2004 Season Preview

Armed and

For the first time in years, the LSU volleyball team has been blessed with experience, talent and depth, a trio of qualities the Tigers believe will be the formula to help them compete for their first Southeastern Conference Western Division title.

Returning five position starters and the libero, LSU now has the much-needed game experience it was lacking last season when the Tigers had only four returning letterwinners.

This season, the Tigers also add a pair of decorated transfers with two years of collegiate experience each. Joining them are six talented freshmen that will vie for playing time and provide depth to the LSU team at several key positions.

"The thing that I am most excited about this season is that we are not looking at one or two people in each position, we are looking at three or four people at each position," said LSU head coach Fran Flory. "The quality of the second group and of the third group is not very far from the quality of the first group.

"I also think we are going to have some nice balance," Flory said. "I think we are going to have some competition for playing time and starting positions and that's the first time, maybe since I've been at LSU, that we're going to have that type of depth."

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

The middle blockers will be one of the key strengths for the Tigers this season. LSU returns senior All-SEC selection Regan Hood (Carrollton, Texas) and adds junior transfer Ivana Kuzmic (Split, Croatia) from Arkansas-Little Rock, who was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team each of her first two seasons.

The most experienced player on the team, Hood has led the Tigers in block solos, block assists and total blocks for the last two seasons. She is the only player to record more than 100 blocks in either of the past two seasons, and has accomplished the feat both years. Hood is also a well-rounded player that is capable of seeing playing time at the outside hitter position after leading LSU in kills a year ago.

Kuzmic joins the team after leading the nation in blocks as a freshman in 2002, recording 216 total blocks for a 2.08 blocks per game average. In addition, she led the Sun Belt in blocks per game last season, averaging 1.31 blocks per game while breaking the UALR single-season record for solo blocks.

"Potentially our middles could be two of the most dominant middles in the conference," said Flory. "I think the addition of Ivana, not just as a physically imposing force, but as somebody who is very experienced and proven collegiate player is going to be a huge attribute.

"If in fact Regan ends up in the middle, where she has played the last three years, she has already proven that she can be a significant force and be one of the top players in the league in that position," said Flory. "The thing that we will probably do with Regan is use her versatility a little more than we have in the past."

After seeing considerable playing time as a freshman last season, Melody Clark (Colorado Springs, Colo.) returns for her sophomore campaign where she will serve as a solid backup to Hood and Kuzmic on the front line.

"Melody Clark has done a tremendous job this spring and developed into somebody who will definitely add to the depth if we move Regan to the outside or move Ivana to the outside or right side," said Flory.

Freshman Mina Spasojevic (Belgrade, Serbia) joins the team from Serbia, where she earned international experience as her club team placed second in the Yugoslavian national championships.

"There is nothing to say except that experience makes players a whole lot better and it is great to have Mina and Ivana as experienced players in the middle," said Flory. They will shore our defense and offense as well. I think the middle is going to be a very solid position."

OUTSIDE HITTERS

This season LSU will have some options at outside hitter that they haven't had over the last few years. With additional talent and numbers this season, the Tigers will be able to play to the situation rather than be forced into a rotation because of personnel.

"I think the competition for outside positions is going to be very intense and we are going to have some ability to adapt to who we are playing and what our strengths are," said Flory. "The key will be who can terminate offensively, and secondarily, who can ball control and keep the ball in play for us."

While Hood will split time at both middle blocker and outside hitter, the Tigers will predominantly rely on sophomore Lauren Leamont (New Orleans, La.), who was named the 2003 Louisiana Freshman of the Year and was also a member of the inaugural SEC All-Freshman team.

Sophomore Kassi Mikulik (Flatonia, Texas) also returns to the outside after recording the third-most kills on the team a year ago.

"Lauren Leamont returns and she is just a solid force," said Flory. "She is very consistent and gives us some nice opportunities. She is going to put up three kills a game for us. Kassi Mikulik also returns after a nice freshman year."

Redshirt freshman Vanessa Freeman (Granger, Texas) should also make an immediate contribution in her first season of collegiate play because of her commanding presence and strength.

"Vanessa Freeman made a nice impact in the spring, playing for the first time," said Flory. "She is a physically imposing, terminating-type of player.

"The nice thing about our outside position is that we are going to have some nice balance and some nice depth so the competition at that position should be pretty tough."

In addition, the Tigers bring in junior transfer Jelena Mijatovic (Belgrade, Serbia) and freshman Kate Spytek (Pewaukee, Wisc.) Mijatovic was a first-team All-Great Lake Conference selection in her first two seasons at Northwood University in Michigan.

"You add Jelena to the mix, who is a very experienced player who has played at a high level internationally," said Flory. "Kate will take a little time to develop because she has middle blocked for most of her career, but she is going to end up being an outside and have a good opportunity to play fairly early."

RIGHT SIDE

LSU has several players that could see time on the right side. Clark and Spasojevic could see action when not playing in the middle, while Spytek may see time when not on the outside.

Sophomore Lacey Galliano (Baton Rouge, La.) returns after seeing action on the right side last year. She also adds depth to the position again this season.

"Mina, Melody and Kate will probably have the best opportunity to play on the right side," said Flory. "You can add Lacey to the mix. She did a nice job this past year in that situation."

SETTERS

Daniela Romero (Arlington, Texas) returns healthy for 2004 after being plagued by a leg condition her freshman season. She ranked ninth in the league last season in assists per game and was an honorable mention All-Louisiana selection.

"We're going to have some depth at setter as well," said Flory. "With Dee returning healthy it is a huge plus for us."

The Tigers also bring in freshman Heather Fierce (Muncie, Ind.) , who should battle for playing time in her first season. In addition to being a member of two all-state teams, she was named to the 2001 Junior Olympic All-Tournament team. Senior Beth Cowley (Louisville, Ky.) gives the Tigers one more option at the position after setting for the last three seasons, although she will mostly see action defensively.

"Signing Heather was great," said Flory. "She is an experienced player, has played for an outstanding junior club with great training and great knowledge. Her coaches have certainly prepared her very well to make the next step and run an offense quickly in her career. Beth adds depth, but she will probably move to the libero position more than set this year."

LIBERO

Senior Rachel Pittman (Slidell, La.) will return after starting the 2003 season at libero for the Tigers. In addition, Cowley will make the transition into defensive specialist from setter this season.

2004 Season Preview

Freshmen Michelle Hensgens (Morgan City, La.) and Sara Greco (Metairie, La.) will also pressure the seniors for playing time.

"I look for Beth and Rachel to be the top two going into pre-season, but Michelle Hensgens and Sara Greco will definitely add some pressure and have an opportunity to play there," said Flory."

One change for the 2004 season involves the libero position. In previous years, the libero was not allowed to serve. This year, the player will be allowed to serve in one designated position for the game. The libero may still replace any back row player, but will also be allowed to serve for one specified player throughout a game.

