Fran Flory

VOLLEYBALL

- ▶ Win championships.
- ▶ Help student-athletes develop to their full potential, both on the court and in the classroom.
- ▶ Help each student-athlete earn their degree and prepare for the next step in their lives.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life.”

Consistency, it's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it's virtually impossible to maintain consistency at a high level from year-to-year.

Fran Flory and the LSU volleyball program have defied those odds. The Tigers have exploded for 140 wins and garnered nine American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America selections since the 2005 season.

Flory has guided LSU to six consecutive SEC Western Division titles and added the overall league championship in 2009, the program's first since 1991. The Tigers also notched their sixth straight NCAA Tournament appearance during the 2010 campaign and are one of only 18 programs in the nation to accomplish that impressive feat during each of the last six seasons.

Flory has built LSU from the bottom up after taking over a team that posted a 9-21 record which included a 0-15 mark in SEC play during the 1997 season with her ability to identify and develop talent, relate to her players and surround herself with top-notch assistant coaches.

But winning championships is only the beginning of defining the legacy of LSU volleyball.

Flory's goal for every student-athlete who puts on the Tiger uniform is to develop into a successful person in all aspects of life.

Since 2000, 36 players have earned their degree from the University, including five who went on to earn graduate degrees. From 1997 to 2010, 28 of 29 four-year letterwinners have received degrees.

“LSU has everything a student-athlete could ask for, from the facilities to the administration. We expect to win championships and every LSU student-athlete has those expectations. Our teams are committed to winning both on the court and in the classroom.

“Team togetherness and team ownership are two very important factors in our program. Our teams are committed not only to LSU, but also to each other. Team ownership is vital to the success of any team, company or organization. Everyone must have a clear understanding of the goals and direction of the program. We are very careful to define roles and responsibilities so everyone is headed in the same direction.”

When athletes sign to play for LSU and Coach Flory, they sign not only to maximize their potential as a volleyball player, but also to maximize their potential as a person.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and to help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life,” Flory said. “When they graduate, I want them to truly feel prepared for the next step in their lives, whatever that may be. We are not just about developing successful volleyball players, our program is about developing successful people.”

“Our philosophy is one that we all control our own destiny. Each day we make choices in all aspects of our lives that will influence who and what we become. We strive to provide the freedom and correct environment to make the choices that will prepare our student-athletes for their future.”

Now, entering her 14th season, Flory will continue to build on the solid foundation that she has laid out for LSU and continue to design her program around the fundamentals that have made the Tigers a success.

Fran Flory is always on the cutting edge when it comes to promoting LSU volleyball. Prior to the 2010 season, she spent three days and two nights in a RV Camper in an effort to grow @lsuvolleyball following on Twitter.

Flory was visited by football coach Les Miles, baseball coach Paul Mainieri and Mike the Tiger. Baton Rouge Mayor-President Kip Holden also stopped by and declared August 4th LSU Volleyball Day along with Coach Fran Flory Day.

During Flory's stay, @lsuvolleyball tripled its following on Twitter.

LSU

VOLLEYBALL LEGACY

SEC CHAMPIONS 1986 • 1989 • 1990 • 1991 • 2009 • 2010 FINAL FOUR 1990 • 1991

1 U.S. Olympic Team Member

Rose Magers represented the Tigers on the international stage as the United States won silver in the Games of the XXIII Olympiad played in Los Angeles.

2 NCAA Final Four Appearances

LSU is one of only two schools in SEC history with multiple Final Four appearances. The Tigers went to back-to-back Final Fours in 1990 and 1991.

4 USA Volleyball A2 Team

In each of the last four seasons, LSU has won a medal at the USA Adult Open Championships as part of the USA Volleyball Women's National A2 Team. Head coach Fran Flory led her USA A2 Blue squad to an impressive 7-1 mark and captured a gold medal in 2011. Former AVCA All-Americans Brittnee Cooper and Elena Martinez also took home gold in 2008 before Cooper added a silver medal in 2009. Assistant coach Steve Loeswick came away with a bronze medal in 2010.

5 SEC Player of the Year Awards

The Tigers have notched five postseason SEC honors highlighted by Brittnee Cooper's 2009 SEC Player of the Year award. Elena Martinez reeled in 2007 and 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year, while Marina Skender and Desiree Elliott tallied SEC Freshman of the Year honors in 2005 and 2010, respectively.

5 SEC Regular Season Championships

LSU claimed the SEC regular season titles in 1986, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 2009. The '09 Tigers ended Florida's 18-run year at the top of the league. LSU posted undefeated marks in both 1990 and 1991 only dropping six sets during the two-year span.

5 Fifth Set Dominance

Over the last five seasons, LSU has won 21 of its 33 five-set matches sparked by nine triumphs in 2007. The Tigers overcame a 2-1 deficit to upend No. 14 New Mexico State at the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

6 SEC Western Division Titles

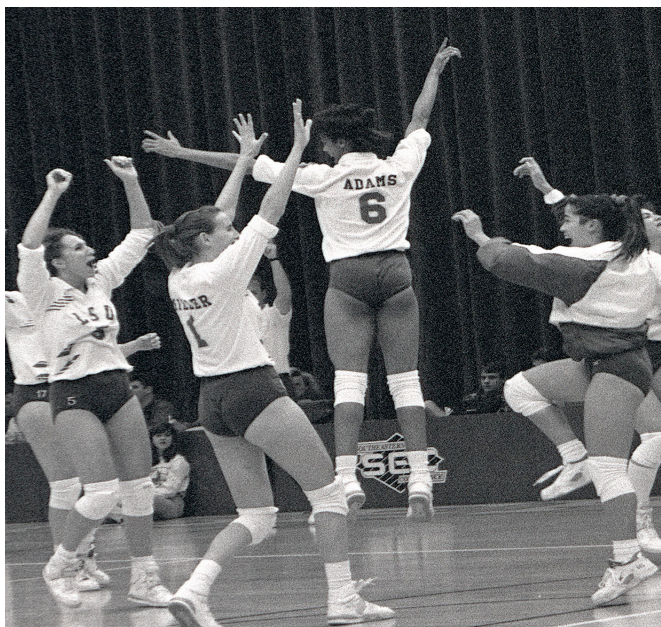

The Tigers have won six consecutive SEC Western Division crowns and are an impressive 47-3 over the last five seasons against their division rivals, including 32 consecutive home wins dating back to the 2004 season.

12 NCAA Tournament Appearances

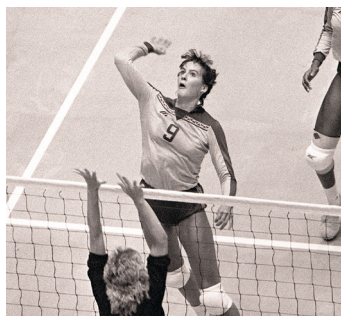

LSU has made 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, which is tied for second-most among SEC schools. The Tigers have strung together six consecutive bids from 2005-10 for a program record passing up the five straight postseason bids recorded between the 1989-93 seasons.

12 All-Americans

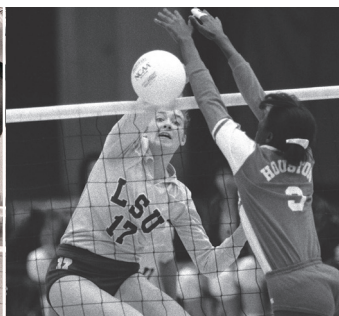

The Tigers have 12 AVCA All-Americans in program history, second-most of any SEC school. Brittnee Cooper was one of 14 players to earn AVCA First-Team honors in 2009. LSU garnered a pair of AVCA All-Americans from 2007-09, the first time in program history the Tigers have had two All-Americans in three straight seasons.

MEDIA TRAINING

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes here on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

SEC ON ESPN

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired the rights as the exclusive cable home and the syndication rightsholder for the conference. As part of this historic agreement, LSU made three appearances on ESPNU over the last two seasons highlighted by a 3-0 sweep of No. 6 Florida in 2009 at the Maravich Center.

SOCIAL MEDIA

LSU has been on the cutting edge in collegiate athletics when it comes to integrating social media into its traditional website and publications. Through its sports-specific Facebook pages and Twitter feeds, LSU offers its fans in-game updates, behind-the-scenes access to coaches and student-athletes and breaking news. For more information, visit LSUsports.net/connect.

Bo Campbell Auditorium

The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Study Area

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

Brittney Johnson was presented with the Jesse Owens Athletic Award at the Black Scholars Awards in both 2009 & 2010.

Amenities

- ▶ 54,000 square feet of working space
- ▶ 300 computer workstations
- ▶ 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- ▶ Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- ▶ Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- ▶ A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

GRADUATES

Since 2000, 39 players have earned their degree from the University, including seven who went on to earn graduate degrees. During the Fran Flory era (1998-2010), 28 of 29 four-year letterwinners have received their degrees. Sam Dabbs (left) earned her bachelor's degree in sports administration in August 2009 and currently is an assistant coach at Cincinnati.

2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll

Since Fran Flory's arrival at LSU in 1998, the Tiger volleyball program has amassed 95 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, second-most in the conference, over the last 13 seasons. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll are required to maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA or better over the previous academic year (Fall-Spring-Summer).

Community OUTREACH

Hospital Visits

The six-time SEC Western Division champions take time to visit patients in the children's ward of the Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center. The players go from room-to-room and spend time with the children and their families. They also hand out autographed team posters.

MDA Telethon

For the last several years, the LSU volleyball and gymnastics programs spend their Labor Day by answering phones and taking donations as part of the annual Muscular Dystrophy Association of Greater Baton Rouge telethon held at the Hilton Capitol Center. The teams spend multiple hours at the event and even do demonstrations from their respective sports coming out of commercial breaks.

St. Vincent DePaul

Another way the Tigers serve the Baton Rouge community is by teaming up with St. Vincent de Paul. Players have performed various tasks for the non-profit organization whether it's serving food in the dining room during a lunch session, or sorting donated clothes at the distribution center.

