USA WOMEN'S A2 NATIONAL TEAM

BRITTNEE COOPER was a part of the USA Volleyball Women's National A2 Team for the second consecutive season in May 2009. The 24 collegiate players (four setters, 10 outside/opposite hitters, six middle blockers and four liberos), were divided into two teams, Red and Blue. Cooper was a contributing member of Red Team that captured the silver medal at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships in Minneapolis. Cooper and former teammate Elena Martinez won gold in 2008.

LSU ALMA MATER

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias,
shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear old Alma Mater
who to us recalls
Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love
that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending
be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And may thy spirit live in us...
Forever L-S-U.

2009 Outlook

With a core of seasoned veterans and a crop of talented newcomers, the LSU volleyball team is more than capable of building on its championship tradition during the 2009 season.

Once again playing in one of the nation's toughest conferences, the Tigers will look to defend its four straight SEC Western Division crowns. LSU also has accumulated four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and posted 22.5 wins per season during its four-year run.

"This program is ready to take the next step as far as winning an overall conference championship and moving further into the NCAA Tournament," head coach Fran Flory said. "I was fortunate enough to be a part of two Final Four teams in 1990 and 1991. Our goal is to return to that level, and we know everything has to fall in place for that to happen. The foundation of the 2009 team is solid. The players are poised, prepared and continue to get better with each challenge they face."

The keys to the team's ability to take that next step begin with its returning arsenal highlighted by middle blockers Brittnee Cooper and Lauren DeGirolamo along with outside hitters Marina Skender and Michele Williams.

Together, LSU's high octane quartet boasts 52 career accolades, including 2007 and 2008 AVCA All-American Honorable Mention status for both DeGirolamo and Cooper, respectively.

The Tigers also return setters Sam Dabbs and Brittney Johnson coupled with veteran outside hitter Angela Benseid and middle blocker Tania Schatow. Between the seven returning players, the 2009 Tigers feature more than 2,500 kills and have contributed to 90 LSU victories.

"This experienced group of players has been through the battles and are hungry to get back on the court," Flory said. "We also have four gifted newcomers who are eager to make an impact at the collegiate level. Getting more versatile players has been the biggest area of growth of our program over the last five seasons and that's a critical ingredient to where we want to go this season."

Once again, Flory has challenged the Tigers with another high-caliber series of opponents. LSU has 12 matches scheduled against 2008 NCAA Tournament teams as the Tigers open the season against national runner-up Stanford (Aug. 28) followed by matches against Denver (Aug. 29) and host Notre Dame (Aug. 30) at the Shamrock Invitational in South Bend, Ind.

LSU returns home and takes on its second Final Four squad from 2008 as Nebraska (Sept. 4) along with Louisiana-Lafayette (Sept. 5) and Tulane (Sept. 5) visit the Maravich Center for the Tiger Classic.

Before entering conference play, the Tigers square off with NCAA Tournament participants Tulane (Sept. 11) and Long Beach State (Sept. 12) in addition to New Orleans (Sept. 12) at the AllState Sugar Bowl Classic in New Orleans.

For the fourth consecutive season, LSU will play a home-and-home series with each Southeastern Conference team in lieu of a league tournament. The Tigers welcome NCAA Tournament participants Tennessee (Sept. 18) and Kentucky (Sept. 20) on the opening weekend of SEC action.

Defending SEC champion Florida (Oct. 11) visits the PMAC as part of four-match home stand that features South Carolina (Oct. 9), Arkansas (Oct. 16), Ole Miss (Oct. 18).

The four-time defending SEC Western Division champions also play host to Georgia (Oct. 30), Auburn (Nov. 1) Mississippi State (Nov. 20) and Alabama (Nov. 22) before concluding the regular season at NCAA Tournament participant Rice (Nov. 27).

"The SEC continues to get better and better," Flory said. "There are a lot of teams who were young last season that bring back a lot of talented players. The league is as wide open as it's ever been from top to bottom, and it's going to be challenge every time we step on the court."

The NCAA Tournament begins with opening rounds, Dec. 3-6, on campus sites before moving onto four regional sites hosted by Florida, Minnesota, Nebraska and Stanford. The Final four is set for Dec. 17-19 at the St. Pete Times Forum in Tampa, Fla.

OUTSIDE HITTERS

LSU has no shortage of options as Marina Skender, Angela Bensend and Madie Jones can succeed at either the outside or right side hitting positions. The trio is joined by Brittney Johnson, Ally Judkins, Tania Schatow and Michele Williams, who are additional candidates that could see time on the outside when not in their traditional positions.

A dangerous server, powerful hitter and consistent passer, Skender's versatility combined with her experience, makes her one of the most complete players in the SEC. She enters 2009 after racking up 1,097 kills, 954 digs, 247 blocks and 165 aces over her first three seasons before sitting out 2008 with a medical redshirt.

Angela Bensend had a strong finish to the 2008 season, connecting on 108 of her 151 kills against SEC opponents. Her steady passing also will be important as she looks to return to her form that brought her 2007 All-SEC Freshmen Team accolades.

"The 2009 team is filled with tremendous flexibility and firepower," Flory said. "It's very rare to finish the spring not knowing where the pieces are going to fit together in the fall. Marina and Angela give a solid foundation to our steady arsenal."

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

LSU returns three of its strongest weapons in middle blockers Brittnee Cooper, Lauren DeGirolamo and Michele Williams. Cooper and DeGirolamo earned AVCA All-America Honorable mention status in 2007 and 2008, respectively.

Cooper has spent the offseason in each of the last two seasons training with the U.S. National A2 Team. She won medals on both occasions and returns as one of the most-respected players in the SEC. The Houston native popped 302 kills on a .336 hitting percentage and paced the league averaging 1.21 blocks per set in 2008.

DeGirolamo's 2008 season was cut short due to injury, but she will rely on her proven ability to hit and block consistently to bounce back this season. She slapped 430 kills on a .332 hitting percentage to go along with 1.51 blocks per set in 2007.

Williams, a unanimous pick to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2008, knocked 162 of her 191 kills in SEC action registering a .302 hitting percentage and will be looked upon to reach even greater heights in her sophomore campaign.

"We've made being an extremely disciplined blocking team one of areas of emphases during the spring and something that we will continue to fine tune in the fall," Flory said. "With Brittnee, Lauren and Michele, this portion of the game can be dominating for us. Both players have the capable of taking over matches and controlling the match from the net."

SETTERS

LSU's setting tandem of Sam Dabbs and Brittney Johnson returns for 2009 after passing out a combined 11.18 assists per game last season. Both players contribute valuable understanding of the game and possess familiarity with the LSU hitters after working extremely hard during the offseason.

Dabbs, the 2008 Louisiana Newcomer of the Year, contributed six double-doubles which included LSU's first triple-double since the 2003 season. She registered 40 or more assists on 10 occasions and ranked inside the SEC's Top 5 in assists per set.

Johnson split time at setter and offered versatility to the Tiger lineup taking swings from the right side. The Baton Rouge native was the only player to post over a kill, an assist and a dig per set last season. She also showcased her athleticism as a consistent blocker.

"Sam and Brittney are both very solid setters that can take us to the championship level," Flory said. "We feel that Sam has acquired a much better feel for our hitters' strengths after having a season under her belt. Brittney is a very intelligent offensive player who responded very favorably and gained valuable experience as we adjusted the tempo of our offense during the spring."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBEROS

With the departure of the reigning two-time SEC Defensive Player of the Year and AVCA All-American defensive specialist Elena Martinez, LSU will undeniably have a hole to fill in one of the most crucial position on the court.

Lauren Wacławczyk along with freshmen Sam Delahoussaye and Meghan Mannari are set to anchor the LSU back row. Wacławczyk saw action in 27 matches accounting for 1.46 digs per set last season, while Delahoussaye and Mannari arrive on the Bayou after extremely decorated prep careers.

"The first touch is the most important and there will be opportunities for all three of them to play," Flory said. "Lauren did an excellent job alongside Elena last year and we're excited about the progress she made working extremely hard to improve her defensive range. Meagan does a great job of making the play that seems impossible, while Sam has a steady platform and is the best true passer of the trio."

MEDIA

The Southeastern Conference continues to flourish as a solid and competitive league in women's collegiate volleyball.

In the last two decades, the SEC has made stellar contributions in volleyball. The conference has sent at least two SEC teams to the NCAA Tournament in every season the last 19 years. The SEC had a team reach the Final Four seven of the 10 seasons in the '90s with the league having a team advance to the regional final nine of those 10 seasons. Since 2000, the SEC has had a team reach the Final Four three times and regional final four times.

