VOLLEYBALL

- Win championships.
- Help student-athletes develop to their full potential, both on the court and in the classroom.
- Help each student-athlete earn their degree and prepare for the next step in their lives.

“My goal for every student-athlete who competes on my team is to allow and help them develop into a successful person in all aspects of life.”

Every sport at LSU is expected to win championships. Our program is built on the tradition of winning on the court, in the classroom and in the community. Our student athletes are provided with the tools to succeed in every aspect of life. We pride ourselves on being champions in all aspects.

Team unity and team ownership are important concepts in our program, as we are not only teammates on the court, we are also truly teammates for life. LSU volleyball is a family and each and every member will leave her legacy on the program.

Our players – past present and future are the caretakers of our program and everyone who has had the honor to wear the purple and gold understands what that means and will pass that legacy on to those who follow.

There is a term in our state,” Lagniappe”, which means a little something extra. Lagniappe is one of the basic principles we teach.

In athletics, just as in life, if you are willing to do a little something extra, you are paving the way for a very successful future. We must all earn our way, through hard work on the court and in the classroom and be willing to do a little something extra in every aspect of life to carry the championship tradition or our program forward.

Fran Flory takes pride in celebrating LSU volleyball’s decorated history. Each year, the program plays host to an Alumnae Weekend to pay tribute and honor the players of the past [the 2012 Alumnae Weekend is pictured at the top of page 3].

Fran Flory is always on the cutting edge when it comes to promoting LSU volleyball. Prior to the 2010 season, she spent three days and two nights in a RV Camper in an effort to grow @lsuvolleyball following on Twitter.

Flory was visited by football coach Les Miles, baseball coach Paul Mainieri and Mike the Tiger. Baton Rouge Mayor-President Kip Holden also stopped by and declared August 4th LSU Volleyball Day along with Coach Fran Flory Day.

During Flory's stay, @lsuvolleyball tripled its following on Twitter.

MARAVICH CENTER

LSU volleyball heads into its 32nd season at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in 2013. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,215 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

Over the last eight seasons, the Tigers have racked up a dominant 76-20 (.792) mark at home sparked by a 37-3 (.925) run versus SEC Western Division opponents.

LSU volleyball moved into a new state-of-the-art locker room facility off the southwest corridor starting in 2011. Decorated by numerous graphics showcasing the program's prominent history, the fully carpeted facility features locker, film, equipment and training rooms.

The auxiliary gym located underground in the north section of the arena was converted to a volleyball only practice facility leading into the 2010 season. Volleyball fans also can see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department and underwent a multi-year refurbishment. The renovations have included new television lighting, an interior makeover and new roof surface.

Prior to the 2007 season, the main arena got a new subfloor and a new playing floor. In the summer of 2008, the auxiliary practice gym also received a new floor.

The outside windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the arena. In addition, all seats in the 100 lower level were replaced leading into the 2010-11 basketball season.

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center was one of the top home courts in the nation, as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record. During that time, LSU recorded a 37-match home-court win streak which is the second-longest streak in SEC history.

In 1991, the Tigers enjoyed possibly their finest season in the arena as LSU recorded a perfect 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have posted 15 consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center under head coach Fran Flory, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 128-53 (.707), including double digit wins during four of the last seven seasons.

The Maravich Center has played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Tigers have produced a winning record in 28 of 31 seasons at the PMAC.

LSU won its final eight league home matches in 2009 highlighted by a 3-0 sweep of No. 6 Florida to clinch the program's fifth SEC championship. The Tigers also welcomed back postseason volleyball to the Maravich Center in 2009 for the first time since 1991. In total, the Maravich Center has been the site of four NCAA Championships as well as the 1991 NCAA South Regional.

MEDIA TRAINING

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes here on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media.

Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

SEC ON ESPN

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired the rights as the exclusive cable home and the syndication rightsholder for the conference. As part of this historic agreement, LSU made four appearances on ESPNU over the last three seasons highlighted by a 3-0 sweep of No. 6 Florida in 2009 at the Maravich Center.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

NUTRITION FIRST

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Shelly Mullenix coordinates with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet. LSU athletic trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy and a hydrotherapy pool. It is also one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, vision center and dental center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

On the Prowl

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked in the top three in a Bleacher Report poll of college football's top live mascots. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

Mike THE TIGER

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The eight-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla., on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The eight-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and most recently, a 2011 Southeastern Conference championship and perfect regular season.

GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 Rudy Macklin

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the last LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

It's the nature of head coach Fran Flory and the LSU volleyball program to aim high. The 2013 season will be no different as the Tigers are ready for a new season with new opportunities. LSU brings back five starters and a talented group of newcomers itching to make an instant impact.

LSU has earned 171 victories, an average of 21.4 wins per season, to go along with seven of the last eight SEC Western Division titles since 2005. The Tigers also are one of 34 programs to appear in six of the previous eight NCAA Tournaments.

Flory, who heads into her 16th season, knows that the 2013 team will be different than any other team she has coached before.

As in the past, there are a number of questions leading into the season. The Tigers will look to build on a competitive spring season and an effective European Tour over the summer. LSU will hope to turn that momentum into a spirited and successful preseason fall camp.

"That's what you hope will happen," Flory said. "Every year is a new year. There are some things in your control and some things out of your control. The right thing to do with this team is to keep our minds focused on improving collectively throughout the entire season. By doing that, we will be able to see just how good of a team we can be."

LSU graduated four seniors headed by Sam Delahoussaye, Madie Jones and Meghan Mannari. The trio wrapped up their careers as the new members of the program's 1,000-dig and 1,000-kill clubs, respectively.

"There's no doubt that Sam, Victoria, Madie and Meghan meant the world to our program and to our staff," Flory said. "They've left their heart and soul for this program. As a coach, the goal is that when they come in as freshmen is that they'll mature and truly become people that you feel will carry the legacy of your program forward. All four of them have accomplished that. I'm proud of them. I'm certain they will have bigger and better and much brighter things ahead for them."

The Tigers welcome back starters Helen Boyle, Desiree Elliott, Khourtni Fears, Cati Leak and Malorie Pardo. Elliott has been named a two-time All-SEC selection during her career and her veteran presence will be relied upon as the squad's lone senior.

A group of five newcomers will strengthen the team and also provide key depth in several areas. Emily Ehrle and Laura Whalen join the Tigers from Texas Tech and Texas State, while Briana Holman was listed among Volleyball Magazine's Feb 50.

"I think our returning players have learned a lot of valuable lessons from last season," Flory said. "They all went through a lot of the same things - not succeeding enough and not being able to handle the toughest moments the way they wanted to. The good thing is that they understand what it takes to succeed. The newcomers come in with a lot of experience already. If some right things happen, they can have a big impact on our team."

Once again, the Tigers will carry a challenging schedule. LSU will play 11 matches versus 2012 NCAA Tournament opponents which includes a home meeting with Texas, the defending national champions, on Oct. 5.

"Our 2013 schedule has a wonderful mix of challenges and quality matches to enable our program to return to the NCAA Tournament," Flory said. "I feel our non-conference schedule will prepare us and provide us outstanding balance against the variety of styles of play we will see in order to be successful against an always-tough SEC."

"We know there's a lot of work for our group to accomplish before we take the court on August 30," Flory continued. "There's no doubt that there will be a lot of competition for playing time. I believe our adaptability coupled with our players possessing a variety of strengths will be critical and super valuable to the different styles of opponents we will see."

Below is a look at the 2013 Tigers by position.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

LSU will be deep at the middle blocker position and return both starters from a season ago in senior Desiree Elliott and sophomore Khourtni Fears. The Tigers also will have junior Madi Mahaffey and freshmen Briana Holman in the mix.

Elliott has continued to establish herself as a force on both sides of the net and notched a pair of All-SEC picks over her career. She posted 3.40 kills per set, second on the team and second among SEC middles. The 2010 SEC Freshman of the Year enters her senior campaign six kills away from reaching 1,000 and led the team in blocks for the second straight season.

"Desi brings a lot of experience and wisdom to our middle blocker group," Flory said. "One of her biggest strengths is her competitive fire. There's no doubt that she is one of the focus points that our opponents try to take away every match. When we are able to use Desi's quickness and explosiveness in our system, that's when we are playing our most effective and up-tempo brand of volleyball."

Fears made an instant impact on LSU's front row during her 24 starts last season. She chipped in 1.28 kills and 1.03 blocks per set. The 1.03 blocks per set were ninth in the SEC, second among freshmen.

"Khourtni has learned a great deal in her time with our program," Flory said. "We've pushed a lot of buttons with her, and I think we have found the ones that are going to work. She is such a gifted and talented athlete. I think the sky is the limit for her. She is ready to take that next step and have a significant impact on our team."

Mahaffey saw an expanded role as a sophomore with 15 of her 18 appearances coming during SEC action. She tallied 0.67 kills and 0.52 blocks per set as a key member off the bench.

