MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2012 Men's Tennis Media Guide was written to provide members of the media with statistics and information needed to adequately cover the LSU men's tennis team.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interviews with players and coaches must be coordinated through the SID office and requested 24 hours in advance to ensure availability-excluding post-match interviews. Post-match interviews with players will be available immediately following all home matches. If you need further information on the team, please contact Ashley Amoss at the LSU Sports Information Office at (225) 578-1866 or by email at aamoss1@tigers.lsu.edu

MATCH CREDENTIALS

Admission to all LSU home meets is free, and no credential access is needed. Members of the media are asked to enter through the front of the stadium and check in with a member of the SID staff at the top of the grandstand for updated match notes and statistics. Final match results can be obtained immediately after the match.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers MUST check in with an LSU Sports Information staff member on site for designated photo locations prior to EVERY match. Photographers are welcome to photograph from the stands, but MUST receive permission to photograph on the courts. Only accredited photographers or those persons on special assignment will be allowed access to the court.

IMAGES

Members of the media can obtain high resolution photos of all LSU coaches and student-athletes as well as official LSU logos on the Internet at <http://media.lsuports.net>. The site features head shots and action shots of all LSU athletes. To gain access to the database, contact Ashley Amoss for a login name and password.

W.T. “Dub” Robinson TENNIS STADIUM

The LSU men's tennis team has called W.T. Robinson Tennis Stadium home for nearly four decades. During its history, the “Dub,” as it is affectionately called, has seen a wealth of talented and successful players on its courts and has kept up with newer college facilities through a series of renovations and improvements over the years.

The Tigers' home facility is named in honor of former standout head coach W.T. Robinson, a coach that elevated the LSU tennis program to national prominence. The facility provides six varsity courts with an additional six practice courts. The newly resurfaced varsity courts received new tower lights prior to 2007 and also feature an electronic scoreboard, while the practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001. Robinson stadium accommodates up to 550 fans including a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

Both the nationally-ranked Tigers and Lady Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room and brand-new showers and bathrooms. The facility was completely refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room as well as an equipment room. Prior to the 2007 season, the media room was updated to include both leather couches as well as a 42-inch flat screen television. In January 2009, LSU installed an individual scoreboard on each court, allowing for a more up-to-date scoring experience for fans.

Former men's coach Jerry Simmons surpassed Robinson in 1992 to become the Tigers' all-time winningest coach. As the Simmons era came to a close in 1997, the Tigers posted an 11-1 home mark en-route to an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships.

With Simmons at the reigns, Robinson Stadium became one of the toughest venues in the country for opponents to play, with the Tigers compiling a 162-25 (.866) home record during Simmons' last 15 seasons.

Since head coach Jeff Brown took over in the 1998 season, the Tigers have accumulated a 135-32 overall record at home. His opening season as head coach, Brown notched a perfect 12-0 record on the Tigers home court.

W.T. “Dub” Robinson was also the site for the 2007 SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals. The Tigers advanced through the first round of the SEC Tournament before being ousted by Georgia, the eventual 2007 national champion.

During the 2007 NCAA Regionals, LSU defeated Alcorn State and Vanderbilt on their home courts before advancing to the round of 16 to face Ohio State in the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home.

The “Dub” was also home to the 2009 NCAA Regionals as Alcorn State, Rice and Ole Miss traveled to Baton Rouge for the competition. The Tigers didn't push through to the round of 16 as they did in 2007; however, LSU blanked 34th-ranked Rice in front of an enthusiastic Tiger fan base that packed Robinson Stadium for the event. LSU fell to second-ranked Ole Miss in the second round of competition, the only team to beat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season.

W.T. "DUB" ROBINSON FACTS

Legendary LSU men's tennis coach W.T. Robinson, or "Dub" as he was lovingly known, single-handedly orchestrated the LSU tennis program's rise to prominence. During his nearly three decade tenure as head coach, Robinson accumulated a 189-180-9 overall record, catapulted the Tigers onto the national scene and guided them to a status among the nation's elite. When the LSU tennis complex was completed in the fall of 1976, it was only natural that it was named after the person that built the program.

"LSU laid the groundwork for me being a professional in the way the school is run and the professors. Off the field, I learned to be a good person. On the football field, it is the training, the hard work and the dedication. LSU teaches you everything you need to be successful." -
Andrew Whitworth, Cincinnati Bengals

Campus LIFE

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 147-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past seven years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

WHY LSU?

Ken Skupski

SEC Indoors Champion (2005, 2006)
ITA Singles All-American (2006, 2007)
ITA Doubles All-American (2005)
First-Team All-SEC (2004, 2005, 2006, 2007)
ITA Scholar-Athlete (2005, 2006)

"Louisiana State University was a fantastic place to study, socialize and continue with my tennis career. Jeff Brown was a fantastic mentor who developed me into a tennis player capable of challenging at the top of world tennis. I consider my decision to attend LSU as the most important of my life. I am very proud of my achievements in the purple and gold colours. I love to go back to Baton Rouge and still follow the results of all LSU sports very closely! GEAUX TIGERS!"

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Tommy Hodson
Quarterback (1986-89)
All-SEC

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

Tyson Jackson
Defensive End (2005-08)
2009 NFL Draft No. 3 Pick

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms
2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

Did You Know?

- In the 2009 and 2010 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."
- LSU is the only public university in Louisiana designated as having very high research activity (RU/VH) by the prestigious Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the highest ranking awarded to doctorate-granting institutions.
- LSU was named to the 2009 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, the highest federal recognition a college or university can receive for its commitment to volunteering, service-learning and civic engagement, by the Corporation for National and Community Service.
- LSU earned the prestigious Carnegie Community Engagement and Outreach classification in 2008, one of 68 public institutions nationally with this elective classification based on community engagement.

- LSU is one of only a handful of universities in the nation having land-grant, sea-grant and space-grant status.
- LSU currently ranks among the top 30 public universities in total research awards. The University's total federal funding; from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Homeland Security; has increased 86 percent or more than $90 million over the last five years.

- Newsweek magazine named LSU the "Most Diverse" school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003, issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

Academic Center FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

Amenities

- ▶ 54,000 square feet of working space
- ▶ 300 computer workstations
- ▶ 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- ▶ Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- ▶ Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- ▶ A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

The Library

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

Computer Stations

Throughout the Academic Center are 75 computer stations, providing student-athletes with a quiet working environment for research, writing and studying.

Academic Center

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 not only made it among the nation's premier academic centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Athletic TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard Training Center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two-story, 22,000-square-foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600-square-foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation in getting its student-athletes back on the track in a timely manner following an injury. The training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Rehabilitation

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training boasts some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's student-athletes.