In 2008, Florida captured its 18th SEC Championship and made its 19th NCAA Tournament appearance, advancing to the regional semifinals. In all, four teams from the SEC made the NCAA Tournament, including Florida, Kentucky, LSU and Tennessee.

Since the inaugural SEC volleyball championship in 1979-80, many changes have occurred in the conference with volleyball. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina to the league in 1991 brought the divisional format to the sport with five teams competing in the Eastern Division and six teams in the Western Division.

In 2009, the SEC entered into an unprecedented TV agreement with ESPN that will provide exclusive coverage of SEC athletics. In the arrangement, SEC volleyball will now be broadcast on three different platforms: ESPNU, FS South/Southwest/Sun Sports and CSS. Live SEC volleyball coverage can now reach into 46 million homes nationwide on ESPNU, and in the SEC nine-state region, 22 million homes on FS South/Southwest/Sun Sports, and 7 million homes on CSS.

SEC VOLLEYBALL: SETTING THE STANDARD FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS IN VOLLEYBALL

- The 2008 season marked the 19th consecutive season in which the SEC has placed at least two teams in the NCAA Tournament. The SEC has placed at least four teams in each of the last five seasons.
- LSU claimed the Western Division crown in 2008 for the fourth consecutive season, with Florida earning the Eastern Division championship for the 14th consecutive season.
- Brittnee Cooper and Elena Martinez were two of the seven players to represent the SEC as AVCA All-America Honorable Mention selections.

LSU is a four-time defending SEC Western Division Champion.

Fran Flory Volleyball

- Win championships.
- Help student-athletes develop to their full potential, both on the court and in the classroom.
- Help each student-athlete earn their degree and prepare for the next step in their lives.

It hasn't taken Fran Flory long to turn around the LSU volleyball program. She took over a team that had hit rock bottom in 1997 and has methodically turned it into a team that expects to win every time it steps on the court. From 0-15 in the SEC the season prior to her arrival to three-straight SEC Western Division titles and NCAA Tournament appearances over the last three years, Flory has made her impact felt on the court. With her ability to identify and develop talent, relate to her players and surround herself with top-notch assistant coaches, Flory has made this a great time to be a part of LSU volleyball.

"LSU has everything a student-athlete could ask for, from the facilities to the administration. We expect to win championships and every LSU student-athlete has those expectations. Our teams are committed to winning both on the court and in the classroom.

"Team togetherness and team ownership are two very important factors in our program. Our teams are committed not only to LSU, but also to each other. Team ownership is vital to the success of any team, company or organization. Everyone must have a clear understanding of the goals and direction of the program. We are very careful to define roles and responsibilities so everyone is headed in the same direction."

Flory came to LSU from the head coaching position at Kentucky, where she led the Wildcats to one NCAA Tournament appearance and was named the AVCA South District Coach of the Year in 1993. Prior to that, she served as an assistant at LSU where she helped the Tigers to three SEC Championships and two Final Four appearances.

Now, entering her 11th season, Flory will continue to build on the solid foundation that she has laid out for the LSU volleyball program and continue to design her program around the fundamentals that have made her a success at every stop of her coaching career.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life.”

► EDUCATION FIRST

A staple of the LSU program since Flory arrived in 1998 has been the tremendous academic success of her players. The Tigers have placed the second-most players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the last seven years of any school in the league. In four of those past seven seasons, LSU has led the conference.

“Balancing a successful career in the classroom and on the court is a difficult task,” said Flory. “It requires a great deal of discipline and commitment. Our staff truly understands what it takes and shares in the commitment to insure the academic and athletic success of our student-athletes.”

► BUILDING FOR SUCCESS IN LIFE

When athletes sign to play for coach Flory, they sign on not only to maximize their potential as a volleyball player, but also to maximize their potential as a person.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life. When they graduate, I want them to truly feel prepared for the next step in their lives, whatever that may be. We are not just about developing successful volleyball players, our program is about developing successful people.

“Our philosophy is one that we all control our own destiny. Each day we make choices in all aspects of our lives that will influence who and what we become. We strive to provide the freedom and correct environment to make the choices that will prepare our student-athletes for their future.”

Speaking of Flory

“Fran is one of the finest people I have ever met. I have had the pleasure of watching her become one of the finest coaches in our profession. It would be an honor to have my daughter play for her. She has great enthusiasm, is very easy to work with and has a true desire to be successful. She has my utmost admiration and support.”

Mick Haley

Head coach at Southern California;
Head coach 2000 US Olympic Team

“Fran is one of the most remarkable people that I have had the pleasure of knowing. She has been a mentor and a friend throughout my playing and coaching career. She is one of those people who has the ability to make you feel that you have the strength and courage to accomplish anything and overcome any obstacle.”

Julie Stempel Ibieta

Former head coach at University of New Orleans,
LSU volleyball player (1988-91)

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

Academic Center FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

Brittney Johnson was presented with the Jesse Owens Athletic Award at the Black Scholars Awards program in April 2009. Johnson, a business major, carries a 3.7 GPA.

Amenities

- ▶ 54,000 square feet of working space
- ▶ 300 computer workstations
- ▶ 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- ▶ Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- ▶ Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- ▶ A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

GRADUATES

Since 2000, 33 LSU volleyball players have earned their degree from the University, including four who went on to earn graduate degrees. From 1997 to 2007, twenty of the 21 four-year letterwinners went on to earn a degree. Lauren Leaumont (left) earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology in the Spring of 2007.

2008 SEC Academic Honor Roll

Since Fran Flory's arrival at LSU in 1998, the Tiger volleyball program has had a total of 86 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, including a school record 12 players in 2000. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll are required to maintain a cumulative 3.0 GAP or better over the previous academic year (Fall-Spring-Summer).

Community OUTREACH

LSU volleyball participates in a variety of community service projects. Among the projects over the past year, the Tigers raised money to buy gifts for an underprivileged child as part of Christmas with the Tigers event, visited the children's ward at the hospital on Valentine's Day and participated at the Muscular Dystrophy Association's Strides & Rides event.

DIG FOR THE CURE

Coinciding with "Breast Cancer Awareness Month", the LSU volleyball program will participate in the "Dig for the Cure" campaign during the 2009 season. Fans will have the opportunity to donate money in aid of awareness for the world's most common cause of cancer deaths in women. The Tigers have collected and donated over $5,000 during the event's first two years.

LSU went from wearing specially designed pink warm-up shirts in 2007 and wore commemorative pink jerseys against No. 8 Florida last season. Prior to the match, the Tigers played host to a Pink Carnival that was filled with a multitude of games. LSU won three of its four October matches during the 2008 campaign.

The "Dig for the Cure" campaign was originally started in 2003 by Charlotte head coach Lisa Marston, whose mother was a breast cancer survivor, and has spread to over 100 volleyball programs across the country. During the previous six years, the campaign raised over half a million dollars.

Nutrition First

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix coordinates with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet. LSU trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

Athletic TRAINING

Athletic trainers Jack Marucci, Andy Barker and Shelly Mullenix have over a combined 50 years of experience.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 145-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

Jill Lytle Wilson
Former LSU volleyball player and current assistant coach

"I knew the second I stepped foot on campus that I might be the luckiest person on earth to have the chance to play volleyball at LSU. On my official visit, it poured at the football game that day and not a soul left or stopped their cheers until the Tigers claimed the close victory. Instantly that day I saw the great passion for LSU from every professor, coach, student and fan. Now I am fortunate enough to be back coaching at LSU with my mentor, and there is not a day that passes now that I don't think about how my four years here were the greatest opportunity of my life."

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Tommy Hodson
Quarterback (1986-89)
All-SEC

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

Tyson Jackson
Defensive End (2005-08)
2009 NFL Draft No. 3 Pick

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

◀ Shaquille O'Neal

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal is one of the most dominant centers in league history. O'Neal, one of the most quotable athletes on the planet, joined the long list of prominent LSU alumni when he earned his degree in general studies in December 2000. O'Neal was traded to the Cleveland Cavs in June 2009.

Seimone Augustus ▶

Seimone Augustus received her degree in 2005 after just three years at LSU and while earning NCAA Women's Basketball National Player of the Year honors twice. She was the first pick of the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx and teamed with fellow LSU alum Sylvia Fowles to claim an Olympic gold medal for the United States in 2008.

Sylvia Fowles ▶

Sylvia Fowles was a two-time State Farm All-American at LSU before going onto a career in the WNBA with the Chicago Sky. Fowles and Seimone Augustus became the first LSU basketball players to claim Olympic gold when they did so in 2008 for the United States. Fowles returned to LSU to get her degree in general studies in May 2009.

