MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2006 LSU Men's Tennis Media Guide was written to provide members of the media with statistics and information needed to adequately cover the LSU men's tennis team. If you need further information on the team, pictures, or wish to set up an interview with head coach Jeff Brown, associate head coach Mark Booras or any of the student-athletes, please contact Ben Wright at the LSU Sports Information Office at (225) 578-8226.

GAME NOTES

The most recent media game notes, updated statistics and releases are posted on LSU's web page (www.LSUsports.net) as soon as they are completed. To view the information through Adobe Acrobat, download the free software by following the instructions also listed on the web site.

MATCH CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for all men's tennis matches should be requested two days before the match by contacting Ben Wright at (225) 578-8226. Once credentials have been requested, all passes will be left at the double-door main entrance to the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium.

During matches, media members will be provided with a media guide as well as a match program that includes notes and updated statistics. Final match results can be obtained immediately following the match.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must check in with an LSU Sports Information staff member on site for designated photo locations prior to every match. Photographers are welcome to photograph from the stands, but must receive permission to photograph on the courts. Only accredited photographers or those persons on special assignment will be allowed access to the court.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews with players and coaches must be coordinated through the SID office and requested 24 hours in advance to ensure availability - excluding post-match interviews.

lsu men's tennis

this is lsu

The LSU men's tennis team has called the W.T. Robinson Tennis Stadium home since 1970, but the "Dub," as it is affectionately called, has kept up with newer college facilities through a series of renovations and improvements over the years.

Both the nationally-ranked Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room, brand-new showers and bathrooms. The "Dub" was totally refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room, an equipment room and a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

Robinson Stadium, named in honor of LSU's former winningest tennis coach, was completed in 1970 and is the site of the Tigers' and Lady Tigers' home outdoor matches. LSU plays its indoor matches at the next-door Carl Maddox Field House.

The "Dub" features six varsity courts and six practice courts. The six varsity courts were resurfaced prior to the 2002-03 academic school year, while the six practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001 as a part of the facilities makeover. The varsity courts feature an electronic scoreboard and can accommodate up to 550 spectators.

Former men's coach Jerry Simmons surpassed Robinson in 1992 to become the Tigers' all-time winningest coach. The Coach Simmons Era came to a close in 1997, as the Tigers posted an 11-1 home mark en-route to an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships. With Simmons at the helm, Robinson Stadium became one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents to play. LSU tallied an incredible 162-25 (.866) record at home during the last 15 seasons under Simmons.

Since current head coach Jeff Brown took over the reins in 1998, the Tigers have accumulated a 94-23 (.803) overall record at home. In his opening season as head coach, Brown notched a perfect 12-0 record at Robinson Stadium. In 2005, Brown notched his best home record at 16-1.

Maddox Field House, which can seat up to 3,000 spectators, has four surfaced courts. It is climate controlled and also plays host to LSU indoor track and field meets.

W.T. "DUB" ROBINSON FACTS

LSU's legendary men's tennis coach, W.T. Robinson, or "Dub" as he was lovingly known, single-handedly acted as a catalyst in the LSU tennis program's rise to national prominence. In his nearly three decades as the head tennis coach at LSU, Robinson accumulated a 189-180-9 overall record and propelled the Tigers to a status among the nation's elite.

Working with limited resources and a financially-deprived tennis program, LSU's rise to the top of collegiate tennis can be traced back to Robinson's warm personality and quick wit. Always a favorite among his players, Robinson transformed a team that had not won a match in three years into a team that finished with a 12-1 record and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference in only his sixth season at the helm.

When the LSU tennis complex was completed in the fall of 1976, it was only natural that it was named after the person that built the program.

HISTORY

Amenities

- ▶ 28 multi-purpose power stations
- ▶ 36 assorted selectorized machines
- ▶ 10 dumbbell stations with 2 sets of 5-180 pound free weights
- ▶ Custom made equipment by Body Masters and Eleiko

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment. Measuring 10,000-square feet, LSU has one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation.

LSU strength and conditioning team took a new direction in 2000 under strength coach Tommy Moffitt, who was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities.

FACILITY BUILT BY THE TIGER ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

Amenities

- ▶ 54,000 square feet of working space
- ▶ 75 computer workstations
- ▶ 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- ▶ Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- ▶ Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- ▶ A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

Paramount to the success of the “student” half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom. For more than 20 years, the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes opened its doors in November of 2002. A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory not only made it among the nation’s premier centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Computer Stations

Throughout the Academic Center are 75 computer stations, providing student-athletes with a quiet working environment for research, writing and studying.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

The Library

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as group.

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

Communications lab

Lights, Camera, Answer

Dr. Karam uses his studio to prepare LSU's student-athletes to interact with all phases of local and national media by working one-on-one in a press conference setting. The Communications Lab includes a working camera for Karam to review the session with the student-athletes.

Along with the success of LSU Athletics, comes a great deal of media attention and Dr. Tommy Karam, the Director of the Communications Lab, uses his lab, located on the fourth floor of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, to work with LSU student-athletes on their interactions with the media and interview skills. Karam's lab is a mock press conference setting to get the student-athletes used to handling themselves in front of both print and electronic media. He video tapes the mock interview session and reviews it with the student-athlete to help them become more comfortable in an interview setting.

A Champions

The 2004-05 athletics year was another wonderful year for LSU. The Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoyed success from the fields and courts to the classroom. All in all it was an exciting year for LSU's student-athletes, coaches and fans.

Postseason Presence

Of LSU's 20 sports, 14 teams advanced to postseason play. Among the highlights: the football team advanced to a New Year's bowl game for the fourth straight year ... the women's basketball team won the SEC title and reached the Final Four for the second straight season ... the men's outdoor track & field team finished No. 3 in the country ... and the men's tennis team reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen ... LSU was one of only four schools in the country to send its football team to a New Year's Bowl game and both of its basketball teams to the NCAA Tournament.

In the Classroom

Seven of 16 sports posted a team grade point average of 3.0 or higher, and 13 of the 16 were above 2.8, with women's tennis leading the way with a team GPA of 3.40.

50%

Nearly 50 percent of the student-athletes - 48.5 percent to be exact - recorded a grade point average of 3.0 or higher. A total of 79 had a GPA of 3.5 or higher and 22 Tigers had a perfect 4.0 GPA in the spring semester.

Four Tigers - Chelsea Agar in soccer, Brandon Bass in men's basketball, Jason Determann in baseball and Paul White in men's tennis - were named SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year in their respective sports.

136

LSU had a total of 136 student-athletes earn Academic All-SEC selections in 2004-05, the second-most selections in the conference. To receive the award each student-athlete must have a 3.0 grade point average.