Real-Time X-Rays

A new state-of-the-art fluoroscope was added in the summer of 2008 that will provide LSU trainers the opportunity to take x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images of the internal structures of a patient.

Dental Center

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Pharmacy

The LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy is the only one of its kind in college athletics. Staffed by pharmacist Kevin Denoux, the LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy provides the Tigers with first-class service in a convenient location.

Vision Center

Dr. Don Peavy conducts eye exams for LSU's student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

Strength & CONDITIONING

The Operations Center houses one of the most complete strength training facilities in the nation. Completed in 2006, the weight room area includes 16 multi-purpose platform, bench, incline, squat and Olympic lifting stations, along with 12 dumbbell bench stations.

The Operations Center WEIGHT ROOM was named the nation's No. 2-ranked college weight room by ESPN's Bruce Feldman in June 2010.

Custom Weights

Custom iron grip dumbbells, weights and equipment made by Body Masters and Eleiko. Watch and listen to state-of-the-art video and sound system.

Tiger Stadium

WEIGHT ROOM

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

The Future

In August 2010, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva and the Tiger Athletic Foundation launched a campaign to preserve and restore the look of Tiger Stadium. Construction is well underway in refurbishing the 428 windows on the North End of Tiger Stadium. The fully funded window project is the initial phase of Alleva's plan to overhaul the entire corridor of North Stadium Drive between Tiger Stadium and the Maravich Center. The improvements are geared to making Tiger Stadium and the surrounding area a modern showplace.

"Tiger Stadium is one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Tiger fans have grown up there, made friends there, cheered there and cried there. The memories are endless. That is why the preservation of the 87-year-old home of the Tigers is so important."

- LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva

Tiger fans line North Stadium Drive in preparation to see the LSU football team walk down Victory Hill. A little over an hour before kickoff, the Golden Band From Tigerland's march follows and sets the scene for one of college football's greatest traditions.

— Gameday IN TIGERTOWN —

"We'll just begin here, knowing full well that any other campus can't possibly touch the magic of a night game in Death Valley. If tradition is tailgating, the LSU band and – if you're lucky – a Mike the Tiger sighting, then I'm all in."

- Matt Hayes, Sporting News; May 25, 2010

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. The assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of the campus.

And that was just Friday night."

TAILGATING AT LSU

A COLLEGE FOOTBALL EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

LSU's legendary tailgating experience was recently named No. 1 by the Associated Press in a September 2010 poll. The campus becomes one of the biggest and best parties in the nation on Saturdays in the fall.

"Nothing like tailgating on the Bayou. LSU is my personal favorite. Maybe it's my penchant for the spicy stuff. But there's nothing like sampling a little gumbo, a little jambalaya and then diving face-first into a shrimp boil. The aroma just walking through the parking lot to Tiger Stadium stays with you the whole day, and the LSU fans get there early and stay late."

- Chris Low, ESPN.com; Sept. 26, 2008

"Walking among the tailgaters here is like strolling through one of Emeril Lagasse's restaurants. RW once joined a group serving jambalaya, duck and oyster gumbo, stuffed quail, deer sauce picante, wild duck, cochon de lait, Cajun sausage, crawfish etouffee, rabbit, alligator stew and marinated pork tenderloin. And that was for a non-conference game."

- Jim Caple, ESPN.com; August 19, 2008

"The scene is college football's Mardi Gras - beads, music and more tasty creations than the best culinary school. Some evenings, tens of thousands of fans show up to party and stay in the parking lot during games. That's pretty cool."

The 2010-11 athletic year was another successful one for LSU at the conference and national level. Women's track and field claimed the SEC Indoor and Outdoor Championships, while the Tiger football team finished the season ranked eighth after compiling an 11-2 record and a Cotton Bowl victory. The women's golf team earned its highest NCAA Championships finish ever by taking third as freshman Austin Ernst became the first player in school history to win the NCAA individual title.

Men's golfer John Peterson followed that up with an individual NCAA title of his own. Swimmer Jane Trepp shattered the SEC record in the 100 breaststroke and won the league title in the event.

Did You Know?

In a time when subsidies for college athletics across the country are reaching an all-time high, a report published by USA Today in January 2010 indicated that LSU and Nebraska are the only two athletic departments in the nation that receive no subsidies.

Did You Know?

LSU became the first school in NCAA history to win the men's and women's individual NCAA Golf Championships in the same year when John Peterson and Austin Ernst did so in 2011. Ernst and Peterson became the first LSU players in 70 years to win titles.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

Rudy Macklin 40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova 37

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

Ben McDonald 19

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Seimone Augustus 33

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick in 2006. She went on to lead the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the newest LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

Shaquille O'Neal

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal is one of the most dominant centers in league history. O'Neal, one of the most quotable athletes on the planet, joined the long list of prominent LSU alumni when he earned his degree in general studies in December 2000. O'Neal announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career of 19 seasons.

Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus received her degree in 2005 after just three years at LSU and while earning NCAA Women's Basketball National Player of the Year honors twice. She was the first pick of the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx and teamed with fellow LSU alum Sylvia Fowles to claim an Olympic gold medal for the United States in 2008.

Prominent LSU ALUMNI

Eduardo Aguirre, Jr.

Named the first Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for the Department of Homeland Security in 2003, Aguirre, Jr., was the U.S. Ambassador to Spain from 2005 until 2009.

James Carville

Carville received both a bachelor's degree and law degree from LSU and gained fame in the 1990s as the chief campaign strategist for Bill Clinton and Al Gore. Carville also penned a best-selling memoir titled "All's Fair: Love, War and Running for President".

Lod Cook

Cook graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1955 and then earned his Master's degree in petro engineering in 1955. Cook served as CEO of ARCO for nine years.

Mike

THE TIGER

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The six-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Idaville in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

1936-1956

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Championship Cat
During his tenure, Mike V reigned over a football national championship, five baseball national championships and a remarkable 23 track and field championships.

1956-1958

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

1958-1976

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

1976-1990

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla. on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

1990-2007

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

2007-present

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Idaville, Ind. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The six-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

LSU

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his fourth season at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva was recently appointed to a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Thru and True" -- to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision for LSU athletics facilities includes plans to enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium and transform the North Stadium Drive corridor into a showplace for the university. Under his direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface last year when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium. Extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility will be completed this fall, and future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a tennis complex, and renovations to the Maravich Center and field house.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The Lady Tiger golfers were third in the final team standings, marking the highest finish in LSU history.