Caring Heart

LSU volleyball welcomed children onto the floor and played host to a Kid's Clinic prior to its annual Purple & Gold scrimmage to kick off the season. The Tigers provided tips ranging from serving skills to proper hitting techniques.

Maravich CENTER

MARAVICH CENTER

LSU volleyball celebrates its 30th anniversary at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in 2011, the largest volleyball venue in the SEC. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,215 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

Over the last six seasons, the Tigers have racked up a dominant 62-10 (.861) mark at home sparked by a 32-match winning streak versus SEC Western Division opponents.

LSU volleyball moves into a new state-of-the-art locker room facility off the southwest corridor starting in 2011. Decorated by numerous graphics showcasing the program's prominent history, the fully carpeted facility also features a new film, equipment and training rooms.

The auxiliary gym located underground in the north section of the arena was converted to a volleyball only practice facility leading into the 2010 season. Volleyball fans also can see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

The Tigers have posted 13 consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center under head coach Fran Flory, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 114-43 (.726), including double digit wins during four of the last five seasons.

The Maravich Center has played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Tigers have produced a winning record in 26 of 29 seasons at the PMAC.

Athletic TRAINING

Nutrition First

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix coordinates with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet. LSU athletic trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy and a hydrotherapy pool. It is also one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, vision center and dental center.

Hydrotherapy Treatment

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

Broussard Athletic TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Strength & CONDITIONING

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

"LSU laid the groundwork for me being a professional in the way the school is run and the professors. Off the field, I learned to be a good person. On the football field, it is the training, the hard work and the dedication. LSU teaches you everything you need to be successful." - Andrew Whitworth, Cincinnati Bengals

LSU's Memorial Tower (top main photo) was one of the first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Although it currently houses the LSU Anglo-American Art Museum, plans are in process to return Memorial Tower to a military museum as originally intended. The University lakes (above, right) on the LSU campus give various recreational options.

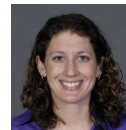

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 147-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past seven years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

Why LSU?

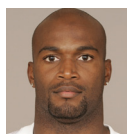

Jill Lytle Wilson

Former LSU volleyball player and current assistant coach

"I wanted to always go to a school that had a fan base that supported their team through thick and thin and that's definitely LSU. They did it each and every Saturday from the students on down. There's no place like Tiger Stadium. I swear it shakes. How could you not want to play for a school like this? Coach Miles was always a straight forward guy and honest with his players. That's the type of coach I wanted to play for. He willed us to get better and always had your back. I will always be a Tiger for life and every chance I have to come back to Baton Rouge, I will."

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going to LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line."

Bradie James
Linebacker (1999-2002)
Dallas Cowboys
starter

"Throughout the entire recruiting process I always knew LSU was the best choice. Being from the great state of Louisiana, LSU was a home away from home. I knew that this would be a place I could grow as a student-athlete and a young man. The coaches, faculty, and the 92,000 marvelous fans only help to make the decision much easier. Looking back on it, I couldn't have asked for more from the experience."

Tyson Jackson
Defensive End (2005-08)
2009 NFL Draft No. 3 Pick

"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."

Shaquille O'Neal
LSU Basketball Player (1989-92)
Four-time NBA Champion

Did You Know?

- In the 2009, 2010 and 2011 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."

- LSU is the only public university in Louisiana designated as having very high research activity (RU/VH) by the prestigious Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the highest ranking awarded to doctorate-granting institutions.

- LSU was named to the 2009 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll, the highest federal recognition a college or university can receive for its commitment to volunteering, service-learning and civic engagement, by the Corporation for National and Community Service.

- LSU earned the prestigious Carnegie Community Engagement and Outreach classification in 2008, one of 68 public institutions nationally with this elective classification based on community engagement.

- LSU is one of only a handful of universities in the nation having land-grant, sea-grant and space-grant status.

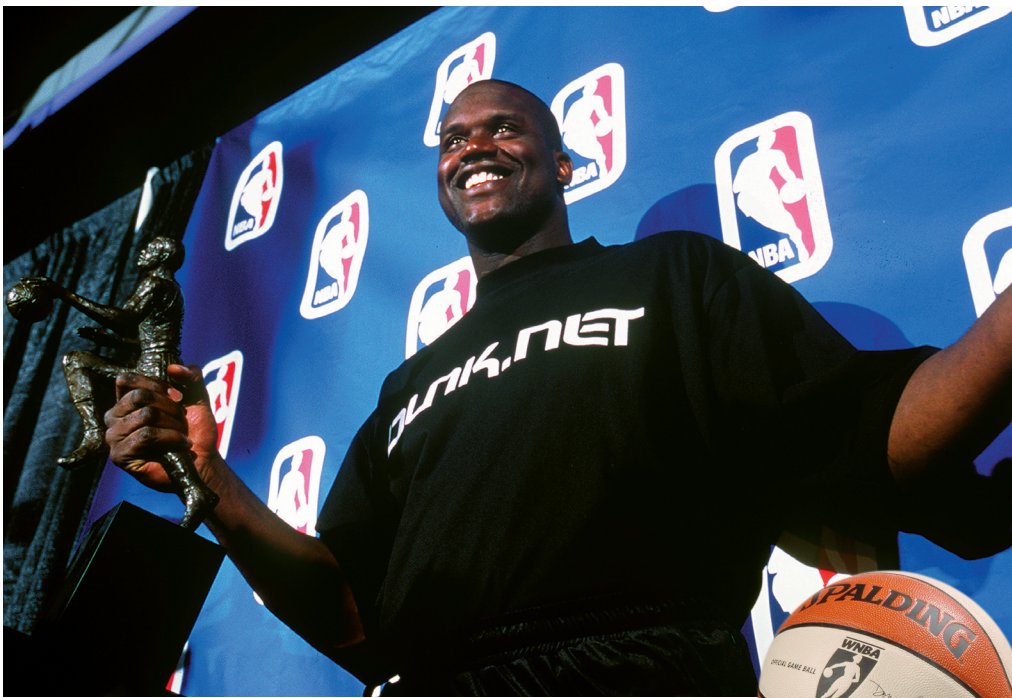

- LSU currently ranks among the top 30 public universities in total research awards. The University's total federal funding -- from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Homeland Security -- has increased 86 percent or more than $90 million over the last five years.

- Newsweek magazine named LSU the "Most Diverse" school in the nation in the Sept. 3, 2003, issue. The enrollment consists of 24 percent minority students.

- In 2009, the LSU Robert S. Reich School of Landscape Architecture was ranked among the top five schools in the nation by DesignIntelligence, the leading journal of the design professions. According to the results of the 2009 survey, LSU has the number two-ranked landscape architecture school in the United States.

- The E. J. Ourso College of Business was ranked in the Top 50 of the internationally known "Top Business Schools" in 2009 by Eduniversal and was recognized during the inaugural Eduniversal World Convention.

Shaquille O'Neal

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal is one of the most dominant centers in league history. O'Neal, one of the most quotable athletes on the planet, joined the long list of prominent LSU alumni when he earned his degree in general studies in December 2000. O'Neal announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career of 19 seasons.

Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus received her degree in 2005 after just three years at LSU and while earning NCAA Women's Basketball National Player of the Year honors twice. She was the first pick of the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx and teamed with fellow LSU alum Sylvia Fowles to claim an Olympic gold medal for the United States in 2008.

Prominent LSU ALUMNI

Eduardo Aguirre, Jr.

Named the first Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for the Department of Homeland Security in 2003, Aguirre, Jr., was the U.S. Ambassador to Spain from 2005 until 2009.

James Carville

Carville received both a bachelor's degree and law degree from LSU and gained fame in the 1990s as the chief campaign strategist for Bill Clinton and Al Gore. Carville also penned a best-selling memoir titled "All's Fair: Love, War and Running for President".

Lod Cook

Cook graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1955 and then earned his Master's degree in petro engineering in 1955. Cook served as CEO of ARCO for nine years.

Carlos Roberto Flores

The president of Honduras from 1997-2001, Flores helped the nation recover after Hurricane Mitch devastated the country in 1998. Flores is married to the former Mary Carol Flake, also an alumnus of LSU.

Jim Flores

Flores graduated with two bachelor's of science degrees; one in corporate finance in 1981 and the second in petroleum land management in 1982. Flores is currently Chairman, President and CEO of Plains Exploration & Production Company.

Sylvia Fowles

Sylvia Fowles was a two-time State Farm All-American at LSU before going onto a career in the WNBA with the Chicago Sky. Fowles and Seimone Augustus became the first LSU basketball players to claim Olympic gold when they did so in 2008 for the United States.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

WORLD-CLASS TIGERS

Ashleigh Clare-Kearney

- In 2009, became first LSU gymnast to capture two individual national titles

Glen "Big Baby" Davis

- 2009-10 SEC Female Athlete of the Year
- 2010 NCAA Gymnast of the Year

Esther Jones

- 21-time track All-American
- 1992 Olympic Gold medalist

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

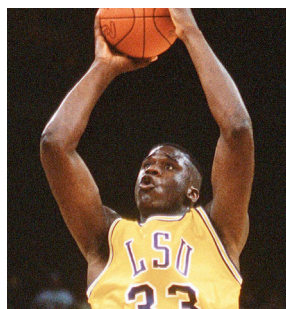

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

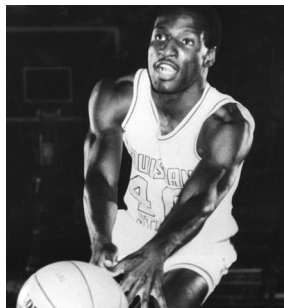

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

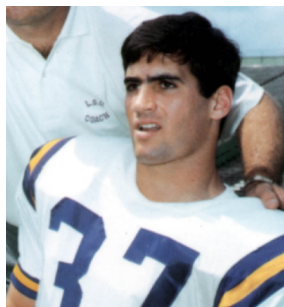

Rudy Macklin 40

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova 37

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

Ben McDonald 19

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Seimone Augustus 33

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the WNBA's No. 1 draft pick in 2006. She went on to lead the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

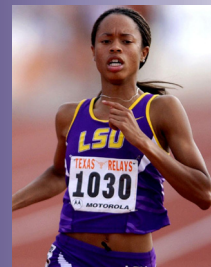

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the newest LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

3rd Season

The level of opportunity for the 2011 LSU volleyball team is endless. For Tiger players, the anticipation for the season began last December after a tough loss to Tulsa during the NCAA Tournament First Round handed the group a wrong ending to a memorable 25-5 campaign.

