Just as a volleyball play progresses on the court from the serve through the terminating point, the LSU volleyball team has progressed from one that was winless in conference play in 1997 to a program in search of its third straight Southeastern Conference Western Division title and NCAA Tournament berth with an eye on continuing to advance forward.

Despite returning two of the best outside hitters in the SEC and an SEC All-Freshman middle blocker, LSU will have to replace a pair of key components from the last four years. In a tale of positions, the veteran leadership of junior outside hitters Marina Skender (Zagreb, Croatia) and Kyna Washington (Houston, Texas), combined with the experience of sophomore middle blocker Lauren DeGirolamo (Belleville, III.), will have to rely on a new starting setter and libero this season.

Skender and Washington have been two-year starters, while DeGirolamo is in her third year with the Tigers after redshirting in her first season. Despite that commanding presence, LSU will have to replace All-American setter Daniela Romero, who led the Tiger offense for four seasons, and libero Kassi Mikulik, who became a vital tool in the LSU lineup with her serve receive and ball control.

If the Tigers can adjust to this change in personnel early in the season, LSU is poised to put together another dominating season as it can spread out the attack throughout the lineup and run an offense that is a threat from many angles.

MIDDLE BLOCKER

The Tigers return one of the best young middle blockers in the SEC from a season ago in DeGirolamo while adding in outstanding talent in sophomore Brittnee Cooper (Houston, Texas) and freshman Tania Schatow (Fraser, Mich.).

The Louisiana Freshman of the Year and SEC All-Freshman team selection, DeGirolamo ranked third in the league and ninth in the nation in blocks per game a year ago. In addition, she led LSU and ranked 10th in the conference in attacking percentage.

"Lauren has always been and will continue to be a true stabilizing force both offensive and defensively," said LSU head coach Fran Flory. "We've added a few things for her offensively to make her a little more versatile. She continues to improve and become more physical and quicker. After an All-Freshman year, I look for her to have an outstanding sophomore season.

Contributing in many of the Tigers' matches both in the middle and along the right side while developing as a freshman, Cooper will make an immediate impact on the LSU  $\,$ lineup as she enters her sophomore campaign.

"Brittnee Cooper really had a wonderful freshman year, especially in the spring." said Flory. "She developed into a true impacting middle blocker and middle attacker. She's going to be a terminator for us and she's going to be a key in our offense.

A talented two-sport standout, Schatow (Fraser, Mich.) joins the LSU squad after leading her Fraser High School team to the Michigan state title match in 2005. The towering 6-4 freshman was named the "Best Volleyball Player in Michigan" by Rise Magazine during her senior season.

'Tania certainly added size to our team," said Flory. "She will develop into a terminating offensive player and certainly a force blocking with her wing span. She is going to be a great player. It will take her a little time to develop but by midseason I look for her to be a force in our lineur

OUTSIDE HITTER

After an outstanding season in 2006 that saw the Tigers rank second in the SEC in kills per game and fourth in hitting percentage, LSU is in the enviable position of having two of the best outside hitters in the conference, while adding a pair of new faces.

The Tigers' first two-time All-SEC selection since Meagan Davis in 2000-2001, Skender led the league and ranked sixth in the nation in service aces per game. In addition, the junior led the team and ranked in the top 10 in the conference in kills per game. She enters the 2007 campaign with added strength and she will be called upon to demonstrate her leadership on the court.

After certainly being a very impacting player and key for our team over the last two years, Marina has now become much more physical and stronger," said Flory. "I think that she will be much more durable this year. She'll be a more balanced and mature player. I think she will be the leader of our group.

Washington has been a stalwart on the Tiger outside for the last two seasons, developing her raw athletic skills to become an outstanding player. The junior ranked second on the team in kills and service aces last year while ranking fourth in both blocks

"Kyna has matured as a player," said Flory. "In the past she really relied on being a great athlete who played volleyball and now she is at the phase where she is a great volleyball player who is a great athlete. That maturation is going to make her that much more successful and efficient for us this year.

A valuable practice player a year ago while she gained experience as a redshirt, Shannon Balikowsky (Baton Rouge, La.) will compete for playing time on the outside this season after an outstanding local career at Woodlawn High School.

"Shannon had a great year of training and developing as a redshirt," said Flory.

"She has overcome some injuries that were a setback in the spring. She is a great physical talent who is becoming a solid volleyball player."

A pleasant addition to the Tiger signing class, Angela Bensend (Plano, Texas) helped Bishop Lynch High School, alma mater of former Tiger standout Regan Hood, to a 2004 Texas Private and Parochial School state title. After transferring to Frisco Centennial as a senior, she helped lead her team to the district championship.

"Angela has really been a nice surprise in this year's recruiting class," said Flory.
"She developed a little more quickly through club volleyball as a terminator. She has developed all phases of her game so that she can potentially be a sixth rotation player early in her career for us. We're excited about how quickly she has developed."

RIGHT SIDE

The Tigers have several options along the right side this season, including the option of Skender returning to her more natural position while also bringing in a pair of players who have the ability to contribute immediately.

In addition to action on the left side, Skender may also return to the position where she starred in 2005. In her freshman season, she recorded 2.82 kills per game with 0.90 blocks per game and 1.75 digs per game. Skender also recorded the second-best hitting percentage in LSU history with 20 or more attempts with a .700 clip against Auburn.

"Marina is a natural right side player and we've had to move her to the left side," said Flory. "We would love to have her on the right side and she will probably play right side at some point this year. She has the most upper arm ball control of any player I've coached. She has a very precise arm and a very frustrating player to play against."

While developing in the middle, Schatow may have the opportunity to get on the court earlier in her career on the right side. Her exceptional blocking ability will provide a compliment to DeGirolamo and Cooper as Schatow is able to close the block.

"On the right side Tania's blocking ability is outstanding," said Flory. "She's a natural blocker and that gives her an opportunity to get on the court a little faster with Brittnee and Lauren. She's also very good offensively behind the setter, so she definitely has the opportunity to be on the court on the right side early."

One of the most heralded volleyball players to come out of Baton Rouge in many years, Brittney Johnson will likely provide the Tigers with an option both as a setter and on the right side. The three-time all-state selection and the Baton Rouge Advocate's "Star of

"All three are trying to step in to take over ball control after losing Kassi Mikulik," Flory said of the competition at the libero position. "That will be a huge deal for the success of this team."

After seeing action as a defensive specialist and for her serving over her first three seasors, Michelle Hensgens (Morgan City, La.) returns as the only LSU senior in 2007 after showing continued progress and development. The quintessential student-athlete, Hensgens is a player who truly epitomizes what it means to be a Tiger.

"Michelle has probably been the most dependable, hardest working and most loyal player on this team for the last three years," said Flory. "We look for her to have a great senior year. She is the prototypical student-athlete. She is balanced in all ways. She is a great leader with great insight and somebody who has become very reliable on the court in her passing and defensive game."

Elena Martinez (New Orleans, La.) was a key defender in the Tiger lineup last year after seeing limited action as a freshman due to an injury. An outstanding natural defender, the junior averaged almost two digs a game while adding 10 service aces a year ago and continues to improve in other aspects of her game.

"Elena is probably the best defender I've ever coached," said Flory. "Her ball control and serve receive has improved and continues to improve. Her strength is her ability to read hitters and make outstanding plays. I think she developed a much higher level of discipline with an understanding of the system and understanding of her responsibilities. She became and will be a vital part of handing the ball in the fall."

A final addition to the 2007 roster is another outstanding local product in Haley Reuther from New Orleans. The 2006 Miss Louisiana Volleyball comes in as a converted outside hitter and was the most valuable player in the Louisiana All-Star game.

"Haley is just a smooth, talented, agile kid who is really an outside hitter but will be a defensive specialist for us," said Flory. "Potentially she could see some outside hitting time, especially in practice. She is just a fighter and a competitive, Louisiana-type kid who will just get after it. She will be a great addition."

