MAKING HISTORY

The LSU men's tennis program leaves its mark on both the SEC, national, and international record books.

On Oct. 12, 2008, senior Michael Venus made history as he became the first Tiger to capture the D'Novo/ITA All-American Championship title. The Auckland, New Zealand native made history for the second time in 2008 as he became part of the first U.S. team to compete in the International University Challenge of Tennis held in Poitiers, France.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program. For Michael to be the first to win the ITA All-American Championship speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play."

SEC Men 2008 Recap

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt and the trend continued this past season.

The conference made another strong national showing in 2008 as the Georgia men won their second consecutive and sixth overall national title and the Florida women advanced to the semifinals at the 2008 NCAA Division I Tennis Championships in Tulsa, Okla.

Georgia advanced to the title with wins over Radford, Auburn, Pepperdine, Ole Miss, Virginia and Texas. The Bulldogs defeated Texas, 4-2 in the final to finish the season. In the singles tournament, Tennessee freshman J.P. Smith fell to top-ranked and defending champion Somdev Devvarman of Virginia in the finals. While in doubles, the Ole Miss duo of Jonas Berg and Erling Tveit were defeated in the finals by Robert Farah and Kaes Van't Hof of Southern California.

Overall the SEC has 16 NCAA singles champions in men's tennis dating back to 1930, with eight of those titles coming since 1984. Six of the ten doubles titles have come since 1993, with five different SEC schools being represented. Florida won in 1993 with the doubles tandem of David Blair and partner, singles champion Merklein. Mississippi State followed in 1994 with Laurent Miquelard and Joc Simmons and Ole Miss duo Mahesh Bhupathi and Ali Hamadeh captured the doubles title in 1995. In 2001, Matias Boeker and Travis Parrott of Georgia took home the title. The next year, Auburn's Andrew Colombo and Mark Kovacs took the title. In 2005, the Georgia duo of John Isner and Antonio Ruiz were crowned champions. All six national team titles for the league have been captured by Georgia, having won in 1985, 1987, 1999, 2001, 2007 and 2008.

Robinson Stadium

The LSU men's tennis team has called W.T. Robinson Tennis Stadium home for nearly four decades. During its history, the "Dub," as it is affectionately called, has seen a wealth of talented and successful players on its courts and has kept up with newer college facilities through a series of renovations and improvements over the years.

The Tigers home facility is named in honor of former standout head coach W.T. Robinson, a coach that elevated the LSU tennis program to national prominence. The facility provides six varsity courts with an additional six practice courts. The newly resurfaced varsity courts received new tower lights prior to 2007 and also features an electronic scoreboard, while the practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001. Robinson stadium accommodates up to 550 fans including a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

Both the nationally-ranked Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room and brand-new showers and bathrooms. The facility was completely refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room as well as an equipment room. Prior to the 2007 season, the media room was updated to include both leather couches as well as a 42-inch flat screen television. In January 2009, LSU installed an individual scoreboard on every court, allowing for a more up-to-date scoring experience for fans.

Former men's coach Jerry Simmons surpassed Robinson in 1992 to become the Tigers' all-time winningest coach. As the Simmons era came to a close in 1997, the Tigers posted an 11-1 home mark en-route to an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships. With Simmons at the reigns, Robinson Stadium became one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents to play, with the Tigers compiling a 162-25 (.866) home record during Simmons' last 15 seasons.

Since head coach Jeff Brown took over in the 1998 season, the Tigers have accumulated a 128-28 overall record at home. His opening season as head coach, Brown notched a perfect 12-0 record on the Tigers home court.

W.T. "Dub" Robinson was also the site for the 2007 SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals. The Tigers advanced through the first round of the SEC Tournament before being ousted by Georgia, the eventual 2007 national champion.

During the 2007 NCAA Regionals, LSU defeated Alcorn State and Vanderbilt on their home courts before advancing to the round of 16 to face Ohio State in the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home.

LSU tennis fans received a new nickname during the 2007 season. The LSU marketing and promotions department dubbed LSU tennis fans as the "Court Crazies."

The "Court Crazies" proved to be a valid asset for the Tigers, particularly in the postseason. During the SEC Tournament and NCAA first and second rounds, the LSU faithful was in full force wearing their purple and gold tie-die "Court Crazies" t-shirts with lively enthusiasm throughout LSU's matches. The "Court Crazies" made a name for themselves with coaches around the country.

"The atmosphere (at W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium) was unbelievable. They had people screaming, yelling and tailgating."

