Media Guidelines

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for LSU home women's basketball games should be made by emailing Women's Basketball SID Jennifer Rodrigues at jrodrigues@lsu.edu. Single-game credentials must be requested 24 hours in advance.

All credentials which cannot be mailed are left at the willcall media table inside the Northeast Corridor entrance of the Maravich Center

News media covering the Lady Tigers on a regular basis will be issued a season parking pass. Other parking passes will be handled on a game-by-game basis.

Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of television and radio stations. Requests from individuals not employed by a media outlet will not be considered. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not permitted in the working press area. LSU reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2016-17 LSU Women's Basketball Media Guide is a source of information for the news media. Additional information is available upon request from the LSU Sports Information Office.

News releases, photographs, digital images and video will be made available to accredited members of the media.

The LSU Sports Information Office is located on the fifth floor of the Athletic Administration Building.

PRESS WORK AREA

The press room is located in the Northeast Corridor of the Maravich Center. Three telephones are available on a firstcome, first-serve basis. Please notify a member of the Sports Information staff for use of a phone.

POST GAME INTERVIEWS

Post game interviews will be held in the Interview Room approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Interview Room is located in the LSU Basketball Practice Facility.

GAME INFORMATION

Game information will be provided on press row. Statistics will be distributed at the end of each quarter and complete books will be available approximately 15 minutes after the game

LSU also provides real time statistics through its touch-screen stat iPads and live stats are also available through www.LSU.StatBroadcast.com.

Courtesy phone lines and ISDN lines are installed on press row for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference teams. Other teams wishing to broadcast a game must contact Chris Blair of the LSU Sports Radio Network at (225) 578-1882.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

LSU will follow NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives photographing the game. Photographers are limited to the designated space along the end line of the playing court.

No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, and equipment carriers. Photographers will not be permitted to shoot from the sidelines. All photographers must remain seated on the floor in areas directly in front of fans on the baseline. Videotaping from a kneeling position will not be permitted.

Photo positions may be assigned by the LSU Sports Information Office prior to selected games. Please see the credential and access guidelines for more information.

TV RIGHTS, SATELLITE TRUCKS

The right to televise LSU women's basketball games is solely that of the University and the Southeastern Conference. Permission to televise the game must be granted by the Athletic Director's Office at LSU and the Commissioner's Office of the Southeastern Conference.

Telecasting entities should contact Coordinator of Electronic Media Kevin Wagner at (225) 578-1797 for information regarding setup. Sound microphone technicians will sit at press row, when seats are available or at a designated spot in front of press row that does not block any sold advertising panels. There is no midcourt break for television.

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck parking and must have the truck in place at least two hours prior to tipoff. All production and uplink trucks should contact Dreyfus Milstead, Operations Manager of the Maravich Center, (225) 5788205, regarding arrival time and setup logistics.

WIRELESS INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available in the press room and on press row of the Maravich Center.

For information on how to access please ask Jennifer Rodrigues. Wireless information sheets will be provided prior to every home game.

COVERING PRACTICES

Please contact Jennifer Rodrigues at (225) 578-1869 or jrodrigues@lsu.edu at least 24 hours prior to practice if you wish to attend any of LSU's practices.

Most of LSU's practices are open to the media. Interviews with Coach Fargas and the student-athletes will be conducted before practice on select days prior to competitions.

INTERNET AUDIO/VIDEO

Starting in 2016-17, online streaming of all LSU Sports Radio Network programming will be free of charge. At least 165 LSU Sports Radio Network live-game broadcasts and 77 coaches' radio shows will be streamed for free on "LSUsports.net Live" this season. All on-demand video and live video of non-game action such as press conferences, coaches' televisions shows and special presentations will be subscription-free as well. The service is available by visiting LSUsports.net/live. Included in the service will be the weekly one-hour radio show, "The Nikki Fargas Show presented by Capital One Bank," and "Inside Lady Tigers Basketball with Nikki Fargas."

For the 18th-consecutive season, LSU Athletics will stream all radio network broadcasts for football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, and softball; along with regularly scheduled press conferences, coaches' shows and postseason events.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Tammy Wilson is the women's basketball media director for the Southeastern Conference. Any questions regarding SEC women's basketball should be directed to her at (205) 458-3010 or via email at twilson@sec.org.

- Player of the Week: The SEC will name a Player of the Week and a Freshman of the Week throughout the season. Each week's selection will be announced on Tuesday morning for Tuesday afternoon publication.
- SEC Website: The SEC website (www.secsports.com) can be accessed 24 hours a day. Current league standings, statistics, notes, and other information regarding women's basketball are available.

CREDENTIAL AND ACCESS GUIDELINES

LSU's goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria will be considered for access to LSU athletic events.

The number of credentials issued is limited by available resources. Due to space and facility restrictions, access, seat assignments on press row as well as sideline photography will be made on a space-available basis. In some situations, pool reporting may be necessary.

PRINT

- Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on newspaper's circulation on a space-available basis.
- Weekly newspapers must be members of the Louisiana Press Association and those sports writers must be members of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association to request credentials. Weekly newspapers based on requests will be limited to non-conference games if space exists.
- Specialty publications that cover college basketball or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted on a space-available basis.
- Student newspapers from the city of the two teams are able to apply for credentials on the basis of a maximum of two press row seats for dailies and one press row seat for weeklies.

TELEVISION

- Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that originate in the locale of the station that includes sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space-available basis.
- Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply on a space-available basis.

RADIO

- National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.
- Radio stations that employ a full-time sports director or regularly air sports news or locally-produced talk shows are eligible to apply for credentials. No talk show may have more than one credential and the maximum credentials a station may receive for a game, based on space availability, is two.

INTERNET

- Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the media relations director) are eligible to apply for credentials.
- LSU's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is gathering news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.
- Other internet sites must meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.
- Website must be a legal, corporate entity.
- Website must provide daily coverage of LSU or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
- Website must travel to and cover a majority of away games and all major post-season events.
- Website must be accredited by the home university as working media
- Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms as their primary function where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials.
- The maximum number of credentials that a website may receive is two based on space availability and the discretion of the media relations director.

INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an LSU media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by LSU and the Southeastern Conference:

- The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:
- No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.
- It is agreed that video is NOT to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video may be shown as part of a single online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program.
- While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g. updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.
- Should any of these conditions be breached, LSU and/ or the SEC will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Basketball Tournament. A second violation of this policy will results in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF CREDENTIALS

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

All press credentials remain the property of the LSU Athletics Department and must be returned on request.

LSUSPORTS.NET LIVE

As part of a continued effort to expand the LSU brand and enhance fan experience, the LSU Athletics Department announced that online streaming of all LSU Sports Radio Network programming will be free of charge on desktop and mobile devices in 2016-17. At least 165 LSU Sports Radio Network live-game broadcasts and 77 coaches' radio shows will be streamed for free on "LSUsports.net Live" this season.