2005 NCAA TENNIS DOUBLES RUNNERS-UP KEN SKUPSKI AND MARK GROWCOTT

Hardcourt Duo

Our men's tennis doubles team of Ken Skupski and Mark Growcott advanced to the finals of the NCAA doubles championships.

Coaching Excellence

Gymnastics head coach D-D Breaux and women's basketball head coach Pokey Chatman each earned the Southeastern Conference's top billing as Coach of the Year, while Chatman, was named the National Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, Naismith and the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Conference Crowns

The women's basketball team won the Southeastern Conference championship and two teams - men's basketball and baseball - finished first in the SEC Western Division.

Elite Teams

Six LSU teams finished their seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 and 11 finished in the top 30. Two teams - the women's basketball team and gymnastics team - were ranked No. 1 in the nation during their respective seasons.

Ship Tradition

2005 SEC GYMNAST OF THE YEAR - APRIL BURKHOLDER

2005 SEC MEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR - BRANDON BASS

WADE, NAISMITH, AND WOODEN TROPHY
WINNER FOR NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR -
SEIMONE AUGUSTUS

Amazing Athletes

Once again this year, numerous Tigers were named All-Americans in their sports, and three were named the best in their sport in the SEC: Seimone Augustus in women's basketball, Brandon Bass in men's basketball and April Burkholder in gymnastics.

Fast Foursome

At the NCAA Track and Field Championships, the men's 4x400-meter relay team of Reginald Dardar, Kelly Willie, Bennie Brazell and Xavier Carter set a collegiate record in winning the national title in that event.

Top Billing

The most significant awards went to Seimone Augustus who won the Wade, Naismith and John R. Wooden Trophies, given annually to the best women's college basketball player in the nation.

The state capitol building of Louisiana, located in Baton Rouge, is the tallest capitol building in the nation at 34 stories.

Hospitality and comfort are a Southern tradition practiced to perfection around Baton Rouge. Minutes from the city, ancient moss-draped oaks, fragrant honeysuckle, formal gardens and the finest examples of Southern architecture await. Combine this with the excitement of the mighty Mississippi River, Cajun music and a gourmet meal that is topped with freshly brewed cafe-au-lait at one of Baton Rouge's fine restaurants. Mix in an LSU athletic event, and Baton Rouge becomes one of the most attractive cities for living, entertainment and education in the South.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 145-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

DIVERSITY

"The Most Diverse school in the nation."

Newsweek magazine named Louisiana State University the "Most Diverse" school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003 issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

"LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY HAS A TRADITION OF GRATITUDE EXPRESSED IN SERVICE TO COMMUNITY AND COUNTRY."

President George W. Bush
2004 LSU SPRING COMMENCEMENT

Strong supporters of education throughout the state have provided resources for a variety of innovative projects that are attracting world-class researchers and their expertise to LSU. The National Flagship Agenda is working to improve the standing of the University, as well as strengthen its position as an economic engine for the state of Louisiana. As a result, the University community is even more determined to achieve excellence at every level.

LSU remains firmly focused on attaining national flagship status by 2010, the University's 150th anniversary. The resolve of the LSU community and the support of the state make these goals attainable. And, if the last five years are any indication of success, the next phase of this agenda will guarantee LSU's place in the arena of national prominence.

Because of its designation as a doctoral/research university by the Carnegie Foundation, LSU ranks in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. This designation is shared by only 59 public and 29 private universities across the nation. LSU is also one of only 25 universities nationwide designated as both a land-grant and sea-grant college.

History and tradition began with LSU's founding in 1853 by the General Assembly of Louisiana as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy near Pineville, Louisiana. The institution opened January 2, 1860. When the Civil War began, the school's first superintendent, William Tecumseh Sherman, resigned to assume a command in the Union Army. The seminary reopened in 1869, but was soon destroyed by fire. The institution moved to Baton Rouge, opening on Nov. 1, 1869.

In 1870, the Seminary was renamed Louisiana State University. In 1874, under the United States Morrill Act, the Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans. The two institutions were merged by the Legislature in 1877 to become Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College.

Construction on the present campus began in 1922 and the first classes were held in 1926. LSU experienced major growth in the 1930s and 1940s, expanding its student body, curricula, and services. During the 1960s, the University began to place increasing emphasis on research.

Recognizing the importance and extent of statewide agricultural activities of units in the LSU System, the LSU Board of Supervisors established the Center for Agricultural Sciences & Rural Development in 1972. This unit was renamed the LSU Agricultural Center in 1982. Components of the LSU Agricultural Center include the Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station, the Louisiana

Cooperative Extension Service and International Programs.

The primary mission of the LSU Agricultural Center is to conduct research in agricultural and natural resource development and to provide off-campus extension education that disseminates technological, economic, and management information to Louisiana residents.

In 1977, the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, established as the LSU Law School in 1906, was made an autonomous division of the LSU System. The Law Center provides legal education characterized by an unyielding demand for academic excellence. Its unique curriculum, based on civil law as well as substantial elements of common law, provides law graduates with qualifications and training for not one, but two legal systems. The Hebert Law Center holds membership in the Association of Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association.

LSU, located on more than 2,000 acres in the southern part of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is bordered on the west by the Mississippi River. The University's more than 250 principal buildings are grouped on a 650-acre plateau that constitutes the main part of the campus.

LSU and A&M College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

SKIP Bertman

LSU Athletics Director

Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman has made the seamless transition into the athletics director's chair with the same enthusiasm, vision and demand for excellence that were trademarks of his stellar coaching career.

In just four years as LSU's director of athletics, Bertman has already added to his impressive list of on-the-field achievements. Under his direction, LSU enjoyed arguably the greatest athletics years in the history of the institution. In 2003-04 three teams won national championships, nine teams finished in the nation's top ten, and fourteen teams ranked in the top 25 and in 2004-05 14 teams advanced to the post-season. LSU teams also enjoyed improved grade point averages across the board, making the LSU student-athlete experience a success on and off the fields of competition.

While supervising the Tigers' progress on the playing fields, he has begun to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

Bertman is now in the midst of upgrading LSU's athletics complex. Working hand in hand with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, Bertman has already overseen the completion of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes while renovating Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, and constructing the Football Operations Center.

It was also Bertman who took the bold but essential move to implement a seat contribution program in Tiger Stadium to fund facility improvements and ensure the financial stability of the LSU Athletics Department for the next decade.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' $52 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

In a Baseball America poll published in 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes and he was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters - Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertmans have three grandchildren - Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard, and Samuel Aaron, the son of Drew and Lisa Pate.

