2009 SEC MEN'S TENNIS RECAP

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt and the trend continued this past season.

On the men's side, Georgia and Ole Miss advanced to the quarterfinals at the 2009 NCAA Division I Tennis Championships in College Station, Texas.

Ole Miss freshman Devin Britton came back to beat Ohio State senior Steven Moneke 3-6, 6-2, 6-3 to take the individual NCAA title. Britton was the first freshman since USC's Cecil Mamiit (1996) to win the national title and the first non-seeded player since Luke Smith of UNLV in 1997. He is the youngest of the three all-time freshmen to win the singles title which includes 19-year-old John McEnroe of Stanford in 1978. Britton defeated three seeded players en route to his national title run and ended Moneke's 22-match winning streak.

In doubles play, Tennessee's John-Patrick Smith and Davey Sandgren dropped a tough three-set match in the title contest to Virginia's 12th-ranked Dominic Inglot and Michael Shabaz, 3-6, 7-6(4), 6-4.

Seventeen ITA All-America honors were bestowed upon SEC players in 2009. Since 1990, 143 honors in singles and 142 in doubles have been awarded to the conference players.

The conference made another strong national showing on the women's side as the Georgia advanced to the semifinals.

In the singles tournament, Georgia's Chelsey Gullickson advanced to the semifinals while in doubles, the Tennessee duo of Natalie Pluskota and Caitlin Whoriskey advanced to the semifinals.

A total of seven student-athletes were named ITA All-American to put the totals at 110 singles and 120 double honors since 1990.

The LSU men's tennis team has called W.T. Robinson Tennis Stadium home for nearly four decades. During its history, the "Dub," as it is affectionately called, has seen a wealth of talented and successful players on its courts and has kept up with newer college facilities through a series of renovations and improvements over the years.

The Tigers' home facility is named in honor of former standout head coach W.T. Robinson, a coach that elevated the LSU tennis program to national prominence. The facility provides six varsity courts with an additional six practice courts. The newly resurfaced varsity courts received new tower lights prior to 2007 and also feature an electronic scoreboard, while the practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001. Robinson stadium accommodates up to 550 fans including a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

Both the nationally-ranked Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room and brand-new showers and bathrooms. The facility was completely refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room as well as an equipment room. Prior to the 2007 season, the media room was updated to include both leather couches as well as a 42-inch flat screen television. In January 2009, LSU installed an individual scoreboard on each court, allowing for a more up-to-date scoring experience for fans.

Former men's coach Jerry Simmons surpassed Robinson in 1992 to become the Tigers' all-time winningest coach. As the Simmons era came to a close in 1997, the Tigers posted an 11-1 home mark en-route to an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships.

With Simmons at the reigns, Robinson Stadium became one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents to play, with the Tigers compiling a 162-25 (.866) home record during Simmons' last 15 seasons. Since head coach Jeff Brown took over in the 1998 season, the Tigers have accumulated a 135-32 overall record at home. His opening season as head coach, Brown notched a perfect 12-0 record on the Tigers home court.

W.T. "Dub" Robinson was also the site for the 2007 SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals. The Tigers advanced through the first round of the SEC Tournament before being ousted by Georgia, the eventual 2007 national champion.

During the 2007 NCAA Regionals, LSU defeated Alcorn State and Vanderbilt on their home courts before advancing to the round of 16 to face Ohio State in the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home.

The "Dub" was also home to the 2009 NCAA Regionals as Alcorn State, Rice and Ole Miss traveled to Baton Rouge for the competition. The Tigers didn't push through to the round of 16 as they did in 2007; however, LSU blanked 34th-ranked Rice in front of an enthusiastic Tiger fan base that packed Robinson Stadium for the event. LSU fell to second-ranked Ole Miss in the second round of competition, the only team to beat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season.

W.T. “DUB” ROBINSON FACTS

Legendary LSU men's tennis coach W.T. Robinson, or “Dub” as he was lovingly known, single-handedly orchestrated the LSU tennis program's rise to prominence. During his nearly three decade tenure as head coach, Robinson accumulated a 189-180-9 overall record, catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene and guided them to a status among the nation's elite. When the LSU tennis complex was completed in the fall of 1976, it was only natural that it was named after the person that built the program.

Computer Stations

The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is at the forefront of today's educational technology. Since the spring of 2009, the academic center has upgraded over 170 computers, including both PC and Mac.

Media Training

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes here on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

Academic Center

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 not only made it among the nation's premier academic centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Athletic TRAINING

Nutrition First

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix coordinates with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet. LSU trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

"It's a great feeling to give back to the community that helps support us as LSU athletes. To see how grateful everyone is, especially the kids, is a rewarding experience."

- Sebastian Carlsson

Community OUTREACH

Members of the LSU men's tennis team participate in and spearhead community service projects throughout the year. In 2009, some of the Tigers' most notable community service events included visiting hospitals, reading to children at local elementary schools, passing out medals at the Bowling Special Olympics, participating in the Halloween BOOzar and raising money to buy gifts for an underprivileged child as a part of Christmas with the Tigers. Former tennis team member James Cluskey led the squad in many of its endeavors, and for his efforts earned a place on the 2009 SEC Community Service team.

LSU's Memorial Tower (main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (inset). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended.

U.S. News & WORLD REPORT

In a summer 2008 edition of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities" for the first time.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Recently, Chancellor Dr. Michael V. Martin announced that in the summer 2008 edition of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities" for the first time.

"This accomplishment means that the nation now recognizes what we have always known - that LSU is one of America's best universities," Martin said. "This ranking is proof that LSU's Flagship Agenda is working. That plan has done what it was designed to do -- improve LSU's stature on a national level."

Why LSU?

"The first thing I realized when I got to LSU was how important academics is to (LSU coach) Jeff (Brown) and how that focus carries on to the court by showing discipline and time management. They have an incredible support staff at the Cox Communications Academic Center and it gives you every opportunity to succeed. LSU being in the SEC, gives you great competition on a weekly basis. I played a guy last season that ended up getting to the third round of the U.S. Open. You are facing some of the top athletes in the country."