-OHIO STATE HEAD COACH TY TUCKER FOLLOWING A REGULAR SEASON MATCH BETWEEN THE TWO TEAMS

W.T. "Dub" Robinson facts

Legendary LSU men's tennis coach W.T. Robinson, or "Dub" as he was lovingly known, single-handedly orchestrated the LSU tennis program's rise to prominence. During his nearly three decade tenure as head coach, Robinson accumulated a 189-180-9 overall record, catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene and guided them to a status among the nation's elite.

When the LSU tennis complex was completed in the fall of 1976, it was only natural that it was named after the person that built the program.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Football Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center (above) boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard, the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 not only made it among the nation's premier academic centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Community OUTREACH

The Shaquille O'Neal CHAMPS/Life Skills Program

The Community Service aspect does not only serve to enhance a student-athletes college experience, but also serves to expand character. Athletes not only gain a strong sense of self-worth, but also experience personal satisfaction and growth from volunteering and community service activities. More importantly are the benefits that the community receives. It enables the community to gain an enormous advantage in feeling that they have a "partnership" with LSU student-athletes.

LSU student-athletes participate in a variety of community service projects including reading in schools, nursing home visits, hospital pediatric ward visits, speaking engagements and more in East Baton Rouge Parish.

What is CHAMPS?

The Shaquille O'Neal CHAMPS/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!

How Can CHAMPS Help?

By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS Program not only assists the student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but also enhances student-athlete's growth in their college years and beyond.

CHAMPS at LSU

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program at LSU is operated out of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, and the focus of the program is on five commitments viewed as critical to personal growth:

- Academic Excellence
- Athletic Excellence
- Career Development
- Personal Development
- Community Service

Duel

UNDER THE OAKS II

"Duel Under the Oaks II" marked the second time tennis pros teamed up on the LSU campus to raise money for hurricane relief. Pete Sampras and James Blake faced off in an exhibition match on Dec. 14, 2008 sponsored by the Irene W. and C.B. Pennington Foundation to raise money for relief efforts in the wake of Hurricanes Gustav and Ike. In conjunction with the exhibition match, both the LSU men's and women's tennis teams held a children's clinic along with Sampras and Blake for children in the community.

The first "Duel Under the Oaks" featured Sampras against Todd Martin and was held in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. The event helped to raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes as they tore Louisiana in fall 2005.

LSU's Memorial Tower (main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (inset). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended.

U.S. News & World Report

In a summer 2008 edition of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities" for the first time.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Recently, Chancellor Dr. Michael V. Martin announced that in the summer 2008 edition of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities" for the first time.

"This accomplishment means that the nation now recognizes what we have always known - that LSU is one of America's best universities," Martin said. "This ranking is proof that LSU's Flagship Agenda is working. That plan has done what it was designed to do -- improve LSU's stature on a national level."

"The first thing I realized when I got to LSU was how important academics is to (LSU coach) Jeff (Brown) and how that focus carries on to the court by showing discipline and time management. They have an incredible support staff at the Cox Communications Academic Center and it gives you every opportunity to succeed. LSU being in the SEC, gives you great competition on a weekly basis. I played a guy last season that ended up getting to the third round of the U.S. Open. You are facing some of the top athletes in the country."

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Quarterback (1986-89)

"I had a lot of choices coming out of high school, but when I visited LSU it was different. It felt like a family with the coaches and the players. LSU was the best place for me to go. It had everything I wanted, both football and academically. The atmosphere and the coaches made me feel very comfortable around them as well as the academic people and everybody involved with the program. I was from down the road in Louisiana and could have gone anywhere to school, but I chose to stay close to home."

Jarvis Green

Defensive End (1998-01)
New England Patriots member

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

Hospitality and comfort are a Southern tradition practiced to perfection around Baton Rouge. Minutes from the city, ancient moss-draped oaks, fragrant honeysuckle, formal gardens and the finest examples of Southern architecture await. Combine this with the excitement of the mighty Mississippi River, Cajun music and a gourmet meal that is topped with freshly brewed cafe-au-lait at one of Baton Rouge's fine restaurants. So what does the future hold? Baton Rouge is now one of the fastest growing cities in the South -- a bustling Metropolis of cutting edge technology companies, high-powered law firms and forward thinking city leaders who passionately support the arts and promote the local economy. Old Man River just got an upgrade. Yes, this is one city that's rolling on the river.

Proximity

Baton Rouge is just an hour away from the French Quarter in New Orleans and even closer to the million-acre Atchafalaya Swamp, which is called one of the biggest fishing ponds in the country.

