CO-HEAD COACH ANDY BRANDI

YEAR AT LSU: 1ST
BIRTHDATE: AUG. 17, 1952
BIRTHPLACE: SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO
@brandi_andy

One of the most successful coaches in the history of college tennis, Andy Brandi joins the LSU men's tennis program in 2017 as co-head coach along with his son Chris.

Andy Brandi comes to LSU after serving on the United States Tennis Association (USTA) Player Development staff as a national coach since 2010.

Prior to his stint with the USTA, Andy Brandi worked at the IMG Bollettieri Academy, the Everett Academy and the Harold Hopman Tennis Institute before joining the USTA in 2010.

As the head women's tennis coach at Florida from 1985-2001, Andy Brandi led the Gators to three NCAA National Titles (1992, 1996, 1998) and to six National Team Indoor Championships (1989, 1991, 1992, 1996, 1998, 1999). He also guided the Florida women to 14 Southeastern Conference titles in his 17 seasons.

In addition to his three NCAA national titles, his teams finished as national runners-up at the NCAA Tournament five times and never finished lower than second in the SEC regular season standings.

Andy Brandi was inducted into the University of Florida Hall of Fame in 2006. In 1996 and 1998, he earned Coach of the Year honors from the United States Professional Tennis Registry, recognizing teaching excellence in the sport of tennis. In 1989 and 1996, he was voted the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year.

While at Florida, Andy Brandi coached four NCAA women's singles champions and four NCAA doubles champions.

Under Andy Brandi, the Gators posted a 460-43 overall record, which included three undefeated seasons and three other years in which they lost only one match. Andy Brandi's Florida teams had a 114-match regular season winning streak and overall winning streaks of 62 and 53 matches.

His overall winning percentage of 91.5 percent ranks as the highest for any coach in the history of women's collegiate tennis with at least five years of experience.

During his time as the Gators' head coach, Andy Brandi propelled Florida into a national powerhouse. The Gator women never lost a home match, dropped only five SEC dual matches and claimed nine SEC Tournament titles in Andy Brandi's 17 years.

Thirteen student-athletes at Florida won 24 Grand Slam titles under Andy Brandi, and he coached 25 student-athletes to 68 All-America honors and 38 student-athletes to 108 All-SEC honors.

Every freshman who played four seasons under Andy Brandi earned All-SEC honors, competed for the national title and was part of at least three SEC Championship teams during their careers.

Andy Brandi played collegiate tennis at Trinity University in San Antonio and afterward trained with the legendary Harry Hoffman, working to establish himself on the pro circuit. After finding his calling to become a coach, he went on tour for top 10 WTA players Kathy Rinaldi and Carling Bassett.

Throughout his career, he has coached professionals such as Olympic Gold medalist Elena Dementieva, Shahar Peer, Maria Kirilenko, Lisa Raymond, Ryan Sweeting and Jesse Levine.

Andy Brandi earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1975 from Trinity University.

LSU TENNIS COMPLEX

In August 2015, the tennis programs opened the state-of-the-art LSU Tennis Complex. With more than 160,000 square feet of space, the facility features championship-caliber courts with 12 outdoors and six indoors. Housed inside the indoor facility are players' lounges, locker rooms, cardio room, satellite training room and coaches' offices for both the men's and women's teams.

Dual matches take place on the north side of the facility at the W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Championship courts. The six remaining outdoor courts are located on the south side and allow the facility to host two matches at one time.

Fans may enjoy all the action with excellent sight lines from a total of 1,400 seats facing the 12 outdoor courts. The six indoor courts allow the Tigers to host different tournaments in front of more than 300 fans above the playing surface. The new facility also guarantees that both teams will never miss a practice or match due to unfavorable weather conditions.

Point-by-point scoring is available through

Daktronics scoreboards on all 18 courts within the facility for an enhanced fan experience. Each set of courts also features a larger scoreboard with scores from all six courts. Fans off-site can track live matches online through StatBroadcast (www.LSUstats.com), which is directly linked to each judge's controller. With the start of the 2018 season, fans will also be able to watch tennis matches live through PlaySight, which is accessible at LSUsports.net/tennisvideo.

Spectators will also benefit from a permanent concession stand located on the west side of the facility between the two sets of outdoor courts. Members of the media will be able to provide coverage in the press box facing the W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Championship courts.

The LSU tennis programs are already reaping the benefits of the opening of the new facility. The men's team hosted the ITA Southern Regional in 2017, while the women hosted the SEC Tournament in April 2016.

The LSU Tennis Complex is located on Gourrier Avenue across from LSU Baseball's Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field. The LSU Tennis Complex replaces W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Stadium, which had served as home of both men's and women's tennis programs since 1976.

MICHAEL VENUS

2008 D'Novo/All-American Champion

2008 All-American Singles

Michael Venus defeated the nation's No. 1 player Oleksandr Nedovyesov of Oklahoma State University to win the 2008 D'Novo All-American Championship, becoming the first in school history to win the title.

"LSU has had many great players in the history of the program. For Michael to be the first to win speaks to both the prestige of the tournament and to his level of play," LSU head coach Jeff Brown said. "It's also validation of the program in all that we are doing in practice, weights and conditioning is getting results."

As Venus, No. 20 in preseason ITA rankings, and Nedovyesov squared off, the 6-3 LSU senior was battling severe knee pain. Venus was able to capture the first set by a 7-6 (5) mark, but faltered in the following set, allowing Nedovyesov to post a 6-2 mark. "Michael lost concentration in the second set and the match could have easily slid downhill," LSU assistant coach Danny Bryan said. "His knee was hurting him so badly, I thought he was going to have to stop the match, but he was able to fight through it and that's what made the third set so amazing."

After a close first set and falling in the second, Venus was able to overcome both the physical and mental hurdle his knee caused and capture the match in a stellar third set performance.

Venus posted a 6-4 mark to win the set and the championship match. "Winning felt good. I was hurting and as I got into the third set, Danny motivated me and reminded me of how hard I had worked. It gave me the motivation I needed to push through when things got tough," Venus said.

Venus' run at the 2008 ITA All-American advanced him over six ranked opponents in the ITA's preseason rankings. Venus began his campaign on a solid note as he knocked off No. 98 Roy Kalmanovich of Illinois, 6-2, 6-2, before moving into the second round to defeat No. 23 Jaime Hunt of Georgia, 6-4, 7-6(8). The highlight of Venus' performance prior to the finals would be his victory over No. 4 Alex Clayton of Stanford. He advanced in straight sets over Clayton, 6-4, 6-1, moving into the tournament quarterfinals.

In the quarterfinals, Venus defeated Arkansas' Blake Strode, No. 41, in a heated match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, to catapult him into the semis where the senior would overcome No. 31 Enrique Olivares of East Tennessee State, 7-6 (3), 6-1, creating history by becoming the first Tiger to ever advance into the finals at the ITA All-American.