Sean O'Keefe

Chancellor, LSU

Sean O'Keefe has been appointed chancellor of Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College, becoming the seventh chancellor to lead the state's flagship University.

Nominated by President George W. Bush and confirmed by the United States Senate, Sean O'Keefe was appointed by the President as the 10th Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration on December 21, 2001, his fourth Presidential appointment. As Administrator, O'Keefe led the NASA team and managed its resources as NASA sought to advance exploration and discovery in aeronautics and space technologies.

O'Keefe joined the Bush Administration on inauguration day and first served as the Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget until December 2001, overseeing the preparation, management and administration of the Federal budget and government wide-management initiatives across the Executive Branch.

Prior to joining the Bush Administration, O'Keefe was the Louis A. Bantle Professor of Business and Government Policy, an endowed chair at the Syracuse University Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs. He also served as the Director of National Security Studies, a partnership of Syracuse University and Johns Hopkins University, for delivery of executive education programs for senior military and civilian officials. Appointed to these positions in 1996, he was previously Professor of Business Administration and Assistant to the Senior Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate School at the Pennsylvania State University.

Appointed as the Secretary of the Navy in July 1992 by President George Bush, O'Keefe had previously served as Comptroller and Chief Financial Officer of the Department of Defense since 1989. Before joining then Defense Secretary Dick Cheney's Pentagon management team in these capacities, he served on the United States Senate Committee on Appropriations staff for eight years, and was Staff Director of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee. His public service began in 1978 upon selection as a Presidential Management Intern.

O'Keefe is a Fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration, a member of the Committee on Climate Change Science and Technology, and a Fellow of the International Academy of Astronautics. During his academic postings, he was a Visiting Scholar at the Wolfson College of the University of Cambridge in the United Kingdom, a member of the Naval Postgraduate School's civil-military relations seminar team, and conducted seminars for the Strategic Studies Group at Oxford University. He served on the national security panel to devise the 1988 Republican platform and was a member of the 1985 Kennedy School of Government program for national security executives at Harvard University.

In 1993, President Bush and Secretary Cheney presented him the Distinguished Public Service Award. He was the 1999 faculty recipient of the Syracuse University Chancellor's Award for Public Service; recipient of the Department of the Navy's Public Service Award in December 2000; and has been awarded honorary doctorate degrees from several prestigious educational institutions. In March 2003 and 2004, he was recognized and honored by the Irish American Magazine as one of the Top 100 Irish Americans.

He is the author of several journal articles, contributing author of "Keeping the Edge: Managing Defense for the Future" released in October 2000, and in 1998 co-authored "The Defense Industry in the Post-Cold War Era: Corporate Strategies and Public Policy Perspectives."

Sean O'Keefe earned his Bachelor of Arts in 1977 from Loyola University in New Orleans, Louisiana, and his Master of Public Administration degree in 1978 from The Maxwell School. O'Keefe and his wife Laura have three children- Lindsey, Jonathan and Kevin.

Kenneth E. Carpenter, Faculty Athletics Representative

Kenneth E. Carpenter is in his second year as LSU's faculty representative in NCAA and Southeastern Conference matters.

Carpenter, a professor in the School of Architecture, has taught at LSU since 1986. He received his bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma in 1962 and his master's from the University of Minnesota in 1967. Before joining the LSU faculty, he served at Clemson University as associate professor of architecture from 1967-77; Ball State University, where he was professor and chairman of the Department of Architecture, 1977-81; and, Iowa State University, serving as professor and chairman, Department of Architecture from 1981-86.

At LSU, he served as the dean of the College of Design from 1986-97; Interim Executive Director of International Programs from 1997-98; and Interim Dean of the College of Art and Design from 2001-02.

Carpenter is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Institute of Architects, and the American Association of University Professors.

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be the nation's leader on the collegiate hardcourt and in 2005 the trend continued.

The conference made another strong national showing in 2005 on the men's side as Florida and Ole Miss advanced to the semifinals at the 2005 Division I Men's Tennis Championships in College Station, Texas.

Georgia sophomore John Isner and junior Antonio Ruiz claimed the NCAA Men's Doubles National Championship with a 7-6 (4), 7-5 win over Mark Growcott and Ken Skupski of LSU. The No. 1 seeded Bulldog duo broke Skupski's serve twice in the second set to earn the victory. The win marks the third NCAA doubles crown for the University of Georgia.

In the singles tournament, three SEC players made it to the quarterfinals. Florida's Greg Oulette, Kentucky's Jesse Witten and Ole Miss' Catalin Gard all lost in the quarters.

Overall the SEC has 16 NCAA singles champions in men's tennis dating back to 1930. Eight of those singles titles have come since 1984.

Six of the ten doubles titles have come since 1993, with five different SEC schools being represented. Florida won in 1993 with the doubles tandem of David Blair and partner, singles champion Merklein. Mississippi State followed in 1994 with Laurent Miquelard and Joc Simmons and Ole Miss duo Mahesh Bhupathi and Ali Hamadeh captured the doubles title in 1995. In 2001, Matias Boeker and Travis Parrott of Georgia took home the title.

National team titles for the league have been captured by Georgia as it boasts the SEC's only four men's NCAA championship teams in 1985, 1987, 1999 and 2001.

"When players are looking at schools there aren't many conferences, if any, to look for if they want to get the best competition match-in and match-out," said LSU head coach Jeff Brown, who became well acquainted with the league's tradition of excellence as a player at LSU from 1985-88.

"Any match you win in the SEC is a highlight because in most years that team is going to be ranked in the top-25 or at least the top-35," said Brown. "It's not like we have matches where half the schedule in conference is going to be weak. Every match is going to be a fight. It's a great atmosphere."

SEC MEN'S TENNIS BY THE NUMBERS...

- 5 NCAA team championships (59, 85, 87, 99, 01)
- 12 NCAA runner-up teams (88, 89, 90, 91, 93, 95, 97, 98, 2001, 02, 03)
- 11 consecutive years with a team in the national semifinals (1993-2003)
- 10 NCAA doubles titles (57, 59, 80, 83, 93, 94, 95, 2001, 02, 05)
- 16 NCAA singles champions dating back to 1930, with eight since 1984 and three of the last seven individual champions
- 119 singles ITA All-Americans since 1990
- 114 players receiving ITA All-America doubles honors since 1990
- Back-to-back NCAA singles champions six times (36-37, 53-54, 54-55, 84-85, 93-94, 2001-02)

HEADING TO THE TOP

Coming off a top 10 ranking and a top 16 finish in the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers will look to solidify their position at the top of the SEC and the nation

The expectations will be high as the LSU men's tennis team enters the 2006 season, but head coach Jeff Brown feels his team is more than capable of meeting the challenge.