The Pelican State features the hustle and bustle of downtown New Orleans. Contrast that with the finest hunting, fishing and boating opportunities in the country making Louisiana the "Sportsman's Paradise".

Louisiana

— THE PELICAN STATE

Louisiana, one of America's most culturally and geographically diverse states, is located in the heart of the Deep South. Adjacent to the Gulf of Mexico and dotted with hundreds of lakes and bayous, Louisiana is home to all types of terrain from swamps and marshes to lush forests and gentle hills.

◀ Unique Culture

Louisiana is home to Mardi Gras, a two-week party that includes more than 60 parades and millions of visitors from around the world. All year long New Orleans Jazz, Creole culture, stately riverboats and some of the finest cuisine in the world is mixed into the diverse and renowned culture of Louisiana.

Cuisine ▶

Foods like boiled crawfish, jambalaya, shrimp etouffee and gumbo make the cajun and creole cuisine of Louisiana the envy of the nation.

Veteran Coach. Veteran Team.

Ingredients for success that form a nucleus that can take LSU closer to its SEC and NCAA Tournament Goals

Tried and True

LSU returns 10 players from the 2007-08 season, six of whom are seasoned veterans from a season in which the Tigers finished with a 5-9 overall record, final ITA rank of No. 18 and a second-round NCAA tournament appearance. Members of the team earned ample accolades last season under 2008 Louisiana Coach of the Year, Jeff Brown. LSU returns the 2008 Louisiana Newcomer of the Year and player of the year in senior Michael Venus. In addition to statewide tennis acclaim, Venus also earned First-Team All-SEC honors his first year as a Tiger. The 2008 Louisiana Freshman of the Year Sebastian Carlsson returns as well. Carlsson finished his freshman season with a team-best 27 victories and earned Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week four times.

Youthful Contributions

LSU brings in two freshmen expected to make a solid impact in their first year as Tiger, Neal Skupski and Mark Bowtell.

"The Freshmen will take on a bigger roll this year and they are certain to be two big impact freshmen," LSU Head coach Jeff Brown said.

Skupski follows his brother Ken, one of the most decorated Tigers in school history, as he steps onto the LSU courts. Although following in his brother's footsteps, Skupski has the credentials to make a way of his own.

The 6-1 Liverpool native should make a solid contribution in singles and doubles as he had an impressive campaign in England. Skupski won the 2007 under-18 singles and doubles champion in Lancashire, England. In addition to that title, he also teamed up with brother Ken for the 2007 Senior County Club title where he holds the newcomer's record with a 10-2 mark.

Bowtell will be the second Tiger on the current team from Ireland. The 6-4 freshman captured the 2004 National Irish U-14 Championship as well as the U-16 National Masters Championship in 2005. The County Wicklow native listed also listed at the highest spot in the ITF junior rankings in 2006 and 2007.

Bryan Joins Staff

Danny Bryan enters his first season as assistant coach under head coach Jeff Brown, but he is very familiar with the Tiger program. Bryan has been a mainstay on the LSU courts over the past six years first as a player, then a student assistant, and now assistant coach.

Last season, the New Orleans native served as a student assistant for the Tigers as the team earned a 15-9 record, final ITA rank of No. 18 and NCAA tournament berth.

Bryan had an impressive career as a Tiger from 2003-2007. The four-year letterman served as co-captain his junior and senior years and currently is tied for 14th place in career singles wins with 84. His senior season, Bryan earned ITA All-American honors in doubles as he capped his senior campaign with 110 career doubles wins.

"He continually improved while playing at LSU and him receiving the Arthur Ashe Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship shows he has great character," Brown said. "He has done a great job with recruiting and displays a great balance of an intense athlete who has a great deal of character to draw on."

Competitive Calendar

LSU's schedule for 2009 features 18 of 19 teams that have the potential to finish the season in the national rankings, including each of the eleven remaining teams in the Southeastern Conference.

The Tigers began the dual season on the road at the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's inaugural kickoff weekend where the team is slated to compete against two well-established teams in Texas Tech and either Tulsa or Notre Dame.

Some of LSU's toughest matches look to come on the road this year as the Tigers have trips mapped out both to Georgia, defending national champions, and Ohio State.

LSU will have the home court advantage as it takes on two of its toughest league opponents in Tennessee on March 29 and Ole Miss on April 12.