The LSU Sports Radio Network, in its 29th year, is one of the most progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate over 250 live events in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball.

The Eagle 98.1 is the home of football and baseball, while New Country 100.7 FM The Tiger is the home of LSU men's basketball. WBRP-FM (107.3 FM) serves as the flagship station for women's basketball with WNXX-FM (104.5/104.9) as the home of softball.

In addition to live events, network programming also includes a weekly live coach's show for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball.

Chris Blair
Director of Broadcasting
Chris Blair joined the LSU Sports Network, serving as the director of radio broadcasting as well as the "Voice of the Tigers" for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Blair, Georgia Southern's radio voice for 10 seasons, was named in June 2015 as the next "Voice of the Tigers" and he officially joined the LSU Athletics Department on Dec. 7, 2015.

Blair's resume covers virtually all aspects of broadcasting, with broadcast management and marketing positions in Greenville and Columbia, South Carolina. Blair basically grew up inside a radio station, working at age 14 for his father, also a long-time broadcaster. His college broadcast experience includes working for the Clemson Tiger Sports Network and at Lander University.

Blair spent 10 years as play-by-play announcer for prep powerhouse Greenwood High School in South Carolina and handled the play-by-play for four state championship football games at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, South Carolina.

Along with his play-by-play duties for Georgia Southern, Blair handled all the behind-the-scenes aspects with affiliate relations, network marketing plans and overall sound presentation of GSU Athletics on the air and on the Internet. He also hosted the weekly coaches radio shows and was the host for the weekly television show for GSU basketball.

Blair, 42 , is married to the former Amber Anders and they have two children, Crafton Christopher and Rivers Elisabeth.

Patrick Wright
Play-by-Play Announcer
Patrick Wright begins his 27th season as the "Voice of the Lady Tigers" on the LSU Sports Radio Network. Wright, considered one of the top play-by-play broadcasters of women's games, is also in his 21 st year of calling softball games for LSU. In addition, he serves as statistician and locker room producer for all LSU football broadcasts on the network.

Wright is the host for the weekly Nikki Fargas Show Presented by Capital One Bank and, he also serves as the Voice of the Golden Band from Tigerland on Saturday's in Tiger Stadium.

During Wright's career behind the mike for LSU, the Baton Rouge native has called five NCAA Women's Final Four and four College Softball World Series.

Wright earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from LSU in 1992 and a master's degree in math education in 1995. He currently teaches math at the Dunham School in Baton Rouge.

VIDEO PRODUCTIONS

David Landry

Director of Media Productions
David Landry begins his 10th season since returning to the Television Department in 2006.
The Baton Rouge native spent 12 years in television production in the Baton Rouge area after serving as a full-time television producer for LSU Athletics from 1990-94. He was also involved in LSU Athletics television production from 198890 during his time as a student at the University.

Landry graduated from LSU in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism. He is married to the former Kim Segura of Baton Rouge and has two sons, Patrick and John.

Lee Scioneaux

Production Manager
Lee Scioneaux starts his third year working with LSU Sports Productions, bringing his 26 years of experience in video production and marketing.

Scioneaux started his career in 1991 working at a Baton Rouge based video production facility and then in 1998 co-founded and operated his own production operation.

In 2008, Scioneaux joined the corporate world as a marketing director focusing on online media & production.

A native of LaPlace, and a 1990 graduate in broadcast journalism at LSU, Scioneaux married the former Michele Doming of Lutcher and they have three children - Seth, Gabe, and Marie.

Andrew Franzella
Video Production Specialist
Andrew Franzella begins his third season with the LSU Athletics Television Department in 2016-17, but his second as a full-time staff member. He serves as a production specialist in LSU Sports Productions.
The Mandeville, La., native spent four years working part-time in television production before joining the LSU Athletics Television Department as an intern in 2014.

Franzella graduated from LSU in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications. He is married to the former Lauren Melancon of Madisonville, La.

SEC NETWORK HAS SUCCESSFUL DEBUT

On August 14, 2014, SEC Network launched in 62 million homes nationwide. On that day, SEC Network became the most successful new channel launch in cable history and it hasn't stopped going since. Currently boasting 70 million subscribers, the network produced 1,500 events surrounded by 1,400 hours of original programming in its debut year.

Prior to launch, SEC Network committed to airing a total of 1,000 events annually - comprised of both television and school-produced digital events. By April, the multiplatform network had reached 1,000 digital events alone, doubling the expectations for SEC Network Plus.

All 14 schools have at least one control room, fibered sports facilities and a bureau cam room. The network utilizes more than 23,000 feet of fiber - nearly the circumference of the world - to connect the schools to SEC Network headquarters in Charlotte, N.C.
The 2014-15 season marked the first of a 20 -year agreement between the SEC and ESPN to create and operate the SEC Network, which carries SEC content 24/7/365. Programming on the SEC Network also includes in-depth commentary and analysis, in-studio shows, daily news and information, as well as original content such as SEC Storied, SEC Now and more.

The wall-to-wall women's basketball coverage has every SEC game televised on the SEC Network, SEC Network Plus, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or FSN.

SEC Network Plus games are exclusively available online at www.SECNetwork.com and www.WatchESPN.com the events also can be streamed live on computers, tablets and phones.

In 2014, the LSU Athletic Department completely gutted a television production control room that had been operating for videoboard production since 1999, refitted it with brand new state-of-the-art HD production equipment, and built two multi-million dollar control rooms in its place. The facility is capable of producing two simultaneous events for SECNetwork+ productions as well as for videoboard productions.

Kevin Wagner, Assistant Athletic Director for Network Television Operations, oversees a crew of two full-time and 16 professional freelance workers to produce live television events for SECNetwork+. LSU's television network can facilitate live productions for football, men's and women's basketball, gymnastics, volleyball, soccer, softball and baseball.

The crew produces approximately 70 live television events for SECNetwork + , and live productions can be accessed online on smart TVs, and on digital devices (computers, laptops, smart phones) through the WatchESPN app or at WatchESPN.com.

Kevin Wagner

Assistant Athletic Director/Television Operations
In April, 2014, Kevin Wagner was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Television Operations, and Wagner oversees the LSU Athletic Department's responsibilities for the SEC Television Network.
Included in those responsibilities is the production of all live digital sports events originating at LSU for ESPN3 and the SEC Network. Wagner also oversees and coordinates all other television production projects for the LSU Athletic Department.
For 25 years before his involvement with SEC Network, Wagner served as the Executive Producer/ Director for LSU's four major coaches' television shows (Inside LSU Football, Inside LSU Basketball, Inside LSU Baseball, and Inside Lady Tigers Basketball), and he coordinated video production for LSU's video scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and Alex Box Stadium.