SCHEDULE

LSU has an outstanding schedule in 2004, including three pre-conference tournaments and one late in the season. The Tigers are hosting two of the four tournaments on their schedule along with eight SEC matches, which will give the fans 12 opportunities to see LSU in action at home this season.

"I think the schedule caters well to the group that we have," said Flory. "I think this could be a tremendous year for us."

Incorporated into the Tigers' eight-match pre-conference schedule are two teams, Liberty and Central Florida, which won their respective league titles and posted 20-win seasons last year.

In addition, IPFW posted 20 wins while finishing second in the NCAA Division I Independent Tournament, and Stephen F. Austin had 19 wins and finished second in its conference. Texas posted a winning record in the always-competitive Big 12 and just missed an NCAA Tournament bid.

"The focus this season was to try to play people who have won championships and just about everybody on our schedule were 20-game winners last year and/or conference champions," said Flory. They are returning some nice players and should have very successful seasons.

"Central Florida and Texas are probably the two most difficult matches in preseason. Those will be key matches for us in our pre-season as we get ready for conference. The other teams are outstanding that maybe don't have the notoriety, but have had very successful season the last two-three years."

After concluding the SEC schedule, the Tigers will host the SEC/C-USA Challenge on Thanksgiving weekend. LSU and Alabama will take on Houston and 2003 20-match winner Tulane.

"Playing on Thanksgiving weekend for the first time in a few years and especially at home with Conference USA will be nice for us," said Flory. "The SEC has typically matched up well with Conference USA and compared to us, so we thought that it was a great opportunity for us to play teams that are well respected in that conference. They have been very successful in the last few years and will have a chance to be at the top of their conference."

The SEC schedule will be tough as always as the Tigers will face defending national runners-up Florida twice. LSU will also play a pair of matches against divisional rival Arkansas, which advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament last season.

"I think the SEC will be an interesting race this year," said Flory. "I think that in terms of the West Division, there aren't a lot of dominant players that are coming back. Alabama returns Erin Heffner, certainly an outstanding player, but the team concept will be very important. We were all very young last year and much of this season will be how those young players developed and how the teams melted together and became solid cohesive units."

"I think the West is going to be a dogfight as it usually is. Arkansas has been able to stay ahead of everybody for the last few years and hopefully we have taken a step closer, but certainly we'll have to prove that on the court," Flory continued. "We feel that we have some players that are capable of playing at that level."

"Overall Florida certainly has to be the choice to win the conference again, but I think they are going to be young, they've lost some key players and a lot is going to depend on how their youth and the players that were in support roles last year step into key roles this year."

2004 NCAA VOLLEYBALL RULE CHANGES

Media Equipment and Personnel. - Under the old rule, media equipment and personnel were restricted from a 2-meter area around the court and from the playing area between the two attack lines extended. The rule was changed to establish the media area as within one meter of the boundary defining the playable area, and to clarify that media is not allowed in front of the team benches or between the attack lines on the bench side of the court.

Libero Serving. - The original intent of the libero position was to create a defensive ball-handling specialist. By allowing the libero to serve, a team will be able to put their best six players on the court for a larger percentage of the game, and individual players are given another opportunity to play. This rules change will allow the libero player to serve in one position designated for the game. Coaches must still designate the number of the libero player before the game, but can designate the rotation the libero will serve in at any time during the game.

Libero Serving. - The current rule states that there must be a rally between two libero replacements. To allow the libero to serve, an exception will be made to this ruling. The libero will be allowed to replace the server without leaving the game for a rally.

Libero Uniform. - The language describing the libero's uniform has been modified to require the libero to wear a uniform shirt or jacket that is immediately recognized from all angles as being in clear contrast to and distinct from the other members of the team. Any color that appears on more than 25 percent of the body of the non-libero team members' uniform may not be the principal color of the libero's uniform. In determining the body of the uniforms, the sleeves and collar should be ignored.

Contact with the ball. - Contact with the ball made only by hair is usually insignificant contact and should be ignored. Adding this language would be consistent with other parts of the rules book.

Player contact with the net. - The language regarding player faults at the net has been clarified regarding insignificant contact that should not be penalized. Some actions of play may include actions in which players do not actually touch the ball (i.e., players faking an attack hit or attempting to block), but there is insignificant net contact.

Fran Flory Volleyball

It hasn't taken Fran Flory long to turn around the LSU volleyball program. She took over a team that had hit rock bottom in 1997 and has methodically turned it into a team that expects to win every time it steps on the court. From 0-15 in the SEC the season prior to her arrival to a 25-22 league mark over the last three years, Flory has made her impact felt on the court. With her ability to identify and develop talent, relate to her players and surround herself with top-notch assistant coaches, Fran Flory has made this a great time to be a part of LSU volleyball.

"LSU has everything a student-athlete could ask for, from the facilities to the administration. We expect to win championships and every LSU student-athlete has those expectations. Our teams are committed to winning both on the court and in the classroom.

"Team togetherness and team ownership are two very important factors in our program. Our teams are committed not only to LSU, but also to each other. Team ownership is vital to the success of any team, company or organization. Everyone must have a clear understanding of the goals and direction of the program. We are very careful to define roles and responsibilities so everyone is headed in the same direction."

Flory came to LSU from the head coaching position at Kentucky, where she led the Wildcats to one NCAA Tournament appearance and was named the AVCA South District Coach of the Year in 1993. Prior to that, she served as an assistant at LSU where she helped the Tigers to three SEC Championships and two Final Four appearances.

Now, entering her seventh season, Flory will continue to build on the solid foundation that she has laid out for the LSU volleyball program and continue to design her program around the fundamentals that have made her a success at every stop of her coaching career.

Speaking of Coach Fran Flory

"Fran is one of the finest people I have ever met. I have had the pleasure of watching her become one of the finest coaches in our profession. It would be an honor to have my daughter play for her. She has great enthusiasm, is very easy to work with and has a true desire to be successful. She has my utmost admiration and support."

- Mick Haley,

Head coach at Southern California;
Head coach 2000 US Olympic Team

"Fran is one of the most remarkable people that I have had the pleasure of knowing. She has been a mentor and a friend throughout my playing and coaching career. She is one of those people who have the ability to make you feel that you have the strength and courage to accomplish anything and overcome any obstacle."

- Julie Stempel Ibieta,

Head coach University of New Orleans,
LSU volleyball player (1988-91)

EDUCATION FIRST

A staple of the LSU program since Flory arrived in 1998 has been the tremendous academic success of her players. The Tigers have placed more players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the last five years than any other school in the league. In four of the past five seasons, LSU has led the conference.