LSU will have a sense of revenge as it squares off with Tennessee in W.T. "Dub" Robinson Stadium as the Vols handed LSU an SEC loss during the regular season and was the team that cut LSU's run short just shy of the semifinals at the 2008 SEC Tournament.

Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now in his 12th season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here. He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit.

Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so in his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

He has since proven those feats were more than just beginner's luck. Brown quickly earned respect among his peers due to his lengthy list of achievements. Brown has never failed to take his teams to the NCAA Tournament, and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2008. He has coached 13 All-Americans in his tenure, and after young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004. In 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998.

Last season's final ranking of No. 18 marked the eighth time in Brown's 11 seasons that his team was among the top 20 in the country and his team has finished in the top 10 three times during his tenure. But he's not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it you really appreciate it and you're hungry for more."

Brown has put his Tigers in position to succeed on and off the court. Brown helped setup "Duel Under the Oaks" on October 29, 2006, a charity event held on LSU's campus that helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes that ripped through Louisiana in 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities and the main event of an exhibition match with former tennis pros Pete Sampras against Todd Martin at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

During Brown's LSU tenure, the Tigers have had 3 SEC Scholar Athlete's of the Year with a combined four awards, 9 ITA Scholar-Athletes and 50 SEC Honor Roll members.

The Tigers were honored by the NCAA in 2008 for its Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the report by the NCAA. The LSU men's tennis team scored the highest among LSU sports for the fourth year in a row. The program is one of only eight SEC teams to receive NCAA recognition for finishing in the top 10 percent nationwide in its respective sport. When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fourth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis."

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition amongst the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 45 international ranking in doubles is the highest ranking ever for a former LSU player.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. They have two young boys, Connor (4) and Cameron who was born on Jan. 28, 2007.

Danny Bryan Assistant Head Coach

"Danny brings a wealth of playing experience from being a top-ranked Louisiana player and developing into one of the top collegiate players. Now, he is transitioning into a coach that will provide us with great leadership and a great work ethic,"

-Head Coach, Jeff Brown

Danny Bryan once again steps onto the courts for LSU, only this time, as he steps onto the courts, he steps into the position of assistant coach. Bryan enters his first year as assistant coach to Jeff Brown in the 2008-09 season after serving as a student assistant last season and achieving an impressive four-year campaign as an LSU player. As a student assistant, Bryan proved instrumental in one-on-one work with members of the team and in one of his first tournaments as assistant coach, coached 2008 D'Novo All-American Champion Michael Venus in his final singles battle over the No. 1 player in the nation.

With experience in three different facets of LSU tennis and almost a lifetime geared toward the game, Bryan will assist Brown in leading the Tigers coming off of a season in which LSU posted a 15-9 overall record, final ITA rank of No. 18 and an NCAA tournament berth.

Although Bryan has been a mainstay on the courts for more than six years, his journey toward LSU began long ago. Tennis runs through his veins, passed down through his father and three uncles that played collegiate tennis, as well as his grandfather who took tennis as a professional career path.

Bryan had an outstanding career from 2003-07 as a Tiger, facilitating excellence on the courts and the community.

After cracking the starting lineup his freshman year, he went on to become a four-year letterman and served as co-captain for the Tigers his junior and senior seasons.

During his tenure as player, the New Orleans native made his impact in Louisiana, the Southeastern Conference and the national rankings. Bryan earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors for three consecutive years. In 2007, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors and finished his senior season at No. 40 the ITA single rankings and listed at No. 6 with partner Colt Gaston in doubles.

Bryan made his impact on the LSU record books as well. He sits tied at 14th in career singles wins at 84 with LSU greats Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely. His doubles campaign was no less impressive as he capped his senior season by winning the 2007 SEC Indoor Championships with partner Gaston, capturing 110 career doubles wins and earning Doubles All-American status.

The culmination of an impressive career on the courts as well as outstanding leadership ability earned Bryan the 2007 ITA National Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Not only did the LSU player shine on the courts, his service work allowed him to shine in the community as well. From 2005-07, Bryan was named to the Southeastern Conference Community Service team. In 2007, his efforts in the community earned Bryan the 2007 LSU Male Volunteer of the Year.

Camp Philosophy

Desire, sportsmanship and hard work are the fundamental characteristics of a true champion. The staff will seek to instill this philosophy and have each camper set goals and work hard to achieve them.

The Program

The instructional program includes six to eight hours per day on the tennis courts. There is a strong emphasis on fundamentals and consistency of performance. Campers will be involved in match play.