SCHEDULE

LSU has an outstanding pre-conference schedule in 2007 that will help ease the newcomers into the lineup early in the year and gradually test the Tigers as the season progresses. The slate includes three pre-conference tournaments, among which is the LSU-hosted Mizuno Tiger Classic, the 20-match conference schedule and two non-conference matches. LSU will match up against eight teams that advanced to the 2006 NCAA Tournament, including Notre Dame and a league-record six teams that advanced from the SEC.

progres:sion [pruh-gresh-uhn] - noun

1. the act of progressing or advancing forward.

2.a passing successively from one member of a series to the next.

Stars" for volleyball, she was both a setter and an attacker as University High School advanced to the state semifinals last year.

"Brittney will have a duel role probably," said Flory. "She is a left-handed player who is very mobile offensively and has the ability to terminate. It will take her a little while to adjust to the physicality of college game, but once she gets there, she will be a terminator. We are excited about the dimension she's going to add as a lefty on the right side."

SETTER

After losing four-year starter and 2006 All-American Daniela Romero to graduation, LSU will have to find a new player to run the Tiger offense in 2007. LSU has two outstanding athletes to select from as the pair compete for the starting role.

Playing behind Romero a year ago, Maggie Lonergan (Antioch, III.), may not have seen playing time often, but she did get a year of experience under one of the best in school history. Prior to coming to LSU, she led the Sky High Volleyball Club to back-to-back third place finishes nationally in the 15 Club National Division and 16 Club National Division in 2003 and 2004 while being named to the all-tournament teams both years.

"Maggie did a great job this past spring taking over after Dee Romero graduated," said Flory. "It's difficult to step into an All-American's shoes, but she truly became a leader on the court for this team. She developed great trust in the hitters and players around her. I think she'll be very prepared to step in this fall and compete with Brittney for that starting setter role, which has not been established at this point."

In addition to her time on the right side, Johnson is likely to see considerable playing time at the setter position. The newcomer will need to learn the LSU offense but comes in with the advantage of having watched the Tigers for the few years while playing across campus at LSU's University High School.

"Brittney has the ability to become an elite level setter," said Flory. "The athleticism is there and she has all the tools. It will just be a matter of her developing into the collegiate game and her understanding of how to truly run our offense."

LIBERO/DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST

To fill the vital role of libero in 2007, the Tigers will have several solid options that will all battle for the starting position, while all three defensive specialists should see action since the serve receivers are essential to the team's success.

"I think our schedule is ideal," said Flory. "We've worked really hard to develop a schedule that is good for us. After losing the type of kids in our line-up that we had last year, it will give us a chance to slowly work into the season. Hopefully we will have the opportunity to see some kids in some different positions early in our opening weekend and then kind of jump into the fire before SEC's start."

For the second straight year, the Tigers will open the season with the Mizuno Tiger Classic in the Maravich Center. As part of the tournament, LSU will host in-state rivals New Orleans and UL-Monroe, while also facing Saint Louis in a rematch of a 3-1 win in St. Louis last season.

Following the Tiger Classic, LSU will travel to Houston for the Mizuno Invitational II hosted by Rice. Along with the tournament host, the Tigers will face Illinois and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. LSU closes out the pre-conference schedule by traveling to Des Moines, lowa, for the lowa Challenge. The Tigers will take on tournament host Drake along with lowa and lowa State.

"We will play some very difficult teams in Rice, Illinois, Iowa and Iowa State," said Flory. "All four of those teams are going to be at the top half, if not top, of their conference or division within their conference. I think we have some great challenges, but I think they are the right type of challenges for this team."

The SEC will be playing a double round-robin regular season format for the second year in 2007. In 2006, the SEC made the first dramatic alteration of the volleyball format in 15 years by doing away with the SEC Tournament. Under the new format, LSU won its second-straight SEC Western Division title and finished second overall in the conference

"We are excited about the SEC schedule," said Flory. "We are continuing to play a double round, playing everyone on our home court again and at their place again."

While in the midst of the conference schedule, LSU will step outside of the SEC and face a pair of opponents in the Maravich Center. The Tigers will host Notre Dame on Oct. 23, before closing out the regular season against Tulane on Nov. 24. LSU will then await an NCAA Tournament bid as tournament action begins at sub-regional sites on Nov. 29.

"I think our overall schedule is one of the best schedules we could have for this team," said Flory. "It worked out just perfect for us. It'll give us the opportunity to have significant wins and the opportunity to be seen as an NCAA Tournament team early in the season. Then we can hopefully continue our quest to be SEC West champions and step into another championship as well."

It hasn't taken Fran Flory long to turn around the LSU volleyball program. She took over a team that had hit rock bottom in 1997 and has methodically turned it into a team that expects to win every time it steps on the court. From 0-15 in the SEC the season prior to her arrival to back-to-back SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament appearances over the last two years, Flory has made her impact felt on the court. With her ability to identify and develop talent, relate to her players and surround herself with top-notch assistant coaches, Fran Flory has made this a great time to be a part of LSU volleyball.

"LSU has everything a student-athlete could ask for, from the facilities to the administration. We expect to win championships and every LSU student-athlete has those expectations. Our teams are committed to winning both on the court and in the classroom.

"Team togetherness and team ownership are two very important factors in our program. Our teams are committed not only to LSU, but also to each other. Team ownership is vital to the success of any team, company or organization. Everyone must have a clear understanding of the goals and direction of the program. We are very careful to define roles and responsibilities so everyone is headed in the same direction."

Flory came to LSU from the head coaching position at Kentucky, where she led the Wildcats to one NCAA Tournament appearance and was named the AVCA South District Coach of the Year in 1993. Prior to that, she served as an assistant at LSU where she helped the Tigers to three SEC Championships and two Final Four appearances.

Now, entering her 10th season, Flory will continue to build on the solid foundation that she has laid out for the LSU volleyball program and continue to design her program around the fundamentals that have made her a success at every stop of her coaching career.

"My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life."

▶ Education First

A staple of the LSU program since Flory arrived in 1998 has been the tremendous academic success of her players. The Tigers have placed the second-most players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the last seven years of any school in the league. In four of those past seven seasons, LSU has led the conference.

"Balancing a successful career in the classroom and on the court is a difficult task," said Flory. "It requires a great deal of discipline and commitment. Our staff truly understands what it takes and shares in the commitment to insure the academic and athletic success of our student-athletes."

▶ Building for Success in Life

When athletes sign to play for coach Flory, they sign on not only to maximize their potential as a volleyball player, but also to maximize their potential as a person.

"My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life. When they graduate, I want them to truly feel prepared for the next step in their lives, whatever that may be. We are not just about developing successful volleyball players, our program is about developing successful people.

"Our philosophy is one that we all control our own destiny. Each day we make choices in all aspects of our lives that will influence who and what we become. We strive to provide the freedom and correct environment to make the choices that will prepare our student-athletes for their future."

Speaking of Flory

"Fran is one of the finest people I have ever met. I have had the pleasure of watching her become one of the finest coaches in our profession. It would be an honor to have my daughter play for her. She has great enthusiasm, is very easy to work with and has a true desire to be successful. She has my utmost admiration and support."

Mick Haley

Head coach at Southern California; Head coach 2000 US Olympic Team "Fran is one of the most remarkable people that I have had the pleasure of knowing. She has been a mentor and a friend throughout my playing and coaching career. She is one of those people who has the ability to make you feel that you have the strength and courage to accomplish anything and overcome any obstacle."

Hospitality and comfort are a Southern tradition practiced to perfection around Baton Rouge. Minutes from the city, ancient moss-draped oaks, fragrant honeysuckle, formal gardens and the finest examples of Southern architecture await. Combine this with the excitement of the mighty Mississippi River, Cajun music and a gourmet meal that is topped with freshly brewed cafe-aulait at one of Baton Rouge's fine restaurants. So what does the future hold? Baton Rouge is now one of the fastest growing cities in the South -- a bustling Metropolis of cutting edge technology companies, high-powered law firms and forward thinking city leaders who passionately support the arts and promote the local economy. Old Man River just got an upgrade. Yes, this is one city that's rolling on the river.