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Tommy Hodson
Quarterback (1986-89)
All-SEC

"I had a lot of choices coming out of high school, but when I visited LSU it was different. It felt like a family with the coaches and the players. LSU was the best place for me to go. It had everything I wanted, both football and academically. The atmosphere and the coaches made me feel very comfortable around them as well as the academic people and everybody involved with the program. I was from down the road in Louisiana and could have gone anywhere to school, but I chose to stay close to home."

Jarvis Green
Defensive End (1998-01)
New England Patriots member

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

DUEL UNDER THE OAKS I

Oct. 29, 2006

Both of the LSU tennis teams took part in the first "Duel Under the Oaks." The event was sponsored by the Irene W. and C.B. Pennington Foundation and helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita that ripped through Louisiana in late 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities which led to the main event—Pete Sampras and Todd Martin squaring off against one another in the Maravich Center.

DUEL UNDER THE OAKS II

"Duel Under the Oaks II" marked the second time tennis pros teamed up on the LSU campus to raise money for hurricane relief. Pete Sampras and James Blake faced off in an exhibition match spearheaded by the Irene W. and C.B. Pennington Foundation to raise money for relief efforts in the wake of Hurricanes Gustav and Ike. Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now in his 13th season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here; He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit.

Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so during his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

Brown has since proven those feats are more than just beginner's luck. He quickly earned respect among his peers due to his lengthy list of achievements. Brown has never failed to take his teams to the NCAA Tournament and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005 and 2007. He has coached 10 singles and doubles All-Americans and 11 Academic All-Americans. After young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004, and in 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998.

Brown has never failed to take the team to a top-30 finish, and with him at the helm, the Tigers finished among the top 10 three times. Even with national acclaim, Brown is not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it you really appreciate it, and you're hungry for more."

Brown has put his Tigers in position to succeed on and off the court. Brown helped setup "Duel Under the Oaks" on Oct. 29, 2006, a charity event held on LSU's campus that helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes that ripped through Louisiana in 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU players and an exhibition match with former pros Pete Sampras and Todd Martin at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. The event was such a success that LSU hosted "Duel Under the Oaks II" in December 2008 in the wake of Hurricanes Gustav and Ike.

During Brown's LSU tenure, the Tigers have had three SEC Scholar Athletes of the Year, 11 Academic All-Americans and 56 SEC Honor Roll members.

The Tigers were honored by the NCAA in 2008 for their Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the report by the NCAA. That year the tennis team scored the highest among LSU sports for the third year in a row. The NCAA recognized college sports teams from around the country that achieved an APR score in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The LSU men's tennis team was one of only 10 sports teams of 236 squads in the entire Southeastern Conference that were recognized for academic achievement by the NCAA, and it is the only men's tennis team in the SEC to achieve the honor.

When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fourth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis.

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition among the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 45 international ranking in doubles is the highest ranking ever for a former LSU player.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. They have two young boys, Connor (5) and Cameron (3).

Danny BRYAN

Year at LSU: 2nd
Birthdate: Dec. 15, 1985
Birthplace: Lafayette, La.

ASST. COACH

BROWN ON BRYAN:

“Danny has become an excellent coach. He has done a great job at taking ownership of situations and developing players’ games on the court and in the film room. Danny lends tennis and life experience to our players in a positive and wholesome way.”

Danny Bryan stepped onto the court as an assistant coach for the Tigers last season, but it was not the first time Bryan stepped onto the court for LSU. The newly appointed assistant coach served as a volunteer coach in fall of 2008 and was a four-year letterman for the Tigers from 2003-07.

As an assistant coach, Bryan is instrumental in on-one-one instruction, and at one of his first tournaments in his new position, Bryan coached former LSU standout Michael Venus in the final match at the D'Novo All-American Championships where Venus became the first Tiger to win the title in the history of the program.

With experience in three different facets of LSU tennis and almost a lifetime geared toward the game, Bryan helped guide the Tigers along with head coach Jeff Brown to another season in the national spotlight. The team earned a No. 28 billing at the close of 2009 season as well as an NCAA Tournament berth.

Bryan has been a mainstay on the courts of the "Dub" for more than six years now, but his journey toward LSU began long ago. Tennis runs through his veins, passed down through his father and three uncles that played collegiate tennis, as well as a grandfather that played on the pro circuit.

After cracking the starting lineup his freshman year, he served as a leader both on and off the court. Bryan served as a co-captain for the Tigers his junior and senior seasons, and the New Orleans native made an impact in Louisiana, the Southeastern Conference and the national rankings. Bryan earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors for three consecutive years. In 2007, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors and finished his senior season at No. 40 in the ITA singles rankings and No. 6 in doubles with partner Colt Gaston.

Bryan made an impact on the LSU record books as well. He sits tied at 14th in career singles wins at 84 with LSU greats Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely. His doubles campaign was no less impressive as he capped his senior season by winning the 2007 SEC Indoor Championships with partner Gaston and captured 110 career doubles win to earn Doubles All-America status.

The culmination of an impressive career on the courts as well as outstanding leadership ability earned Bryan the 2007 ITA National Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Not only did he shine on the courts, his service work allowed him to shine in the community as well. From 2005-07 Bryan was named to the Southeastern Conference Community service team. In 2007, his efforts earned him the 2007 Male Volunteer of the Year.

Bryan married former LSU gymnast Jade Jenkins on Jan. 2, 2010.

Camp directors Jeff Brown and Tony Minnis are both proven collegiate tennis players and coaches of nationally-ranked tennis programs. They each have the necessary skills and knowledge to improve the play of athletes ages 7-17. The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp is equally excited to train anyone from beginners to tournament players. The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp experience is enhanced by the added direction of LSU assistant coaches Danny Bryan and Lisa Jackson. The newly renovated W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium plays host to the Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp each year. The Robinson Tennis Stadium is located on the west side of LSU's campus and boasts 12 collegiate outdoor courts as well as an indoor practice facility.

Camp Philosophy

Desire, sportsmanship and hard work are the fundamental characteristics of a true champion. The staff will seek to instill this philosophy and have each camper set goals and work hard to achieve them.

The Program

The instructional program includes six to eight hours per day on the tennis courts. There is a strong emphasis on fundamentals and consistency of performance. Campers will be involved in match play.

