus was purchased in 1918.
- It was 1893 when LSU played its first football game, and three years later LSU adopted the tiger as the official mascot.

1920s

- With the support of Governor John M. Parker and the approval of a severance tax during the constitutional convention of 1921, the construction of the new campus, known today as Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College, began.
- The Gym-Armory was built west of the academic quadrangle for the purpose of housing the LSU basketball team and other indoor sporting events. Tiger Stadium was completed in 1924 and on Thanksgiving Day of that year, Tulane and LSU played the first game on the new campus. In 1928, upward expansion added 10,000 seats to the already 12,000-seat stadium.
- The formal dedication of the new campus took place on Friday, April 30, 1926. The date was chosen because on April 30, 1803 the United States Congress signed the Louisiana Purchase documents.

1930s

- During this time many of LSU's live oaks and magnolias were planted by landscape artist Steele Burden for what has become a symbolic part of the great legacy at LSU. The live oak trees on LSU's campus have been valued at $36 million. Through the LSU Foundation's "Endow an Oak" program, individuals or groups are able to endow live oaks across campus.
- In 1930, the student body adopted the alma mater that still is in use today. LSU is the home of The Southern Review, one of the world's most prestigious literary journals, established in the 1930s by Robert Penn Warren, Cleanth Brooks, and Charles Pipkin.

- The Huey P. Long Fieldhouse was constructed in 1932 and served as the campus' first student union. The Long Field House contained administrative offices and an outdoor pool that was the world's largest at the time.
- In 1937, two new athletic venues were completed and expanded. The John M. Parker Coliseum opened and served as a multipurpose arena mostly for livestock shows and rodeos. It was also used for commencements and convocations and served as home of the LSU basketball team. Alex Box Stadium also served as football practice fields. Tiger Stadium received its second expansion, adding a north endzone and bringing the capacity to 46,000.
- Huey P. Long and Castro Carazo teamed up to co-author notable songs "Touchdown for LSU" and "Hey Fightin' Tigers!" During his tenure at LSU Carazo compiled one of the most complete university band libraries in America.

1940s

- Until 1969 the ROTC program at Louisiana State University was mandatory for all entering male students. The military heritage began under General William T. Sherman and hence developed the name "Ole War Skule." Not many people know about LSU's rich military tradition. In WWII, only Texas A&M and the Military Academies of Annapolis and West Point were equal to the Ole War Skule in providing officers to the armed forces.
- In 1943, the LSU Band invited its first coed member.

1950s

- In 1950 LSU enrolled black students into its graduate program for the first time. Throughout the 1950s, air conditioning slowly began to be phased into administration and classroom buildings throughout the campus.
- A.P. Tureaud, Jr., enrolled, but resigned before the end of the fall term in 1953, while Brown vs. The Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, struck down racial segregation in public schools a year later.
- Tiger Stadium was expanded in 1957 with the south endzone providing the final piece of the puzzle to completely enclose the stadium. The enclosure provided not only additional seating but also men's dormitories. Capacity now reached 67,720.
- The LSU Tiger Football team won the 1958 National Championship, defeating Clemson, 7-0, in the Sugar Bowl and finishing with an 11-0 season.

1960s

- In 1964, a $5.5 million student union was built with 200,000 square feet of entertainment. The three-story facility accommodated a 1,315 seat theatre, 333 seat movie cinema, bowling lanes, game room and pool hall, post office, cafeteria and craft shop as well as ballrooms and conference rooms for hosting seminars and special events.

- Also that year, six black students enrolled in undergraduate studies.

- By the end of the decade, rising tensions due to U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War were mounting. The LSU ROTC program became a target for protestors as dissatisfaction with the war increased. The pressure increased for LSU to either cancel its program or make it voluntary. In October 1968, the LSU Faculty Council voted to make the ROTC program voluntary, and on May 26, 1969 the LSU Board of Supervisors made it official.

1970s

- Former professor T. Harry Williams was honored with the Pulitzer Prize for his biography of Huey Long in 1970.

- With the growing popularity of collegiate athletics, two new athletic facilities were built and another was being expanded. In 1971, LSU basketball introduced a state-of-the-art 15,000-seat multipurpose arena. The Assembly Center would eventually be known as the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and nicknamed "The PMAC" after the death of LSU basketball and NBA legend "Pistol" Pete Maravich in the late 1980's.

- In 1974, Athletics Director, Carl Maddox expanded the growing LSU athletic compound with the addition of a multi-purpose sports and recreational complex that now bears his name, the Carl Maddox Field House. Tiger Stadium again expanded in 1978 by adding 8,000-seats in a new West Upper Deck to lead the Tiger football program into the next decade with a capacity of nearly 80,000-seats.

- In 1978, LSU was named a sea-grant college becoming one of only 25 universities in the country recognized as both a land and sea-grant institution.

1980s

- Former professor John Kennedy Toole posthumously won the Pulitzer Prize for his fictional work, A Confederacy of Dunces.

- In 1985, the Natatorium was built for the LSU Swimming & Diving program as the United States Sports Festival came to Baton Rouge.

- James Wharton introduced a new admissions policy that would increase university admission standards. The standards would require high school students to complete a list of core requirements throughout their high school careers. In 1987, the board of supervisors approved the proposed admission standards.

- In 1987, LSU was designated as a Research University I, putting it in the top 2% of the nation's colleges and universities. Only 70 universities, 45 public and 25 private, have this designation.

