Jeff Brown

HEAD COACH

YEAR AT LSU: 18TH

BIRTHDATE: NOV. 15, 1966

BIRTHPLACE: DUBUQUE, IOWA

📧 @LSUCoachJBrown

Jeff Brown has been a part of LSU tennis for almost half his life, playing a major role in nearly all of the most successful teams in the program's history. Now entering into his 18th season as the Tigers' head coach, Brown has done more than just maintain the standards of excellence that have characterized LSU tennis since his days as a player here. He has raised the bar substantially.

Brown took the reins of the program in 1998 after serving as an assistant to Jerry Simmons for three seasons. He was an All-American doubles player for LSU in 1988 and spent five years on the professional circuit. Brown led the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Championships in 1998 and 1999, becoming the first person in league history to do so in his first two seasons as head coach. The Tigers also won the SEC Tournament both years.

He has since proven those feats were more than just beginner's luck. Brown quickly earned respect among his peers due to his lengthy list of achievements. Brown has taken his teams to the NCAA Tournament in 15 out of 17 years, and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2013. He has coached 16 All-Americans in his tenure, and after young teams fell out of the top 20 in 2002 and 2003, he brought the team back to the national spotlight in 2004. In 2005, Brown helped the Tigers return to the top 10 for the first time since 1998 with a 21-9 overall record and a tie for third place in the SEC.

With Brown at the helm, the Tigers have finished in the top 10 three times during his tenure. But he's not ready to stop there. More than anyone, Brown himself would like to get back to the top of the conference because he remembers the thrill of being a part of championship teams.

"The years when we won the SEC and got to the Final Fours set the standard that we want to get back to," he said. "When you have a couple of years where you don't make it, you really appreciate it, and you're hungry for more."

Brown has put his Tigers in position to succeed on and off the court. Brown helped setup "Duel Under the Oaks" on October 29, 2006, a charity event held on LSU's campus that helped raise more than $400,000 for LSU Health Sciences Center students impacted by the hurricanes that ripped through Louisiana in 2005. The event included a youth tennis clinic, tennis exhibitions with LSU tennis players and local celebrities and the main event of an exhibition match with former tennis pros Pete Sampras against Todd Martin at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. The event was such a success that LSU hosted "Dual Under the Oaks II" in December 2008. During Brown's LSU tenure, the Tigers have had 3 SEC Scholar Athlete's of the Year, 13 Academic All-Americans and 63 SEC Honor Roll members.

The Tigers were honored by the NCAA in 2008 for their Academic Progress Rate score. The Tigers scored a perfect APR of 1000 in the report by the NCAA. The LSU men's tennis team scored the highest among LSU sports for the third year in a row. The NCAA recognized college sports teams from around the country that achieved an APR score in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. The LSU men's tennis team is one of only 10 sports teams out of 236 squads in the entire Southeastern Conference that were recognized for academic achievement by the NCAA, and it is the only men's tennis team in the SEC to achieve the honor. In 2014, the Tigers received the received their fourth NCAA Public Recognition Award for their exceptional work in the classroom as part of the NCAA's Academic Performance Program.

When Brown took over the program in 1998, he was already well acquainted with the demands of being successful in college tennis. He enjoyed tremendous success as a player at LSU from 1985-88, as evidenced by his two All-SEC awards. He joined the Tiger tennis elite in his senior season when he eclipsed the 100-career victory mark. That same year he captained LSU's only NCAA finals team. He still has the fifth-most wins of any player in LSU history. Brown helped lead the Tigers to an 85-35 record as an assistant coach from 1994-97. LSU finished in the top-10 three of those four years.

"To be a part of LSU from so many angles, first as a player, then as an assistant and now as a head coach has been wonderful," Brown said. "The tradition that has been here is that we're competing for championships and we're going to fight you to the end. That's the thing that's always been known about LSU in most sports and particularly tennis.

"LSU's overall sports excellence helps because our guys are around other people who are used to winning. Athletes here run into each other often and it's almost like there's a silent competition amongst the sports. You are pulling for each other of course, but at the same time you're driven not to fall behind the other sports on campus."

"Jeff represents what the LSU tennis program is all about," said Hall of Fame coach Jerry Simmons, who coached Brown on the 1988 LSU team that reached the NCAA Tournament championship match. Brown was team captain that year, leading the Tigers to a 27-2 record. Three years earlier as a freshman, Brown won a crucial SEC match at No. 4 singles that enabled LSU to win the conference crown.