Proximity

Baton Rouge is just an hour away from the French Quarter in New Orleans and even closer to the million-acre Atchafalaya Swamp, which is called one of the biggest fishing ponds in the country.

Louisiana La THE PELICAN STATE

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

The University lakes on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Why LSU?

"I knew the second I stepped foot on campus that I might be the luckiest person on earth to have the chance to play volleyball at LSU. On my official visit, it poured at the football game that day and not a soul left or stopped their cheers until the Tigers claimed the close victory. Instantly that day I saw the great passion for LSU from every professor, coach, student and fan. Now I am fortunate enough to be back coaching at LSU with my mentor, and there is not a day that passes now that I don't think about how my four years here were the greatest opportunity of my life.

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place.

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball). I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going to LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line.'

LSU GREATS

The five individuals on this page are the only men to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., and No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal. Football's only retired jersey is the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon, while baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and current athletics director Skip Bertman.

Bob Pettit

Led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame and in 1997 he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50+ points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

Shaquille O'Neal

Was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also skippered the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and is currently the LSU athletics director. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

LSU's success in each of its 20 sports is evident with this outstanding list of former Tigers.

Monique Adams

A two-time first-team All-American, Monique Adams led LSU to its first appearance in the NCAA Volleyball Final Four. The 1991 SEC Tournament MVP and NCAA Final Four team selection holds four school records and recorded the seventh most kills in a four-game match in NCAA history.

Athletic TRAINING -

Student athletics trainer Hunter Yentzen (above) provides treatment for Shannon Balikowsky in the Broussard training room.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and a underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports, and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Tiger Stadium WEIGHT ROOM Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities. Measuring 10,000-square feet, LSU has one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation.

The 2007 Tigers will be under the leadership of first-year strength coach Paul Jackson.

Paul Jackson and the weight room staff conduct workout sessions that include both strength and endurance training.

Southeastern CONFERENCE

Year after year, the Southeastern Conference shows why it is considered to be one of the premier volleyball conferences in the nation. In the 1990's and continuing into the 2000's, the SEC made stellar contributions to the sport of volleyball.

The conference has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season for the last 17 years. The SEC has had a team reach the Final Four in three of the last five seasons, with Tennessee advancing to the Final Four in 2005 and Florida facing Southern California in the 2003 National Championship game.

In 2006, Florida competed in its 16th straight NCAA Tournament. A league-record seven teams advanced to postseason play, including Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss and Tennessee.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the league in 1991 brought the divisional format to the sport with five teams competing in the Eastern Division and six teams in the Western Division. In 2006, the league did away with the three-day tournament and instead began playing a double round-robin regular season SEC schedule to determine the conference champion and who receives the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Along with the popularity growth throughout the country, women's volleyball has also grown in the SEC. A benchmark in that growth came in 1995 when SEC volleyball was first broadcast on SEC-TV on a tape-delay basis. For the past 12 seasons the coverage has grown, especially in the last seven years, to live telecasts of several regular season matches. SEC volleyball will continue to enjoy live coverage on SEC Regional Sports Network in 2007, reaching almost 22 million subscribers in the conference's nine-state region.

SEC VOLLEYBALL

A STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

- ➤ The 2006 season marked the 17th consecutive year the SEC has placed at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament.
- ➤ A record-breaking seven SEC teams earned berths in the NCAA Tournament.
- ► LSU claimed the Western Division crown in 2006, with Florida earning the Eastern Division championship.
- Seven players were named AVCA All-Americans and 12 players were named to the AVCA Division I All-District Team.

The 2006 season was one of the best in school history. The Tigers posted a 26-6 record, the most wins since 1992 and the best winning percentage since 1991. LSU also won the SEC Western Division title outright with a 16-4 mark, the most league wins in school history. From Sept. 1 against Texas A&M through Oct. 4 against Arkansas, the Tigers rattled off 13-straight wins, which tied for the third longest winning streak in school history.

The Tigers also earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. In addition, LSU spent 15 consecutive weeks in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll, rising as high as No. 10 on two occasions before closing out the season at No. 19, the first final ranking for the Tigers since 1992.

For her efforts, Flory earned her second-straight Louisiana Sports Writer's Association Louisiana Coach of the Year honor. In addition, senior Daniela Romero became LSU's second All-American in two years, earning honorable mention AVCA honors after being named the Louisiana Player of the Year and a first-team All-SEC selection.

Along with Romero, Marina Skender improved to the All-SEC first team after earning second-team honors a year ago. Skender became the first Tiger player to earn back-to-back league honors since Meagan Davis in 2000-2001, while freshman Lauren DeGirolamo earned SEC All-Freshman team honors Flory has now guided players to 14 All-SEC honors, including six first-team selections. In addition, she has led her players to 23 All-Louisiana awards, including 13 first-team selections, and every individual state award, including player, freshman and newcomer of the year.

Flory's success, however, has not been solely on the court. LSU has had the second-most players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll of any school in the league during her tenure, leading the league four times in the last eight seasons. The LSU volleyball program has also been recognized nationally for its academic success, picking up an American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award three times

Despite traveling over 14,000 miles, Flory guided the Tigers to one of their most successful seasons in two decades in 2005. Flory passed former head coach Ruth Nelson to become the second winningest head coach in Tiger history as LSU won its first SEC Western Division championship, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992 and vaulted into the top 25 poll for the first time since 1993, ranking No. 24 in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches noll

After Hurricane Katrina turned the Maravich Center into the largest field hospital in the United States, the volleyball team played its first 17 matches on the road. LSU went on to finish the season at 21-8 overall and 11-5 in the SEC, while going 6-0 at home, the third undefeated mark in the Maravich Center in the program's history.

For her efforts, Flory was named the Louisiana Coach of the Year. In addition, Ivana Kuzmic became LSU's first All-American since 1992, earning honorable mention AVCA honors after being named the Louisiana Player of the Year and a first-team All-SEC selection.

Skender was named the SEC Freshman of the Year, the fourth conference rookie of the year honor in LSU history, but the first since 1990. Skender was also a second-team All-SEC selection along with senior Jelena Mijatovic, marking the first time since 2001 the Tigers had three players earn all-conference bonors.

Two years ago, Flory led the Tigers to a third place finish in the SEC West, marking the seventh consecutive season LSU finished at least third in the West, including every year in her tenure. With a 17-12 mark, she recorded three wins over teams in the NCAA Tournament field. In addition, Kuzmic was named the Louisiana Newcomer of the Year, while both Kuzmic and Regan Hood earned first-team All-Louisiana honors.

In 2003, Flory guided a youthful Tiger team, one with eight freshmen and no seniors, to a third place finish in the SEC West. For the first time since she became head coach, the Tigers defeated South Carolina in Columbia, S.C., knocking off the Gamecocks, 3-1, to mark the first win in

OVERALL HEAD COACHING RECORD: 265-229 (16 years) RECORD AT LSU: 155-115 (Nine years)

Columbia since 1995. Hood earned her first All-SEC honor under Flory's tutelage, being named to the second team, while Lauren Leaumont was an All-Freshman selection in the award's inaugural year.

In 2002, Flory's Tiger team recorded the most wins by any LSU team since 1999. The Tigers also picked up back-to-back winning SEC records for the first time since 1992-93. With that came back-to-back runner-up finishes in the SEC Western Division. In addition, LSU became the first team in 19 regular-season SEC matches to take a game from nationally ranked Florida. Prior to the game one loss, the Gators last lost a game on Sept. 21, 2001, when they fell behind 2-0 in an eventual 3-2 win over South Carolina. Florida had not lost a regular-season SEC game at home since dropping the third game to the Gamecocks in a 3-1 win on Oct. 8, 2000, a string of 12 consecutive matches.

In 2001, the Tigers recorded the fourth most conference wins in school history and picked up their first winning conference record since 1995, finishing second in the SEC West. LSU owned the best intra-division record among Western Division teams at 9-1, while finishing fourth overall.