A core group of returnees fueled by All-SEC performers Michele Williams and Desiree Elliott coupled with a top 20 recruiting class from PrepVolleyball.com has positioned LSU to make a run at its unprecedented seventh consecutive SEC Western Division title and NCAA Tournament appearance.

"Our strength in the middle with Michele and Desi is definitely one of the major building blocks for our team and for our 2011 season," head coach Fran Flory said. "They've been through a lot since they've been at LSU. They know how hard they have to work and what it takes to be successful on this level. As a program, we know the target on our back doesn't get any smaller. Our players have come to embrace the rising expectations with each year we continue to perform at a high level."

With the combined drive of five upperclassmen that each saw action in over 100 sets last season, youth will still be a big part of LSU's 2011 squad. With 11 underclassmen on a roster of 16, the Tigers will see a few new faces sprinkled into the lineup.

"The ingredients of this group are different after losing veteran players like Angela Bensend, Brittney Johnson and Tania Schatow," Flory said. "It's fun as a coach to mesh together a talented group with so much ability and work them into a unit that can function at a very high level."

LSU has put together an impressive 140-44 record and averaged 23.3 wins per season since 2005. The Tigers are one of only 18 programs in the nation to collect six straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Flory has once again tested her squad with another series of high-caliber opponents. The Tigers will play 12 matches versus 2010 NCAA Tournament foes and rely on their dominating 62-10 home record during their six-year run.

"We're looking forward to the challenge to uphold LSU volleyball's championship tradition," Flory said. "Our young team will play an up-tempo, exciting brand of volleyball. We'll have a lot of competition for playing time, and I believe we'll have some very spirited practices once fall camp begins. We still have a lot of work to do before taking the floor on August 26, but it will be exciting to see how this group develops."

Below is a look at the 2011 Tigers position-by-position.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Senior Michele Williams and sophomore Desiree Elliott give LSU a dynamic 1-2 punch in the middle. Both were All-SEC performers in 2010 with Elliott capturing the SEC's Freshman of the Year award. The duo teamed to rack up 600 kills which accounted for 39 percent of LSU's offense last season.

Williams, an AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention pick, powered home 3.12 kills per set to check in at eighth place in the SEC rankings. She blasted 13 of her 18 double figure kill performances against league opponents and registered 90 blocks, tied for second-most on the team.

Elliott broke loose for over a .300 hitting percentage in 20 of LSU's 30 matches highlighted by a .337 clip to pace SEC freshman in league play. She also was dominant at the net en route to a team-best 109 blocks and a 1.02 per set average which was 10th in the SEC.

"We are fortunate to have two outstanding middles in Michele and Desi that bring something unique to the table," Flory said. "I think Michele is extremely motivated for her senior year and has a lot of confidence which will show on the court. Desi has a chance to build on her very special freshman season. She picks things up quickly on the court and continues to maximize her athletic ability."

Freshmen Marissa Maas, Madi Mahaffey and Brittani Peska are additional candidates that can see time in the middle. Maas notched multiple 23-5A All-District honors as a standout at Travis High School in Texas, while Mahaffey secured 6A All-State First-Team accolades at Vestavia High School in Alabama. Peska is a versatile threat who could also see swings at right side.

"Our depth at middle is a strength of this team," Flory said. "Marissa, Madi and Brittani come to us with a solid base of fundamentals and will raise the level of play on both sides of the net in our gym significantly. They still have individual things to work on, but each possess attributes that fit directly into our system."

Madie Jones

OUTSIDE HITTERS/RIGHT SIDE

Junior Madie Jones is the lone upperclassmen and headlines a young group of gifted outside hitters. She broke into the starting lineup during the final 11 matches of the season and popped 10 of her 13 double digit kill performances in SEC play. Her 283 kills at a 2.64 per set ratio ranked third on the team in both categories.

Freshmen Helen Boyle and Avery Striebel also will compete for time on the outside. Boyle won a pair of 4A state championships while at St. Joseph's Academy in Missouri and was a three-time 4A All-State First Team pick. She also claimed 2010 St. Louis Post-Dispatch Player of the Year and participated at the 2010 USA Volleyball's Women's Junior A2 Program.

Coming off a medical redshirt, Striebel looks to show her talents after she picked up 2009 Carolina 3A Conference Player of the Year for Cardinal Gibbons High School in North Carolina. She also collected three state championships during her prep career.

"We're pleased with Madie's development," Flory said. "We'll rely upon her to do a lot for us this season, and I believe she can take that next step like Angela did for us last season to become an All-SEC caliber player. Both Avery and Helen know how to win. They have a enormous amount of shot-making ability and can make good things happen on the court."

On the right side, Nicole Willis is looking to take the next step after seeing limited action as a freshman last season. The southpaw chipped in seven kills, eight digs and four blocks over 12 sets of action. She came away with three CAP All-Conference First-Team selections during her prep career at Needham Broughton High School in North Carolina.

Peska, a multiple All-District 5A-17 performer from Taylor High School in Texas, will be in the mix on the right side when not taking swings in the middle.

"We feel great about the progress that Nicole continues to make," Flory said. "I'm confident she's ready to step forward and rise to the challenges that are ahead."

SETTERS

For the second straight season, LSU will have to reload to fill a hole left in one of the most critical positions on the court. Waiting in the wings are sophomore Shelby Pursley and freshman Malorie Pardo to fill the void left by Brittney Johnson, an AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention performer.

Pursley distributed 8.00 assists per set during her three matches as LSU's backup setter in 2010. She received two All-Central Florida First-

Team picks and was named 2009 Seminole County Player of the Year while at Winter Springs High School.

Pardo was showered with a variety of awards during her prep career highlighted by 2009 & 2010 TGCA All-State and 2009 District MVP out of Pearland High School in Texas. She also was selected to play at the 2008 USA Girls Youth Team High Performance Championships.

"Great programs have two good setters, and we're excited about what this young pair can bring to the table" Flory said. "Both Shelby and Malorie possess a tremendous work ethic and are outstanding students of the game. A major key to our season will be the ability of this pair to put our hitters into good situations and become playmakers in our high octane offense."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

LSU returns all three members of its stout back row that garnered a 97 percent serve-receive effort coupled with an impressive 65 percent sideout efficiency during SEC play. The Tigers also scooped up 15.98 digs per set last season, second-highest in the SEC.

Senior Lauren Wacławczyk anchored the unit behind 425 digs for the second consecutive season, and is on the verge of becoming the 11th player in program history to eclipse 1,000 career digs. Her 4.05 digs per set were sixth in the SEC sparked by 27 double digit digs efforts. The San Antonio, Texas, native cranked a team-high 28 aces fueled by a deadly jump serve.

Juniors Sam Delahoussaye and Meghan Mannari also were key cogs to LSU's ability to play excellent defense and pass well. Both amassed over 250 digs en route to securing 10 or more digs on 13 occasions apiece. The duo also combined for 42 perfect-passer ratings as the Tigers won 35 of 36 sets when posting a 70 percent or better sideout rating last season.

Victoria Jacobson and Brittany Steele, a pair of sophomores, will add depth to the backcourt. Steele played sparingly during her freshman campaign, but averaged 0.82 digs per frame in her 11 sets of action. Jacobsen was used primarily as a serving specialist with nine of her 15 appearances coming during SEC play.

"Our philosophy will continue to be that the first touch is the most important," Flory said. "The back row did a phenomenal job of making match-changing plays when we needed them the most last season. Lauren, Meghan and Sam are all extremely comfortable playing with each other. I don't doubt that they'll continue to provide our team with outstanding energy and having another year in our system will only benefit this group."

HEAD COACH

Fran Flory charges into her 14th season at the helm of the LSU volleyball program, and has guided the Tigers back to the national spotlight during her tenure in Baton Rouge.

LSU has been nothing short of spectacular and continues to raise its level of success under Flory. Dating back to the 2005 season, the Tigers have won six consecutive SEC Western Division crowns and are one of only 18 programs to reach the NCAA Tournament in each of the last six seasons. The six straight division titles is the second-longest streak in SEC history, while the six consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances are a program record.

LSU has posted 23.3 wins per season and spent 50 weeks ranked inside the Bison/AVCA Top 25 poll climbing as high as No. 10 on two occasions during the six-year run. The Tigers also have tallied eight American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-South Region First-Team picks, including a pair of AVCA All-Americans from 2007-09 for the first time in program history.

LSU raced out to a program-best 13-0 start to open the 2010 season. Angela Bensend and Desiree Elliott collected All-SEC First-Team accolades to give the Tigers multiple picks on the league's premier squad for the fourth time in the last five seasons. Elliott also notched SEC Freshman of the Year status as LSU racked up a 25-5 record.

