VOLLEYBALL

LSU Athletics has a great tradition of winning championships, and our volleyball program is built on that tradition. We compete each and every day to “win” in the classroom and on the court. Everything we do brings us one step closer to the ultimate goal of graduating from this great University and the ultimate goal of winning that special championship.

We emphasize balance in all aspects of your collegiate career, working to be great on the court, in the classroom and in the community. Success becomes contagious and one area feeds off the next until you are able to truly fulfill your potential. You earn what you get in life and hard work on the court and in the classroom are the first steps toward unlocking that potential.

We have recently added the LSU Leadership Academy to our athletic department. With the implementation of this new program, we have seen our players begin to grow into the true leaders of the future, not just for this university and our program, but for society and within their chosen professions. They are empowered to lead and impact others.

We strongly believe in family. Our players, past and present, are tied together for life and will forever be part of our LSU volleyball family. We have all walked the same pathway, and have paved the way for the next student-athletes who have the honor of wearing the purple and gold. Our Alumni events are wonderful experiences for the old and the new. We have the chance to celebrate past Championships and set our sights on future championships.

Once a Tiger, always a Tiger.

Fran Flory is always on the cutting edge when it comes to promoting LSU volleyball. Prior to the 2010 season, she spent three days and two nights in a RV Camper in an effort to grow @lsuvolleyball following on Twitter.

Flory was visited by football coach Les Miles, baseball coach Paul Mainieri and Mike the Tiger. Baton Rouge Mayor-President Kip Holden also stopped by and declared August 4th LSU Volleyball Day along with Coach Fran Flory Day.

During Flory's stay, @lsuvolleyball tripled its following on Twitter.

MARAVICH CENTER

LSU volleyball heads into its 33rd season at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in 2014. The structure, which was renamed in honor of the all-time LSU and NCAA men's basketball scoring leader on July 22, 1988, seats 13,215 and ranks as one of the finest college athletic arenas in the nation.

Over the last nine seasons, the Tigers have racked up a dominant 83-26 (.761) mark at home sparked by a 37-3 (.925) run versus SEC Western Division opponents during the divisional format era.

LSU volleyball moved into a new state-of-the-art locker room facility off the southwest corridor starting in 2011. Decorated by numerous graphics showcasing the program's prominent history, the fully carpeted facility features locker, film, equipment and training rooms.

The auxiliary gym located underground in the north section of the arena was converted to a volleyball only practice facility leading into the 2010 season. Volleyball fans also can see a redesigned concourse with video and graphic displays, renovated concession stands and video kiosks showcasing the best of the sports that play in the building.

On July 1, 2004, the management of the Maravich Center came under the direction of the LSU Athletics Department and underwent a multi-year refurbishment. The renovations have included new television lighting, an interior makeover and new roof surface.

Prior to the 2007 season, the main arena got a new subfloor and a new playing floor. In the summer of 2008, the auxiliary practice gym also received a new floor.

The outside windows of the building now feature the Tiger mascot running around the arena. In addition, all seats in the 100 lower level were replaced leading into the 2010-11 basketball season.

Between 1985 and 1992, the Maravich Center was one of the top home courts in the nation, as LSU ran up a 110-10 (.917) record. During that time, LSU recorded a 37-match home-court win streak which is the second-longest streak in SEC history.

In 1991, the Tigers enjoyed possibly their finest season in the arena as LSU recorded a perfect 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four through the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge.

The Tigers have posted 16 consecutive seasons without a losing record in the Maravich Center under head coach Fran Flory, making it once again a tough place for visiting teams to play. Over that span, LSU has a record of 135-59 (.696), including double digit wins during four of the last eight seasons.

The Maravich Center has played host to SEC and NCAA Tournaments for volleyball, basketball and gymnastics. The 1982, 1987 and 1995 SEC Volleyball Championships were all held in the arena. The Tigers have produced a winning record in 28 of 31 seasons at the PMAC.

LSU won its final eight league home matches in 2009 highlighted by a 3-0 sweep of No. 6 Florida to clinch the program's fifth SEC championship. The Tigers also welcomed back postseason volleyball to the Maravich Center in 2009 for the first time since 1991. In total, the Maravich Center has been the site of four NCAA Championships as well as the 1991 NCAA South Regional.

MEDIA TRAINING

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes here on campus. The Academic Center features a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interviews in front of both print and electronic media.

Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

SEC ON ESPN

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired the rights as the exclusive cable home and the syndication rightsholder for the conference. As part of this historic agreement, LSU made five appearances on ESPNU over the last four seasons highlighted by a 3-0 sweep of No. 6 Florida in 2009 at the Maravich Center.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

NUTRITION FIRST

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. Athletic trainers coordinate with LSU dining services to provide a balanced training table diet. LSU athletic trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy and a hydrotherapy pool. It is also one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, vision center and dental center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The Operations Center houses one of the most complete strength training facilities in the nation. Ranked No. 2 in the nation in a July 2010 poll by ESPN.com, the weight room area includes 16 multi-purpose platform, bench, incline, squat and Olympic lifting stations. It features more than 10,000 square feet of training space and more than 30,000 pounds of weights and equipment.

