W.T. “Dub” Robinson TENNIS STADIUM

The LSU men's tennis team has called W.T. Robinson Tennis Stadium home for nearly four decades. During its history, the “Dub,” as it is affectionately called, has seen a wealth of talented and successful players on its courts and has kept up with newer college facilities through a series of renovations and improvements over the years.

The Tigers' home facility is named in honor of former standout head coach W.T. Robinson, a coach that elevated the LSU tennis program to national prominence. The facility provides six varsity courts with an additional six practice courts. The newly resurfaced varsity courts received new tower lights prior to 2007 and also feature an electronic scoreboard, while the practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001. Robinson stadium accommodates up to 550 fans including a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

Both the nationally-ranked Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room and brand-new showers and bathrooms. The facility was completely refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room as well as an equipment room. Prior to the 2007 season, the media room was updated to include both leather couches as well as a 42-inch flat screen television. In January 2009, LSU installed an individual scoreboard on each court, allowing for a more up-to-date scoring experience for fans.

Former men's coach Jerry Simmons surpassed Robinson in 1992 to become the Tigers' all-time winningest coach. As the Simmons era came to a close in 1997, the Tigers posted an 11-1 home mark en-route to an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships.

With Simmons at the reigns, Robinson Stadium became one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents to play, with the Tigers compiling a 162-25 (.866) home record during Simmons' last 15 seasons. Since head coach Jeff Brown took over in the 1998 season, the Tigers have accumulated a 135-32 overall record at home. His opening season as head coach, Brown notched a perfect 12-0 record on the Tigers home court.

W.T. “Dub” Robinson was also the site for the 2007 SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals. The Tigers advanced through the first round of the SEC Tournament before being ousted by Georgia, the eventual 2007 national champion.

During the 2007 NCAA Regionals, LSU defeated Alcorn State and Vanderbilt on their home courts before advancing to the round of 16 to face Ohio State in the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home.

The “Dub” was also home to the 2009 NCAA Regionals as Alcorn State, Rice and Ole Miss traveled to Baton Rouge for the competition. The Tigers didn't push through to the round of 16 as they did in 2007; however, LSU blanked 34th-ranked Rice in front of an enthusiastic Tiger fan base that packed Robinson Stadium for the event. LSU fell to second-ranked Ole Miss in the second round of competition, the only team to beat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season.

W.T. "DUB" ROBINSON FACTS

Legendary LSU men's tennis coach W.T. Robinson, or "Dub" as he was lovingly known, single-handedly orchestrated the LSU tennis program's rise to prominence. During his nearly three decade tenure as head coach, Robinson accumulated a 189-180-9 overall record, catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene and guided them to a status among the nation's elite. When the LSU tennis complex was completed in the fall of 1976, it was only natural that it was named after the person that built the program.

“LSU laid the groundwork for me being a professional in the way the school is run and the professors. Off the field, I learned to be a good person. On the football field, it is the training, the hard work and the dedication. LSU teaches you everything you need to be successful.” Andrew Whitworth, Cincinnati Bengals

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 146-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past six years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

Danny Bryan

ITA Doubles All-American
SEC First-Team Selection
ITA National Leadership & Sportsmanship Award winner

"The first thing I realized when I got to LSU was how important academics is to (LSU coach) Jeff (Brown) and how that focus carries on to the court by showing discipline and time management. They have an incredible support staff at the Cox Communications Academic Center and it gives you every opportunity to succeed. LSU being in the SEC, gives you great competition on a weekly basis. I played a guy last season that ended up getting to the third round of the U.S. Open. You are facing some of the top athletes in the country."

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Tommy Hodson
Quarterback (1986-89)
All-SEC

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

Tyson Jackson
Defensive End (2005-08)
2009 NFL Draft No. 3 Pick

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms
2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

Year of LSU football in Tiger Stadium dating back to 1924

Tiger fans line North Stadium Drive in preparation to see the LSU football team walk down Victory Hill. A little over an hour before kickoff, the Golden Band From Tigerland's march follows and sets the scene for one of college football's greatest traditions.

— Gameday IN TIGERTOWN —

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and – if you're lucky – a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

– Matt Hayes, Sporting News; May 25, 2010

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus.

And that was just Friday night."

– Stewart Mandel, SI.com; Sept. 21, 2003

TAILGATING AT LSU

A COLLEGE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

The LSU tailgating experience is second to none. The campus becomes one of the biggest and best parties in the nation on Saturday's in the fall. Each weekend, an estimated 120,000 fans gather to tailgate around campus in recreation vehicles, sport utility vehicles, pick-up trucks, cars and buses. The anticipation begins as they roll into town on Thursday night and fire up their grills on Friday afternoon.

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late."

- Chris Lowe, ESPN.com; Sept. 26, 2008

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game."

- Jim Caple, ESPN.com; August 19, 2008

"The scene is college football's Mardi Gras - beads, music and more tasty creations than the best culinary school. Some evenings, tens of thousands of fans show up to party and stay in the parking lot during games. That's pretty cool."

- Dave Curtis, Sporting News; May 25, 2010

WTT Smash Hits Charity Event

On Dec. 8, 2009, the Baton Rouge Area Foundation and Pennington Foundation presented the 17th annual WTT Smash Hits, a charity tennis event to raise funds for AIDS organizations, at LSU's Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Music icon Elton John and tennis legend Billie Jean King squared off as each headed a pair of teams with professional stars such as Andy Roddick, Serena Williams and Anna Kournikova. Team Elton John prevailed, 16-13, for his ninth event victory, and the endeavor raised more than $640,000 to benefit the Elton John AIDS Foundation and local AIDS charities.