"Balancing a successful career in the classroom and on the court is a difficult task," said Flory. "It requires a great deal of discipline and commitment. Our staff truly understands what it takes and shares in the commitment to insure the academic and athletic success of our student-athletes."

BUILDING FOR SUCCESS IN LIFE

When athletes sign to play for coach Flory, they sign on not only to maximize their potential as a volleyball player, but also to maximize their potential as a person.

"My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life. When they graduate, I want them to truly feel prepared for the next step in their lives, whatever that may be. We are not just about developing successful volleyball players, our program is about developing successful people.

"Our philosophy is one that we all control our own destiny. Each day we make choices in all aspects of lives that will influence who and what we become. We strive to provide the freedom and correct environment to make the choices that will prepare our student-athletes for their future."

"My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life."

The Flory Mission

1. To win championships.
2. To help student-athletes develop to their full potential, both on the court and in the classroom.
3. To help each student-athlete earn her degree and prepare for the next step in their lives.

Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes

Critical to the development of an athlete as a student is an adequate academic facility and capable staff to further the athlete's progress. The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is responsible for overseeing the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes. The staff acts as a liaison between the student-athlete and the academic communities and insures that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference. The staff also coordinates academic programs designed to assist student-athletes in acquiring a quality education.

THE GOAL

For each student-athlete to reach and receive the highest-quality education and degree.

THE RESPONSIBILITY

To oversee the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes.

- ▶ Tutoring
- ▶ Career Counseling and Development
- ▶ Time Management
- ▶ Study Skills
- ▶ Insure that student-athletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and SEC

FACILITY BUILT BY THE TIGER ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

Paramount to the success of the “student” half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom. For more than 20 years, the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes opened its doors in November of 2002. A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory not only made it among the nation's premier centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

COMPUTER STATIONS

Throughout the Academic Center are 75 computer stations, providing student-athletes with a quiet working environment for research, writing and studying.

THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as group.

STUDY AREA

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM

LSU has led the SEC in the number of players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in four of the last five seasons. Since Fran Flory arrived in 1998, the Tigers have had the most honorees of any school in the league. The Honor Roll is based on grades from the previous academic year.

For three of the last four years, the volleyball team has been recognized by the American Volleyball Coaches Association for having one of the top team grade-point averages in the nation.

The Pete Maravich Assembly Center, which seats 14,164 people, is the largest volleyball venue in the Southeastern Conference. LSU has been able to use the PMAC as a great home court advantage since beginning play there in 1982. In that time, the Tigers have amassed an incredible 232-97 (.705) record at home. Twice in the last 20 years, LSU has put together undefeated seasons in the Assembly Center -- 1986 and 1991. In addition, the Tigers have produced home winning streaks of 37 and 30 matches.

The PMAC has hosted six NCAA Volleyball Tournament matches, including the 1991 South Regional which LSU won to advance to the Final Four. In the north end of the facility, there is an underground auxiliary gym, which provides the LSU volleyball team with its own practice facility. The PMAC also boasts a volleyball locker room which was renovated and has a player's lounge along with lockers for each athlete.

Locker Room

The LSU locker room is located in the northwest corner of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, directly between the playing floor of the PMAC and the auxiliary gym, which serves as the Tigers practice facility. The locker room, a two-tiered facility which is equipped with a players lounge, was remodeled prior to the 2000 season and has locker space for each athlete.

The LSU volleyball team has the luxury of its very own practice facility in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Located underground in the north portion of the arena, the auxiliary gym provides the Tigers with an area that can hold two volleyball courts side-by-side. The auxiliary gym is located just down the stairs from the LSU locker room.

Weight Room

LSU 2004

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment. Measuring 10,000-square feet, LSU has one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation.

LSU strength and conditioning team took a new direction in 2000 under strength coach Tommy Moffitt, who was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities.

- ▶ On-site x-ray room
- ▶ In-house full-service pharmacy
- ▶ In-house dental and vision centers
- ▶ A Hydrotherapy pool

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facility in all of collegiate athletics. Focused on aggressive rehabilitation, the Broussard Center for Athletic Training is furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. Some of the features of the 23,000-square foot facility include an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as state of the art hydrotherapy pools. The Broussard Center for Athletic Training is equipped with the largest hydrotherapy pools in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy. LSU is also the only school in college athletics with a training room equipped with a full-service vision center. The facility is named in honor of legendary trainer Dr. Martin J. Broussard, who served as LSU's athletic trainer for several decades.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

“THE MOST DIVERSE SCHOOL IN THE NATION.”

Newsweek magazine named Louisiana State University the “Most Diverse” school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003 issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

“LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY HAS A TRADITION OF GRATITUDE EXPRESSED IN SERVICE TO COMMUNITY AND COUNTRY.”

President George W. Bush
2004 LSU Spring Commencement

Strong supporters of education throughout the state have provided resources for a variety of innovative projects that are attracting world-class researchers and their expertise to LSU. The National Flagship Agenda is working to improve the standing of the University, as well as strengthen its position as an economic engine for the state of Louisiana. As a result, the University community is even more determined to achieve excellence at every level.

LSU remains firmly focused on attaining national flagship status by 2010, the University's 150th anniversary. The resolve of the LSU community and the support of the state make these goals attainable. And, if the last five years are any indication of success, the next phase of this agenda will guarantee LSU's place in the arena of national prominence.

Because of its designation as a doctoral/research university by the Carnegie Foundation, LSU ranks in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. This designation is shared by only 59 public and 29 private universities across the nation. LSU is also one of only 25 universities nationwide designated as both a land-grant and sea-grant college.

History and tradition began with LSU's founding in 1853 by the General Assembly of Louisiana as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy near Pineville, Louisiana. The institution opened January 2, 1860. When the Civil War began, the school's first superintendent, William Tecumseh Sherman, resigned to assume a command in the Union Army. The seminary reopened in 1869, but was soon destroyed by fire. The institution moved to Baton Rouge, opening on Nov. 1, 1869.

In 1870, the Seminary was renamed Louisiana State University. In 1874, under the United States Morrill Act, the Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans. The two institutions were merged by the Legislature in 1877 to become Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College.

Construction on the present campus began in 1922 and the first classes were held in 1926. LSU experienced major growth in the 1930s and 1940s, expanding its student body, curricula, and services. During the 1960s, the University began to place increasing emphasis on research.

Recognizing the importance and extent of statewide agricultural activities of units in the LSU System, the LSU Board of Supervisors established the Center for Agricultural Sciences & Rural Development in 1972. This unit was renamed the LSU Agricultural Center in 1982. Components of the LSU Agricultural Center include the Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station, the Louisiana

Cooperative Extension Service and International Programs.

The primary mission of the LSU Agricultural Center is to conduct research in agricultural and natural resource development and to provide off-campus extension education that disseminates technological, economic, and management information to Louisiana residents.