Camp Format

Individualized instruction is provided by experienced dedicated instructors. We maintain a low teacher-student ratio, as well as a daily running and physical conditioning period. Campers will receive constant training in the following areas:

- Stroke production, techniques and fundamentals.
- Drill situations to groove technique.
- Physical training; running, strength and agility.
- Match competition featuring singles, doubles and strategy.

Bottom Line

Camp is about building character. It is about hard work, sportsmanship and learning to interact with instructors and fellow campers. Most of all, it is about tennis - playing tennis to one's potential - and the opportunity for your child to develop his or her skill.

LSU returns six letterwinners coming off of a season where the Tigers earned an 11-12 mark, final ITA bid of No. 28 and an NCAA Second Round appearance. LSU listed at No. 29 in this year's preseason ITA polls, earned the nod for second in the SEC West in the leagues preseason coaches' poll and recorded three players in the singles national rankings (No. 26 Neal Skupski, No. 97 Sebastian Carlsson and No. 101 Julien Gauthier). The preseason acclaim isn't the first for the Tigers, and although the team is young, expectations for the year run high. A tough dual schedule will put the team to a test match-after-match, all the while building toward their goal of a sixteenth-straight NCAA Tournament berth.

Helping lead the team into its 2010 season are co-captains Carlsson and Cody Loup—two of the team's most tenured members. Carlsson is a three-year letterwinner, and in the fall tied Skupski for a team-best 10 singles wins and seven dual victories. He's a proven asset not only to the team, but also the community and classroom. The Uppsala, Sweden native earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors in 2009, and participates in community service endeavors such as passing out medals at Special Olympics events and visiting local hospitals.

Loup, a Baton Rouge native, has been a core member of the team for the past two years and has a passion for LSU athletics passed onto him through the veins of his family. Loup's cousin, Chad Loup was an LSU quarterback early in the '90s, and cousin Frank Godfrey, also played center for the football team around the same time.

"The team is very important to both Sebastian and Cody," LSU head coach Jeff Brown commented. "Both of them are willing to do what it takes to motivate the team. They are great examples of student-athletes, and are two guys really ready to lead."

A Tell-Tale Fall

"Coming into the fall, the most important thing was to establish guys that could play at the top," Brown said.

By fall's end, each player had made strides, but three particular players broke loose from the pack.

The journey to find the top three courts began in Houston when the Tigers kicked off competition at the Rice Invitational. Junior Julien Gauthier was the first to have a breakthrough performance by claiming the Bracket A singles title. The 5'10" force breezed through the first round over Southern Methodist's Bryan Griffin 7-5, 6-0 before taking on Rice's Isamu Tachibana in the second round. A third-set tiebreaker decided the match over Tachibana, and with a 4-6, 6-1, 10-6 mark Gauthier moved into the finals. Gauthier proved in the last match that he was capable of playing at escalated heights when he took the reigns against SMU's Artem Baradach with a straight-set win, 6-3, 7-6.

The next Tiger to step up was sophomore Neal Skupski. LSU was on the road once again for the D'Novo All-American Championships, a title former Tiger Michael Venus claimed in 2008. In 2009, it would be Skupski, Venus' former doubles partner, who made a convincing run for the crown. Skupski defeated five opponents, four of which were nationally-ranked, as he worked his way through the qualifying rounds in to the second round of main draw. Although Skupski fell short of the All-American title, he revealed his resilience and proved he had the potential to be one of the nation's top players.

LSU's final fall test at the USF Invitational would reveal another breakout performance—this time from Carlsson; however, Carlsson's performance was neither unseen nor unexpected. Prior to the tournament, Carlsson made a run to the semifinals of the ITA Southern Regional, and recorded the biggest win of his career over Alabama's 10th-ranked Saketh Myneni. The performance proved he was on the brink, and the USF Invitational was his tipping point. Carlsson claimed the Flight A singles title, his first title since 2007 when he captured the B Singles Bracket title at the Rice Invitational. En route to the USF Singles title, Carlsson defeated South Florida's Peter Frank, 5-7, 6-0, 10-4, Miami's Waylon Chin 6-1, 6-1 and Central Florida's Marc Rocafort, 6-4, 2-6, 11-9.

"Everyone made strides and improvements to their game," Brown said. "It's been a fun team to coach, and I look forward to practice with these guys, which isn't always the case."

Growing Room

The 2010 team has no seniors, but for the Tigers that means there is room to grow.

"This year, it's going to be about being able to take some knocks and still maintain focus and understanding," Brown explained. "This season, it's almost like a two-year project."

And the project was one Brown began investing in long ago.

In 2007, Brown brought in a record five freshmen to the team. Of the original five, three remain- Carlsson, Gauthier and David Roberts. In their combined careers, they have provided 99 wins for the Tigers.

Since then, 10 new Tigers have burst onto the scene, including last year's seasoned vets, Skupski and Mark Bowtell. Last season, Skupski became the first freshman All-American for the LSU men's tennis program, and both he and Bowtell were mainstays on the court. The two became integral parts of the team in only their first year with the Tigers, providing the team with both solid singles and doubles lineups.

Highlighting this year's fresh crop are Stefan Szacinski, James Turbervill and Olivier Borsos.

Szacinski, an Adelaide, Australia, native is set to be an asset in doubles after tying for the second-most doubles wins on the team during tournament competition.

"Stefan is going to be a great leader going forward for this team," Brown said. "He's going to play a big role for us this season in both singles and doubles."

Fellow freshman Turbervill has already proven himself an asset as well. The Bristol, U.K., native produced an impressive 7-5 record in singles during the fall.

"Turbervill has really put it all together recently, and he is going to be someone we call on us to give us consistent points," Brown said.

Borsos comes to Baton Rouge from Budapest, Hungary. After an impressive junior career in which he played four years for the Hungarian National Team and defeated three former junior world champions in doubles, he looks to make an immediate impact with the Tigers.

But it's not just those that have already stood out that will give the Tigers the lift they need this season. "I think one advantage to this team is that in every position we are going to improve throughout the season," Brown said. "I don't think anyone is near maximum potential, so there is growth from match to match and practice, which is very exciting as a coach."