DUEL UNDER THE OAKS I

Oct. 29, 2006

Both of the LSU tennis teams took part in the first “Duel Under the Oaks.” The event was sponsored by the Irene W. and C.B. Pennington Foundation and helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita that ripped through Louisiana in late 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities which led to the main event—Pete Sampras and Todd Martin squaring off against one another in the Maravich Center.

DUEL UNDER THE OAKS II

Dec. 14, 2008

“Duel Under the Oaks II” marked the second time tennis pros teamed up on the LSU campus to raise money for hurricane relief. Pete Sampras and James Blake faced off in an exhibition match spearheaded by the Irene W. and C.B. Pennington Foundation to raise money for relief efforts in the wake of Hurricanes Gustav and Ike. In conjunction with the exhibition match, both the LSU men’s and women’s tennis teams held a children’s clinic along with Sampras and Blake for the children in the community.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

Rudy Macklin 40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova 37

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

Ben McDonald 19

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Seimone Augustus 33

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick in 2006. She went on to lead the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

O'Neal was traded to the Cleveland Cavs in June 2009.

Seimone Augustus

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The five-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a cage topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his cage on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's cage to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular new habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Championship Cat
During his tenure, Mike V reigned over a football national championship, five baseball national championships and a remarkable 23 track and field championships.

1956-1958

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1956-1976

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla. on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-present

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Idaville, Ind. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The five-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice-Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva enters his third year as LSU's Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics after being hired to lead one of the nation's most powerful athletic programs on April 4, 2008. Alleva joined LSU after 10 years of outstanding leadership as the director of athletics at Duke University. He officially took over at LSU on July 1, 2008.

The LSU Board of Supervisors approved a promotion in August 2009 for Alleva, adding vice chancellor to his title and expanding his role to the academic side of the university. It's the first time at LSU that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

"I am honored to be named vice chancellor at this outstanding institution and thank Chancellor (Michael) Martin, President (John) Lombardi and the Board of Supervisors for the confidence they have shown in me," Alleva said. "Athletics is the window through which many people view LSU and it is important that we excel in competition and in the classroom while demonstrating the utmost of integrity. I believe my promotion ties athletics closer to the university and that is a good thing for everyone; we are all on the same team."

Under Alleva's guidance, LSU has reached new heights in terms of athletic success while continuing to be recognized as one of the top enterprises in college athletics.

A veteran leader in college athletics, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence. He is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva, 57, is well-respected for sustaining high standards of excellence and integrity in athletic programs, hiring the finest coaches in the country and the high level of success achieved by student-athletes.

One of Alleva's big initiatives on the LSU campus is the launching of a strategic plan for the continued success and future improvement of LSU Athletics.

LSU Athletics has produced a new booklet called "LSU: Thru and True" designed to introduce a strategic plan for operating a top tier athletics program. The strategic plan booklet is titled "LSU: Thru and True" because, in the words of Alleva, "Our core values run deep and our commitment to excellence is relentless. At LSU, college athletics is an avenue for providing opportunities, for achieving goals, for generating enthusiasm and for nurturing passion."

The subtitle of the booklet is "Excellence in Competition, Distinction in the Classroom, and Contribution to the Community." The strategic plan addresses various topics including quality of life for student-athletes; academic and athletic excellence; compliance and ethics; financial responsibility; diversity, inclusion and equity; tradition and history, and service and communication.

The plan also includes a vision for the future of LSU athletics facilities, highlighted by plans to improve North Stadium Drive between Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. Alleva was heavily involved in the planning of the inaugural Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium last spring. The event attracted nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and made a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Seventeen of LSU's 20 sports programs participated in post-season competition in 2009-10, including the Tiger football squad that played in a bowl game for the 10th-straight season. Six LSU teams posted Top 10 national finishes last season, and 12 were ranked among the Top

25. LSU finished in the Top 20 of the Learfield Director's Cup rankings, which measure overall athletic success for institutions across the country.

Under Alleva's direction in 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA post-season play for the first time in school history, and it culminated with the baseball team winning the national championship. In addition, six teams finished in the top 10 nationally. LSU was the only school in the Southeastern Conference to participate in a bowl game and the men's and women's NCAA basketball tournaments during 2008-09. Furthermore, LSU student-athletes volunteered a total of 2,360 hours for community service projects.

LSU earned a ninth-place ranking in the 2008-09 Learfield Director's Cup, as the Tigers were second only to Florida among SEC institutions. LSU accumulated points in 18 of a possible 20 categories in the standings, also a first for the school.

Upon being hired at LSU, Alleva immediately made an impact by hiring Trent Johnson to lead the men's basketball program. Johnson, the 2009 SEC Coach of the Year, wasted little time in turning the Tigers into a winner as LSU claimed the 2009 SEC regular season title and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

LSU also had top 10 national finishes in 2008-09 in gymnastics, men's and women's indoor track and field and men's and women's outdoor track and field. Thirteen of LSU's 20 sports finished the year ranked among the top 25 in the nation.

The Tiger football team capped their 2008 season with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. During the offseason, Alleva helped secure the funding necessary for the addition of a state-of-the-art artificial turf practice field, which complements the surface the Tigers have in their indoor practice facility. The addition of the outdoor artificial turf field gives the LSU football program one of the nation's finest all-around facilities.

