LSU Alma Mater

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias
shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear old Alma Mater
who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us ...
Forever L-S-U.

When this year's seniors stepped on campus in the fall of 2005, high expectations followed them. The LSU volleyball program was counting on the highly touted recruits to get the Tigers over the hump and back into the NCAA Tournament after a 12-year absence following the abundant success of the early 1990s.

Three years, three Southeastern Conference Western Division titles and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances later, it is obvious they delivered. Elena Martinez, Marina Skender and Kyna Washington have been an integral element in the rise of LSU volleyball, and their leadership will be instrumental in building on that success in the 2008 season.

"This group has elevated our program to new heights," head coach Fran Flory said, "and we expect another step forward heading into the season."

With the recent success, the coaches and players know their potential and will accept nothing but the same dedication toward their goals. But this will take a total team effort and additional leaders. Flory believes the acquisition of a transfer setter, junior Samantha Dabbs from Louisville, and two new freshmen faces should help round out the squad. She also thinks the additional leadership will come from two juniors – Brittnee Cooper and Lauren DeGirolamo. Both middle blockers are coming off impressive campaigns in which they each recorded nearly 200 blocks, an average of about 1.5 per game. In fact, Flory believes this tandem makes up the best middle-blocking duo in the SEC.

"With differing styles it is a challenge for teams to prepare for both of them," she explained. "Lauren has been a stabilizing force for us and the most dependable and reliable player on our roster. Brittnee has developed into a dominant middle blocker. Her experiences with the USA Women's National A2 team this summer allowed her to understand how much potential she possesses, and she has worked exceptionally hard throughout the summer to prepare for this season."

Cooper was not the only member of the LSU volleyball team competing for the U.S. National team this summer. Martinez, the senior libero and reigning SEC Defensive Player of the Year, was also one of 22 collegiate volleyball players who participated in the summer. Martinez and fellow senior Washington, an imposing outside hitter, both made the All-SEC teams in 2007 and are expected to earn even more accolades to close out their impressive careers in 2008.

"When these girls agreed to come to LSU, this was the most significant class we had been able to sign," Flory said. "We expect them to leave here as some of the most decorated players in the history of the program, with all-conference and All-America honors. Just as importantly, they have succeeded in the classroom, and I am especially proud of both of them."

These juniors and seniors welcome Dabbs as an upperclassman to the program. Though she is a newcomer to LSU, her reputation as a top-notch collegiate setter is reflected in her statistics. As a sophomore, the San Antonio native guided the Cardinals to a 22-8 record last season while at Louisville. She led the team with 11.11 assists per game, while leading the Cardinals to a .282 team hitting percentage and 15.87 kills per game.

"The addition of Sam to our roster will They've won three straight SEC West titles and made three straight NCAA Tournament appearances, and the eyes of the Tigers are set on a fourth of both. Losing just one senior from a team that finished 25-8, both goals are well within reach.

Returning two All-Americans and four All-SEC performers, they also are looking forward to some changes in the experience of home games this season. Instead of using seating on all levels of just one side of the Maravich Center as in the past, now fans will be placed in the lower bowl only all the way around the arena. After averaging more than 750 fans per match the last three years, Flory is excited about the change.

"We have such great support from our fans, so it only seems right for them to all be as close as possible to the action," she said. "I really believe this will add to the intensity of our matches and make LSU volleyball an even better experience for our team and our fans."

Flory's Tigers experienced a very productive spring, including an impressive showing in the inaugural SEC Coaches Beach Volleyball Championships. Both Cooper and Martinez also competed with the U.S. National Team during the summer, while the others trained in the offseason as well to be fit and ready for 2008 season.

"With the veteran team we have returning, our expectations are very high going into the season," Flory said. "We had a very productive spring and summer, and we are very prepared to once again enjoy a record-setting year at LSU."

significantly impact our team and our offense," Flory said. "Sam is a proven setter who has succeeded at every stop in her career. She will fit right into our offensive system and allow us to be more creative with that system."

Dabbs joins Brittney Johnson, one of four talented sophomores, as the team's others setter. Johnson saw action in 77 games in 25 matches last year, her best performance coming against Tulane with 63 assists.

"Brittney is really developing into a tremendous setter," Flory commented. "She enjoyed a very successful end to our spring training and has worked diligently throughout the summer on her own to continue to improve. She has matured in our offense and now has a very solid grasp of our system. We look for her to have an outstanding year as well."

Johnson's classmate Angela Bensed also made large strides her freshman campaign, playing in all but one match en route to earning freshman All-SEC honors. Flory is excited about Bensed's progression and has moved her to the outside because of her ability to be a consistent presence on the court.

"After anchoring our right side through the fall and a portion of the spring, Angela will move to the outside for the season," Flory said. "She has worked hard to establish herself as a solid six-rotation player and someone who will provide a very consistent level of offense on the outside. Her maturity in that position will be a key for our season, and we feel she is more than prepared to meet the challenge."

Flory also praised sophomores Tania Schatow and Haley Reuther and the work they put in during the offseason. She said Schatow is becoming a dominant force on the right side and is an outstanding natural blocker who will provide significant offensive numbers from that position as well. The LSU coach also claims that Reuther's improved ball control has made her a vital part of the LSU program and said she is one of those players that every team needs to have in order to be successful.

The dynamic of the team will be enhanced with two new presences in freshmen Michele Williams and Lauren Wacławczyk. Williams was a standout outside hitter for Magnolia High School in Magnolia, Texas, where she earned first-team all-state honors in 2006 and 2007. She graduated from high school early and joined the team in January, which Flory said helped her make significant gains both on the court and in the weight room.

"Michele will be a significant part of our offense, and we are excited about the versatility she brings," Flory said. "She is able to attack in all zones of the net and will provide an added dimension to the team." Wacławczyk, meanwhile, has impressed the coaching staff with her abilities in passing the volleyball.

"Lauren is one of the most solid passers we have recruited into our program," Flory said. "She is a natural passer who possesses great feet and body posture. She is a physical player, and that will allow her to contribute right from the beginning of her career."

Bringing in these freshmen and a proven collegiate setter makes Flory confident the team has filled in some key missing elements.

"All of the pieces seem to be falling into place, and I don't see why we can't replicate our recent success and continue to add to it even more," she said.

Scheduling for Success

The Tigers have played a challenging schedule the past few years, and 2008 will be no different. Seven of their possible opponents were NCAA Tournament qualifiers a year ago, including three of the field's Sweet 16. They also will face the likes of national powerhouse Nebraska, winner of three NCAA titles, in an early season tournament in Lincoln, Neb. That's in addition to a tournament at Creighton and one the Tigers will play host to in early September.

"We have a very tough preseason schedule on the road and look forward to playing in two outstanding tournaments at Creighton and Nebraska," Flory said. "Both will provide an opportunity for us to match up against teams with the ability to win their respective conferences. Our home tournament will be a challenge as well with three very balanced teams attending."

The Bluejay Invitational at Creighton, which will open the Tigers' season Aug. 29-30, also features Texas A&M and Minnesota. LSU then welcomes non-conference foes Southeast Missouri State, Rice and Louisiana Tech for the Tiger Classic at the Maravich Center on Sept. 5 and 6. In their last pre-conference tournament, the Tigers will be the feature match against Nebraska on Sept. 12. They would then face either New Mexico or St. John's on the following the day.

From there, LSU jumps into its SEC slate with two contests on the road against South Carolina and Florida, the 17-time reigning conference champion, in late September. The Tigers return home for the next two weekends, first with a pair of matches against Tennessee and Kentucky and then against Ole Miss and Arkansas the first weekend in October. After going on the road for two straight weeks, Florida and South Carolina make return trips to Baton Rouge at the end of October.

Home matches against Alabama, Mississippi State and Auburn sandwich two more road trips to Kentucky and Tennessee and then Arkansas and Ole Miss before LSU concludes its regular season on Nov. 29 against Georgia.

"The SEC will be decidedly tougher this season," Flory said. "Each year our conference is making significant strides toward consistently being one of the truly elite conferences in the country. This year will be no exception. Winning conference matches on the road in the SEC is a true challenge each and every weekend."