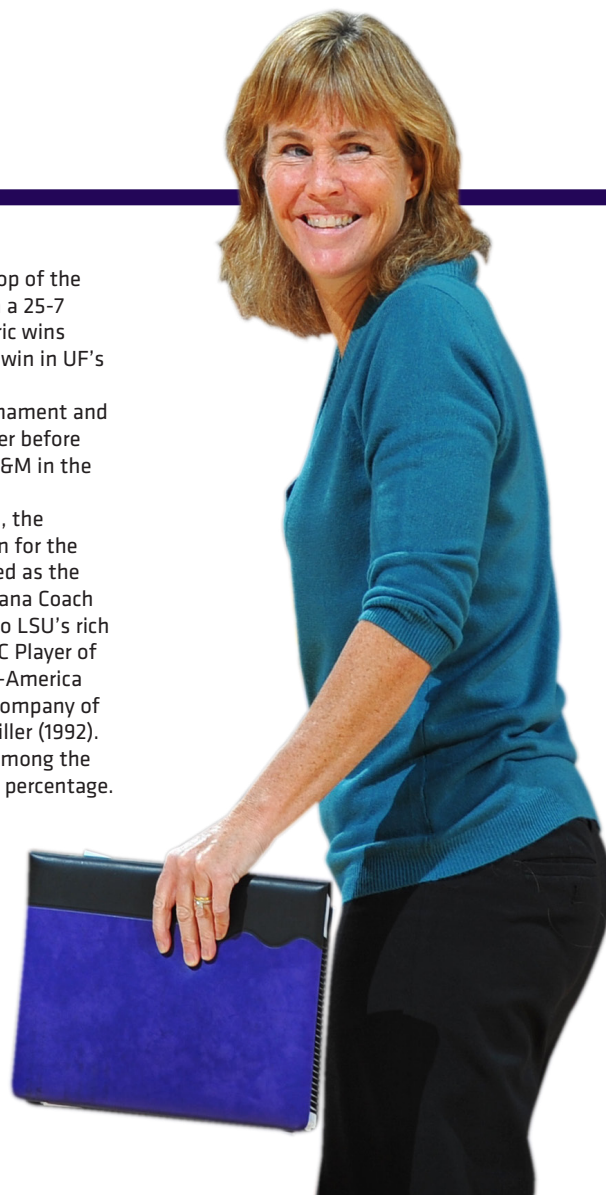

LSU climbed to new heights in 2009 and claimed the SEC overall championship to close Florida's 18-year reign at the top of the conference. The Tigers finished with a 25-7 record highlighted by a pair of historic wins over the Gators, including their first win in UF's O'Connell Center since 1991.

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament and rolled past Tulane during their opener before falling in a five-set affair to Texas A&M in the second round.

Following the successful season, the individual accolades began to pour in for the Purple and Gold. Flory was recognized as the AVCA South Region, SEC and Louisiana Coach of the Year. Brittnee Cooper added to LSU's rich heritage with the program's first SEC Player of the Year award along with AVCA All-America First-Team honors to join the elite company of Monique Adams (1991) and Angie Miller (1992). She headlined the SEC and ranked among the NCAA's Top 20 in blocks and hitting percentage. Her .409 hitting clip also set a program single-season mark.

Under Flory's guidance, LSU has secured 34 All-SEC selections, including 14 First-Team picks. Cooper was joined by Sam Dabbs and Marina Skender to become the first Tiger trio to notch All-SEC First-Team honors in the same season. Elena Martinez notched 2007 & 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year in addition to AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades. She finished her career second in program history reeling in 1,414 digs and her professional team, Llaneras de Toa Baja in Puerto Rico, earned a runner-up finish in 2010.

LSU has dominated with 41 All-Louisiana selections highlighted by 24 First-Team honors. The five-time Louisiana Coach of the Year also has led her players to every individual state award, including four players, four freshmen, two defensive players and two newcomers of the Year.

LSU has been represented on the national stage as a part of USA Volleyball Women's A2 National Team in each of the last four seasons. Flory captured a gold medal in 2011 after leading the USA A2 Blue Squad to a 7-1 record. Cooper and Martinez won gold at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships in May 2008, Cooper added a silver medal in May 2009 and assistant coach Steve Loeswick garnered a bronze medal in May 2010.

Flory's success at LSU, however, hasn't been solely on the court. The Tigers have registered the second-most players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll of any school in the league during her tenure, leading the league on four occasions. LSU also has been recognized nationally for its academic success, picking up an AVCA Academic Award three times.

The 2008 Tigers overcame injuries and finished the regular season with six straight wins to collect their fourth straight divisional title. Cooper emerged as one of the top middle blockers in the nation en route to All-SEC, All-Louisiana, AVCA All-South Region First-Team and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades.

LSU compiled a stellar 25-8 campaign in 2007. The Tigers broke through with an NCAA Tournament victory, a gritty five-set triumph over New Mexico State, in its third-straight year in the postseason. Lauren DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington took home All-SEC First-Team honors, while DeGirolamo teamed with Martinez for AVCA All-America Honorable Mention.

The Tigers made the 2006 season a year to remember after racking up a 26-6 mark. The 26 victories and No. 19 final national ranking were accomplished for the first time in program history since the 1992 season. LSU also won the SEC Western Division crown outright setting a program mark along the way with 16 league victories.

Flory garnered her second consecutive Louisiana Coach of the Year award. Daniela Romero tacked on AVCA All-America Honorable Mention after securing All-SEC First Team and Louisiana Player of the Year. She was joined by Skender to give the Tigers two All-SEC First-

Team picks for the first time since 1999.

LSU's return to volleyball prominence began in 2005 as the Tigers finished 21-8 sharing its first SEC Western Division championship and garnered its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1992. After Hurricane Katrina turned the Maravich Center into the largest field hospital in the United States, LSU played its first 17 matches on the road traveling over 14,000 miles.

Ivana Kuzmic became LSU's first All-American since 1992 after being named All-SEC First Team and Louisiana Player of the Year. Skender added SEC Freshman of the Year and Second-Team accolades. LSU totaled a pair of second-place finishes and five third-place showings in the SEC West over Flory's first seven seasons. She made an immediate impact on the program moving LSU within a game of the .500 mark in 1998 after the Tigers went winless in SEC action the year before.

The 1999 Tigers improved to 17-15 overall as Meagan Davis and Kelly Thompson notched All-SEC First-Team accolades. In 2000, LSU took another step forward making the SEC Tournament finals. Despite the setback, LSU broke a six-year winless drought at the SEC Tournament.

The Tigers picked up its first winning conference record under Flory during the 2001 season. LSU won nine of its 10 matches against Western Divisions squads en route to a second-place finish. Flory kept the momentum going into 2002 and strung together back-to-back SEC winning seasons for the first time since 1992-93.

LSU bounced back from an 11-19 mark in 2003 and fired back with a 17-12 record during the 2004 season. Kuzmic earned Louisiana Player of the Year as the Tigers won three matches against NCAA Tournament squads.

This is Flory's second stint at LSU as the Baton Rouge native served as an assistant for four seasons under LSU's winningest coach, Scott Luster. She served as a graduate assistant in 1988, before being named a full-time assistant prior to the 1989 season.

During her four seasons with the Tigers, Flory helped LSU to unprecedented success with three SEC championships, three SEC Tournament championships and two Final Four appearances, the first school in SEC history to advance to the NCAA Final Four.

Flory left LSU to assume the head coaching duties at Southeastern Louisiana in 1992. In her first season as a head coach, SLU turned in a 21-13 record. She returned to the SEC as an assistant coach at Kentucky in 1993. Five months later, Flory assumed the head coaching duties when Kathy DeBoer, who is currently the Executive Director of the AVCA, was named Associate Athletic Director.

The 1993 Wildcats stormed to a 29-4 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round. For her efforts, Flory was named the Tachikara/AVCA Region IV Coach of the Year. She remained at Kentucky through the 1997 season.

Before entering coaching, Flory experienced a successful playing career at the University of Texas. She was a member of the Longhorns 1981 AIAW National Championship squad. She received All-Southwest Conference and All-south Region honors during her three seasons. Flory graduated from Texas in 1984 and was named head coach at Wittenberg University in 1986, where she coached for one season before moving on to Texas A&M as an assistant coach.

A member of the AVCA and chair of the NCAA Rules Committee starting in Fall 2010, Flory has assisted in coordinating both the Louisiana Senior Olympic Games and the Special Olympics; hosting the 2001 Senior Olympic Games. She also is a member of the United States Volleyball Association coaching accreditation program.

Flory and her husband, Ken, live in Baton Rouge. The couple has a daughter, Lindsay (14), and a son, Nicholas (12).

TIGER ATTACKERS

OFFICIAL BOOSTER CLUB OF LSU VOLLEYBALL

Dear Tiger Attackers:

The 2010 season was another outstanding year for our volleyball program. We secured our sixth straight SEC Western Division Championship, finished the season as the runner up in the overall SEC race and advanced to our sixth consecutive NCAA tournament. Our program continues to thrive as one of the nation's elite because of your outstanding support. It's an extremely important factor in our success, and in our ability to provide a first class experience for our student-athletes.

One of the most significant additions occurred in February during the offseason as we moved into our new state-of-the-art locker room facility, complete with team room, video room, and training room. Your financial support has allowed us to have one of the best volleyball locker room facilities in the country. The construction phase is complete, and we are now moving into the graphics phase of the project. We have some amazing things planned and with your support, we will be able to put the finishing touches on something truly special and outstanding for all of our volleyball family past, present and future.

This fall, we will begin a new era of our Tiger Attacker program. With your membership dues, you will be able to sit in the reserved seating section on the South side of the Maravich Center right at center court in Section 113. This section will be held and reserved for you until match time.

Admission to our matches will be free this season, so joining the Tiger Attackers is even more accessible for everyone. Please understand your financial support is a cornerstone of our program. Without your financial and emotional support, along with your presence at matches, we will not continue to build on our championship tradition.

We thank you for all that you have done in the past and for all of the support you will offer in the future. You may join the Tiger Attackers by clicking on the Tiger Booster Clubs link on the TAF website (www.lsutaf.org).

Steve Loeswick

ASSISTANT COACH

Steve Loeswick moves into his fifth season as an assistant coach on the LSU volleyball staff. Loeswick's main duties with the Tigers include setter training, film and opponent breakdown along with lead beach coach responsibilities during the spring season.

Loeswick has been a key component as LSU has won four consecutive SEC Western Division titles sparked by the 2009 SEC overall championship, the program's first since 1991. The Tigers also have accumulated 93 victories and are one of 25 programs nationally to put together four straight NCAA Tournament appearances fueled by a trio of 25-win campaigns in 2007, 2009 and 2010, respectively.