On the Prowl

Mike the Tiger was recently ranked in the top three in a Bleacher Report poll of college football's top live mascots. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

Mike THE TIGER

History of Mike

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season. LSU veterinarian Dr. David Baker began the search for the young tiger after his predecessor, Mike V, died in May 2007 of renal failure at the age of 17. The nine-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his trailer on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and today Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff Mike VI and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

Mike I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

Mike's Habitat

In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet in size with lush planting, a large live oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire beautiful LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

Sneaux Day

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI, LSU's live Bengal/Siberian tiger, a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

Mike II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29, the opening day of the football season.

Mike III

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

Mike IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla., on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

Mike V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

Mike VI

Mike VI arrived in Baton Rouge on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was officially designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played host to Virginia Tech. Six days later, on Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The nine-year-old Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and most recently, a 2011 Southeastern Conference championship and perfect regular season.

GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 19 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin, and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 Rudy Macklin

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

Tommy Casanova (left), Seimone Augustus (middle) and Rudy Macklin (right) were the last LSU greats to have their jerseys retired during the 2009-10 athletic year.

About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Games.

2nd Season

Last season, the LSU volleyball team was out to earn a spot back in the conversation for an NCAA Tournament berth. After completing its mission with a trip to the second round, the 2014 version of the Tigers are out to do something more, feeling compelled for something greater, and with 11 letterwinners and nearly the entire starting six returning to the fold, this group is hoping to return to national prominence with one of the most experienced teams in the Southeastern Conference.

Now in her 17th season at the helm of the LSU program, head coach Fran Flory is hoping to capture the momentum of last year's squad that went 19-13 overall and earned its first postseason win since 2009, by turning that into a springboard into the new season, with most of those players coming back with some big-game experience going forward.

Flory is no stranger to big games herself, as she enters her 30th year of coaching with 408 overall wins under her belt, sitting just two wins shy of becoming only the second head volleyball coach in Tiger history to earn 300 wins in a career, and 11 shy of passing Scott Luster for most head coaching victories by an LSU coach during a single tenure.

It shouldn't take long to reach that milestone as the Tigers return 89 percent of their top kill producers to the fold, 99 percent of their assists, 96 percent of their digs and all but 65 of their total blocks from a season ago, as the team lost two-time All-SEC pick and All-Louisiana honorable mention middle blocker Desiree Elliott to graduation.

"We have very high expectations for our team this fall," Flory said. "Our young team of a year ago has matured and developed in all areas on and off the court."

LSU will see strength and depth at nearly every position this season, with returning starters Briana Holman, Cati Leak, Katie Lindelow, Malorie Pardo and Haley Smith leading the charge. Pardo is one of four seniors that will be playing in their final season in Baton Rouge, along with Helen Boyle, Madi Mahaffey and Laura Whalen providing the veteran leadership.

"We certainly have some special players, as Brianna Holman and Helen Boyle both had outstanding summer experiences as part of two separate USA Collegiate National Teams," Flory said. "The stability that returners Cati, Malorie and Khourtni Fears bring will be an important factor in the success of the season."

Also returning to help bolster the front line and the offense are juniors Khourtni Fears and Emily Ehrle and sophomore Katarina Raicevic.

"We have an outstanding core group returning. Those returners have done an outstanding job of welcoming our new players into the program," Flory said. "This is already a very tight knit group that feels very confident about what they will be able to accomplish this season."

Even with such a large group of returners set to carry the weight of the team's championship hopes, the coaching staff didn't shy away from looking to the future, earning a bit of praise for the incoming freshman class that was ranked 13th nationally by PrepVolleyball.

com and in the top 20 according to Volleyball Magazine. The seven newcomers are the most for the group in a few years, but add some name recognition in Mimi Eugene, Kelly Quinn and Cheyenne Wood to name a few.

Known to take on some of the strongest teams in the nation, the 2014 schedule will challenge LSU right off the bat as the squad has 15 matches against NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago, with tournaments scheduled at Purdue, Florida State and UTSA, before jumping into the 18-game league schedule in September.

"Our schedule is definitely a challenging one, and we are excited about those early season challenges, as we feel they will prepare us for what promises to be a very tough SEC season," Flory said.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

The core of the middle blockers begins with sophomore Briana Holman, who's 1.54 blocks per set the SEC and was fifth in the nation, earning the DeSoto, Texas, native AVCA All-American honorable mention honors and All-SEC nod, among a host of other accolades. Her 391 kills and 3.01 kills per set average was second on the team, while her .327 hitting percentage was tops.