Holman picked up multiple District 7-5A honors highlighted by the 2012 District 7-A MVP award as a standout at Cedar Hill High School in Texas. She ranked among PrepVolleyball.com's Class of 2013 Top 50 recruits and was listed among Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50.

"Madi has done everything we've asked her to do, and she continues to mature as a leader on our team," Flory said. "Her knowledge base and understanding of the game has grown by a significant level over the last year. Briana is a physical high-flier that brings power, speed and explosiveness to our team that directly fits into our system. Her ability to play above the net will afford her the chance to be a special player."

OUTSIDE HITTERS/RIGHT SIDE

One of the most intriguing situations heading into the 2013 season is LSU's pin hitters. The Tigers will have a talented group ready to take charge following the graduation of two-time All-SEC selection and 1,000-kill club member Madie Jones.

LSU doesn't have a shortage of candidates as junior Helen Boyle and sophomore Cati Leak are joined by sophomore Emily Ehrle, sophomore Katie Lindelow and freshman Katarina Raicevic. The quintet possesses a multitude of ways to score points for the Tigers.

Boyle has made 53 starts as a six-rotation player on the perimeter. She has averaged a balanced 2.35 kills and 2.83 digs per set over her first two seasons. In SEC play last season, Boyle upped those marks to 3.04 kills and 2.99 digs per set. She missed LSU's final three matches in 2012 due to injury.

Leak was thrown into the fire right away and started 27 matches mostly as a six-rotation option during her freshman campaign. She chipped in 1.62 kills, 2.41 digs and 0.70 blocks per set. LSU won two of its three matches when Leak slapped double digit kills last season.

"All of our hitters have a tremendous amount of talent, and we feel great about the progress that they continue to make," Flory said. "Helen has worked extremely hard to improve her arsenal of shots, and we look forward to her returning to our lineup when she's fully healthy. I've always believed that the greatest amount of progress for an outside hitter comes between their freshman and sophomore years because you understand the task better. Cati is a humble and driven player that understands she will have to do more to help the team succeed."

Transferring to LSU from Texas Tech, Ehrle saw action in 30 matches and paced the Red Raiders with 241 kills last season. She was named to the AVCA All-American Watch List prior to her senior season at Crowley High School in Texas.

Lindelow will look to find her rhythm after she missed LSU's last 13 matches of the 2012 season due to injury. She had a prolific prep career en route to the 2010 Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year award and also could see time strictly on the back row if needed.

Raicevic secured the "Best Player" award of Belgrade and won a combined five championships between the high school and club levels in her native Serbia. She also was a member of the Serbian National Team that won a bronze medal at the 2011 Girls' Youth World Championships.

"As attackers, it's not how big or how powerful you are, it's about how great can you play the game," Flory said. "Emily, Katie and Katarina have great arms, and we look forward to seeing them continue to develop their attacking toolboxes. They will rise to any challenge that are presented and will push for playing time right away."

A combination of Elliott, Leak, Mahaffey and Raicevic will take swings on the right sides when not at their original positions.

SETTERS

Junior Malorie Pardo will carry the load for the Tigers at the setter position and has started in 53 of 59 matches during her first two seasons. She also has played solid defense on the back row and produced 23 double-doubles.

Pardo has dished out 2,285 career assists and heads into the season ranked seventh on LSU's all-time list. She is the first player since Katie Kubena (2001 & 2002) to produce over 1,000 assists in consecutive seasons.

"Malorie has continued to make strides in her game," Flory said. "She has the toughest challenge on our team. It comes down to the simple fact of locating the ball, and can she make good decisions based on the situation she is presented. Malorie understands the expectations that are required of her to be successful at the setter position on this level."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS/LIBERO

A key to LSU's run of success has been the Tigers ability to play excellent defense and pass well. LSU has been rated among the SEC's top two in digs per set in each of the last three seasons, but the Tigers will have to replace 1,000-dig club members Sam Delahoussaye and Meghan Mannari.

LSU will turn to junior Laura Whalen, sophomore Haley Smith and freshmen Katie Dunlap to firm up the back row in 2013.

Whalen came away with 718 digs over 65 matches and served as Texas State's primary libero over the last two seasons. She registered double figure digs 34 times, and the Bobcats appeared in the 2011 NCAA Tournament after winning the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles.

Smith played in 23 matches and was one of six players to collect over 100 digs last season. She played an expanded role when Mannari missed the first six SEC matches due to injury and notched SEC Freshmen of the Week after consecutive career-high 18-dig efforts against Kentucky and Missouri.