A former setter, Loeswick developed Brittney Johnson into an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-South Region Honorable Mention performer in 2010. The Tigers started the season with a program-best 13-0 record. LSU's offense boasted 14.35 kills per set on a .260 team hitting percentage which not only ranked among the SEC's best, but the NCAA's Top 25 in both categories.

Loeswick also molded transfer Sam Dabbs into a 2009 All-SEC First-Team selection and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention recipient. She passed out 2,089 assists during her two-year career to join LSU's setting legacy of former All-Americans Daniela Reis (1991 & 1992) and Daniela Romero (2006).

After the Tigers defeated No. 6 Florida for the first time since 1991, Dabbs was the first player in program history to be selected AVCA National Player of the Week on October 13, 2009. Between Dabbs and Johnson, the Tigers have checked in among the NCAA's Top 30 in assists per set, hitting percentage and kills per set during each of the last two seasons.

LSU's offense was retooled under Loeswick in 2007 after the graduation of Romero. The Tigers used the setting tandem of Johnson and Maggie Loneragan to distribute 1,587 assists. LSU raced out to a 15-2 start and emerged with a five-set triumph of No. 14 New Mexico State in NCAA Opening Round.

During his tenure at LSU, the quartet of Brittnee Cooper, Lauren DeGirolamo, Marina Skender and Kyna Washington have eclipsed the 1,000-kill plateau. Skender is one of only five players to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs. The Tigers have racked up a bounty of awards and featured at least two players on the AVCA All-South Region First Team during three of his first four seasons.

LSU has notched 11 All-SEC selections since 2007 highlighted by Cooper's 2009 SEC Player of the Year, Desiree Elliott's 2010 SEC Freshman of the Year and Elena Martinez's 2007 & 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year award.

Loeswick guided LSU to its first beach championship as all four Tiger squads made the gold bracket playoff on the sands of Siesta Key, Fla.

in April 2010. He also represented LSU on the national stage as an assistant coach of the USA National A2 Red Team and received a bronze medal for his efforts at the 2010 USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships.

Prior to his arrival at LSU, Loeswick spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma from 2004-06. As a member of 2006 AVCA Central Regional Coach of the Year Santiago Restrepo's staff, Loeswick aided the Sooners record turnaround in 2006 highlighted by a 28-6 record and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. The 28 victories and .824 winning percentage were school records, while the 15 more league wins marked the best one-year turnaround in Big 12 history.

OU finished the 2006 season ranked No. 12 in the AVCA poll, its highest ranking in program history as Elaine Santos and Joanna Schmitt notched All-America honors. Santos also tallied Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, while Anna Monsen picked up Big 12 Libero of the Year.

Prior to Oklahoma, Loeswick served as an assistant coach for six seasons at Cornell. During his tenure, the Big Red racked up a 93-38 record and 16 All-Ivy League selections, including 2000 Player of the Year Robin Moore. Cornell posted a top three finish in the Ivy League standings during three of Loeswick's final four seasons, including a 21-4 mark and a second-place finish in 2003.

Loeswick began his coaching career in 1997 where he was an assistant coach for the Martinus Club, a professional women's club in Holland, for one season. He entered coaching after a year of playing in Germany's top professional volleyball league.

A four-year starting setter for the University of Southern California, Loeswick was just the third Trojan to start in a single position for all four seasons. As a freshman, he ranked 10th nationally with 15.86 assists per game before earning 1993 Volleyball Monthly All-Freshman Team honors and being named to the 1996 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Academic Team.

In 1993 and 1994, Loeswick participated in the U.S. Olympic

Jill Lytle Wilson

ASSISTANT COACH

Former Tiger volleyball standout Jill Lytle Wilson embarks on her fifth season as an assistant coach on the LSU staff. Lytle Wilson serves as the program's recruiting coordinator in addition to training the outside hitters and defensive specialists.

LSU has racked up 93 victories en route to a quartet of SEC Western Division crowns during her first four seasons highlighted by the 2009 SEC overall championship, the program's first since 1991. The Tigers are one of 25 programs in the nation to secure four consecutive NCAA Tournament berths sparked by three 25-win seasons in 2007, 2009 and 2010.

LSU fired out to a program-best 13-0 to start the 2010 campaign. Angela Bensend collected All-SEC First-Team honors after leading the league for most of the season in kills per set. The Tiger offense ripped 14.35 kills per set on a .260 team hitting percentage to not only rank among the SEC leaders, but the NCAA's Top 25 in both categories.

LSU has placed two players on the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-South Region First Team in three of her four seasons, while Brittnee Cooper added to the program's storied tradition as the first SEC Player of the Year in 2009. In the process, Cooper also joined the elite company of Monique Adams (1991) and Angie Miller (1992) as an AVCA All-America First-Team selection. The Tigers also have had Sam Dabbs, Lauren DeGirolamo, Elena Martinez and Marina Skender take home AVCA All-America Honorable Mention status since 2007.

LSU has garnered 11 All-SEC selections sparked by eight First-Team picks. Desiree Elliott, LSU's first freshman to claim All-SEC First Team since 1981, also tallied 2010 SEC Freshman of the Year. In 2009, Cooper, Dabbs and Skender became the first LSU trio to pick up All-SEC First-Team accolades during the same season. Both Cooper and DeGirolamo also eclipsed 1,000 career kills in 2009.

Elena Martinez capped her illustrious career with back-to-back SEC Defensive Player of the Year awards in 2007 and 2008. She reeled in 1,414 career digs, second-most in program history. Her and Cooper teamed for a gold medal as part of the USA National A2 Red Team at the 2008 USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships.

Skender and Kyna Washington surpassed the 1,000 career kills plateau during the 2007 season. The duo was the first pair of juniors since Nyla Shepherd and Julie Stempel to accomplish this historic feat since LSU's run to the Final Four in 1990.

The future is bright for LSU as the Tigers incoming freshman class for 2011 received a No. 18 national ranking from PrepVolleyball.com. Helen Boyle, Marissa Maas, Madi Mahaffey and Malorie Pardo were all ranked among PrepVolleyball.com's Senior Aces Top 150.

Prior to LSU, Lytle Wilson spent one season as an assistant coach at Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons matched a school record for most ACC wins in 2006. She trained the outside and right side hitters on the court in addition to serving as team travel coordinator, recruiting assistant and camp director assistant off the court.

Lytle Wilson was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina from 2002-2004. The Tar Heels put together a 32-4 record en route to the 2002 ACC regular season championship, its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and a No. 11 final national ranking during her first season. Laura Greene took home the 2002 ACC Player of the Year award and was an AVCA All-America Third-Team pick.

UNC posted another 20-win season in 2003 despite losing four starters, while Molly Pyles picked up an AVCA All-America Honorable Mention selection in 2004.

Before joining the North Carolina staff, Lytle Wilson served as a graduate assistant at Tennessee-Martin in 2001. The Skyhawks compiled a 24-7 record and won the Ohio Valley Conference regular season title.

Lytle Wilson started her coaching career at LSU as a student assistant in 2001 while earning her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. She was a four-year starter at outside hitter from 1997-2000 and ranked sixth in the SEC with 23 service aces during her senior campaign. LSU also appeared in the 2000 SEC Tournament finals.

One of the hardest workers on her team and considered one of the most determined players Flory has ever coached, Lytle Wilson played in 98 career matches, being limited only by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee suffered 11 matches into her junior season.

A three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Lytle Wilson also was the Tigers' representative on the women's at-large SEC Good Works Team in 1999-2000. Her good works didn't go unnoticed as Lytle Wilson was named the LSU Student-Athlete Volunteer of the Year in 2000. She served on the CHAMPS Student-Athlete Advisory Board for four years, the last year serving as president of the organization. She also was a member of the LSU tennis team in 2001.

Lytle Wilson, originally from Richmond, Texas, was a member of the Texas Elite Volleyball Club during her prep playing days. She earned All-District First-Team and All-Greater Houston Second-Team selections as a senior at Lamar Consolidated High School.

As a junior, Lytle Wilson was the District 23-4A Most Valuable Player as Lamar Consolidated earned the 1995 district crown. A nominee for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award, she was a member of the National Honor Society and graduated in the Top Five percent of her class.

The daughter of Mike Lytle and Kim Ward, Jill is married to Jared Wilson. The couple lives in Baton Rouge.

BEST START EVER

After running through the non-conference schedule with a trio of tournament titles, LSU made program history and secured the team's first 13-0 start with a sweep at Mississippi State [Sept. 26].

In the process, the Tigers eclipse the 12-0 mark set by the 1991 team during LSU's second consecutive Final Four run.

"I'm proud of our team because we made a great step," head coach Fran Flory said after the Mississippi State match. "I challenged them before the match in the locker room and asked them are we going to make history or let history make us. I'm proud of their response."

During the run, LSU posted eight sweeps and registered a .288 team hitting percentage. The Tigers claimed wins over 2009 NCAA Tournament teams Texas A&M [Aug. 28], TCU [Sept. 3] and Rice [Sept. 11]. Angela Bensend posted an impressive 4.56 kills and 3.12 digs per set to fuel the Tigers.

Conversely, the Tiger defense held their opponents a .148 clip and limited the opposition to under a .100 ratio four times.

SIX STRAIGHT SEC WESTERN DIVISION CROWNS

LSU ran away with its sixth consecutive SEC Western Division title by a four-match margin. The Tigers clinched the crown with a 3-0 rout of South Carolina [Nov. 19].

LSU's championship run started in 2005 when the Tigers shared the division crown with Arkansas. The Tigers have won the division title outright over the last five seasons and are an impressive 47-3 [.940] against fellow Western Division foes, including a stretch of 39 wins of its 40 matches going back to the 2006 season.

LSU and Florida as the only two programs in the conference to win six-straight divisional titles. The Gators won 14 Eastern Division titles from 1995-2008, sharing the title with Tennessee in 2004.