Robinson Stadium: A National Stage for Men's Tennis

This season some of the nation's top teams will be traveling to Baton Rouge to face the Tigers in the "Dub." A Feb. 25 doubleheader against in-state rivals UL-Lafayette and New Orleans will kick off home competition. Nationally-ranked contenders roll into the "Dub" beginning Feb. 28 with Texas A&M, followed by South Carolina, Florida and South Florida. Robinson Stadium will see a brief hiatus when the Tigers travel to take on Mississippi State and Ole Miss March 12 and 14, respectively, but will see action once more on March 19 when the Tigers return for another clash of nationally- ranked proportions against Wake Forest. LSU faces preseason No. 3 Ohio State on March 23 and heavyweight SEC contender Georgia on March 28 both in front of a home crowd, and will finish the home season when they take on Kentucky on April 9 and Vanderbilt on April 11. Eighteen of LSU's 2010 opponents have the potential of finishing listed in the ITA's final rankings, and that's not by chance.

"We made a decision that we were going to get better by playing teams that are very good," Brown said. "We are benefiting by playing such a tough schedule, and it won't hurt us if we don't win. It'll be how we handle the losses that will make a difference. We'll have to keep our heads up and continue our project."

Season REVIEW

THE STREAK GOES ON

For each year of his tenure, Coach Brown has taken the team to the NCAA Tournament and a top-30 finish. Last season was no different for the Tigers as the team advanced to the second round of NCAA Tournament competition and earned a final bid of No. 28 in the nation. The Tigers kept with their winning tradition in 2009 despite struggles in the SEC, the nation's top tennis conference. LSU even managed to write a few new records with breakout performances from senior Michael Venus and freshman Neal Skupski. "I think what helped us last year was our guys being so committed," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "Michael was a huge part of our success, and he legitimately became one of the top players in the country. Neal and Sebastian (Carlsson) were also pretty sure points, and we had a very solid doubles lineup."

HISTORICAL FALL

The Tigers got off to a slow start in fall competition due to inclement weather at the ULL Invitational, but the D'Novo All-American Championships made the wait worth LSU's while. The All-American Championship was the first showcase of Venus' skills after a successful junior season had left LSU highly anticipating his senior campaign. After burning through the opening rounds to the championship match, five nationally-ranked players laid in his wake. The only thing that stood between Venus and clinching the All-American Title was the No. 1 player in the nation—Oklahoma State's Oleksandr Nedovyesov. Venus took down top-ranked Nedovyesov in a three-set standoff 7-6 (5), 2-6, 6-4 and created history by becoming the first Tiger in the LSU program to capture the All-American crown.

HOME SWEET HOME

LSU opened its home season in grand fashion by knocking off nationally-ranked No. 27 Rice. The Tigers edged out the Owls by a 4-3 margin to earn their first dual victory of the season at the "Dub." The next action of the season at the "Dub" was a doubleheader with in-state rivals UL-Lafayette and New Orleans. LSU blanked both teams by a 4-0 mark before getting ready for conference competition on their home courts. Kicking off SEC play in the "Dub," the Tigers prepared to take on 26th-ranked Auburn. The early doubles point that would later prove pivotal went to Auburn. LSU took three singles courts, but it was not enough to capture victory. The Plainsmen took the close match by a 4-3 mark. The loss would signal the beginning of an SEC struggle for the young LSU team, but they would notch three more wins at home during the season to earn a 7-4 record in front of Tiger fans in Robinson Stadium.

SEC SUCCESS AND STRUGGLES

The disheartening loss to Auburn at home left the Tigers staggering to prepare for their next big conference opponent, top-20 team Alabama. Once again the Tigers took to the courts of Robinson Stadium. LSU made a run for the doubles point, but was unable to clinch an early lead. The Crimson Tide used the advantage to leverage a win against the Tigers by a 5-2 mark. The season would be fraught with test after test in the SEC, but the Tigers worked through adversity to tally wins against Vanderbilt, South Carolina, Mississippi State and Arkansas. "It was a different beginning for us last year with SEC competition," Brown commented. "Some of the guys were injured at first, but I think the team understood our capabilities, and that we'd get better as the season went on." LSU earned an overall 4-7 SEC record and finished 8th overall in the conference.

NCAA TEAM TOURNAMENT

LSU was named a host site for the NCAA regional with Alcorn State, Rice and Ole Miss traveling to Baton Rouge for the tournament. It would be the first time the tennis team hosted NCAA regionals since 2007, and caused a controversy when the second-ranked Rebels would not have home court advantage in the tournament. In the opening round, Ole Miss knocked off Alcorn State, and LSU blanked Rice, 4-0. LSU prepared to take on the No.2 team in the nation for the third time during the season for the chance to advance to the round of 16. LSU captured the early lead during the regular season on Ole Miss by winning doubles, but had no such luck in the tournament. Ole Miss, the only team to beat LSU in its last eight matches of the year, pushed past the Tigers with a 4-2 mark.

DANGEROUS DOUBLES

The doubles point proved a solid weapon for the Tigers in combat. In every match except for two, when the Tigers garnered the doubles point it was a precursor to victory. Tiger tandem Venus and Skupski also made a powerhouse duo that took down 12 nationally-ranked opponents en route to an 18-9 record. The duo defeated top-ranked Jonas Berg and Bram ten Berg twice during competition.

The duo's efforts earned them a bid to the NCAA Individual Championships in College Station, Texas. Entering the tournament, the two were the third seed and overall No. 2 doubles team in the nation. Venus and Skupski took on Sacramento State's 58th-ranked Kiryl Harbatsiuk and Anton Stryhas. The LSU duo jumped to a 4-1 lead to kick-off the match against their Sacramento State opponents, but was unable to hold the advantage. Harbatsiuk and Stryhas fought back to tie the match at 5-all and a battle ensued. Venus and Skupski fought through the match; however, in the end, the Sacramento State duo edged by with an 11-9 mark. Venus and Skupski finished the season as the fourth-ranked duo in the nation and each earned an automatic All-America status for their rankings.

FRESH IMPACT

Skupski's All-America honor was the first for a freshman on the LSU men's tennis team. In his first year with the Tigers, the Liverpool, England, native finished at No. 4 in the final ITA doubles rankings with partner Venus, and notched the second-most wins on the team at 21 behind Venus with 26. The newcomer earned Freshman of the Week honors during the Tigers debut home match-up. Skupski dealt the final blow to Rice, clinching the match for the Tigers after capturing his doubles match with Venus as well.