Khourtni Fears played in 21 matches and made 17 starts during the year, battling through injury to finish with a kills per set average of 1.86, with 0.85 blocks per set. Her .273 hitting percentage was second on the team only to Holman, as she registered at least five kills 13 times and five blocks five times.

Playing in her final season in Purple and Gold is Madi Mahaffey, the 6-4 senior from Vestavia Hills, Alabama. The three-year letterwinner played in 27 matches and started 12 on the season, finishing with 76 blocks which were third on the team. The 2013 SEC Community Service Team selection had a career high nine blocks against San Diego State and season-high 10 kills against UALR.

"Madi established herself as an outstanding blocker last season and she had a great spring, so her talents on the right side and at the net will make her a big asset for us," Flory said.

OUTSIDE HITTERS/RIGHT SIDE

The deepest discipline on the team is on the offensive end, as the Tigers return a potent offense with an influx of youth at the outside hitter and right side position, featuring nine players, with five returning who saw playing time last season.

"On the outside, competition will be tough as well with returners Emily Ehrle, Helen Boyle, Cati Leak, Katie Lindelow battling it out with newcomers Mylan Eugene and Gina Tillis," Flory said.

First team All-Louisiana pick Leak enters her junior season as the top kill producer returning after leading the team with 395 kills for a 3.24 kills per set average in her sophomore season. She had 22 matches with 10 or more kills, along with 10 double-doubles, as she also averaged 2.46 digs per set while playing in all 32 matches with 29 starts.

Third on the team in kills was Lindelow, who also played in all 32 matches and earned 23 starts on the season. The Mandeville High School product was named to the 2013 Rice Invitational All-Tournament team, as she began the season at the libero position before moving to outside hitter. She was a force serving with her 31 aces, while her 32 digs against Auburn were ninth most in a match in LSU history.

Another notable all-around player is also a senior in Boyle, who finished her junior year averaging 2.00 kills per set and 2.69 digs per set. Boyle spent part of her summer on the gold-medal winning USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team at the Girls Junior National Championships in Minnesota, and will head into her senior season 195 digs away from 1,000 for her career.

Beginning her second season after joining LSU from Texas Tech is Ehrle, who played in 17 matches and made seven starts as a sophomore in 2013. The Crowley, Texas, native wasted little time showing her value as she fired off 10 kills in the season opener against UTSA, before drilling 18 in a five-setter over Tennessee.

Raicevic saw action in 10 matches during her inaugural campaign, earning three starts during the year. The Serbian-born Raicevic averaged 1.29 kills, 0.57 digs and 0.38 blocks per set in 2013, with her best match coming against North Texas where she produced seven kills on a .417 hitting percentage with five digs.

The first of the newcomers to the Tigers in 2014 is Esch, a 6-1 freshman from Virginia. At Jamestown High School, Kelly Esch is the career record holder for kills with 1,048, as she led her team to a 61-3 record in her final two seasons and two second place finishes at the state championships.

A PrepVolleyball.com High School and Under Armour All-American, Mimi Eugene has already hit the ground running at LSU as she began in the winter and played on the sand volleyball team that just finished its first season. Eugene has been a staple in the USA Volleyball youth program since the eighth grade, where she has played on multiple international championship winning teams.

One of the most decorated volleyball players from the area who is joining the team is Toni Rodriguez of St. Amant. Rodriguez was once The Advocate's Athlete of the Year and the Times-Picayune Baton Rouge Player of the Year all before her senior season. Rodriguez will redshirt and sit out the season as she continues to rehabilitate from a knee injury suffered during her senior season.

The final outside hitting newcomer who was also a PrepVolleyball.

com and Under Armour All-American from Texas is Tillis. Earning over 2,000 kills, 1,630 digs and 170 assists during her prep career, she was one of the top players in the entire Dallas-Fort Worth area for her final two seasons, being named All-Texas and two-time district player of the year.

SETTERS

One of the most experienced aspects of the team is at the setter spot, as Pardo enters her senior season 18 assists shy of moving up to fourth all-time in the category at LSU. With over 3,600, Pardo is on pace become just the third player in program history to amass 4,000 kills in a career, shelling out 40 or more assists in a match 22 times in 2013.

Hailing from Fort Mitchell, Kentucky, Elly Ogle joins the Tigers as a setter, after a stellar four-year career at Notre Dame Academy where was twice named a MaxPreps/AVCA Player of the Week. Ogle set the school record for most assists in a single season, while earning the career mark with over 3,000 to her credit.

"The addition of Elly in the setting position will allow some great versatility, as she adds a different level of athleticism to that position," Flory said.

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

Fortifying the back row for the Tigers begins with Haley Smith who played in all 30 matches with 28 starts at the libero position, where her 500 digs for the year was sixth most in LSU history for a 3.97 digs per set average which was seventh in the SEC and seventh all-time at LSU. On seven occasions, Smith dug up at least 20 balls in a match, with 26 matches of at least 10.