"We had a good year last year," said Brown. "We were able to return to the top 10 and now we want to move into that next echelon of top programs."

Brown's 2006 squad shows just the kind of explosive potential to do just that. This year's version of the Tigers features an exciting mixture of young talent and proven veterans. ITA All-Americans Mark Growcott and Ken Skupski proved themselves to be among the nation's best doubles teams in 2005 and now will have all eyes on them in 2006.

Skupski and Growcott often switched back and forth last year on the No. 1 and No. 2 singles courts. In 2006 it is likely that the British pair will find themselves at the top of the singles lineup again. Skupski, an excellent indoor singles player, will look to get his spring season off to a good start at the SEC Coaches Indoor Championships where he will be defending his title. While Growcott, who was in and out of the singles rankings in 2005, will look to reestablish himself as one of the nation's elite singles competitors after sitting out much of the fall.

Behind Skupski and Growcott the Tigers lost two of their top singles players in Jason Hazley and Peter Richman, leaving holes in LSU's dual match lineup. However, there are several capable veterans and a group of hungry newcomers eager to take their place.

Colt Gaston and Danny Bryan will be looking to join Skupski and Growcott in the on-court leadership role. Coming off a strong 2005 doubles performance, which saw the duo go undefeated in all of their SEC and dual matches, Bryan and Gaston picked up a tournament title during the fall at the Rice Crowne Plaza Invitational. The pair also reached the finals of the ITA Southeast Invitational. Bryan was also chosen by his teammates to serve as a team captain for the upcoming season.

Gaston and Bryan each played largely at the No. 5 and No. 6 singles positions in 2005. Now both will be challenged to move and play at higher spots in the lineup, and each will play a critical role in their team's success in 2006.

Also looking to fill in the holes left by the departures of Hazley and Richman will be returning lettermen such as senior Paul White and juniors Kevin Dessauer and William LeFevre.

The Tigers are also expecting great things from sophomores Martel Campbell and Jonathan Tragardh. Despite little experience in 2005, the pair are looking to make their presence felt in the upcoming season. Campbell is coming off a great fall campaign, which saw him post a 7-4 record to lead the team in wins.

In fact, Brown was pleased with many of the performances turned in this fall and is anxious to see who will step up to fill in his lineup.

HISTORY

"Several of the guys were able to take big steps during the fall and improved their play," Brown said. "We're going to need each of them to continue to raise their play if we're going to be successful again this year."

LSU TO FACE NATION'S BEST IN 2006

LSU will once again take on some of the nation's top programs in 2006. The Tigers are scheduled to face nine top 25 teams.

The Tigers will kick the season off at the SEC Coaches Indoor Championships, where Ken Skupski was victorious in 2005. The SEC Indoors will be the last time the Tigers compete individually before beginning the dual match portion of the season.

Among LSU's non-conference opponents will be such perennial powerhouses as Texas A&M, who the Tigers will host March 16 in Baton Rouge. In addition, LSU will go on the road to face 2005 Big 10 runner-up Ohio State and a solid Michigan team.

"I definitely think we're playing one of the toughest schedules in the nation again this year," said Brown. "I think the tough matches are what we need and will prepare us for our conference and post-season matches."

For a second straight season LSU was one of 16 teams to receive a berth in the National Team Indoor Championships. The tournament will be held in Seattle, Wash., Feb. 17-20, and is sure to match the Tigers against more of the best college teams in the land. The National Indoors will serve as a good benchmark for where the Tigers are heading into SEC play.

"This is probably the most exclusive invitational tournament in the nation," said Brown. "It's a chance for us to play with the best team in the nation and pick up some quality wins."

Eight of the SEC's 12 schools are ranked in the top 25 entering the 2006 spring season, making it arguably the toughest conference in all of men's tennis once again. The Tigers will be pitted against No. 2 Florida, No. 3 Georgia and sixth-ranked SEC West rival Ole Miss.

"There are no givens in the SEC," Brown said. "Every match is a battle and we have to come ready to play day. We're ready to compete with the top teams in our conference and bring back an SEC title to Baton Rouge."

With 55 career singles wins, Ken Skupski is poised to become one of LSU's all-time wins leaders.

LSU ADDS TALENTED NEWCOMERS TO ROSTER

Three new players have joined the Tigers for the 2006 campaign and are looking to leave a mark early. Coach Brown signed two freshmen for the 2006 season in James Cluskey and Jose Moncada.

Cluskey, a native of Dublin, Ireland, was an Under 18 national champion in both singles and mixed doubles. Cluskey's stepped up big during the fall season, joining Skupski to reach the doubles semifinals of the ITA Southeast Regional Championship.

LSU also picked up a solid signee in Moncada. A native of Honduras, Moncada was the top-rated Under 18 division player in Central America and was training in Honduras's Olympic sports program.

The Tigers also found an unexpected new member in junior Eric DeRoche. DeRoche returned to the tennis court after a two-year layoff. A two-time state singles champion for St. Martin's Episcopal in New Orleans, DeRoche chose not to play tennis out of high school but walked on to the team during the fall. To the surprise of coach Brown, DeRoche was able to step in and make an impact for the Tigers.

"Eric did a good job of keeping himself in shape and keeping his game at a high level," said Brown. "He was able to pick up some quality wins this fall and we're excited to see how he can develop."

In general Brown has high aspirations for this new crop of Tigers.

"I think all of them have the potential to become critical members of our lineup," Brown said. "It will be up to each of them to work hard and develop their game."

Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now in his ninth season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here. He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit.

Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so in his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

He has since proven those feats were more than just beginner's luck. The man who so quickly earned respect in the profession is still early in his coaching career, but you would never know that by judging his list of achievements. Brown has never failed to take his teams to the NCAA Tournament and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002 and 2005. He has coached seven All-Americans in his tenure, and after young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004. In 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998.

Last season's final ranking of No. 10 marked the sixth time in Brown's eight seasons that his teams were among the top 15 in the country and the third time they have been in the top 10. But he's not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it you really appreciate it and you're hungry for more."

When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained the LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fourth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis."

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition amongst the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 45 international ranking in doubles is the highest ranking ever for a former LSU player.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. Debi gave birth to their first child, Connor, on April 6, 2004.

M A R K BOORAS

Associate Head Coach
Eighth Season
2004 ITA Southeast Regional Assistant Coach of the Year

An assistant coach with Mark Booras' capabilities is almost unheard of in collegiate tennis, and Booras did solid job backing up Jeff Brown again in 2005.

"We have been fortunate to have Mark for as long as we have," head coach Jeff Brown said. "He's a super coach and tactician. He's a great role model for the guys and he plays as well as anybody on the team."