Flory guided her 2000 squad to the SEC Tournament Championship match against perennial-powerhouse Florida. Despite the loss in the final, LSU made a breakthrough, as it had not been to the championship match since 1992 and had not won a tournament match since 1993.

Flory's 2000 team also became the first LSU team to beat Arkansas when it did so in three games on the Lady'Backs' home floor. She led the Tigers to their first win at Auburn in 10 years en route to a third place finish in the SEC West.

In 1999, Flory led her injury-riddled squad to a 17-15 overall record, the best for an LSU team since the Tigers won 20 matches in 1995. Of the 17 wins, seven came in conference play, also a Tiger best since the 1995 season.

She made an immediate impact at LSU in 1998 as she led the Tigers to a 15-16 record, six matches better than the 9-21 mark the team had the year before. More impressive was the five-match improvement in SEC play. After a winless 1997 in conference action under the former head coach, LSU notched five SEC victories in 1998 to finish third in the West.

This is Flory's second stint at LSU as the Baton Rouge native was an assistant for four years under LSU's winningest coach, Scott Luster. She served as a graduate assistant in 1988, before being named a full-time assistant in 1989. During her four seasons with the Tigers, Flory helped LSU to unprecedented success with three SEC championships, three SEC Tournament championships and two Final Four appearances, the first school in SEC history to advance to the NCAA Final Four.

In 1992, Flory left LSU to assume the head coaching duties at Southeastern Louisiana. In her first season as a Division I head coach, she led the Lions to a 21-13 record. In March 1993, Flory returned to the SEC as she became an assistant coach at Kentucky. Five months later, she was named the Wildcats head coach as then-Kentucky coach Kathy DeBoer, who is currently the Executive Director of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, was named an Associate Athletic Director.

In her first season at Kentucky, Flory led the Wildcats to a 29-4 record, while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts in the 1993 season, she was named the Tachikara/AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year.

A 1984 graduate of Texas, Flory has also experienced much success as a player. In 1981, she was a member of Texas' AIAW National Championship squad. She received All-Southwest Conference and All-South Region honors during three seasons with the Longhorns.

Following her playing career, Flory was named the head coach at Wittenberg University, where she coached for one season before being named an assistant at Texas A&M.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Flory has also assisted in coordinating both the Louisiana Senior Olympic Games and the Special Olympics, and hosting the Senior Olympic Games in 2001. She is also a member of the United States Volleyball Association coaching accreditation program.

She is married to Ken Flory. The two have a daughter, Lindsay (10), and a son. Nicholas (8).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Southern California (1993-1996) German Pro League (1997)

ormer Southern California setter Steve Loeswick, who spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma, is entering his first season as an assistant coach for the Tiger volleyball staff.

"We are definitely thrilled to have Steve join our program," said Fran Flory. "He brings a very high level of knowledge in all the areas we need. We are excited about him taking over the setter training. He will also be involved in match preparation and video breakdown as well as other things we need."

Loeswick spent three seasons with the Sooners, where he helped the Oklahoma program to a record turnaround, while leading the Sooners to the 2006 NCAA Sweet 16. On the court, he was in charge of training the setters, while off the court, he coordinated recruiting, scouting and match preparation.

As part of Sooner head coach and 2006 AVCA Central Region Coach of the Year Santiago Restrepo's staff last season, Loeswick guided Oklahoma to a 28-6 overall record and 17-3 mark in the Big 12, good enough for a second place finish. The Sooners recorded school records for wins and winning percentage, and recorded the best one-year turnaround in Big 12 history with 15 more league victories than 2005

Oklahoma advanced to the NCAA Tournament for just the fourth time in school history and knocked off Oral Roberts and Missouri State before falling to UCLA in only the Sooner's second appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16. Earning its first national ranking in 18 years, Oklahoma finished the season ranked No. 12 in the AVCA poll, the Sooners' highest ranking in school history.

"Steve is coming from an Oklahoma program that has enjoyed a climb similar to LSU's over the last three years to become highly successful. We are lucky to be able to bring in a coach like him because it's not very often that you can attract a person from a program like that," said Flory. "He will be able to add a new perspective and bring in some fresh thoughts for our program."

In addition, he coached Eliane Santos and Joanna Schmitt to All-America honors a year ago as Santos was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Anna Monsen was the Big 12 Libero of the Year. Oklahoma setter Rachel Jackson also earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

Loeswick helped the Sooner setters improve each season on the Oklahoma staff. Most of the assist marks in the rally scoring system were held by setters under his tutelage. In addition, the Sooners ranked third in the Big 12 in assists per game and third in hitting percentage, as Jackson ranked second in the conference in individual assists per game.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Loeswick served as an assistant coach at Cornell for six seasons from 1998-2003, restoring the Big Red program to prominence with a career record of 93-38. His final year in Ithaca, he led Cornell to a second-place finish in the lvy League with a record of 21-4. During his tenure, he helped develop 2000 lvy League Player of the Year Robin Moore and 16 All-lvy League selections

Loeswick began his coaching career in Holland in 1997 where he was an assistant coach for the Martinus Club, a professional women's club, for one season. He began his coaching career after a year playing in Germany's top professional volleyball league.

The former four-year starting setter for the University of Southern California, he was just the third Trojan player to start in a single position for all four years. As a freshman, he ranked 10th nationally with 15.86 assists per game before earning 1993 Volleyball Monthly All-Freshman team honors and being named to the 1996 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Academic Team.

"I think he's a very bright, young, enthusiastic coach," said Flory. "His playing experience internationally and certainly collegiately in the United States is going to add a new twist to what we do here. We're excited to have him."

In 1993 and 1994, Loeswick participated in the U.S. Olympic Festival, serving as the captain of the squad that captured the silver medal. A Volleyball Monthly Fabulous 50 Prep as a senior in high school in 1992, he also won a gold medal at the 1991 Empire State Games. In addition, he was a member of the U.S. Junior Elite team twice and played for the Rochester Pace Bootlegger club team, where he earned AAU All-America honors.

In 1996. Loeswick earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC. A native of North Tonawanda, N.Y., he married the former Jennifer Arbuckle on June 17, 2006. Jennifer, a standout outside hitter at Virginia Tech from 1992-1995, served as Oklahoma director of volleyball operations for several years. Steve and Jennifer welcomed their first child, Isabella Rose, in April.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

LSU (1997-2000)

ormer LSU volleyball standout Jill Lytle Wilson, who spent last season as an assistant coach at Wake Forest, enters her first season as an assistant coach for the LSU volleyball program.

"We're thrilled to have Jill once again officially join the LSU volleyball family," said Fran Flory. "She left her mark as a player and we're very confident she will leave her mark as a coach in this program.

"She is truly one of the bright, young shining stars of women's volleyball with a tremendous future ahead of her and we're thrilled that one of the stops on her way to being a great collegiate coach is back at LSU, where she can help us continue to build and continue to grow as a program."

Lytle Wilson spent one season as an assistant with the Demon Decons, leading them to a tie for their most wins in the Atlantic Coast Conference in school history. On the court, she was in charge of training the outside hitters and right side hitters, while off the court, she coordinated team travel and assisted in recruiting. She also served as assistant camp director.

From 2002-2004, Lytle Wilson was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina. In three seasons in Chapel Hill, she helped lead the Tar Heels to their first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and the 2002 Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship with a 32-4 overall record and a final national ranking of No. 11.

In 2003, she helped guide North Carolina to a 20-win season, despite losing four starters. In addition, she coached Laura Greene and Molly Pyles to All-America honors in 2002 and 2004 respectively as Green took home ACC Player of the Year honors in 2002.

Prior to joining the Tar Heel staff, Lytle Wilson served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2001. She helped lead the Skyhawks to the regular season Ohio Valley Conference Championship with a 24-7 overall record.

Lytle Wilson also has experience as an assistant coach for the Triangle Volleyball Club from 2002-2006, serving as assistant club director last year.