Dunlap was a PrepVolleyball.com Top 50 recruit and 2012 Texas Gatorade Player of the Year while at Southlake Carroll High School. Her club team, Texas Advantage Volleyball Club, won a championship in the 18 Open at the 2013 USA Junior Nationals.

"The back row is one of the spots where we feel we have a lot of depth and potential," Flory said, "Laura, Haley and Katie embrace our philosophy of the first touch being the most important. Each also are high-energy players who throw their bodies around every time they are on the floor and have the potential to make match-changing plays when we need them to. They go for the ball and go hard. That's an intangible I've always been fond of."

HEAD COACH

Fran Flory enters her 16th season at the helm of the LSU volleyball program after leading the Tigers to six NCAA Tournament berths in the last eight seasons. The 2009 Southeastern Conference [SEC] and American Volleyball Coaches Association [AVCA] South Region Coach of the Year, Flory was hired as the program's fifth coach leading into the 1998 season and has returned the Tigers to national prominence during her tenure.

LSU has been nothing short of spectacular and continues to raise its level of success under Flory. The Tigers have captured 21.4 wins per season, the 2009 SEC championship which ended Florida's 18-year reign on top of the conference and seven of the last eight SEC Western Division titles since 2005. The seven straight division titles was the second-longest streak in SEC history, while the six consecutive NCAA Tournament bids from 2005-10 are a program record.

Flory has coached eight AVCA All-South Region First-Team picks which include a pair of AVCA All-Americans from 2007-09. It marked the first time in program history that LSU recorded three straight seasons with multiple All-America selections. The Tigers also have secured 38 All-SEC selections highlighted by 14 First-Team honorees.

Brittnee Cooper added to LSU's rich heritage as the program's first player to collect SEC Player of the Year accolades in 2009. She also became the third player in program history to secure AVCA All-America First-Team honors joining the elite company of Monique Adams (1991) and Angie Miller (1992).

Elena Martinez picked up 2007 and 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year in addition to a pair of AVCA All-America Honorable Mention nods. She reeled in 1,414 career digs to rank second in program history.

LSU has been represented on the national stage as a part of USA Volleyball Women's A2 National Team during five of the last six seasons. Flory captured a gold medal in May 2011 after leading the USA A2 Blue squad to a 7-1 record. Cooper and Martinez won gold in May 2008, Cooper added a silver medal in May 2009, former assistant coach Steve Loeswick garnered a bronze medal in May 2010 and Meghan Mannari tallied a silver medal in June 2012.

On the state level, LSU has dominated with 50 All-Louisiana selections highlighted by 31 First-Team honors. The five-time Louisiana Coach of the Year also has led her players to every individual state award which includes five overall players, four defensive players, four freshmen and two newcomers of the year.

However, Flory's success at LSU hasn't been solely on the court. The Tigers have registered 105 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, and Madie Jones was LSU's nominee for the prestigious SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award in April 2013.

In each of the last two seasons, LSU's senior classes have created and championed their own philanthropic projects to benefit the Baton Rouge community. "PAWS in the PMAC" collected close to 1,250 items ranging from food to toys that were donated to the Capital Area Animal Welfare Society in 2012. LSU donated nearly 3,000 books as part of the "Geaux Books" campaign to replenish the library at Dufrocq Elementary School following the 2011 season.

The Tigers will look to return to the NCAA Tournament after a 19-11 record in 2011 followed by a 12-17 record during the 2012 campaign. LSU has had five players over the last two seasons join the program's illustrious 1,000-dig and 1,000-kill clubs, respectively. In total, LSU has had 13 players added to those lists going back to 2006.

LSU raced out to a program-best 13-0 start to open the 2010 season. Angela Bensend and Desiree Elliott collected All-SEC First-Team accolades to give the Tigers multiple picks on the league's premier squad for the fourth time in a five-season span. Elliott also notched SEC Freshman of the Year status as LSU racked up a 25-5 record.

LSU climbed to new heights in 2009 and claimed the SEC overall championship to close Florida's 18-year reign at the top of the conference. The Tigers finished with a 25-7 record highlighted by a program mark of 18 SEC victories and a pair of historic wins over the Gators which included the program's first triumph in UF's O'Connell Center since 1991. Cooper was joined by Sam Dabbs and Marina Skender to become the first Tiger trio to notch All-SEC First-Team honors during the same season. LSU rolled past Tulane in its NCAA opener before falling in a five-set affair to Texas A&M in the NCAA Second Round.

The 2008 Tigers overcame injuries and finished the regular season with six straight wins to collect their fourth straight divisional title. Cooper emerged as one of the top middle blockers in the nation en route to All-SEC and AVCA All-South Region First-Team along with AVCA All-America Honorable Mention accolades.