SIX STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT BERTHS

LSU racked up its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth in 2010 and earned a national seed for the second straight season.

The No. 13 seeded Tigers were shipped to Norman, Okla. to square off against No. 22 Tulsa. The match was one of only three NCAA First Round tilts to feature two ranked teams.

Tyler Henderson, the nation's leader in kills per set, ripped 26 spikes on a .435 hitting percentage to vault the Golden Hurricane past LSU. Tulsa extended the nation's longest winning streak at the time to 30 straight matches.

"We had a great season, but the wrong ending for this group," Flory said. "They played hard, but Tulsa is a very talented team. We knew Tyler Henderson was the real deal, and she certainly showed that tonight. Tonight doesn't diminish what this team accomplished this season. At this time last year, no one could have dreamt we would be in this position."

Overall, LSU made its 12th NCAA appearance. The Tigers are one of only 18 programs in the nation with an active streak of six straight NCAA Tournament berths.

LSU was joined by five other SEC teams, but Florida was the only league team to appear in the Sweet 16. The Tigers are one of only three teams in the SEC [Florida and Tennessee] to advance to the NCAA Final Four, making appearances in both 1990 and 1991.

BENSEND LEADS FROM THE FRONT

Angela Bensend had a banner senior campaign en route to All-SEC and All-Louisiana First Team picks. She also was selected Louisiana's Player of the Year and was the fifth Tiger to collect the state's top honor.

"Angela truly carried our team during several key matches this season," head coach Fran Flory said. "She performed like an all-conference first-team member all season. She's the ultimate team player, and was a key part to our success."

Bensend cranked a team-best 383 kills and her 3.68 per set average ranked third in the SEC. She racked up 10 or more kills 22 times.

During non-conference play, Bensend notched a trio of All-Tournament Team selections, including MVP honors at the TCU Molten Invite. She powered home 20 kills and added up a career-best 26 digs versus TCU [Sept. 3]. It was LSU's first 20-20 performance since former All-American Marina Skender at Alabama on Oct. 8, 2006.

Bensend was second on the squad with 283 digs at a 2.72 per set clip and compiled nine doubles-doubles for the season. She finished her career with 956 kills, 44 shy of becoming the 18th player in program history to reach the 1,000-mark. LSU tallied a solid 34-3 clip over Bensend's career when she reached double figure kills.

ELLIOTT SHINES IN FRESHMAN SEASON

Desiree Elliott turned in a memorable rookie season for the Tigers and became the first LSU player since Leah Bennet in 1981 to notch All-SEC First-Team accolades as a freshman.

Elliott secured the SEC's and Louisiana's Freshman of the Year awards after she connected for over a .300 hitting percentage in 20 of 30 matches, including 14 times during SEC play. Her .337 clip first among freshmen and seventh overall, during conference play.

"We knew Desiree was a special player," head coach Fran Flory said. "She has already left her mark on our program and in the SEC. Being named the SEC Freshman of the Year and to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman is no small feat."

Elliott won four SEC Freshmen of the Week awards throughout the season to join former All-Americans Marina Skender and Lauren DeGirolamo, who accomplished that same feat during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, respectively.

Elliott belted 10 or more kills on 13 occasions highlighted by a 20-spike performance at Kentucky (Nov. 14). She also paced the Tigers with 109 blocks, while her 1.07 per frame average ranked sixth in SEC matches.

Following the season, Elliott was one of 19 players nationally to be chosen a CVU.com Rising Star.

FLORY CAPTURES GOLD WITH USA A2 TEAM

Fran Flory secured a gold medal as part of the USA National A2 Blue Team at the USA Volleyball Open National Championships held during the end of May at the Dallas Convention Center.

Flory's USA A2 Blue squad won seven of its eight matches at the tournament and defeated the USA A2 Red team in four sets during the first title match [19-25, 25-23, 25-18, 25-23] to gain revenge on its lone setback.

"It's a great honor anytime you get to represent the USA," Flory said. "This was a wonderful experience in every capacity. All of the players and staff are not only great players, but they're great people. Our team goal was to win the tournament, and our team showed great poise and resiliency in coming back to succeed. Every player made significant contributions throughout the tournament, and our team played very well together. To not only have this opportunity but to win gold was very rewarding."

It marked the fourth consecutive season that LSU has won a medal at the event. Brittnee Cooper and Elena Martinez won gold in 2008, while Cooper picked up a silver medal in 2009. Assistant coach Steve Loeswick came away with a bronze medal in 2010.

WILLIAMS GETS AVCA ALL-REGION AND ALL-SEC NOD

Michele Williams garnered an All-SEC Second-Team pick along with American Volleyball Coaches Association [AVCA] All-South Region Honorable Mention status.

Williams powered home 334 kills and her 3.12 per set average is eighth in the SEC. She notched double digit kills 18 times sparked by 13 efforts during SEC play.

The Magnolia, Texas, product attacked at over a .300 hitting percentage on 17 occasions and was second on the team with 90 blocks.

"Michele is one of the most versatile players in our conference," Flory said. "Her willingness to swing on the outside and play a different role has made a tremendous impact on the success of our season. For Michele to be honored as one of the conference's top players while playing that role is a true tribute to her athleticism and work ethic."

JOHNSON NABS ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT HONORS

Brittney Johnson notched ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Second-Team honors as voted upon by the College Sports Information Directors of America [CoSIDA]. It marked the fourth straight season that LSU has had at least one player secure a spot on the prestigious academic list.

Johnson, a two-time Jesse Owens Award recipient which is given to highest GPA for a LSU African-American student-athlete, has been a major part of LSU's offensive success.

Johnson also represented LSU on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. She was joined by Victoria Jacobsen, Madie Jones, Tania Schatow and Lauren Wacławczyk.

Since Fran Flory's arrival at LSU in 1998, the Tigers have amassed 98 honor roll selections. Members are required to maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA or better over the previous academic year [Fall-Spring-Summer Semesters].

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT

LSU volleyball's incoming freshmen class for 2011 received a No. 18 national ranking from PrepVolleyball.com as the organization released its top recruiting classes in May.

The quartet of Helen Boyle, Marissa Maas, Madi Mahaffey and Malorie Pardo were each ranked among PrepVolleyball.com's Senior Aces Top 150.

JOHNSON NABS BOUNTY OF AWARDS

Brittney Johnson capped her career with a list of impressive accolades that included American Volleyball Coaches Association [AVCA] All-South Region Honorable Mention in addition to an All-Louisiana First Team selection.

Johnson also took home COBRA Magazine's Setter of the Year and All-National First Team honors. She wrapped up her career with 1,958 assists, 42 shy of becoming the eighth player in program history to reach the 2,000-mark.

"At the beginning of the season, Brittney was a work in progress," head coach Fran Flory said. "She did a wonderful job of putting in the time to get the extra reps and really improved with each week that passed during the season. Her versatility gave our offense a unique look."

Johnson not only headlined the SEC but checked in No. 42 nationally with 10.80 assists per set. She was instrumental to LSU's offense as the Tigers rank among the NCAA Top 25 in assists per set (13.28), kills per set (14.35) and hitting percentage (.260).

The Baton Rouge native fueled a quartet of hitters to over 2.45 kills per set highlighted by Angela Bensed and Desiree Elliott, a pair All-SEC First-Team performers. She also secured a team-best 10 double-doubles.

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions

NCAA Quarterfinalist

A year after falling to Georgia in the SEC Tournament finals, LSU exacted its revenge on the Bulldogs to qualify for its first of six NCAA Tournament's under Scott Luster.

The Tigers outlasted Arizona in five games during the opening round as Detra Brown (19 kills, 13 digs), Alice Card (10 kills, 18 digs), Simone DePaula (33 assists, 15 digs), Wendy Stammer (21 kills, 13 digs) and Lisa Smith (12 digs and 13 blocks) all posted double-doubles.

LSU made a run toward the Final Four sweeping Texas-Arlington before falling to host Texas in the South Regional final.

1987 • Record: 25-11

SEC Runner-Up

Along the way to its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, LSU knocked off No. 10 Texas at the Maravich Center in five sets behind a 22-kill, 22-dig performance from Monica Freitas.

The Tigers fell to SEC rival Florida for the second time in 13 days. LSU put up a valiant effort before they ran out of gas in the fifth set. Lisa Smith slapped 18 kills on a .469 hitting percentage.

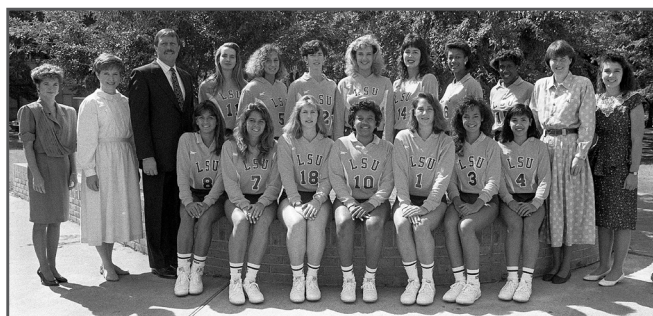

1989 • Record: 30-8

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions

NCAA Round of 16

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence and turned the tables on Houston coming back from a 2-1 hole. Nyla Shepherd led the comeback, racking up 21 kills on a .354 hitting percentage.

The Tigers headed to Austin, Texas where Texas-Arlington rallied from a two-game hole to stun LSU. Five players knocked double-figure kills for the Tigers, highlighted by 23 and 22 kills from Monique Adams and Shepherd.

1990 • Record: 34-7

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

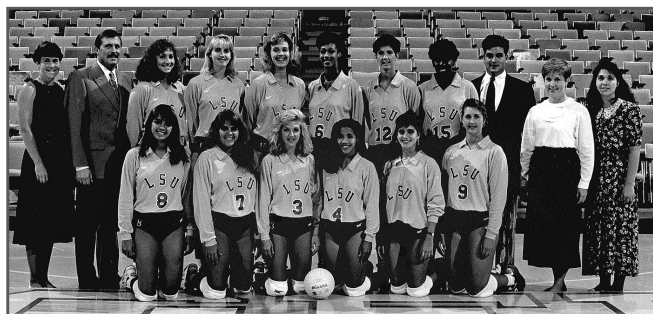

Coming off its second undefeated conference championship in as many seasons, LSU cruised past Louisville behind a .337 team hitting percentage in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the Maravich Center.