A four-year starter at outside hitter for LSU from 1997-2000, Lytle Wilson stayed on as a student assistant coach in 2001 before earning her bachelor of science degree in business administration in 2001.

One of the hardest workers on her team and considered one of the most determined players Flory has ever coached, Lytle played in 98 matches in her career, limited only by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee suffered 11 matches into her junior season.

As a senior, she ranked sixth in the SEC with 23 service aces as she helped lead the Tigers to a berth in the SEC Tournament champion ship game.

A three-time member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, she was also the Tigers' representative on the women's at-large SEC Good Works Team in 1999-2000. Her good works did not go unnoticed at the University as Lytle Wilson was named the LSU Student-Athlete Volunteer of the Year in 2000. She served on the CHAMPS Student-Athlete Advisory Board for four years, the last year serving as president of the organization. She was also a member of the LSU tennis team in 2001.

Lytle Wilson, originally from Richmond, Texas, was a member of the Texas Elite Volleyball Club during her prep playing days. She earned first-team all-district and second-team All-Greater Houston honors as a senior at Lamar Consolidated High School.

As a junior, she was the District 23-4A Most Valuable Player as Lamar Consolidated earned the 1995 district title. A nominee for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award, she was a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the top five percent of her class.

The daughter of Mike and Kim Lytle, Jill is married to Jared Wilson. She was born on May 6, 1979.

ASSOCIATE SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR mfoley@lsu.edu

Melissa Foley enters her seventh year on the LSU sports information staff as Associate SID in charge of the nationally recognized softball program. She is also in her sixth season as the primary contact for the nationally ranked women's volleyball program.

Last season, her softball media guide was judged second best in the district and ranked third nationally by the College Sports Information Directors of America, after being awarded second best in the district and fifth nationally in 2006. In 2004, her softball guide ranked best in the district and third in the nation, while her volleyball guide was ranked second in the district and seventh nationally. Her 2005 softball guide earned first place honors in the district and was judged second in the nation.

Foley, 31, is a Marksville, La., native and a 1997 graduate of LSU in mass communications. Prior to coming to LSU, Foley was the assistant SID at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches. At NSU, she was the primary media contact for the women's basketball, soccer and softball teams and assisted with the other 11 sports including the NCAA Tournament men's basketball team and Division I-AA football team.

From 1999-2000, Foley worked as an intern at Ole Miss. In Oxford, she worked primarily with the volleyball and men's and women's track and field programs while assisting with football and both basketball teams.

Foley began her career at Northwestern State where she was a graduate assistant for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration in the spring of 1999.

In December 2006, the former Melissa Reynaud married Damian Foley, a native of Christchurch, New Zealand, in a pair of ceremonies in Baton Rouge and Nelson. New Zealand.

LSU CLAIMS BACK-TO-BACK SEC WEST TITLES

For the second-straight season, the Tigers claimed the SEC Western Division title. In 2005, LSU tied with Arkansas to share its first West championship before winning the title outright in 2006. With a 16-4 SEC mark, LSU finished four games ahead of Alabama in the West and three games behind Florida overall. Since the SEC went to the divisional format in 1995, LSU had finished as high as second on three occasions, but never won before last season. The last time LSU won an SEC overall championship was when the Tigers won three straight overall titles from 1989-1991.

LSU MAKES BACK-TO-BACK NCAA TOURNAMENT BERTHS

The Tigers made their second-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, marking the first back-to-back berths since making four consecutive appearances from 1989-1992. Overall, LSU made its eighth appearance in the NCAA Tournament and has posted a 10-8 record. The Tigers are one of only three teams in the SEC to advance to the NCAA Final Four, making appearances in both 1990 and 1991. In addition to LSU, six other SEC teams earned bids to the NCAA Tournament. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Ole Miss and Tennessee were also chosen to participate in the postseason tournament. The seven teams selected from the SEC are a record for the conference, breaking the previous high of six teams set in 2005.

LSU POSTS RECORD WINS

With a 26-6 overall record and a 16-4 mark in SEC play, LSU recorded the most wins by a Tiger team since the 1992 team went 26-9, and broke the school record for most conference wins in school history. In 1991, the Tigers set the previous conference win record with a 13-1 mark in SEC play to win their last SEC Championship.

LSU HAS NINTH BEST TURNAROUND

In the four seasons from 2003-2006, the LSU seniors saw their share of ups and downs. As freshmen, Clark, Leaumont, Mikulik and Romero finished 11-19 while seeing considerable action on the court. After a 17-12 mark the following year, LSU posted back-to-back 20-win seasons to close out their careers. The turnaround from their first veasons to their final two seasons marked the ninth best turnaround in the nation over that period of time. The Tigers saw a total improvement of 18 wins, sitting behind only Tennessee State (29.5), Cal Poly (26), East Tennessee State (25), UAB (23.5), Middle Tennessee State (22.5), Florida International (20.5), Siena (20) and Duke (20).

LSU IN THE CSTV/AVCA POLL

The Tigers finished 2006 ranked No. 19 in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll. LSU was in the top 10 twice during the season, coming in at No. 10 each time, the highest ranking for the Tigers since coming in at No. 8 on Sept. 7, 1992. The Tigers began the preseason poll receiving votes and moved into the Top 25 during the first week of play and have been ranked for 15 straight weeks.

MIKULIK, ROMERO POST 1,000 CAREER DIGS

Against South Carolina on Sept. 22, Kassi Mikulik recorded her 1,000th career dig, becoming just the seventh player in LSU history to record 1,000 digs. She finished her career with 1,357 career digs, moving her into third on the all-time LSU digs list. Against Marquette on Nov. 25, Daniela Romero also recorded her 1,000th career dig, becoming the eighth player to record 1,000 digs. She finished with 1,009 digs to put her in eighth place in career digs. It marked the second time in school history that two players have hit the 1,000-dig mark in the same season. In 1986, Wendy Stammer and Detra Brown reached the milestone, remaining the only other pair to accomplish the feat.

ROMERO BREAKS INTO THE TOP 10 IN SEASON ASSISTS

With 1,531 assists in 2006, Daniela Romero posted the most assists in a single-season in her career, while breaking the school record and ranking 13th in the NCAA in assists per game at 13.43. In addition, she recorded the most assists in a single season at LSU since Daniela Reis recorded 1,608 in 1991. With her 36th assist against Alabama on Nov. 10, Romero passed Kim Osterhoff in 1985 to break into the Top 10 in LSU single-season history before finishing the season ranked fourth behind three of Reis' seasons.

CLARK BLOCKS HER WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS

In her final season, Melody Clark broke into the Top 10 in career blocks and block assists in LSU history. Clark finished ranked eighth in career block assists and ninth in total blocks. Having reached 250 blocks for her career, she also moved into the top 10 in career block assists in school history, finishing ranked ninth.

DEGIROLAMO MOVES INTO FOURTH IN BLOCK ASSISTS

With 152 block assists, Lauren DeGirolamo finished in fourth in single season block assists in LSU history. In addition, the redshirt freshman ranked third in the SEC and ninth in the NCAA in blocks per game.

2006 Season Review

SKENDER AMONG TOP IN SEC AND NCAA

Marina Skender led the SEC and ranked sixth in the NCAA in service aces per game at .675, which also ranked third in LSU single season history. In addition, she averaged 3.81 kills per game, which ranked ninth in the SEC. Her 1,203 total attempts ranked fifth in school history, while her 10.55 attempts per game average broke the school record.

MIKULIK DIGS THREE AND FOUR GAME MATCHES

Kassi Mikulik recorded four top-10 marks in digs in school history, two coming in threegame matches and two more in four-game matches. The first top-10 performance came against Ole Miss on Sept. 2 when the libero recorded 26 digs, the second most digs in a three-game match in LSU history. The mark was four behind the school record of 30 recorded by Luciana Reis against Arkansas State in 1993. Less than a month later against No. 25 Tennessee on Oct. 22, she recorded 22 digs, which tied for sixth. Against Alabama on Oct. 8, Mikulik recorded 26 digs, the fifth most digs in a four-game match. Once again, less than a month later on Nov. 3 against Florida, Mikulik recorded a careerbest 28 digs, which tied for third. The mark was three behind the school record of 31 digs recorded by Luciana Reis against Kansas in 1993.