In 1977, the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, established as the LSU Law School in 1906, was made an autonomous division of the LSU System. The Law Center provides legal education characterized by an unyielding demand for academic excellence. Its unique curriculum, based on civil law as well as substantial elements of common law, provides law graduates with qualifications and training for not one, but two legal systems. The Hebert Law Center holds membership in the Association of Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association.

LSU, located on more than 2,000 acres in the southern part of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is bordered on the west by the Mississippi River. The University's more than 250 principal buildings are grouped on a 650-acre plateau that constitutes the main part of the campus.

LSU and A&M College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

City of Baton Rouge

Hospitality and comfort are a Southern tradition practiced to perfection around Baton Rouge.

Minutes from the city, ancient moss-draped oaks, fragrant honeysuckle, formal gardens and the finest examples of Southern architecture await. Combine this with the excitement of the mighty Mississippi River, cajun music and a gourmet meal that is topped with freshly brewed cafe-au-lait at one of Baton Rouge's fine restaurants. Mix in an autumn Saturday evening at Tiger Stadium, and Baton Rouge becomes one of the most attractive cities for living, entertainment and education in the South.

The state capitol building of Louisiana, located in Baton Rouge, is the tallest capitol building in the nation at 34 stories.

SPORTSMAN PARADISE

Louisiana offers some of the finest hunting, fishing and boating opportunities in the country.

Louisiana, one of America's most culturally and geographically diverse states, is located in the heart of the Deep South. Adjacent to the Gulf of Mexico and dotted with hundreds of lakes and bayous, Louisiana is home to all types of terrain from swamps and marshes to lush forests and gentle hills. The state is known for its charm and friendly people, and still maintains the stately antebellum plantations and majestic oaks of its early days. The atmosphere is elegant, yet relaxed and casual.

UNIQUE CULTURE

Louisiana is home to Mardi Gras, a two-week party that includes more than 60 parades and millions of visitors from around the world. All year long New Orleans Jazz, Creole culture, stately riverboats and some of the finest cuisine in the world is mixed into the diverse and renowned culture of Louisiana.

Dr. William L. Jenkins

President, LSU

On April 1, 1999, Dr. William L. Jenkins, formerly Chancellor of Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College, became president of the LSU System, which includes nine institutions on 10 campuses in five cities, as well as 10 public hospitals in 10 cities. With the departure of Chancellor Mark Emmert in mid-June, the LSU Board of Supervisors asked President Jenkins to again assume the role of Interim Chancellor until a successor can be selected.

A native of South Africa, Dr. Jenkins studied at the University of Pretoria, where he received his professional veterinary medicine degree in 1958 and specialist credentials in 1968. He received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, in 1970. After practicing veterinary medicine for four years, he joined the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology, & Toxicology in 1971.

He moved to the United States in 1978 and joined the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology & Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988, and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993.

When he was appointed LSU's fifth chancellor in November 1996, Dr. Jenkins reorganized the campus administration to be more effective and more responsive, and oversaw the development of a strategic plan to guide the University in its preparation for the challenges of the next century.

Over the years, Dr. Jenkins has received numerous teaching and service awards and recognitions, having been named the 1997 Communicator of the Year by the Public Relations Association of Louisiana and a Distinguished Alumnus by the University of Missouri in 1999. The regional chapter of Toastmasters International also presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award, and he was awarded the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, the University of Pretoria awarded an honorary doctoral degree to Dr. Jenkins in September 2000.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in continuing education and has delivered more than 150 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. He has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels. He has published more than 60 scientific articles and has contributed 15 chapters to various textbooks. He is co-author of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology.

Dr. Jenkins has been and continues to be a member of many professional organizations and select committees. Most recently he served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to review accreditation criteria for colleges and universities. Dr. Jenkins also is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society and currently serves on the Governor's Advisory Commission on Coastal Restoration and Conservation.

His current community engagements include serving on the boards of the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce, Academic Distinction Fund, Council for a Better Louisiana, Arts Council of Greater Baton Rouge, The Nature Conservancy of Louisiana, and the Baton Rouge board of the National Conference for Community and Justice.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children -Sharon, Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren- and nine grandchildren.

Kenneth E. Carpenter, Faculty Athletics Representative

Kenneth E. Carpenter is in his second year as LSU's faculty representative in NCAA and Southeastern Conference matters.

Carpenter, a professor in the School of Architecture, has taught at LSU since 1986. He received his bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma in 1962 and his master's from the University of Minnesota in 1967. Before joining the LSU faculty, he served at Clemson University as associate professor of architecture from 1967-77; at Ball State University, where he was professor and chairman of the Department of Architecture, 1977-81; and, at Iowa State University, serving as professor and chairman, Department of Architecture from 1981-86.

At LSU he served as the dean of the College of Design from 1986-1997; Interim Executive Director of International Programs from 1997-98; and, Interim Dean of the College of Art and Design from 2001-02.

Carpenter is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Institute of Architects, and the American Association of University Professors.

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman has made the seamless transition into the athletics director's chair with the same enthusiasm, vision and demand for excellence that were trademarks of his stellar coaching career.

In just three years as LSU's director of athletics, Bertman has already added to his impressive list of on-the-field achievements. Under his direction, LSU enjoyed arguably the greatest athletics year in the history of the institution in 2003-04. Three teams won national championships, nine teams finished in the nation's top ten, and fourteen teams ranked in the top 25. LSU teams also enjoyed improved grade point averages across the board, making the LSU student-athlete experience a success on and off the fields of competition.

While supervising the Tigers' progress on the playing fields, he has begun to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

Bertman is now in the midst of upgrading LSU's athletics complex. Working hand in hand with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, Bertman has already overseen the completion of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, while launching renovations to Tiger Stadium and the Maravich Center, and beginning construction on a new Football Operations Center.

It was also Bertman who took the bold but essential move to implement a seat contribution program in Tiger Stadium to fund facility improvements and ensure the financial stability of the LSU Athletics Department for the next decade.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on Jan. 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' $52 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2003.

In a Baseball America poll published in 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes and he was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -- Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertman's have three grandchildren -- Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard, and Samuel Aaron, the son of Drew and Lisa Pate.

Southeastern Conference

The 2000 Tigers faced Florida in the SEC Tournament final in Gainesville.

Year after year, the Southeastern Conference shows why it is considered to be one of the premier volleyball conferences in the nation. In the 1990's and continuing into the 2000's, the SEC made stellar contributions to the sport of volleyball.

The conference has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season for the last 14 years. The SEC had a team reach the Final Four nine of the last 14 seasons, with Florida advancing to the National Championship game last season against Southern California.

In 2003, Florida competed in its 13th straight NCAA Tournament. Arkansas was also selected to the field, making its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the league in 1991 brought the divisional format to the sport with five teams competing in the Eastern Division and six teams in the Western Division. The most recent change came in 1999 as the tournament format moved to an eight team field participating in a three-day league tournament.