Not only did LSU teams set records but so did the fans, as over 1.5 million fans filled venues on the LSU campus in 2008-09. LSU set the school record for overall attendance in the sports of football, baseball and softball.

Alleva oversaw in the spring of 2009 the grand opening of two of the premier baseball and softball facilities in college athletics, Alex Box Stadium and Tiger Park.

In addition, LSU opened a new gift center for its fans – the LSU SportShop. The LSU SportShop, a spectacular, free-standing facility that features the latest in LSU apparel and merchandise, is located adjacent to Mike's Habitat.

Under Alleva's guidance, LSU has one of the most lucrative apparel and shoe contracts with Nike while also having one of the nation's most attractive multi-media rights contracts with CBS Collegiate Sports Properties. LSU athletic budget is now approaching $85 million, which allows the university to compete at the highest level in the nation.

Alleva has a long-term vision for continued improvements to LSU's athletic facilities in order to insure that the Tigers are among the best in the country well into the 21st Century. One of his top priorities is the enhancement of Tiger Stadium and making Tiger Stadium and the North Stadium Drive corridor a showplace for the university. Alleva's innovative plan is to make a plaza area between the Maravich Assembly Center and Tiger Stadium that would recognize LSU's national championship teams and distinguished alumni. This special area, along with Mike's Habitat, and the LSU SportShop, would become the focal point for visitors to campus.

LSU opened in the spring of 2010 a basketball practice facility that houses both the men's and women's basketball teams. The new basketball practice facility features two full length courts as well as locker rooms and other amenities for both squads.

Alleva is also overseeing a major renovation to the golf course at the University Club that will be completed in September 2010, and he is developing plans for a new gymnastics practice facility, indoor tennis center and improved soccer facility. LSU's world-renowned track and field program will receive a state-of-the-art running surface this year when a new track is installed in Bernie Moore Stadium.

"Joe Alleva brings a wealth of experience and accomplishment to LSU," LSU President John Lombardi said of hiring Alleva. "I'm confident we've found a new leader for LSU athletics who exemplifies the vision and integrity needed to lead our sports programs to new heights, a champion of student athletes who believes in the highest standards of competition both on the field and in the classroom."

Alleva's impressive tenure as director of athletics at Duke propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Also, his fundraising reached extensive heights providing new facilities or renovations for all 26 sports at Duke, which enhanced the experience for every student-athlete.

Alleva is active on the national collegiate athletics scene, having served on the Football Bowl Certification Committee. He sat on several Atlantic Coast Conference committees and served on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.

Alleva majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

Alleva began his 32-year career at Duke University in 1976. He spent 28 years in the athletic administration prior to becoming director of athletics in 1998.

Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

Alleva is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

He currently serves on the Louisiana State Board of the Special Olympics.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff and Jenny.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin assumed the chancellorship of Louisiana State University and A&M College on August 1, 2008. Prior to his appointment as LSU's eighth chancellor, Dr. Martin established a distinguished career in higher education, serving most recently as president of New Mexico State University.

Before arriving at NMSU in 2004, Dr. Martin served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president. Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission, Dr. Martin is recognized as a strong voice for higher education. In 2007, he received the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, which honors outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980. For his leadership in improving the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico.

Other recent awards include his recognition as a powerbroker by The New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006, being named Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, and receiving the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Dr. Martin is involved in a wide array of professional and community organizations and activities.

An active scholar, Dr. Martin has authored numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications, and the popular press and recently published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin earned a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977.

Dr. Martin and his wife, Jan, have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, who holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dr. Michael V. Martin speaks at the opening of the New Alex Box Stadium on February 20, 2009.

JEFF BROWN

HEAD COACH

YEAR AT LSU: 14TH

BIRTHDATE: NOV. 15, 1966

BIRTHPLACE: DUBUQUE, IOWA

Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now in his 14th season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here. He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit.

Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so in his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

He has since proven those feats were more than just beginner's luck. Brown quickly earned respect among his peers due to his lengthy list of achievements. Brown has taken his teams to the NCAA Tournament in 12 out of 13 years, and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005 and 2007. He has coached 13 All-Americans in his tenure, and after young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004. In 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998.

With Brown at the helm the Tigers have finished in the top 10 three times during his tenure. But he's not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it you really appreciate it and you're hungry for more."

Brown has put his Tigers in position to succeed on and off the court. Brown helped setup "Duel Under the Oaks" on October 29, 2006, a charity event held on LSU's campus that helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes that ripped through Louisiana in 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities and the main event of an exhibition match with former tennis pros Pete Sampras against Todd Martin at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. The event was such a success that LSU hosted "Dual Under the Oaks II" in December 2008.

During Brown's LSU tenure, the Tigers have had 3 SEC Scholar Athlete's of the Year, 13 Academic All-Americans and 63 SEC Honor Roll members.

The Tigers were honored by the NCAA in 2008 for their Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the report by the NCAA. The LSU men's tennis team scored the highest among LSU sports for the third year in a row. The NCAA recognized college sports teams from around the country that achieved an APR score in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The LSU men's tennis team was one of only 10 sports teams out of 236 squads in the entire Southeastern Conference that were recognized for academic achievement by the NCAA, and it was the only men's tennis team in the SEC to achieve the honor.

When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fourth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis."

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition amongst the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 47 international ranking in doubles is the second highest ranking ever for a former LSU player, behind only former Tiger Ken Skupski who was ranked No. 45 in doubles.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. They have two young boys, Connor (6) and Cameron (4).