Prominent LSU ALUMNI

Eduardo Aguirre, Jr.

Named the first Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for the Department of Homeland Security in 2003, Aguirre, Jr., was the U.S. Ambassador to Spain from 2005 until 2009.

Dr. James Andrews

A world-renowned orthopedic surgeon, Andrews is a 1963 graduate of LSU and a 1967 graduate of LSU Medical School. While at LSU, Andrews won the SEC indoor and outdoor titles in the pole vault.

Lod Cook

Cook graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1955 and then earned his Master's degree in petro engineering in 1955. Cook served as CEO of ARCO for nine years.

Kevin Faulk

Excelled in both the classroom and on the playing field as he graduated in just three years. Faulk is currently a member of the three-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriots.

Carlos Roberto Flores

The president of Honduras from 1997-2001, Flores helped the nation recover after Hurricane Mitch devastated the country in 1998. Flores is married to the former Mary Carol Flake, also an alumnus of LSU.

Jim Flores

Flores graduated with two bachelor's of science degrees; one in corporate finance in 1981 and the second in petroleum land management in 1982. Flores is currently Chairman, President and CEO of Plains Exploration & Production Company.

LSU's enrollment is more than 25,000 students, including more than 1,600 international students and nearly 5,000 graduate students.

LSU GREATS

The following eight individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and athletics director emeritus Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009.

Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

33

Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald and Macklin comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and is the LSU athletics director emeritus. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

37

Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was also named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball as he went 14-4 with an ERA of 3.49 and an SEC record 202 strikeouts. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Fran Flory

HEAD COACH • 12th Year at LSU • 19th Overall

Overall Head Coaching Record: 308-246 (18 Seasons)
Record at LSU: 198-132 (11 Seasons)

Fran Flory enters her 12th season at the helm of the LSU volleyball program. The Tigers continue to raise the level of success winning four consecutive SEC Western Division crowns and appearing in four straight NCAA Tournaments under Flory. The last time LSU reached the NCAA's four times in a row was during the 1989-92 seasons.

LSU has averaged 22.5 wins per season and spent 26 weeks ranked inside the Bison/AVCA Top 25 poll climbing as high as No. 10 on two occasions during the four-year run. The Tigers also have tallied six AVCA All-South Region First-Team picks, including a pair of AVCA All-Americans in each of the last two seasons for the first time since 1991-92.

Under Flory's guidance, LSU has racked up 25 All-SEC selections, including nine First-Team picks. Elena Martinez notched 2007 & 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year in addition to AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades. She finished her career second in program history reeling in 1,414 digs and shattered the school record posting 4.39 digs per set.

LSU has dominated with 32 All-Louisiana selections highlighted by 17 First-Team selections. The three-time Louisiana Coach of the Year also has led her players to every individual state award, including three players, three freshmen, two defensive players and two newcomers of the Years.

Martinez along with Brittnee Cooper has represented LSU on the national stage in the last two years as a part of USA Volleyball Women's A2 National Team. The duo won gold at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships in May 2008, while Cooper added a silver medal in May 2009.

Flory's success at LSU, however, hasn't been solely on the court. The Tigers have registered the second-most players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll of any school in the league during her tenure, leading the league four times in the last nine seasons. LSU also has been recognized nationally for its academic success, picking up an AVCA Academic Award on three occasions.

The 2008 Tigers overcame injuries and finished the regular season with six straight wins to join Arkansas and Florida as the only other SEC programs to win four-straight divisional titles. Cooper emerged as one of the top middle blockers in the nation after knocking 302 kills on a .336 hitting percentage to go along with a SEC best 1.21 blocks per set earning All-SEC, All-Louisiana, AVCA All-South Region First-Team and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades.

LSU compiled a stellar 25-8 campaign in 2007. The Tigers broke through with an NCAA Tournament victory, a gritty five-set triumph over New Mexico State, in its third-straight year in the postseason. Lauren DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington took home All-SEC First-Team honors, while DeGirolamo teamed with Martinez for AVCA All-America Honorable Mention.

The Tigers made the 2006 season a year to remember after racking up a 26-6 mark. The 26 victories and No. 19 final national ranking were accomplished for the first time in program history since the 1992 season. LSU also won the SEC Western Division crown outright setting a program mark along the way with 16 league victories.

Flory garnered her second consecutive Louisiana Coach of the Year award. Daniela Romero tacked on AVCA All-America Honorable Mention after securing All-SEC First Team and Louisiana Player of the Year. She was joined by Marina Skender giving the Tigers two All-SEC First-Team picks for the first time since 1999.

LSU's return to volleyball prominence began in 2005 as the Tigers finished 21-8 sharing its first SEC Western Division championship and garnered its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1992. After Hurricane Katrina turned the Maravich Center into the largest field hospital in the United States, LSU played its first 17 matches on the road traveling over 14,000 miles.

Ivana Kuzmic became LSU's first All-American since 1992 after being named All-SEC First Team and Louisiana Player of the Year. Skender added SEC Freshman of the Year and Second-Team accolades.

LSU totaled a pair of second-place finishes and five third-place showings in the SEC West over Flory's first seven seasons. She made an immediate impact on the program moving LSU within a game of the .500 mark in 1998 after the Tigers went winless in SEC action the year before.

The 1999 Tigers improved to 17-15 overall as Meagan Davis and Kelly Thompson notched All-SEC First-Team accolades. In 2000, LSU took another step forward making the SEC Tournament finals. Despite the setback, LSU broke a six-year winless drought at the SEC Tournament.

The Tigers picked up its first winning conference record under Flory during the 2001 season. LSU won nine of its 10 matches against Western Divisions squads en route to a second-place finish. Flory kept the momentum going into 2002 and strung together back-to-back SEC winning season for the first time since 1992-93.

LSU bounced back from an 11-19 mark in 2003 and fired back with a 17-12 record during the 2004 season. Kuzmic earned Louisiana Player of the Year as the Tigers won three matches against NCAA Tournament squads.

This is Flory's second stint at LSU as the Baton Rouge native was an assistant for four seasons under LSU's winningest coach, Scott Luster. She served as a graduate assistant in 1988, before being named a full-time assistant prior to the 1989 season.

During her four seasons with the Tigers, Flory helped LSU to unprecedented success with three SEC championships, three SEC Tournament championships and two Final Four appearances, the first school in SEC history to advance to the NCAA Final Four.

Flory left LSU to assume the head coaching duties at Southeastern Louisiana in 1992. In her first season as a head coach, SLU turned in a 21-13 record. She returned to the SEC as an assistant coach at Kentucky in 1993. Five months later, Flory assumed the head coaching duties when Kathy DeBoer, who is currently the Executive Director of the AVCA, was named Associate Athletic Director.

The 1993 Wildcats stormed to a 29-4 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round. For her efforts, Flory was named the Tachikara/AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year. She remained at Kentucky through the 1997 season.

Before entering coaching, Flory experienced a successful playing career at the University of Texas. She was a member of the Longhorns 1981 AIAW National Championship squad. She received All-Southwest Conference and All-south Region honors during her three seasons..

Flory graduated from Texas in 1984 and was named head coach at Wittenberg University in 1986, where she coached for one season before moving on to Texas A&M as an assistant coach.

A member of the AVCA, Flory has assisted in coordinating both the Louisiana Senior Olympic Games and the Special Olympics; hosting the 2001 Senior Olympic Games. She also is a member of the United States Volleyball Association coaching accreditation program.

Flory and her husband, Ken, live in Baton Rouge. The couple has a daughter, Lindsay (12), and a son, Nicholas (10).

Steve Loeswick embarks on his third season as an assistant coach on the LSU volleyball staff. Loeswick's main duties with the Tigers include setter training, film and opponent breakdown along with the lead beach coach responsibilities during the spring season.

A former setter himself, Loeswick guided the development of transfer Samantha Dabbs to the 2008 Louisiana Newcomer of the Year award and All-LSWA Second-Team honors as she finished fifth in the SEC's assist rankings as the Tigers went onto win its fourth straight SEC Western Division crown and appear in its fourth straight record and 16 All-Ivy League selections, including 2000 Player of the Year Robin Moore. Cornell posted a top three finish in the Ivy League standings during three of Loeswick's final four seasons, including a 21-4 mark and a second-place finish in 2003.

Loeswick began his coaching career in 1997 where he was an assistant coach for the Martinus Club, a professional women's club in Holland, for one season. He entered coaching after a year of playing in Germany's top professional volleyball league.

A four-year starting setter for the University of Southern California, Loeswick was just the third Trojan to start in a single position for all four seasons. As a freshman, he ranked 10th nationally with 15.86 assists per game before earning 1993 Volleyball Monthly All-Freshman Team honors and being named to the 1996 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Academic Team.