LSU compiled a stellar 25-8 campaign in 2007. The Tigers broke through with an NCAA Tournament victory, a gritty five-set triumph over New Mexico State, in its third-straight year in the postseason. Lauren DeGirolamo and Kyna Washington took home All-SEC First-Team honors, while DeGirolamo teamed with Martinez for AVCA All-America Honorable Mention status.

The Tigers made the 2006 season a year to remember after turning in a 26-6 mark. The 26 victories and No. 19 final national ranking were accomplished for the first time in program history since the 1992 season. LSU also won the SEC Western Division crown outright for the first time in program history. Daniela Romero tacked on AVCA All-America Honorable Mention after securing All-SEC First Team and Louisiana Player of the Year. She was joined by Skender to give the Tigers two All-SEC First-Team picks for the first time since 1999.

She returned to the SEC as an assistant coach at Kentucky in 1993. Five months later, Flory assumed the head coaching duties when Kathy DeBoer, who is currently the Executive Director of the AVCA, was named Associate Athletic Director.

She was a four-year starter at outside hitter from 1997-2000 and ranked sixth in the SEC with 23 service aces during her senior campaign. LSU also appeared in the 2000 SEC Tournament finals.

One of the hardest workers on her team and considered one of the most determined players Flory has ever coached, Lytle Wilson played in 98 career matches being limited only by a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee suffered 11 matches into her junior season.

Official Booster Club of LSU Volleyball

To say we are excited about the 2013 season and this year's team would be an understatement. The youth and inexperience of last year's group has matured into a cohesive nucleus. I believe our returning players have learned a lot of valuable lessons from last season, and they understand what it takes to succeed.

Our travels this summer to Croatia, Slovenia and Italy are already paying huge dividends during our preseason practices. There's no doubt that these 13 young women are driven and prepared to make 2013 a great season. One of our goals is to improve collectively throughout the season. By doing that, we will be able to see just how good of a team we can be.

We've added five newcomers that will strengthen this team and add quite a bit to our program in all aspects. Among the additions are transfers Emily Ehrle and Laura Whalen, who join us from Texas Tech and Texas State. We also have three freshmen – Katie Dunlap, Briana Holman and Katarina Raicevic. All five of these newcomers have already impacted our team. They have raised the level of competitiveness and athleticism in the gym. This group is going to be fun to watch, and the coaching staff is excited for everyone to see the 2013 Tigers.

It's the nature of our program to aim high. We have won 171 matches and seven of the last eight SEC Western Division titles since 2005. We also are one of 34 programs to appear in six of the last eight NCAA Tournaments and look forward to the challenge of building on our championship tradition.

The purpose of this letter is to ask for your financial help. LSU is an amazing University and our athletic department provides many amazing opportunities for our student-athletes. What we need from each of you is that little extra that allows us to be just that much better than the next program.

A big part and an important piece of our program being able to build on its championship tradition is you. It's your support that is the cornerstone of our program from a financial perspective. It's your contributions allow us to not only provide a good experience for our student-athletes, but to truly provide a great experience for them. These funds are used to enhance our facilities and enrich the opportunities for our student athletes.

We appreciate all that you have done for our program in the past and all that you will continue to do for our program in the future. Without your unconditional loyalty and steadfast support, we would not have the ability to accomplish these goals. Please encourage others to join along with you. To join, you can go to the TAF website (www.lsutaf.org) and click on the Booster Clubs link.

We look forward to seeing you this fall, and Geaux Tigers!

LSU'S REIGN ON TOP OF SEC WESTERN DIVISION ENDS

LSU had its run of seven consecutive SEC Western Division titles come to a close as Texas A&M captured the division crown during its first year in the league. The Tigers also had their streak of eight straight winning seasons end after posting a 12-17 mark.

LSU's championship run which started during the 2005 season when the Tigers shared the division crown with Arkansas was the second-longest run in conference history. Florida captured 14 straight SEC Eastern Division titles from 1995-2008.

Highlights for LSU during the streak was the program's first overall SEC championship in 2009. It marked the first time that the Tigers returned to the top of the conference standings since 1991 and ended Florida's run of 18 straight SEC crowns.

LSU's dominance over its fellow SEC Western Division foes was an impressive 62-8 (.885) mark going back to 2005. That stretch featured a 34-match winning streak from 2007-10.