Booras was recognized in 2004 as the best assistant coach in the ITA Southeast Region, which holds some of the top coaching and playing talent in the country. That same year Booras was given the title of associate head coach.

In his first season with the Tigers, Booras helped guide LSU to its second consecutive SEC Championship as well as a berth in the Final Four. The 1999 squad also won its second-straight SEC Tournament, becoming the first team to ever repeat as tournament champions.

Booras, a Chicago native, graduated from West Virginia in 1993 and played college tennis for the legendary Terry Deremer. He was a top-20 singles and doubles player throughout his college career.

In each of his final three seasons at West Virginia, Booras competed in both the NCAA singles and doubles championship tournaments. Following his collegiate career, Booras joined the ATP tour and continued his success, ranking as high as No. 240 in the world in doubles. After a three-year career from 1994-96, he retired and decided to further his education. While earning his master's degree in sport psychology at West Virginia he was also the assistant men's tennis coach and a private tennis instructor.

In 1999, he came to LSU to help Brown build on the LSU tradition. His duties as assistant coach include conducting practices, player instruction during matches and recruiting future players.

"Mark continues to lend his knowledge of the game to this team and it is paying dividends," Brown said. "He is a great recruiter and he has incredible knowledge of the game. He is as important as any one person in this program."

BROWN-MINNIS TIGER TENNIS CAMP

(Located on the campus of LSU)

Camp directors Jeff Brown and Tony Minnis are both proven collegiate tennis players and coaches of nationally ranked tennis programs. They each have the necessary skills and knowledge to improve the play of athletes ages 7-17. The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp is equally excited to train anyone from beginners to tournament players.

The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp experience is enhanced by the added direction of LSU assistant coaches Mark Booras and Lisa Jackson. Booras and Jackson are both established collegiate assistant coaches and excelled as players by participating on the pro circuit for a number of years.

The newly-renovated W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium plays host to the Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp each year. The Robinson Tennis Stadium is located on the west side of LSU's campus and boasts 12 collegiate outdoor courts as well as an indoor practice facility.

JEFF BROWN - CAMP DIRECTOR

- LSU Men's Tennis Coach
- Led the Tigers to Two SEC Championships
- 1999 National Coach of the Year
- Led LSU to back-to-back Final Four Appearances
- 1998 SEC Co-Coach of the Year
- Five-time Louisiana Coach of the Year

- Led the Lady Tigers to 11-straight NCAA Appearances
- Three-time Southwestern Regional Coach of the Year
- 1997 SEC Coach of the Year
- Three-time Louisiana Coach of the Year

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

Desire, sportsmanship and hard work are the fundamental characteristics of a true champion. The staff will seek to instill this philosophy and have each camper set goals and work hard to achieve them.

THE PROGRAM

The instructional program includes six to eight hours per day on the tennis courts. There is a strong emphasis on fundamentals and consistency of performance. Campers will be involved in match play.

CAMP FORMAT

Individualized instruction is provided by experienced dedicated instructors. We maintain a low teacher-student ratio, as well as daily running and physical conditioning period. Campers will receive constant training in the following areas:

- Stroke production, techniques and fundamentals.
- Drill situations to groove technique.
- Physical training: running, strength and agility.
- Match competition featuring singles, doubles and strategy.

BOTTOM LINE

Camp is about building character. It is about hard work, sportsmanship and learning to interact with instructors and fellow campers. Most of all, it is about tennis - playing tennis to one's potential - and the opportunity for your child to develop his or her skill.

SESSIONS

Two week-long camps will be offered each summer. The camps typically run from 2 p.m. on Sunday until Friday at noon. Campers may enroll in one session or more.

For brochures and other camp information, call Steve Carter at (225) 924-0735 or visit the youth camps page on LSUsports.net.

2005 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year

A black and white photograph of a male tennis player, Paul White, in a ready stance. He is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt with black stripes on the sleeves, black shorts, a white wristband on his left wrist, and a dark baseball cap with a Reebok logo. He is holding a tennis racket with both hands, ready to hit a backhand shot. The background is a dramatic, high-contrast image of a large wave crashing, with white foam and dark water. The overall mood is energetic and powerful.

Last years' seniors Peter Richman and Jason Hazley with Head Coach Jeff Brown

CONTINUING THE TRADITION

The LSU men's tennis team entered the 2005 season looking to build on their No. 13 finish in 2004 and to make a return to the top of the national picture.

Led by the play of sophomore standout Ken Skupski and junior transfer Mark Growcott the Tigers finished the year 21-9, reaching 20 wins for the first time since 2000 and hosting an NCAA Regional for the second consecutive year in route to reaching the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001.

The Tigers began 2005 winning 10 of their first 11 matches. LSU was invited to compete in the prestigious National Team Indoor Championships, where despite a 4-2 loss to top 10-ranked Duke, the Tigers were able to rebound and pull off impressive victories over No. 48 Boise State and No. 14 Ohio State.

"It's a prestigious honor to get to play in the National Team Indoors," said head coach Jeff Brown. "We suffered our first loss of the season to a good team and we responded well by picking up some good wins. I was excited to see our desire to come back and compete in that situation."

The team followed up on its impressive play when it headed to College Station, Texas, and handed No. 9 Texas A&M its first loss of the season in a 4-1 decision.

LSU sputtered when it reached conference play, losing its first five SEC matches, two of which came against perennial powerhouses Georgia and Florida. However, the Tigers again showed their resiliency and won seven of their next eight, handing losses to ranked teams such as Mississippi

State, Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt. The lone loss of that stretch came on the road against No. 4 ranked rival Ole Miss, in a 4-3 heartbreaker.

The Tigers finished No. 3 in the SEC West before entering the SEC Tournament. In the tournament, LSU beat Auburn in the opening round before suffering another 4-3 loss to Ole Miss in the quarterfinals.

After another successful season the Tigers were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history, as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. The Tigers also struggled early in singles, losing the first set on each court. Despite storming back on several courts, Georgia maintained the lead on three. Georgia won the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season with a 21-9 overall record ranked No. 10 by the ITA. All of LSU's nine losses last season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams. This was the Tigers' highest final ranking since 1999, when they advanced to the NCAA semifinals and ranked fourth to end the season.

"It was a good season," Brown said. "We were able to do some things that we hadn't been able to do in a few years, but most importantly we showed that we could compete in every match."

DOUBLES DOMINANCE

LSU has been known for its dominance in doubles competition during the Jeff Brown era and 2005 was no exception.

The Tigers posted a 98-35 record on the doubles court in 2005, including an astounding 59-15 in dual matches.