Camp Format

Individualized instruction is provided by experienced dedicated instructors. We maintain a low teacher-student ratio, as well as a daily running and physical conditioning period. Campers will receive constant training in the following areas:

- Stroke production, techniques and fundamentals.

- Drill situations to groove technique.
- Physical training; running, strength and agility.
- Match competition featuring singles, doubles and strategy.

Bottom Line

Camp is about building character. It is about hard work, sportsmanship and learning to interact with instructors and fellow campers. Most of all, it is about tennis - playing tennis to one's potential - and the opportunity for your child to develop his or her skill.

Sessions

Three week-long camps will be offered each summer. The camps typically run from 2 p.m. on Sunday until Friday at noon. Campers may enroll in one session or more. For brochures and other camp information, call Steve Carter at (225) 924-0735 or visit TigerTennisCamps.com.

“John is a neat story with this being his fifth year and his biggest opportunity to contribute to the team and be in the lineup. It shows if you can keep it together and work hard you can find a way to get into the starting lineup and to achieve what you set out to do.  2008 D'Novo/ITA All-American Champion

Coach Brown on Venus

"When he arrived here, Michael had a great work ethic and we knew that would pay dividends if he was able to put the mental side of the game together. That's been the biggest improvement with Michael is seeing just how mature he's become. He has turned not only into a better tennis player but has had leadership qualities emerge. He has a bright future after winning the ITA All-American in the fall. That tournament was a big step for him in the extended level of play over many days. He had a slight injury, but was still able to maintain a high level of play and still win when he wasn't even actually playing his best. We are glad he has been able to put things together and are looking forward to big things out of him for the spring."

HISTORY

Looking Back

The LSU men's tennis team completed a strong campaign for the 2007-08 season, etching a 15-9 overall record and a final ITA rank of No. 18, marking the 10th time in head coach Jeff Brown's career the team finished among the top 25 in the nation. The Tigers kept their NCAA streak alive, appearing in the tournament for the 14th-straight year as LSU advanced to the second round of their NCAA tournament berth.

Fall

The Tigers had a successful fall season with solid contributions from both veteran players and newcomers as well.

Last season, Brown brought in a record number of five freshman onto the squad. Sebastian Carlsson, a 6-0 freshman from Uppsala, Sweden kick-started LSU's fall season, claiming the B Singles Bracket title at the Rice Invitational in his first ever tournament as a Tiger. Dropping only a single set, Carlsson cruised to a 3-0 record at the tournament, however his fall campaign would not be only highlighted by one bracket title, but two.

Carlsson claimed his second title at Ragin' Cajun Invitational, sweeping the competition once again with a 3-0 record and overtaking Radu Inoescu of Nicholls State in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4.

The Tigers had stellar performance at the Auburn Classic to cap the fall season. LSU notched a grand total of 23 victories over the span of the three-day tournament, jumpstarting the tournament by sweeping all of its matches on day one. The Auburn Classic was the last road trip for the Tigers in the fall as they came home to host the SEC Coaches' Indoor Championships in January 2008.

For the second year in a row, LSU hosted the SEC Coaches' Indoor Championships in New Orleans at the Hilton's Health Club. Tiger tandem Kevin Dessauer and Jan Zelezny made a valiant run at the doubles title, but were cut short in the quarterfinals by the No. 6 duo of Jamie Hunt and Nate Schnugg of Georgia in a close 8-6 match.

At Home in the "Dub"

W.T. "Dub" Robinson Stadium proved once again to be a formidable venue for outside opponents as the Tigers posted a 10-2 record on their home courts improving the all-time record at the "Dub" to 290-53.

LSU held a dominant eight-match win streak on its courts, including wins over 22nd-ranked Vanderbilt and 25th-ranked Texas A&M. LSU's only two losses came against the No. 2 and No. 3 teams in the nation, Ohio State and SEC contender Georgia. Even when competing against two top-three teams, the Tigers proved resilient and tough competitors, falling by only a narrow margin of 4-2 to both teams.

LSU's highlight of the 2007-08 home season came in the Tigers' final match in the "Dub" against No. 8 Florida on senior day. With a 3-all overall match score, Carlsson picked up a victory on court six to clinch the upset of the 8th-ranked Gators and give the departing seniors a victory on the last time they took to the LSU courts.

On the Road Again

After the Tigers overtook No. 8 Florida, they mapped out a trail across the SEC for their last three games before the SEC tournament. LSU picked up wins against Mississippi State and Arkansas by a dominant 5-2 mark in both matches.