After transferring from Texas State, Laura Whalen appeared in 22 matches and started four in her first season as a Tiger. Along with averaging nearly two digs per set, Whalen fired off 16 service aces, the third-most by an LSU player on the team on the season.

Another addition as a defensive specialist, as well as a top-notch setter if called upon, is Cheyenne Wood out of North Carolina. Wood lost just two matches in her final two years at Cardinal Gibbons High School, as she was a four-time state champion and was named the Class 3A MVP of the state championship game.

The final newcomer to the group is Kelly Quinn, who was named to the USA Today All-USA team and a PrepVolleyball.com High School All-American after accumulating over 2,200 digs and 100 aces at The Woodlands High School. Quinn led her team to the UIL Class 5A state championship and was named to the all-tournament team in the process.

"The libero spot may be the most competitive position, as we have 5 different players who could fill that role," Flory said. "Haley, Katie, Laura, Kelly and Cheyenne are all very talented, and respond well to what we expect from them in that position."

HEAD COACH

Fran Flory enters her 17th season at the helm of the LSU volleyball program after leading the Tigers to seven NCAA Tournament berths in the last nine seasons. The 2009 Southeastern Conference [SEC] and American Volleyball Coaches Association [AVCA] South Region Coach of the Year, Flory was hired as the program's fifth coach leading into the 1998 season and has returned the Tigers to national prominence during her tenure.

LSU has been nothing short of spectacular and continues to raise its level of success under Flory. The Tigers have averaged 21.4 wins per season since 2005, including the 2009 SEC championship which ended Florida's 18-year reign atop the conference and seven of the last eight SEC Western Division titles since 2005. The seven straight division titles was the second-longest streak in SEC history, while the six consecutive NCAA Tournament bids from 2005-10 are a program record.

Flory has coached nine AVCA All-South Region First-Team picks which include a pair of AVCA All-Americans from 2007-09. It marked the first time in program history that LSU recorded three straight seasons with multiple All-America selections. The Tigers also have secured 39 All-SEC selections highlighted by 14 First-Team honorees.

Continuing the team's run of individual accomplishments, Briana Holman etched her name among some of the best in only one season as she became the first freshman to earn honorable mention AVCA

All-American status, AVCA All-South Region Freshman of the Year and AVCA All-South Region team. Holman was also All-SEC, All-SEC Freshman Team and the Louisiana Player of the Year.

Brittnee Cooper added to LSU's rich heritage as the program's first player to collect SEC Player of the Year accolades in 2009. She also became the third player in program history to secure AVCA All-America First-Team honors joining the elite company of Monique Adams (1991) and Angie Miller (1992).

Elena Martinez picked up 2007 and 2008 SEC Defensive Player of the Year in addition to a pair of AVCA All-America Honorable Mention nods. She reeled in 1,414 career digs to rank second in program history.

LSU has been represented on the national stage as a part of USA Volleyball Women's A2 National Team during six of the last seven seasons. Flory captured a gold medal in May 2011 after leading the USA A2 Blue squad to a 7-1 record. Cooper and Martinez won gold in May 2008, Cooper added a silver medal in May 2009, former assistant coach Steve Loeswick garnered a bronze medal in May 2010 and Meghan Mannari tallied a silver medal in June 2012. This past season, Helen Boyle won gold with the USA Blue squad at the Girls Junior National Championships in Minnesota, while Holman went on a tour of China with one of the collegiate national teams, where her side finished second overall after 10 days of competition abroad.

On the state level, LSU has dominated with 52 All-Louisiana selections highlighted by 33 First-Team honors. The five-time Louisiana Coach of the Year also has led her players to every individual state award which includes six overall players, four defensive players, four freshmen and two newcomers of the year.

However, Flory's success at LSU hasn't been solely on the court. The Tigers have registered 108 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, and Madie Jones was LSU's nominee for the prestigious SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award in April 2013.

In each of the last three seasons, LSU's senior classes have created and championed their own philanthropic projects to benefit the Baton Rouge community. The "Geaux Kids" initiative collected a host of clothing and other related items for needy children, while "PAWS in the PMAC" collected close to 1,250 items ranging from food to toys that were donated to the Capital Area Animal Welfare Society in 2012. LSU donated nearly 3,000 books as part of the "Geaux Books" campaign to replenish the library at Dufrocq Elementary School following the 2011 season.

Ojie began his coaching career at Tulane from 1999-2003. The Green Wave had four hitters collect All-Conference USA citations. Tulane averaged 15.33 kills per set and the team's hitting percentage increased by 25 points during his five seasons.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Shalini Gogawale enters her second year on the LSU volleyball staff as the Director of Operations for the indoor and sand programs. She is involved in all facets of the programs and her responsibilities include team travel, budget, travel, equipment and camps. She also serves as the program's liaison to several departments.