1990s

- In 1992, The Student Recreational Sports Complex opened to rave reviews by LSU students and faculty.

- On May 20, 1994, the LSU Alumni Association dedicated its new home. Special honorees attending were Lod Cook, President Gerald Ford, President Jimmy Carter, President George Bush, White House Chief of Staff Mac McLardy, and Governor Edwin Edwards.

- Head Coach Skip Bertman built the LSU baseball program into one of the most dominating programs in the country. With National Championships coming in 1991, 93, 96, and 97, the Tigers would continue their dynasty into the next century by winning its fifth title in 2000. By the late 1990's the LSU Tiger baseball team became known as the "Program of the Decade" by all of college baseball.

- Speaking of dynasties, LSU Head Track & Field Coach Pat Henry managed to reach major milestones throughout his 15 years at LSU. He has led the Lady Tiger track & field team to 19 National Titles, 11 outdoor and eight indoor.

- His men's teams have won four NCAA titles, most recently the 2002 outdoor crown. Henry is the only coach in NCAA history to guide both the men and women team to NCAA titles in the same year. Under Henry's direction, the LSU track & field program has attained unparalleled success: 23 NCAA titles and 19 SEC crowns.

2000s

- In 2000, LSU opened its home football season to a newly-expanded Tiger Stadium. With an additional, 11,600 seats due to the addition of the East Upper Deck and 70 Tiger Den Suites, Tiger Stadium is the fifth largest on-campus arena in college football at 91,600.

- In 2001, the Lod Cook Hotel and Conference Center opened on the LSU campus giving Tiger fans and visitors a full-service hotel right on campus.

- Pat Henry's track and field dynasty continued into the 21st century as the Tigers have now captured 23 national titles under Henry. Most recently, LSU won the 2002 women's NCAA Indoor title, while the men's team captured the 2002 NCAA Outdoor title. As a University, LSU has accounted for 38 national titles and 102 Southeastern Conference titles.

- In 2002, the $15 million renovation to the Academic Center for Student-Athletes was completed, giving LSU student-athletes one of the nation's top facilities for learning.

Dr. William L. Jenkins

President, LSU

On April 1, 1999, William L. Jenkins, formerly Chancellor of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, became President of the LSU System, which includes nine institutions on 10 campuses in five cities, as well as 10 public hospitals in 10 cities.

A native of South Africa, Dr. Jenkins studied at the University of Pretoria, where he received his professional veterinary medicine degree in 1958 and specialist credentials in 1968. He received the Ph.D. degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, in 1970. After practicing veterinary medicine for four years, he joined the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology, and Toxicology in 1971.

He moved to the U.S. in 1978 and joined the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology and Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988 and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993.

When he was appointed LSU's fifth Chancellor in November 1996, Dr. Jenkins reorganized the campus administration to be more effective and more responsive, and oversaw the development of a strategic plan to guide the University in its preparation for the challenges of the next century.

Over the years President Jenkins has received numerous teaching and service awards and recognitions, having been named the 1997 Communicator of the Year by the Public Relations Association of Louisiana and a Distinguished Alumnus by the University of Missouri. The regional chapter of Toastmasters International also presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award, and he was awarded the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, the University of Pretoria bestowed an honorary doctorate on Dr. Jenkins in September of 2000.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in continuing education and has delivered more than 150 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. He has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels. He has published more than 60 scientific articles and has contributed 15 chapters to various textbooks. He is coauthor of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology.

Over the years, Dr. Jenkins has been a member of many professional organizations and select committees. Most recently, he served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to review accreditation criteria for colleges and universities.

Dr. Jenkins also is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society as well as the Committee on the Future of Coastal Louisiana.

His current community engagement includes serving on the boards of the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce, Academic Distinction Fund, Council for a Better Louisiana, Arts Council of Greater Baton Rouge, and the Baton Rouge board of the National Conference for Community and Justice.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children—Sharon Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren—and nine grandchildren.

Kenneth E. Carpenter, Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Kenneth E. Carpenter is in his first year as LSU's faculty representative in NCAA and Southeastern Conference matters.

Carpenter, a professor in the School of Architecture, has taught at LSU since 1986. He received his bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma in 1962 and his master's from Minnesota in 1967. Before joining the LSU faculty, he served at Clemson University as Associate Professor of Architecture from 1967-77; Ball State University, where he was Professor and Chairman of the Department of Architecture, 1977-81; and, Iowa State University, serving as Professor and Chairman, Department of Architecture from 1981-86.

At LSU he served as the Dean of the College of Design from 1986-1997, Interim Executive Director of International Programs from 1997-98; and, Interim Dean, College of Art and Design, 2001-02.

Carpenter is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Institute of Architects and the American Association of University Professors.

Dr. Mark A. Emmert

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Mark A. Emmert was appointed chancellor of Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College on April 16, 1999, becoming the sixth chancellor to lead the state's flagship University.

Prior to joining LSU, Emmert served as chancellor of the University of Connecticut, as provost and vice president for academic affairs at Montana State University, and held various faculty and administrative positions at the University of Colorado. He has served as a member of numerous academic and civic boards and organizations.

Both the Fulbright Commission and the American Council on Education have awarded fellowships to Emmert. He has also been inducted into Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Alpha Lambda Delta Scholastic Society, Golden Key Honor Society, and the Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences. He is active in the American Council on Education, the New England Council of Presidents, and the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, where he served as chair of the Council on Academic Affairs.