Led by the top two duos of Ken Skupski and Mark Growcott, Danny Bryan and Colt Gaston, LSU failed to win the doubles point only four times during the entire season.

"We preach doubles play," said coach Brown. "Last year was one of our best in terms of how we competed on the doubles court."

Brown had to be pleased by the surprisingly good play of Bryan and Gaston. The sophomore duo stepped up and gelled into one of the SEC's best doubles tandems. Together Bryan and Gaston finished 17-2, going undefeated in dual matches. Midway through the conference season the pair became a mainstay at the No. 2 doubles spot for the Tigers, going 6-0 in SEC play and becoming the team's steadiest doubles point.

Bryan, a monster at the net, was actually ranked on two doubles teams in 2005. He and senior Jason Hazley stayed in the ITA doubles rankings for nearly three months, going as high as 34th.

Danny Bryan and Colt Gaston went undefeated in dual matches in the 2005 season.

HARDCOURT DUO

No players made a bigger impact during the 2005 season than Ken Skupski and Mark Growcott.

Skupski's performance was no surprise given his play during his two prior seasons at LSU. He earned his second All-SEC honor and finished ranked No. 40 in the nation in singles play.

However, in 2005 the Liverpool, England, native welcomed his fellow countryman and childhood friend Growcott, a transfer from Tyler Junior College. Together the two stormed the nation's doubles courts putting together a 34-10-season mark, which included a 9-2 record in the SEC. Most notably Skupski and Growcott were 16-8 against nationally ranked competition.

After the team was knocked out of the NCAA Tournament, Skupski remained in College Station for singles competition and doubles competition along with Growcott. Skupski was ousted in the first round of singles play by Virginia's Rylan Rizza, 7-6 (7), 6-2. However, he and Growcott experienced much more success in the doubles portion of competition. Skupski and Growcott bested some of the nation's best teams such as No. 2-ranked K.C. Korkery and Sam Warburg of Stanford, whom they defeated in straight sets. The pair advanced to the NCAA Doubles Championship match where they were defeated by the top-ranked and top-seeded duo of John Isner and Antonio Ruiz of Georgia in straight sets, 7-6 (4), 7-5. This marked the best finish for a doubles team in LSU men's tennis history.

"I am extremely proud of the way Ken and Mark played," said coach Brown. "They worked hard and competed and were right there at the end to be the best team in the nation."

LEAVING THEIR MARK

LSU said goodbye to two seniors in 2005. Peter Richman and Jason Hazley finished off successful careers for the Tigers, playing critical roles in the team's success in 2005. Richman was a steady point for LSU at the No. 4 singles spot. The Toronto, native posted a, 24-14, singles record in his final season, including an outstanding 7-4 record in SEC play. Hazley spent most of the year at No. 3 in the Tiger singles lineup, earning a 22-19 season record. Hazley finished with 84 career wins, which was good enough to place him at 15th among LSU's all-time wins leaders.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The 2005 Tigers proved that competition on the court is not the only focus of the LSU tennis program. The team averaged a 3.07 GPA in the 2005 spring semester, placing them at the top of all of LSU's men athletic programs.

"Last year in the fall we were a little disappointed in our classroom performance," Brown said. "So we had a team meeting and assigned an academic captain. At first it was kind of a joke, but I think the guys got what we were trying to do. After a while the talk kept going and they pushed each other."

Junior Paul White, a Biological Sciences major, earned a 4.0 and was honored as the SEC Scholar

Athlete of the Year.

"It's just amazing what Paul has been able to do," said Coach Brown. "It's hard to balance such a demanding schedule and to play collegiate tennis, but he's done it with ease. He's one of the best examples I've seen of a true student athlete."

LSU also had four players honored as ITA Scholarship Athletes. In addition to White, Ken Skupski, Mark Growcott and Kevin Dessauer made the list. Dessauer, Growcott, Skupski, White were also selected for the SEC Academic Honor Roll along with Jason Hazley, Peter Richman and Colt Gaston.

"We stress to the guys the importance of getting the job done in the class room," said Brown. "Hopefully when these guys leave here they will be better people and will be prepared to be successful in whatever they do."

"The LSU men's tennis team epitomizes the real meaning and goals behind the term 'student-athlete,' said LSU athletics director Skip Bertman.

"These young men prove that our young people can maintain a high level of success in both athletic competition and their academic endeavors. I am proud of the consistent performance of these young men in the classroom. They represent LSU well."

1978

Overall Record: 20-3

Final Rank: No. 12

The Tigers made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in the school's history when coach Steve Carter guided LSU to the NCAA's in 1978. The Tigers entered the NCAA's with a 20-2 record, while riding a nine-match winning streak. However, Pepperdine proved to be too strong for LSU as the Wave rolled to a 6-3 first round win. LSU finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

1984

Overall Record: 19-10

Final Rank: No. 12

After a five-year absence from the NCAA's, second-year head coach Jerry Simmons led the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for what would be the first of ten-straight appearances at the event. The Tigers were quickly eliminated from the NCAA's, as eventual champion UCLA ousted LSU by a 6-0 count.

1985

Overall Record: 19-8

SEC Champions

Final Rank: No. 9

The Tigers entered the NCAA Tournament as the SEC Champions, but LSU was again eliminated in the first round by a very good Clemson team, 5-1. Clemson ended its season ranked No. 8 in the nation, while LSU netted its highest final national ranking ever at No. 9.

1986

Overall Record: 17-8

Final Rank: No. 12

LSU would have to wait yet another year to get its first win at the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, who were in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight year, fell to SMU, 5-2, in the opening round. SMU went on to finish third in the nation, while the Tigers ended their season ranked No. 12.

1987

Overall Record: 23-6

Final Rank: No. 8

LSU won what was then a school-record 23 matches as the Tigers finally got their first win in NCAA Tournament action with a 5-2 second round victory over Texas. The Tigers, who received a first round bye, then fell to Southern Cal, 5-3, in the quarter-finals. LSU finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation, the highest ranking ever for an LSU team at the time.

1988

Overall Record: 27-2

SEC Regular Season Champions

National Team Indoor Finalists

Final Rank: No. 2

LSU enjoyed what is still the best season in school history as the Tigers reached the finals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, which did not lose a match outdoors all season, lost to Stanford, 5-2, in the finals of the NCAA's in a match that was forced indoors due to rain. LSU reached the finals by recording wins over California in round two, Georgia in the quarterfinal and Michigan in the semifinal. LSU, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation for four weeks during the season, ended the year ranked second.

1989

Overall Record: 22-5

SEC Regular Season Champions

Final Rank: No. 8

The Tigers reached the final eight at the NCAA's for the third-straight year, but that was as far as LSU would go as eventual champion Stanford beat the Tigers, 5-3, in the quarterfinal. The Tigers finished their season ranked No. 8 in the nation.