Wagner joined LSU's Television department as Assistant Coordinator in August of 1989, and was promoted to Coordinator of Electronic Media/Television in July of 1994.

A 1980 graduate of LSU in broadcast journalism, Wagner was a four-year Tiger letterman in diving (1975-79), earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1979 on the three-meter springboard.

A native of Houston with 38 years of television production experience, Wagner and his wife Karen have two daughters - Allyson and Jennifer - and six grandchildren: Kaleigh, Randy, Conner, Tanner, Carson, and Kyndal.

John Schiebe

Assistant Director/Television Operations
John Schiebe begins his 23rd season in the LSU Athletics Television Department. He came to LSU in August of 1994 from the University of Mississippi where he served as post-production supervisor in the Teleproductions Center.

Schiebe served as a production assistant in Educational Television Services at Oklahoma State from 1984-87 before becoming a producer/director in Agricultural Communications at OSU from 1987-93 when he joined Ole Miss. A 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State, he was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota and attended high school in Oxford, Mississippi.

Schiebe, who has been instrumental in videoboard direction in past years, added a new role assisting with the athletic department's association with the SEC Network.

Schiebe is married to the former Mollie Clements of Memphis, Tenn., and they have two children, Tom and Pat.

Over the past 13 seasons, LSU has emerged as one of the most popular schools in today's media spotlight. Under the direction of coach Nikki Fargas, media publicity for the Lady Tigers has soared to even further heights. LSU games are routinely televised to national audiences whether it's on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or the newly created SEC Network. In each of the last five seasons, LSU has had no fewer than five nationally televised games on its schedule.

In addition, the Lady Tigers have been featured in several national publications and the focal point of several national sporting websites, including ESPN.com, the New York Times, USA Today, ESPN the Magazine, Sports Illustrated for Kids and SLAM Magazine. Following the Lady Tigers' upset of No. 7 West Virginia during the 2014 NCAA Tournament, LSU drew national headlines on ESPN.com and NCAAsports.com.

Since its first Final Four season of 2004, the Lady Tigers have been televised to a national audience on the ESPN Family of Networks 96 times. In total, LSU has had 239 games televised since 2003-04. LSU experienced expanded television coverage during the 201415 season with the creation of the SEC Network, which televised seven Lady Tigers games. In the last two seasons, LSU has had 17 contests televised by the SEC Network.

In addition, 24 games over the last two years have been produced by in-house campus production crews and streamed online through SEC Network Plus.

2017 SEC Tournament

March 1-5 • Bon Secours Wellness Arena • Greenville, S.C.

With eight national championships, 10 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 35 Final Four appearances and 121 first-team All-America honors, the SEC stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

On Feb. 7, 1980, the first SEC women's basketball tournament began play. It ended four days later with Tennessee defeating Ole Miss for the title. Fast forward 37 years later and the SEC Tournament is still enjoying success and increased popularity.

Beginning with its inception and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.

Since 2001 the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis (2001), Nashville (2002, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012), Little Rock, Ark. (2003, 2006, 2009, 2015), Greenville, S.C. (2005), Duluth, Ga. (2007, 2010, 2013, 2014) and Jacksonville, Fla. (2016). The tournament returns to Greenville, S.C., in 2017 for the first time since 2005.

The winner of the 13 -game tournament will receive the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds and conference champion will be determined by the 16-game regular-season SEC schedule.

The 2017 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament will once again enjoy live television coverage. The SEC Network will televise all first, second and third round games. The semifinals will be aired on ESPNU for the sixth consecutive year, while the championship game will be televised on ESPN2.

All games also will be available through WatchESPN, accessible online at WatchESPN.com, on smartphones and tablets via the WatchESPN app, and streamed on televisions through Amazon Fire TV, Apple TV, Chromecast, Roku, Xbox 360 or Xbox One to fans who receive their video subscription from an affiliated provider.

Head Coach • Sixth Season at LSU

Nikki Fargas (formerly Nikki Caldwell) knows success and what it takes to be successful. Entering her sixth season at the helm of the Lady Tiger Basketball program in 2016-17, Fargas vows to place the Lady Tigers back into national prominence.
"We're going to do everything in our power to make sure that LSU Women's Basketball is back at that elite level, that we are competing for SEC championships, and that we are positioning ourselves to cut down nets," said Fargas.

Fargas has produced a trio of 20 -win seasons and an overall record of 93-71 in five seasons at LSU. Her 93 victories ranks her as the second-winningest Lady Tiger basketball coach in school history in terms of total wins, just behind legendary coach Sue Gunter. In her first five seasons, LSU secured four NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by back-to-back trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, and 18 victories over ranked opponents.

Fargas, who won national championships as both a player and an assistant coach at Tennessee and turned UCLA into a national power in just three years, has that combination of outstanding in-game coaching ability and tremendous recruiting competence. In addition, Fargas has been a leader off the court in the Baton Rouge community, helping the Lady Tigers connect with the city of Baton Rouge while donating their time and efforts to making a difference. She and her Lady Tigers were heavily involved in assisting residents and local church communities following the devastating flood in August 2016 that impacted thousands of people in the area.

In the classroom, LSU has been a shining example of the definition of student-athlete. The Lady Tigers have recorded a perfect score of 100 in graduation success rate released by the NCAA during three seasons under Fargas. For players who have exhausted their eligibility at LSU, Fargas boasts a 100 -percent graduation rate. In her first five seasons, the Lady Tigers have earned 18 SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades.

The 2015-16 season saw an uncharacteristic stumble for the program due to a rash of injuries that sidelined some of the team's top talent and ultimately left the Lady Tigers with just six scholarship players for action during several games. Fargas was forced for the first time in her career to hold a walk-on tryout and added four players in December to bolster the roster at practice and to give players a breather during games.

One thing Fargas learned last season was that her Lady Tigers were fighters and refused to throw in the towel even when times were tough. Fargas' squad gave it their all from the tip-off to the final buzzer every game. Up until the final two SEC regular-season games, the Lady Tigers held each of their league foes below their scoring average, some by more than 20 points below their average. They also played one of the toughest schedules in the country.

Transfer Alexis Hyder blossomed into one of the key players in the SEC, closing the year in the top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and also leading the league in offensive rebounds with 122 . One of the most memorable games of the 2015-16 season was LSU's 57-56 win over Fargas' alma mater and eventual Elite Eight participant, 24th-ranked Tennessee, that snapped a six-game losing streak. Hyder hit two clutch free throws with 3.4 seconds remaining in the game to seal the win. At the end of the season, she was named an honorable mention pick to the Associated Press' All-SEC Team. Hyder was also selected as the LSWA Newcomer of the Year and to the All-Louisiana team. Senior Akilah Bethel was placed on the SEC Community Service Team.