The NCAA First and Second Rounds will take place Dec. 4-7 at selected campus sites, followed by the NCAA Regionals on Dec. 11-14 at campus sites as well. The NCAA Semifinals and Championship match are set to take place in Omaha, Neb., on Dec. 18-20.

"Given the experience and talent of the team, I like our chances to get back to the NCAA Tournament and to go even farther than we have in the past," Flory said. "And with the final rounds being in Nebraska, playing in two tournaments there early this season should have us ready to play in that environment come December."

Fran Flory

It hasn't taken Fran Flory long to turn around the LSU volleyball program. She took over a team that had hit rock bottom in 1997 and has methodically turned it into a team that expects to win every time it steps on the court. From 0-15 in the SEC the season prior to her arrival to three-straight SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament appearances over the last three years, Flory has made her impact felt on the court. With her ability to identify and develop talent, relate to her players and surround herself with top-notch assistant coaches, Flory has made this a great time to be a part of LSU volleyball.

"LSU has everything a student-athlete could ask for, from the facilities to the administration. We expect to win championships and every LSU student-athlete has those expectations. Our teams are committed to winning both on the court and in the classroom.

"Team togetherness and team ownership are two very important factors in our program. Our teams are committed not only to LSU, but also to each other. Team ownership is vital to the success of any team, company or organization. Everyone must have a clear understanding of the goals and direction of the program. We are very careful to define roles and responsibilities so everyone is headed in the same direction."

Flory came to LSU from the head coaching position at Kentucky, where she led the Wildcats to one NCAA Tournament appearance and was named the AVCA South District Coach of the Year in 1993. Prior to that, she served as an assistant at LSU where she helped the Tigers to three SEC Championships and two Final Four appearances.

Now, entering her 11th season, Flory will continue to build on the solid foundation that she has laid out for the LSU volleyball program and continue to design her program around the fundamentals that have made her a success at every stop of her coaching career.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life.”

► Education First

A staple of the LSU program since Flory arrived in 1998 has been the tremendous academic success of her players. The Tigers have placed the second-most players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the last seven years of any school in the league. In four of those past seven seasons, LSU has led the conference.

“Balancing a successful career in the classroom and on the court is a difficult task,” said Flory. “It requires a great deal of discipline and commitment. Our staff truly understands what it takes and shares in the commitment to insure the academic and athletic success of our student-athletes.”

► Building for Success in Life

When athletes sign to play for coach Flory, they sign on not only to maximize their potential as a volleyball player, but also to maximize their potential as a person.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life. When they graduate, I want them to truly feel prepared for the next step in their lives, whatever that may be. We are not just about developing successful volleyball players, our program is about developing successful people.

“Our philosophy is one that we all control our own destiny. Each day we make choices in all aspects of our lives that will influence who and what we become. We strive to provide the freedom and correct environment to make the choices that will prepare our student-athletes for their future.”

Speaking of Flory

“Fran is one of the finest people I have ever met. I have had the pleasure of watching her become one of the finest coaches in our profession. It would be an honor to have my daughter play for her. She has great enthusiasm, is very easy to work with and has a true desire to be successful. She has my utmost admiration and support.”

Mick Haley

Head coach at Southern California;
Head coach 2000 US Olympic Team

“Fran is one of the most remarkable people that I have had the pleasure of knowing. She has been a mentor and a friend throughout my playing and coaching career. She is one of those people who has the ability to make you feel that you have the strength and courage to accomplish anything and overcome any obstacle.”

Julie Stempel Ibieta

Former head coach at University of New Orleans,
LSU volleyball player (1988-91)

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

"I knew the second I stepped foot on campus that I might be the luckiest person on earth to have the chance to play volleyball at LSU. On my official visit, it poured at the football game that day and not a soul left or stopped their cheers until the Tigers claimed the close victory. Instantly that day I saw the great passion for LSU from every professor, coach, student and fan. Now I am fortunate enough to be back coaching at LSU with my mentor, and there is not a day that passes now that I don't think about how my four years here were the greatest opportunity of my life."

Jill Lytle Wilson

Former LSU volleyball player and current assistant coach

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."

Shaquille O'Neal

Four-Time NBA Champion and two-time NBA MVP

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms

2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going to LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line."

LSU GREATS

The five individuals on this page are the only men to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., and No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal. Football's only retired jersey is the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon, while baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and athletics director emeritus Skip Bertman.

50

Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

33

Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and is the LSU athletics director emeritus. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

LSU's success in each of its 20 sports is evident with this outstanding list of former Tigers.

Seimone Augustus

Augustus was the two-time NCAA National Player of the Year, receiving the Wade Trophy, the Naismith and the Wooden Awards as a junior and a senior. Augustus helped lead the Lady Tigers to three-straight Final Fours. She was the No. 1 pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft, and she is a 2008 U.S. Olympian.

Sylvia Fowles

A three-time All-American, Fowles was a member of Final Four teams all four years of her career. She was the 2008 SEC Player of the Year and the league's all-time leading rebounder. Fowles was the second pick of the 2008 WNBA Draft and a 2008 U.S. Olympian.

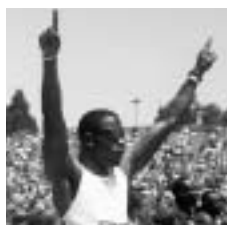

April Burkholder

The 2006 NCAA beam co-national champion, Burkholder finished her career with 14 All-America honors and four All-SEC selections. In addition, she was named the NCAA Central Region Gymnast of the year twice, the SEC Gymnast of the Year on two occasions, and she was also the conference's Freshman of the Year in 2003.

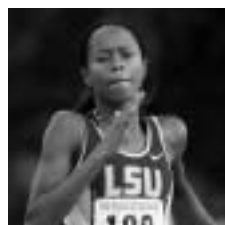

Esther Jones

A 21-time All-American while at LSU, Jones won a gold medal as a member of the United States' 4x100-meter relay team at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona.

Xavier Carter

Carter won a school record-tying seven NCAA titles on the track and earned a total of 10 All-America honors. He became just the second athlete to win four titles at one national meet, joining Jesse Owens. He holds four individual school records and anchored LSU's 4x400-meter relay teams to two school records.

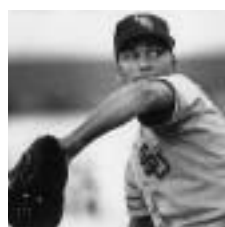

Muna Lee

The most decorated track and field athlete in school history, Lee won 20 All-America awards and a school record seven national titles while helping the Lady Tigers to five NCAA team championships. A two-time Olympian, Lee is the 2008 U.S. Outdoor Champion in the 100-meter dash.

Glen Davis

Dig for the Cure

In LSU volleyball's inaugural "Dig for the Cure" campaign in October 2007, the team successfully raised more than $3,650 for the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Foundation, coinciding with "Breast Cancer Awareness Month." The team will again be participating in the "Dig for the Cure" this season during the month of October so fans can once again help raise money and awareness for the world's most common cause of cancer deaths in women.

As part of last season's campaign, the Tigers and Crimson Tide kicked off the month by wearing specially designed pink warm-up shirts. Throughout the month activities were held to raise money, including a wishing well against Ole Miss. LSU donned the shirts again, this time with Arkansas, to close out the campaign.

The "Dig for the Cure" campaign was originally started in 2003 by Charlotte head coach Lisa Marston, whose mother was a breast cancer survivor, and has spread to volleyball programs across the country in recent years. Last year, the campaign raised almost a quarter of a million dollars from 93 participating programs.

Athletic TRAINING

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Football Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports, and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center (bottom) boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Strength & CONDITIONING

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Strength and conditioning can be the heart and soul of an athletic program's success, and LSU has taken great strides to improve its strength program and facilities. Measuring 10,000-square feet, LSU has one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation.

Southeastern CONFERENCE

Year after year, the Southeastern Conference shows why it is considered to be one of the premier volleyball conferences in the nation.