Gogawale joined the Tigers with five years of operations experience most recently a one-year stint with the women's lacrosse program at the University of Michigan. She was instrumental in creating and implementing many aspects of the program's operational day-to-day structure in preparation for the Wolverines inaugural 2013-14 season.

Gogawale's previous experience in volleyball came at the University of Florida during the 2010 and 2011 seasons where she was responsible for all behind-the-scenes tasks for the program which included day-to-day office operations, team travel, ordering and distribution of equipment, game day responsibilities, assisting with recruiting correspondence and NCAA compliance in regards to recruiting, and was also the liaison to the programs booster club, the Gator Attack Club. She also oversaw the volleyball budget and supervised the student manager staff and operations assistants. Beyond her duties as the director of operations, she also served as the Gators' Director of Volleyball Camp Operations, which saw over 1,500 youth participants. She was responsible for up to six camps per summer and handled logistics for all camps.

Prior to her time at Florida, Gogawale spent one year as the Assistant Director of Women's Basketball Operations at Oregon State University from 2009-10. She assisted with all operations for the Beavers, including day-to-day office operations, film exchange, video operations, team manager supervision and also served as the liaison between the marketing and women's basketball offices.

In 2009, Gogawale got her start in operations while working with the women's basketball program at the University of California. There, she handled the day-to-day office operations and assisted with the program's recruiting database, budget, camps and special events.

Before getting her start in operations, she was an Assistant Tutorial Coordinator at Cal from 2008-2009, where she developed and monitored quiet study programs with 20 undergraduate monitors under her supervision. She also worked as a Student-Athlete Development Intern at Cal from 2007-08. In that position, she assisted student-athletes with career development and supervised over 60 student-athletes in the department's Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

From 2006-07, Gogawale served as a Diversity and Inclusion Intern for the NCAA in Indianapolis, Ind. In this role, she researched various issues about diversity in the work environment and she assisted with the planning and execution of several leadership institutes and conferences.

As an undergraduate, she also served as an Athletics Financial Aid Coordinator and Compliance Assistant. Upon graduation from SIU, she was awarded the NCAA Ethnic Minority Postgraduate Scholarship. Gogawale went on to earn a master's of arts degree in education from the University of California in May 2009.

With the start of the 2014 season right around the corner, I know that I, as well as the rest of the staff, cannot be more excited for the arrival of the new year. When we all returned to campus and began to talk about our goals for this season and what we wanted to accomplish, I saw a group of student-athletes completely focused on the task at hand and what they wanted their legacy for this season to be.

The motto for this season is "Compelled". Although that might be a little unassuming, the genesis of the statement comes from what happened toward the end of last season at the NCAA Tournament. At the final press conference after the Washington match, the players talked about what they were going to do to put this program on the map, and making a compelling case for how they were going to do so. Even with a summer away, this team is one of the most conditioned and fit groups heading into the start of the season that I have ever coached.

We return six starters and 11 total letterwinners from last year's team, including AVCA Honorable Mention All-American middle blocker Briana Holman, Cati Leak, Malorie Pardo, Helen Boyle, Katie Lindelow and Haley Smith, with returning veterans Madi Mahaffey, Laura Whalen, Emily Ehrle, Khoutrni Fears and Katarina Raicevic.

The team has also been fortunate to bring in one of the top rated recruiting classes in the nation over the summer, which will help drive the competition of our team as a whole and keep the tradition of LSU volleyball alive and prosperous in the coming years. We are excited to add Kelly Quinn, Elly Ogle, Mimi Eugene, Gina Tillis, Kelly Esch, Cheyenne Wood and Toni Rodriguez to the squad and look forward to watching them grow in the Purple and Gold.

It's the nature of our program to aim high. We have won 190 matches and seven of the last eight SEC Western Division titles since 2005. We also are one of 34 programs to appear in seven of the last nine NCAA Tournaments and look forward to the challenge of building on our championship tradition.

The purpose of this letter is to ask for your financial help. LSU is an amazing University and our athletic department provides many amazing opportunities for our student-athletes. What we need from each of you is that little extra that allows us to be just that much better than the next program.

A big part and an important piece of our program being able to build on its championship tradition is you. It's your support that is the cornerstone of our program from a financial perspective. It's your contributions allow us to not only provide a good experience for our student-athletes, but to truly provide a great experience for them. These funds are used to enhance our facilities and enrich the opportunities for our student athletes.

We appreciate all that you have done for our program in the past and all that you will continue to do for our program in the future. Without your unconditional loyalty and steadfast support, we would not have the ability to accomplish these goals. Please encourage others to join along with you. ### 2013 SEES RETURN TO POSTSEASON FOR LSU

After missing out on the postseason for two consecutive seasons, the LSU volleyball team made its return to the postseason in 2013, and it was a memorable one as the Tigers raced out to a 7-0 start, eventually going on to win 10 of their first 11 matches before ending the season in Seattle, Washington for the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

It was the seventh tournament appearance in nine seasons for LSU, as the Tigers have won 190 victories since 2005, along with being one of just 29 teams across the country to make it to the national tournament seven times in each of the last nine seasons.