With almost an entirely new squad, Fargas led the 2014-15 Lady Tigers to their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament berth by going on a tear to end the regular season, winning six of the team's final 10 games of the year to finish 17-14 overall and tied for fourth in the Southeastern Conference with a league mark of 10-6.

Three LSU players were honored at the season's end. Ann Jones was named to the SEC Community Service Team, while Raigyne Moncrief was a second team LSWA All-Louisiana selection. Danielle Ballard was a WBCA All-America Honorable Mention, garnering first team AllSEC and SEC All-Defensive Team honors while earning a spot on the all-conference team selected by the Associated Press. Ballard also claimed LSWA Louisiana Player of the Year and first team honors.

The 2013-14 season was filled with numerous memorable moments as the Lady Tigers took on the nation's toughest schedule with 28 of their 34 games against RPI Top 100 opponents. LSU fired out to a 17-4 start highlighted by a Barclays Invitational Championship which included victories over Rutgers and Michigan along with the program's first victory at Tennessee since the 2007-08 season.

After a six-game losing streak to end the regular season, Fargas and the Lady Tigers regrouped for the NCAA Tournament. LSU came out firing on all cylinders and collected a $98-78$ win over Georgia Tech during the opening round. The 98 points were a program NCAA Tournament single-game mark.

The Lady Tigers lost All-SEC Freshman Team guard Raigyne Moncrief to injury during the Georgia Tech game, and senior guard Jeanne Kenney was injured in the first half of LSU's NCAA Second Round matchup versus No. 7 West Virginia.

Without two of its top four scorers, the Lady Tigers dug deep and put together a 20-4 finishing kick over the last five minutes and scored on their final 10 possessions to come away with a 76-67 victory over the Mountaineers. Danielle Ballard turned in an NCAA Tournament effort for the ages as she racked up 23.3 points and 14.0 rebounds per game over LSU's three postseason games. At the team's end of the year banquet, each student-athlete received a courage award instead of individual accolades.

Theresa Plaisance notched a second consecutive All-SEC First-Team selection and was the 18th player in program history to amass over 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. Plaisance was joined by Shanece McKinney among the program's Top 5 in blocked shots. The duo went on to continue their professional careers in the WNBA; Plaisance with the Tulsa Shock and McKinney with the New York Liberty. Kenney finished ranked inside LSU's Top 10 with 137 three-pointers and 372 assists.

Fargas' second season in Baton Rouge was a memorable one as the Lady Tigers reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time since 2008. LSU recorded double-digit SEC victories for the second straight year and despite a rash of injuries, put together a team with excellent chemistry that finished the season ranked №. 21 in the Coaches poll. LSU's seven-game winning streak to close the regular season was the longest going into the SEC Tournament since winning seven in a row from 1985-86.

The Lady Tigers developed the motto "eight is enough" and used it to dominate №. 13 Texas A&M on the Aggies' home floor by a score of 67-52 in the regular season finale. LSU beat Green Bay in the NCAA first round before claiming arguably the signature win of the Fargas era in the NCAA second round. LSU, without Kenney and dressed with seven players, knocked off No. 8 Penn State, 71-66, in a raucous Maravich Center to reach the Sweet 16.

In addition, Fargas developed Plaisance into one of the nation's most improved players as the New Orleans native led the SEC in scoring and became the school's first league scoring champion since Seimone Augustus.

Fargas recruited Ballard, an All-SEC Freshman Team pick. In her first season, Ballard shattered the LSU sin-gle-season record for steals with 100. Plaisance, Ballard and senior Adrienne Webb earned All-SEC honors.

Fargas was officially introduced as the school's seventh women's basketball coach on April 4, 2011, and revived the LSU program from her opening press conference. A summer full of speaking engagements, building the fan base and connecting with her players led to a season where attendance increased by an average of over 1,500 fans from the previous season.

After missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 13 years a season prior to her arrival, Fargas spearheaded the squad to the 2012 NCAA Tournament second round and its first appearance in the SEC Tournament championship game since 2008. The Lady Tigers reached 23 wins - their highest total since the 2008 Final Four season - won 10 conference games for the first time since 2009 and claimed wins over five ranked teams during the season.

Despite suffering several key injuries, Fargas led LSU to a six-game win streak late in the SEC season and the Lady Tigers twice knocked off SEC regular season champion Kentucky. She met her mentor in the SEC championship game as LSU squared off against Pat Summitt's Tennessee Lady Vols. Though the Lady Tigers lost, LSU took on Fargas' persona - that of toughness and a relentless desire to never quit.

Fargas developed All-SEC forward LaSondra Barrett into one of the nation's best players. After an NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance against Penn State, Barrett became the first LSU player selected in the first round of the WNBA Draft since 2008 when she was taken 10th overall by the Washington Mystics. Barrett later was named a 2016 SEC Women's Legend.

Well respected in coaching circles, Fargas has twice been selected by the USA Women's Basketball Committee to serve as an assistant coach for USA National Teams. In the summer of 2012, she became the first coach in LSU history to serve on a USA U18 team staff since the squad's inception in 1988. That team claimed the gold medal at the FIBA Americas Championship.

In the summer of 2013, most of that group reunited to lead the USA U19 National Team to a gold medal at the FIBA World Championships in Lithuania. Fargas is the only coach in LSU history to claim multiple USA gold medals during her tenure as Lady Tiger head coach.

Fargas has been a part of a championship and winning pedigree at every level of her career. She played, coached and studied under one of the game's greatest figures, the legendary Pat Summitt at Tennessee and she assisted Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Debbie Ryan at Virginia.

Widely recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches during stints at Tennessee and Virginia, Fargas took over at UCLA in 2008. In three years with the Bruins, she turned around a UCLA program that had won only one NCAA Tournament game in the nine years prior to her arrival.

Fargas led the Bruins to a 72-26 overall mark, reached the NCAA Tournament twice and finished second in the Pac-10 Conference in both 2010 and 2011. She was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2010 after going 25-9 overall and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Her best season at UCLA came in 2011 as she led the Bruins to 28 victories, just one shy of the school mark of 29 set back in 1980-81. The Bruins spent the entire 201011 season ranked in the top 20 and they claimed the №. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. UCLA finished the year with just five losses, the fewest in school history during the NCAA era.

The 2010-11 season saw UCLA set school records for regular season victories (26), Pac-10 wins (16), road victories (10) and scoring defense ( 55.3 ppg ). Fargas also signed the nation's third-ranked recruiting class behind only Tennessee and Connecticut according to ESPN HoopGurlz, and she helped develop junior post player Jasmine Dixon into an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American.