Along with the popularity growth throughout the country, women's volleyball has also grown in the SEC. A benchmark in that growth came in 1995 when SEC volleyball was first broadcast on SEC-TV on a tape-delay basis. For the past nine seasons the coverage has grown, especially in the last four years, to live telecasts of several regular season matches and the SEC Tournament championship match. SEC volleyball will continue to enjoy live coverage on SEC-TV in 2004, reaching almost 22 million subscribers in the conference's nine-state region.

SEC Volleyball

A STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

- The 2003 season marked the 14th consecutive year the SEC has placed at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament.
- Nine of the 11 teams posted wins in double-digits, with three teams posting 20-plus wins in 2003. Florida led the way with 36 victories. Arkansas posted 27 wins, while Tennessee notched 22.
- Florida made its 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 13th in a row in 2003 on its way to the National Championship game. The Gators have advanced to at least the Regional Finals in 11 of the last 13 seasons.
- Florida's appearance in the National Championship game marked the first appearances by the SEC in the title game in conference history.
- Three players were named AVCA All-Americans and seven players were named to All-Region teams in 2003.
- In the past 13 years, 715 athletes have been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Fran Flory

Head Coach • Seventh Season at LSU

Entering her seventh year at the helm of the Tigers, head coach Fran Flory continues to raise the level of success of the LSU volleyball program and break down barriers that have plagued the Tigers for the past decade.

Last season, Flory guided a youthful Tiger team, one with eight freshmen and no seniors, to a third place finish in the Southeastern Conference Western Division. It marked the sixth consecutive season LSU has finished at least third in the West, every year that Flory has been the Tigers' head coach.

In addition, she also coached Regan Hood to All-SEC honors, as the junior was named to the second team.

Lauren Leaumont was also an All-Freshman selection in the team's inaugural year. In her six years, Flory has now coached 10 all-conference players, including three first-teams.

For the first time since she became head coach at LSU, Flory's Tigers defeated South Carolina in Columbia, S.C., knocking off the Gamecocks, 3-1. The win snapped a nine-match losing streak for the Tigers and was the first win for LSU in Columbia since 1995.

Flory's success, however, has not been solely on the court. LSU has had the most players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll of any school in the league during her tenure. In five of the past six seasons, the Tigers have led the conference.

The LSU volleyball program has also been recognized nationally for its academic success, picking up an American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award in three of the last five years.

In 2002, Flory's Tiger team recorded the most wins by any LSU team since posting 17 victories during the 1999 season. The Tigers also picked up back-to-back winning SEC records for the first time since 1992-93. With that came back-to-back runner-up finishes in the SEC Western Division.

LSU became the first team in 19 regular-season SEC matches to take a game from nationally ranked Florida, winning game one. Prior to the game one loss, the Gators last lost a game on Sept. 21, 2001, when they fell behind 2-0 in an eventual 3-2 win over South Carolina in Columbia, S.C. Florida had not lost a regular-season SEC game at home since dropping the third game to the Gamecocks in a 3-1 win on Oct. 8, 2000, a string of 12 consecutive matches.

In 2001, the Tigers recorded the third most conference wins in season history and picked up their first winning conference season since 1995, finishing second in the SEC Western Division. LSU owned the best intra-division record among Western Division teams at 9-1 while finishing fourth overall in the conference.

Flory guided her 2000 squad to the SEC Tournament Championship match against perennial-powerhouse Florida. Despite the loss in the final, LSU had made a breakthrough as it had not been to the championship match since 1992 and had not won a tournament match since 1993.

Flory's 2000 team also became the first LSU team to beat Arkansas when it did so in three games on the Lady'Backs' home floor. She led the Tigers to their first win at Auburn in 10 years en route to a third place finish in the SEC Western Division.

She made an immediate impact at LSU in 1998 as she led the Tigers to a 15-16 record, six games better than the 9-21 mark the team had the year before. More impressive was the five-match improvement in SEC play. After a win-less 1997 in conference action, LSU notched five conference victories in 1998 to finish third in the West.

In 1999, Flory led her injury-riddled squad to a 17-15 overall record, the best for an LSU team since the Tigers won 20 matches in 1995. Of the 17 wins, seven came in conference play, also a Tiger best since the 1995 season.

This is Flory's second stint at LSU as the Baton Rouge native was an assistant for four years under LSU's winningest coach, Scott Luster. She served as a graduate assistant coach in 1988, before being named a full-time assistant in 1989. During her four seasons as a member of the Tiger coaching staff, Flory helped LSU to unprecedented success with three SEC championships, three SEC Tournament championships and two Final Four appearances.

After winning the first of the three consecutive conference championships in 1989, Flory and the Tigers became the first school in SEC history to advance to the NCAA Final Four in 1990. The Tigers would duplicate the Final Four feat in 1991, while earning conference titles in both seasons. The 1991 team was the only SEC team to win a game in the Final Four until Florida in 2002.

In 1992, Flory left LSU to assume the head coaching duties at Southeastern Louisiana. In her first season as a Division I head coach, she led the Lions to a 21-13 record. In March 1993, Flory returned to the SEC as she became an assistant coach at Kentucky. Five months later, she was named the Wildcats head coach as then-Kentucky coach Kathy DeBoer was named an Associate Athletic Director at the school.

In her first season at Kentucky, Flory led the Wildcats to a 29-4 record, while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts in the 1993 season, she was named the Tachikara/AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year.

Ken and Fran Flory's children, Lindsay and Nicholas.

A 1984 graduate of Texas, Flory has also experienced much success as a player. In 1981, she was a member of Texas' AIAW National Championship squad. She received All-Southwest Conference and All-South Region honors during three seasons with the Longhorns.

Following her playing career, Flory was named the head coach at Wittenberg University, where she coached for one season before being named an assistant at Texas A&M for the 1987 season.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Flory has also assisted in coordinating both the Louisiana Senior Olympic Games and the Special Olympics, and hosting the Senior Olympic Games in 2001. She is also a member of the United States Volleyball Association coaching accreditation program.

She is married to Ken Flory. The two have a daughter, Lindsay (7), and a son, Nicholas (5).

Danijela Tomic

Assistant Coach • Second Season at LSU

Danijela Tomic begins her second season with the Tiger volleyball program after eight seasons at Arkansas-Little Rock as both a player and a coach.

She is involved in practice planning, recruiting, game strategy and on-the-floor coaching.

In all, during her tenure as a student assistant and assistant coach, she has helped coach 15 all-conference selections, two Sun Belt Players of the Year, two Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year and an SEC All-Freshman team selection. Two years ago, she coached the NCAA statistical leader in blocks per game at UALR.