In the last two decades, the SEC has made stellar contributions in volleyball. The conference has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season for the last 18 years. The league has had a team reach the Final Four seven of the 10 seasons in the 1990s, with the league having a team advance to the Regional Final in nine of those 10 seasons. Since 2000, the SEC has had a team reach the Final Four three times and the Regional Finals four times.

In 2007, Florida captured its 17th SEC Championship and made its 18th NCAA Tournament appearance, advancing to the regional semifinals. In all, five teams from the SEC made the NCAA Tournament, including Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference with volleyball. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the league in 1991 brought the divisional format to the sport with five teams competing in the Eastern Division and six teams in the Western Division. In 2006, the league did away with the three-day tournament and instead began playing a double round-robin regular season SEC schedule to determine the conference champion and who receives the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Along with the popularity growth throughout the country, women's volleyball has also grown in the SEC. A benchmark in that growth came in 1995 when SEC volleyball was first broadcasted on SEC-TV on a tape-delay basis. For the past nine seasons, the coverage of live telecasts has grown, especially in the last six years. SEC volleyball will continue to enjoy live coverage on SEC-TV to almost 22 million subscribers in the conference's nine-state region.

SEC VOLLEYBALL A STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

- ▶ The 2007 season marked the 18th consecutive year the SEC has placed at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament.
- ▶ Five SEC teams earned berths in the NCAA Tournament, while all 11 teams posted wins in double-digits in 2007, with four teams posting 20-plus win seasons.
- ▶ LSU claimed the West crown in 2007, with Florida earning the East and SEC championships.
- ▶ Two players were named AVCA All-Americans, five were named AVCA Honorable Mention All-Americans and nine players were named to the AVCA Division I All-South Region Team.

2011 Volleyball

Entering her 11th year at the helm of the Tigers, head coach Fran Flory continues to raise the level of success, returning LSU to the national rankings as the Tigers compete for a place near the top of the SEC each season.

For the third-straight year, the Tigers recorded one of their best seasons in school history. LSU posted a 25-8 record, but most importantly, finally broke through with an NCAA Tournament victory in its third-straight year in the postseason. A five-game win over New Mexico State in the first round was the first tournament win for the Tigers since 1992. LSU also won the SEC Western Division title outright with a 15-5 mark, the third-straight West title.

In addition, LSU spent nine weeks in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll, rising as high as No. 18 before closing out the season receiving votes.

Under Flory's guidance, LSU had two All-Americans for the first time in 15 years as junior Elena Martinez and sophomore Lauren DeGirolamo both earned honorable mention AVCA honors.

In her first season as starting libero, Martinez was also selected the SEC Defensive Player of the Year and made the All-SEC second team, while DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington took home first-team All-SEC honors. Angela Bensend also earned SEC All-Freshman team honors.

Flory has now guided players to 18 All-SEC honors, including eight first-team selections. In addition, she has led her players to 28 All-Louisiana awards, including 16 first-team selections, and every individual state award, including player, defensive player, freshman and newcomer of the year.

Flory's success, however, has not been solely on the court. LSU has had the second-most players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll of any school in the league during her tenure, leading the league four times in the last eight seasons. The LSU volleyball program has also been recognized nationally for its academic success, picking up an American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award three times.

The 2006 season was an outstanding one as the Tigers posted a 26-6 record, the most wins since 1992 and the best winning percentage since 1991. LSU also won the SEC West title outright with a 16-4 mark, the most league wins in school history. The Tigers also earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year. In addition, LSU spent 15 consecutive weeks in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll, rising as high as No. 10 on two occasions before closing out the season at No. 19, the first final ranking for the Tigers since 1992.

For her efforts, Flory earned LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year honors for the second-straight year. In addition, Daniela Romero was named an honorable mention AVCA selection after being named the Louisiana Player of the Year and a first-team All-SEC selection. Along with Romero, Marina Skender was a first-team All-SEC selection and became the first Tiger player to earn back-to-back league honors since Meagan Davis in 2000-2001, while freshman Lauren DeGirolamo earned SEC All-Freshman team honors.

Despite traveling over 14,000 miles, Flory guided the Tigers to one of their most successful seasons in two decades in 2005. LSU won its first SEC Western Division championship, advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992 and vaulted into the top 25 poll for the first time since 1993. After Hurricane Katrina turned the Maravich Center into the largest field hospital in the United States, the volleyball team played its first 17 matches on the road. LSU went on to finish the season at 21-8 overall and 11-5 in the SEC.

For her efforts, Flory was named the Louisiana Coach of the Year. In addition, Ivana Kuzmic became LSU's first All-American since 1992, earning honorable mention AVCA honors after being named the Louisiana Player of the Year and a first-team All-SEC selection.

Skender was named the SEC Freshman of the Year, the fourth conference rookie of the year honor in LSU history, but the first since 1990. Skender was also a second-team All-SEC selection along with Jelena Mijatovic, marking the first time since 2001 the Tigers had three players earn all-conference honors.

Four years ago, Flory led the Tigers to a third place finish in the SEC West, marking the seventh consecutive season LSU finished at least third in the West, including every year in her tenure. With a 17-12 mark, she recorded three wins over teams in the NCAA Tournament field. In addition, Kuzmic was named the Louisiana Newcomer of the Year, while both Kuzmic and Regan Hood earned first-team All-Louisiana honors.

In 2003, Flory guided a youthful Tiger team, one with eight freshmen and no seniors, to a third place finish in the SEC West. For the first time since she became head coach, the Tigers defeated South Carolina in Columbia, S.C., knocking off the Gamecocks, 3-1, to mark the first win in Columbia since 1995. Hood earned her first All-SEC honor under Flory's tutelage, being named to the second team, while Lauren Leaumont was an All-Freshman selection in the award's inaugural year.

In 2002, Flory's Tiger team recorded the most wins by any LSU team since 1999. The Tigers also picked up back-to-back winning SEC records for the first time since 1992-93. With that came back-to-back runner-up finishes in the SEC Western Division. In addition, LSU became the first team in 19 regular-season SEC matches to take a game from nationally ranked Florida. Prior to the game one loss, the Gators last lost a game on Sept. 21, 2001, when they fell behind 2-0 in an eventual 3-2 win over South Carolina. Florida had not lost a regular-season SEC game at home since dropping the third game to the Gamecocks in a 3-1 win on Oct. 8, 2000, a string of 12 consecutive matches.

In 2001, the Tigers recorded the fourth most conference wins in school history and picked up their first winning conference record since 1995, finishing second in the SEC West. LSU owned the best intra-division record among Western Division teams at 9-1, while finishing fourth overall.

Flory guided her 2000 squad to the SEC Tournament Championship match against perennial-powerhouse Florida.

Despite the loss in the final, LSU made a breakthrough, as it had not been to the championship match since 1992 and had not won a tournament match since 1993.

Flory's 2000 team also became the first LSU team to beat Arkansas when it did so in three games on the Lady Backs' home floor. She led the Tigers to their first win at Auburn in 10 years en route to a third place finish in the SEC West.

In 1999, Flory led her injury-riddled squad to a 17-15 overall record, the best for an LSU team since the Tigers won 20 matches in 1995. Of the 17 wins, seven came in conference play, also a Tiger best since the 1995 season.

She made an immediate impact at LSU in 1998 as she led the Tigers to a 15-16 record, six matches better than the 9-21 mark the team had the year before. More impressive was the five-match improvement in SEC play. After a winless 1997 in conference action under the former head coach, LSU notched five SEC victories in 1998 to finish third in the West.

This is Flory's second stint at LSU as the Baton Rouge native was an assistant for four years under LSU's winningest coach, Scott Luster. She served as a graduate assistant in 1988, before being named a full-time assistant in 1989. During her four seasons with the Tigers, Flory helped LSU to unprecedented success with three SEC championships, three SEC Tournament championships and two Final Four appearances, the first school in SEC history to advance to the NCAA Final Four.

In 1992, Flory left LSU to assume the head coaching duties at Southeastern Louisiana. In her first season as a Division I head coach, she led the Lions to a 21-13 record.