A native of Tacoma, Washington, Emmert holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Washington and master's and doctoral degrees from the Maxwell School of Syracuse University. His scholarly work has focused on public policy topics, as well as issues in organizational theory. He has published his research in leading journals within his field and has served on several editorial boards. He has also served as a visiting scholar and lecturer internationally, working in Australia, Hong Kong, Japan, and Panama.

He is married to DeLaine S. Emmert, a former elementary school teacher, who is active in community, university, and philanthropic organizations. They have two children, Stephen and Jennifer.

Chancellor Emmert celebrates the 2001 SEC Football Championship Game victory with All-American Josh Reed.

The Southeastern Conference

in Baseball

SETTING THE STANDARD FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 69-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2001-02 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured six national titles and seven national runner-up finishes. Between the years of 1990 and 2002, the SEC won 87 national team championships for an average of more than seven per year.

Tennessee and LSU won the conference's first NCAA titles of the year, respectively, in men's and women's indoor track. Auburn won the women's swimming & diving title, while Alabama won women's gymnastics. LSU and South Carolina also won the men's and women's outdoor track & field championships, respectively. Florida finished third in the Sears Trophy final standings without winning a national title.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 15 of the 20 sports. Eight SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Florida finishing the highest in the polls. Six men's and eight women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament with Tennessee advancing to the Women's Final Four. Seven teams advanced to postseason play in baseball with South Carolina finishing second in the College World Series. With 156 teams, almost eight per sport, advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the six team championships, 65 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 334 individuals were awarded with first-team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with 1,353 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed six teams in the top 25 of the Sears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a third-place finish. Georgia placed 8th, while LSU was 10th, South Carolina finished 11th, Tennessee 12th and Auburn 19th to round out the league's top 25 finishes. Nine of the SEC's 12 schools finished in the top 50 of the Sears Cup Standings. Alabama (32), Arkansas (35) and Kentucky (36) also made the top 50.

In college baseball, the SEC posted another landmark season as the conference had an NCAA-high seven teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play. South Carolina advanced to the College World Series, with the Gamecocks advancing to the national championship game. An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 17 of the last 18 years. Alabama won the SEC tournament title over South Carolina. South Carolina captured the SEC regular-season title with a 21-8 conference record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts ten former National Players of the Year, eight Baseball America Coach of the Year and seven Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. 103 student-athletes have been named All-American.

41 former SEC players were on Major League Baseball opening day rosters, while 39 were taken in the 2001 MLB Amateur Draft, three in the first round. South Carolina's Drew Meyer was the 10th pick overall. With that selection, the SEC has now had a first round pick every year since 1991 and 47 total.

The 2002 SEC Baseball Tournament, held in Birmingham, Ala., drew 124,440 fans, an average of 8,296 fans per game. It was the largest crowd in the history of the SEC Baseball Tournament.

NOTES

- The SEC has sent 24 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha eight times, while Alabama, Mississippi State and Florida have been three times each and Auburn, Georgia and Tennessee twice each.

- SEC teams have won six of the last 12 national championships, with LSU winning five (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title.

- SEC teams were 50-38 since 1990 in Omaha, a 56.8 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has a 40-27 record in the CWS since 1990, a 60.0 winning percentage.

- The SEC has played 18 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of 1.5 per year. Only twice, 1992 and 1994, has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

- The SEC has averaged 6 games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team played in 77 of the 177 games played in the College World Series, an amazing 44 percent of games.

- The SEC has sent eight of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

- Since 1990, 74 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average of 6.2 per season. In 1998, an NCAA-record seven teams were invited to play in post-season play. The SEC sent an NCAA-high six teams to post-season play in 1999 and 2000, and set a new NCAA mark in 2001 with eight teams being selected to postseason play. An NCAA-high seven teams were invited again in 2002.

- The SEC has had an NCAA-high 10 different teams compete in the 55-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 74-74 record, a 50.0 winning percentage.

- Since 1990, 21 SEC squads have posted 50+ win seasons, while 61 have won 40+ games in a season.

- The SEC posted a 242-99-1 record against non-conference foes in 2002, a 70.9 winning percentage. Since 1990, the SEC has accumulated a 3023-1196-3 record against non-conference teams, a 71.6 winning percentage.

- SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 57 conference teams have appeared in the final Baseball America poll, 62 in the final Collegiate Baseball poll and, since 1992, 53 in the final Baseball Weekly poll.

The annual Alumni Game matches the current LSU club versus a team of former Tigers active in pro baseball.

The Tiger Baseball Alumni Foundation is a unique group of former players, coaches, trainers and team managers who work year-round in organizing functions for alumni of the LSU Baseball program. The TBAF is the only one of its kind in the country involved with a college baseball program. The long-term purpose of the foundation can best be described by its mission statement:

The Tiger Baseball Alumni Foundation recognizes the contributions of LSU Baseball players and coaches, past, present and future.

We acknowledge the rich tradition of values in the LSU Baseball program. The Foundation seeks to pass along to future students and athletes the sense of community, the sense of family, the element of teamwork and the camaraderie learned as members of the LSU Baseball program; and, to further commit to Louisiana State University our loyalty and appreciation.

The TBAF was formed in the fall of 1994 with the goal to support the baseball team financially by working closely with the current and future coaching staffs to ensure that the quality of the facilities and other facets of the LSU Baseball program are the envy of every college baseball program in the nation.