Facing No. 24 Michigan, LSU rallied after dropping the first two sets of the match to claim the last three and win its first round game for the first time since 2009. LSU only had two players on the roster with any postseason experience in Desiree Elliott and Laura Whalen who was in her first season as a Tiger after transferring from Texas State.

GOING THE DISTANCE

LSU had a flare for the dramatics during its thrilling campaign, as during the year the team went to five sets 14 times, winning nine of those contests which tied the 1985 group with the most ever in a single season in Baton Rouge.

Including the thrilling win against nationally-ranked Michigan in the NCAA Tournament, LSU defeated San Diego State, Miami to end its record home winning streak, North Texas, Baylor, Texas A&M, Arkansas, Georgia and Tennessee. The wins against the Wolverines, Hurricanes, Lady Bears and Aggies were all 2-0, comeback affairs.

BLOCK PARTY

Over the course of the season, the LSU defense produced some huge numbers at the net, aiding in the team's success over the course of the year to the tune of a 2.70 blocks per set average which led the SEC and was 23rd overall in the nation.

Finishing the season with 366.0 total blocks, the Tigers easily cleared 2012's total of 246.5, as the team finished with 19 games with double-digit blocking efforts, headlined by a 21-stuff effort at Miami, with 20 coming against Auburn during conference play. It was the first time that an LSU team had earned 20 blocks in a match since August of 2009.

Leading the charge at the net was Briana Holman who finished with 200 on the year, as her 1.54 blocks per set average led the conference and was fifth in the nation. By the end of the season, LSU had six players with 50 blocks or more on the year.

ELLIOTT CLOSES OUTSTANDING CAREER IN PURPLE AND GOLD

After four impressive years of service to the LSU volleyball team, Desiree Elliott put a cap on her career in Purple and Gold with another outstanding season that saw her leave Baton Rouge 13th on the all-time kills list with 1,182 for her career.

The 2013 All-SEC preseason team selection played in 406 total sets and 111 matches since joining the squad in 2010, averaging 2.91 kills per set and a lifetime .260 hitting percentage. She became the 20th player in team history to amass 1,000 kills in her career in the very first match of the 2013 season, going on to earn all-tournament honors at the Tiger Classic.

Over the course of her career she was able to earn 21 different awards, along with being fifth on the active career kill leaders in the SEC, including Louisiana Freshman of the Year, SEC Freshman of the Year, first team All-SEC and first team All-Louisiana.

With 64 career matches with double-digit kills, Elliott registered 375 total blocks at the net, nearly averaging a block per set over the course of her tenure. In her first two years alone she had 109 and 102, falling one shy of hitting the century mark in her junior year with 99.

Away from the court, Elliott began the "Geaux Kids" project that collected various items for the St. Vincent de Paul and Bishop Ott Shelter Program, including children's clothes and shoes, baby supplies and toys, that were then dispersed at the end of the year to both charities. It was the third consecutive year for the senior philanthropy project.

FLORY NOTCHES 400TH CAREER VICTORY

On the road in a hostile environment, the LSU team was not only able to battle back from a two-set deficit in College Station against Texas A&M to win, but also give Fran Flory her 400th career victory as a head coach.

After beginning her career nearly 30 years ago at Wittenberg, Flory, in her 16th season at the helm of the Tigers program, has averaged over 20 wins per season since 2005, and has never finished a season in Baton Rouge with less than double-digit wins in each of her seasons as head coach. In her career as a whole, including stops at Southeastern Louisiana and Kentucky, the Baton Rouge native has never won less than 10 games in any season, while earning 20 victories or more six times.

She finished the season with 408 wins and counting, and along with her overall number, she is just two wins shy of earning 300 for her LSU career, which would make her just the second to earn that many in an LSU tenure. Flory is just the third coach ever at LSU to win more than 100 games, and with 298, she is 10 shy of tying Scott Luster for most by an LSU coach all-time.

Her 264 SEC wins are the most all-time in program history, as her seven trips to the NCAA Tournament are the most by Tiger coach as well.

GEAUX KIDS COLLECTS ITEMS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON

Continuing the tradition of the LSU volleyball senior class philanthropy project, lone senior Desiree Elliott decided to team up with St. Vincent de Paul and Bishop Ott Shelter Program for the "Geaux Kids" initiative.

The season-long project championed by Elliott, collected items at every home match, ranging from children's clothes and shoes, baby supplies and toys, that were then dispersed at the end of the year to both charities.

It was the third straight year that the squad has picked a charity to call its own, as in 2012 the "PAWS in the PMAC" campaign raised close to 1,250 items ranging from food to toys that were donated to the Capital Area Animal Welfare Society.