In March 1993, Flory returned to the SEC as she became an assistant coach at Kentucky. Five months later, she was named the Wildcats head coach as then-Kentucky coach Kathy DeBoer, who is currently the Executive Director of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, was named an Associate Athletic Director.

In her first season at Kentucky, Flory led the Wildcats to a 29-4 record, while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts in the 1993 season, she was named the Tachikara/AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year.

A 1984 graduate of Texas, Flory has also experienced much success as a player. In 1981, she was a member of Texas' AIAW National Championship squad. She received All-Southwest Conference and All-South Region honors during three seasons with the Longhorns.

Following her playing career, Flory was named the head coach at Wittenberg University, where she coached for one season before being named an assistant at Texas A&M.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Flory has also assisted in coordinating both the Louisiana Senior Olympic Games and the Special Olympics, and hosting the Senior Olympic Games in 2001. She is also a member of the United States Volleyball Association coaching accreditation program.

She is married to Ken Flory. The two have a daughter, Lindsay (11), and a son, Nicholas (9).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Southern California (1993-1996)

German Pro League (1997)

Former Southern California setter Steve Loeswick, who spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma, is entering his second season as an assistant coach for the Tiger volleyball staff.

A former setter himself, Loeswick guided the development of a pair of first-year setters in his first year at LSU, after the graduation of four-year starter and former All-American Daniela Romero. The Tigers ranked sixth in the SEC in assists per game, kills per game and hitting percentage, while Lauren DeGirolamo ranked in the top 10 in the league in hitting percentage and Kyna Washington was in the top five in kills per game.

Prior to coming to Baton Rouge, Loeswick spent three seasons with the Sooners, where he helped the Oklahoma program to a record turnaround, while leading the Sooners to the 2006 NCAA Sweet 16.

As part of Sooner head coach and 2006 AVCA Central Region Coach of the Year Santiago Restrepo's staff, Loeswick guided Oklahoma to a 28-6 overall record and 17-3 mark in the Big 12, good enough for a second place finish. The Sooners recorded school records for wins and winning percentage, and recorded the best one-year turnaround in Big 12 history with 15 more league victories than 2005.

Oklahoma advanced to the NCAA Tournament for just the fourth time in school history and knocked off Oral Roberts and Missouri State before falling to UCLA in only the Sooner's second appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16. Earning its first national ranking in 18 years, Oklahoma finished the season ranked No. 12 in the AVCA poll, the Sooners' highest ranking in school history.

In addition, he coached Elaine Santos and Joanna Schmitt to All-America honors in 2006 as Santos was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Anna Monsen was the Big 12 Libero of the Year. Oklahoma setter Rachel Jackson also earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

Loeswick helped the Sooner setters improve each season on the Oklahoma staff. Most of the assist marks in the rally scoring system were held by setters under his tutelage. In addition, the Sooners ranked third in the Big 12 in assists per game and third in hitting percentage, as Jackson ranked second in the conference in individual assists per game.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Loeswick served as an assistant coach at Cornell for six seasons from 1998-2003, restoring the Big Red program to prominence with a career record of 93-38. His final year in Ithaca, he led Cornell to a second-place finish in the Ivy League with a record of 21-4. During his tenure, he helped develop 2000 Ivy League Player of the Year Robin Moore and 16 All-Ivy League selections.

Loeswick began his coaching career in Holland in 1997 where he was an assistant coach for the Martinus Club, a professional women's club, for one season. He began his coaching career after a year playing in Germany's top professional volleyball league.

The former four-year starting setter for the University of Southern California, he was just the third Trojan player to start in a single position for all four years. As a freshman, he ranked 10th nationally with 15.86 assists per game before earning 1993 Volleyball Monthly All-Freshman team honors and being named to the 1996 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Academic Team.

In 1993 and 1994, Loeswick participated in the U.S. Olympic Festival, serving as the captain of the squad that captured the silver medal. A Volleyball Monthly Fabulous 50 Prep as a senior in high school in 1992, he also won a gold medal at the 1991 Empire State Games. In addition, he was a member of the U.S. Junior Elite team twice and played for the Rochester Pace Bootlegger club team, where he earned AAU All-America honors.

In 1996, Loeswick earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC. A native of North Tonawanda, N.Y., he married the former Jennifer Arbuckle on June 17, 2006. Jennifer, a standout outside hitter at Virginia Tech from 1992-1995, served as Oklahoma director of volleyball operations for several years. Steve and Jennifer welcomed their first child, Isabella Rose, in April 2007.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

LSU (1997-2000)

Former Tiger volleyball standout Jill Lytle Wilson, who came to LSU from Wake Forest, enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Tiger volleyball program.

In her first season, Wilson continued the development of two of the best LSU hitters in school history in her first season. Kyna Washington became just the 14th player in school history to record 1,000 career kills and ranked in the top five in the SEC in kills per game on her way to first-team All-SEC honors. Marina Skender joined Washington as only the 15th player to reach 1,000 career kills. The pair were also the fifth and sixth juniors to reach the milestone and the first pair of juniors to do so in the same season since 1990. True freshman right side Angela Bensend was also named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

Lytle Wilson spent one season as an assistant with the Demon Deacons, leading them to a tie for their most wins in the Atlantic Coast Conference in school history. On the court, she was in charge of training the outside hitters and right side hitters, while off the court, she coordinated team travel and assisted in recruiting. She also served as assistant camp director.

From 2002-2004, Lytle Wilson was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina. In three seasons in Chapel Hill, she helped lead the Tar Heels to their first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and the 2002 Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship with a 32-4 overall record and a final national ranking of No. 11.

In 2003, she helped guide North Carolina to a 20-win season, despite losing four starters. In addition, she coached Laura Greene and Molly Pyles to All-America honors in 2002 and 2004 respectively as Greene took home ACC Player of the Year honors in 2002.

Prior to joining the Tar Heel staff, Lytle Wilson served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2001. She helped lead the Skyhawks to the regular season Ohio Valley Conference Championship with a 24-7 overall record.

Lytle Wilson also has experience as an assistant coach for the Triangle Volleyball Club from 2002-2006, serving as assistant club director in 2006.

A four-year starter at outside hitter for LSU from 1997-2000, Lytle Wilson stayed on as a student assistant coach in 2001 before earning her bachelor of science degree in business administration in 2001.

One of the hardest workers on her team and considered one of the most determined players Flory has ever coached, Lytle played in 98 matches in her career, limited only by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee suffered 11 matches into her junior season.

As a senior, she ranked sixth in the SEC with 23 service aces as she helped lead the Tigers to a berth in the SEC Tournament championship game.

A three-time member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, she was also the Tigers' representative on the women's at-large SEC Good Works Team in 1999-2000. Her good works did not go unnoticed at the University as Lytle Wilson was named the LSU Student-Athlete Volunteer of the Year in 2000. She served on the CHAMPS Student-Athlete Advisory Board for four years, the last year serving as president of the organization. She was also a member of the LSU tennis team in 2001.

Lytle Wilson, originally from Richmond, Texas, was a member of the Texas Elite Volleyball Club during her prep playing days. She earned first-team all-district and second-team All-Greater Houston honors as a senior at Lamar Consolidated High School.

As a junior, she was the District 23-4A Most Valuable Player as Lamar Consolidated earned the 1995 district title. A nominee for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award, she was a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the top five percent of her class.

The daughter of Mike and Kim Lytle, Jill is married to Jared Wilson. She was born on May 6, 1979.

THREE-STRAIGHT SEC WEST TITLES

For the third-straight season, the Tigers claimed the SEC Western Division title. In 2005, LSU tied with Arkansas to share its first West championship before winning the title outright in 2006. In 2007, LSU finished with a 15-5 mark in SEC play, finishing one game ahead of Ole Miss in the West and four games behind Florida in the overall race. The Tigers now join Arkansas and Florida as the only two teams in the conference to win three-straight divisional titles. The Gators have won all 13 Eastern Division titles since the league went to divisions in 1995, sharing the title with Tennessee in 2004. Arkansas won five-straight Western Division titles from 1995-1999, sharing the title with Auburn in 1996; and four-straight from 2001-2004, sharing the title with Alabama in 2004.