Freshman Mark Bowtell was also a mainstay in the starting lineup. The Dublin, Ireland, native played primarily at the No. 6 spot, but was a valuable asset in doubles. Bowtell and fellow Irishman senior James Cluskey earned a 5-3 mark together in dual play. Bowtell's outstanding doubles performances earned him the SEC Freshman of the Week for week four of competition against in-state rivals UL-Lafayette and UNO. "We relied on the freshmen last year," Brown said. "Neal was one of our most solid points, and Bowtell, he was one of those guys who, when he won his court, we seemed to win the match."

AMPLE AWARDS

At the close of the 2008-10 season, numerous players garnered acclaim for their efforts on the courts, in the classroom and in the community. Leading the way for the Tigers on the court was Venus. The 2008 D'Novo All-American Champion did not let his success stop in the fall.

During dual competition, Venus went on to notch an impressive 26-9 record, with a 21-8 record over nationally-ranked opponents. Venus' efforts earned him a final No. 7 bid in the ITA rankings, Singles and Doubles All-America, First-Team All-SEC honors and SEC Player of the Year. The SEC Player of the Year honor was the first for any Tiger since Michael Chmela earned the award in 1998.

Skupski racked up honors as well in celebration of his first-year success with the Tigers. Skupski earned Second-Team All-SEC honors and was named to the six-member SEC All-Freshmen team in addition to his Doubles All-America Status.

Senior member of the Student Advisory Committee James Cluskey led the Tigers in the community. He was named to the SEC Community Service team for his efforts in Baton Rouge and in the surrounding areas. Cluskey spearheaded trips to local hospitals, reading trips to elementary schools and volunteered along with other members of the team to hand out awards at the Special Olympics for Bowling.

PRO SUCCESS

Former Tiger Ken Skupski, who is the brother of current player Neal Skupski, began his journey to make his stake in the pros. Ken was a four-year letterwinner at LSU from 2004-07. In that short time, Ken became one of the most decorated players in school history. Skupski was a three-time All-American, and holds the fourth-most wins in school history at 104, including the record for most doubles wins in a season with Mark Growcott.

On the pro tour in 2009, Skupski proved he could do more than play with the world's best; he proved he could beat the world's best. Skupski and partner Colin Fleming knocked off then top-ranked Danny and Mike Bryan at the Queen's Club AEGON Championships. Skupski earned a Wimbledon doubles wild card, and broke into the top-100 at No. 98 simultaneously with the announcement he would be joining Britain's Davis Cup Team. All his achievements foreshadowed his next great achievement. Skupski captured his first-ever ATP title in Metz, France in September 2009. After garnering his first title, the next seemed to come with ease. Skupski picked up the doubles title at the St. Petersburg Open in November, and shows no signs of checking up.

"It's been very exciting to see Ken succeed," Brown said. "With the skill set he has, it was easy to tell his capabilities. It's rewarding for him to have had such an outstanding college career, and then go on to achieve one of his dreams. That's what being a coach is all about."

OVERALL RECORD: 20-3 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

The Tigers made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in the school's history when coach Steve Carter guided LSU to the NCAA's in 1978. The Tigers entered the NCAA's with a 20-2 record, while riding a nine-match winning streak. However, Pepperdine proved to be too strong for LSU as the Wave rolled to a 6-3 first round win. LSU finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 19-10 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After a five-year absence from the NCAA's, second-year head coach Jerry Simmons led the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for what would be the first of ten-straight appearances at the event. The Tigers were quickly eliminated from the NCAA's, as eventual champion UCLA ousted LSU by a 6-0 count.

1985

OVERALL RECORD: 19-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC CHAMPIONS

The Tigers entered the NCAA Tournament as the SEC Champions, but LSU was again eliminated in the first round by a very good Clemson team, 5-1. Clemson ended its season ranked No. 8 in the nation, while LSU netted its highest final national ranking ever at No. 9.

1986

OVERALL RECORD: 17-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

LSU would have to wait yet another year to get its first win at the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, who were in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight year, fell to SMU, 5-2, in the opening round. SMU went on to finish third in the nation, while the Tigers ended their season ranked No. 12.

OVERALL RECORD: 23-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

LSU won what was then a school-record 23 matches as the Tigers finally got their first win in NCAA Tournament action with a 5-2 second round victory over Texas. The Tigers, who received a first round bye, then fell to Southern Cal, 5-3, in the quarter-finals. LSU finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation, the highest ranking ever for an LSU team at the time.

OVERALL RECORD: 27-2 • FINAL RANK: NO. 2

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR FINALISTS

LSU enjoyed what is still the best season in school history as the Tigers reached the finals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, which did not lose a match outdoors all season, lost to Stanford, 5-2, in the finals of the NCAA's in a match that was forced indoors due to rain. LSU reached the finals by recording wins over California in round two, Georgia in the quarterfinal and Michigan in the semifinal. LSU, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation for four weeks during the season, ended the year ranked second.

1989

OVERALL RECORD: 22-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

The Tigers reached the final eight at the NCAA's for the third- straight year, but that was as far as LSU would go as eventual champion Stanford beat the Tigers, 5-3, in the quarterfinal. The Tigers finished their season ranked No. 8 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 11

The Tigers had a down season as far as wins and losses are concerned but LSU still managed to make the 20-team NCA tournament field. The Tigers weren't around for long as California beat LSU 5-3 in round one. LSU finished its season with a 13-9 record and ranked No. 11 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 19-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 6

SEC RUNNER-UP

Returning to the final eight at the NCAA's after a year's absence from the top 10, LSU beat TCU 5-3 round two. The Tigers then were eliminated by California for the second year in a row by a 5-2 count. LSU finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation.

1992

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU entered the NCAA Tournament fresh off an appearance in the SEC Tournament title match. After a first round bye, the Tigers defeated Pepperdine, 6-3, in the second round. LSU then ran into trouble as eventual-champion Stanford ousted the Tigers 5-2. The Tigers finished the year ranked No. 10 in the nation.