LSU Athletics completed another highly successful year in 2010-11, highlighted by a Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark -- including a Cotton Bowl victory -- and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The 2010-11 athletic year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. This past year LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills. And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events.

In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he made two critical additions to LSU's coaching staff in the off-season. He lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, bringing a new wealth of knowledge and passion to the LSU women's sports program.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny.

Dr. John V. Lombardi

President, Louisiana State University System

Dr. John V. Lombardi is the fifth individual to serve as the President of the Louisiana State University System. As its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Lombardi oversees 11 institutions, including five academic campuses, as well as 10 public hospitals located throughout the state. He is also a Professor of History at Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Dr. Lombardi was born in Los Angeles, California and attended Pomona College where he earned his bachelor's degree. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in history from Columbia University. He joined the faculty in the Department of History at Indiana University, where he later served as Dean of International Programs and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. In 1987, he became Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the Johns Hopkins University. From 1990-1999, Dr. Lombardi was President of the University of Florida. Prior to his appointment as President of the LSU System, he served as Chancellor of the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

He is a Latin American historian, with a special interest in Venezuela. Dr. Lombardi is also one of the country's foremost authorities in higher education, serving as Co-Editor of The Top American Research Universities. He is the author of numerous professional publications, and along with his wife, Cathryn, co-authored a teaching atlas on Latin American History. He has taught courses in history, intercollegiate sports, and university management.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Before arriving at NMSU in 2004, Dr. Martin served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president. Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission, Dr. Martin is recognized as a strong voice for higher education. In 2007, he received the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, which honors outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980. For his leadership in improving the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico.

Other recent awards include his recognition as a powerbroker by The New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006, being named Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, and receiving the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Dr. Martin is involved in a wide array of professional and community organizations and activities.

An active scholar, Dr. Martin has authored numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications, and the popular press and recently published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin earned a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977.

Dr. Martin and his wife, Jan, have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, who holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

JEFF BROWN

HEAD COACH

YEAR AT LSU: 15TH

BIRTHDATE: NOV. 15, 1966

BIRTHPLACE: DUBUQUE, IOWA

Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now in his 15th season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here. He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit.

Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so in his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

He has since proven those feats were more than just beginner's luck. Brown quickly earned respect among his peers due to his lengthy list of achievements. Brown has taken his teams to the NCAA Tournament in 12 out of 13 years, and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005 and 2007. He has coached 15 All-Americans in his tenure, and after young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004. In 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998.

With Brown at the helm the Tigers have finished in the top 10 three times during his tenure. But he's not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it you really appreciate it and you're hungry for more."

Brown has put his Tigers in position to succeed on and off the court. Brown helped setup "Duel Under the Oaks" on October 29, 2006, a charity event held on LSU's campus that helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes that ripped through Louisiana in 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities and the main event of an exhibition match with former tennis pros Pete Sampras against Todd Martin at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. The event was such a success that LSU hosted "Dual Under the Oaks II" in December 2008.

During Brown's LSU tenure, the Tigers have had 3 SEC Scholar Athlete's of the Year, 13 Academic All-Americans and 63 SEC Honor Roll members.

The Tigers were honored by the NCAA in 2008 for their Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the report by the NCAA. The LSU men's tennis team scored the highest among LSU sports for the third year in a row. The NCAA recognized college sports teams from around the country that achieved an APR score in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The LSU men's tennis team is one of only 10 sports teams out of 236 squads in the entire Southeastern Conference that were recognized for academic achievement by the NCAA, and it is the only men's tennis team in the SEC to achieve the honor.

When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fourth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis."

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition amongst the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 47 international ranking in doubles is the second highest ranking ever for a former LSU player, behind only former Tiger Ken Skupski who was ranked No. 44 in doubles.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. They have two young boys, Connor (7) and Cameron (5).

Danny Bryan stepped onto the court as an assistant coach for LSU in 2009, but it was not the first time Bryan stepped onto the court for the Tigers. Bryan served as a volunteer coach in fall 2008 and was a four-year letterman for the Tigers from 2003-07.

As an assistant coach, Bryan is instrumental in one-on-one instruction, and at one of his first tournaments in his new position, Bryan coached former LSU standout Michael Venus in the final match at the D'Novo All-American Championships where Venus became the first Tiger to win the title in the history of the program.

With experience in three different facets of LSU tennis and almost a lifetime geared toward the game, Bryan helped guide the Tigers along with head coach Jeff Brown to another season in the national spotlight during his inaugural year. The team earned a No. 28 billing at the close of 2009 season as well as an NCAA Tournament berth.

Bryan has been a mainstay on the courts of the "Dub" for more than seven years now, but his journey toward LSU began long ago. Tennis runs through his veins, passed down through his father and three uncles that played collegiate tennis, as well as a grandfather that played on the pro circuit.

After cracking the starting lineup his freshman year, he served as a leader both on and off the court. Bryan served as a co-captain for the Tigers his junior and senior seasons, and the New Orleans native made an impact in Louisiana, the Southeastern Conference and the national rankings. Bryan earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors for three consecutive years. In 2007, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors and finished his senior season at No. 40 in the ITA singles rankings and No. 6 in doubles with partner Colt Gaston.

Bryan made an impact on the LSU record books as well. He sits tied at 14th in career singles wins at 84 with LSU greats Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely. His doubles campaign was no less impressive as he capped his senior season by winning the 2007 SEC Indoor Championships with partner Gaston and captured 110 career doubles win to earn Doubles All-America status.

The culmination of an impressive career on the courts as well as outstanding leadership ability earned Bryan the 2007 ITA National Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Not only did he shine on the courts, his service work allowed him to shine in the community as well. From 2005-07 Bryan was named to the Southeastern Conference Community service team, and in 2007, his efforts earned him 2007 LSU Male Volunteer of the Year.

Bryan married former LSU gymnast Jade Jenkins on Jan. 2, 2010.

2012 SEASON PREVIEW

LSU enters the 2012 season with high hopes and a championship mindset. The Tigers look to reload and build off of a strong 2011 campaign with a deep and talented returning roster. The Tigers return nine letter winners after losing two crucial components in their lineup, Sebastian Carlsson and Julien Gauthier. They open the season with a No. 33 mark in the ITA rankings. Junior Olivier Borsos received the No. 105 ranking in singles, and a No. 28 ranking in doubles with freshman standout Chris Simpson. The Tigers are tabbed fourth in the SEC West by the coaches. An extremely tough dual season will test the team match-after-match as they work their way back to the top of the college tennis landscape.