An assistant at Arkansas-Little Rock for four years, Tomic also spent two seasons as a player and two as a student assistant with the Trojans before taking the assistant coaching position in 1999.

The native of Kakanj, Bosnia-Herzegovina, was critical in the recruitment of several foreign athletes to the Arkansas-Little Rock program that aided in their success over the years.

The first foreign athlete to play volleyball for the Trojans, she was followed by four players who combined to earn five All-Sun Belt Conference honors, three All-SBC Tournament MVP honors, a conference Freshman of the Year honor and an all-tournament selection.

 Arkansas-Little Rock Assistant Coach (1999-2002)
 Arkansas-Little Rock Student Assistant (1997-1998)

COLLEGE PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Arkansas-Little Rock (1995-1996)

In 2000, she helped guide Arkansas-Little Rock to its third Sun Belt regular season title and its fourth conference tournament championship, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in five seasons.

After joining the coaching staff in 1997 as a student assistant, Tomic helped UALR to its first Sun Belt championship as the Trojans also advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

In two seasons as a player, Tomic was selected to the All-SBC second team and named to the All-SBC Tournament team twice. She also was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player in 1996 as the Trojans captured their first tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

As an outside hitter and setter, she recorded over 500 digs, almost 500 kills, over 300 assists, over 100 blocks and almost 100 service aces in just two seasons while maintaining a .264 hitting percentage. She remains ranked in the top 10 in eight of the nine UALR career statistical categories.

She currently holds the Sun Belt record for most digs in a conference tournament four-game match at 32, set during the championship match of the 1996 tournament.

Tomic graduated from Arkansas-Little Rock in 1997 with a degree in health education.

Craig Bere

Assistant Coach • First Season at LSU

Craig Bere enters his first season on the LSU volleyball staff, returning to the SEC after a two-year absence.

The head coach at the University of Southern Indiana from 2002-03, Bere led the Screaming Eagles to one Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title and to within three points of a second consecutive championship and bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

He guided setter Kim Boehmer to honorable mention All-America honors, the first player in USI history to earn the honor, after she was named to the 2002 and 2003 All-GLVC first team. Kristi Kavanaugh was also named a CoSIDA first-team Academic All-American under his helm.

In 2002, Bere led the Screaming Eagles earned their first bid in the NCAA Division II Tournament and first tournament win after winning the GLVC Tournament crown. Despite just two seasons at Southern Indiana, he was the third winningest head coach in the program's 24-year history, posting a 47-17 (.734) record.

Prior to taking the job at USI, Bere was an assistant coach at Mississippi State University from 1997-2002. He served as the coordinator of the Bulldog defense and worked closely with MSU's outside hitters on the court. Bere coordinated MSU's recruiting efforts and handled additional administrative duties off the court.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Bere was a standout four-sport letterman at Doss High School, competing in football, basketball, baseball, and soccer.

He attended Morehead State University, where he was a three-year letterwinner on the Eagle football team and became a member of the men's volleyball club team, leading to his career as a volleyball coach.

He joined Morehead's varsity women's volleyball coaching staff in 1993 as a student assistant. He was appointed to a full-time assistant coach's position in 1994, first as an undergraduate and then as a graduate student.

While Bere was on the Morehead State staff, the Eagles claimed regular season Ohio Valley Conference runner-up honors, captured the OVC Tournament title, and advanced to the 1993 National Invitational Volleyball Classic. In 1995 Morehead State marched to the finals of the OVC Tournament, taking runner-up honors.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Bere has served as a camp instructor in sum-

MELISSA REYNAUD

Associate Sports Information Director
mreynaud@lsu.edu

Melissa Reynaud enters her fourth year on the LSU sports information staff as Associate SID in charge of the nationally recognized softball program. She is also in her third season as the primary contact for the women's volleyball program. In 2004, her softball media guide was judged best in the district and ranked third nationally.

Reynaud, 28, is a Marksville, La., native and a 1997 graduate of LSU in mass communications. Prior to coming to LSU, Reynaud was the assistant SID at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches. At NSU, she was the primary media contact for the women's basketball, soccer and softball teams and assisted with the other 11 sports including the NCAA Tournament men's basketball team and nationally ranked Division I-AA football team.

From 1999-00, Reynaud worked as an intern at Ole Miss. In Oxford, she worked primarily with the volleyball and men's and women's track and field programs while assisting with football and both basketball teams.

Reynaud began her career at Northwestern State where she was a graduate assistant for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

2003 Season Review

YOUNG GUNS

YOUTH DOMINATED TIGER TEAM IN 2003

With eight freshmen in 2003, including six true freshmen and two redshirt freshmen, the Tigers had their largest freshman class since the 1993 squad had nine newcomers. The youthful Tigers made their presence known on the court as they constituted 55 percent of LSU's kills, 70 percent of its assists, 64 percent of its service aces, 54 percent of its digs and 60 percent of its blocks.

Playing in every Tiger game, outside hitter Lauren Leaumont earned SEC All-Freshman team honors and was named the Louisiana Freshman of the Year after ranking second on the team in kills and leading the Tigers in digs and service aces.

Kassi Mikulik also made an impact at outside hitter, playing in 105 of the Tigers' 111 games and recording the third-most kills and fourth-most digs on the team.

Setter Daniela Romero led the team and ranked ninth in the SEC in assists per game despite a leg condition that limited her time on the court. Middle blocker Melody Clark ranked fourth on the team in blocks, and fell just six kills shy of 100.

Redshirt Markeisha Constant recorded over 150 kills, while Christie Ruttle, also a redshirt, was a presence on the back row with 56 digs. Lacey Galliano earned a spot on the court in 28 games, recording 11 kills and 22 digs. Vanessa Freeman did not play and took a redshirt year.

LSU FACED TOUGHEST SCHEDULE SINCE 1994

In 2003, the Tigers played one of their toughest schedules in recent years. LSU faced four nationally ranked opponents, including three ranked in the top five. Six Tiger opponents advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Both Florida and Hawai'i advanced to the Final Four, with Florida falling in the national championship game.

Including Florida and Hawai'i, the Tigers played four opponents who advanced to the Regional Finals and three more matches against teams that advanced to the second round.

The last time the Tigers faced three opponents ranked in the top five was during the 1994 season, while the last time LSU faced four nationally ranked teams in the same season was 2001.

TIGERS FINISHED THIRD IN SEC WEST

LSU finished in third place in the SEC Western Division and in a tie for sixth overall in 2003. The Tigers have now finished no worse than third in the SEC West for five consecutive seasons, posting at least six league wins in each of those years.

For the first time since 1995, LSU defeated South Carolina in Columbia, S.C. The 3-1 win snapped a nine-game losing streak for the Tigers and marked LSU head coach Fran Flory's first win at South Carolina in her tenure as a Tiger.