"PAWS IN THE PMAC" CHAMPIONED BY SENIOR CLASS

During the 2012 season, LSU volleyball's senior class of Sam Delahoussaye, Victoria Jacobsen, Madie Jones and Meghan Mannari created and championed its philanthropy project "PAWS in the PMAC".

Tiger fans got involved by bringing pet supplies to the fan zone during all 10 of LSU's home matches. As part of the campaign, the Tigers collected close to 1,250 items ranging from food to toys that were donated to benefit the Capital Area Animal Welfare Society.

During the season, the team also volunteered their time at the Companion Animal Alliance where the players assisted the animal shelter in walking dogs and playing with the animals.

"Our team has a special bond with animals, and this cause is close to our hearts," Jones said. "I know our fans will get behind us and make 'PAWS in the PMAC' a success. We're so excited to do anything we can to help the Capital Area Animal Welfare Society."

Last year, LSU participated in the "Geaux Books" campaign where close to 3,000 books were collected to replenish the library at Dufrocq Elementary School in Baton Rouge.

HAIL SENIORS

The 2012 senior quartet of Sam Delahoussaye, Victoria Jacobsen, Madie Jones and Meghan Mannari played an integral part of carrying on LSU's championship tradition on the court and in the classroom.

The Tigers secured 81 victories during the four-year stretch, the 2009 SEC championship, three SEC Western Division titles and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. Their legacy was honored following their final home match at Maravich Center versus Arkansas.

"These four players have meant the world to our program and to our staff," head coach Fran Flory said. "They've left their heart and soul for this program. The neat thing is they're all very balanced student-athletes. As a coach, the goal is that when they come in as freshmen is that they'll mature and truly become people that you feel will carry the legacy of your program forward. All four of them have accomplished that. I'm proud of them. I'm sad that they've played their last match but bigger and better things ahead for them."

JONES WRAPS UP MEMORABLE CAREER

Madie Jones put together an impressive senior campaign and secured a second straight selection to the All-SEC Second Team. She also notched another All-Louisiana First-Team pick in 2012 and came away with 10 or more kills a team-high 21 times which included all 12 of LSU's victories on the season.

"Madie has proven the last four years what a terminating force she can be for our program," head coach Fran Flory said. "What a great load she carried for us during her senior season. She thrived in situations when it has to be her. There were times when teams would release both blockers on her. The fact that she was still able to score at a high level showed her versatility and the range she has offensively. You have to have those types of players who can execute at that level to win, and Madie was that player for our team."

Jones belted a team-leading 389 kills at a 3.64 per set average, good enough for eighth place on the SEC leaderboard. She became the 19th player in program history to record over 1,000 career kills and finished her career with 1,110 kills, tied for 15th place with former All-American Brittnee Cooper.

Jones continued her knack for raising her level of play during SEC action. She blasted 3.84 kills per set to rank fourth among the SEC leaders. The Plano, Texas, native produced all four of her 20-plus spike performances against SEC opponents. LSU won three of those matches which included 25-kill efforts versus Alabama (Oct. 14) and Ole Miss (Nov. 4). The 25 kills were SEC bests for a four-set match during the 2012 season.

MANNARI CLAIMS SECOND LOUISIANA DEFENSIVE POY AWARD

Meghan Mannari etched her name among LSU's elite when she became the 12th player in program history to eclipse 1,000 career digs. She also collected the Louisiana Defensive Player of the Year award and All-Louisiana First-Team accolades for the second consecutive season.

Mannari's signature performance of the season came when she sprawled out for a career-best 40 digs during a four-set victory at Auburn (Oct. 19). The 40 digs for Mannari also were second-most in program history for a single match only behind former All-American Elena Martinez's 43 scoops at Alabama in 2007.

"Once again, Meghan proved why she was one of the best defenders in the SEC," head coach Fran Flory said. "To have 40 digs in a four-set match is simply amazing. She anchored our back row defense and made so many spectacular plays."

LSU's defense turned in a SEC-leading 16.85 dig per set and upped its average to a conference-best 17.90 per set average during conference matches.

For the season, Mannari registered 395 digs to go along with 19 double figure dig performances. Her 4.88 digs per set average was second in the SEC and the third-highest mark for a single season in LSU history.

After missing LSU's first six SEC matches due to injury, Mannari came back with a vengeance. All seven of her 20-plus dig performances came during SEC play en route to a 5.25 digs per set ratio in league matches. The Frisco, Texas, native finished her career with 1,208 digs to rank on the program's all-time list.

DELAHOUSSEY COLLECTS 1,000 CAREER DIGS

Sam Delahoussaye joined fellow senior Meghan Mannari as the newest members of the 1,000 career digs club during the 2012 season.