1988

Overall Record: 13-9

Final Rank: No. 11

The Tigers had a down season as far as wins and losses are concerned but LSU still managed to make the 20-team NCAA Tournament field. The Tigers weren't around for long as California beat LSU 5-3 in round one. LSU finished its season with a 13-9 record and ranked No. 11 in the nation.

1990

Overall Record: 19-6

SEC Runner-up

Final Rank: No. 6

Returning to the final eight at the NCAA's after a year's absence from the top 10, LSU beat TCU 5-3 round two. The Tigers then were eliminated by California for the second year in a row by a 5-2 count. LSU finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation.

1991

Overall Record: 17-7

SEC Regular Season Champions

SEC Runner-up

Final Rank: No. 10

LSU entered the NCAA Tournament fresh off an appearance in the SEC Tournament title match. After a first round bye, the Tigers defeated Pepperdine, 6-3, in the second round. LSU then ran into trouble as eventual-champion Stanford ousted the Tigers 5-2. The Tigers finished the year ranked No. 10 in the nation.

1992

Overall Record: 16-6

SEC Runner-up

Final Rank: No. 8

LSU made the NCAA Tournament for the 10th consecutive year, but the Tigers weren't around for long as Duke posted a 5-2 upset win over LSU in the second round. LSU, which received a first round bye, was ranked No. 8 in the final national poll. The Duke match marked the final match for perhaps three of the best players in LSU history in Tamer El Sawy, Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola.

1993

Overall Record: 19-4

SEC Runner-up

Final Rank: No. 9

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1995. However, LSU's return was short-lived as TCU, ranked 10th, upset the sixth-ranked Tigers, 4-0, in round one. LSU lost to Georgia in the SEC Tournament final and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation.

1989

Overall Record: 21-5

NCAA Region III Champions

Final Rank: No. 12

LSU enjoyed another stellar campaign en route to its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years under coach Jerry Simmons. LSU played host to the 1996 NCAA Region III Championships. The top-seeded Tigers overcame a 3-0 deficit to No. 23 Auburn in the title match for a thrilling 4-3 win to advance to the NCAA's. LSU beat Kentucky in the first round and Alabama-Birmingham in the Regional semifinal. TCU, ranked 4th, bumped LSU from the NCAA Championships in the round of 16 for the second-straight year by a 4-3 count.

1996

Overall Record: 17-7

SEC Runner-up

Final Rank: No. 9

Jerry Simmons, LSU's all-time winningest coach, led the Tigers to the NCAA's for the 13th and final time during 1997 after announcing his retirement prior to the start of the spring season. Simmons capped off a much heralded 26-year coaching career, 15 coming at LSU, as his Tigers earned an automatic tourney bid. Unfortunately, Simmons' Tigers were upended in round one by No. 10 Duke 4-1, finishing the year at 17-7 overall No. 9 nationally.

1997

Overall Record: 25-2

SEC Champions

SEC Tournament Champions

Final Rank: No. 2

In his first year as LSU's head coach, Jeff Brown led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament semifinals and a No. 2 National Ranking. The Tigers swept the SEC with a perfect 14-0 record, capturing the SEC Tournament championship as well as the overall conference crown. In the NCAA tournament, LSU tore through SMU and SEC rival Ole Miss before falling in the semifinals to a Georgia team the Tigers had twice defeated earlier in the year.

1998

Overall Record: 20-7

SEC Champions

SEC Tournament Champions

Final Rank: No. 4

LSU shocked the collegiate tennis world by returning to the Final Four for the second consecutive year in 1999. The Tigers, who had a No. 19 preseason ranking, hosted a regional and beat Alcorn State and Tulane to advance to the round of 16 at Athens, Ga. There, LSU beat a gutsy Fresno State team before upsetting second-ranked Duke in the quarterfinal. However, the magic ended in the Final Four as No. 1 UCLA managed to survive the Tiger attack. The Tigers defeated eventual national champion Georgia twice on the season.

2000

Overall Record: 20-6

Final Rank: No. 12

After entering the season as one of the favorites to win the national championship, the 2000 LSU Squad earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers roared through the first two rounds in Baton Rouge with 4-0 victories over both Alcorn State and Clemson. Then it was on to Athens, Ga., and a tough round of 16 match with sixth-seeded Illinois. In a grueling match, the Illini proved to be a little too strong as they claimed a 4-3 victory and ousted LSU from the tournament.

2001

Overall Record: 16-8

Final Rank: No. 13

The LSU men's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Championships for the seventh-straight season in 2001 after accumulating a 14-7 overall record during the regular season. The Tigers rebounded from a 4-3 upset loss against Alabama in the Southeastern Conference Tournament to host an NCAA Regional for the third-consecutive season. In front of a raucous home crowd at the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium, LSU dropped Marist, 4-0, in first-round action before knocking off 19th-ranked Texas, 4-2, to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships in Athens, Ga. The Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third-straight year and faced No. 7 Texas A&M at the Dan Magill Tennis Center on the campus of the University of Georgia. In the third-round match, Texas A&M out-slugged the Tigers, 4-1.

2002

Overall Record: 11-14

Final Rank: No. 29

Despite finishing the regular season with a losing record for the first time in seven years, LSU proved its worthiness of an NCAA Tournament bid by advancing to the round of 32 with a convincing 4-0 victory over the higher-ranked Texas Christian Horned Frogs. The win was a triumphant contrast for the Tigers after the team had traversed a season full of 4-3 losses and had faced 16 top-25 teams in 25 dual-match contests. In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, LSU fell prey to 16th-ranked Texas A&M for the second-consecutive season, 4-0, in College Station, Texas.

1999

2003

Overall Record: 13-11

Final Rank: No. 24

The Tigers kept their NCAA tournament streak alive, making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and finishing the season ranked in the top 25 for the 19th time in 20 years. The Tigers finished second in the SEC West with a 5-6 conference record and 13-11 overall record. They were upset in the first round by No. 56 South Alabama, 4-2, in New Orleans.

2004

Overall Record: 18-7

Final Rank: No. 13

LSU's three seniors, Cory Ross, Sebastian Rutka and Bryan Fisher, ended their time at LSU with their most successful years here. The Tigers finished in a tie for third in the SEC. They earned the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since. Despite losing in the second round to 14th-ranked Rice, they finished ranked 13th in the nation, the fifth top-15 finish in Jeff Brown's career. Ken Skupski entered the lineup at No. 1 singles and became one of two freshmen in the nation selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship. Fisher and Jason Hazley finished their highly successful career as a doubles team ranked No. 15 in the nation. The 2004 Tigers compiled a 3.5 GPA in the spring to lead all LSU varsity teams. They were selected an ITA All-Academic team and Fisher and Paul White were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

2005

Overall Record: 21-9

Final Rank: No. 10

After another successful season the Tigers finished with a 19-8 regular season record and were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. Georgia outplayed the Tigers to win the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999. All of LSU's nine losses this season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams.