"With all of the high ranked teams that are in our conference that we will either play at home or away, you throw in a Cal or a Minnesota which are difficult matches or Michigan on the road, and it makes for a difficult schedule," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "We don't hide from anyone. We are looking to play as many good teams as possible, understanding that our win/loss record might take a hit, but with the way the rankings are done, they are basically looking at your top nine wins to get into the NCAA field."

Four seniors, Mark Bowtell, Tom Knights, Neal Skupski and David Roberts, lead the Tigers this season. Their experience and maturity on and off the court will help guide the Tigers to a successful season. Prior to the season, both Roberts and Skupski were selected to be team captains, along with

"From a leadership standpoint, you are always looking for guys who have been through it," Brown explained. "There are a few leaders that have immersed with Neal, Dave and Stefan as team captains, but there is also Mark Bowtell, who is lending us his experience, and Tom Knights as well. To have a good group of guys that have been around the program for awhile and can hold things together when necessary as well as show guys how to be successful, how to handle the tough schedule and all of the little things that go into making yourself a successful student-athlete is extremely important."

BREAKOUT FALL

The 2011 fall season brought a chance for some of the younger players to work their way into the starting lineup. Freshman Chris Simpson posted a 4-2 singles record and 4-2 doubles record. He paired up with junior Olivier Borsos to knock off Mississippi State's 7th-ranked Louis Cant and Malte Stropp, 8-6, to advance to the finals of the USTA/ITA Southern Regional Championships. Redshirt sophomore James Turbervill also showed promise etching out a 3-3 singles mark and 3-5 doubles record, earning himself a spot on the starting roster.

After earning his first varsity letter last season, Knights put together a complete fall, racking up 10 overall wins with a 6-4 record in singles and 4-2 record in doubles.

Borsos, ranked 105th at the time, lived up to the hype, cruising to a 6-3 record in singles and proving that he deserves to play on the top court during dual match play. He took down New Mexico's 81st-ranked Jadon Phillips at the ITA All-American Championships and was runner-up with Simpson in the USTA/ITA Southern Regional Championships.

Team captain, Skupski, used the fall season to demonstrate that he was not only a leader, but a contender. Given the preseason 31st-ranking, Skupski recorded a 6-3 singles mark and a 4-2 doubles mark. He also won the doubles title at the Costa Mesa Futures Event, solidifying his place as one of the SEC's elite players.

THE MISSION

The 2012 team is hungry and ready to hit the courts and prove that they belong in the NCAA tournament. The lineup is filled with experienced players who are anxious to get back to the NCAA tournament and set the example for the new class coming in.

"This year's team has a lot of the pieces back and has added a good little freshman group to go along with it," Brown said. "With Simpson joining our upperclassmen in Skupski, Borsos, Bowtell and Knights is huge. Obviously, Turbervill coming back from an injury is very significant for us, and with Szacinski continuing to grow, we have a team that I think is very capable of improving off our second round finish last year and going even farther in the tournament."

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

To be your best you have to test yourself against the best and the 2012 squad will have plenty chances to do just that this season. The Tigers will host 13 home matches at W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Stadium against some of the top college tennis teams in the country, including top SEC and national contenders, Georgia, Kentucky and Florida. They will also play host to Ohio State, who finished the season ranked 3rd in the nation by the ITA.

The road schedule isn't any easier as the Tigers will hit the road to take on four teams who finished the season ranked in the top-25 by the ITA.

The Tigers will kick off the season on Jan. 22 in Houston, Texas, against a very tough Rice team.

LSU will then travel to Berkeley, Calif., for the ITA Kickoff Weekend on Jan. 29 where they will face California, who finished last season ranked 14th, and then either San Diego or Minnesota on Jan. 30.

The Tigers will open their home schedule on Thursday, Feb. 2 against the Clemson Tigers.

"When we are at home, there is always the possibility that we come away with the win," Brown said. "It's a big benefit to play at home for any team, but I think our crowd has really become one of the best in the nation and can give us the edge we need to come out ahead."

After playing in their home opener, the Tigers will quickly have to turn around and travel to Ann Arbor, Mich., to take on the Michigan Wolverines.

SEC play begins March 2 when the Tigers host the Kentucky Wildcats who finished the season ranked 8th in the nation. SEC opponents Vanderbilt, Georgia, South Carolina and Florida will also make the trip to the 'Dub' this season, while the Tigers will travel to Alabama, Auburn, Tennessee, Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Arkansas to round out SEC competition.

"It is another year that the SEC is just loaded with high end talent," Brown said. "There are several teams in the top-10, top-25 and even in a down year, they still manage to stay in the top-50. SEC play is never easy, but it is a challenge we look forward to. With every SEC win, we view that as a major accomplishment. Going through an SEC season definitely prepares you for the ultimate goal, the NCAA tournament."

Captains: Seniors Neal Skupski, David Roberts, and junior Stefan Szacinski.

2011 SEC MEN'S TENNIS RECAP

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt.

On the men's side, nine teams earned bids to the NCAA Tournament with Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee advancing to the Round of 16 of the 2011 NCAA Division I Tennis Championships in Palo Alto, Calif.

Kentucky and Tennessee advanced to the quarterfinals after Kentucky defeated Florida and Tennessee defeated Cal in the previous round.

Georgia defeated Duke, 4-1, in the Round of 16 and Tennessee, 4-3, in the quarterfinals before losing to eventual national champion Southern Cal, 4-0, in the semifinals. It was the 26th time an SEC team had advanced to the semifinal round.

In singles, Tennessee's Rhyne Williams was defeated by USC's Steve Johnson 4-6, 6-2, 6-1. Williams is the fifth singles runner-up for the conference since 2000.

In doubles play, Florida's duo of Alexandre Lacroix and Sekou Bangoura Jr. advanced to the semifinal round. They were defeated by the Stanford duo of Klahn/Thacher, 4-6, 6-3, 7-6(4).

Sixteen ITA All-America honors were bestowed upon SEC players in 2011. Since 1990, 158 honors in singles and 158 in doubles have been awarded to the conference players.

The conference won its seventh team title on the women's side in 2011. Florida defeated Clemson in the Round of 16, 4-1; Miami, 4-1 in the quarterfinals; and UCLA 4-0 in the semifinals before finally defeating host Stanford, 4-3 for the Gators fifth national title.

Eight teams earned bids to the NCAA Division I Tennis Championships with Florida, Georgia and Vanderbilt advancing to the Round of 16 in Palo Alto, Calif. Vanderbilt lost to North Carolina, 4-0 in that round. Georgia defeated Cal, 4-3 then lost to Stanford, 4-0 in the quarterfinals.