Fargas made an immediate impact in her first season as a head coach in 2008-09, directing UCLA to a 19-12 overall
"I am absolutely thrilled for Nikki. LSU is committed to its women's basketball program both financially and with the resources they have in place to compete amongst the best teams in the nation. The Southeastern Conference will become much stronger with Nikki joining the league. Her accomplishments in the three short seasons she was at UCLA is indicative of more of what will come from Nikki and her staff at LSU."

Head Coach Nikki Fargas

"Nikki is a superstar in our profession. She is the quintessential 'players' coach who understands that each player is unique and must be motivated differently to get their maximum effort every night. Nikki has a style and grace that garners immediate attention. She has a great moral compass for the way things ought to be in life. LSU may have hired a coach but they acquired a tremendous person who will achieve greatness beyond the athletic realm."

National Champion Player

In her 11 seasons as a collegiate player, graduate assistant and assistant coach at Tennessee, Fargas' teams compiled a record of 344-40, appeared in the NCAA Tournament each year and claimed three national championships.

Winning Tradition

It didn't take Fargas long to instill a winning attitude at LSU as the Lady Tigers reached the SEC Tournament championship game and NCAA Second Round in her first season. Fargas became just the second coach in SEC history to guide a team to the SEC Tournament final in her first season.
record and a fourth-place finish in the Pac-10. In addition, for the first time since the 1986-87 season, the Bruins won as many as nine non-conference games prior to Pac-10 play.

Fargas and her staff then proceeded to haul in the 14th-ranked recruiting class in the nation according to ESPN HoopGurlz, headlined by McDonald's All-American Markel Walker. The staff added another McDonald's All-American for 2009-10 in transfer Jasmine Dixon.

Her second Bruin team finished with 25 wins, the fourth-most in school history, and advanced to the second round of the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

After a mid-January setback in conference play, the Bruins lost only to NCAA runner-up Stanford (twice) and №. 4-ranked Nebraska, both of which earned NCAA Tournament №. 1 seeds.

UCLA won 15 of its last 18 contests of the 2009-10 season en route to the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2006. The squad won 15 conference games, finished second in the Pac-10 and they limited opponents to then a school-record 55.7 points per game.

In eight seasons as head coach at both UCLA and LSU, Fargas owns a 165-97 overall record and an 80-54 mark in conference play.

Fargas broke into the head coaching ranks after serving as an assistant on Summitt's staff at Tennessee from 2002-08. During that time, she helped the Lady Vols capture a pair of NCAA titles in 2007 and 2008 and reach the Final Four a total of five times. The Lady Vols compiled an impressive 195-24 mark and won three Southeastern Conference regular season titles during her six years as an assistant coach.

Fargas joined the UT staff for the 2002-03 season and became the recruiting director in the spring of 2003. Her impact was immediate as the Lady Vols signed perhaps the most prolific freshman class in the history of women's collegiate basketball in the fall of 2003. That class consisted of six 2004 high school All-Americans, including three players of the year. In 2008, Fargas helped sign five players who went on to play in the prestigious McDonald's All-American Game.

In 2008, the Lady Vols captured a second-straight NCAA championship and finished with a record of 36-2. National Player of the Year Candace Parker, the No. 1 selection in the WNBA draft and the 2008

WNBA MVP, led a group of five Lady Vols to be drafted into the WNBA on the day following the championship.

Prior to her return as a coach at her alma mater, Fargas served as an assistant at the University of Virginia for three seasons from 1999-2002. She was responsible for recruiting, scouting, film exchange, player development, camps and monitoring academic progress of student-athletes. Virginia compiled a record of 60-36 in her three seasons in Charlottesville and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year. She helped develop standout Atlantic Coast Conference players Telisha Quarles and Brandi Teamer, the 2002 ACC Rookie of the Year.

As a player at Tennessee from 1990-94, Fargas was known as a tenacious defender with tremendous threepoint shooting ability. She was a 35-percent (128-364) shooter from behind the arc during her career. The Lady Vols posted a 118-13 mark during her four-year career, winning the NCAA title during her freshman season (1990-91) and capturing two SEC regular season championships and a pair of SEC Tournament titles.

Fargas burst onto the scene as a rookie, scoring 20 points in her first collegiate game against Stanford. She earned SEC All-Freshman honors in 1991. In the 1991 NCAA title game victory over Virginia, Fargas' defense was considered a key in the Lady Vols' overtime win in New Orleans. She received the Gloria Ray Leadership Award in both her junior and senior seasons at Tennessee.

After graduating with a degree in public relations in 1994, Fargas moved behind the microphone as a color analyst on Tennessee games for Fox Sports Net South. She went on to become the color analyst for the SEC's Game of the Week from 1995-97. Her television exposure opened the door for her to become the hostess of the sports segments for the Knoxville-based cable network show, Shop at Home (1997-98).

Fargas' television career continued in Los Angeles during her tenure as UCLA coach. She joined CBS2/ KCAL's Jim Hill as an analyst on Sports Central for the NCAA men's basketball tournament and she was also frequently on Los Angeles Laker pregame and halftime shows. Fargas served as an analyst for ESPN during the 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament.

In 1998, Fargas decided to return to basketball, becoming a graduate assistant for administration at Tennessee. During the 1998-99 season, Tennessee went 31-3 and captured the SEC regular season and tournament titles. Fargas was responsible for assisting the coaching staff in all aspects of basketball operations.

The Oak Ridge, Tenn., native owns an impressive 570-172 record as a player, graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach dating back to her freshman season at Tennessee.

Off the court, Fargas is a passionate crusader for breast cancer awareness. She and Tennessee head coach Holly Warlick founded the non-profit organization, Champions for a Cause. Since 2007, they have raised over $$ 300,000$ through Cruisin' for a Cause, a long-haul motorcycle adventure to raise dollars and awareness for a cure for breast cancer.

In the spring of 2011, Fargas' journey navigated through the Midwest and ended in California. The 2012 ride began with a fundraiser in Baton Rouge and continued to New Orleans where both Fargas and Warlick visited patients at a hospital.

Fargas and Warlick chronicle their cross-country rides on their website, http://www.cruisinforacause. com/. In 2010, Fargas joined the Board of Directors for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and is currently serving on the Executive Committee as Treasurer.

Fargas has been prominent in the Baton Rouge community since her arrival, making appearances at the Baton Rouge Food Bank and schools in the East Baton Rouge Parish system. The Lady Tigers show their commitment to service and are involved in numerous community initiatives. A few examples are the Alzheimer's Services Walk/Run to Remember where the team has served as honorary starters and making regular visits to Charlie's Place, a respite center for Alzheimer's patients.