The TBAF plays host to an Alumni Weekend for its members which includes a golf tournament and an alumni game in Alex Box Stadium. With the professional baseball success of some TBAF members, the alumni event is a treat for the fans as well, as current major and minor leaguers compete in the games.

The TBAF goes to great lengths to make sure that all of those who are eligible for membership in the organization receive the opportunity to participate in alumni events.

All former LSU baseball players, coaches, managers and trainers are encouraged to join the Tiger Baseball Alumni Foundation. For more information, contact the LSU Baseball office at (225) 578-4148.

Over 100 former players and coaches participate in the alumni weekend festivities.

Coaches Committee

The LSU Baseball Coaches Committee is proud to be a part of the Tiger Baseball Program. The group is comprised of men and women who have joined together to support college baseball's No. 1 program. Coaches Committee funds have assisted the baseball program in purchasing equipment and making numerous improvements to Alex Box Stadium. An annual contribution of $200 gives fans an opportunity to be closely involved with the success of LSU Baseball. For information on joining the Coaches Committee, call the LSU Baseball office at (225) 578-4148.

Coaches Committee funds assisted in the renovation of the LSU locker room.

The 2001-02 athletic year proved to be another outstanding one for LSU as the Tigers claimed their 37th and 38th national titles (women's indoor track and field and men's outdoor track and field) as well as their 101st and 102nd Southeastern Conference titles (football and softball).

In all, 18 of LSU's 20 sports competed in postseason action, with 17 of those teams being invited to the NCAA Tournament (or bowl game). The men's basketball team reached the second round of the NIT for LSU's 18th postseason appearance in 2001-02.

LSU's two national titles led all SEC teams in that category for the 2001-02 season, while the Tigers' 17 NCAA (or Bowl) appearances was the third best total in the conference, trailing only Florida and Georgia.

The following is a look at some of the top individual performances by LSU athletes in 2001-2002:

Walter Davis

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD

Walter Davis has perhaps one of the most dominating seasons for any athlete in school history. Davis was named the NCAA Division Track and Field Athlete of the Year after winning the NCAA outdoor title in the long jump, triple jump and anchoring a leg of LSU's winning 4x100-meter relay team in leading the Tigers to the national title. He capped his illustrious career as a nine-time All-American and a six-time national champion. With his first national championship in the long jump, he recorded a mark of 26 feet 6 1/4 inches. He became the first LSU man to win the event since Llewellyn Starks in 1990. The 2000 Olympian closed out his collegiate career by shattering his own LSU record in the triple jump, winning with a mark of 56-10 3/4. He closed his collegiate career a perfect 17-0 in the event. In the process, he became only the sixth man in NCAA history to sweep the horizontal jumps and the first to do so since 1998. Davis bettered his school and SEC records by winning the triple jump at the 2002 USA Track & Field Championships (57-8 1/2).

Nicki Arnstad

GYMNASTICS

Nick Arnstad won a share of the NCAA title in the floor exercise with a score of 9.95. Arnstad, a First-Team All-America selection, became the first LSU gymnast in modern-day history to win an individual NCAA title. Arnstad captured the floor title as well as the all-around title a week earlier at the NCAA Central Regional. Arnstad posted a perfect 10.0 score on the floor exercise, leading the Tigers to their first NCAA Regional team title in 16 years.

FOOTBALL

Josh Reed capped his LSU career as the SEC's all-time leader in receiving yards with 3,001. Reed, who won the Biletnikoff Award in 2001, shattered the league's single-season receiving mark with 1,740 yards on 94 catches last year for the Tigers. Reed also set SEC single-game records with 19 receptions for 293 yards and a pair of touchdowns in LSU's 35-21 win over Alabama. For his efforts, Reed was a consensus All-America selection in 2001 and was drafted in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

Britni Sneed

SOFTBALL

The most dominating softball player in LSU history, Britni Sneed capped her Tiger career as the winningest pitcher in SEC history with 120 wins. Sneed, who was a First-Team All-America selection, also holds the SEC mark for career shutouts (55). Sneed earned SEC Pitcher of the Year honors for the second-straight year after posting a 34-7 overall mark and leading the Tigers to league title. She capped her four-year career with LSU ranked fourth in NCAA history in strikeouts with 1,370 and she ranks among the top 10 in NCAA history for career victories and strikeout ratio and in the top 15 in NCAA history for appearances, games started, winning percentage and saves. Sneed, who threw six no-hitters in 2002, was one of 10 semifinalists for USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award and was named to the 2002 USA Softball Elite team.

Muna Lee

WOMEN'S TRACK AND FIELD

Named the SEC Female Track and Field Athlete of the Year in 2002 leading the Lady Tigers to the NCAA Indoor title. Lee won the NCAA title in the 200-meter dash in an LSU record time of 22.82 seconds, the second fastest time in NCAA history. In addition, Lee finished third in the 60-meter dash and helped the Lady Tigers to a third place finish in the 4x400-meter relay. At the NCAA Outdoor meet, Lee finished third in the 100-meter dash, fourth in the 200-meter dash and anchored the final leg of LSU's 4x100 meter relay team that finished second.

Meredith Duncan

WOMEN'S GOLF

Meredith Duncan gained fame in the summer of 2001 as she became the first women's golfer in LSU history to win the prestigious U.S. Amateur title. Duncan, who participated in the U.S. Women's Open in 2001, earned First-Team All-America honors last year for the Lady Tigers. Duncan, a First-Team All-SEC selection in 2002, won three individual titles as a senior and she finished 19th at the NCAA Championships.