In the singles tournament, Florida's Lauren Embree was defeated by Stanford's Stacey Tan in the semifinal round, 5-7, 6-3, ret.

In doubles, Georgia's Kate Fuller and Chelsey Gullickson lost to Barte/Burdette of Stanford in the quarterfinals. Florida's Alex Cercone and Allie Will also lost in the quarterfinals. They were defeated by Clemson's Bek/Wong.

A total of seven ITA All-America honors were awarded to SEC student-athletes this season to put the totals at 118 singles and 132 double honors since 1990.

2011 REVIEW

TWO YEAR MISSION: PART I

After narrowly missing out on the NCAA tournament in 2010, the Tigers returned ready to avenge their losses. With a more experienced group of players at the helm, the Tigers were ready to battle themselves back into the NCAA Tournament, and they did just that.

LSU returned nine letter winners and opened the 2011 season with a No. 45 mark in the ITA preseason rankings. Junior Neal Skupski received a No. 31 ranking in singles, and senior Sebastian Carlsson received the 78th ranking. The pair was ranked 16th in the nation in doubles.

Led by seniors Julien Gauthier and Carlsson, the Tigers faced a difficult schedule, playing six top-25 opponents on the road and six top-25 opponents at home, including the No. 1 team in the nation at the time, Virginia.

"Our schedule is never easy, but that's what you expect in the SEC," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's a dominant conference, which is why everyone wants to come and play in it."

The Tigers finished with a 12-14 overall record and tied for 7th in the SEC. LSU's biggest win in the season came over Indiana, 4-3, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

"We had quite a few significant points in the season," Brown said. "Obviously, our biggest win came over Indiana in the NCAA Tournament. Some of the other highlights were the wins over No. 18 Auburn and Alabama in the same weekend as well as the win over Ole Miss. Some nice wins over Rice and Nebraska weren't too bad either."

FINISHING STRONG

After ending the season with a tough stretch filled with top SEC opponents, LSU began to connect the pieces. The Tigers earned a victory over Alabama, 4-0, in the SEC Tournament before traveling to the NCAA Tournament in College Station, Texas to face Indiana. It was a tight match, but the Tigers were able to rally back with the help of junior Mark Bowtell to beat the Hoosiers 4-3.

"That's the kind of total team effort we've been building toward and talking about all year," Brown said after the match. "It was definitely the biggest win of the year."

Unfortunately, the Tigers run would end there, falling to 9th-ranked Texas A&M in the second round.

"We're proud of the season that we had," Brown said. "You never want it to end, but we accomplished a lot of our goals and we made major improvements in many areas. We've set ourselves up nicely for next season."

MAKING HISTORY

The 2011 season was not only successful for the team, but for its individual players as well. Junior Neal Skupski became just the second player in LSU men's tennis history to be named a two-time doubles All-American, joining former Tiger Michal Chmela who captured the status in 1998 and 2000. Individually, Sebastian Carlsson climbed up the all-time wins list, ending his college career with an 85-57 record in singles and a 79-49 record in doubles. Together, they were named to the 2011 Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-America Team and finished among the top-10 duos in the country.

OVERALL RECORD: 20-3 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

The Tigers made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in the school's history when coach Steve Carter guided LSU to the NCAA's in 1978. The Tigers entered the NCAA's with a 20-2 record, while riding a nine-match winning streak. However, Pepperdine proved to be too strong for LSU as the Wave rolled to a 6-3 first round win. LSU finished the year ranked No. 12 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 19-10 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After a five-year absence from the NCAA's, second-year head coach Jerry Simmons led the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for what would be the first of ten-straight appearances at the event. The Tigers were quickly eliminated from the NCAA's, as eventual champion UCLA ousted LSU by a 6-0 count.

1985

OVERALL RECORD: 19-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC CHAMPIONS

The Tigers entered the NCAA Tournament as the SEC Champions, but LSU was again eliminated in the first round by a very good Clemson team, 5-1. Clemson ended its season ranked No. 8 in the nation, while LSU netted its highest final national ranking ever at No. 9.

1986

OVERALL RECORD: 17-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

LSU would have to wait yet another year to get its first win at the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, who were in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight year, fell to SMU, 5-2, in the opening round. SMU went on to finish third in the nation, while the Tigers ended their season ranked No. 12.

1987

OVERALL RECORD: 23-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

LSU won what was then a school-record 23 matches as the Tigers finally got their first win in NCAA Tournament action with a 5-2 second round victory over Texas. The Tigers, who received a first round bye, then fell to Southern Cal, 5-3, in the quarter-finals. LSU finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation, the highest ranking ever for an LSU team at the time.

1988

OVERALL RECORD: 27-2 • FINAL RANK: NO. 2

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR FINALISTS

LSU enjoyed what is still the best season in school history as the Tigers reached the finals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers, which did not lose a match outdoors all season, lost to Stanford, 5-2, in the finals of the NCAA's in a match that was forced indoors due to rain. LSU reached the finals by recording wins over California in round two, Georgia in the quarterfinal and Michigan in the semifinal. LSU, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation for four weeks during the season, ended the year ranked second.

1989

OVERALL RECORD: 22-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

The Tigers reached the final eight at the NCAA's for the third- straight year, but that was as far as LSU would go as eventual champion Stanford beat the Tigers, 5-3, in the quarterfinal. The Tigers finished their season ranked No. 8 in the nation.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 11

The Tigers had a down season as far as wins and losses are concerned but LSU still managed to make the 20-team NCA tournament field. The Tigers weren't around for long as California beat LSU 5-3 in round one. LSU finished its season with a 13-9 record and ranked No. 11 in the nation.

1991

OVERALL RECORD: 19-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 6

SEC RUNNER-UP

Returning to the final eight at the NCAA's after a year's absence from the top 10, LSU beat TCU 5-3 round two. The Tigers then were eliminated by California for the second year in a row by a 5-2 count. LSU finished the year ranked No. 6 in the nation.

1992

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

SEC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS • SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU entered the NCAA Tournament fresh off an appearance in the SEC Tournament title match. After a first round bye, the Tigers defeated Pepperdine, 6-3, in the second round. LSU then ran into trouble as eventual champion Stanford ousted the Tigers 5-2. The Tigers finished the year ranked No. 10 in the nation.