The Baton Rouge Business Report named Fargas to the area's "Forty Under Forty," which recognizes stars in the community. In May 2013, Fargas was elected to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Board of Directors.

Fargas, was raised in Oak Ridge, Tenn., by her mother, Jean Caldwell. She and her husband Justin Fargas are the proud parents of a daughter, Justice Simone Fargas, who was born on March 6, 2012.

Fargas has a younger sister, Simone, brother-in-law, Kirk and niece, Khayla. Her uncle, Mike Caldwell, played 11 seasons in the NFL as a linebacker. He currently serves as the assistant head coach/inside linebackers coach for the New York Jets.

Community Driven
Since joining the LSU family in April 2011, Fargas has made a profound impact on the city of Baton Rouge with numerous public speaking engagements, community service projects and media appearances. Fargas has generated a newfound interest in LSU women's basketball while getting her student-athletes involved in the community. In May 2016, Fargas was honored at the Women of Distinction luncheon by the Girl Scouts Louisiana East chapter.

Head Coach Nikki Fargas

State Capitol Bike Ride

On her first week on the job, Fargas, her staff and the Lady Tigers biked from the LSU campus to the historic Louisiana State Capitol as part of a team building experience. "It's important for our players to realize that they are more than just student-athletes here at LSU, they are ambassadors for the city of Baton Rouge and the state of Louisiana," Fargas said.

Cruisin' For a Cause

Off the court, Fargas is an advocate for breast cancer awareness through the foundation she helped co-found with Tennessee coach Holly Warlick, Champions For A Cause. Every year, Fargas rides her motorcycle through the country as part of Cruisin' For A Cause, raising thousands of dollars for breast cancer research. The non-profit foundation has raised thousands of dollars to help find a cure.

Lady Tiger Lagniappe

More than 1,100 fans turned out to the inaugural "Lady Tiger Lagniappe" in the summer of 2011 as Fargas laid out plans for the future of the LSU program, introduced her players and signed hundreds of autographs. "LSU is back, and I am so proud to be your coach," Fargas said after receiving a standing ovation.

Billboard Campaign

Since Fargas' hiring in April 2012, ticket sales for LSU women's basketball have seen a dramatic increase. Fargas was featured on a billboard campaign throughout Baton Rouge and in Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas, when the LSU football team hosted Oregon in front of a national audience.

Two-Time USA National Gold Medalist

Fargas has twice been selected by the USA Women's Basketball Committee to serve as an assistant coach for USA National Teams. In 2012, she was a member of the USA U18 FIBA Americas gold medal squad. The following summer, she helped lead the USA U19 team to gold at the FIBA World Championships in Lithuania. She is the only coach in LSU history to claim multiple USA gold medals during her tenure as Lady Tiger head coach.

Back to Winning

After missing the NCAA Tournament prior to her arrival, Fargas immediately made an impact as the Lady Tigers won 23 games in her first season - the most in four years - and LSU reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the championship game of the SEC Tournament. LSU secured back-to-back trips to the NCAA Sweet 16 and had to defeat Top 10 opponents in each of the two seasons in the NCAA Second Round.

Tasha Butts

Assistant Coach • Sixth Season

Tasha Butts, a standout player at the University of Tennessee and former WNBA player, enters her sixth season as an assistant coach for the Lady Tigers.
In her five seasons at LSU, Butts has been a part of three 20 -win seasons and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16 trips in 2012 and 2013.

Butts was one of just 14 assistant coaches from around the country chosen to participate in Advocates for Athletic Equity's (AAE) annual "Achieving Coaching Excellence" (ACE) Professional Development Program for basketball coaches in June 2016. The program is recognized as helping to boost the careers of some of the top minority coaches in the college game.

Butts works closely with LSU's backcourt and helped develop Raigyne Moncrief and Danielle Ballard, who both garnered All-SEC Freshman Team honors. Both players are listed among LSU's Top 10 for scoring during their true freshmen seasons. Moncrief was poised to have a stellar junior season in 2015-16 as a preseason All-SEC pick, but was sidelined by injury for all but three games.

With the guidance of Butts, Rina Hill has blossomed into a leader on the court, and was the only Lady Tiger to start all 31 games in 2015-16. Hill averaged 8.4 points and 2.1 assists per game. In addition, freshman Shanice Norton started 22 games and averaged 5.4 points and 3.5 rebounds a contest.

Under Butts' tutelage, Ballard broke LSU's single-season record for steals and became the first player in program history - women or men - to reach 100 steals in a season. Ballard also put together an NCAA Tournament run for the ages in 2014 where she averaged 23.3 points and 14.0 rebounds per game. Her three-straight double-doubles was a program first since All-American Sylvia Fowles accomplished the feat in the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

Butts also guided All-SEC selection Adrienne Webb during her junior and senior seasons. She led the SEC in free throw shooting and was one of the top shooting guards in program history where she poured in a career-high 29 points to help lead the Lady Tigers past Penn State in the 2013 NCAA Second Round. Webb finished her career with 1,370 points.

Butts has also had the honor of attending the Villa 7 Consortium on Nike's campus in Oregon. The program brings together university athletics directors and the country's elite assistant coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball leaders.

Butts arrived at LSU after three successful seasons as an assistant coach to Nikki Fargas at UCLA. During her tenure with the Bruins, she worked with perimeter players and assisted with all other facets of the program, including academics, recruiting, scouting and player development.

UCLA reached the NCAA Tournament twice, compiling a $72-26$ overall mark and second-place finishes in the Pac-10 Conference in both 2010 and 2011. The 2010-11 season saw the Bruins earn a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and set records for regular-season victories (26), Pac-10 wins (16) and scoring defense ( 55.3 points per game).

Butts was instrumental in the development of UCLA guards Darxia Morris, Doreena Campbell and Markel Walker. Morris was the Bruins' top scorer in 2010-11 as she earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors and was invited to training camp with the WNBA's Tulsa Shock.

Butts helped sign Walker, who arrived at UCLA as the nation's No. 4 ranked high school player according to ESPN HoopGurlz. Campbell became just the fourth Bruin ever to earn All-Pac-10 honors all four years of her career. She was also the fourth player in school history to record 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists.

Prior to UCLA, Butts served as an assistant coach at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pa., for the 2007-08 season where she worked primarily with the perimeter players. Her responsibilities included recruiting, opponent scouting, academics, equipment liaison and scheduling.

Butts was a proven winner as a player at Tennessee, helping the Lady Vols to a 124-17 record in her four seasons from 2000-04. Tennessee had a Sweet 16 appearance in her freshman season and advanced to the 2002 Final Four in her sophomore campaign. She then helped the Lady Vols to back-to-back National Championship games in her junior and senior seasons of 2003 and 2004. As a senior, she earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors after averaging 10.4 points per game and ranking second in the league in three-point field goal percentage (43.0).