Over a four-day span last spring, the LSU campus served as the host of the NCAA Track and Field Championships as well as an NCAA Baseball Regional.

All-Sports Success

LSU's athletics program has traditionally been strong throughout all of its varsity sports and has fielded nationally competitive teams in most of its sports.

A total of 18 of LSU's 20 athletic teams participated in post-season play last year, with 17 of those teams being invited to NCAA Tournament action (or a bowl game). The 18th team, the men's basketball squad, advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Twelve of LSU's 20 teams finished ranked in the nation's Top 25 for their respective sports during the 2001-02 athletic year, and of those, seven finished in the Top 10.

LSU has won 102 Southeastern Conference championships and has claimed 38 national titles.

Athletics as a Business

Athletics is mistakenly thought of as merely entertainment. In fact, the total revenues of over $37.5 million generated annually by the Athletic Department is:

- twice that of the sales of an average manufacturing plant in Louisiana
- twice the volume of an average food processor
- about seven times more than the typical apparel plant in the state

Attendance

LSU teams draw some of the largest crowds in all of college athletics:

- More than 1.1 million fans watched LSU athletics in all 20 sports during the 2001-02 athletic year.
- Over the past 10 years, LSU football attendance has averaged more than 70,000 fans per game. In 2001, LSU set a school-record by averaging 90,491 fans a contest, a number that ranked fifth nationally. LSU's average of 90,491 fans a contest makes Tiger Stadium, on a Saturday night, more populated than 52 of Louisiana's 64 parishes.
- LSU baseball set the standard in college baseball for attendance again in 2002 as more than 271,000 fans watched the Tigers play at Alex Box Stadium in regular and postseason play.

CHAMPS Program

LSU sponsors a fully funded life skills program for student-athletes. The program is called CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success. Under the CHAMPS program, LSU sets up a number of projects and workshops that aid student-athletes in addressing day-to-day living situations, handling stress and preparing for post-college life.

Under the CHAMPS program, LSU also establishes community service projects in which student-athletes organize and participate. The LSU CHAMPS program sponsors an annual Halloween "Boo-Zar" on campus. The boozar is a trick-or-treat night in the LSU Field House in which athletes from all sports distribute candy to Baton Rouge area children. Each athletic team participates in CHAMPS workshops which educate them in life skills and personal development.

Community Involvement

Because of the athletic facilities on the LSU campus, Baton Rouge is able to attract many events and conventions that benefit the community in both public relations and monetary means. LSU has played host to such events as the National Sports Festival (now called the Olympic Festival) and the International Special Olympics. In 2001, LSU hosted the U.S. Senior Olympics and in the past has played host to the U.S. Junior National Track & Field Championships.

The LSU campus is annually the site of LHSA Track & Field Championships, bringing to campus thousands of young people and their parents. Most recently, LSU hosted the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships at Bernie Moore Stadium.

Economic Impact

LSU has a tremendous impact on the economy of the Baton Rouge area. LSU sporting events bring money into the Baton Rouge economy, not only from throughout the state, but throughout the southeast.

According to a study by LSU economics professor Loren Scott, the existence of LSU Athletics generates $131 million in sales for businesses in the Baton Rouge community, another $40 million in household earnings and supports over 2,100 jobs in the Baton Rouge area.

LSU Athletics Notebook

Finances

The LSU Athletic Department is a totally self-sufficient auxiliary of the University. No state tax dollars are used to finance LSU athletics. All money spent by the Athletic Department is generated by the department through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, radio and television revenue, the Tiger Gift Center and concessions, and is supplemented through revenue-sharing resulting from LSU's membership in the Southeastern Conference.

Individual Athletes

Year in and year out, LSU boasts some of the most renowned athletes in all of college athletics.

NBA Most Valuable Player and world-wide entertainment superstar Shaquille O'Neal delighted Tiger basketball fans for three seasons. PGA Champion David Toms played for the Tigers in the late 1980s, while Major League Baseball standouts Todd Walker and Paul Byrd learned their trade at Alex Box Stadium. Sometimes overlooked are some of the finest female athletes in the country in their respective sports: golfer Meredith Duncan, softball All-American Britni Sneed and women's basketball All-American Marie Ferdinand dazzled LSU fans in recent years.

Job Placement

Is there life after college athletics? LSU is helping to answer that question with a job placement program as part of the Ninth Semester Program. LSU works closely with the Career Placement Center on campus as well as professional recruiting services to offer advice to athletes on entering the job market upon graduation.

National Awards

LSU has had one winner each of the Heisman Trophy, Adolph Rupp Award and Golden Spikes Award, the premier individual awards in football, basketball and baseball. The Heisman Trophy, given annually to college football's best player, was won by Billy Cannon in 1959. The Adolph Rupp Award, which goes to college basketball's top player, was won by Shaquille O'Neal in 1991. The Golden Spikes Award, given to college baseball's most outstanding player each year, was won by Ben McDonald in 1989. Last year, Josh Reed added his name to the list as he claimed the Biletnikoff Award, which goes annually to the nation's top receiver.