LSU faced Mississippi State in the first round of SEC tournament play as the sixth-seeded team. The Tigers pushed past the Bulldogs, notching 2-0 record against Mississippi State by shutting out the 54th-ranked team, 4-0. After defeating Mississippi State, LSU was set to square off with No. 8 Tennessee.

As the Tigers and Vols squared off, Tennessee quickly went up 3-0. LSU battled back with intensity to bring the match to a 3-2 mark, but their rally fell short when the 8th-ranked team overcame LSU, 4-2.

Although their run at the SEC Tournament was cut short, LSU looked to the NCAA tournament as it received a berth, making it the 14th year in a row the Tigers would enter the tournament. As the team watched the announcement, ESPN revealed that the Tigers would travel to Urbana, Ill. for the regional portion of the tournament, making it the second time in the season the Tigers would compete on the courts of the Atkins Tennis Center where they competed against a then 12th-ranked Illinois earlier in the season.

In the first round, LSU faced undefeated Drake. The Tigers won the match in a grand fashion posting a 4-1 mark over the Drake Bulldogs, handing Drake their first loss of the season. The 18th-ranked Tigers would face No. 15 Illinois in the second round. LSU swept doubles to give the Tigers the early point, but only Carlsson notched a win in singles for LSU and Illinois took the match, 4-2, ending the Tigers NCAA run.

Ample Awards

Several Tigers earned league, regional and national acclaim for their accomplishments in the 2008 season for their efforts on the courts, in the classroom and in the community.

On the courts, two Tigers received SEC honors as junior Michael Venus picked up First-Team All-SEC and Kevin Dessauer received Second-Team All-SEC recognition.

Three Tigers finished the season in the ITA's national rankings with Venus receiving the highest rank at No. 31 and Jan Zelezny at No. 110. Venus also appeared in the final rankings with teammate James Cluskey as the No. 14 duo in the nation. Three players earned Louisiana's top honors, the most of any Louisiana university, as Carlsson, Dessauer and Venus listed as First-Team All-Louisiana. LSU dominated the individual Louisiana honors as well. Venus nabbed the title for both Louisiana Player of the Year and Louisiana Newcomer of the Year. Carlsson, five-time SEC Freshman of the Week, picked up the honor for Louisiana Freshman of the Year and head coach Jeff Brown picked up the award for Louisiana Coach of the Year for the second year in a row.

Success on the courts was facilitated by success in the classroom as the Tigers earned a perfect Academic Progress Rate Score of 1000. Additionally, Dessauer was named the SEC Tennis Co-Athlete of the year and received the Regional ITA/Arthur Ashe Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship. Along with Carlsson and Zelezny, Dessauer also received ITA All-Academic team honors. After earning a 4.0 GPA during his tenure at LSU, Dessauer was one of 58 athletes to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

To cap his senior season, Dessauer highlighted community involvement for the Tigers spearheading several projects such as the Big Buddy's Day of Mentors, LSU's Halloween BOOzar and teamed up with Shaquille O'Neal in building a local school playground.

The Tigers made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in the school's history when coach Steve Carter guided LSU to the NCAA's in 1978. The Tigers entered the NCAA's with a 20-2 record, while riding a nine-match winning streak. However, Pepperdine proved to be too strong for LSU as the Wave rolled to a 6-3 first round win. LSU finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

The Tigers, which did not lose a match outdoors all season, lost to Stanford, 5-2, in the finals of the NCAA's in a match that was forced indoors due to rain. LSU reached the finals by recording wins over California in round two, Georgia in the quarterfinal and Michigan in the semifinal. LSU, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation for four weeks during the season, ended the year ranked second.

Overall Record: 22-5

The Duke match marked the final match for perhaps three of the best players in LSU history in Tamer El Sawy, Michael Westbrook and Juha Pesola.

1995

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1995. However, LSU's return was short-lived as TCU, ranked 10th, upset the sixth-ranked Tigers, 4-0, in round one. LSU lost to Georgia in the SEC Tournament final and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation.

1996

Overall Record: 21-5

LSU enjoyed another stellar campaign en route to its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years under coach Jerry Simmons. LSU played host to the 1996 NCAA Region III Championships. The top-seeded Tigers overcame a 3-0 deficit to No. 23 Auburn in the title match for a thrilling 4-3 win to advance to the NCAA's. LSU beat Kentucky in the first round and Alabama-Birmingham in the Regional semifinal. TCU, ranked 4th, bumped LSU from the NCAA Championships in the round of 16 for the second-straight year by a 4-3 count.