1993

OVERALL RECORD: 16-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 8

SEC RUNNER-UP

LSU made the NCAA Tournament for the 10th consecutive year, but the Tigers weren't around for long as Duke posted a 5-2 upset win over LSU in the second round. LSU, which received a first round bye, was ranked No. 8 in the final national poll. The Duke match marked the final match for perhaps three of the best players in LSU history in Tamer El Sawy, Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola.

1995

OVERALL RECORD: 19-4 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1995. However, LSU's return was short-lived as TCU, ranked 10th, upset the sixth-ranked Tigers, 4-0, in round one. LSU lost to Georgia in the SEC Tournament final and finished the year ranked No. 9 in the nation.

1996

OVERALL RECORD: 21-5 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

NCAA REGION III CHAMPIONS

LSU enjoyed another stellar campaign en route to its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance in 14 years under coach Jerry Simmons. LSU played host to the 1996 NCAA Region III Championships. The top-seeded Tigers overcame a 3-0 deficit to No. 23 Auburn in the title match for a thrilling 4-3 win to advance to the NCAA's. LSU beat Kentucky in the first round and A -Birmingham in the Regional semifinal. TCU, ranked 4th, bumped LSU from the NCAA Championships in the round of 16 for the second-straight year by a 4-3 count.

1997

OVERALL RECORD: 17-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 9

SEC RUNNER-UP

Jerry Simmons, LSU's all-time winningest coach, led the Tigers to the NCAA's for the 13th and final time during 1997 after announcing his retirement prior to the start of the spring season. Simmons capped off a much heralded 26-year coaching career, 15 coming at LSU, as his Tigers earned an automatic tourney bid. Unfortunately, Simmons' Tigers were upended in round one by No. 10 Duke 4-1, finishing the year at 17-7 overall No. 9 nationally.

1998

OVERALL RECORD: 25-2 • FINAL RANK: NO. 2

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

In his first year as LSU's head coach, Jeff Brown led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament semifinals and a No. 2 National Ranking. The Tigers swept the SEC with a perfect 14-0 record, capturing the SEC Tournament championship as well as the overall conference crown. In the NCAA tournament, LSU tore through SMU and SEC rival Ole Miss before falling in the semifinals to a Georgia team the Tigers had twice defeated earlier in the year.

1999

OVERALL RECORD: 20-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 4

SEC CHAMPIONS • SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

LSU shocked the collegiate tennis world by returning to the Final Four for the second consecutive year in 1999. The Tigers, who had a No. 19 preseason ranking, hosted a regional and beat Alcorn State and Tulane to advance to the round of 16 at Athens, Ga. There, LSU beat a gutsy Fresno State team before upsetting second-ranked Duke in the quarterfinal. However, the magic ended in the Final Four as No. 1 UCLA managed to survive the Tiger attack. The Tigers defeated eventual national champion Georgia twice on the season.

2000

OVERALL RECORD: 20-6 • FINAL RANK: NO. 12

After entering the season as one of the favorites to win the national championship, the 2000 LSU squad earned a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament. For the second consecutive season, the Tigers roared through the first two rounds in Baton Rouge with 4-0 victories over both Alcorn State and Clemson. Then it was on to Athens, Ga., and a tough round of 16 match with sixth-seeded Illinois. In a grueling match, the Illini proved to be a little too strong as they claimed a 4-3 victory and ousted LSU from the tournament.

OVERALL RECORD: 16-8 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

The LSU men's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Championships for the seventh-straight season in 2001 after accumulating a 14-7 overall record during the regular season. The Tigers rebounded from a 4-3 upset loss against Alabama in the Southeastern Conference Tournament to host an NCAA Regional for the third-consecutive season. In front of a raucous home crowd at the W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium, LSU dropped Marist, 4-0, in first-round action before knocking off 19th-ranked Texas, 4-2, to earn a trip to the NCAA Championships in Athens, Ga. The Tigers advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third-straight year and faced No. 7 Texas A&M at the Dan Magill Tennis Center on the campus of the University of Georgia. In the third-round match, Texas A&M out-slugged the Tigers, 4-1.

OVERALL RECORD: 11-14 • FINAL RANK: NO. 29

Despite finishing the regular season with a losing record for the first time in seven years, LSU proved its worthiness of an NCAA Tournament bid by advancing to the round of 32 with a convincing 4-0 victory over the higher-ranked Texas Christian Horned Frogs. The win was a triumphant contrast for the Tigers after the team had traversed a season full of 4-3 losses and had faced 16 top-25 teams in 25 dual-match contests. In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, LSU fell prey to 16th-ranked Texas A&M for the second-consecutive season, 4-0, in College Station, Texas.

OVERALL RECORD: 13-11 • FINAL RANK: NO. 24

The Tigers kept their NCAA tournament streak alive, making their ninth consecutive postseason appearance and finishing the season ranked in the top 25 for the 19th time in 20 years. The Tigers finished second in the SEC West with a 5-6 conference record and 13-11 overall record. They were upset in the first round by No. 56 South Alabama, 4-2, in New Orleans.

2004

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK: NO. 13

LSU's three seniors, Cory Ross, Sebastian Rutka and Bryan Fisher, ended their time at LSU with their most successful years here. The Tigers finished in a tie for third in the SEC. They earned the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since. Despite losing in the second round to 14th-ranked Rice, they finished ranked 13th in the nation, the fifth top-15 finish in Jeff Brown's career. Ken Skupski entered the lineup at No. 1 singles and became one of two freshmen in the nation selected to play in the NCAA Singles Championship. Fisher and Jason Hazley finished their highly successful career as a doubles team ranked No. 15 in the nation. The 2004 Tigers compiled a 3.5 GPA in the spring to lead all LSU varsity teams. They were selected an ITA All-Academic team and Fisher and Paul White were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

OVERALL RECORD: 21-9 • FINAL RANK: NO. 10

After another successful season the Tigers finished with a 19-8 regular season record and were rewarded with hosting an NCAA Regional. After defeating Binghamton and in-state rival Tulane in the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament, the Tigers went back in the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2001 and for the 19th time in program history as the tournament's 11th seed. They took on SEC foe Georgia, the tournament's No. 6 seed. LSU entered the contest winners of 14 consecutive doubles points, but could not win the early point against the Bulldogs. Georgia outplayed the Tigers to win the match, 4-0, when play was stopped. The Tigers ended the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999. All of LSU's nine losses this season came to teams ranked 16th or higher in the final rankings, including five to top-10 teams.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-10 • FINAL RANK NO. 25