THREE-STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT BERTHS

The Tigers made their third-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, marking the first back-to-back-to-back berths since making four consecutive appearances from 1989-1992. Overall, LSU made its ninth appearance in the NCAA Tournament and has posted an 11-9 record. The Tigers are one of only three teams in the SEC to advance to the NCAA Final Four, making appearances in both 1990 and 1991. In addition to LSU, four other SEC teams earned bids to the NCAA Tournament. Alabama, Florida, Kentucky and Ole Miss were also chosen to participate in the postseason tournament.

16-YEAR DROUGHT COMES TO AN END

With a five-game win over New Mexico State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Austin, Texas, LSU recorded its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1992 when the Tigers knocked off Texas Tech in three games in Lubbock. It also marked the first victory for LSU in any postseason match since advancing to the SEC Tournament championship game in 2000. The Tigers rallied back from a 2-1 deficit against the Aggies to win games four and five by a combined five points after falling in games two and three by a total of 18 points. Freshman Tania Schatow came on for Lauren DeGirolamo, who was limited by a foot injury, and provided the spark LSU needed down the stretch to come away with the win.

IN THE CSTV/AVCA POLL

The Tigers finished 2007 receiving votes in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll. The Tigers began the preseason ranked No. 23 in the poll and were ranked as high as No. 18 on Oct. 8. LSU fell out of the poll on Oct. 22, snapping a streak of 23 consecutive weeks among the top 25 which dated back to the first poll of the 2006 season.

GOING TO FIVE...

LSU played an astounding 13 five-game matches in 2007. The Tigers were 9-4 (.692) in the five-framers, with three of the four losses coming on the road in SEC play as a string of four-straight losses on the road in the SEC in October. The nine five-game wins broke the school record of eight set in 1986, while 12 five-game matches marked the most in a single season since playing 13 in 1985.

GOLD STANDARD

In a promotion dubbed the "Gold Game", the LSU volleyball team broke the single-match volleyball attendance record against South Carolina on Sept. 21. The Tiger faithful, clad all in gold, topped 2,300 as LSU shattered the previous record of an estimated 2,250 against Kentucky in 1992. With an attendance of 2,308, LSU marked its third 2,000-plus attendance in school history and the first since the 1992 record. Along with the 1,294 that attended the match against Kentucky on Nov. 2, the 10th largest attendance in school history, the Tigers averaged 798 for the year, the largest average attendance in Fran Flory's 10-year tenure.

HOW MAY I SERVE YOU...

Kyna Washington and Marina Skender both ranked in the top five in the SEC in service aces per game, the only two players from the same team ranked in the top five. Washington was second in the SEC and 28th in the NCAA with 70 aces for an average of 0.53 aces per game. Skender was fifth in the conference and 106th in the country with 56 aces and averaged 0.42 aces per game.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

The Tigers boasted a pair of dominant players up the middle last season. Lauren DeGirolamo ranked second in the SEC and 19th in the NCAA with 1.51 blocks per game, followed closely by Brittnee Cooper in fourth in the league and 32nd nationally with 1.42 blocks per game, the only two players from the same team to even be ranked in the top eight.

RIGHT BACK AT YOU

With a career high 13 blocks against Notre Dame on Oct. 23, 11 blocks against Ole Miss, 10 blocks against Tennessee and 11 blocks against Florida, Brittnee Cooper posted four double-figure blocking matches. She became the first player at LSU to post four double-figure blocking matches in a season since Ivana Kuzmic in 2005.

MARTINEZ BREAKS SEC/LSU DIGS RECORD

With her 20th dig against Georgia on Nov. 16, Elena Martinez broke the 21-year-old SEC single-season digs record with her 656th. Martinez had previously broken the LSU single-season mark with her 536th against Kentucky on Nov. 2. She finished the season with 740 for the year, the first player in SEC history to record 700 digs in a season, topping the SEC record set by Shelly Gross of Georgia in 1986 and the LSU record set by Kassi Mikulik in 2006.

MARTINEZ LEADS SEC, RANKS 35TH IN NCAA

Elena Martinez recorded double-digit digs in every match, led the SEC and ranked 35th in the nation with 5.6l digs per game. Lara Newberry of Chattanooga led the nation with 7.19 digs per game. Martinez's mark shattered the school record of 4.69 digs per game recorded by Kassi Mikulik in 2006. Martinez also recorded 20 or more digs in 21 of the Tigers' 33 matches.

MARTINEZ BREAKS LSU DIGS RECORDS

Against Alabama on Nov. 11, Elena Martinez recorded 43 digs, shattering her overall LSU record for digs in any match by nine. With her third 30-dig match of the season, Martinez also broke the school record for 30-dig matches in a season and for a career, finishing the season with six 30-dig matches. Daniela Reis had been the only previous Tiger with a 30-dig match in school history and she posted two during the 1993 season. Martinez's 43 digs match was the most by any player in the SEC during the season and a school record for digs in a five-game match. For the year, Martinez recorded the top five dig performances in a five-game match in LSU history.

Against Arkansas on Sept. 16, Elena Martinez recorded 33 digs, breaking the LSU record for digs in a four-game match. She finished the season with three of the top four dig marks in a four-game match in school history.

COOPER/DEGIROLAMO IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Against Notre Dame, Brittnee Cooper tied for the seventh most total blocks in a five-game match with 13 and the eighth most block assists with 11. The last time a Tiger posted 13 blocks in a five-game match was Ivana Kuzmic, also against Notre Dame (9/18/05), and the last LSU player to post 11 block assists in a five-game match was Kuzmic against Ole Miss (10/3/04). Against No. 6 Florida on Sept. 23, Cooper recorded 11 blocks, tying her for the seventh most total blocks in a four-game match. Along with nine block assists, she tied for the sixth most block assists in a four-game match.

Against Georgia on Nov. 16, Lauren DeGirolamo tied for the fourth most block assists in a three-game match with eight and the eighth most total block with nine. The last time a Tiger posted nine total blocks and at least eight block assists in a three-game match was DeGirolamo against Marquette (11/25/06). Against Rice, DeGirolamo tied for the fourth most total blocks in a four-game match with 12 and the sixth most block assists with nine. The last time a Tiger posted 12 blocks in a four-game match was Julie Stempel against Southern California (11/16/89), and the last LSU player to post nine block assists in a four-game match was DeGirolamo last season against Kentucky on Sept. 17.

WASHINGTON RECORDS SECOND MOST KILLS

Against Ole Miss on Sept. 12, Kyna Washington recorded 24 kills, the second most kills in a three-game match in LSU history. Washington was only two behind the school record of 26 set by Monique Adams in 1991.

DEGIROLAMO, COOPER IN BLOCKING RECORDS

With 158 block assists, Lauren DeGirolamo finished in fourth in single season block assists in LSU history, while Brittnee Cooper's 152 block assists tied her for fifth in single-season history with DeGirolamo's performance from 2006. In addition, DeGirolamo finished the season ranked sixth in single-season blocks per game in LSU history, finishing with 1.51 per game.

DEGIROLAMO ENTERS CAREER RECORDS

After just two seasons, Lauren DeGirolamo has entered the LSU record books for career block assists, total blocks and blocks per game. After her sophomore season, DeGirolamo ranks eighth in career block assists with 310, 185 behind Lisa Smith's 20-year-old record of 495. She is also ranked 10th in career blocks with 378, 307 behind Smith's record of 685. DeGirolamo's 1.56 blocks per game average is third in career history, close behind the record of 1.65 by Ivana Kuzmic from 2004-2006.

SENIOR FIRSTS

The 2007 Tigers accomplished something no LSU team had done since 2000 when the Tigers knocked off Alabama in the CAVE. LSU had to rally from a 2-1 deficit to win the final two games of the five-game match to knock off the Crimson Tide. The Tigers had been 0-6 in the CAVE since 2000 before the crucial Nov. 11 victory. Senior Michelle Hensgens completed her career having won in every opposing venue with the exception of Florida's O'Connell Center, a feat no other Tiger could lay claim to in almost 15 years.