Danny Bryan stepped onto the court as an assistant coach for LSU in 2009, but it was not the first time Bryan stepped onto the court for the Tigers. Bryan served as a volunteer coach in fall 2008 and was a four-year letterman for the Tigers from 2003-07.

As an assistant coach, Bryan is instrumental in on-one-one instruction, and at one of his first tournaments in his new position, Bryan coached former LSU standout Michael Venus in the final match at the D'Novo All-American Championships where Venus became the first Tiger to win the title in the history of the program.

With experience in three different facets of LSU tennis and almost a lifetime geared toward the game, Bryan helped guide the Tigers along with head coach Jeff Brown to another season in the national spotlight during his inaugural year. The team earned a No. 28 billing at the close of 2009 season as well as an NCAA Tournament berth.

Bryan has been a mainstay on the courts of the "Dub" for more than seven years now, but his journey toward LSU began long ago. Tennis runs through his veins, passed down through his father and three uncles that played collegiate tennis, as well as a grandfather that played on the pro circuit.

After cracking the starting lineup his freshman year, he served as a leader both on and off the court. Bryan served as a co-captain for the Tigers his junior and senior seasons, and the New Orleans native made an impact in Louisiana, the Southeastern Conference and the national rankings. Bryan earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors for three consecutive years. In 2007, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors and finished his senior season at No. 40 in the ITA singles rankings and No. 6 in doubles with partner Colt Gaston.

Bryan made an impact on the LSU record books as well. He sits tied at 14th in career singles wins at 84 with LSU greats Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely. His doubles campaign was no less impressive as he capped his senior season by winning the 2007 SEC Indoor Championships with partner Gaston and captured 110 career doubles win to earn Doubles All-America status.

The culmination of an impressive career on the courts as well as outstanding leadership ability earned Bryan the 2007 ITA National Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Not only did he shine on the courts, his service work allowed him to shine in the community as well. From 2005-07 Bryan was named to the Southeastern Conference Community service team, and in 2007, his efforts earned him 2007 LSU Male Volunteer of the Year.

Bryan married former LSU gymnast Jade Jenkins on Jan. 2, 2010, and they are expecting their first child.

CODY LOUP

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST SEASON

BIRTHDATE: NOVEMBER 2, 1987

BIRTHPLACE: BATON ROUGE, LA.

Loup joined the LSU coaching in the spring of 2011 as a volunteer assistant after earning his degree in December. The Baton Rouge native was a two-time letter winner for LSU as he competed for the Tigers from 2008-2010 after transferring from Memphis in 2007. A hard worker on and off the court, Loup was named an ITA Scholar-Athlete in 2009 and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2009 and 2010. He was named a team captain by his teammates in 2010.

Prior to LSU, Loup played his freshman season at Memphis in 2007. He was a four-star recruit out of high school according to TennisRecruiting.net, and was listed as the No. 2 senior in Louisiana. He attended Catholic High School in Baton Rouge, where he was a three-year captain and was named MVP of his team as a sophomore, junior and senior. He won the 2006 LHSAA singles title as a senior and helped the team to a Division I-Class 5A Runner-Up finish. He is the son of Darrell and Beth Loup, and has two sisters, Kristin and Courtney.

BROWN ON LOUP:

"Cody felt he could make the biggest contribution this season as a coach, and he has taken on that job fully and has done a great job for us. He uses his experience to benefit the team, and he is giving his best like he always has."

2011 SEASON PREVIEW

SENIOR LEADERS

LSU enters the 2011 season with a key ingredient that was missing last season; experience. The Tiger return nine letter winners and are ready to battle their way back into the NCAA tournament, something they narrowly missed out on last season. They open the season with a No. 45 mark in the ITA preseason rankings, have two players ranked in the national poll (Singles No. 31 Neal Skupski and No. 78 Sebastian Carlsson/Doubles No. 16 Carlsson and Skupski), and are tabbed fourth in the SEC West by the coaches. An extremely tough dual season will test the team match-after-match as they work their way back to the top of the college tennis landscape.

"We as coaches and the team are very hungry to get back out there," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "Our schedule is as tough as last year, but we feel we are more prepared from top to bottom in the singles and doubles lineup to get wins over some top teams."

The Tigers are led by a pair of seniors, Carlsson and Julien Gauthier. Prior to the season, Carlsson and Gauthier were named co-captains of the 2011 squad, and their experience and leadership was something missing last year. Carlsson is a three-year letter winner, and his 72 singles victories are by far the most on the team. The Uppsala, Sweden, native is only eight wins away from breaking into the Top 20 of LSU's all-time wins list heading into the 2011 season.

Gauthier, also a three-year letter winner, has been a solid contributor for the Tigers since his freshman season in 2008. He has 49 career singles wins for LSU and has been a mainstay in the singles lineup. The Repentigny, Canada, product is a hard worker on the court and in the classroom as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2009 and 2010.

"It was a unique season last year without any seniors," Brown said. "We did have some leadership, but certainly having Sebastian and Julien will be a good thing to draw from."

BREAKOUT FALL

The 2011 fall season was a chance for LSU's sophomores to battle for a few singles spots as well as a doubles team, and for the upperclassmen to cement their place in the starting lineup. Sophomore Olivier Borsos embraced the challenge as he won a team-best 17 overall matches in the fall season. The Budapest, Hungary, native only won one dual match for the Tigers in 2010 but kicked-off the fall season by advancing to the finals at the ULL Invitational. He didn't slow down as later in the fall he picked up a ranked win over 32nd-ranked Louis Cant of Mississippi State to advance to the Round of 16 at USTA/ITA Southern Regional Championships. By the end of the fall, Borsos had picked up 10 singles wins and seven doubles victories, both team-highs.