For the eighth time in head coach Jeff Brown's nine years leading the way, the LSU Tigers finished the season in the top 25. The Tigers finished with a 15-10 record, but were ousted in the first round of the SEC and NCAA Tournament. LSU loss against Minnesota in the NCAA Tournament was the curtain call for acclaimed seniors Mark Growcott and Paul White. Growcott only spent two years as a Tiger but played a key role in the team's success. Growcott and doubles partner Ken Skupski were ranked No. 1 in the 2006 preseason poll. White, a four-year letterwinner, succeeded on and off the court. He was a two-time ITA Scholar-Athlete and was chosen as the 2005 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

OVERALL RECORD: 18-7 • FINAL RANK NO. 15

The Tigers put together another successful campaign in 2007 by posting an 18-7 record, finishing the season ranked No. 15 and advancing the NCAA round of 16. It marked the sixth time in head coach Jeff Brown's ten years as coach that the Tigers reached the round of 16. No. 2 Ohio State, who had defeated LSU earlier in the regular season, ended the Tigers' season with a 4-0 victory in the round of 16. The round of the 16 match was the only postseason match the Tigers did not play at home as they hosted the SEC Championships and the NCAA first and second round.

OVERALL RECORD: 15-9 • FINAL RANK NO. 18

LSU continued their solid presence in the NCAA tournament, marking the 14th straight tournament appearance for the Tigers. LSU handed undefeated Drake its first loss of the season with a 4-1 mark over the Bulldogs. The Tigers fell to No. 15 Illinois, 4-2, to cap LSU's season with a 15-9 record and final rank of No. 18, marking 24 out of 25 years that LSU finished in the top 25.

2009

OVERALL RECORD: 11-12 • FINAL RANK: NO. 28

The Tigers garnered an NCAA berth for their 15th-straight year. Brown led the team into competition for the 12th time during his tenure and LSU hosted the NCAA first and second round with Alcorn State, Ole Miss and Rice traveling to Baton Rouge for the tournament. LSU swept Rice, 4-0, as Ole Miss blanked Alcorn State by the same 4-0 mark to complete first-round competition. As LSU took the court against the Rebels for the second round, it marked the third time during the season the two teams squared off against one another. Second-ranked Ole Miss took the early lead after capturing the doubles point. LSU retaliated by taking the first two singles points; however, it was not enough to fend off the Rebels. LSU fell to Ole Miss, 4-2, as the Rebels were the only team to defeat the Tigers in their last eight matches of the season. LSU finished with an 11-12 record and Brown continued a top-30 presence when the team finished at No.28 in the final ITA polls.

OVERALL RECORD: 12-14 FINAL RANK: NO. 32

The Tigers earned an NCAA berth after putting together a successful 2011 campaign. In the first round of the NCAA tournament, LSU edged by Indiana with a 4-3 victory. However, in the second round, 9th-ranked Texas A&M proved to be too much for the Tigers to handle. The Aggies ended the Tigers run in the NCAA tournament with a 4-0 victory. LSU finished with a 12-14 record and a No. 32 ranking in the final ITA polls.

Michael Venus

2008 D'Novo/All-American
Champion
2008 All-American Singles

College Grand Slams

Michael Venus defeated the nation's No. 1 player Oleksandr Nedovyesov of Oklahoma State University to win the 2008 D'Novo All-American Championship, becoming the first in school history to win the title.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program. For Michael to be the first to win speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's also validation of the program in all that we are doing in practice, weights and conditioning is getting results."

As Venus, No. 20 in preseason ITA rankings, and Nedovyesov squared off, the 6-3 LSU senior was battling severe knee pain. Venus was able to capture the first set by a 7-6 (5) mark, but faltered in the following set, allowing Nedovyesov to post a 6-2 mark. "Michael lost concentration in the second set and the match could have easily slid downhill," LSU assistant coach Danny Bryan said. "His knee was hurting him so badly, I thought he was going to have to stop the match, but he was able to fight through it and that's what made the third set so amazing."

After a close first set and falling in the second, Venus was able to overcome both the physical and mental hurdle his knee caused and capture the match in a stellar third set performance. Venus posted a 6-4 mark to win the set and the championship match. "Winning felt good. I was hurting and as I got into the third set, Danny motivated me and reminded me of how hard I had worked. It gave me the motivation I needed to push through when things got tough," Venus said.

Venus' run at the 2008 ITA All-American advanced him over six ranked opponents in the ITA's preseason rankings. Venus began his campaign on a solid note as he knocked off No. 98 Roy Kalmanovich of Illinois, 6-2, 6-2, before moving into the second round to defeat No. 23 Jaime Hunt of Georgia, 6-4, 7-6(8). The highlight of Venus' performance prior to the finals would be his victory over No. 4 Alex Clayton of Stanford. He advanced in straight sets over Clayton, 6-4, 6-1, moving into the tournament quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, Venus defeated Arkansas' Blake Strode, No. 41, in a heated match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, to catapult him into the semis where the senior would overcome No. 31 Enrique Olivares of East Tennessee State, 7-6 (3), 6-1, creating history by becoming the first Tiger to ever advance into the finals at the ITA All-American.

Venus' road to the 2008 All-American singles title:

First Round: def. Roy Kalmanovich (Illinois), 6-2, 6-2

Second Round: def. Jamie Hunt (Georgia), 6-4, 7-6 (8)

Third Round: def. Alex Clayton (Stanford), 6-4, 6-1

Semifinal: def. Enrique Olivares (ETSU), 7-6 (7-3), 6-1

Final: def. Oleksandr Nedovyesov (Oklahoma State), 7-6 (7-5), 2-6, 6-4

Donni Leaycraft

1989 NCAA Singles Champion

Donni Leaycraft capped off his record-setting junior season by becoming the first LSU player to win the NCAA singles title. Leaycraft entered the NCAA singles tournament as the 13th seed and proceeded to breeze through the first four rounds, winning all four matches in straight sets. In the semifinal, Leaycraft upset hometown favorite Pablo Montana of Georgia in three sets and then beat Steven Jung of Nebraska 6-1, 4-6, 6-3 to claim the title. Leaycraft finished the year with a 42-10 record and ranked No. 3 in the nation.

Leaycraft's road to the 1989 NCAA singles titles:

First Round: def. Lee Galway (Boise State), 6-3, 6-1

Second Round: def. Mark Mance (Duke), 6-1, 6-3

Semifinal: def. Pablo Montana (Georgia), 7-5, 4-6, 6-2

Final: def. Steven Jung (Nebraska), 6-1, 4-6, 6-3

Johan Kjellsten

1988 Clay Court Singles Champion

Johan Kjellsten did not waste any time making an impact after transferring from McNeese State prior to his senior season. At the Clay Courts, Kjellsten, who was the tournament's eighth seed, knocked off top-ranked Malivai Washington of Michigan, 6-3, 6-3 in the quarterfinal and then cruised past fourth-ranked Greg Failla of Southern Cal in the semifinal. In the final, Kjellsten knocked off 12th-ranked Stephen Enochs of Georgia 2-6, 6-2, 6-1 to give LSU the school's first grand slam event winner. Kjellsten went on to post a 38-11 overall singles record and finished the year ranked No. 7 in the country.