WASHINGTON/SKENDER TOP 1,000-KILL MARK

With 14 kills against Notre Dame, Kyna Washington became the 14th player and only the fifth junior in LSU history to record 1,000 career kills. Marina Skender joined Washington in reaching the 1,000 kill mark with her 14th kill against Tennessee to become the 15th Tiger and sixth junior to reach the millennium mark. The pair were the first to accomplish the feat in the same season since 2005 when Ivana Kuzmic and Jelena Mijatovic each posted their 1,000th career kill, although both were transfers. Washington and Skender were also the first juniors to reach the milestone in the same season since Nyla Shepherd and Julie Stempel reached the 1,000-kill mark during the 1990 season.

SKENDER NEARS 1,000 CAREER DIGS

Marina Skender became just the 12th player in LSU history to record 900 career digs, finished the year just 46 digs away from becoming the ninth Tiger to reach 1,000 digs for her career. She would also become just the fifth LSU player to ever record both 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs.

NCAA Quarterfinalist

LSU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986 after winning its first Southeastern Conference championship. The Tigers made a run at the Final Four in their first trip to the tournament by beating Arizona at home in round one and Texas-Arlington at the South Regional in Austin, Texas. However, Texas ended LSU's run as the Longhorns used the home court advantage to sweep the Tigers out of the tournament.

1987

Overall Record: 25-11
SEC Runner-Up

Making its second straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, LSU did not last long as Florida ousted the Tigers from the tournament in a five-game thriller in Gainesville, Fla. The match was the third of the year for the two teams. They had split the first two with LSU winning the regular season match and Florida winning in the SEC Tournament.

1989

Overall Record: 30-8
SEC Champions

The Tigers returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence from the event in 1988. Playing on its home court, LSU survived a five-game scare from Houston to advance to the South Regional in Austin, Texas. There, Texas-Arlington exacted revenge for a tournament loss from 1986 by rallying from two games down to win the last three and advance.

1990

Overall Record: 34-7

NCAA Final Four

Coming off the second conference championship in as many years, LSU cruised into the South Regional with a sweep of Louisville in the first round of the tournament. In Austin, Texas, the Tigers ousted Texas Tech and knocked off Texas on the Longhorns home court with a 17-15 game five win to advance to the Final Four for the first time in school history. In College Park, Md., LSU fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals.

1991

NCAA Final Four

With only one loss, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint. LSU beat Houston in the first round for the second time in three years to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted. After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU ran into a Florida team that had handed the Tigers their only loss. A tough four-game victory later and LSU was back in the Final Four. This year in Los Angeles, Calif., the Tigers fell in four games to Long Beach State. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 LSU team was the only team from the SEC to win a game in the NCAA Final Four.

1992

Overall Record: 26-9

SEC Runner-Up

SEC Tournament Runner-Up

LSU had to travel for its first round match for the first time since 1987, this time to Lubbock, Texas, where the Tigers ousted Texas Tech from the tournament in just three games for the third consecutive year. At the South Regional in Gainesville, Fla., Texas knocked LSU out of the tournament in four games, ending hopes of a third straight Final Four appearance by the Tigers.

1993

Overall Record: 21-16

NIVC Champions

For the first time since 1988 and only the second since 1985, LSU was left out of the NCAA Tournament. Despite not making the tournament, the Tigers showed why they deserved a bid by coasting to the NIVC Championship in Kansas City, Mo., by dropping only three games in the team's six tournament victories. LSU swept Baylor in the tournament final.

2005

Overall Record: 25-11

SEC Western Division Co-Champion

Making their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1992, the Tigers had to travel to Austin, Texas, for their first round match against seventh-ranked Texas. LSU put up a gutsy performance against the Longhorns, but could not pull off the upset victory, falling in three games to end its best season in over a decade despite having to play on the road for the majority of the season due to Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

2006

Overall Record: 26-6

SEC Western Division Champion

LSU made its second-straight NCAA appearance after claiming back-to-back SEC Western Division titles. Despite a top 15 national ranking, the Tigers went unseeded and were forced to travel to San Luis Obispo, Calif., for their first round match against California, another ranked team that failed to garner a national seed. LSU came out hot to win game one, but could not complete the upset of the Golden Bears as the powerful Cal front line took charge in the final three games. The Tigers completed their best season since 1992 while setting a school record for conference wins in a season.

2007

Overall Record: 25-8

SEC Western Division Champion

LSU made its third-straight NCAA appearance after claiming a third-straight SEC Western Division title. Traveling to Austin, Texas, for the NCAA sub-regional, the Tigers were able to accomplish something no other LSU team had done since 1992 in winning an NCAA Tournament game. The Tigers won the first game of their first round contest against 15th-ranked New Mexico State. After dropping the next two games, LSU rallied back to win the final two, including a 15-13 win in game five. The Tigers then ran into the fourth-ranked Longhorns at home for the second time in three years. Once again, LSU saw its season come to an end in a hard fought match against Texas.

Over the past three seasons, the LSU volleyball program has averaged more than 750 fans per match, nearly doubling the average attendance from 2000-2004.

Maravich CENTER

In 2008, the LSU volleyball program will begin its 27th season in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, the largest volleyball venue in the SEC. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,373 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department and underwent a multi-year refurbishment. The renovation began three years ago with new television lighting and continued two years ago with a new roof surface. In 2006, the inside of the Maravich Center saw an upgrade as the seats were replaced and the interior was given a complete makeover. Prior to the 2007 season, the main arena got a new subfloor and a new playing floor. In the summer of 2008, the auxiliary practice gym also received a new floor.

The outside windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the arena. Volleyball fans can also see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

The Tiger volleyball team enjoys the comforts of a spacious locker room. The two-tiered fully carpeted facility features individual cubicles for each athlete, a meeting room and storage area.

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center was one of the top home courts in the nation, as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record. During that time, LSU recorded a 37-match home-court win streak, which is the second-longest streak in SEC history. In 1991, the Tigers enjoyed possibly their finest season in the arena as LSU recorded a perfect 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have now posted 10 consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 82-37 (.689), including an undefeated 6-0 mark in 2005. Since beginning play in the arena in 1982, the Tigers have notched an 276-112 (.711) record, recording only three losing seasons at home.

The Maravich Center has also played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Maravich Center has also been the site of three NCAA Championship first-round matches as well as the NCAA South Regional in 1991.

Along with the main court area, an auxiliary gym with a recently refinished court is located underground in the north section of the arena. Nearly all Tiger volleyball practices take place in the auxiliary gym.

LSU ATHLETICS Championship TRADITION

2007-2008 ATHLETICS YEAR IN REVIEW

The Nation's Elite Teams

Football

The Tigers celebrated the 10th SEC Championship in school history and capped an amazing season with the program's third national title and second since 2003. LSU posted a 12-2 overall record and a 6-2 mark in SEC play. The Tigers tallied their fourth BCS bowl victory as LSU defeated Ohio State, 38-24, in the 2008 BCS National Championship Game.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Tigers reached their fifth-straight NCAA Final Four with a 31-5 overall record after wins over Jackson State, Marist, Oklahoma State and North Carolina, in the NCAA Tournament. LSU claimed the SEC regular season title with an unblemished 14-0 mark, representing the second time in the last four seasons the Lady Tigers ran through the conference schedule unbeaten.

Track and Field

The LSU women's track and field team claimed the 10th NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship in school history, and the Lady Tigers were NCAA runners-up during the indoor season. The LSU men's track and field team placed second at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Lady Tigers swept both the SEC Indoor and Outdoor titles, while the men's team captured league runner-up honors during both seasons.

Baseball

The baseball team completed one of the most remarkable turnarounds in SEC history as the Tigers reached the College World Series for the 14th time. The Tigers, who once held a 6-11-1 record in SEC play, won the SEC Western Division, the SEC Tournament, the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional and the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional. The turnaround was sparked by an SEC-record 23 consecutive wins down the stretch.