1993

OVERALL RECORD: 16-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU made the NCAA Tournament for the 10th consecutive year, but the Tigers weren't around for long as Duke posted a 5-2 upset win over LSU in the second round. LSU, which received a first round bye, was ranked No. 8 in the final national poll. The Duke match marked the final match for perhaps three of the best players in LSU history in Tamer El Sawy, Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola.

1995

OVERALL RECORD: 19-4 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1995. However, LSU's return was short-lived as TCU, ranked 10th, upset the sixth-ranked Tigers, 4-0, in round one. LSU lost to Georgia in the SEC Tournament final and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation.

1996

OVERALL RECORD: 21-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

NCAA REGION III CHAMPIONS

LSU enjoyed another stellar campaign en route to its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years under coach Jerry Simmons. LSU played host to the 1996 NCAA Region III Championships. The top-seeded Tigers overcame a 3-0 deficit to No. 23 Auburn in the title match for a thrilling 4-3 win to advance to the NCAA's. LSU beat Kentucky in the first round and A-Birmingham in the Regional semifinal. TCU, ranked 4th, bumped LSU from the NCAA Championships in the round of 16 for the second-straight year by a 4-3 count.

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

Jerry Simmons, LSU's all-time winningest coach, led the Tigers to the NCAA's for the 13th and final time during 1997 after announcing his retirement prior to the start of the spring season. Simmons capped off a much heralded 26-year coaching career, 15 coming at LSU, as his Tigers earned an automatic tourney bid. Unfortunately, Simmons' Tigers were upended in round one by No. 10 Duke 4-1, finishing the year at 17-7 overall No. 9 nationally.

1998

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

In his first year as LSU's head coach, Jeff Brown led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament semifinals and a No. 2 National Ranking. The Tigers swept the SEC with a perfect 14-0 record, capturing the SEC Tournament championship as well as the overall conference crown. In the NCAA tournament, LSU tore through SMU and SEC rival Ole Miss before falling in the semifinals to a Georgia team the Tigers had twice defeated earlier in the year.

1999

OVERALL RECORD: 20-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 4

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

LSU shocked the collegiate tennis world by returning to the Final Four for the second consecutive year in 1999. The Tigers, who had a No. 19 preseason ranking, hosted a regional and beat Alcorn State and Tulane to advance to the round of 16 at Athens, Ga. There, LSU beat a gutsy Fresno State team before upsetting second-ranked Duke in the quarterfinal. However, the magic ended in the Final Four as No. 1 UCLA managed to survive the Tiger attack. The Tigers defeated eventual national champion Georgia twice on the season.

OVERALL RECORD: 20-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After entering the season as one of the favorites to win the national championship, the 2000 LSU squad earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers roared through the first two rounds in Baton Rouge with 4-0 victories over both Alcorn State and Clemson. Then it was on to Athens, Ga., and a tough round of 16 match with sixth-seeded Illinois. In a grueling match, the Illini proved to be a little too strong as they claimed a 4-3 victory and ousted LSU from the tournament.

OVERALL RECORD: 16-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

The LSU men's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Championships for the seventh-straight season in 2001 after accumulating a 14-7 overall record during the regular season. The Tigers rebounded from a 4-3 upset loss against Alabama in the Southeastern Conference Tournament to host an NCAA Regional for the third-consecutive season. In front of a raucous home crowd at the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium, LSU dropped Marist, 4-0, in first-round action before knocking off 19th-ranked Texas, 4-2, to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships in Athens, Ga. The Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third-straight year and faced No. 7 Texas A&M at the Dan Magill Tennis Center on the campus of the University of Georgia. In the third-round match, Texas A&M out-slugged the Tigers, 4-1.

OVERALL RECORD: 11-14 • FINAL RANK: NO. 29

Despite finishing the regular season with a losing record for the first time in seven years, LSU proved its worthiness of an NCAA Tournament bid by advancing to the round of 32 with a convincing 4-0 victory over the higher-ranked Texas Christian Horned Frogs. The win was a triumphant contrast for the Tigers after the team had traversed a season full of 4-3 losses and had faced 16 top-25 teams in 25 dual-match contests. In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, LSU fell prey to 16th-ranked Texas A&M for the second-consecutive season, 4-0, in College Station, Texas.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-11 • FINAL RANK: NO. 24

The Tigers kept their NCAA tournament streak alive, making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and finishing the season ranked in the top 25 for the 19th time in 20 years. The Tigers finished second in the SEC West with a 5-6 conference record and 13-11 overall record. They were upset in the first round by No. 56 South Alabama, 4-2, in New Orleans.

2004

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

LSU's three seniors, Cory Ross, Sebastian Rutka and Bryan Fisher, ended their time at LSU with their most successful years here. The Tigers finished in a tie for third in the SEC. They earned the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since. Despite losing in the second round to 14th-ranked Rice, they finished ranked 13th in the nation, the fifth top-15 finish in Jeff Brown's career. Ken Skupski entered the lineup at No. 1 singles and became one of two freshmen in the nation selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship. Fisher and Jason Hazley finished their highly successful career as a doubles team ranked No. 15 in the nation. The 2004 Tigers compiled a 3.5 GPA in the spring to lead all LSU varsity teams. They were selected an ITA All-Academic team and Fisher and Paul White were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

OVERALL RECORD: 21-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

After another successful season the Tigers finished with a 19-8 regular season record and were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. Georgia outplayed the Tigers to win the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999. All of LSU's nine losses this season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-10 • FINAL RANK NO. 25

For the eighth time in head coach Jeff Brown's nine years leading the way, the LSU Tigers finished the season in the top 25. The Tigers finished with a 15-10 record, but were ousted in the first round of the SEC and NCAA Tournament. LSU loss against Minnesota in the NCAA Tournament was the curtain call for acclaimed seniors Mark Growcott and Paul White. Growcott only spent two years as a Tiger but played a key role in the team's success. Growcott and doubles partner Ken Skupski were ranked No. 1 in the 2006 preseason poll. White, a four-year letterwinner, succeeded on and off the court. He was a two-time ITA Scholar-Athlete and was chosen as the 2005 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK NO. 15

The Tigers put together another successful campaign in 2007 by posting an 18-7 record, finishing the season ranked No. 15 and advancing the NCAA round of 16. It marked the sixth time in head coach Jeff Brown's ten years as coach that the Tigers reached the round of 16. No. 2 Ohio State, who had defeated LSU earlier in the regular season, ended the Tigers' season with a 4-0 victory in the round of 16. The round of the 16 match was the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home as they hosted the SEC Championships and the NCAA first and second round.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-9 • FINAL RANK NO. 18

LSU continued their solid presence in the NCAA tournament, marking the 14th straight tournament appearance for the Tigers. LSU handed undefeated Drake its first loss of the season with a 4-1 mark over the Bulldogs. The Tigers fell to No. 15 Illinois, 4-2, to cap LSU's season with a 15-9 record and final rank of No. 18, marking 24 out of 25 years that LSU finished in the top 25.