The Tigers dismissed Texas Tech 3-0 in round two as Daniela Reis set a balanced attack that featured 15 kills from Nyla Shepherd, 12 kills from Monique Adams and 10 kills from Julie Stempel.

LSU had its 1986 season end one step shy of the Final Four at Texas and were swept by the Longhorns during the 1990 regular season in Austin. Down 2-0 to the host Longhorns, LSU mounted a rally behind Adams, Shepherd and Stempel.

The trio combined for 74 of the Tigers' 91 kills and posted double-doubles as LSU fought back for a 8-15, 4-15, 15-10, 15-11, 17-15 triumph to advance to the program's first Final Four.

The Tigers fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals, but the future was bright as Adams, Shepherd and Stempel would return for their senior seasons in 1991.

1991 • Record: 35-2

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

LSU fired out to a 12-0 record to start the 1991 season highlighted by wins over No. 11 New Mexico and No. 17 Texas before being upended at Florida to open SEC play.

The Tigers bounced back in a big way reeling off 20 consecutive victories en route to its third consecutive SEC regular season and tournament championships.

Only losing 12 games during the season, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint shutting down Houston in the first round to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted.

After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU faced off with Florida for the fourth time in '91. Monique Adams and Daniela Reis set a program single-game marks. Adams cranked 43 kills on an amazing .507 hitting percentage, while Reis dished out 82 assists. Angie Miller (10 kills, 29 digs), Luciana Reis (12 kills, 22 digs) and Julie Stempel (11 kills, 12 digs) also tacked on double-doubles as LSU punched its second straight ticket to the Final Four.

LSU dropped a hard-fought, four-game duel with Long Beach State in the national semifinals. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 Tigers were the only SEC squad to win a game in the Final Four.

1992 • Record: 26-9

SEC Runner-Up • SEC Tournament Runner-Up

LSU qualified for its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance as the SEC regular season and tournament runner-up.

The Tigers traveled to Lubbock, Texas for its NCAA First Round tilt and swept the Red Raiders for the third straight season. Angie Miller and Tess Sulatycki powered home a combined 29 kills on 49 swings for a .469 hitting percentage, while Daniela Reis (47 assists, 13 digs) and Luciana Reis (10 kills, 17 digs) chipped in double-doubles.

Texas edged LSU in four games at the South Regional in Gainesville, Fla., ending the Tigers hopes of a third straight Final Four appearance.

1993 • Record: 21-16

NIVC Champions

LSU had its string of four consecutive NCAA Tournaments come to a close as 11 of the squad's 16 setbacks came against Top 20 opponents in 1993. Despite being left out of the big dance, the Tigers showed why they deserved a bid by rolling to the NIVC Championship.

LSU dropped just three games over a six-match span. Luciana Santana earned Tournament MVP honors after racking up three double-doubles and passing out 14.0 assists per game. Tiffany Miller and Luciana Reis also picked up All-Tournament accolades as the Tigers defeated Baylor in the NIVC Finals.

2005 • Record: 21-8

SEC Western Division Co-Champions

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1992 overcoming having to play a majority of the season on the road in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

The Tigers played their opening 17 matches away from the Maravich Center and traveled 9,751 total miles over the 46 day period highlighted by a five set triumph over No. 8 Notre Dame.

LSU shared the SEC Western Division title after wins during eight of its last 10 matches, and put forth a gutsy effort before losing to Texas in the first round of the NCAA's.

2006 • Record: 26-6

SEC Western Division Champions

LSU made it back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances after winning the SEC Western Division outright to dethrone Arkansas. Daniela Romero and Marina Skender notched All-SEC First-Team selections as the Tigers set a new benchmark for conference wins.

The Tigers spent a majority of 2006 inside the Top 15, but were forced to travel to the west coast for a first round match-up against California, another Top 16 team that failed to garner a national seed.

LSU won game one before the Golden Bears fired back to win the next three games limiting the Tigers to a .156 hitting percentage. Marina Skender and Kyna Washington popped 12 kills each.

2007 • Record: 25-8

SEC Western Division Champions

LSU ran away with its third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance after notching a third consecutive SEC Western Division title.

The Tigers jumped out to a 15-2 start as Lauren DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington were All-SEC First-Team picks.

By storming back from a 2-1 hole against No. 14 New Mexico State in the first round, LSU ended a 15-year winless draught in the NCAA's.

Brittney Johnson set a balanced attack fueling Angela Bensed, Marina Skender and Washington to double-figure kills. The Tigers fell at No. 4 Texas during the NCAA Second Round.

2008 • Record: 18-10

SEC Western Division Champions

The Tigers connected four NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time since 1989-92 overcoming a string of injuries as Elena Martinez won her second-straight SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

After splitting its first 14 SEC matches, LSU reeled off six straight wins to conclude the regular season and claimed another SEC West crown. Brittnee Cooper picked up All-SEC First-Team honors.

LSU pushed No. 14 UCLA to four sets during the opening round of the NCAA's.

2009 • Record: 25-7

SEC Champions • SEC Western Division Champions

Not only did LSU capture its fifth straight SEC Western Division crown, the Tigers ended Florida's 18-year stay at the top of the conference. LSU snapped a 26-match losing streak to the Gators and swept the season series for the first time since 1991.

The Tigers racked up a program-best 18 league wins aided by 12 sweeps as Brittnee Cooper, Sam Dabbs and Marina Skender secured All-SEC First-Team selections.

Cooper was the first Tiger to win SEC Player of the Year. She joined Monique Adams and Angie Miller as the program's only AVCA All-America First-Team honors.

LSU played host to its first NCAA Regional at the Maravich Center since 1991. The Tigers dismissed Tulane 3-0 as Dabbs fueled LSU to a .351 team hitting percentage.

The Tigers dropped an epic 3-2 decision to Texas A&M in the second round where Cooper ripped a career-high 28 kills on a .700 hitting clip without an error, while Dabbs dished out a career-best 64 assists.

2010 • Record: 25-5

SEC Western Division Champions

LSU swept through the non-conference slate en route to a program-best 13-0 start. The Tigers also collected their sixth straight SEC Western Division title.

Angela Bensend and Desiree Elliott raced their way to All-SEC First-Team selections, while Elliott also secured the SEC's Freshman of the Year award.

LSU earned a national seed for the second consecutive season, but was shipped to Norman, Okla. for the NCAA's. The Tigers dropped a 3-0 decision to No. 22 Tulsa in the opening round.

The Tigers are 140-34 [.761] and one of only 18 teams to qualify for the last six NCAA Tournaments.

Dr. John V. Lombardi

President, Louisiana State University System

Dr. John V. Lombardi is the fifth individual to serve as the President of the Louisiana State University System. As its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Lombardi oversees 11 institutions, including five academic campuses, as well as 10 public hospitals located throughout the state. He is also a Professor of History at Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Dr. Lombardi was born in Los Angeles, California and attended Pomona College where he earned his bachelor's degree. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in history from Columbia University. He joined the faculty in the Department of History at Indiana University, where he later served as Dean of International Programs and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. In 1987, he became Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the Johns Hopkins University. From 1990-1999, Dr. Lombardi was President of the University of Florida. Prior to his appointment as President of the LSU System, he served as Chancellor of the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

He is a Latin American historian, with a special interest in Venezuela. Dr. Lombardi is also one of the country's foremost authorities in higher education, serving as Co-Editor of The Top American Research Universities. He is the author of numerous professional publications, and along with his wife, Cathryn, co-authored a teaching atlas on Latin American History. He has taught courses in history, intercollegiate sports, and university management.

Dr. Michael V. Martin

Chancellor, LSU

Dr. Michael V. Martin assumed the chancellorship of Louisiana State University and A&M College on August 1, 2008. Prior to his appointment as LSU's eighth chancellor, Dr. Martin established a distinguished career in higher education, serving most recently as president of New Mexico State University.

Before arriving at NMSU in 2004, Dr. Martin served for six years as vice president for agriculture and natural resources at the University of Florida, leading the university's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. He was elevated to senior vice president of the University of Florida shortly before being selected as NMSU's president. Previously, he was vice president for agricultural policy and the dean of the College of Agricultural, Food and Environmental Sciences at the University of Minnesota. He began his academic career at Oregon State University as a faculty member in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

An academic leader dedicated to the land-grant mission, Dr. Martin is recognized as a strong voice for higher education. In 2007, he received the Justin Smith Morrill Memorial Award, named after the author of the bill creating land-grant universities, which honors outstanding service on behalf of the land-grant mission. Only six individuals have been designated to receive this award since it was first given in 1980. For his leadership in improving the quality of life for New Mexico citizens and future generations, he was awarded the 2008 Distinguished Leadership Award by Leadership New Mexico.

Other recent awards include his recognition as a powerbroker by The New Mexico Business Weekly in 2006, being named Outstanding Alumnus of Minnesota State University Mankato in 2006, and receiving the NMSU Social Justice Award in 2005.

Dr. Martin is involved in a wide array of professional and community organizations and activities.

An active scholar, Dr. Martin has authored numerous book chapters and articles for academic journals, trade publications, and the popular press and recently published pieces for The Chronicle of Higher Education and University Business.

Some of his philosophy is summed up in the following quote: "It is the tradition of land-grant universities to be non-traditional," written as part of a 2001 article titled "The Land-Grant University in the 21st Century," published in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. He traced the history of the land-grant movement from the mid-1800s and concluded that "the fundamental land-grant principles of accessibility, practical as well as classical education, research and discovery in the public interest, and connectedness to all the people remain powerful and profound."