In 1993 and 1994, Loeswick participated in the U.S. Olympic Festival, serving as the captain of the squad that captured the silver medal. A Volleyball Monthly Fabulous 50 Prep as a senior in high school in 1992, he also won a gold medal at the 1991 Empire State Games. In addition, he was a member of the U.S. Junior Elite Team twice and played for the Rochester Pace Bootlegger club team, where he earned AAU All-America honors.

In 1996, Loeswick earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC. A native of North Tonawanda, N.Y., he married the former Jennifer Arbuckle on June 17, 2006. Jennifer, a standout outside hitter at Virginia Tech from 1992-1995, served as Oklahoma director of volleyball operations for several years.

The Loeswicks welcomed their second child, Lillian Ann, in December 2008. Lillian's older sister, Isabella Rose, turns three in April 2010. The family lives in Baton Rouge.

Former Tiger volleyball standout Jill Lytle Wilson heads into her third season as an assistant coach on the LSU staff. Lytle Wilson serves as the program's recruiting coordinator in addition to training the outside hitters and defensive specialists.

During her first two seasons at her alma mater, Lytle Wilson continued the development of Kyna Washington, who finished her career sixth in program history with 1,463 kills. Brittnee Cooper also has emerged as one of the top middle blockers in the nation after knocking 302 kills on a .336 hitting percentage to go along with a SEC best 1.21 blocks per set racking up All-SEC, All-Louisiana and All-AVCA South Region First-Team accolades in 2008.

Marina Skender joined Washington during the 2007 season as only the 15th player in program history to reach 1,000 career kills. The duo was the first pair of juniors since Nyla Shepherd and Julie Stempel accomplished the historic feat in 1990. Washington went onto All-SEC First-Team honors after ranking in the SEC's Top 5 popping 507 kills at a 3.87 per set clip, while Angela Bensend also earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Prior to LSU, Lytle Wilson spent one season as an assistant coach at Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons matched a school record for most ACC wins in 2006. She trained the outside and right side hitters on the court in addition to serving as team travel coordinator, recruiting assistant and camp director assistant off the court.

Lytle Wilson was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina from 2002-2004. The Tar Heels notched a 32-4 record en route to the 2002 ACC regular season championship, its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and a No. 11 final national ranking during her first season. Laura Greene took home the 2002 ACC Player of the Year award and was an AVCA All-America Third-Team pick.

UNC posted another 20-win season in 2003 despite losing four starters, while Molly Pyles picked up an AVCA All-America Honorable Mention selection in 2004.

Before joining the North Carolina staff, Lytle Wilson served as a graduate assistant at Tennessee-Martin in 2001. The Skyhawks compiled a 24-7 record and won the Ohio Valley Conference regular season title.

Lytle Wilson started her coaching career at LSU as a student assistant in 2001 while earning her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. She was a four-year starter at outside hitter from 1997-2000 and ranked sixth in the SEC with 23 service aces during her senior campaign. LSU also appeared in the 2000 SEC Tournament finals.

One of the hardest workers on her team and considered one of the most determined players Flory has ever coached, Lytle Wilson played in 98 career matches, being limited only by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee suffered 11 matches into her junior season.

A three-time member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll, Lytle Wilson also was the Tigers' representative on the women's at-large SEC Good Works Team in 1999-2000. Her good works didn't go unnoticed as Lytle Wilson was named the LSU Student-Athlete Volunteer of the Year in 2000. She served on the CHAMPS Student-Athlete Advisory Board for four years, the last year serving as president of the organization. She also was a member of the LSU tennis team in 2001.

Lytle Wilson, originally from Richmond, Texas, was a member of the Texas Elite Volleyball Club during her prep playing days. She earned All-District First-Team and All-Greater Houston Second-Team selections as a senior at Lamar Consolidated High School.

As a junior, Lytle Wilson was the District 23-4A Most Valuable Player as Lamar Consolidated earned the 1995 district crown. A nominee for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award, she was a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the Top Five percent of her class.

The daughter of Mike and Kim Lytle, Jill is married to Jared Wilson. The couple lives in Baton Rouge.

TIGER ATTACKERS

OFFICIAL BOOSTER CLUB OF LSU VOLLEYBALL

The 2009 season promises to be an exciting one. We are led by a strong group of seniors who, during their time at LSU, have helped this program win four Southeastern Conference Western Division titles and have made four straight NCAA Tournament appearances. We know our potential and will accept nothing but continued dedication toward our goals. Our entire team realizes that it will take a total team effort to get us to where we want to go.

An important facet of our program is our Tiger Attacker Booster Club. It provides invaluable support for our program in many areas. Your financial contributions allow us to improve our support services, renovate facilities and enhance the overall experience of our student-athletes. Please understand, your support does not stop at a financial commitment, your presence and emotional support is essential as well. We want more than anything to see you and your family in the stands cheering us on.

We are asking you to help us continue to grow and succeed by joining the 2009 Tiger Attacker Club. We have two levels of membership, so take a look at what those options are and find one that fits your budget and needs. We appreciate your support and thank you for being a part of the LSU Volleyball family.

HOW THE WEST WAS WON

The Tigers claimed the SEC Western Division title for the fourth consecutive season. After splitting its first 14 league matches, LSU strung together six straight wins to conclude the regular season highlighted by a trio of sweeps over Arkansas, Ole Miss and Mississippi State.

LSU's championship run started in 2005 when the Tigers shared the division crown with Arkansas. The Tigers have won the division title outright over the last three seasons and are an impressive 28-2 (.933) against its fellow Western Division foes, including 20 consecutive victories dating back to the 2006 season.

The Tigers join Arkansas and Florida as the only two programs in the conference to win four-straight divisional titles. The Gators have won all 14 Eastern Division titles since the league went to divisions in 1995, sharing the title with Tennessee in 2004. Arkansas won five-straight Western Division titles from 1995-1999, sharing the title with Auburn in 1996; and five-straight from 2001-2005, sharing the title with Alabama in 2004 and LSU in 2005.

FOUR-STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT BERTHS

LSU racked up its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth in 2008, marking the second time in program history that the Tigers have accomplished that feat. The last time LSU went to the NCAA's in four straight seasons came from 1989-1992.

Overall, LSU recorded its 10th NCAA appearance dropping a hard-fought 3-1 decision to UCLA. The Tigers are one of only three teams in the SEC to advance to the NCAA Final Four, making appearances in both 1990 and 1991.

LSU was joined by three other SEC teams as Florida, Tennessee and Kentucky represented the SEC at the NCAA Tournament.

GUSTAV CANCELS TIGER CLASSIC

LSU was supposed to open the 2008 season playing host to the Mizuno Tiger Classic on Sept. 5-6 against Rice, Southeast Missouri State and Louisiana Tech. Hurricane Gustav had other plans.

The Maravich Center was taken over days before the storm and was used as a special needs medical center.

The Tigers instead made a late entry into the McNeese Invitational where they swept matches against Nicholls State and McNeese State.

In 2005, LSU was forced to play its first 17 matches on the road in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. The Tigers were on the road 26 of 46 days during that stretch and traveled nearly 10,000 miles.

TIGERS APART OF NCAA HISTORY

Although LSU was on the losing end of the match, the Tigers were a part of NCAA attendance history at No. 2 Nebraska. The 13,412 fans at the Devaney Center were part of an NCAA regular-season volleyball record crowd.

FLORY GETS WIN NO. 300

Head coach Fran Flory recorded her 300th career victory when the Tigers defeated Mississippi State (Oct. 17). Over her 11 seasons at LSU, Flory has tallied a 192-133 mark and earned Louisiana Coach of the Year on three occasions (2001, 2005 & 2006). She has the second most wins of any active SEC head coach, behind only Florida's Mary Wise.

COOPER'S BREAKOUT SEASON

Brittnee Cooper broke out during the 2008 season after being named to the All-SEC, All-LSWA and AVCA All-South Region First Teams. She posted 302 kills on a team-best .336 hitting percentage and was key down the stretch for the Tigers registering 10 of her 17 double-digit kill performances in her last 11 outings.

Cooper also recorded 96 blocks at an SEC best 1.30 per set ratio. She notched five or more blocks 11 times. She compiled an impressive 24-kill and 12-block effort against No. 8 Florida (Oct. 24).

WELCOME ABOARD MICHELE

After Lauren DeGirolamo's season-ending injury, Michele Williams made the most of her opportunity as an unanimous selection to the SEC All-Freshman Team after moving from outside hitter to middle blocker.