OVERALL RECORD: 11-12 • FINAL RANK: NO. 28

The Tigers garnered an NCAA berth for their 15th-straight year. Brown led the team into competition for the 12th time during his tenure and LSU hosted the NCAA first and second round with Alcorn State, Ole Miss and Rice traveling to Baton Rouge for the tournament. LSU swept Rice, 4-0, as Ole Miss blanked Alcorn State by the same 4-0 mark to complete first-round competition. As LSU took the court against the Rebels for the second round, it marked the third time during the season the two teams squared off against one another. Second-ranked Ole Miss took the early lead after capturing the doubles point. LSU retaliated by taking the first two singles points; however, it was not enough to fend off the Rebels. LSU fell to Ole Miss, 4-2, as the Rebels were the only team to defeat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season. LSU finished with an 11-12 record and Brown continued a top-30 presence when the team finished at No.28 in the final ITA polls.

Michael Venus
2008 D'Novo/All-American Champion
2008 All-American Singles

College Grand Slams

Michael Venus defeated the nation's No. 1 player Oleksandr Nedovyesov of Oklahoma State University to win the 2008 D'Novo All-American Championship, becoming the first in school history to win the title.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program.

For Michael to be the first to win speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's also validation of the program in all that we are doing in practice, weights and conditioning is getting results."

As Venus, No. 20 in preseason ITA rankings, and Nedovyesov squared off, the 6-3 LSU senior was battling severe knee pain. Venus was able to capture the first set by a 7-6 (5) mark, but faltered in the following set, allowing Nedovyesov to post a 6-2 mark. "Michael lost concentration in the second set and the match could have easily slid downhill," LSU assistant coach Danny Bryan said. "His knee was hurting him so badly, I thought he was going to have to stop the match, but he was able to fight through it and that's what made the third set so amazing."

After a close first set and falling in the second, Venus was able to overcome both the physical and mental hurdle his knee caused and capture the match in a stellar third set performance. Venus posted a 6-4 mark to win the set and the championship match. "Winning felt good. I was hurting and as I got into the third set, Danny motivated me and reminded me of how hard I had worked. It gave me the motivation I needed to push through when things got tough," Venus said.

Venus' run at the 2008 ITA All-American advanced him over six ranked opponents in the ITA's preseason rankings. Venus began his campaign on a solid note as he knocked off No. 98 Roy Kalmanovich of Illinois, 6-2, 6-2, before moving into the second round to defeat No. 23 Jaime Hunt of Georgia, 6-4, 7-6(8). The highlight of Venus' performance prior to the finals would be his victory over No. 4 Alex Clayton of Stanford. He advanced in straight sets over Clayton, 6-4, 6-1, moving into the tournament quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, Venus defeated Arkansas' Blake Strode, No. 41, in a heated match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, to catapult him into the semis where the senior would overcome No. 31 Enrique Olivares of East Tennessee State, 7-6 (3), 6-1, creating history by becoming the first Tiger to ever advance into the finals at the ITA All-American.

Venus' road to the 2008 All-American singles title:

First Round: def. Roy Kalmanovich (Illinois), 6-2, 6-2

Second Round: def. Jamie Hunt (Georgia), 6-4, 7-6 (10-8)

Third Round: def. Alex Clayton (Stanford), 6-4, 6-1

Quarterfinal: def. Blake Strode (Arkansas), 1-6, 6-3, 6-4

Semifinal: def. Enrique Olivares (ETSU), 7-6 (7-3), 6-1

Final: def. Oleksandr Nedovyesov (Oklahoma State), 7-6 (7-5), 2-6, 6-4

Donni Leaycraft

1989 NCAA Singles Champion

Donni Leaycraft capped off his record-setting junior season by becoming the first LSU player to win the NCAA singles title. Leaycraft entered the NCAA singles tournament as the 13th seed and proceeded to breeze through the first four rounds, winning all four matches in straight sets. The 2010 LSU Men's Tennis Media Guide was written to provide members of the media with statistics and information needed to adequately cover the LSU men's tennis team. If you need further information on the team, pictures, or wish to set up an interview with head coach Jeff Brown, assistant coach Danny Bryan or any of the student-athletes, please contact Elizabeth Stuart at the LSU Sports Information Office at (225) 578-1867.

GAME NOTES

The most recent media game notes, updated statistics and releases are posted on LSU's Web site (www.LSUsports.net) upon completion. To view the information through Adobe Acrobat, download the free software by following the instructions also listed on the Web site.

MATCH CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for all men's tennis matches should be requested two days before the match by contacting Elizabeth Stuart at (225) 578-1867. Once credentials have been requested, all passes will be left at the double-door main entrance to the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium.

During matches, media members will be provided with a media guide as well as a match program that includes notes and updated statistics. Final match results can be obtained immediately following the match.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must check in with an LSU Sports Information staff member on site for designated photo locations prior to every match. Photographers are welcome to photograph from the stands, but must receive permission to photograph on the courts. Only accredited photographers or those persons on special assignment will be allowed access to the court.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews with players and coaches must be coordinated through the SID office and requested 24 hours in advance to ensure availability - excluding post-match interviews.

Media can now access images for all LSU athletic teams, including action shots, heads shots, logos, etc. To gain access to the high-resolution pictures, e-mail Elizabeth Stuart (estuar2@tigers.lsu.edu). You will be assigned a login and password that will enable you to retrieve pictures. This service is for the media use only. Resale of these pictures is strictly prohibited.