In addition, Butts was part of four SEC regular-season championship teams, as Tennessee compiled a 55-1 SEC record in her four years. When she left UT, she ranked fourth all-time in games played (141) and tied for seventh in three-point shots made (103) at the school. Butts' career-high 37 points against Vanderbilt on Feb. 16, 2004, tied for 11th on the Lady Vols' single-game scoring list.

Butts graduated from Tennessee in 2004 with a degree in sport management and a minor in business. She was chosen by the Minnesota Lynx with the 20th selection in the 2004 WNBA Draft. She saw action in all 30 games as a rookie, helping the club equal a franchise record with 18 wins and earn a spot in the playoffs.

Following the 2004 WNBA season, she returned to her alma mater and served as a graduate assistant coach, working primarily with Pat Summitt and Fargas. The Lady Vols won the 2005 SEC Championship that season and advanced to the 2005 Final Four.

In fall 2005, she played overseas for Essa/Barreiro in Portugal, averaging nearly 18.0 points per game. After one season with Essa, she moved on to Raanana Hertizliya in Israel, where she posted 15.5 points per contest. She also had brief stints with the Charlotte Sting and Houston Comets of the WNBA.

Butts grew up in Milledgeville, Ga., and attended Baldwin High School where she was a consensus All-American and the Georgia Gatorade State Player of the Year. She remains the all-time leading scorer at the school and her high school jersey No. 23 was retired in December 2000. In August 2004, the city of Milledgeville honored Butts with a key to the city and a proclamation of achievement on "Tasha Butts Day."

Butts credits her parents, Spencer Butts, Sr. and Evelyn Butts, with instilling the value of hard work and importance of family. She has one older brother, Spencer Butts, Jr., and a nephew, Marquis Butts.

Mickie DeMoss
Assistant Coach • First Season

Coach Nikki Fargas may have landed one of her most heralded recruits yet in May 2016 when collegiate coaching veteran
Mickie DeMoss joined the Lady Tigers as an assistant coach. With 39 years of experience on the sidelines on the collegiate and professional levels, DeMoss no doubt brings a wealth of knowledge with her to the Lady Tiger basketball program.

DeMoss' impressive resume includes 20 seasons as an assistant and associate head coach under Pat Summitt at the University of Tennessee, four seasons as the head coach at the University of Kentucky and a two-year stint as an assistant with the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She joins the Lady Tigers after serving the previous two years as the associate head coach at her alma mater Louisiana Tech University.

Fargas and DeMoss have extensive history from their days in Knoxville, Tenn., as DeMoss was an assistant coach when Fargas played for the Lady Vols (1990-94) and the pair were on Summitt's staff together from 2002-03. DeMoss also coached current LSU assistants Tasha Butts and Charlene Thomas-Swinson. She was an assistant at Auburn when Thomas-Swinson lettered for the Tigers and was associate head coach at UT during Butts' career.

Immediately prior to returning to the collegiate coaching ranks at Louisiana Tech, DeMoss was an assistant coach for the Indiana Fever in 2012 and 2013 and helped guide the franchise to the 2012 WNBA championship.

She was lured away by the WNBA following her second stint at UT. She was with the Lady Vols from 1985-2003 and then again from 2010-12. During a span from 1985-86 to 2002-03, DeMoss helped lead the Lady Vols to six national titles and 12 trips to the Final Four. During her first 18 seasons at UT, the Lady Vols amassed a 554-77 (.878) overall record. DeMoss was promoted to associate head coach in 2000, but stepped aside three years later to lead her own program. She served four years with record-breaking results as the head coach at Kentucky.

In four seasons at Kentucky, she guided the Wildcats to a 71-56 record including consecutive 20-win seasons and three postseason appearances (one NCAA and two WNIT).

The 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, DeMoss guided the 22-9 Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in seven seasons and punctuated the trip with an NCAA win. The breakout year also included a victory over No. 1-ranked Tennessee, 66-63, in front of a school-record crowd of 13,689 at Rupp Arena. It marked the first win over a top-ranked team in UK history. In 2006-07, Kentucky was 20-14 and advanced to the WNIT. That season, DeMoss' Cats attracted a school record attendance of 5,863 fans per game.

DeMoss elected to step aside as head coach at Kentucky in April 2007, but her coaching hiatus was short-lived as she accepted a position at Texas in the summer of 2007. She was the Longhorns' top recruiter while also coaching the post game for three seasons under Gail Goestenkors.
At the request of her long-time mentor, DeMoss returned to Knoxville in the spring of 2010 to serve on Summitt's staff for the final two seasons of the legendary coach's career with the Lady Vols. She helped lead the 2010-11 squad to a 34-3 record, including an undefeated 16-0 showing in the SEC. In her last two seasons at UT, the Lady Vols amassed a 61-12 record and made appearances in two Region Final games.

Over the past three decades, DeMoss has cemented a reputation as one of the country's most elite coaches. A survey of the nation's NCAA Division I women's head basketball coaches tabbed her as the top assistant in the country in 2000. She also garnered that distinction from a 1998 The Women's Basketball Journal poll.

While at UT, DeMoss was considered a great technical mind, floor coach and entertainer. Off the court, she was regarded as one of the best recruiters in the college game, year after year recruiting future All-SEC and All-America award-winners, while stockpiling rosters with the kind of players essential to winning national championships.

Some of DeMoss' most notable recruits at Tennessee include: Tonya Edwards, the 1987 Final Four MVP, Dena Head, the 1992 SEC Player of the Year, Chamique Holdsclaw, the 1996 and 1997 Final Four MVP, and Tamika Catchings, a fourtime All-American and star of the Indiana Fever.

Noted for her success coaching post players, DeMoss protégés have represented Team USA in every Olympic Games since 1992.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff in 1985, DeMoss had been an assistant coach at Auburn University (1983-85), a head coach at the University of Florida (1979-83) and an assistant at then-Memphis State (1977-79).

DeMoss was a player on the inaugural Lady Techster team in 1974 and lettered for the first three years of the program's existence. She was the very first point guard in the history of the program.

A native of Tallulah, La., DeMoss received her undergraduate degree in physical education from Louisiana Tech in 1977. She later received her master's degree in education at Memphis State University in 1979.