Williams finished third on the team popping 162 kills in conference play on a .302 hitting clip, good enough for 10th in the SEC. She won SEC Freshman of the Week after combining for 23 kills on 40 swings with only two attack errors against Alabama (Nov. 7) and Mississippi State (Nov. 9).

KYNA CLIMBS UP THE CHARTS

Kyna Washington finished her LSU career sixth in program history knocking down 1,473 career kills. Her 3.39 kills per set are tied for third among players with 1,000 kills.

Washington paced LSU with 313 kills and powered home double digit kills in 18 matches en route to All-Louisiana Second-Team accolades.

The Houston native also slapped 158 career aces. She joins Leah Bennent, Detra Brown, Wendy Stammer and Julie Stempel as the only players in program history to rank inside the Top 10 in both kills and aces.

After transferring from Louisville, Sam Dabbs made an immediate impact on the Tigers as she took home All-LSWA First Team and Newcomer of the Year honors.

Dabbs directed a balanced offense that featured six players with more than 100 kills, including herself. She finished fourth in the SEC with 9.22 assists per set and compiled a triple-double with 48 assists, 10 kills and 14 digs against Texas A&M (Aug. 29). It was LSU's first triple-double since Regan Hood against Mississippi State (Oct. 31, 2003).

CAVE DWELLERS

After the 2007 Tigers rallied from a 2-1 deficit to knock off Alabama on the road for the first time since 2001, LSU doubled its pleasure in 2008 with another gritty 3-2 triumph over the Crimson Tide in the CAVE.

It was the first time since the 1992 and 1993 seasons that LSU has won back-to-back matches at Alabama.

Kyna Washington and Michele Williams combined for 31 kills on a .377 hitting percentage, while Angela Benseid and Brittnee Cooper each chipped in nine kills. Elena Martinez anchored the back row by reeling in 28 digs.

Martinez and Washington capped their careers having won in every opposing venue in the SEC with the exception of Florida's Stephen C. O'Connell Center, a feat the Tigers haven't accomplished since 1990.

DEGIROLAMO NAMED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

Lauren DeGirolamo was named to the sixth annual Southeastern Conference Volleyball Community Service Team in 2008. She has represented the Tigers for two years on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

DeGirolamo's season was cut short against Ole Miss (Oct. 3) when she went down with a season-ending knee injury, but she did not let that stop her from continuing to pursue numerous service opportunities in the local Baton Rouge community.

DeGirolamo spearheaded the volleyball team's activity station at LSU's Halloween BOOzar where the team played "spider volleyball" with the kids and handed out candy. She has participated in the SEC Together We CAN Food Drive as well as serving as a volunteer for the Big Buddy Program's Evening of Champions. DeGirolamo also volunteered her services for the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) Telethon, and she was an MDA Strides and Rides volunteer where she helped set up the event and then encouraged kids with muscular dystrophy to finish the race.

The Illinois native also is an outstanding scholar-athlete as she has been named a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member. She was listed as a member in 2006, 2007 and 2008 in addition to being a member of the Freshman Academic Honor Roll in 2005.

The SEC sponsors Community Service Teams for all 20 league sponsored sports. The Community Service Team looks to highlight an athlete from each school who gives back to their community in superior service efforts.

JOHNSON EARNS JESSE OWENS ATHLETIC AWARD

Brittney Johnson was presented with the Jesse Owens Athletic Award as part of the Black Faculty and Staff Caucus' 24th annual Black Scholars Awards Program at the Carl Maddox Field House in April.

The award is presented to the African American student with the highest grade point average. Johnson, a business major, currently carries a 3.7 GPA.

"Brittney is an exceptional student-athlete who works hard and always goes the extra mile," Cox Communications Academic Center Associate Director Dr. Mary Boudreaux said. "She is not only working on an accounting degree but is also completing the courses needed so that she can attend Pharmacy School when her LSU degree and volleyball career is complete."

MEDAL TIME FOR COOPER

Middle blocker Brittnee Cooper was a contributing member of the U.S. Women's National A2 Red Team that captured the silver medal at the 80th USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships held at the Minneapolis Convention Center in May.

It marked the second consecutive year that Cooper has earned a medal with the USA A2 Red Team. She teamed with Elena Martinez to win gold in 2008.

E CAN DIG IT

Elena Martinez capped her illustrious career by winning her second consecutive SEC and Louisiana Defensive Player of the Year awards after headlining the league with 516 digs at a 4.96 per set ratio, also good enough for 29th nationally. Her 516 digs also matched Luciana Reis (1993) for the third-most in a single season, while her 1,414 career digs rank second in program history. She carried the bulk of Tigers service receptions, and committed only 18 reception errors in 840 attempts for an impressive .979 percentage.

Martinez also was selected to the AVCA All-South Region First Team and earned All-America Honorable Mention status. The New Orleans product joined Monique Adams (1990 & 1991), Angie Miller (1990 & 1991) and Daniela Reis (1990, 1991 & 1992) as the only Tigers to have multiple AVCA All-South Region First-Team selections.

SO CLOSE FOR E HISTORY

Martinez notched double-figure digs during 47 consecutive matches before seeing her streak come to a close at Auburn (Oct. 12). She came within two matches of former libero Kassi Mikulik's streak of 49 matches.

NCAA Quarterfinalist

A year after falling to Georgia in the SEC Tournament finals, LSU exacted its revenge on the Bulldogs to qualify for its first of six NCAA Tournament's under Scott Luster.

The Tigers outlasted Arizona in five games during the opening round as Detra Brown (19 kills, 13 digs), Alice Card (10 kills, 18 digs), Simone DePaula (33 assists, 15 digs), Wendy Stammer (21 kills, 13 digs) and Lisa Smith (12 digs and 13 blocks) all posted double-doubles.

LSU made a run toward the Final Four sweeping Texas-Arlington before falling to host Texas in the South Regional final.

1987

Overall Record: 25-11

SEC Runner-Up

Along the way to its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, LSU knocked off No. 10 Texas at the Maravich Center in five sets behind a 22-kill, 22-dig performance from Monica Freitas.

The Tigers fell to SEC rival Florida for the second time in 13 days. LSU put up a valiant effort before they ran out of gas in the fifth set. Lisa Smith slapped 18 kills on a .469 hitting percentage.

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence and turned the tables on Houston coming back from a 2-1 hole. Nyla Shepherd led the comeback, racking up 21 kills on a .354 hitting percentage.

The Tigers headed to Austin, Texas where Texas-Arlington rallied from a two-game hole to stun LSU. Five players knocked double-figure kills for the Tigers, highlighted by 23 and 22 kills from Monique Adams and Shepherd.

NCAA Final Four

Coming off its second undefeated conference championship in as many seasons, LSU cruised past Louisville behind a .337 team hitting percentage in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the Maravich Center.

The Tigers dismissed Texas Tech 3-0 in round two as Daniela Reis set a balanced attack that featured 15 kills from Nyla Shepherd, 12 kills from Monique Adams and 10 kills from Julie Stempel.

LSU had its 1986 season end one step shy of the Final Four at Texas and were swept by the Longhorns during the 1990 regular season in Austin. Down 2-0 to the host Longhorns, LSU mounted a rally behind Adams, Shepherd and Stempel.

The trio combined for 74 of the Tigers' 91 kills and posted double-doubles as LSU fought back for a 8-15, 4-15, 15-10, 15-11, 17-15 triumph to advance to the program's first Final Four.

The Tigers fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals, but the future was bright as Adams, Shepherd and Stempel would return for their senior seasons in 1991.

NCAA Final Four

LSU fired out to a 12-0 record to start the 1991 season highlighted by wins over No. 11 New Mexico and No. 17 Texas before being upended at Florida to open SEC play.

The Tigers bounced back in a big way reeling off 20 consecutive victories en route to its third consecutive SEC regular season and tournament championships.

Only losing 12 games during the season, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint shutting down Houston in the first round to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted.

After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU faced off with Florida for the fourth time in '91. Monique Adams and Daniela Reis set a program single-game marks. Adams cranked 43 kills on an amazing .507 hitting percentage, while Reis dished out 82 assists. Angie Miller (10 kills, 29 digs), Luciana Reis (12 kills, 22 digs) and Julie Stempel (11 kills, 12 digs) also tacked on double-doubles as LSU punched its second straight ticket to the Final Four.

LSU dropped a hard-fought, four-game duel with Long Beach State in the national semifinals. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 Tigers were the only SEC squad to win a game in the Final Four.

SEC Runner-Up

SEC Tournament Runner-Up

LSU qualified for its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance as the SEC regular season and tournament runner-up.