DEGIROLAMO BLOCKS 'EM BACK

Against Marquette on Nov. 25, Lauren DeGirolamo recorded nine blocks, all assists, which was the second most block assists and tied for the eighth most total blocks in a three-game match in LSU history. The block assist mark was one behind the school record of 10 recorded by Julie Stempel against Tulane in 1988. The total block mark was three behind the school record of 12 set by Monique Adams in 1990 against William & Mary and tied by Kelly Thompson in 1997 against Ball State.

TIGERS POST 10TH MOST DIGS IN A THREE-GAME MATCH

Against Ole Miss on Sept. 29, LSU recorded 70 team digs, the 10th most digs in a threegame match in school history. The mark was 25 behind the school record of 95 digs, which was recorded against Mississippi State on Oct. 13, 2000.

IN THE RECORD BOOK AGAINST FLORIDA

Against No. 7 Florida on Nov. 3, LSU broke a pair of school records. The Tigers broke the school record for total attempts in a four-game match. Recording 236 attempts, the Tigers bested the previous school record of 232 against New Orleans on Sept. 4, 1998. In addition, LSU broke the school record for digs in a four-game match. Posting 119 digs

ROMERO FINISHES SECOND IN CAREER ASSISTS

Setter Daniela Romero completed her career ranked second in career assists in LSU history with 4,486. She was only the second LSU player to record 4,000 career assists, finishing behind only Daniela Reis, who also holds the SEC career assists record with 6,379. In addition, Romero finished third in career assists per game in LSU history.

MIKULIK BREAKS LSU SEASON DIGS RECORD

Against Marquette on Nov. 25, 2006, Kassi Mikulik broke the LSU single-season digs record, passing the 518 digs recorded by Luciana Reis in 1993. The senior finished the season with 535 digs. With the addition of her mark of 384 in 2005, she finished in the Top 10 in single-season digs twice.

against the Gators, the Tigers topped the previous record of 116 against Alabama on Nov. 11, 1994. It also marked the first 100-dig match for LSU since coming in with 105 against Kentucky on Nov. 11, 2005.

DEGIROLAMO GOES BACK-TO-BACK

With back-to-back double-figure block performances against No. 13 Tennessee and Kentucky, Lauren DeGirolamo became the first player at LSU to post back-to-back double-figure blocking matches since All-American Ivana Kuzmic did so against No. 8 Notre Dame and South Carolina on Sept. 18 and 23, 2005.

OPPONENTS CAN'T FIND RHYTHM AGAINST TIGERS

LSU ranked second in the SEC in opponents hitting percentage, holding foes to a .158 mark. In addition, LSU held eight of its opponents to under a .100 hitting percentage. The best hitting percentage against the Tigers was by No. 14 California at .336, one of only eight teams to hit over .200. Conversely, Nicholls State failed to get into positive figures, posting the lowest opponents hitting percentage against the Tigers under Flory and overall since 1991. In addition, Ole Miss hit .000 on Sept. 29, the fourth lowest mark against LSU under Flory in her tenure.

SENIORS ACCOMPLISH FIRSTS

The 2006 Tiger seniors accomplished something they had never done in their careers as LSU knocked off No. 13 Tennessee and Kentucky on the road to open SEC play. The Tigers had not defeated the Lady Vols in Knoxville since 2001, when the current senior class was still in high school. It had been longer since LSU had knocked off the Wildcats in Lexington, dating back to 1999, when the seniors were freshmen in high school. In both wins, the Tigers had to come from behind as LSU fell behind by two games against Tennessee, and dropped the first game to Kentucky. There were only two SEC venues the seniors did not win in - the CAVE at Alabama and the O'Connell Center at Florida.

TIGERS TIED BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Starting the season at 15-1, LSU tied the 1978 and 1991 teams for the best start in school history. The Tigers won 13 straight matches after dropping a five-game decision to No. 2 Penn State on Aug. 26 in the Tiger Invitational, which was tied for the third longest winning streak in LSU volleyball history, before losing to Alabama on Oct. 8.

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence from the event in 1988. Playing on its home court, LSU survived a five-game scare from Houston to advance to the South Regional in Austin, Texas. There, Texas-Arlington exacted revenge for a tournament loss from 1986 by rallying from two games down to win the last three and advance

Postseason History

Overall Record: 34-7 SEC Champions SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

Coming off the second conference championship in as many years, LSU cruised into the South Regional with a sweep of Louisville in the first round of the tournament. In Austin, Texas, the Tigers ousted Texas Tech and knocked off Texas on the Longhorns home court with a 17-15 game five win to advance to the Final Four for the first time in school history. In College Park, Md., LSU fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals.

1991

Overall Record: 35-2 SEC Champions SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

With only one loss, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint. LSU beat Houston in the first round for the second time in three years to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted. After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU ran into a Florida team that had handed the Tigers their only loss. A tough four-game victory later and LSU was back in the Final Four. This year in Los Angeles, Calif., the Tigers fell in four games to Long Beach State. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 LSU team was the only team from the SEC to win a game in the NCAA Final Four.

Overall Record: 26-9 SEC Runner-Up SEC Tournament Runner-Up

LSU had to travel for its first round match for the first time since 1987, this time to Lubbock, Texas, where the Tigers ousted Texas Tech from the tournament in just three games for the third consecutive year. At the South Regional in Gainesville, Fla., Texas knocked LSU out of the tournament in four games, ending hopes of a third straight Final Four appearance by the Tigers.

1993

Overall Record: 21-16
NIVC Champions

For the first time since 1988 and only the second since 1985, LSU was left out of the NCAA Tournament. Despite not making the tournament, the Tigers showed why they deserved a bid by coasting to the NIVC Championship in Kansas City, Mo., by dropping only three games in the team's six tournament victories. LSU swept Baylor in the tournament final.

Overall Record: 25-11 SEC Western Division Co-Champion

Making their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1992, the Tigers had to travel to Austin, Texas, for their first round match against seventh-ranked Texas. LSU put up a gutsy performance against the Longhorns, but could not pull off the upset victory, falling in three games to end its best season in over a decade despite having to play on the road for the majority of the season due to the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

Overall Record: 26-6 SEC Western Division

LSU made its second-straight NCAA appearance after claiming back-to-back SEC Western Division titles. Despite a top 15 national ranking, the Tigers went unseeded and were forced to travel to San Luis Obispo, Calif., for their first round match against California, another ranked team that failed to garner a national seed. LSU came out hot to win game won, but could not complete the upset of the Golden Bears as the powerful Cal front line took charge in the final three games. The Tigers completed their best season since 1992 while setting a school record for conference wins in a season.

Maravich CENTER

In 2007, the LSU volleyball program will begin its 26th season in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, the largest volleyball venue in the SEC. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,373 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department and underwent a multi-year refurbishment. The renovation began three years ago with new television lighting and continued two years ago with a new roof surface. Last season, the inside of the Maravich Center saw an upgrade as the seats were replaced and the interior was given a complete makeover.

The outside windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the arena. Volleyball fans can also see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

The Tiger volleyball team enjoys the comforts of a spacious locker room. The two-tiered fully carpeted facility features individual cubicles for each athlete, a meeting room and storage area.

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center was one of the top home courts in the nation, as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record. During that time, LSU recorded a 37-match home-court win streak, which is the second-longest streak in SEC history. In 1991, the Tigers enjoyed possibly their finest season in the arena as LSU recorded a perfect 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have now posted nine consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 69-35 (.663), including an undefeated 6-0 mark in 2005. Since beginning play in the arena in 1982, the Tigers have notched an 263-110 (.705) record, recording only three losing seasons at home.

The Maravich Center has also played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Maravich Center has also been the site of three NCAA Championship first round matches as well as the NCAA South Regional in 1991.