Kjellsten's road to the 1988 clay court singles title:

First Round: def. Ellis Ferriera (Alabama), 7-6, 7-6

Second Round: def. Brice Karsh (Tennessee), 6-3, 3-6, 6-3

Quarterfinal: def. Malivai Washington (Michigan), 6-3, 6-3

Semifinal: def. Greg Failla (Southern Cal), 6-2, 6-0

Final: def. Stephen Enochs (Georgia), 2-6, 6-2, 6-1

Tamer El Sawy1993 NCAA Singles Semifinalist

Arguably the best player to ever play for LSU, Tamer El Sawy capped off his career with the Tigers with one of the best individual seasons in school history. El Sawy posted a 39-5 overall record and reached the semifinals of the NCAA singles tournament in 1993. He breezed through the first three rounds of draw before beating Roland Thornqvist of North Carolina in three sets in the quarterfinal. El Sawy, the No. 3 seed, then dropped a three-set match No. 1-ranked Chris Woodruff of Tennessee. The El Sawy-Woodruff semifinal match was said to be the best match of the tournament and it was only fitting that it would be the last match El Sawy would play at LSU.

El Sawy at the 1993 NCAA Singles Tournament

First Round:	def. Chris Pressley (Duke), 4-6, 6-0, 6-2
Second Round:	def. Fredrik Axsater (San Diego), 6-2, 6-0

Quarterfinal:	def. Roland Thornqvist (N. Carolina), 6-7, 6-4, 6-4
Semifinal:	lost to Chris Woodruff (Tenn.), 6-2, 5-7, 6-3

Michael Wesbrooks & JuhaPesola*1993 NCAA Doubles Semifinalists

Michael Wesbrooks and Juha Pesola put together one of the best doubles seasons in LSU history as the Tiger tandem posted a 23-2 overall record and advanced to the semifinals at the NCAA doubles tournament in 1993. Wesbrooks and Pesola, both seniors, were a perfect 12-0 in SEC action and had an incredible 20-1 mark in dual matches. At the NCAA doubles tournament, the duo posted three wins, two over seeded opponents, before losing to eventual champion Mark Merklein and David Blair of Florida in the semifinal. Wesbrooks and Pesola finished the year ranked No. 11 in the nation.

Wesbrooks & Pesola at the NCAA Doubles Tournament

First Round:	def. Martinez-Weaver (Texas A&M), 6-2, 5-7, 6-4

Semifinal:	lost to Merklein-Blair (Florida), 6-4, 6-4

Michal Chmela1999 ITA All-American Semifinalist

Michal Chmela, in his lone fall tournament of the season, became the first Tiger to advance to a Grand Slam semifinal in six years at the ITA All-American hosted by the University of Texas. Chmela, seeded-fourth knocked off three ranked opponents in straight sets to reach the round of four. There he fell to sixth-seeded Brian Vahaly of Virginia in a three-set thriller.

Ken Skupski2004 ITA All-American Semifinalist

Ken Skupski, knocked off three ranked opponents en route to the semifinals of the first tournament of his sophomore year. One of those wins was the biggest of his career; a quarterfinal upset of Old Dominion's ninth-ranked Izac van der Merwe. He was only slowed by second-ranked Sam Warburg of Stanford in the semifinals.

Skupski at the 2004 ITA All-American

First Round:	def. Greg Shearer (Fresno State), 6-2, 6-3

Semifinal:	lost to Sam Warburg (Stanford), 6-7, 1-6

Mark Growcott & Ken Skupski2005 NCAA Doubles Finalist

Ken Skupski and Mark Growcott posted the best doubles season in LSU history, battling their way through some of the nation's top doubles teams en route to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Doubles Championships. The Tiger tandem defeated No. 2 seeded K. C. Corkery and Sam Warburg of Stanford in straight sets in the semifinal round to become the first LSU pair to reach the title match. Skupski and Growcott ended the season with 34-10 record, including a 9-2 mark in the SEC, and set a school record for most doubles victories in a season.

Skupski & Growcott at the NCAA Doubles Tournament

Camp directors Jeff Brown and Tony Minnis are both proven collegiate tennis players and coaches of nationally-ranked tennis programs. They each have the necessary skills and knowledge to improve the play of athletes ages 7-17. Co-Director Steve Carter has owned and operated tennis camps for 23 years. His camps have been noted for hard work and fun. The Carter-Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp is equally excited to train anyone from beginners to tournament players. The Carter-Brown-Minnis Tiger Tennis Camp experience is enhanced by the added direction of LSU assistant coaches Danny Bryan and Lisa Jackson. The W.T. "Dub" Robinson Tennis Stadium plays host to the camp each year. The Robinson Tennis Stadium is located on the west side of LSU's campus and boasts 12 collegiate outdoor courts.

2012 Camp Dates:

(Full-Day, Half-Day and Overnight Camps available)

CAMP 1: JUNE 3-7

CAMP 2: JULY 8-12

CAMP 3: JULY 15-19

Camp Philosophy

Desire, sportsmanship and hard work are the fundamental characteristics of a true champion. The staff will seek to instill this philosophy and have each camper set goals and work hard to achieve them.

The Program

The instructional program includes six to eight hours per day on the tennis courts. There is a strong emphasis on fundamentals and consistency of performance. Campers will be involved in match play.

Camp Format

Individualized instruction is provided by experienced, dedicated instructors. We maintain a low teacher-student ratio, as well as daily running and physical conditioning period. Campers will receive constant training in the following areas:

- Stroke production, techniques and fundamentals.
- Drill situations to groove technique.
- Physical training; running, strength and agility.
- Match competition featuring singles, doubles and strategy.

Bottom Line

Camp is about building character. It is about hard work, sportsmanship and learning to interact with instructors and fellow campers. Most of all, it is about tennis - playing tennis to one's potential- and the opportunity for your child to develop his or her skill.

Sessions

Four week-long camps will be offered each summer. The camps typically run from 2 p.m. on Sunday until Thursday at noon. Campers may enroll in one session or more. For brochures, other camp information or to register and sign up, please visit tigertenniscamps.com.