"I knew as a player that I probably wanted to be a coach," Brown said. "I could see that it was something that kept you young and kept you around young people. Everyone I came in contact with as a player has had some influence on me as a coach."

Brown came across quite a few tennis legends as a player. He earned his degree at LSU in 1989 while serving as an assistant coach, and then left Baton Rouge for the ATP tour. He won the doubles title at the Volvo International in 1990 and advanced to the round of 16 at the U.S. Open by beating the team of Pete Sampras and Jim Courier in the first round. Brown also advanced to the round of 16 at both the Australian Open and Wimbledon. His No. 47 international ranking in doubles is the second highest ranking ever for a former LSU player, behind only former Tiger Ken Skupski who was ranked No. 44 in doubles.

Brown married the former Deborah Schaeffer of Colorado Springs, Colo., on Nov. 19, 1999. They have two young boys, Connor (9) and Cameron (7).

Danny Bryan

ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR AT LSU: 7TH

BIRTHDATE: DEC. 15, 1985

BIRTHPLACE: LAFAYETTE, LA.

🐦 @LSUDannyBryan

Danny Bryan stepped onto the court as an assistant coach for LSU in 2009, but it was not the first time Bryan stepped onto the court for the Tigers. Bryan served as a volunteer coach in fall 2008 and was a four-year letterman for the Tigers from 2003-07.

As an assistant coach, Bryan is instrumental in one-on-one instruction, and at one of his first tournaments in his new position, Bryan coached former LSU standout Michael Venus in the final match at the D'Novo All-American Championships where Venus became the first Tiger to win the title in the history of the program.

With experience in three different facets of LSU tennis and almost a lifetime geared toward the game, Bryan helped guide the Tigers along with head coach Jeff Brown to another season in the national spotlight during his inaugural year. The team earned a No. 28 billing at the close of the 2009 season as well as an NCAA Tournament berth.

Bryan has been a mainstay on the courts of the "Dub" for more than eight years now, but his journey toward LSU began long ago. Tennis runs through his veins, passed down through his father and three uncles that played collegiate tennis, as well as a grandfather that played on the pro circuit.

After cracking the starting lineup his freshman year, he served as a leader both on and off the court. Bryan served as a co-captain for the Tigers his junior and senior seasons, and the New Orleans native made an impact in Louisiana, the Southeastern Conference and the national rankings. Bryan earned First-Team All-Louisiana honors for three consecutive years. In 2007, he earned First-Team All-SEC honors and finished his senior season at No. 40 in the ITA singles rankings and No. 6 in doubles with partner Colt Gaston.

Bryan made an impact on the LSU record books as well. He sits tied at 14th in career singles wins at 84 with LSU greats Dan Kiernan, Gus Fernandez and Jason Hazely. His doubles campaign was no less impressive as he capped his senior season by winning the 2007 SEC Indoor Championships with partner Gaston and captured 110 career doubles win to earn Doubles All-America status.

The culmination of an impressive career on the courts as well as outstanding leadership ability earned Bryan the 2007 ITA National Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Not only did he shine on the courts, his service work allowed him to shine in the community as well. From 2005-07 Bryan was named to the Southeastern Conference Community service team, and in 2007, his efforts earned him 2007 LSU Male Volunteer of the Year.

Bryan married former LSU gymnast Jade Jenkins on Jan. 2, 2010. They have one son, Parker (4).

The LSU Men's Tennis team enjoyed a productive fall season, which saw the Tigers compete in several tournaments and build momentum as the spring dual season approaches in the always-competitive Southeastern Conference. LSU will host its first home match of the season on Sunday, Jan. 18 as the Tigers play host to Lamar.

The team looks to continue assimilating several new players including freshmen William Adkisson and Simon Freund as well as University of Virginia transfer, Jordan Daigle. Daigle, a Lafayette native, comes into the year with high expectations after a successful freshman season at Virginia earned him a No. 57 preseason ranking from the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

Lone senior Chris Simpson paced the Tigers in fall play as his nine 9-5 record in singles play led the team. Junior Boris Arias was not far behind with seven victories and sophomore Justin Butsch showed signs of a special second season with six wins this fall including a victory over No. 46 Jeremy Efferding of Texas A&M University.