Gymnastics

The gymnastics team advanced to the NCAA Super Six for the first time in program history after the Tigers won the NCAA Central Regional. LSU finished fifth at the NCAA Championships. The fifth-place ranking marked the highest finish for a Tiger gymnastics team since 1988, which was prior to the establishment of the NCAA Super Six. LSU now has 24-consecutive postseason appearances.

How The West Was Won

LSU became the first school to claim the SEC Western Division title in all three fall sports -- football, volleyball and soccer -- and the Tigers added another divisional championship in the spring with baseball. The volleyball team won its third-straight Western Division title with a 25-8 overall record, and the soccer team finished with a 12-5-7 overall mark to win the program's first division crown.

Elite Athletes

Kelly Baptiste

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

Kelly Baptiste led the Lady Tigers to their 25th NCAA Championship by scoring a team-high 19 points at the outdoor nationals. She became the fifth Lady Tiger to be crowned NCAA champion in the 100-meter dash, while she also added All-America honors in the 200 meters, 4x100 relay and 4x400 relay.

Blake Dean

BASEBALL

Blake Dean will go down in LSU lore as one of the greatest hitters in postseason history, batting .404 in the Tigers' postseason run to the College World Series. The sophomore was a first-team All-American by Baseball America, and he provided game-winning hits in four postseason contests, including a memorable walk-off, three-run double to lead LSU past Rice in the CWS.

Kevin Dessauer

MEN'S TENNIS

Kevin Dessauer led the Tigers to their 14th-straight NCAA Tournament appearance as the 2008 team captain. On the courts, Dessauer finished second on the team with 21 singles victories. Off the courts, he ended his undergraduate career with a perfect 4.0 grade point average and was the recipient of the Southeast Regional ITA/Arthur Ashe Award for Leadership and Sportsmanship.

Glenn Dorsey

FOOTBALL

Glenn Dorsey became the most decorated defensive player in school history and led the Tigers to their third national championship. Dorsey, the fifth pick of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, was a consensus first-team All-American. The senior was the recipient of the Outland, Nagurski, Lombardi and Lott Awards as college football's top defensive player.

Megan Falcon

WOMEN'S TENNIS

A two-time singles All-American, Megan Falcon continued her brilliant play in 2008, earning All-America honors and first team All-SEC recognition in her junior campaign. Falcon received a top 20 singles ranking for the second-straight season as she finished with a 27-7 overall record with 12 wins over ranked opponents.

Sylvia Fowles

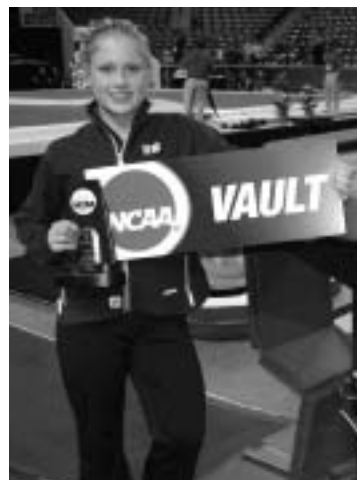

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Sylvia Fowles closed her career as a unanimous first-team All-American, the WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year and the SEC Player of the Year. The 6-6 senior became the SEC's all-time leading rebounder and was the No. 2 pick in the WNBA Draft before going on to play for Team USA at the 2008 Olympics.

The Most Successful LSU Athletics Season In School History

LSU capped the most successful athletics season -- from top to bottom -- in school history by recording an eighth-place finish in the U.S. Sports Academy Director's Cup. The eighth-place finish is the highest for LSU since the inception of the director's cup in 1993-94. The Tigers accumulated an all-time high 1,085 points in 17 of a possible 20 sports, a first in school history. In all, the Tigers sent 19 of their 20 teams to NCAA post-season play in 2007-08. Eight teams finished in the top five nationally of their respective sports.

Susan Jackson ▲ GYMNASTICS

Susan Jackson became the fourth LSU gymnast to win an NCAA individual title in school history as she was the 2008 NCAA National Champion on the vault with a score of 9.8563 at the individual event finals at the NCAA Championships. The sophomore also earned All-America honors on the beam, floor, vault and all-around.

Andrew Loupe MEN'S GOLF

Andrew Loupe was one of three LSU golfers to earn SEC All-Freshman honors in 2007-08. Loupe led the squad with a scoring average of 74.06 in 11 appearances, and his two top-10 finishes tied for a team-best mark.

Christoph Lubenau

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

Christoph Lubenau shattered the school record in the 100-yard butterfly at the NCAA Championships (46.24) while earning NCAA All-America honors with a ninth-place finish. Lubenau added another All-America finish as part of the Tigers' school record-setting 200 freestyle relay.

Michelle Makasini SOCCER

Michelle Makasini was chosen as a Top Drawer Soccer Honorable Mention All-American and became the second LSU soccer player in school history to earn first-team All-SEC honors as she helped lead the Lady Tigers to their first NCAA Tournament berth and an SEC Western Division title.

Elena Martinez VOLLEYBALL

The 2007 SEC Defensive Player of the Year, the senior libero also earned honorable mention AVCA All-America honors and was a second-team All-SEC selection. Martinez led the conference in digs and digs per game, breaking the 21-year-old SEC record for digs in a season as LSU won its third-straight SEC West title and earned a third-straight NCAA Tournament berth.

Rachel Mitchell

SOFTBALL

A second-team NFCA All-South Region selection, the junior outfielder also earned first-team All-SEC honors. Mitchell ranked in the top 10 in the SEC in 10 offensive categories and was in the top 100 in the NCAA in five.

Anthony Randolph

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Anthony Randolph, after a stellar freshman season, became the 13th LSU player drafted in the first round of the NBA Draft when he was chosen with the 14th pick by the Golden State Warriors, the final pick of the NBA lottery teams.

Alexis Rather

WOMEN'S GOLF

Alexis Rather chipped in from off the green on the first playoff hole to give the Lady Tigers the eighth and final spot in the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championships. LSU would go on to finish 15th, and after the season the senior would be named an assistant coach of the Ole Miss Rebels.

Richard Thompson ▲

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD

Richard Thompson proved to be the nation's most dominant sprinter in 2008 as he was named the NCAA Men's Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year. He became the first LSU athlete in program history to sweep NCAA titles in the 60-meter dash and 100-meter dash in the same season.

Rachel Ware

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

Rachel Ware, the 2007-08 SEC Diver of the Year, recorded her third career NCAA All-America accolade when she finished 12th in the 1-meter springboard at the NCAA Championships.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin was approved as the eighth chancellor of LSU by the Board of Supervisors on June 5, 2008. Dr. Martin, formerly the president of New Mexico State University, had served at NMSU since 2004.

In his time at NMSU he was praised for his reorganization of the university's athletic department and physical plant, as well as his fundraising prowess. A 1969 graduate of Mankato State College, Dr. Martin received a Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977 and has since worked in both academic and administrative capacities at universities such as Minnesota, Oregon State University and the University of Florida.

An agricultural economist, Dr. Martin is considered an expert on land-grant universities.

Dr. Martin became president of New Mexico State University on July 1, 2004. An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission of teaching, research and extension service, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico. Dr. Martin was recognized as a strong voice for education and the agriculture industry in New Mexico. The Leadership New Mexico Distinguished Leadership Award recognizes an individual who has used his/her leadership abilities to improve the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations.

Dr. Martin also was named the recipient of the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award in 2007. This national award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, honors and recognizes outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980.

Dr. Martin established at NMSU the One University concept and called for a five-year plan titled "Living the Vision" to take the university to "the next level." He laid the groundwork for university wide extension and created the J. Paul Taylor Social Justice Symposium.

During his tenure at NMSU, the first capital campaign was established with a goal of raising $150 million by 2010. The campaign met its goal in the first half of the seven-year fundraising plan. Dr. Martin also oversaw the establishment of a system of research clusters that revolve around five areas in which NMSU scientists and researchers have expertise: 21st century aerospace, information sciences, bioscience, southwest border issues, and natural resources.