"Borsos really had a huge fall for himself with several matches," Brown said. "He played at a very high level and had some high level wins, and he put himself in a really good position heading into the spring."

Junior Mark Bowtell also picked up his play in the fall, posting a 6-2 singles mark. The County Wicklow, Ireland, native earned a spot in the USTA/ITA South Regional Championships semifinals by defeating 79th-ranked Artem Illyushin of Mississippi State.

"(Bowtell) had a couple of really strong wins and higher-ranked wins than he's had in the past," Brown said. "That will set him up for having a ranking going into the spring, which he certainly deserves."

TWO YEAR MISSION: PART II

The 2011 team is primed to hit the courts to avenge last season's tough losses. Although the team is still relatively young, the lineup will be stacked with experienced players throughout. Last season LSU had four freshmen contribute throughout the lineup, but this season there will be zero as Borsos, Stefan Szacinski and Roger Anderson are now seasoned sophomores.

"We are a junior and sophomore heavy team this year, and that should be good for us against teams that are similar to what we were last year with youth and inexperience," Brown said.

Juniors Bowtell, Skupski and David Roberts are joined by the only new addition to the team, transfer Tom Knights. Knights arrived on campus last season, but served a year in residence due to NCAA regulations.

The London native is expected to make a big impact for the Tiger in both singles and doubles.

"Tom was on campus last year and we are looking for him to play a big role for us in singles and doubles," Brown said. "He works extremely hard and plays with great energy, he is extremely exciting to watch."

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

To be your best you have to test yourself against the best, and the 2011 squad will have plenty of chances this season. The Tigers will host 12 home matches at W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Stadium against some of the top college tennis teams in the nation, as eight of the teams finished last season in the top 50 of the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings, including 2010 NCAA semi-finalist Virginia, who finished the season ranked 3rd, and runner-up Tennessee, who finished at No. 2. The road schedule isn't any easier as the Tigers will hit the road to take on six teams who finished the season ranked in the top-25 by the ITA.

"The SEC is the strongest conference for our sport," said Brown. "We play every team in the conference every year, and we have one of the toughest out-of-conference schedules in the nation. Our schedule is easily one of the top five toughest schedules in the nation. Our players come here to maximize their skills and this schedule is part of that process."

The Tigers will begin the season on Jan. 29 at the ITA Kickoff Weekend in Lubbock, Texas, against Texas Tech, who finished last season ranked 15th, and then either Cal or Auburn on Jan. 30.

The Tigers will open the home schedule on Feb. 3 with a double-header against in state opponents UL-Lafayette and UNO before hosting Rice on Feb. 6.

LSU will then face a tough six match road trip, which includes stops at No. 5 Ohio State, No. 10 Texas A&M and 22nd-ranked Wake Forest. SEC play begins March 4 when the Tigers will take on the Florida Gators in Gainesville, and the first home SEC match will be March 11 against the Ole Miss Rebels. SEC foes Mississippi State, Tennessee, Auburn, Alabama and Arkansas will also visit the 'Dub' this season, and the Tigers will travel to South Carolina, Georgia, Vanderbilt and Kentucky.

"Every match is so challenging," Brown said. "Probably 14 of our 17 matches are going to be against Top 30 opponents, and several are Top 10. There is never going to be a question of whether we are 'up' for a match, because every match is going to be such a challenge. I am just excited to see how the guys react to the challenges and if they're going to man up and face it and be as excited about it as we are."

2010 REVIEW

TWO YEAR MISSION: PART I

The 2010 LSU men's tennis team faced a challenging schedule, and the departure of senior leaders Michael Venus and James Cluskey made it even more difficult. Without a senior on the roster and four freshmen seeing significant playing time, LSU head coach Jeff Brown knew last season would be the first step of a two year process.

"We knew that whatever we got out of last year was going to be a bonus compared to how good we were going to be the following year," Brown said.

The daunting schedule lived up to the challenge as the Tigers faced eleven teams in the Top 20 in the ITA rankings. Even though the schedule was challenging, according to Brown you have to compete against the best to be the best.

"Our goal hasn't ever been just to make the tournament. If we are barely just good enough what's the point?" he said. "We are here to win it all or to be in the final four, that's our ultimate goal. We will continue making our schedule tough to improve and make that happen."

The Tigers finished with an 8-15 overall record with a final ITA ranking of 46th, just a couple spots short of a 16th-straight NCAA berth.

"In the sense of not making the tournament, I knew it was a possibility," Brown said. "At the beginning of every year there is that fear, but that is what drives you to be as good as you can be."

Every match was a learning process for the young LSU team, with plenty of close losses and hard-earned wins. The biggest win of the season came at home on March 19 against 31st-ranked Wake Forest. LSU used a complete team effort to come away with a 4-2 win to upset the Demon Deacons. The Tigers hosted No. 3 Ohio State on March 23, and even though they fell to the Buckeyes 4-2 the team took a big step forward.

"We were just a couple games from winning that match and it was certainly winnable," Brown said.

FINISHING STRONG

After dropping matches to highly-ranked opponents, the team began to gel at the end of the season. The Tigers won three out of their final four matches to conclude the season, including a 4-2 victory over 31st-ranked Alabama in the first round of the SEC Tournament. The Crimson Tide defeated LSU 4-3 in Tuscaloosa, Ala., earlier in the season, but LSU avenged the loss when it mattered most.