Simmons capped off a much heralded 26-year coaching career, 15 coming at LSU, as his Tigers earned an automatic tourney bid. LSU shocked the collegiate tennis world by returning to the Final Four for the second consecutive year in 1999. The Tigers, who had a No. 19 preseason ranking, hosted a regional and beat Alcorn State and Tulane to advance to the round of 16 at Athens, Ga. There, LSU beat a gutsy Fresno State team before upsetting second-ranked Duke in the quarterfinal. However, the magic ended in the Final Four as No. 1 UCLA managed to survive the Tiger attack. The Tigers defeated eventual national champion Georgia twice on the season.

Overall Record: 20-6

Final Rank: No. 12

After entering the season as one of the favorites to win the national championship, the 2000 LSU squad earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers roared through the first two rounds in Baton Rouge with 4-0 victories over both Alcorn State and Clemson. Then it was on to Athens, Ga., and a tough round of 16 match with sixth-seeded Illinois. In a grueling match, the Illini proved to be a little too strong as they claimed a 4-3 victory and ousted LSU from the tournament.

Overall Record: 16-8

Final Rank: No. 13

The LSU men's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Championships for the seventh-straight season in 2001 after accumulating a 14-7 overall record during the regular season. The Tigers rebounded from a 4-3 upset loss against Alabama in the Southeastern Conference Tournament to host an NCAA Regional for the third-consecutive season. In front of a raucous home crowd at the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium, LSU dropped Marist, 4-0, in first-round action before knocking off 19th-ranked Texas, 4-2, to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships in Athens, Ga. The Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third-straight year and faced No. 7 Texas A&M at the Dan Magill Tennis Center on the campus of the University of Georgia. In the third-round match, Texas A&M out-slugged the Tigers, 4-1.

1998

Overall Record: 11-14

Final Rank: No. 29

Despite finishing the regular season with a losing record for the first time in seven years, LSU proved its worthiness of an NCAA Tournament bid by advancing to the round of 32 with a convincing 4-0 victory over the higher-ranked Texas Christian Horned Frogs. The win was a triumphant contrast for the Tigers after the team had traversed a season full of 4-3 losses and had faced 16 top-25 teams in 25 dual-match contests. In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, LSU fell prey to 16th-ranked Texas A&M for the second-consecutive season, 4-0, in College Station, Texas.

Overall Record: 13-11

Final Rank: No. 24

The Tigers kept their NCAA tournament streak alive, making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and finishing the season ranked in the top 25 for the 19th time in 20 years. The Tigers finished second in the SEC West with a 5-6 conference record and 13-11 overall record. They were upset in the first round by No. 56 South Alabama, 4-2, in New Orleans.

2004

Overall Record: 18-7

Final Rank: No. 13

LSU's three seniors, Cory Ross, Sebastian Rutka and Bryan Fisher, ended their time at LSU with their most successful years here. The Tigers finished in a tie for third in the SEC. They earned the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since. Despite losing in the second round to 14th-ranked Rice, they finished ranked 13th in the nation, the fifth top-15 finish in Jeff Brown's career. Ken Skupski entered the lineup at No. 1 singles and became one of two freshmen in the nation selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship. Fisher and Jason Hazley finished their highly successful career as a doubles team ranked No. 15 in the nation. The 2004 Tigers compiled a 3.5 GPA in the spring to lead all LSU varsity teams. They were selected an ITA All-Academic team and Fisher and Paul White were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

2005

Overall Record: 21-9

Final Rank: No. 10

After another successful season the Tigers finished with a 19-8 regular season record and were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. Georgia outplayed the Tigers to win the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999. All of LSU's nine losses this season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams.

Overall Record: 15-10

For the eighth time in head coach Jeff Brown's nine years leading the way, the LSU Tigers finished the season in the top 25. The Tigers finished with a 15-10 record, but were ousted in the first round of the SEC and NCAA Tournament. LSU loss against Minnesota in the NCAA Tournament was the curtain call for acclaimed seniors Mark Growcott and Paul White. Growcott only spent two years as a Tiger but played a key role in the team's success. Growcott and doubles partner Ken Skupski were ranked No. 1 in the 2006 preseason poll. White, a four-year letterwinner, succeeded on and off the court. He was a two-time ITA Scholar-Athlete and was chosen as the 2005 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Overall Record: 18-7

Final Rank: No. 15

The Tigers put together another successful campaign in 2007 by posting an 18-7 record, finishing the season ranked No. 15 and advancing the NCAA round of 16. It marked the sixth time in head coach Jeff Brown's ten years as coach that the Tigers reached the round of 16. No. 2 Ohio State, who had defeated LSU earlier in the regular season, ended the Tigers' season with a 4-0 victory in the round of 16. The round of the 16 match was the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home as they hosted the SEC Championships and the NCAA first and second round.