LSU EARNS 25TH CONSECUTIVE SEC TOURNAMENT BID

After finishing third in the Western Division and in a tie for sixth overall, the Tigers earned their 25th consecutive bid to the SEC Tournament. LSU has now appeared in every SEC Tournament in league history, tying Tennessee for the most appearances.

LSU was seeded seventh in the 2003 tournament and took on Arkansas in the first round of play at Columbia, S.C. Unfortunately, the Tigers fell to the LadyBacks, 3-0. Despite the loss, LSU remains with the third-most SEC Tournament wins in conference history, behind only Florida and Kentucky, and has recorded the fifth-best tournament winning percentage in the league.

HOOD POSTS MOST KILLS SINCE 1996

With 472 kills in 2003, Regan Hood recorded the most single-season kills since Carmis Franks had 477 in 1996. She fell 28 shy of becoming the first player since 1991 to record 500 kills in a season.

Hood recorded double-figure kill totals in 25 of the Tigers' 30 matches last season, including seven 20-plus kill matches. She never recorded below eight kills in a match and was below nine kills just once. Against Arkansas on Sept. 24, she posted a career best with 27 kills, tying her for the 10th most kills in a four-game match in LSU history.

HOOD ENTERS LSU CAREER RECORD BOOK

After posting 144 blocks in her first two years, Regan Hood added 111 blocks in 2004, the most of her career. With 255 career blocks over 245 games, she has recorded a career 1.04 blocks per game average. She moved into seventh place all-time in LSU history in career blocks per game. In addition, she needs just 13 block solos to move into 10th place in career block solos in the Tiger record books.

HOOD POSTS TRIPLE-DOUBLE AGAINST MISSISSIPPI STATE

Against Mississippi State on Halloween night, Regan Hood recorded the first triple-double at LSU since Meagan Davis against Ole Miss on Oct. 19, 2001. She posted 24 kills with 18 digs and a career-high 10 blocks, while hitting at a .365 clip for the Tigers.

Megan Heinz and Regan Hood each posted double-figure block matches in 2003, marking the first time two LSU players record 10-plus block matches since 1999 when Kelly Thompson and Meagan Davis each posted double-figure block totals. Heinz posted a pair of 10-plus block totals in 2003, against Ole Miss and Arkansas, while Hood posted double-figures as part of her triple-double against Mississippi State. With Heinz's two 10-plus block performances, she became the first Tiger to accomplish that feat since Lauren Cuyler in 2000.

Regan Hood recorded the first triple-double in two years for the Tigers

FLORY EARNS 200TH CAREER VICTORY

With a 3-1 win over Tennessee on Oct. 24, Fran Flory recorded her 200th career victory. She earned the win in her 13th season as a head coach, her sixth season at the helm of the Tiger program. Prior to posting 90 wins at LSU, she won 11 matches in one season at Wittenburg University in 1986, 21 matches in one season at Southeastern Louisiana in 1992 and 78 matches in five seasons from 1993-1997 at Kentucky. In 1993 she led the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament and was named the AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year. In 2001, after leading LSU to its best SEC record since 1992, she was named the LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year.

LSU WINS MEAN GREEN CLASSIC, HOOD AND HEINZ EARN HONORS

After falling to Oral Roberts, 3-1, in their first game of the Mean Green Classic, the Tigers rebounded with a sweep of UTEP and a 3-1 win over host North Texas to take the tournament title.

Regan Hood was named the Most Valuable Player, after averaging 4.91 kills per game with a career-high 25 kills against Oral Roberts. In addition, she recorded 13 blocks, including eight block solos, and 25 digs.

After leading the team with 16 blocks, Heinz also earned all-tournament honors. She also averaged 3.18 kills per game with a .355 hitting percentage and five digs.

HOOD EARNS ALL-TOURNAMENT HONOR AT WILDCAT CLASSIC

Regan Hood was named to the Wildcat Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 4.82 kills per game with a then-career-high 24 kills against South Florida. In addition, she recorded seven blocks, including four solo, and 15 digs. Against Colorado State, she recorded a game-high 20 kills with a team-high three blocks and five digs.

ROMERO EARNS HONOR AT SUGAR BOWL CLASSIC

Daniela Romero was named to the Sugar Bowl Classic All-Tournament team after averaging 11.40 assists per game and a team-best 4.30 digs per game, posting double-doubles in all three of the Tigers' matches. The freshman also recorded 15 kills and three blocks. Against No. 5 Nebraska, she racked up a career-best 19 digs, tying her for the 10th most digs in a three-game match in LSU history.

HEINZ, HOOD ON TIGER CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Megan Heinz and Regan Hood were named to the Tiger Classic All-Tournament team. Heinz earned all-tournament honors after recording 31 kills, 13 blocks and 39 points. Against Virginia and UAB, she recorded back-to-back double-digit kill marks with 11 and 13 respectively. She also recorded seven blocks against UAB, including two solos.

Hood was named to the all-tournament team after leading the Tigers with a 4.27 kills per game average. She posted her first collegiate double-double against UAB with 20 kills and 12 digs. She recorded double-figure kill marks in all three of LSU's matches. She also recorded seven blocks, 26 digs with four service aces.

NCAA Quarterfinalist

LSU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986 after winning its first Southeastern Conference championship. The Tigers made a run at the Final Four in their first trip to the tournament by beating Arizona at home in round one and Texas-Arlington at the South Regional in Austin, Texas. However, Texas ended LSU's run as the Longhorns used the home court advantage to sweep the Tigers out of the tournament.

1987

Overall Record: 25-11

SEC Runner-Up

Making its second straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, LSU did not last long as Florida ousted the Tigers from the tournament in a five-game thriller in Gainesville, Fla. The match was the third of the year for the two teams. They had split the first two with LSU winning the regular season match and Florida winning in the SEC Tournament.

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence from the event in 1988. Playing on its home court, LSU survived a five-game scare from Houston to advance to the South Regional in Austin, Texas. There, Texas-Arlington exacted revenge for a tournament loss from 1986 by rallying from two games down to win the last three and advance.

NCAA Final Four

Coming off the second conference championship in as many years, LSU cruised into the South Regional with a sweep of Louisville in the first round of the tournament. In Austin, Texas, the Tigers ousted Texas Tech and knocked off Texas on the Longhorns home court with a 17-15 game five win to advance to the Final Four for the first time in school history. In College Park, Md., LSU fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals.

NCAA Final Four

With only one loss, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint. LSU beat Houston in the first round for the second time in three years to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted. After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU ran into a Florida team that had handed the Tigers their only loss. A tough four-game victory later and LSU was back in the Final Four. This year in Los Angeles, Calif., the Tigers fell in four games to Long Beach State. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 LSU team was the only team from the SEC to win a game in the NCAA Final Four.