LSU operates a fully stocked merchandise store within Tiger Stadium that gives fans a wide array of LSU clothing and memorabilia. The Gift Center is open on football, basketball and baseball game days for fans' convenience. A new satellite Gift Center near Mike the Tiger's cage is open for added customer convenience. The Tiger Gift Center also went worldwide during the 2000-01 season as LSU merchandise can now be purchased from anywhere in the world on LSU's website, www.LSUsports.net.

University Involvement

LSU continues to produce profits in its athletic department, despite generally difficult economic times for college athletic programs.

Athletics has contributed over $7.5 million to the academic side of the University in the past 11 years. In 1994-95, athletics contributed $100,000 to the LSU Libraries to assist in buying books and other materials necessary to keep LSU's library system among the finest in the nation, and in 1996 generated over $30,000 by dedicating all ticket sales from the Spring Football Game to the libraries.

After the 1988-89 fiscal year, LSU Athletics donated $2 million to the general fund of the University to help offset projected losses. LSU Athletics has also donated sizeable amounts of money to fund professorships and provide for repairs in academic facilities.

The SKIP BERTMAN Legacy

Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman augmented his impressive list of achievements in his first season as LSU's director of athletics. While supervising the Tigers' magnificent progress on the playing fields, he began to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

LSU's programs enjoyed remarkable success under Bertman's direction in 2001-02, as 18 of the Tigers' 20 sports participated in post-season competition. That accomplishment, along with improved graduation rates, increased team grade point averages and the construction of new academic facilities, foreshadow even more significant deeds in the second season of Bertman's tenure.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' nearly $35 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

In a Baseball America poll released in January, 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned stellar recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes. He was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -- Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertmans have two grandchildren -- Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard.

LSU

Dan Radakovich
Sr. Associate Athletics Director

Dan Radakovich enters his second year as LSU's senior associate athletics director after joining the University in May of 2001. He came to LSU after serving as director of athletics at American University in Washington D.C.

As LSU's senior associate athletic director, Radakovich oversees the daily operations of the LSU Athletic Department and he serves as Bertman's chief assistant.

Prior to his one-year stint at American University, Radakovich spent six years as the associate athletics director at South Carolina where he directed the financial operations for the Gamecocks' $30 million athletic department budget. Radakovich also worked closely with South Carolina Athletics Director Mike McGee in laying the ground work for a new $70 million arena being built in Columbia. He also served as the department liaison for marketing and promotional activities with Host Communications. Radakovich was also responsible for home event management as well as that of overseeing concessions, football travel and the video department.

During his tenure with South Carolina, Radakovich supervised the finances and logistics for $33 million in facility improvements.

Radakovich served as the senior associate athletics director at Long Beach State from 1989-94. In that capacity, he managed a $5 million budget and supervised the nationally recognized men's basketball and baseball programs. In addition, Radakovich reorganized the fund-raising operations and coordinated the production and sales of radio broadcasting packages.

Radakovich began his collegiate athletics career as the athletics business manager at the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla., from 1983-85. He worked in the private sector for five years before joining Long Beach State.

Radakovich, a native of Aliquippa, Pa., graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1980 with a bachelor of science degree in finance. Radakovich was also a football letterwinner as well as a student coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. He then went on to earn his master's degree in business administration from the University of Miami in 1982.

Radakovich is married to the former Marcie McDonald and the couple has two children, Christian (12) and Grant (8).

Judy Southard
Associate Athletics Director/
Senior Women's Administrator

Judy Southard, who had a very successful career as both a head women's basketball coach and director of athletics, enters her second year as LSU's senior women's administrator after joining the department in the summer of 2001.

Southard came to LSU from Texas Woman's University, where she served as the school's director of athletics for nine years.

As LSU's senior women's administrator, Southard serves as the administrative liaison to the Tigers' nationally-recognized Olympic sports teams.

While at Texas Woman's University, Southard initiated a corporate partnership program for the athletic department that tripled the involvement of area businesses and corporations in Pioneer athletics. Southard also established the TWU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame and she played a key role in the addition of softball and soccer to TWU's list of intercollegiate sports. In 2000, Southard served as chair of the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Committee.

Prior to her nine-year stint at Texas Woman's University, Southard served as head women's basketball coach at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., for 11 years, where she led the Lady Herd to five Southern Conference regular-season titles. During her 11 years at Marshall, Southard was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year three times and her career record of 178-130 still stands as a school record for women's basketball victories. Southard also served as assistant athletics director at Marshall from 1983-1988, including a four-month period when she was interim director.

Prior to her tenure at Marshall, Southard spent three years as head coach at Tennessee-Martin and she also served for one season as an assistant coach at Tennessee. As a high school teacher from 1970-77, Southard coached both basketball and tennis, leading her West Florence High School basketball team to the South Carolina 4A state title in 1976.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Southard earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Coker College in 1970 followed by a master's degree in physical education from Tennessee in 1978.

Verge Ausberry
Associate Athletics Director/
Internal Operations

Former LSU football standout Verge Ausberry joined the LSU Athletic Department administrative staff in August 2001 to head up Athletic Department Operations.

In his position he is in charge of such areas as Game Management, the Athletic Department's courtesy car program, the weight room, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room and equipment rooms and video operations for the various sports on the campus.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was the leading tackler on the team in both 1988 and 1989. He was part of two Southeastern Conference championship teams (1986 under Bill Arnsparger and 1988 under Mike Archer) and played on teams that went to three bowl games: the 1987 Sugar Bowl, the 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl. In those three years, the Tigers had a combined overall record of 27-8-1 and 16-3 in SEC games.