Delahoussaye recorded a career-best 314 digs and 2.93 per set average to give her 1,063 scoops for her career. She collected her four highest career dig totals in 2012 and filled in for an injured Mannari at the libero position during the start of SEC action.

Delahoussaye responded and posted a career-high 33 digs as part of LSU's five-set comeback win at Mississippi State (Sept. 28). The 33 scoops also tied for seventh place in program history for a single match.

Delahoussaye played in all 121 matches over her career and joined former All-American Marina Skender as the only four-year letterwinners to play in every match of their careers during the 2000's.

ELLIOTT CLOSING IN ON 1,000 CAREER KILLS

Desiree Elliott turned in another solid season and belted 364 kills to rank second on the team in 2012.

Elliott's 3.40 kills per set were 11th on the SEC leaderboard, second among middle blockers. She also registered a team-leading 99 blocks, her 0.93 per set mark were 11th in the SEC. She joined SEC Player of the Year and Florida's Chloe Mann as the only two players to be ranked inside the SEC's Top 15 in both kills and blocks per set.

Elliott moves into senior season six kills away from becoming the 20th player in program history to reach 1,000 career kills.

SAND VOLLEYBALL ADDED FOR SPRING OF 2014

Sand Volleyball will become LSU's newest varsity sport beginning in the spring of 2014 announced in May by Joe Alleva, vice chancellor and director of athletics.

The addition of sand volleyball will bring the number of varsity sports at LSU to 21. Sand volleyball will be the first sport added to LSU's lineup of teams since women's soccer and softball were added in the 1996-97 athletic year.

Fran Flory, who has served as head coach of the LSU volleyball team since 1998, will also serve as head coach of the sand volleyball program.

"Adding sand volleyball to our department is a great chance for LSU to be a leader in new opportunities for female student-athletes," Flory said. "With our location, climate and local interest in the sport, sand volleyball is an ideal fit for LSU. Our indoor program will benefit from the addition of the sport, with additional opportunities for our current players. We are very excited to get started building a championship tradition on the sand."

REIS NAMED TO LSU ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Dani Reis was one of six former LSU greats that will be inducted into the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame later this year. She is the first volleyball player to earn this honor.

Reis played for the Tigers from 1989-92 and established herself as the finest setter in school history. She was named All-American three consecutive years by the American Volleyball Coaches Association and led the Tigers to back-to-back Final Four appearances in 1990 and 1991.

"We're so proud and extremely happy that Dani is the first player to represent our program in the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame," head coach Fran Flory said. "She is well deserving of this distinguished honor and was a tremendous leader that played a major role of why our program went to back-to-back Final Fours."

Reis picked up All-SEC honors in each of her final three seasons and earned SEC Tournament MVP honors as a freshman in 1989. She still holds the SEC and LSU records for most assists in a career with 6,379. The 6,379 assists also enters the 2013 season ninth-best in NCAA history.

Reis ranks fourth in SEC history while holding the LSU single season record for most assists with 1,701 which she amassed during the 1990 campaign. She holds four of the top five single season marks in the LSU record book.

On the defensive end, Reis racked up a program-record 1,527 digs and is one of six players to average 3.00 digs per set. She also fired in 254 service aces, second-highest in program history. Reis now lives in her native Brazil.

LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one year absence and turned the tables on Houston coming back from a 2-1 hole. Nyla Shepherd led the comeback and racked up 21 kills on a .354 hitting clip.

The Tigers headed to Austin, Texas where Texas-Arlington rallied from a two-game hole to stun LSU. Five players knocked double-figure kills for the Tigers, highlighted by 23 and 22 kills from Monique Adams and Shepherd.

1990 • Record: 34-7

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

Coming off its second undefeated conference championship in as many seasons, LSU cruised past Louisville behind a .337 team hitting percentage in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the Maravich Center.

The Tigers dismissed Texas Tech 3-0 in round two as Daniela Reis set a balanced attack that featured 15 kills from Nyla Shepherd, 12 kills from Monique Adams and 10 kills from Julie Stempel.

LSU had its 1986 season end one step shy of the Final Four at Texas and were swept by the Longhorns during the 1990 regular season in Austin. Down 2-0 to the host Longhorns, LSU mounted a rally behind Adams, Shepherd and Stempel.

The trio combined for 74 of the Tigers' 91 kills and posted double-doubles as LSU fought back for a 8-15, 4-15, 15-10, 15-11, 17-15 triumph to advance to the program's first Final Four.

The Tigers fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals, but the future was bright as Adams, Shepherd and Stempel would return for their senior seasons in 1991.