A native of Crosby, Minn., Dr. Martin earned a bachelor's degree in business and economics and a master's degree in economics at Mankato State College (Minnesota State University) in Minnesota. He received his Ph.D. in applied economics from the University of Minnesota in 1977.

Dr. Martin and his wife, Jan, have two children, both adopted from South Korea. Amanda, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, is a graphic artist in Saint Paul, Minn. Sam, who holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's from Sarah Lawrence College, is a genetics counselor at Beth Israel Hospital in New York City.

Dydia DeLyser

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dydia DeLyser, an associate professor in the Department of Geography and Anthropology, serves in her fifth year as LSU's Faculty Athletics Representative.

DeLyser, a native of Santa Monica, Calif., earned her bachelor's degree in 1992 from UCLA, and her master's and doctoral degrees from Syracuse University (in 1996 and 1998).

DeLyser arrived at LSU in August 1998 as an Instructor before becoming an assistant professor one year later. She was promoted to associate professor with tenure in August 2005.

DeLyser is a cultural-historical geographer. Her research has been both ethnographic and historical, and most of it questions how different built landscapes can help make the past meaningful in the present.

Much of her published research has focused on two different studies. One was a many-year ethnographic study of a ghost town in California (Bodie State Historic Park) where she examined how images and ideas about the American mythic West became meaningful to the tourists who visited the town. The second was an historical study that examined a 19th century novel (Ramona) and how it changed the way people understood (and still understand) southern California's past.

Her current research concerns early women aviators and how they used their practices of flying to advance feminism in the post-suffrage era.

DeLyser teaches graduate courses in cultural geography, qualitative research, and academic and professional writing. She has also taught undergraduate courses in cultural, and urban geography, and an introductory world-regional geography course.

DeLyser is a first-generation American -- her parents were Dutch immigrants and English is her second language. She also has language abilities in Russian and Spanish.

DeLyser's hobbies include driving/riding antique cars and motorcycles. She is also a licensed pilot and co-owns a Citabria, which is a two-place aerobatic airplane.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his fourth season at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community.

Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva was recently appointed to a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Thru and True" -- to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision for LSU athletics facilities includes plans to enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium and transform the North Stadium Drive corridor into a showplace for the university. Under his direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface last year when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium. Extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility will be completed this fall, and future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a tennis complex, and renovations to the Maravich Center and field house.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The Lady Tiger golfers were third in the final team standings, marking the highest finish in LSU history.

LSU Athletics completed another highly successful year in 2010-11, highlighted by a Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark -- including a Cotton Bowl victory -- and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The 2010-11 athletic year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. This past year LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills. And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events.

In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he made two critical additions to LSU's coaching staff in the off-season. He lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, bringing a new wealth of knowledge and passion to the LSU women's sports program.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny.

Verge Ausberry
Senior Associate AD/Operations

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and new projects. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin and Jaiden.

Miriam Segar
Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children -- Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Mark Ewing
Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 27-year employee of Louisiana State University, joined the Athletics Department in January 2001, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business.

Ewing is responsible for the athletic business operations including budget, travel, personnel and purchasing as well as responsibility for concession operations. He also handles financial forecasting and management of facility maintenance operations.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's $360 million operating budget.

Prior to his service at LSU, he was employed by Cajun Electric Power Cooperative where he managed accounting for the company's $2 billion plus construction division.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue.

Herb Vincent
Associate Vice-Chancellor for University Relations
Senior Associate AD/External Affairs

Herb Vincent serves in the dual position of Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs in the athletic department and Associate Vice Chancellor for University Relations. He was appointed Senior Associate AD in May of 2006 and assumed the additional duties of oversight of University Relations in August of 2009.

Vincent manages communications and serves as the primary public relations officer for the University and all its entities. In his role in athletics, he supervises the sports information office and marketing and promotions office, serves as the primary liaison with LSU Sports Properties, and is the department administrator for the sport of baseball.

Vincent was the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. During that time he was named Assistant AD in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD for Communications in 1992.

In August of 2000 Vincent became Vice President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., before returning to LSU in 2002.

He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983 and worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant public relations director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the public relations staff's top position.

Vincent also served one year as assistant SID and publications director at Louisiana-Lafayette and two years as assistant director of public relations for the Southeastern Conference prior to joining LSU in 1988.

Vincent is the author of a book on the history of LSU football, "The LSU Football Vault." He is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky., and they have one daughter, Kennedy.

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Bahnsen oversees the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and game management for all sports except football.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing and travel for two years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 51, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Eddie Nunez

Senior Associate AD/Internal Operations

Eddie Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 as the Director of Game and Event Management and was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations and Project Development in June of 2007 and Senior Associate Athletic Director in 2009.

Nuñez's responsibilities include supervision of the men's basketball program, men's tennis program and the women's tennis program. He also supervises the Event Management department as well as directs all capital projects for the athletic department. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $200 million dollars in renovations and construction of athletic facility projects. Most recently this included the renovations of Bernie Moore Track, the construction of the new baseball and softball stadiums, the LSU SportShop and the new Basketball Practice Facility. He was responsible for the negotiations of a $9.0 million dollar contract with Daktronics to replace and enhance all Video boards throughout all LSU Athletic Facilities as well as the implementation of the seat back leasing program in Tiger Stadium.

Nuñez was the Athletic Department's liaison with the Tiger Athletic Foundation and oversees all project development as well as assist in fundraising/development. As the Liaison for TAF, he oversaw the construction of the addition of the Stadium Club in Tiger Stadium and the new football operations center and also represents the athletics department on various University and community committees.

Nuñez came to LSU after two years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction of a New Soccer/ Lacrosse Stadium, a New Basketball Practice Facility and a New Baseball stadium as well as the renovation of several other facilities including renovation of their track facility. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant at Marquette University for one year and two years as men's basketball graduate assistant and head equipment manager for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. He also played two seasons on the Florida basketball team in 1997 and 1998.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his associate degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his bachelor's in sports management from the University of Florida in 1998 and his masters in sports administration from Florida in 2000. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple has two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall Nuñez (2) and Anna Caldwell Nuñez.

Ronnie Haliburton

Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Brian Broussard

Assistant AD/Director of Ticket Operations

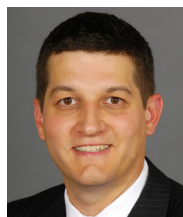

A 14-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 10 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $40 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football and baseball. Additionally, he assists Mark Ewing with the Tiger Gift Center and Tiger Concessions.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Craig Pintens

Assistant AD/Marketing

Craig Pintens is in his third year at LSU and serves as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing. Previously, Pintens was at Marquette University where he served as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Sales.

At Marquette, Pintens was responsible for external efforts of the department and served as the sport administrator for men's soccer. While at Marquette, Pintens established attendance and revenue records in both men's and women's basketball ranking in the top ten nationally in men's basketball attendance.

Prior to Marquette, Pintens served as the Marketing Coordinator at the University of Texas-Pan American (UTPA). Pintens was instrumental in record corporate sales numbers and successfully negotiated the first ever-Spanish radio broadcast of Bronc Athletics. Pintens has also worked with the Milwaukee Brewers, Beloit Snappers and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Athletic Department.

The National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) has honored Pintens with awards eighteen times in ten different categories. Pintens received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing cum laude from the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater and his Juris Doctor degree from the Marquette University School of Law. Pintens is a member of the Wisconsin State Bar and is active with NACMA where he serves as the 2nd Vice-President.

Pintens resides in Baton Rouge with his wife, Jill and their children Kaitlin, Jack, Tate and Avery.

The 2010-11 athletic year was another successful one for LSU at the conference and national level. Women's track and field claimed the SEC Indoor and Outdoor Championships, while the Tiger football team finished the season ranked eighth after compiling an 11-2 record and a Cotton Bowl victory. The women's golf team earned its highest NCAA Championships finish ever by taking third as freshman Austin Ernst became the first player in school history to win the NCAA individual title.

Men's golfer John Peterson followed that up with an individual NCAA title of his own. Swimmer Jane Trepp shattered the SEC record in the 100 breaststroke and won the league title in the event.

Did You Know?

In a time when subsidies for college athletics across the country are reaching an all-time high, a report published by USA Today in January 2010 indicated that LSU and Nebraska are the only two athletic departments in the nation that receive no subsidies.

Did You Know?

LSU became the first school in NCAA history to win the men's and women's individual NCAA Golf Championships in the same year when John Peterson and Austin Ernst did so in 2011. Ernst and Peterson became the first LSU players in 70 years to win titles.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members are encouraged to apply for season credentials through the LSU Athletics Media Center on LSUsports.net.

On an individual match basis, requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance by contacting Matt Dunaway at mdunaway@lsu.edu in the Sports Information Office.

Passes may be picked up starting 90 minutes prior to the match at the Press Will Call table located in the Northeast corridor of the Maravich Center.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located on press row for visiting radio broadcasts by SEC opponents. Please inform SID Matt Dunaway if you wish to broadcast your match on the radio.

Non-conference opponents wishing to do radio broadcasts must contact Director of Broadcasting Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Radio Network at (225) 578-1882.

MATCH INFORMATION

On match day, media will be provided with a program that includes updated notes, statistics and wireless internet information in the Maravich Center.

Final box score and stat books will be available shortly following each home match. Phones will be made available on a first-come, first-serve basis in the Green Room located in the Northeast corridor of the Maravich Center.

POST MATCH INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done courtside following each home match. Please inform SID Matt Dunaway if you need to request a specific player.

For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID for their postmatch media procedures.

COVERING PRACTICES

LSU team practices generally range from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the auxiliary gym of the Maravich Center. Most practice sessions are open to the media but are subject to change. Interviews with coaches and/or players are held after practice based on player class schedules and team travel. Phone interviews may be arranged on special request.

Advance notice, preferably 24 hours, is needed for all interviews. Please schedule all interviews by contacting SID Matt Dunaway at (225) 578-1869 or mdunaway@lsu.edu.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Ayanna Wakefield is the volleyball media relations director for the Southeastern Conference and can be reached at (205) 458-3000.