Although this is Ausberry's first tour of duty with the administration of the Athletic Department, he has remained very close to the LSU athletic scene in the 1990s, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes where he worked with many of the student-athletes, primarily dealing with LSU's football squad.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fund-raising arm prior to accepting his present position.

The 35-year-old Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990 and his Master of Education in Administration, Supervision and certification in Child Welfare in May of 1992. He is presently a Doctoral Candidate in Higher Education Administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans.

Bo Bahnsen

Associate Athletics Director/
Student Services

Bo Bahnsen serves as LSU's associate athletics director for student services and is the compliance officer for the Athletic Department.

David E. "Bo" Bahnsen was promoted to associate athletics director in 1996 after serving as an assistant A.D. since 1989. He served in various capacities within the department since his graduation from LSU in 1982.

On November 1, 1989, Bahnsen was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer. He also manages LSU's drug testing and drug education program.

After serving as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate, Bahnsen became administrative assistant for the basketball team upon graduation in May of 1982. In July of 1987 he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office, until his promotion in 1989.

Bahnsen, 43, was born in El Campo, Texas, and graduated from Wharton High School in 1977. He attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979.

He earned the bachelor of science in physical education and is currently working on a master's in education administration.

Bahnsen is married to the former Karen Mayson, former LSU golfer and current head coach of LSU's nationally ranked women's golf team. They are the parents of Darren (12) and an Devin (10).

Jerry Blanchard

Associate Athletics Director/Facilities

Jerry Blanchard, in his position as assistant athletics director for facilities, supervises LSU's impressive athletic physical plant consisting of the playing and practice facilities for all sports.

Jerry Blanchard was appointed to the position of assistant athletics director in charge of facilities at LSU on August 15, 1997.

One of Blanchard's primary projects has been the expansion of Tiger Stadium with the addition of skyboxes and seating on the east side of the structure that increased the capacity of the stadium to over 91,600. Also on his docket are the renovation to the west side of Tiger Stadium, including a new press box as well as new parks for both baseball and softball.

Blanchard joined the athletic department after serving almost six years as the director of the Office of Facility Development on the LSU campus. He was responsible for administering a staff of architects, engineers, landscape architects, designers, construction managers, space utilization specialists, date specialists, CAD student workers and support personnel to plan, direct and coordinate all physical facilities, design and construction for the Baton Rouge campus.

The Baton Rouge native also worked as vice president at Clements, Blanchard & Associates, Inc., APAEC in Baton Rouge from 1979-81, Barbay Associates from 1978-79, Architects One Plus, Inc., from 1977-78, Billy J. Smith Architect from 1969-77 and R.L. Bennett & Associates from 1967-69.

Blanchard, 52, attended Istrouma High School in Baton Rouge and graduated from LSU in 1973 with a degree from the College of Environmental Design, School of Architecture. When off duty, he enjoys hunting, fishing, woodworking, photography and has his private pilot's license.

Blanchard and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Jacqueline Leigh (21), Candace Lynn (20) and Samantha Lyndell (11).

Mark Ewing

Associate Athletics Director/Business

Mark Ewing, an 18-year employee of Louisiana State University, joined the LSU Athletic Department in January 2001, and serves as the department's associate athletics director for business.

Ewing came to the athletic department from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the University's $360 million operating budget.

Prior to his service at LSU, he was employed by Cajun Electric Power Cooperative where he managed accounting for the company's $2 billion plus construction division.

As associate athletics director for business, Ewing has assumed responsibility for the athletic business operations including budget, travel, personnel, and purchasing as well as responsibility for concession operations.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a Bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a Master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three children, Andrea (16), Arleen (14) and Molly Sue (10).

Herb Vincent

Associate Athletic Director/External Affairs

Herb Vincent, the sports information director at LSU from 1988-2000, returned to his alma mater in August 2002 to serve as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs.

In his present position, Vincent serves as the primary public relations officer for the LSU Athletic Department and all its entities, including the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

Vincent served as the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. He was appointed assistant athletic director in November of 1989, then elevated to Associate AD/Communications in 1992. Besides supervising the LSU Sports information and the electronic media offices, Vincent also was in charge of the athletic photography and coaches' video offices.

He joined LSU as assistant sports information director in February of 1988 and was promoted to the position of SID in July of that year.

Prior to his return to LSU, Vincent served as Vice-President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham.

Vincent, 42, is a 1979 graduate of Catholic High School in Little Rock, Ark., and received a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983. He worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer, the late Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant PR director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the PR staff's top position.

Before joining LSU in 1988, Vincent spent one year as assistant SID at Louisiana Lafayette (then Southwestern Louisiana), where he served as director of athletic publications and the Shreveport native also worked at the Southeastern Conference offices in Birmingham as assistant public relations director in charge of basketball publicity.

Vincent is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky.

Michael Bonnette

Sports Information Director

mbonnet@lsu.edu

Michael Bonnette enters his third year as LSU's Sports Information Director after being promoted to the position in August of 2000. As Sports Information Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 20 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 32-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his eighth year with the LSU Athletic Department. Prior to taking over as Sports Information Director, Bonnette was the top assistant for football publicity as well as handling all media relations efforts for LSU's nationally-ranked women's basketball team. He also served as the editor of LSU's award winning gameday football program.

Bonnette joined the LSU SID staff as an intern in 1993 after serving as a student assistant within the department for four years.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of long-time McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, serves as vice president for SIDs of the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has two sons, Peyton (5) and Grant (3).