Along with the main court area, an auxiliary gym with a recently refinished court is located underground in the north section of the arena. Nearly all Tiger volleyball practices take place in the auxiliary gym.

2006-2007 IN REVIEW

Top Teams

Women's Basketball

The Lady Tigers advanced to the program's fourth straight NCAA Final Four with tournament victories over UNC Ashville, West Virginia, Florida State and topseeded Connecticut. LSU also posted a 30-8 overall record in 2006-07 and went 10-4 in the SEC. The 30 wins marks the third straight season with at least 30 wins.

Gymnastics

The LSU gymnastics team maintained its presence among the nation's elite, finishing the season with a No. 7 national ranking after advancing to the NCAA Championships for the 19th time in program history. Individually, the Tigers had a school-record four athletes earn first-team All-America honors, while head coach D-D Breaux was named the NCAA Central Region Coach of the Year and Bob Moore was named the region's assistant coach of the year

Football

The Tigers posted an 11-2 overall record and defeated Notre Dame in the 2007 Sugar Bowl. The victory was the third BCS bowl title for LSU, including the 2001 Sugar Bowl and the 2003 BCS National Title game in New Orleans. During the 2006 season, the Tigers recorded two wins over top 10 teams, including a 28-24 come-from-behind win at No. 8 Tennessee and a 31-26 win at No. 5 Arkansas.

Men's and Women's Track and Field

The LSU men's and women's track and field teams enjoyed an incredible season in 2007 under the direction of third-year head coach Dennis Shaver. The Lady Tigers were the NCAA runners-up during both the indoor and outdoor seasons, while the Tigers finished as the NCAA runner-up during the outdoor season in June. In addition, the LSU women won their first SEC Outdoor title since 1996 with a victory at the SEC Outdoor Championships in May.

Elite Athletes

★ Sherry Fletcher

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD Sprinter Sherry Fletcher became the fourth Lady Tiger all-time to win an NCAA title in the 100-meter dash after clocking a personal best time of 11.20 seconds in the final to win gold at the 2007 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. She is now in select company as she joins Dawn Sowell (1989), Esther Jones (1990) and D'Andre Hill (1994, 1995) as the only NCAA champions in the 100 meters in the program's storied history.

Marina Skender

A two-time All-SEC selection, the junior outside hitter has helped lead the Tigers to back-to-back SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. Skender led the conference and ranked sixth in the NCAA in service aces per game, while also recording a school record for attempts per game.

Killian Roessner

SOFTBALL

A first-team All-American in 2007, the catcher had the best season of her career. Roessner led the SEC with 19 runners caught stealing and tied for the league lead with four runners picked off. In addition to her outstanding play behind the plate, she hit .354 for the season with 15 doubles, six home runs and 36 RBIs

Jared Bradford

RASFRALI.

Junior right-hander Jared Bradford enjoyed an excellent 2007 season, as he was named second-team All-SEC and secondteam ABCA All-South Region. He completed the season with a 10-4 mark, tying for the most victories among SEC pitchers. Bradford also led LSU with five saves, and he posted either a win or a save in 10 of LSU's 12 SEC victories.

Kelly Phelan

GYMNASTICS

Phelan finished her gymnastics career at LSU as a three-time All-American after earning first-team recognition on the beam and floor during her senior season. She was also named a Scholastic All-American and a Coca-Cola Community All-American.

Megan Falcon →

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Sophomore Megan Falcon notched an impressive 38-3 overall record in her first collegiate season. Ranked No. 2 in the country, Falcon was named an ITA All-American and SEC Player of the Year. She was also named ITA National Co-Player to Watch and Louisiana Newcomer and Player of the Year. She held a 28 match winning streak as she became the first player in women's tennis history to reach the NCAA semifinals

Danny Bryan

MEN'S TENNIS

Danny Bryan received ITA All-America and firstteam All-SEC honors in 2007. He finished the season ranked No. 4 in doubles with partner Colt Gaston. Bryan and Gaston tallied an impressive 24-4 record on their way to the NCAA Doubles quarterfinals. Bryan represented the tennis team well in the community as he received the 2007 ITA/Arthur Ashe Jr. Award Leadership and Sportsmanship

JaMarcus Russell

FOOTBALL

JaMarcus Russell departed LSU after his junior season and was the No. 1 pick of the 2007 NFL draft after having his most successful and productive season with the Tigers. The Mobile, Ala., native guided LSU to a 11-2 record, including a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame. Russell threw for 3,129 yards and 28 touchdowns as a junior and guided the Tigers in two come-from-behind wins.

Julius Gloeckner

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING Julius Gloeckner owns more school records than any other swimmer in school history and was a NCAA All-American in his first two seasons

Hali Saucier

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING Hali Saucier was the most decorated athlete at LSU academically: She was the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Finalist, an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient and an ESPN Academic All-American. She also earned 2007 NCAA All-America honors and was the 2007 NCAA Regional Platform Champion.

Isa Phillips

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD

Hurdler Isa Phillips became the first LSU athlete since Billy Hardin in 1964 to win an NCAA title in the 400-meter hurdles as he won the event at the 2007 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. His time of 48.51 seconds in the final shattered his previous personal best and moved him into the No. 2 spot on the school's all-time performance list.

Sylvia Fowles >>

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

As a junior, Sylvia Fowles earned Kodak and John R. Wooden Award All-America honors as well as first-team honors from ESPN com and the USBWA The 6-6 center helped guide the Lady Tigers to a fourth straight NCAA Final Four appearance and a 30-8 record in 2006-07 and averaged 16.9 points and 12.6 rebounds, earning first-team All-SEC honors as well.

Glen Davis

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Glen Davis earned first-team All-SEC honors after leading the team in scoring with 17.7 points and rebounding with 10.4 per game.

Melissa Eaton

WOMEN'S GOLF

Melissa Eaton led LSU in stroke average for the second straight year. She completed her third straight season with a 75 stroke average to help guide the Lady Tigers to the NCAA Regional.

Chelsea Potts

SOCCER

Defender Chelsea Potts established herself as one of the top young center backs in the country with her play during the 2006 season. Potts became the first Tiger to receive All-America recognition as she was named a Soccer Buzz Second-Team Freshman All-American following the season, while she was also named second-team All-SEC and a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Chris Wells 🖈

MEN'S GOLF

Chris Wells capped a stellar career in the purple and gold in 2007 as he earned All-SEC recognition for the second time after leading the Tigers with a 73.0 stroke average for the season. He was also a three-time first-team All-Louisiana selection by the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association, as well as a two-time member of the

m L. Jenkins

President, Louisiana State University System

Dr. William L. Jenkins is the fourth President of the Louisiana State University System, a system that includes five academic campuses, a law center, state-wide agricultural research and extension services, a leading nutrition research center, two health sciences centers, and ten public hospitals.

A veterinary scholar, Dr. Jenkins has held virtually every major administrative position at LSU, including provost and chancellor, since coming to the university as Dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988.

Jenkins' tenure as System President has been marked by unprecedented growth as well as challenges, including destruction of LSU institutions in New Orleans in the aftermath of hurricanes in the fall of 2005. Although faced with a fiscal crisis and deep budget cuts that disrupted academic programs and forced the furloughs of thousands of LSU employees, Jenkins pressed for calm and reflective responses to the calamities by university and state education officials, actions that led to the rapid re-opening of the university system's urban research campus and its health care professional schools in New Orleans.

A South African native, Dr. Jenkins received his veterinary medicine degree from the University of Pretoria in 1958. He practiced veterinary medicine for four years before joining the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology and Toxicology. He obtained specialist credentials in 1968 and in 1970 received a Ph.D. from the University of Missouri in Columbia.

In 1978, Dr. Jenkins became a member of the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology and Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988 and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993. Three years later in 1996, the LSU Board of Supervisors named him LSU's fifth Chancellor, As chancellor, Dr. Jenkins led the strategic reorganization of the main campus administration to make it more efficient and responsive, efforts that were major factors in the later crafting of LSU's Flagship Agenda.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Jenkins has received numerous teaching and public service awards. In 1997, he was named Communicator of the Year by the Public Relations Association of Louisiana, and a Distinguished Alumnus by the University of Missouri. The regional chapter of Toastmasters International presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award.