Dr. Martin was a recognized leader in New Mexico, being named a powerbroker by the New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006. He continues to be active as a scholar and has written numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications and the popular press. He recently has published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business. Named the Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, Dr. Martin also received the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Before arriving at NMSU, he served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences with more than 3,000 employees statewide. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president.

Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin completed a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977. His areas of specialization are marketing, prices, international trade, public policy, transportation and business logistics.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

He has been active in professional and community service organizations, including the Farm Foundation's Bennett Agricultural Round Table, the National Agricultural Biotechnology Council and the Florida Agricultural Resource Mobilization Foundation. He is a member of the American Economic Association, the American Agricultural Economics Association, the International Association of Agricultural Economics, the International Agricultural Trade Research Consortium, the Sigma XI Scientific Research Society and the Economic History Association.

Dr. Martin and his wife Jan have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, with a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, serves in her second year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., earned her bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA, and her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University (in 1996 and 1998).

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an Instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was promoted to associate professor with tenure in August 2005.

DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her research has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it questions how different built landscapes can help make the past meaningful in the present.

Much of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California (Bodie State Historic Park) where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was an historical study that examined a 19th century novel (Ramona) and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She has also taught undergraduate courses in cultural, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American -- her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

Joe Alleva

LSU Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva officially became the Director of Athletics at LSU on July 1, 2008, after spending the last ten years in the same position at the prestigious Duke University. Under Alleva's direction, the Duke athletic department experienced unprecedented growth and success.

"Joe Alleva brings a wealth of experience and accomplishment to LSU," said President John Lombardi. "I'm confident we've found a new leader for LSU athletics who exemplifies the vision and integrity needed to lead our sports programs to new heights, a champion of student athletes who believes in the highest standards of competition both on the field and in the classroom."

At LSU, Alleva is responsible for the administration and direction of the Tiger athletic program, which has a current annual budget of approximately $70 million, includes 20 teams and more than 400 student-athletes.

At Duke, Alleva oversaw more than 190 staff members, a $50 million budget, 26 sports and over 600 student-athletes. Duke athletics flourished under Alleva's direction.

Alleva, 55, has built his professional career on service to student-athletes and the commitment to individual development in athletics, academics and community service. Alleva is well-respected for sustaining high standards of excellence and integrity in the athletics program, the quality of coaches he has hired, and the high level of success that was achieved across athletic programs at Duke under his leadership.

Alleva's tenure as AD at Duke propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. The Blue Devils consistently finished high in the annual Directors' Cup standings, ranking as high as fifth in 2005. Prior to 1998-99, Alleva's first full year as director of athletics, Duke had never placed higher than 21st in the Directors' Cup standings. Since then, Duke has enjoyed seven top 20 finishes, including five in succession (2004-08).

In the 2006 National Collegiate Scouting Association Power Rankings, that combine a school's Directors' Cup finish, its athletic graduation rates and its academic ranking in U.S. News and World Report, Duke was the top-ranked Division I school in the nation. Duke also finished first in this listing in 2005 and second in 2004.

Alleva's outstanding list of accomplishments includes Duke winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other 10-year period in school history. Six Duke teams won national championships under Alleva's leadership and 46 Blue Devil teams recorded ACC championships, the second-highest total among ACC schools since 1997-98.

Under Alleva's commitment to education, Duke's graduation rates continued to rank among the best in the nation. Duke regularly led the ACC in Academic Honor Roll honorees as Alleva increased the financial commitment to academic support by ten-fold during his tenure as AD.

While continuing to excel in competition and in the classroom, Alleva instituted a number of innovative community service programs for Duke student-athletes to benefit the community. Duke student-athletes regularly volunteered nearly 3,000 hours in community outreach.

Fundraising under Alleva's guidance reached extensive heights during his career at Duke. Alleva and his fundraising team generated more than $173 million in gifts and funded more than $85 million in new facilities or renovations. Annual giving to the Iron Dukes increased 50 percent since the year 2000.

New facilities built under Alleva's supervision include the Michael W. Krzyzewski Center Dedicated to Athletic and Academic Excellence, Yoh Football Center, Sheffield Tennis Center, Schwartz-Butters Athletic Center, Ambler Tennis Stadium, Karcher-Ingram Golf Center, Rod Myers Teaching Center, the Skandalaris Fieldhouse at Koskinen Stadium and the fieldhouse at Williams Field. Facility upgrades were made to Cameron Indoor Stadium, Wallace Wade Stadium, Jack Coombs Stadium, Koskinen Stadium, Williams Field, Murray Athletic Building, and Brooks Field at the football practice facility.

Alleva is active on the national collegiate athletics scene, having served on the Football Bowl Certification Committee. He sat on several Atlantic Coast Conference committees and served on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.

Alleva majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

Alleva began his career at Duke working for the vice president of business and finance in 1976 and joined the Duke athletic department in 1980, as director of finance. He became the assistant director of athletics in 1986 and was soon promoted in 1987 to associate director, before his tenure as Athletics Director Joe Alleva introduces new LSU men's basketball coach Trent Johnson during a press conference on April 10, 2008.

Director of Athletics in 1998.

He played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program

Alleva is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have two sons, J.D. and Jeff, along with a daughter, Jenny. J.D. played baseball at Duke and was picked in the 24th-round of the 2001 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Kansas City Royals and is now a professional scout for the Houston Astros. VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located on press row for visiting radio broadcasts by Southeastern Conference opponents. Please inform LSU SID Caroline Domecq if you wish to broadcast your match on the radio. Other teams wishing to do radio broadcasts must contact Director of Broadcasting Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Radio Network at (225) 578-1882.

GAME INFORMATION

During matches, media will be provided with a media guide as well as a match program that includes notes and updated statistics. Final box score books will be available shortly following each home match. Wireless internet is available in the Maravich Center. Please contact Caroline Domecq for the username and password. For fax service, please contact a member of the LSU Sports Information Office for assistance. Phones will be made available on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Green Room located in the Northeast corridor of the Maravich Center.

POST GAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done in an informal manner at courtside following each match. For assistance in locating any member of the LSU team, contact Caroline Domecq. For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID.

COVERING PRACTICES

Coach Fran Flory is available for interviews weekday mornings and early afternoons. Her office is located on the fourth floor of the Athletic Administration Building. The team practices from 1:30-4:30 p.m. daily in the auxiliary gym of the Maravich Center. Practice times are subject to change based on class schedules of the players and travel as well as game schedules. All practices are open to the media.

Interviews with coaches and/or players are held after practice and phone interviews may be arranged. Advance notice is needed for interviews for time reasons. Please arrange all interviews through the LSU Sports Information Office and volleyball contact Caroline Domecq.

You will be assigned a login and password that will enable you to retrieve pictures. This service is for the media use only. Resale of these pictures is strictly prohibited.

Credentials

Credentials for LSU home matches are issued for working media only. Season credential should be requested in August and single-match credentials should be requested two (2) days prior to the date of the game.

- ▶ Members of the media must request credentials online through Associate Sports Information Director Caroline Domecq.
- ▶ Please keep in mind that credentials authorize an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. ANY unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and the accredited organization to revocation of its credentials for future LSU athletic events.

Credentials will be issued using the following criteria:

1. Sports editors of daily newspapers and sports director of television and radio stations.
2. Daily radio and television shows.

3. Weekly radio and television shows providing sound and/or video highlights.
4. Weekly magazines specifically dedicated to LSU Athletics.
5. Other weekly and monthly publications.
6. Websites (please see restrictions below).

The official website of LSU athletics and the official website of the visiting school will be credentialed. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet specifications outlined below:

1. Must be a legal corporate entity that has been in business at least one full calendar year and has provided coverage of LSU or the visiting team for at least one year.
2. Must provide daily coverage of ALL athletic teams of LSU or the visiting team with its own staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.

3. Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.
4. Must provide coverage of all press conferences of ALL athletic teams at LSU or the visiting team.

5. Must be accredited by home university as working media.

Note: Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and they sponsor these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio, television), but will not be granted additional passes for online staff.

Requests from individuals not employed by an accredited media outlet will not be considered.

Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