Donni Leaycraft1989 NCAA SINGLES CHAMPION

Donni Leaycraft capped off his record-setting junior season by becoming the first LSU player to win the NCAA singles title. Leaycraft entered the NCAA singles tournament as the 13th seed and proceeded to breeze through the first four rounds, winning all four matches in straight sets. In the semifinal, Leaycraft upset hometown favorite Pablo Montana of Georgia in three sets and then beat Steven Jung of Nebraska 6-1, 4-6, 6-3 to claim the title. Leaycraft finished the year with a 42-10 record and ranked No. 3 in the nation.

LEAYCRAFT'S ROAD TO THE 1989 NCAA SINGLES TITLE:

First Round: def. Lee Galway (Boise State), 6-3, 6-1

Second Round: def. Mark Mance (Duke), 6-1, 6-3

Third Round: def. Conny Falk (Miami), 6-1, 6-4

Quarterfinal: def. Al Parker (Georgia), 7-5, 6-1

Semifinal: def. Pablo Montana (Georgia), 7-5, 4-6, 6-2

Final: def. Steven Jung (Nebraska), 6-1, 4-6, 6-3

Johan Kjellsten1988 CLAY COURT SINGLES CHAMPION

Johan Kjellsten did not waste any time making an impact after transferring from McNeese State prior to his senior season. At the Clay Courts, Kjellsten, who was the tournament's eighth seed, knocked off top-ranked Malivai Washington of Michigan, 6-3, 6-3 in the quarterfinal and then cruised past fourth-ranked Greg Failla of Southern Cal in the semifinal. In the final, Kjellsten knocked off 12th-ranked Stephen Enochs of Georgia 2-6, 6-2, 6-1 to give LSU the school's first grand slam event winner. Kjellsten went on to post a 38-11 overall singles record and finished the year ranked No. 7 in the country.

KJELLSTEN'S ROAD TO THE 1988 CLAY COURT SINGLES TITLE:

First Round: def. Ellis Ferriera (Alabama), 7-6, 7-6

Second Round: def. Brice Karsh (Tennessee), 6-3, 3-6, 6-3

Quarterfinal: def. Malivai Washington (Michigan), 6-3, 6-3

Semifinal: def. Greg Failla (Southern Cal), 6-2, 6-0

Final: def. Stephen Enochs (Georgia), 2-6, 6-2, 6-1

Tamer El Sawy1993 NCAA SINGLES SEMIFINALIST

Arguably the best player to ever play for LSU, Tamer El Sawy capped off his career with the Tigers with one of the best individual seasons in school history. El Sawy posted a 39-5 overall record and reached the semifinals of the NCAA singles tournament in 1993. He breezed through the first three rounds of draw before beating Roland Thornqvist of North Carolina in three sets in the quarterfinal. El Sawy, the No. 3 seed, then dropped a three-set match No. 1-ranked Chris Woodruff of Tennessee. The El Sawy-Woodruff semifinal match was said to be the best match of the tournament and it was only fitting that it would be the last match El Sawy would play at LSU.

EL SAWY AT THE 1993 NCAA SINGLES TOURNAMENT

Michael Wesbrooks & Juha Pesola1993 NCAA DOUBLES SEMIFINALISTS

Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola put together one of the best doubles seasons in LSU history as the Tiger tandem posted a 23-2 overall record and advanced to the semifinals at the NCAA doubles tournament in 1993. Wesbrooks and Pesola, both seniors, were a perfect 12-0 in SEC action and had an incredible 20-1 mark in dual matches. At the NCAA doubles tournament, the duo posted three wins, two over seeded opponents, before losing to eventual champion Mark Merkley and David Blair of Florida in the semifinal. Wesbrooks and Pesola finished the year ranked No. 11 in the nation.

Ken Skupski2004 ITA ALL-AMERICAN SEMIFINALIST

Ken Skupski, knocked off three ranked opponents en route to the semifinals of the first tournament of his sophomore year. One of those wins was the biggest of his career; a quarterfinal upset of Old Dominion's ninth-ranked Izac van der Merwe. He was only slowed by second-ranked Sam Warburg of Stanford in the semifinals.

SKUPSKI AT THE 2004 ITA ALL-AMERICAN

Mark Growcott & Ken Skupski2005 NCAA DOUBLES FINALISTS

Ken Skupski and Mark Growcott posted the best doubles season in LSU history, battling their way through some of the nation's top doubles teams en route to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Doubles Championships. The Tiger tandem defeated No. 2 seeded K. C. Corkery and Sam Warburg of Stanford in straight sets in the semifinal round to become the first LSU pair to reach the title match. Skupski and Growcott ended the season with 34-10 record, including a 9-2 mark in the SEC, and set a school record for most doubles victories in a season.

Skupski Defends SEC Indoor Title

Courtesy: LSU Interactive Release: 01/22/2006

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- LSU men's tennis junior Ken Skupski knocked off another highly touted opponent Sunday and has put himself in position to defend his SEC Indoor title.

Skupski, who won the 2005 SEC Indoor, defeated Ole Miss's No. 43 ranked Juan Pablo Di Cesare in straight sets Sunday, 6-2, 6-2. He was scheduled to play Antonio Ruiz of Georgia in the semifinals, however Ruiz was forced to withdraw due to injury.

Ruiz sustained his injury during a quarterfinal match with LSU's Colt Gaston, whom he defeated 7-6 (6), 6-3.

Skupski will face the winner of the semifinal match between Matic Omerzel and Strahinja Bobusic, both from Georgia. The final match is scheduled for Monday at 11:00 a.m. (EST).

LSU head coach Jeff Brown is not lost on the difficulty of winning back-to-back titles at a tournament such as the SEC Indoor Championship.

"To win this tournament once is a huge accomplishment, but to have the opportunity to win it twice really says a lot about where Ken is now," said Brown. "He's playing with a lot of confidence right now and is ready get back out on the court as soon as possible."

In doubles action, the Tigers' No. 10 ranked tandem of Skupski and Mark Growcott were unable to beat their nemesis in Georgia's Ruiz and John Isner, falling 8-3 in the semifinals. It was Ruiz and Isner that edged out Skupski and Growcott in the 2005 NCAA Doubles Championship.