In the 2011 season, the "Geaux Books" drive collected and distributed nearly 3,000 books that went into replenishing the library at Dufrocq Elementary school.

SAND VOLLEYBALL COMPLETES FIRST SEASON

On March 18, 2014, the newest sport on the LSU campus made its debut with the very first sand volleyball match at Mango's against the ULM Warhawks. The sand volleyball program became the 21st varsity sport at LSU, and is the first added sport since women's soccer and softball were added in the 1996-97 athletic year.

With the mix of both sand-only and indoor players, the Tigers won six matches in the 2014 season under Fran Flory and associate head coach Russell Brock, with victories over Oregon, South Carolina, Jacksonville, Florida Gulf Coast and UAB.

Meghan Mannari and Katie Lindelow competed on court one throughout the season and led the team in victories with an overall 16-13 record. The pair captured the Silver bracket title at the Fiesta on Siesta Key after a nail-biting 2-1 triumph over Grand Canyon's Mackenzie Phelps and Kelli Dallmann and advanced to the semifinal round of the Gold bracket in the FIU Surf & Turf.

The duo of Helen Boyle and Kaitlin Hatcher maintained the court-two spot and recorded a 14-12 season mark. Boyle and Hatcher advanced to the Silver bracket semifinals during the Fiesta on Siesta Key and competed in the quarterfinal round of the FIU Surf & Turf tournament Gold bracket.

Court three saw early success in Victoria Boraski and Cati Leak, as the pair tallied an 8-5 record and a six-match winning streak before Leak faced injury and did not compete for the remainder of the season. The duo went undefeated during the Gamecock Invitational, with wins against College of Charleston, Oregon, South Carolina and Mercer.

HOLMAN HAULS IN MAJOR HARDWARE

With just one season in the books, Briana Holman is on pace for a record-breaking LSU career as she earned 14 awards on the season, culminating with being named the Louisiana Player of the Year by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

After finishing with 391 kills, a 3.01 kills per set average, team-leading .327 hitting percentage and freshman record 200 total blocks, Holman became the first freshman in program history to be named AVCA honorable mention, AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year and AVCA All-South Region in the same season. She also became the third player in team history to be named All-SEC and to the All-SEC Freshman Team in the same year.

Holman earned All-Tournament and Tournament MVP honors at the Rice Invitational early in the season, on her way to earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors on three separate occasions, twice in September and once in November. The two nods in September were due in part to earning double-digit kills in each of her first 10 matches. She was named the SEC offensive player of the week on Oct. 15, after averaging 3.38 kills and 1.50 blocks per set with a .417 hitting percentage.

Along with being named state's top player, she was also a first team All-Louisiana selection and shared the LSWA Freshman of the Year honors.

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

Coming off its second undefeated conference championship in as many seasons, LSU cruised past Louisville behind a .337 team hitting percentage in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the Maravich Center.

The Tigers dismissed Texas Tech 3-0 in round two as Daniela Reis set a balanced attack that featured 15 kills from Nyla Shepherd, 12 kills from Monique Adams and 10 kills from Julie Stempel.

LSU had its 1986 season end one step shy of the Final Four at Texas and were swept by the Longhorns during the 1990 regular season in Austin. Down 2-0 to the host Longhorns, LSU mounted a rally behind Adams, Shepherd and Stempel.

The trio combined for 74 of the Tigers' 91 kills and posted double-doubles as LSU fought back for a 8-15, 4-15, 15-10, 15-11, 17-15 triumph to advance to the program's first Final Four.

The Tigers fell to eventual national champion UCLA, 3-0, in the national semifinals, but the future was bright as Adams, Shepherd and Stempel would return for their senior seasons in 1991.

1991 • Record: 35-2

SEC Champions • SEC Tournament Champions NCAA Final Four

LSU fired out to a 12-0 record to start the 1991 season highlighted by wins over No. 11 New Mexico and No. 17 Texas before being upended at Florida to open SEC play.

The Tigers bounced back in a big way reeling off 20 consecutive victories en route to its third consecutive SEC regular season and tournament championships.

Only losing 12 games during the season, LSU entered the NCAA Tournament as a favorite to return to the Final Four and the Tigers did not disappoint shutting down Houston in the first round to advance to the South Regional, which the Tigers hosted.

After sweeping Texas Tech, LSU faced off with Florida for the fourth time in '91. Monique Adams and Daniela Reis set a program single-game marks. Adams cranked 43 kills on an amazing .507 hitting percentage, while Reis dished out 82 assists. Angie Miller (10 kills, 29 digs), Luciana Reis (12 kills, 22 digs) and Julie Stempel (11 kills, 12 digs) also tacked on double-doubles as LSU punched its second straight ticket to the Final Four.