2008

Overall Record: 15-9

Final Rank: No. 18

LSU continued their solid presence in the NCAA tournament, marking the 14th straight tournament appearance for the Tigers. LSU handed undefeated Drake its first loss of the season with a 4-1 mark over the Bulldogs. The Tigers fell to No. 15 Illinois, 4-2, to cap LSU's season with a 15-9 record and final rank of No. 18, marking 24 out of 25 years that LSU finished in the top 25.

Michael Venus

2008 D'Novo/All-American Champion

Michael Venus defeated the nation's No. 1 player Oleksandr Nedovyesov of Oklahoma State University to win the 2008 D'Novo All-American Championship, becoming the first in school history to win the title.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program. For Michael to be the first to win speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's also validation of the program in all that we are doing in practice, weights and conditioning is getting results."

As Venus, No. 20 in preseason ITA rankings, and Nedovyesov squared off, the 6-3 LSU senior was battling severe knee pain. Venus was able to capture the first set by a 7-6 (5) mark, but faltered in the following set, allowing Nedovyesov to post a 6-2 mark. "Michael lost concentration in the second set and the match could have easily slid downhill," LSU assistant coach Danny Bryan said. "His knee was hurting him so badly, I thought he was going to have to stop the match, but he was able to fight through it and that's what made the third set so amazing."

After a close first set and falling in the second, Venus was able to overcome both the physical and mental hurdle his knee caused and capture the match in a stellar third set performance. Venus posted a 6-4 mark to win the set and the championship match. "Winning felt good. I was hurting and as I got into the third set, Danny motivated me and reminded me of how hard I had worked. It gave me the motivation I needed to push through when things got tough," Venus said.

Venus' run at the 2008 ITA All-American advanced him over six ranked opponents in the ITA's preseason rankings. Venus began his campaign on a solid note as he knocked off No. 98 Roy Kalmanovich of Illinois, 6-2, 6-2, before moving into the second round to defeat No. 23 Jaime Hunt of Georgia, 6-4, 7-6 (8). The highlight of Venus' performance prior to the finals would be his victory over No. 4 Alex Clayton of Stanford. He advanced in straight sets over Clayton, 6-4, 6-1, moving into the tournament quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, Venus defeated Arkansas' Blake Strode, No. 41, in a heated match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, to catapult him into the semis where the senior would overcome No. 31 Enrique Olivares of East Tennessee State, 7-6 (3), 6-1, creating history by becoming the first Tiger to ever advance into the finals at the ITA All-American.

Donni Leaycraft

1989 NCAA Singles Champion

Donni Leaycraft capped off his record-setting junior season by becoming the first LSU player to win the NCAA singles title. Leaycraft entered the NCAA singles tournament as the 13th seed and proceeded to breeze through the first four rounds, winning all four matches in straight sets. In the semifinal, Leaycraft upset hometown favorite Pablo Montana of Georgia in three sets and then beat Steven Jung of Nebraska 6-1, 4-6, 6-3 to claim the title. Leaycraft finished the year with a 42-10 record and ranked No. 3 in the nation.

At the Clay Courts, Kjellsten, who was the tournament's eighth seed, knocked off top-ranked Malivai Washington of Michigan, 6-3, 6-3 in the quarterfinal and then cruised past fourth-ranked Greg Failla of Southern Cal in the semifinal. In the final, Kjellsten knocked off 12th-ranked Stephen Enoch of Georgia 2-6, 6-2, 6-1 to give LSU the school's first grand slam event winner. Kjellsten went on to post a 38-11 overall singles record and finished the year ranked No. 7 in the country.

Tamer El Sawy1993 NCAA Singles Semifinalist

Arguably the best player to ever play for LSU, Tamer El Sawy capped off his career with the Tigers with one of the best individual seasons in school history. El Sawy posted a 39-5 overall record and reached the semifinals of the NCAA singles tournament in 1993. He breezed through the first three rounds of draw before beating Roland Thornqvist of North Carolina in three sets in the quarterfinal. El Sawy, the No. 3 seed, then dropped a three-set match No. 1-ranked Chris Woodruff of Tennessee. The El Sawy-Woodruff semifinal match was said to be the best match of the tournament and it was only fitting that it would be the last match El Sawy would play at LSU.