1991 • Record: 35-2

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

LSU fired out to a 12-0 record to start the 1991 season highlighted by wins over No. 11 New Mexico and No. 17 Texas before being upended at Florida to open SEC play.

The Tigers bounced back in a big way reeling off 20 consecutive victories en route to its third consecutive SEC regular season and tournament championships.

Only losing 12 games during the season, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint shutting down Houston in the first round to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted.

After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU faced off with Florida for the fourth time in '91. Monique Adams and Daniela Reis set a program single-game marks. Adams cranked 43 kills on an amazing .507 hitting percentage, while Reis dished out 82 assists. Angie Miller (10 kills, 29 digs), Luciana Reis (12 kills, 22 digs) and Julie Stempel (11 kills, 12 digs) also tacked on double-doubles as LSU punched its second straight ticket to the Final Four.

LSU dropped a hard-fought, four-game duel with Long Beach State in the national semifinals. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 Tigers were the only SEC squad to win a game in the Final Four.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his sixth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. He launched an aggressive fund-raising campaign to replace several hundred windows in Tiger Stadium that were in disrepair, and a new coating to the facade of the structure has given the old stadium new life. A renovated gating system on the west side of the stadium debuted in the fall of 2012 to include a plaza that celebrates LSU's football national championships and recognition walls that honor Tiger All-Americans. A new plaza will open on the north end of the stadium in the fall of 2013, further enriching the experience of visitors to the LSU campus.

A new lighting system was installed prior to last season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. In addition, "Tiger Stadium" in 10-foot tall illuminated letters sits just below the west upper deck facing Nicholson Drive.

Also in the fall of 2012, LSU began construction on an expansion of the South End Zone of the stadium – a project that will add premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. The project will be completed in time for the start of the 2014 football season.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface in 2010 when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium and extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility were completed in the fall of 2011.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The LSU men's team in 2013 played host to an NCAA Regional for the first time in the school's illustrious golf history.

Future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts, and a state-of-the-art Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists and provide the best dietary selections for all Fighting Tiger competitors.

LSU's prominence was evident in the final 2012-13 Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs, as the Tigers finished in the Top 20 for the eighth consecutive year.

The year was highlighted by another 10-win season and bowl appearance for the Fighting Tiger football team, which recorded a double-digit victory total for the sixth time in eight years. The men's basketball program was rejuvenated by first-year coach Johnny Jones, who directed the Tigers to a 19-12 mark while placing LSU back into consideration for a postseason berth. Women's basketball continued its rise under second-year coach Nikki Caldwell, who guided the Lady Tigers to LSU's first Sweet 16 berth in five years.

The 2013 Fighting Tiger baseball team established a school record for victories with 57 and earned the school's 16th College World Series appearance while capturing SEC Western Division and SEC Tournament titles. The softball squad won the SEC West and played host to an NCAA Regional in Tiger Park before record crowds. The LSU gymnastics team reached the prestigious Super Six for the third time in six seasons, and the women's track team, led by Bowerman Award winner and national sprint champion Kimberlyn Duncan, placed fourth in the final NCAA outdoor standings.

But the 2012-13 year was about more than just athletic success. Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes logged more than 4,475 hours in community service work across 20 sports through LSU's Geaux Givers program. And a total of 89 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May.

The Tigers in 2011-12 finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital

One Cup competition that identifies athletic excellence. LSU was one of only two schools in the country – and the only one in the SEC – to rank in the top four in both categories.

Eighteen of the Tigers' 20 varsity sports participated in NCAA postseason competition in 2011-12. The year was highlighted by the football team's undefeated regular season, an SEC championship and an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game. The Lady Tiger track and field team captured the SEC championship while the LSU softball squad advanced to the Women's College World Series. The Fighting Tiger baseball team won the 2012 SEC championship, and LSU led the nation in attendance for the 17th straight season. The 2011-12 season marked the first time in school history that LSU won both the SEC title in both football and baseball in the same athletic year.

Outstanding performances of the 2010-11 athletic season included the exploits of the Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark – including a Cotton Bowl victory – and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills.

And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he has made critical additions to LSU's coaching staff in recent years. He hired former LSU guard Johnny Jones in April 2012 to breathe new life and enthusiasm into the men's basketball program and last year added Julia Sell as the new women's tennis coach. In 2011, he lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, both of whom immediately returned their respective programs to NCAA postseason success.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny. Joe and Annie recently welcomed their first grandchild, Harper, the daughter of Jenny and husband Kyle Young.