LSU dropped a hard-fought, four-game duel with Long Beach State in the national semifinals. Until Florida in 2002, the 1991 Tigers were the only SEC squad to win a game in the Final Four.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his sixth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, reinforcing his position as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary program. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. He launched an aggressive fund-raising campaign to replace several hundred windows in Tiger Stadium that were in disrepair, and a new coating to the facade of the structure has given the old stadium new life. A renovated gating system on the west side of the stadium debuted in the fall of 2012 to include a plaza that celebrates LSU's football national championships and recognition walls that honor Tiger All-Americans. A new plaza will open on the north end of the stadium in the fall of 2013, further enriching the experience of visitors to the LSU campus.

A new lighting system was installed prior to last season that turns the upper archways of the north end of the stadium purple and gold and lights the iconic "LSU" on the stadium's north scoreboard. In addition, "Tiger Stadium" in 10-foot tall illuminated letters sits just below the west upper deck facing Nicholson Drive.

Also in the fall of 2012, LSU began construction on an expansion of the South End Zone of the stadium – a project that will add premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. The project will be completed in time for the start of the 2014 football season.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program received a state-of-the-art running surface in 2010 when a new track was installed in Bernie Moore Stadium and extensive renovations to the Tiger soccer facility were completed in the fall of 2011.

Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. The renovated course helped prepare Tiger golfers John Peterson and Austin Ernst, respectively, to win 2011 NCAA men's and women's individual championships, marking the first time both titles were claimed by players from the same school. The LSU men's team in 2013 played host to an NCAA Regional for the first time in the school's illustrious golf history.

Future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts, and a state-of-the-art Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists and provide the best dietary selections for all Fighting Tiger competitors.

LSU's prominence was evident in the final 2012-13 Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs, as the Tigers finished in the Top 20 for the eighth consecutive year.

The year was highlighted by another 10-win season and bowl appearance for the Fighting Tiger football team, which recorded a double-digit victory total for the sixth time in eight years. The men's basketball program was rejuvenated by first-year coach Johnny Jones, who directed the Tigers to a 19-12 mark while placing LSU back into consideration for a postseason berth. Women's basketball continued its rise under second-year coach Nikki Caldwell, who guided the Lady Tigers to LSU's first Sweet 16 berth in five years.

The 2013 Fighting Tiger baseball team established a school record for victories with 57 and earned the school's 16th College World Series appearance while capturing SEC Western Division and SEC Tournament titles. The softball squad won the SEC West and played host to an NCAA Regional in Tiger Park before record crowds. The LSU gymnastics team reached the prestigious Super Six for the third time in six seasons, and the women's track team, led by Bowerman Award winner and national sprint champion Kimberlyn Duncan, placed fourth in the final NCAA outdoor standings.

But the 2012-13 year was about more than just athletic success. Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes logged more than 4,475 hours in community service work across 20 sports through LSU's Geaux Givers program. And a total of 89 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May.

The Tigers in 2011-12 finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital

One Cup competition that identifies athletic excellence. LSU was one of only two schools in the country – and the only one in the SEC – to rank in the top four in both categories.

Eighteen of the Tigers' 20 varsity sports participated in NCAA postseason competition in 2011-12. The year was highlighted by the football team's undefeated regular season, an SEC championship and an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game. The Lady Tiger track and field team captured the SEC championship while the LSU softball squad advanced to the Women's College World Series. The Fighting Tiger baseball team won the 2012 SEC championship, and LSU led the nation in attendance for the 17th straight season. The 2011-12 season marked the first time in school history that LSU won both the SEC title in both football and baseball in the same athletic year.

Outstanding performances of the 2010-11 athletic season included the exploits of the Fighting Tiger football squad that posted an 11-2 mark – including a Cotton Bowl victory – and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. The year also featured Top 5 national finishes both indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

In 2008-09, all 20 LSU sports competed in NCAA postseason play for the first time in school history and the Tiger baseball team won the national championship. LSU ranked second among Southeastern Conference teams in the Learfield Director's Cup All-Sports standings and finished in the Top 20 for the sixth year in a row.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. The facility was recently enhanced by the addition of a media training center that gives student-athletes valuable assistance in improving their communications skills.

And with a strong emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" program fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. In addition, Alleva has bolstered the department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes.

Alleva oversees a staff of outstanding coaches and he has made critical additions to LSU's coaching staff in recent years. He hired former LSU guard Johnny Jones in April 2012 to breathe new life and enthusiasm into the men's basketball program and last year added Julia Sell as the new women's tennis coach. In 2011, he lured the dynamic Nikki Caldwell to LSU to coach the Lady Tiger basketball team and then hired Beth Torina to direct the Tiger softball program, both of whom immediately returned their respective programs to NCAA postseason success.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a two-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts nearly 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva has served on numerous national committees throughout his career including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

He became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny. Joe and Annie recently welcomed their first grandchild, Harper, the daughter of Jenny and husband Kyle Young.