Overall Record: 26-9
SEC Runner-Up
SEC Tournament Runner-Up

LSU had to travel for its first round match for the first time since 1987, this time to Lubbock, Texas, where the Tigers ousted Texas Tech from the tournament in just three games for the third consecutive year. At the South Regional in Gainesville, Fla., Texas knocked LSU out of the tournament in four games, ending hopes of a third straight Final Four appearance by the Tigers.

1993

Overall Record: 21-16
NIVC Champions

For the first time since 1988 and only the second since 1985, LSU was left out of the NCAA Tournament. Despite not making the tournament, the Tigers showed why they deserved a bid by coasting to the NIVC Championship in Kansas City, Mo., by dropping only three games in the team's six tournament victories. LSU swept Baylor in the tournament final.

Maravich Center

In 2004, the LSU volleyball program will begin its 23rd season in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, the largest volleyball venue in the Southeastern Conference.

The $11.5 million structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 14,164 spectators and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

Containing over one-and-a-quarter million square feet of space and over three million cubic feet, the Maravich Center competes with Tiger Stadium, home to LSU football, as the most visible structure on the LSU campus.

"The assembly center is a great place to play," LSU head coach Fran Flory said. "It is a very volleyball friendly facility. In it we can create a great atmosphere for our student-athletes and for opposing teams."

Recently, the Maravich Center has undergone many renovations, the latest being a new portable wood floor which was added for the 2000-01 basketball season. Prior to the start of the 2003 volleyball season, the floor was painted with LSU's new athletics department logo at center court. In 2000, the arena was equipped with a brand new scoreboard and video screen that can be used for all sports.

In 1998, the Tiger volleyball team enjoyed the comforts of a newly renovated locker room. The two-tiered fully carpeted facility features individual cubicles for each athlete, a squad meeting room, and a storage area.

"I know we can provide an atmosphere which is a true home court advantage in the assembly center," added Flory. "I have seen it done before."

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center became one of the top home-court advantages in the nation as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record in that span. Included in that time was a 37-match home-court win streak, which is the second-longest streak in Southeastern Conference history.

In 1991, LSU enjoyed possibly its finest season in the arena as the Tigers recorded a perfect 16-0 record. They also advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional which was held in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have now posted six consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 44-28 (.611).

Overall since beginning play in the arena in 1982, the Tigers have notched an amazing 238-103 (.698) record. In that time, LSU has had a losing record at home in just three seasons.

The Maravich Center has often played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball as well as men's and women's basketball and gymnastics.

The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Maravich Center has also been the site of the three NCAA Volleyball Championship first round matches as well as the NCAA South Regional in 1991.

The NCAA Women's Basketball First/Second Rounds in 1997, 1999, 2000 and 2004, as well as the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament in 1988. The SEC Gymnastics Championships came to the arena in 1999 and the NCAA Central Regional for gymnastics was held in 2002 and 2004.

Along with the main court area, an auxiliary gym with a recently refinished court is located underground in the north section of the arena. Nearly all Tiger volleyball practices take place in the auxiliary gym.

Media Guidelines

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media and photo credential requests should be submitted at least 24 hours prior to home matches. Passes may be picked up at the Press Will Call table located in the Northeast corridor of the Maravich Center. Requests should be made through the Sports Information Office by contacting Melissa Reynaud.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located on press row for visiting radio broadcasts by Southeastern Conference opponents. Please inform LSU SID Melissa Reynaud if you wish to broadcast your match on the radio. Other teams wishing to do radio broadcasts must contact Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Network at (225) 578-1882.

GAME INFORMATION

During matches, media will be provided with a media guide as well as a match program that includes notes and updated statistics. Final box score books will be available shortly following each home match. For fax service, please contact a member of the LSU Sports Information Office for assistance. Phones will be made available on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Green Room located in the Northeast corridor of the Assembly Center.

POST GAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done in an informal manner at courtside following each match. For assistance in locating any member of the LSU team, contact Melissa Reynaud. For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID.

COVERING PRACTICES

Coach Fran Flory is available for interviews weekday mornings and early afternoons. Her office is located on the fourth floor of the Athletic Administration Building.

Team practices take place from 2-5 p.m. daily in the auxiliary gym of the Maravich Center. Practice times are subject to change based on class schedules of the players and travel as well as game schedules. All practices are open to the media.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2004 LSU Volleyball Media Guide is a source of information for the news media. Additional information is available upon request from the LSU Sports Information Office. News releases, photographs and video tapes will be made available to accredited members of the media.

The LSU Sports Information Office is located on the fifth floor of the Athletic Administration Building.

<http://media.lsusports.net>

Media can now access images for all LSU athletic teams, including action shots, heads shots, logos, etc. To gain access to the high-resolution pictures, e-mail Melissa Reynaud. You will be assigned a login and password that will enable you to retrieve pictures. This service is for the media use only. Resale of these pictures is strictly prohibited.

Interviews with coaches and/or players are held before and after practice and phone interviews may be arranged. Advance notice is needed for interviews, particularly with those to be held before practice for time reasons.

Please arrange all interviews through the LSU Sports Information Office and volleyball contact Melissa Reynaud.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

- Eric SanInocencio is the volleyball media relations director for the Southeastern Conference. Any question's regarding SEC volleyball should be directed to him at (205) 458-3010.
- The SEC will name a Player of the Week and a Defensive Player of the Week throughout the 2004 season. Each week's selection will be selected on Monday for Tuesday a.m. publication.
- The SEC Website (www.secsports.com) can be accessed 24 hours a day. League standings, statistics, notes, and other information regarding volleyball are available.

Two Tigers Named All-SEC Volleyball

11/20/03

BATON ROUGE -- Regan Hood was named to the All-Southeastern Conference second team and Lauren Leaumont earned SEC All-Freshman team honors for the LSU volleyball team, as announced by the conference office on Wednesday.

Junior Beth Cowley was also recognized for her community service and was named to the SEC Good Works Team.

Hood led the Tigers in kills, kills per game, blocks solos and total blocks this season. The junior outside hitter and middle blocker ranked fifth in the league in overall kills per game and kills per game in conference matches. With 463 kills, she became the first LSU player since Camris Franks in 1996 to record 450 kills in a season. In addition, she had a career blocks per game average of 1.05 with 253 career blocks, good enough for seventh place in Tiger volleyball history.

LSU's Lauren Leaumont earned Freshman All-SEC honors

The Camellion, Texas, native led the team in kills in 25 of LSU's 29 matches. In addition, she recorded seven double-double and a triple-double, the first at LSU since Meagan Davis had a triple-double in 2001.

Leaumont led the team in digs and digs per game, while ranking second on the team in kills and kills per game. The outside hitter from New Orleans led the team with 10 double-double. On nine