LSU ATHLETICS Championship TRADITION

The Nation's Elite Teams 2008-2009 IN REVIEW

BASEBALL

The Team of the 90s returned to the top of 21st-century college baseball as LSU brought home a sixth national championship in its first season at New Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers knocked off top-seeded Texas in the best-of-three College World Series championship series and were sparked by a 14-game postseason winning streak. Third-year head coach Paul Mainieri was the unanimous choice for National Coach of the Year as LSU finished the season with a 56-17 record, a Southeastern Conference regular season title and an SEC Tournament title.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The LSU men's basketball team captured its fourth SEC Western Division title this decade and won the Southeastern Conference regular season championship with a 13-3 record, winning the title by three games under first-year head coach Trent Johnson. LSU was 27-8 on the year and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Johnson was the consensus choice as SEC Coach of the Year and a finalist for three national coach of the year honors.

GYMNASTICS

The gymnastics team continued to show it is one of the nation's elite programs in 2009 by advancing to the Super Six after capturing the NCAA Central Regional for the second year in a row. The regional championship marked the Tigers' sixth overall, and the Super Six berth was the team's second straight. LSU has now made 25-consecutive postseason appearances.

TRACK & FIELD

The Tigers earned a pair of top-five finishes in NCAA competition with a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships followed by a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Lady Tigers finished sixth nationally during both the indoor and outdoor seasons while earning a pair of runner-up team finishes at the SEC Championships.

SOCCER

The LSU soccer team continued its rise to national prominence with an outstanding 2008 season in which it captured its second-straight SEC Western Division championship and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row. The Tigers recorded program bests with a 14-4-2 overall record and a 7-3-1 mark in SEC play, while they also finished second in the final SEC standings.

Ashleigh Clare-Kearney GYMNASTICS

LSU's all-time leader in career individual titles with 114, Ashleigh Clare-Kearney became the fifth national champion in school history and the first LSU gymnast to capture two individual national titles. She became the Vault National Champion with a 9.9000 average and the Floor National Champion with a 9.9500 score. In addition, Clare-Kearney earned First-Team All-America honors on vault, bars and floor.

Trindon Holliday MEN'S TRACK & FIELD/FOOTBALL

Trindon Holliday wrapped up the 2009 season as the NCAA's fastest man as he was crowned NCAA champion in the 100-meter dash while setting a new personal best with the top time in the country at 10.00 seconds in the national final. Holliday also earned a pair of runner-up finishes in NCAA competition during the 2009 season in the 60 meters indoors and 4x100-meter relay outdoors to finish with eight All-America honors for his career.

Tyson Jackson FOOTBALL

Tyson Jackson became the highest LSU defender to ever be picked in the NFL Draft when he was selected as the No. 3 overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2009 draft. A second-team All-SEC selection, he finished his career with 122 tackles and 18.5 sacks while leading the Tigers to a fourth-straight bowl victory in the 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Jared Mitchell BASEBALL

Jared Mitchell became LSU's first Major League Baseball first-round draft selection since 2003 when he was taken No. 23 overall by the Chicago White Sox. The junior outfielder was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2009 College World Series following the Tigers' run to a sixth national title. Mitchell, also a wide receiver on the gridiron, became just the second athlete in school history to win national titles in multiple sports.

Marcus Thornton MEN'S BASKETBALL

The consensus Player of the Year for the Southeastern Conference as he led the Tigers to the regular season SEC championship with a 13-3 record. Thornton averaged more than 21 points a game and would be among the quickest Tigers to 1,000 points, reaching it in less than two years. Thornton was drafted in the second round by the Miami Heat and traded to the New Orleans Hornets.

From the football team's 2007 Bowl Championship Series national title to the baseball team's 2009 national championship, LSU is the home of the nation's elite teams. The 2008-09 year was no exception.

TWO STRAIGHT TOP 10 DIRECTOR'S CUP FINISHES ►►

Another record-setting and historical season in LSU athletics was capped when the school recorded its second straight top-10 finish in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup with a No. 9 showing among all Division I institutions. The ninth-place finish comes on the heels of last year's No. 8 national finish, which marks only the second time in school history that LSU has posted back-to-back top-10 finishes in the Director's Cup.

Samantha Henry WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

Allison Hightower WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Allison Hightower became the first player in school history to lead LSU in points, assists, steals and blocks in a single season. A State Farm All-America Honorable Mention and unanimous first-team All-SEC selection, the junior guard guided the Lady Tigers to an 11th-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Megan McChrystal WOMEN'S GOLF

McChrystal became the first LSU women's golfer in the 30-year history of the program to average less than 73 strokes per round for a full season as she earned first-team All-SEC honors and second-team All-America honors. She finished 12th nationally in the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championships.

John Peterson MEN'S GOLF

The LSU men's golf team enjoyed its most successful season in a decade by winning three team titles in 2008-09, and John Peterson led the way with six top-10 finishes. Peterson earned his first career first-team All-SEC honor and became the first Tiger to earn All-America honors since 2003 as he was named a Second-Team All-American by PING and Golfweek.

Malorie Rutledge SOCCER

Malorie Rutledge was named the program's first SEC Offensive Player of the Year and consensus All-American in team history. Rutledge helped the Tigers to a 14-4-2 overall record and school record 7-3-1 mark in SEC play while scoring nine goals and 18 assists for 36 points on the year.

Kirsten Shortridge SOFTBALL

A NFCA All-America Third-Team selection, Kirsten Shortridge ranked inside the SEC's top seven in hits (80), batting average (.426), multi-hit games (26) and stolen bases (26). She also garnered All-SEC, All-Louisiana and NFCA All-South First-Team picks after her .426 average was second-highest in program history.

Jane Trepp WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

Jane Trepp enjoyed one of the finest seasons in recent program history, shattering three individual school records in three different stroke disciplines and playing a role on four record-breaking relay squads. The sophomore also earned three NCAA All-America honors, including first-team recognition in the 200-yard medley relay.

Michael Venus MEN'S TENNIS

Michael Venus imprinted his name among the LSU greats in the history books and wrote a new line of his own as he became the first Tiger to capture the ITA All-American Championship in the fall of 2008. The SEC Player of the Year earned both singles and doubles All-America status en route to compiling a team-best 26 victories during the season.