"It's always good to see how your team reacts in a must-win match, and they did well there," Brown said about the Alabama match.

Although the win didn't give the Tigers the final push to earn a place in the NCAA tournament, it proved the team was capable of competing at a high level and gave the team some much needed momentum heading into the 2010-11 season.

"It kept our hope alive. Even though we didn't make it, we thought that in two years when this is all said and done with this particular group, something significant will be accomplished," Brown said.

FRESH CONTRIBUTIONS

The young 2010 LSU squad had to rely on younger players to contribute throughout the lineup. Freshmen Roger Anderson, Olivier Borsos, Stefan Szacinski and James Turbervill all stepped up and competed in both singles and doubles throughout the dual season. Anderson, a native of Coppell, Texas, was used as a doubles weapon at all three courts, posting a 5-8 record on Court 1 and a 1-3 record at No. 2 doubles. Anderson and Szacinski were crucial in the Tigers win over No. 31 Alabama in the first round of the SEC Tournament as the duo earned an 8-5 win at No. 2 doubles to help clinch the doubles point for LSU. Szacinski, a product of Adelaide, Australia, stepped up and competed at No. 2, 3, 4, and 5 singles, and notched a 7-12 record. Turbervill was the only freshman to earn a winning record overall in singles play, as he posted a 13-11 overall and 6-6 dual record. The Bristol, U.K., product solidified the No. 6 spot for LSU in singles.

OVERALL RECORD: 20-3 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

The Tigers made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in the school's history when coach Steve Carter guided LSU to the NCAA's in 1978. The Tigers entered the NCAA's with a 20-2 record, while riding a nine-match winning streak. However, Pepperdine proved to be too strong for LSU as the Wave rolled to a 6-3 first round win. LSU finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 19-10 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After a five-year absence from the NCAA's, second-year head coach Jerry Simmons led the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for what would be the first of ten-straight appearances at the event. The Tigers were quickly eliminated from the NCAA's, as eventual champion UCLA ousted LSU by a 6-0 count.

1985

OVERALL RECORD: 19-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC CHAMPIONS

The Tigers entered the NCAA Tournament as the SEC Champions, but LSU was again eliminated in the first round by a very good Clemson team, 5-1. Clemson ended its season ranked No. 8 in the nation, while LSU netted its highest final national ranking ever at No. 9.

1986

OVERALL RECORD: 17-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

LSU would have to wait yet another year to get its first win at the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, who were in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight year, fell to SMU, 5-2, in the opening round. SMU went on to finish third in the nation, while the Tigers ended their season ranked No. 12.

OVERALL RECORD: 23-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

LSU won what was then a school-record 23 matches as the Tigers finally got their first win in NCAA Tournament action with a 5-2 second round victory over Texas. The Tigers, who received a first round bye, then fell to Southern Cal, 5-3, in the quarter-finals. LSU finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation, the highest ranking ever for an LSU team at the time.

1988

OVERALL RECORD: 27-2 • FINAL RANK: NO. 2

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR FINALISTS

LSU enjoyed what is still the best season in school history as the Tigers reached the finals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, which did not lose a match outdoors all season, lost to Stanford, 5-2, in the finals of the NCAA's in a match that was forced indoors due to rain. LSU reached the finals by recording wins over California in round two, Georgia in the quarterfinal and Michigan in the semifinal. LSU, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation for four weeks during the season, ended the year ranked second.

1989

OVERALL RECORD: 22-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

The Tigers reached the final eight at the NCAA's for the third-straight year, but that was as far as LSU would go as eventual champion Stanford beat the Tigers, 5-3, in the quarterfinal. The Tigers finished their season ranked No. 8 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 11

The Tigers had a down season as far as wins and losses are concerned but LSU still managed to make the 20-team NCAA tournament field. The Tigers weren't around for long as California beat LSU 5-3 in round one. LSU finished its season with a 13-9 record and ranked No. 11 in the nation.

1991

OVERALL RECORD: 19-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 6

SEC RUNNER-UP

Returning to the final eight at the NCAA's after a year's absence from the top 10, LSU beat TCU 5-3 round two. The Tigers then were eliminated by California for the second year in a row by a 5-2 count. LSU finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation.

1992

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU entered the NCAA Tournament fresh off an appearance in the SEC Tournament title match. After a first round bye, the Tigers defeated Pepperdine, 6-3, in the second round. LSU then ran into trouble as eventual-champion Stanford ousted the Tigers 5-2. The Tigers finished the year ranked No. 10 in the nation.

1993

OVERALL RECORD: 16-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU made the NCAA Tournament for the 10th consecutive year, but the Tigers weren't around for long as Duke posted a 5-2 upset win over LSU in the second round. LSU, which received a first round bye, was ranked No. 8 in the final national poll. The Duke match marked the final match for perhaps three of the best players in LSU history in Tamer El Sawy, Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola.

1995

OVERALL RECORD: 19-4 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1995. However, LSU's return was short-lived as TCU, ranked 10th, upset the sixth-ranked Tigers, 4-0, in round one. LSU lost to Georgia in the SEC Tournament final and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation.

1996

OVERALL RECORD: 21-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

NCAA REGION III CHAMPIONS

LSU enjoyed another stellar campaign en route to its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years under coach Jerry Simmons. LSU played host to the 1996 NCAA Region III Championships. The top-seeded Tigers overcame a 3-0 deficit to No. 23 Auburn in the title match for a thrilling 4-3 win to advance to the NCAA's. LSU beat Kentucky in the first round and A-Birmingham in the Regional semifinal. TCU, ranked 4th, bumped LSU from the NCAA Championships in the round of 16 for the second-straight year by a 4-3 count.