Other honors include the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, his alma mater, the University of Pretoria, bestowed an Honorary Doctorate on Dr. Jenkins in September of 2000. He also was presented with the Volunteer of the Year Award by the Southern Economic Development Conference in 2004.

An active participant in national continuing education efforts, Dr. Jenkins has delivered more than 200 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. The co-author of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology, Dr. Jenkins also has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels, written more than  $60\,$ scientific articles and contributed 15 chapters to various collegiate textbooks.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in numerous professional and civic organizations as well as select national committees. He served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools that reviewed accreditation criteria for colleges and universities. Dr. Jenkins was also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society and is a member of the Governor's Advisory Commission on Coastal Restoration and Conservation.

In addition, he serves on a number of public boards such as the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities. The Nature Conservancy of Louisiana, Teach for America South Louisiana, and the Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children---Sharon, Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren---and nine grandchildren.

The Honorable Sean O'Keefe assumed the office of Chancellor of Louisiana State University and A&M College on February 21, 2005. Prior to his appointment as LSU's seventh chancellor, O'Keefe established a distinguished career in higher education and United States government service.

Chancellor O'Keefe earned his Bachelor of Arts from Loyola University in New Orleans in 1977 and his Master of Public Administration from the Maxwell School of Syracuse University in 1978. He held an endowed chair at the Syracuse University Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs and served as the Director of National Security Studies, a partnership of Syracuse University and Johns Hopkins University for delivery of executive education programs. He was also Professor of Business Administration and Assistant to the Senior Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate School at the Pennsylvania State University.

He served on four separate occasions as a presidential appointee. Most recently, until February 2005, he served as the 10th Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. O'Keefe joined President George W. Bush's Administration as Deputy Assistant to the President and as the Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget until December 2001.

Appointed Secretary of the Navy in July 1992 by President George Bush, O'Keefe served as Comptroller and Chief Financial Officer of the Department of Defense since 1989. Before joining then-Defense Secretary Dick Cheney's Pentagon management team in these capacities, he served on the United States Senate Committee on Appropriations staff for eight years and was Staff Director of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee. His public service began in 1978 upon his selection as a Presidential Management Intern.

Chancellor Sean O'Keefe is a Fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration, a Fellow of the International Academy of Astronautics, and member of the Naval Postgraduate School Board of Advisors. During his academic postings, he was a Visiting Scholar at the Wolfson College of the University of Cambridge in the United Kingdom, a member of the Naval Postgraduate School's civil-military relations seminar team, and conducted seminars for the Strategic Studies Group at Oxford University. He served on the national security panel to devise the 1988 Republican platform and was a member of the 1985 Kennedy School of Government program for national security executives at Harvard University.

In 1993, President Bush and Secretary Cheney presented him the Distinguished Public Service Award. He was the 1999 faculty recipient of the Syracuse University Chancellor's Award for Public Service; recipient of the Department of the Navy's Public Service Award in December 2000; and has been awarded five honorary doctorate degrees from several prestigious educational institutions. In 2003 and 2004, he was recognized and honored by the Irish American Magazine as one of the Top 100 Irish Americans.

Chancellor O'Keefe was named recipient of the Potomac Institute for Policy Studies' 2005 Navigator Award and received the 2005 Honorary Engineer of the Year Award from the Engineer's Council. He was inducted into the Louisiana Political Hall of Fame in January 2007.

He is the author of several journal articles and contributing author of Keeping the Edge: Managing Defense for the Future released in October 2000. In 1998, he co-authored The Defense Industry in the Post-Cold War Era: Corporate Strategies and Public Policy Perspectives.

He is married to Laura McCarthy O'Keefe, and they have three children - Lindsey, Jonathan, and Kevin.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, begins her first year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., received a bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA and earned her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University.

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was designated as an associate professor in August 2005.

In terms of her research, DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her work has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it has been about how landscapes help make the past meaningful in the present.

Most of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was as historical study that examined a 19th century novel and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She also teaches undergraduate courses in cultural, feminist, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American – her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is actually her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

The Bertman Coaching LEGACY

Skip Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program. Bertman has been inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame, the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

A Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman has made the seamless transition into the athletics director's chair with the same enthusiasm, vision and demand for excellence that were trademarks of his stellar coaching career.

The 2007-08 season will mark Bertman's final year as LSU athletics director. After his tenure ends on June 30, 2008, he will remain at LSU as athletics director emeritus through 2010, working as a vital fund-raiser for the university.

In six years as LSU's director of athletics, Bertman has added to his impressive list of on-the-field achievements. Under his direction, LSU has enjoyed arguably the greatest athletics seasons in the history of the institution.

The 2006-07 season saw 12 LSU teams finish among the nation's top 25, including a No. 3 final ranking for the football team and a fourth consecutive Final Four appearance by the women's basketball squad. The LSU men's and women's track and field teams each finished No. 2 in the nation.

In 2005-06, LSU joined North Carolina (1997-98) as the only schools to have their football, men's basketball and women's basketball teams all finish in the nation's Top 5. LSU in 2005-06 also became the first school in SEC history to win outright league championships in men's and women's basketball in the same season.

In 2004-05, 14 LSU teams advanced to the post-season, and in 2003-04, three teams won national championships, nine teams finished in the nation's top ten, and fourteen teams ranked in the top 25.

Under Bertman's direction, LSU teams have also recorded improved grade point averages across the board, making the student-athlete experience a success on and off the fields of competition.

While supervising the Tigers' progress on the playing fields, he has implemented measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

Bertman is now in the midst of upgrading LSU's athletics complex, as he took the bold but essential move to implement a seat contribution program in Tiger Stadium to fund facility improvements and ensure the financial stability of the LSU Athletics Department for the next decade.

Working hand in hand with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, Bertman has already overseen the completion of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, the renovation of Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, and the construction of the Football Operations Center.

In addition, state-of-the-art baseball and softball stadiums are scheduled to be constructed by the fall of 2008, and a basketball practice facility will be in place by 2009.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' budget of over $50 million.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles during his 18-year coaching tenure (1984-2001), and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons.

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2006 into the new College Baseball Hall of Fame as part of the hall's inaugural class. He has also been induced into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

In a Baseball America poll published in 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman, Dedeaux and Augie Garrido of Texas are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

Bertman had previously earned recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes and he was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters - Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertmans have four grandchildren - Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard; and Samuel Aaron and Ezra Michael, the sons of Drew and Lisa Bertman Pate.

Credentials

Credentials for LSU home games are issued for working media only. Season credential should be requested in August and single-match credentials should be requested two (2) days prior to the date of the game.

- Members of the media must request credentials online through Associate Sports Information Director Melissa Foley.
- Please keep in mind that credentials authorize an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. ANY unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and the accredited organization to revocation of its credentials for future LSU athletic events.

Credentials will be issued using the following criteria:

- Sports editors of daily newspapers and sports director of television and radio stations.
- 2. Daily radio and television shows.

- Weekly radio and television shows providing sound and/or video highlights.
- Weekly magazines specifically dedicated to LSU Athletics.
- 5. Other weekly and monthly publications.
- 6. Websites (please see restrictions below).

The official website of LSU athletics and the official website of the visiting school will be credentialed. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet specifications outlined below:

- Must be a legal corporate entity that has been in business at least one full calendar year and has provided coverage of LSU or the visiting team for at least one year.
- Must provide daily coverage of ALL athletic teams of LSU or the visiting team with its own staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.

- Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.
- Must provide coverage of all press conferences of ALL athletic teams at LSU or the visiting team.
- Must be accredited by home university as working media.

Note: Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and they sponsor these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio, television), but will not be granted additional passes for online staff.

Requests from individuals not employed by an accredited media outlet will not be considered.

Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