Kent Lowe

clowe@lsu.edu

Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August, 2000, after serving as associate SID for nine years. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team. Lowe also coordinates the annual Louisiana High School All-Star events held on the LSU campus.

His voice is also well known as the color analyst on home softball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Network.

Lowe, 44, came to LSU in 1988 from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack. Lowe was promoted to associate SID in July of 1991 after serving as assistant SID since August of 1988.

Lowe, a native of Shreveport, is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters degree at LSU in 1982.

Laurie Cannon

Associate SID

lcannon1@lsu.edu

Laurie Cannon enters her first year at LSU as associate SID in charge of track and field and gymnastics. She comes to LSU after spending the previous year at Baylor University where she served as the primary contact for the Bears' track and field and cross country programs, and assisted with the publicizing of the Bear football team.

A 2000 graduate of Utah State, Cannon earned bachelor of arts degrees in business administration and exercise science. At her alma mater Cannon served one year as an assistant media relations director and one year as a media relations student assistant. Her duties at USU included serving as the primary contact for the Aggies' gymnastics, softball and women's soccer programs.

While a student at Utah State, Cannon was a four-year letterwinner for the Aggies' nationally ranked gymnastics team. She served as team captain during her junior and senior seasons.

Cannon is a native of Carmichael, Calif.

Bill Franques

Associate SID

wfranqu@lsu.edu

Bill Franques, who served as the LSU baseball administrative assistant for three seasons, returned to the Sports Information office in August of 2000. Franques had previously served as Associate SID for nine years.

Franques' responsibilities as administrative assistant included handling the Tigers' media and public relations, coordinating team and recruiting travel, organizing fund-raising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

As associate SID, Franques continues to work as the baseball program's media relations director. He also serves as the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer, and he is the radio color analyst on LSU Sports Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, Franques is the producer and co-host of LSU Sports Journal, a monthly television program featuring LSU sports personalities, and he is the co-host of LSU Tiger Talk, a weekly radio show highlighting athletics department events.

The LSU baseball media guide, edited by Franques, has twice been named best in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the USA in eight of the past 10 seasons.

Franques received a bachelor of arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have two children, William Paul, Jr., born September 23, 2000, and Benjamin Lewis, born April 18, 2002.

AN INVITATION TO JOIN TAF

Through generous donations from Tiger fans such as you, TAF has been able to underwrite a diverse collection of programs over the years from the upgrade and construction of facilities, to the ever-important investment of defraying the rising cost of tuition for scholarship athletes.

Less than one year ago, the LSU Board of Supervisors granted approval to move forward on a project to renovate and refurbish the LSU Gym Armory into a modern, updated facility housing the Academic Center for Athletes as well as an auditorium and computer lab to be enjoyed by the entire campus.

At TAF we feel this wonderful idea is becoming a reality at a pivotal time for LSU's Athletic Program, and after experiencing such enormous success so early in the campaign, I would like to encourage support from all Tiger patrons in accomplishing this important project.

Consider this your invitation to become a part of this winning team whose goal is to provide the opportunity for academic excellence for our Tiger athletes as well as constant support for all LSU Athletic Programs.

Sincerely,

Major General R.G. Richard, USMC (Ret.)
Chief Executive Officer

WHAT IS TAF?

The Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) is a private, nonprofit foundation dedicated to supporting LSU and its Athletic Programs. The Foundation is administered by its own board of directors, comprised of TAF donors, which meets quarterly. Officers of the corporation are elected bi-annually.

Louisiana State University has a proud athletic tradition, highlighted by scores of Southeastern Conference and NCAA championships in more than 20 men's and women's varsity sports. Thanks to generous private-sector contributions, the Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) continues to play an integral role in sustaining that outstanding tradition. As the central fund-raising organization in support of LSU athletics, TAF's mission is clear - to lead the university in building a comprehensively superior athletic program.

Unrestricted contributions to the Tiger Athletic Foundation benefit every athlete and team at LSU through scholarship and academic awards, as well as through the construction and maintenance of athletic facilities. These projects, large and small, chart the unmistakable course to excellence. And it is the shared vision of alumni and friends of LSU that are making them a reality.

Your donation assists the Tiger Athletic Foundation in its programs and support for LSU Athletics.

- Funding the construction and renovation of facilities and the purchase of equipment to provide Tiger student-athletes with the best possible opportunity to compete at a national level
- Funding support for facilities and programs to enhance the academic opportunities for student/athletes.
- Providing support to assure the best possible coaching and support staffs are in place to lead the LSU athletic program

LSU Corporate Sponsors

When you see this...

THINK LSU TIGERS

Thirteen corporations, some of them national and multi-national in scope, participate in an innovative and profitable corporate sponsorship program with the LSU Athletic Department. The sponsorships provide these companies with valuable promotional avenues and high-profile identity affiliation with LSU sports in exchange for financial support. The corporate sponsorship program generates over $3 million annually, enabling the athletic department to fund scholarships, team travel, athletic facility improvements and other typical athletic expenses. Current Major Corporate Sponsors of LSU Athletics include Bank One of Louisiana, Coca-Cola, Powerade, EATEL, Winn-Dixie, Louisiana Lottery, McDonald's, United Parcel Service, Farm Bureau Insurance, Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center, Ochsner Clinic, Abita Springs Water Company, and the Advocate.