The Tigers traveled to Lubbock, Texas for its NCAA First Round tilt and swept the Red Raiders for the third straight season. Angie Miller and Tess Sulatycki powered home a combined 29 kills on 49 swings for a .469 hitting percentage, while Daniela Reis (47 assists, 13 digs) and Luciana Reis (10 kills, 17 digs) chipped in double-doubles.

Texas edged LSU in four games at the South Regional in Gainesville, Fla., ending the Tigers hopes of a third straight Final Four appearance.

Overall Record: 21-16

NIVC Champions

LSU had its string of four consecutive NCAA Tournaments come to a close as 11 of the squad's 16 setbacks came against Top 20 opponents in 1993. Despite being left out of the big dance, the Tigers showed why they deserved a bid by rolling to the NIVC Championship.

LSU dropped just three games over a six-match span. Luciana Santana earned Tournament MVP honors after racking up three double-doubles and passing out 14.0 assists per game. Tiffany Miller and Luciana Reis also picked up All-Tournament accolades as the Tigers defeated Baylor in the NIVC Finals.

Overall Record: 25-11

SEC Western Division Co-Champion

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992 overcoming having to play a majority of the season on the road in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

The Tigers shared the SEC Western Division title, and put forth a gutsy effort before losing to Texas in the first round of the NCAA's.

Overall Record: 26-6

SEC Western Division Champion

LSU made it back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances after winning the SEC Western Division outright dethroning Arkansas. Daniela Romero and Marina Skender notched All-SEC First-Team selections as the Tigers set a new benchmark for conference wins.

The Tigers spent a majority of the season inside the Top 15, but were forced to travel to the west coast for a first round match-up against California, another Top 16 team that failed to garner a national seed.

LSU won game one before the Golden Bears fired back to win the next three games limiting the Tigers to a .156 hitting percentage. Marina Skender and Kyna Washington popped 12 kills each.

Overall Record: 25-8

SEC Western Division Champion

LSU strung together its third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance after claiming a third-consecutive SEC Western Division title. The Tigers jumped out to a 15-2 start as Lauren DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington were All-SEC First-Team picks.

By storming back from a 2-1 deficit against No. 14 New Mexico State in the first round, LSU ended a 15-year winless draught in the NCAA's.

Brittney Johnson set a balanced attack fueling Angela Bensed, Marina Skender and Washington to double-figure kills. LSU eventually fell against No. 4 Texas at home for the second time in three seasons.

Overall Record: 18-10

SEC Western Division Champion

The Tigers connected four NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time since 1989-92 overcoming a string of injuries as Elena Martinez won her second-straight SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

LSU finished the regular season with six straight wins and pushed No. 14 UCLA to the limit during the opening round of the NCAA's.

MARAVICH CENTER

The 2009 season marks LSU volleyball's 28th season in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, the largest volleyball venue in the SEC. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,373 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department and underwent a multi-year refurbishment. The renovation began three years ago with new television lighting and continued two years ago with a new roof surface. In 2006, the inside of the Maravich Center saw an upgrade as the seats were replaced and the interior was given a complete makeover. Prior to the 2007 season, the main arena got a new subfloor and a new playing floor. In the summer of 2008, the auxiliary practice gym also received a new floor.

The outside windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the arena. Volleyball fans also can see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

The Tiger volleyball team enjoys the comforts of a spacious locker room. The two-tiered, fully carpeted facility features individual cubicles for each athlete, a meeting room and storage area.

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center was one of the top home courts in the nation, as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record. During that time, LSU recorded a 37-match home-court win streak, which is the second-longest streak in SEC history. In 1991, the Tigers enjoyed possibly their finest season in the arena as LSU recorded a perfect 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have now posted 11 consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 90-39 (.688), including an undefeated 6-0 mark in 2005. Since beginning play in the arena in 1982, the Tigers have notched a 284-114 (.714) mark, recording only three losing seasons at home.

The Maravich Center also has played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Maravich Center also has been the site of three NCAA Championship first-round matches as well as the NCAA South Regional in 1991.

Along with the main court area, an auxiliary gym with a recently refinished court is located underground in the north section of the arena. Nearly all Tiger volleyball practices take place in the auxiliary gym.

Dr. John V. Lombardi

President, Louisiana State University System

Dr. John V. Lombardi is the fifth individual to serve as the President of the Louisiana State University System. As its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Lombardi oversees 11 institutions, including five academic campuses, as well as 10 public hospitals located throughout the state. He is also a Professor of History at Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Dr. Lombardi was born in Los Angeles, California and attended Pomona College where he earned his bachelor's degree. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in history from Columbia University. He joined the faculty in the Department of History at Indiana University, where he later served as Dean of International Programs and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. In 1987, he became Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the Johns Hopkins University. From 1990-1999, Dr. Lombardi was President of the University of Florida. Prior to his appointment as President of the LSU System, he served as Chancellor of the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

He is a Latin American historian, with a special interest in Venezuela. Dr. Lombardi is also one of the country's foremost authorities in higher education, serving as Co-Editor of The Top American Research Universities. He is the author of numerous professional publications, and along with his wife, Cathryn, co-authored a teaching atlas on Latin American History. He has taught courses in history, intercollegiate sports, and university management.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin assumed the chancellorship of Louisiana State University and A&M College on August 1, 2008. Prior to his appointment as LSU's eighth chancellor, Dr. Martin established a distinguished career in higher education, serving most recently as president of New Mexico State University.

Before arriving at NMSU in 2004, Dr. Martin served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president. Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission, Dr. Martin is recognized as a strong voice for higher education. In 2007, he received the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, which honors outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980. For his leadership in improving the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico.

Other recent awards include his recognition as a powerbroker by The New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006, being named Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, and receiving the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Dr. Martin is involved in a wide array of professional and community organizations and activities.

An active scholar, Dr. Martin has authored numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications, and the popular press and recently published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin earned a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977.

Dr. Martin and his wife, Jan, have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, who holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, serves in her fourth year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., earned her bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA, and her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University (in 1996 and 1998).

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an Instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was promoted to associate professor with tenure in August 2005.

DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her research has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it questions how different built landscapes can help make the past meaningful in the present.

Much of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California (Bodie State Historic Park) where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was an historical study that examined a 19th century novel (Ramona) and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She has also taught undergraduate courses in cultural, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American -- her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

Joe Alleva

LSU Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva enters his second year as LSU's Director of Athletics after being hired to lead one of the nation's most powerful athletic programs on April 4, 2008. Alleva joined LSU after 10 years of outstanding leadership as the director of athletics at Duke University. He officially took over at LSU on July 1, 2008.

Under Alleva's guidance in 2008-09, LSU reached new heights in terms of athletic success while continuing to be recognized as one of the top enterprises in college athletics.

A veteran leader in college athletics, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence. He is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva, 56, is well-respected for sustaining high standards of excellence and integrity in athletic programs, hiring the finest coaches in the country and the high level of success achieved by student-athletes.

Under Alleva's direction, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA post-season play for the first time in school history, and it culminated with the baseball team winning the national championship. In addition, six teams finished in the top 10 nationally. The Tigers hold claim to being the only school in the Southeastern Conference to participate in a bowl game and the men's and women's NCAA basketball tournaments during 2008-09. Furthermore, LSU student-athletes volunteered a total of 2,360 hours for community service projects.

LSU earned a ninth place ranking in the 2009 Learfield Director's Cup, which measures the overall athletic success for institutions across the country. LSU was second only to Florida in the Director's Cup among SEC institutions as the Tigers accumulated points in 18 of a possible 20 categories in the standings, also a first for the school.

Upon being hired at LSU, Alleva immediately made an impact by hiring Trent Johnson to lead the men's basketball program. Johnson, the 2009 SEC Coach of the Year, wasted little time in turning the Tigers into a winner as LSU claimed the 2009 SEC regular season title and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

LSU also had top 10 national finishes in gymnastics, men's and women's indoor track and field and men's and women's outdoor track and field. Thirteen of LSU's 20 sports finished the year ranked among the top 25 in the nation.

The Tiger football team capped their season with a record ninth-straight bowl appearance as LSU closed out 2008 with a 38-3 win over 14th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. During the offseason, Alleva helped secure the funding necessary for the addition of a state-of-the-art artificial turf practice field, which compliments the surface the Tigers have in their indoor practice facility. The addition of the outdoor artificial turf field gives the LSU football program one of the nation's finest all-around facilities.

Not only did LSU teams set records but so did the fans as over 1.5 million fans filled venues on the LSU campus. LSU set the school record for overall attendance in the sports of football, baseball, and softball.