The Tigers hope to carry the positive momentum into their conference schedule, which opens in Baton Rouge on Friday, Feb. 27 against Kentucky. LSU will look to improve on their 2-10 SEC record last season. Key home matchups include Friday, Mar. 27 against Ole Miss and Thursday, Apr. 9 against Texas A&M. The spring schedule also features several opportunities for LSU to square off against in-state rivals in Baton Rouge. LSU will play Nicholls State on Sunday, Jan. 18, Tulane on Sunday, Feb. 22 and the University of New Orleans on Sunday, Mar. 15.

Head coach Jeff Brown is also closing in on being the all-time winningest coach in LSU history. Brown, who currently has 268 wins under his belt, needs ten more wins in order to achieve the milestone. Jerry Simmons currently holds the record with 278 wins.

This season will serve as the "farewell tour" for LSU's "Dub" Robinson Stadium as construction on a brand new indoor and outdoor tennis facility will be complete in time for next season and the team will move all competition and team operations there.

For up-to-date information and behind the scenes access on the Tigers, fans can follow the LSU men's tennis team on Twitter and Instagram at @lsutennis and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/lsutennis.

TENNIS STADIUM

The facility provides six varsity courts with an additional six practice courts. The newly resurfaced varsity courts received new tower lights prior to 2007 and also feature an electronic scoreboard, while the practice courts received new surfaces in the spring of 2001. Robinson stadium accommodates up to 550 fans including a ground-floor viewing area for handicapped tennis fans.

The nationally-ranked Tigers enjoy state-of-the-art locker rooms, a squad room and brand-new showers and bathrooms. The facility was completely refurbished after the 2002 season to include a media room as well as an equipment room.

The New LSU Tennis Facility

LSU tennis will soon have a new home. The new tennis facility, which is located on Gourrier Avenue across from Alex Box Stadium, is scheduled to be completed in May 2015. There will be 12 championship outdoor courts with a full stadium and six indoor championship courts with a full stadium. The facility will include coaches offices and locker rooms, equipment room, laundry room, team lounge, study room, weight/cardio, training room, team locker room, visiting team and locker room.

Nationally-Recognized Weight Room

The Operations Center Weight Room was named the nation's No. 2-ranked college weight room by ESPN's Bruce Feldman in June 2010.

Strength & CONDITIONING

The Operations Center houses one of the most complete strength training facilities in the nation. Completed in 2006, the weight room area includes 16 multi-purpose platform, bench, incline, squat and Olympic lifting stations, along with 12 dumbbell bench stations.

Custom Weights

Custom iron-grip dumbbells, weights and equipment made by Body Masters and Eleiko. ▶

▼ The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Athletic TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both facilities are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard Training Center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC Training Center

The two-story, 22,000-square-foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600-square-foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Road To Recovery

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation in getting its student-athletes back on the track in a timely manner following an injury. The training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks “outside the box.” LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

Real-Time X-Rays

A new state-of-the-art fluoroscope was added in the summer of 2008 that provides LSU trainers the opportunity to take x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images of the internal structures of a patient.

Rehabilitation

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training boasts some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's student-athletes.

Why LSU?

"I wouldn't be the player or person I am today without the great experience I had at LSU both on and off the court. The tennis program is run in a professional manner. Coaches Jeff Brown and Danny Bryan give you all the tools you need to succeed. LSU has the best fans in the nation. Whether it's a football game in Tiger Stadium in the fall or a tennis match in the spring, you won't find a better place to play or live."

James Cluskey
2005-09

"LSU was a fantastic place to study, socialize and continue with my tennis career. Coach Jeff Brown was a fantastic mentor who developed me into a tennis player capable of challenging at the top of the world. I consider my decision to attend LSU as the most important of my life. I am very proud of my achievements in the purple and gold colors."

Ken Skupski
2003-07

"LSU was instrumental in developing me as a tennis player and person. The environment and culture surrounding LSU tennis along with the guidance of coach Jeff Brown has given me the opportunity to play professional tennis."

Colt Gaston
2003-08

"Making the decision to go to LSU was one that definitely changed my life. During my years at LSU I feel that coach Jeff Brown and the other coaches changed my game for the better. The coaches were very laid back but had this way of helping you stay calm and motivated and positive about everything, and I believe that is a big reason why I was able to take my tennis to the next level. I feel very proud to say that I played tennis for LSU. Having LSU athletics on my résumé has opened up opportunities that I didn't think would be possible before college, such as a sponsorship with Dunlop and coaching and traveling with professional tennis players. I can honestly say that I would not be where I am today if it wasn't for LSU."

Michael Venus
2007-10

A three-time All-American, Ken Skupski has the fourth-most career wins in Tiger Tennis history.