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

Jerry Simmons, LSU's all-time winningest coach, led the Tigers to the NCAA's for the 13th and final time during 1997 after announcing his retirement prior to the start of the spring season. Simmons capped off a much heralded 26-year coaching career, 15 coming at LSU, as his Tigers earned an automatic tourney bid. Unfortunately, Simmons' Tigers were upended in round one by No. 10 Duke 4-1, finishing the year at 17-7 overall No. 9 nationally.

1998

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

In his first year as LSU's head coach, Jeff Brown led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament semifinals and a No. 2 National Ranking. The Tigers swept the SEC with a perfect 14-0 record, capturing the SEC Tournament championship as well as the overall conference crown. In the NCAA tournament, LSU tore through SMU and SEC rival Ole Miss before falling in the semifinals to a Georgia team the Tigers had twice defeated earlier in the year.

1999

OVERALL RECORD: 20-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 4

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

LSU shocked the collegiate tennis world by returning to the Final Four for the second consecutive year in 1999. The Tigers, who had a No. 19 preseason ranking, hosted a regional and beat Alcorn State and Tulane to advance to the round of 16 at Athens, Ga. There, LSU beat a gutsy Fresno State team before upsetting second-ranked Duke in the quarterfinal. However, the magic ended in the Final Four as No. 1 UCLA managed to survive the Tiger attack. The Tigers defeated eventual national champion Georgia twice on the season.

2000

OVERALL RECORD: 20-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After entering the season as one of the favorites to win the national championship, the 2000 LSU squad earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers roared through the first two rounds in Baton Rouge with 4-0 victories over both Alcorn State and Clemson. Then it was on to Athens, Ga., and a tough round of 16 match with sixth-seeded Illinois. In a grueling match, the Illini proved to be a little too strong as they claimed a 4-3 victory and ousted LSU from the tournament.

OVERALL RECORD: 16-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

The LSU men's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Championships for the seventh-straight season in 2001 after accumulating a 14-7 overall record during the regular season. The Tigers rebounded from a 4-3 upset loss against Alabama in the Southeastern Conference Tournament to host an NCAA Regional for the third-consecutive season. In front of a raucous home crowd at the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium, LSU dropped Marist, 4-0, in first-round action before knocking off 19th-ranked Texas, 4-2, to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships in Athens, Ga. The Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third-straight year and faced No. 7 Texas A&M at the Dan Magill Tennis Center on the campus of the University of Georgia. In the third-round match, Texas A&M out-slugged the Tigers, 4-1.

OVERALL RECORD: 11-14 • FINAL RANK: NO. 29

Despite finishing the regular season with a losing record for the first time in seven years, LSU proved its worthiness of an NCAA Tournament bid by advancing to the round of 32 with a convincing 4-0 victory over the higher-ranked Texas Christian Horned Frogs. The win was a triumphant contrast for the Tigers after the team had traversed a season full of 4-3 losses and had faced 16 top-25 teams in 25 dual-match contests. In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, LSU fell prey to 16th-ranked Texas A&M for the second-consecutive season, 4-0, in College Station, Texas.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-11 • FINAL RANK: NO. 24

The Tigers kept their NCAA tournament streak alive, making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and finishing the season ranked in the top 25 for the 19th time in 20 years. The Tigers finished second in the SEC West with a 5-6 conference record and 13-11 overall record. They were upset in the first round by No. 56 South Alabama, 4-2, in New Orleans.

2004

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

LSU's three seniors, Cory Ross, Sebastian Rutka and Bryan Fisher, ended their time at LSU with their most successful years here. The Tigers finished in a tie for third in the SEC. They earned the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since. Despite losing in the second round to 14th-ranked Rice, they finished ranked 13th in the nation, the fifth top-15 finish in Jeff Brown's career. Ken Skupski entered the lineup at No. 1 singles and became one of two freshmen in the nation selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship. Fisher and Jason Hazley finished their highly successful career as a doubles team ranked No. 15 in the nation. The 2004 Tigers compiled a 3.5 GPA in the spring to lead all LSU varsity teams. They were selected an ITA All-Academic team and Fisher and Paul White were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

OVERALL RECORD: 21-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

After another successful season the Tigers finished with a 19-8 regular season record and were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. Georgia outplayed the Tigers to win the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999. All of LSU's nine losses this season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-10 • FINAL RANK NO. 25

For the eighth time in head coach Jeff Brown's nine years leading the way, the LSU Tigers finished the season in the top 25. The Tigers finished with a 15-10 record, but were ousted in the first round of the SEC and NCAA Tournament. LSU loss against Minnesota in the NCAA Tournament was the curtain call for acclaimed seniors Mark Growcott and Paul White. Growcott only spent two years as a Tiger but played a key role in the team's success. Growcott and doubles partner Ken Skupski were ranked No. 1 in the 2006 preseason poll. White, a four-year letterwinner, succeeded on and off the court. He was a two-time ITA Scholar-Athlete and was chosen as the 2005 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK NO. 15

The Tigers put together another successful campaign in 2007 by posting an 18-7 record, finishing the season ranked No. 15 and advancing the NCAA round of 16. It marked the sixth time in head coach Jeff Brown's ten years as coach that the Tigers reached the round of 16. No. 2 Ohio State, who had defeated LSU earlier in the regular season, ended the Tigers' season with a 4-0 victory in the round of 16. The round of the 16 match was the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home as they hosted the SEC Championships and the NCAA first and second round.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-9 • FINAL RANK NO. 18

LSU continued their solid presence in the NCAA tournament, marking the 14th straight tournament appearance for the Tigers. LSU handed undefeated Drake its first loss of the season with a 4-1 mark over the Bulldogs. The Tigers fell to No. 15 Illinois, 4-2, to cap LSU's season with a 15-9 record and final rank of No. 18, marking 24 out of 25 years that LSU finished in the top 25.