Alleva oversaw the grand opening of two of the premier baseball and softball facilities in college athletics, Alex Box Stadium and Tiger Park.

LSU also broke ground on a basketball practice facility that will house both the men's and women's basketball teams starting in December of this year.

The new basketball practice facility will feature two full length courts as well as locker rooms and other amenities for both squads.

In addition, LSU opened a new gift center for its fans – the LSU SportsShop. The LSU SportsShop, a spectacular, free-standing facility that features the latest in LSU apparel and merchandise, is located adjacent to Mike's Habitat.

Under Alleva's guidance, LSU has one of the most lucrative apparel and shoe contracts with Nike while also having one of the nation's most attractive multi-media rights contracts with CBS Collegiate Sports Properties. LSU athletic budget is now approaching $85 million, which allows the university to compete at the highest level in the nation.

Alleva has a long-term vision for continued improvements to LSU's athletic facilities in order to insure that the Tigers are among the best in the country well into the 21st Century. One of his top priorities is the enhancement of Tiger Stadium and making Tiger Stadium and the North Stadium Drive corridor a showplace for the university. Alleva's innovative plan is to make a plaza area between the Maravich Assembly Center and Tiger Stadium that would recognize LSU's national championship teams and distinguished alumni. This special area, along with Mike's Habitat, and the LSU SportsShop, would become the focal point for visitors to campus.

Alleva is also pursuing a major renovation to the golf course at the University Club and is developing plans for a new gymnastics practice facility, indoor tennis center and improved soccer and track facilities.

"Joe Alleva brings a wealth of experience and accomplishment to LSU," LSU President John Lombardi said of hiring Alleva. "I'm confident we've found a new leader for LSU athletics who exemplifies the vision and integrity needed to lead our sports programs to new heights, a champion of student athletes who believes in the highest standards of competition both on the field and in the classroom."

Alleva's impressive tenure as director of athletics at Duke propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Also, his fundraising reached extensive heights providing new facilities or renovations for all 26 sports at Duke, which enhanced the experience for every student-athlete.

Alleva is active on the national collegiate athletics scene, having served on the Football Bowl Certification Committee. He sat on several Atlantic Coast Conference committees and served on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet.

Alleva majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

Alleva began his 32-year career at Duke University in 1976. He spent 28 years in the athletic administration prior to becoming director of athletics in 1998.

Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

Alleva is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny.

Verge Ausberry

Senior Associate AD/Operations

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and new projects.

He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin and Jaiden.

Judy Southard

Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Judy Southard, who had very successful careers as both head women's basketball coach and Director of Athletics, enters her eighth year at LSU having been promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Southard came to LSU from Texas Woman's University, where she served as the school's Director of Athletics for nine years.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Southard's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. She has direct supervision of volleyball, women's basketball, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving and men's and women's golf as well as responsibilities in monitoring the athletic department's Gender Equity and Diversity Issues Plan.

Southard just completed a successful tenure as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee and served in the important role of committee chair for the 2006-07 and 2007-08 academic years. She additionally served as a member of the SEC Executive Committee from 2004-2007.

While at Texas Woman's, Southard initiated a corporate partnership program for the athletic department and was instrumental in the addition of two sports to the department's sport offerings.

Prior to her stint at TWU, Southard served as head women's basketball coach at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., for 11 years, where she led the Lady Herd to five Southern Conference titles and was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year three times. Southard also served as Assistant Athletics Director/SWA at Marshall from 1983-88, including a four-month period when she was interim director of athletics.

Before going to Marshall, Southard spent three years as head coach at Tennessee-Martin and she also served for one season as an assistant coach at Tennessee. As a high school teacher from 1970-77, Southard coached both basketball and tennis.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Southard earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Coker College in 1970 followed by a master's degree in physical education from Tennessee in 1978. She was a 2000 inductee into the Coker College Athletics Hall of Fame and was recognized in the fall of 2006 as an inductee in the Marshall Athletic Hall of Fame.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 25-year employee of Louisiana State University, joined the Athletics Department in January 2001, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business.

Ewing is responsible for the athletic business operations including budget, travel, personnel and purchasing as well as responsibility for concession operations. He also handles financial forecasting and management of facility maintenance operations.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's $360 million operating budget.

Prior to his service at LSU, he was employed by Cajun Electric Power Cooperative where he managed accounting for the company's $2 billion plus construction division.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue.

Herb Vincent

Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Herb Vincent was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs in May of 2006 after serving as associate AD since August of 2002. In addition, he was LSU's sports information director for 12 years from 1988-2000.

In his present position, Vincent manages communications and serves as the primary public relations officer for the LSU Athletics Department and all its entities, including the Tiger Athletic Foundation. He also supervises the sports information office and marketing and promotions office, serves as the primary liaison with LSU Sports Properties and TAF, and serves as the department administrator for the sport of baseball.

Vincent served as the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. He was appointed Assistant Athletics Director in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD/ Communications in 1992.

He joined LSU as assistant sports information director in February of 1988 and was promoted to the position of SID in July of that year.

Prior to his return to LSU in 2002, Vincent served as Vice President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala.

Vincent received a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983. He worked as a student assistant in the sports information office as an undergraduate.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant public relations director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant public relations director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the public relations staff's top position.

Vincent was assistant SID and publications director at Louisiana-Lafayette for one year and served as assistant director of public relations for the Southeastern Conference office for two years prior to joining LSU in 1988.

Vincent is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky., and they have one daughter, Kennedy.

Bo Bahnsen

Sr. Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning this past year to serve the department in the Compliance Office, once again Bahnsen is proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the past five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Bahnsen oversees the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and game management for all sports except football.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing and travel for two years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. Just this past season, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 49, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Eddie Nunez

Associate AD/Operations, Project Development

Eddie Nunez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007.

Nunez's responsibilities include oversight of the men's basketball program, men's tennis program and the women's tennis program. He supervises the Game/Event Management department as well as directs all capital project for the athletic department. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $180 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Most recently this included the renovations of the Maravich Center, the construction of the new baseball and softball stadiums, the LSU SportShop and the new Basketball Practice Facility.

Nunez was the Department's coordinator in the TAF construction of the West Side addition to Tiger Stadium and the new football operations center and also represents the athletics department on various University and community committees.

Nunez came to LSU after two years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt. Prior to that, Nunez served as men's basketball administrative assistant at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant and head equipment manager for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. He also played two seasons on the Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his bachelor's in sports management from the University of Florida in 1998 and his masters in sports administration from Florida in 2000. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple have a daughter, Elizabeth Kendall Nunez, who will be one in October.

Miriam Segar

Associate AD/Student Services

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Associate Athletics Director for Student Services in April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004. She also oversees the LSU gymnastics program.

Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/ Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/ Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children -- Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Brian Broussard

Assistant AD/Director of Ticket Operations

A 13-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including nine years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $40 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football and baseball. Additionally, he assists Mark Ewing with the Tiger Gift Center and Tiger Concessions.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993.

Ronnie Haliburton

Assistant AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

LSU ATHLETICS Championship TRADITION

The Nation's Elite Teams

BASEBALL

The Team of the 90s returned to the top of 21st-century college baseball as LSU brought home a sixth national championship in its first season at New Alex Box Stadium. The Tigers knocked off top-seeded Texas in the best-of-three College World Series championship series and were sparked by a 14-game postseason winning streak. Third-year head coach Paul Mainieri was the unanimous choice for National Coach of the Year as LSU finished the season with a 56-17 record, a Southeastern Conference regular season title and an SEC Tournament title.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The LSU men's basketball team captured its fourth SEC Western Division title this decade and won the Southeastern Conference regular season championship with a 13-3 record, winning the title by three games under first-year head coach Trent Johnson. LSU was 27-8 on the year and advanced to the second round of the NCAA championships. Johnson was the consensus choice as SEC Coach of the Year and a finalist for three national coach of the year honors.

GYMNASTICS

The gymnastics team continued to show it is one of the nation's elite programs in 2009 by advancing to the Super Six after capturing the NCAA Central Regional for the second year in a row. The regional championship marked the Tigers' sixth overall, and the Super Six berth was the team's second straight. LSU has now made 25-consecutive postseason appearances.

TRACK & FIELD

The Tigers earned a pair of top-five finishes in NCAA competition with a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships followed by a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The Lady Tigers finished sixth nationally during both the indoor and outdoor seasons while earning a pair of runner-up team finishes at the SEC Championships.

SOCCER

The LSU soccer team continued its rise to national prominence with an outstanding 2008 season in which it captured its second-straight SEC Western Division championship and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row. The Tigers recorded program bests with a 14-4-2 overall record and a 7-3-1 mark in SEC play, while they also finished second in the final SEC standings.

Ashleigh Clare-Kearney GYMNASTICS

LSU's all-time leader in career individual titles with 114, Ashleigh Clare-Kearney became the fifth national champion in school history and the first LSU gymnast to capture two individual national titles. She became the Vault National Champion with a 9.9000 average and the Floor National Champion with a 9.9500 score. In addition, Clare-Kearney earned First Team All-America honors on vault, bars and floor.

Trindon Holliday MEN'S TRACK & FIELD/FOOTBALL

Trindon Holliday wrapped up the 2009 season as the NCAA's fastest man as he was crowned NCAA champion in the 100-meter dash while setting a new personal best with the top time in the country at 10.00 seconds in the national final. Holliday also earned a pair of runner-up finishes in NCAA competition during the 2009 season in the 60 meters indoors and 4x100-meter relay outdoors to finish with eight All-America honors for his career.

Tyson Jackson FOOTBALL

Tyson Jackson became the highest LSU defender to ever be picked in the NFL Draft when he was selected as the No. 3 overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2009 draft. A second team All-SEC selection, he finished his career with 122 tackles and 18.5 sacks while leading the Tigers to a fourth straight bowl victory in the 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Jared Mitchell BASEBALL

Jared Mitchell became LSU's first Major League Baseball first round draft selection since 2003 when he was taken No. 23 overall by the Chicago White Sox. The junior outfielder was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2009 College World Series following the Tigers' run to a sixth national title. Mitchell, also a wide receiver on the gridiron, became just the second athlete in school history to win national titles in multiple sports.

Marcus Thornton MEN'S BASKETBALL

The consensus Player of the year for the Southeastern Conference as he led the Tigers to the regular season SEC championship with a 13-3 record. Thornton averaged over 21 points a game and would be among the quickest Tigers to 1,000 points, reaching it in less than two years. Thornton was drafted in the second round by the Miami Heat and traded to the New Orleans Hornets.

From the football team's 2007 Bowl Championship Series national title to the baseball team's 2009 national championship, LSU is the home of the nation's elite teams. The 2008-09 year was no exception.

TWO STRAIGHT TOP 10 DIRECTOR'S CUP FINISHES ►►

Another record-setting and historical season in LSU athletics was capped when the school recorded its second straight top 10 finish in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup with a No. 9 showing among all Division I institutions. The ninth-place finish comes on the heels of last year's No. 8 national finish, which marks only the second time in school history that LSU has posted back-to-back top 10 finishes in the Director's Cup.

Elite Athletes

Brittnee Cooper VOLLEYBALL

Brittnee Cooper racked up All-SEC, All-Louisiana and All-AVCA South Region First-Team accolades after a breakout junior season posting 302 kills on a team-best .336 attack percentage. She was a contributing member on the USA Volleyball Women's National A2 Red Team that captured a silver medal at the USA Adult Championships in May 2009.

Megan Falcon WOMEN'S TENNIS

Three-time All-American Megan Falcon left her mark on the women's tennis program as she ended her college career with a 99-18 record and ranked eighth on LSU's all-time wins list. Falcon finished at No. 14 for her senior campaign and earned first team All-SEC honors for the third consecutive season.

Julius Gloeckner MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

The 2009 SEC Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year for his sport, Julius Gloeckner earned three NCAA All-America honors and broke four individual school records last season. The senior swimmer was also a part of two relay records and led the team with 16 event victories during the dual-meet season.

Samantha Henry WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

LSU is world-renown for its sprint program, and Samantha Henry continued that tradition in 2009 while earning five All-America honors in NCAA competition. Henry proved to be the most dominant sprinter in the SEC while capturing three conference titles in the 60 meters and 200 meters.

Allison Hightower WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Allison Hightower became the first player in school history to lead LSU in points, assists, steals and blocks in a single season. A State Farm All-America Honorable Mention and unanimous first-team All-SEC selection, the junior guard guided the Lady Tigers to an 11th straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Megan McChrystal WOMEN'S GOLF

McChrystal became the first LSU women's golfer in the 30-year history of the program to average less than 73 strokes per round for a full season as she earned first-team All-SEC honors and second team All-America honors. She finished 12th nationally in the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championships.

John Peterson MEN'S GOLF

The LSU men's golf team enjoyed its most successful season in a decade by winning three team titles in 2008-09, and John Peterson led the way with six Top 10 finishes. Peterson earned his first career first-team All-SEC honor and became the first Tiger to earn All-America honors since 2003 as he was named a PING Second-Team All-American.

Malorie Rutledge SOCCER

Malorie Rutledge was named the program's first SEC Offensive Player of the Year and consensus All-American in team history. Rutledge helped the Tigers to a 14-4-2 overall record and school record 7-3-1 mark in SEC play while scoring nine goals and 18 assists for 36 points on the year.

Kirsten Shortridge SOFTBALL

A NFCA All-America Third-Team selection, Kirsten Shortridge ranked inside the SEC's top seven in hits (80), batting average (.426), multi-hit games (26) and stolen bases (26). She also garnered All-SEC, All-Louisiana and NFCA All-South First-Team picks after her .426 average was second-highest in program history.

Jane Trepp WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

Jane Trepp enjoyed one of the finest seasons in recent program history, shattering three individual school records in three different stroke disciplines and playing a role on four record-breaking relay squads. The sophomore also earned three NCAA All-America honors, including first-team recognition in the 200-yard medley relay.

Michael Venus MEN'S TENNIS

Michael Venus imprinted his name among the LSU greats in the history books and wrote a new line of his own as he became the first Tiger to capture the ITA All-American Championship in the fall of 2008. The SEC Player of the Year earned both singles and doubles All-America status en route to compiling a team-best 26 victories during the season.

Michael Bonnette

Associate Athletics Director/Sports Information

Michael Bonnette enters his 10th year as LSU's Sports Information Director and third as an Associate Athletic Director after being promoted to his current position in April of 2007. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and then promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004. As Sports Information Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 20 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 39-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 16th year with the LSU Athletic Department.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of longtime McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, who was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in June of 2009. His brother Matthew Bonnette is the Assistant Sports Information Director at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDS for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDS for the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has three sons, Peyton (11), Grant (10) and Max (4).

Bill Franques

Senior Associate SID

Bill Franques works as the baseball program's media relations director, and he serves as managing editor of LSU's football, men's basketball and baseball GAMEDAY publications.

The LSU baseball media guide, written and edited by Franques, has twice been named best in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the nation in 12 of the past 16 seasons, including his 2009 guide which had the nation's winner for best cover.

Franques is the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer, and he is the radio color analyst on LSU Sports Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, he is the producer and co-host of LSU Sports Journal, a monthly television program featuring LSU sports personalities.

Franques also worked from 1997-2000 as the LSU baseball administrative assistant. His duties included coordinating team and recruiting travel, organizing fund-raising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

Franques received a bachelor of arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have three children -- William Paul, Jr. (8), Benjamin Lewis (7) and Madeline Lemoine (4).

Kent Lowe

Senior Associate SID

A member of the LSU Sports Information staff since August 1988, Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August 2000. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team.

His voice is also well known as the color analyst on softball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network and for the past 15 years has written an award-winning bowling column for The (Baton Rouge) Advocate.

Lowe, 51, came to LSU from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack.

Lowe is a member of CoSIDA (his 2009 100th anniversary men's basketball guide finished fifth in the nation) and its prestigious Academic All-American committee and is a past president of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Lowe, a native of Shreveport, is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters degree at LSU in 1982.

Matt Dunaway

Associate SID

Matt Dunaway heads into his second season as an associate sports information director at LSU. He serves as the primary media relations contact for the Tiger softball and volleyball teams in addition to publicizing LSU athletics community service efforts.

Dunaway assisted in promoting LSU softball's inaugural "Swing for the Cure" game in April 2009 where Tiger softball raised over $7,000 dollars for the Baton Rouge affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Foundation. He also fills in as the color analyst for selected softball road broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network.

Dunaway comes to LSU from Rice where he promoted the Owl women's basketball and tennis teams in addition to sharing secondary football duties.

Prior to Rice, Dunaway spent two years across town as a sports information assistant at the University of Houston. There he was the primary contact for the Cougar softball, volleyball and tennis teams.

Dunaway graduated from UCF in May 2005 with a BA in broadcast journalism from the Nicholson School of Communication. He was a student assistant in the sports information office and held sports director duties for the student chapter of the UCF ISP Sports Network responsible for broadcasting Golden Knight volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball.

Dunaway is a member of CoSIDA and lives in Baton Rouge.

Bill Martin

Associate SID