OVERALL RECORD: 11-12 • FINAL RANK: NO. 28

The Tigers garnered an NCAA berth for their 15th-straight year. Brown led the team into competition for the 12th time during his tenure and LSU hosted the NCAA first and second round with Auburn State, Ole Miss and Rice traveling to Baton Rouge for the tournament. LSU swept Rice, 4-0, as Ole Miss blanked Alcorn State by the same 4-0 mark to complete first-round competition. As LSU took the court against the Rebels for the second round, it marked the third time during the season the two teams squared off against one another. Second-ranked Ole Miss took the early lead after capturing the doubles point. LSU retaliated by taking the first two singles points; however, it was not enough to fend off the Rebels. LSU fell to Ole Miss, 4-2, as the Rebels were the only team to defeat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season. LSU finished with an 11-12 record and Brown continued a top-30 presence when the team finished at No. 28 in the final ITA polls.

Michael Venus
2008 D'Novo/All-American Champion
2008 All-American Singles

College Grand Slams

Michael Venus defeated the nation's No. 1 player Oleksandr Nedovyesov of Oklahoma State University to win the 2008 D'Novo All-American Championship, becoming the first in school history to win the title.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program. For Michael to be the first to win speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's also validation of the program in all that we are doing in practice, weights and conditioning is getting results."

As Venus, No. 20 in preseason ITA rankings, and Nedovyesov squared off, the 6-3 LSU senior was battling severe knee pain. Venus was able to capture the first set by a 7-6 (5) mark, but faltered in the following set, allowing Nedovyesov to post a 6-2 mark. "Michael lost concentration in the second set and the match could have easily slid downhill," LSU assistant coach Danny Bryan said. "His knee was hurting him so badly, I thought he was going to have to stop the match, but he was able to fight through it and that's what made the third set so amazing."

After a close first set and falling in the second, Venus was able to overcome both the physical and mental hurdle his knee caused and capture the match in a stellar third set performance. Venus posted a 6-4 mark to win the set and the championship match. "Winning felt good. I was hurting and as I got into the third set, Danny motivated me and reminded me of how hard I had worked. It gave me the motivation I needed to push through when things got tough," Venus said.

Venus' run at the 2008 ITA All-American advanced him over six ranked opponents in the ITA's preseason rankings. Venus began his campaign on a solid note as he knocked off No. 98 Roy Kalmanovich of Illinois, 6-2, 6-2, before moving into the second round to defeat No. 23 Jaime Hunt of Georgia, 6-4, 7-6(8). The highlight of Venus' performance prior to the finals would be his victory over No. 4 Alex Clayton of Stanford. He advanced in straight sets over Clayton, 6-4, 6-1, moving into the tournament quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, Venus defeated Arkansas' Blake Strode, No. 41, in a heated match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, to catapult him into the semis where the senior would overcome No. 31 Enrique Olivares of East Tennessee State, 7-6 (3), 6-1, creating history by becoming the first Tiger to ever advance into the finals at the ITA All-American.

He breezed through the first three rounds of draw before beating Roland Thornqvist of North Carolina in three sets in the quarterfinal. El Sawy, the No. 3 seed, then dropped a three-set match No. 1-ranked Chris Woodruff of Tennessee. Camp directors Jeff Brown and Tony Minnis are both proven collegiate tennis players and coaches of nationally-ranked tennis programs. They each have the necessary skills and knowledge to improve the play of athletes ages 7-17. The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp is equally excited to train anyone from beginners to tournament players. The Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp experience is enhanced by the added direction of LSU assistant coaches Danny Bryan and Lisa Jackson. The W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium plays host to the Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp each year. The Robinson Tennis Stadium is located on the west side of LSU's campus and boasts 12 collegiate outdoor courts.

Camp Philosophy

Desire, sportsmanship and hard work are the fundamental characteristics of a true champion. The staff will seek to instill this philosophy and have each camper set goals and work hard to achieve them.

The Program

The instructional program includes six to eight hours per day on the tennis courts. There is a strong emphasis on fundamentals and consistency of performance. Campers will be involved in match play.

Camp Format

Individualized instruction is provided by experienced, dedicated instructors. We maintain a low teacher-student ratio, as well as daily running and physical conditioning period. Campers will receive constant training in the following areas:

- Stroke production, techniques and fundamentals.
- Drill situations to groove technique.
- Physical training: running, strength and agility.
- Match competition featuring singles, doubles and strategy.

Bottom Line

Camp is about building character. It is about hard work, sportsmanship and learning to interact with instructors and fellow campers. Most of all, it is about tennis - playing tennis to one's potential- and the opportunity for your child to develop his or her skill.

Sessions

Four week-long camps will be offered each summer. The camps typically run from 2 p.m. on Sunday until Thursday at noon. Campers may enroll in one session or more. For brochures, other camp information or to register and sign up, please visit tigertenniscamps.com.