Charlene Thomas-Swinson

Assistant Coach • Second Season

Charlene ThomasSwinson joined the Lady Tiger women's basketball staff in July 2015. The coaching veteran came to LSU with over 20 years of coaching experience on all levels of the game, including head coaching stops at St. John's and Tulsa.
In her first season at LSU, Thomas-Swinson helped develop transfer Alexis Hyder into one of the top rebounders in the Southeastern Conference. Hyder led the SEC in offensive rebounds with 122 and finished the season in the top 10 in rebounding in total games as well as just league contests. Hyder was named the 2016 LSWA Newcomer of the Year and earned an honorable mention All-SEC nod by the Associated Press after leading LSU in both scoring and rebounding.
No stranger to the SEC, Thomas-Swinson spent seven seasons in the league as an assistant coach at Auburn and Florida. She also served as an assistant coach for the USA Women's Basketball National Team in 1999, and was an assistant coach for the WNBA's Orlando Miracle from 19992002.

Thomas-Swinson began her collegiate coaching career with a three-year stint at Columbia Union College in Maryland before she returned to her alma mater, Auburn, in 1992 under WBCA Hall of Fame Coach Joe Ciampi. The Tigers racked up 85 victories and reached the NCAA Tournament three times. Auburn made the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1993 and the NCAA Elite Eight in 1996.

Thomas-Swinson took over as the head coach at St. John's for three years from 1996-99. She landed three Top 30 recruiting classes sparked by the nation's №. 15 rated class in 1999 before she left St. John's to join 1999 WBCA Coach of the Year Carolyn Peck with the WNBA's Orlando Miracle for three seasons. During that time, Thomas-Swinson also was an assistant coach for USA Basketball for two years where she coached with the 1998 USA Women's Select Team and the 1999 USA Women's National Team.
Thomas-Swinson returned to the college game and the SEC at Florida under Peck. The Gators earned a spot in the 2004 NCAA Tournament, and she was instrumental in Florida landing a Top 10 recruiting class in 2005.
Thomas-Swinson moved back into the head coaching ranks at Tulsa from 2005-11. She guided the Golden Hurricane to a 26-6 mark during her first season en route to the 2006 Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. Tulsa knocked off No. 5 seed North Carolina State in the NCAA Tournament First Round before dropping a hard-fought four-point decision against DePaul.
The 2006 C-USA Coach of the Year, Thomas-Swinson played a major role in the development of Jillian Robbins, a two-time Associated Press and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention pick. She concluded her career as the school's record holder for points $(2,108)$, rebounds $(1,313)$, field goals (747), free throws (602), steals (347), blocks (251) and doubledoubles (66).

Thomas-Swinson was a four-year letterwinner and was a three-year captain at Auburn from 1983-87. She won 99 career games, and Auburn secured its first-ever SEC regular season championship during her senior season. The Tigers also won the 1987 SEC Tournament title.

Auburn made a trio of NCAA Tournament appearances during Thomas-Swinson's playing career highlighted by a NCAA Sweet 16 trip in 1986 and a NCAA Elite Eight run in 1987. She currently ranks ninth in Auburn's record book with 761 career rebounds. She also is eight with a .536 career field goal percentage.

Thomas-Swinson earned her bachelor's degree in business management from Auburn in 1992. She and her husband, Aaron A. Swinson, have two children: a son, Charles, and a daughter, Jada.

Shaeeta Williams

Director of Basketball Operations • Second Season

Shaeeta Williams is in her second season as Director of Basketball Operations. In her position, she oversees all day-to-day aspects of the Lady Tiger program, including practice schedules, compliance, team travel, community service and equipment. She also assists with managing Lady Tiger summer camps, recruiting visits and the program's budget.

Williams came to LSU after spending two seasons as the head coach of her alma mater Brusly High School. In her second stint as the coach for the Lady Panthers, Williams led the team to the second round of the state playoffs in each of her two seasons at the helm.

Before returning to Louisiana, Williams served as the special assistant at the University of Texas for several years. Under her former coach, Gail Goestenkors, Williams aided in the day-to-day program responsibilities, directing UT basketball summer camps, coordinating basketball video work, and serving as the program's liaison for community relations efforts which were coordinated through UT's student services and marketing areas.

Williams, a four-year letterwinner at Duke University under Goestenkors from 1993-98, was a member of Goestenkors' first recruiting class and saw action in 80 games during her career. Williams was the recipient of the Blue Devil Club Student-Athlete of the Year award, which is presented to the top rising senior who exemplifies excellence, academic achievement, leadership and sportsmanship. Williams was a three-time ACC Academic Honor Roll selection at Duke.

After completing her playing days, Williams served as an assistant coach with the Blue Devils in 2001-02. She transitioned into an administrative role with the Blue Devils for six years, which included, among other tasks, marketing, promotions, community relations, academic support, video editing and recruiting. She also served as the director of the Blue Devils' summer basketball camps. Before returning to Durham, she began her first stint as the varsity girls basketball coach at Brusly High School, for two years. She also served as assistant women's basketball coach at DePaul for the 1998-99 season.

As a prep player, Williams was the district most valuable player for three straight years, while being a first team all-state selection three times. She also competed in volleyball, track and field and softball at Brusly, earning all-state honors every year in softball and helping lead the school to a state championship. She earned a state track championship in the $4 \times 100 \mathrm{~m}$, and was twice honored as an all-state player in volleyball. Williams and her husband Barnell have a son, Seth, and reside in Addis.

Mike Harkness

Director of Video Operations • Second Season

Mike Harkness joined the women's basketball program as the director of video operations in fall 2015. He came to LSU after a four-year stint at Georgia Tech, where he was the director of video player personnel for the women's basketball program under coach MaChelle Joseph.

Harkness is responsible for providing video for the coaches, which includes practice footage, opponent scouting video and various hype videos prior to competition. He also assists with shooting community service footage as well as creating various graphics for use in social media.

Harkness has worked 16 years in the video profession, spending 11 years at his alma mater, the University of Maryland. His most recent appointment at Maryland was the director of coaches video, a promotion he earned after a year as assistant director of coaches video. In that role with the Terps, Harkness, along with his staff of two assistants and four students, oversaw the video needs for all Maryland sports except football.

He transitioned into working with all Terrapin sports after serving an internship with the basketball video department. He worked with the women's basketball team that won the 2006 National Championship and the 2009 ACC Tournament title.

While a student in College Park, Harkness began his career in the spring of 1999 working in the video department with the Maryland football team. During his time at Maryland, Harkness was a part of nine national championships and numerous ACC championships, and transitioned the Terrapins from an analog based video system to a fully digital video system.

The Hughesville, Md., native graduated from the University of Maryland with a degree in management science and statistics with a specialization of decision and information sciences in 2003.

Renee' Braud • Administrative Assistant

Renee' Braud is a long-time member of the LSU Athletic Department. She has worked in the department for 18 years and is in her 16th season working with the women's basketball program. As the administrative assistant, Braud handles the front office for the program and her duties are many and varied. She is responsible for all of the day-to-day operations of the women's basketball office, which includes but is not limited to maintaining Coach Nikki Fargas' calendar as well as assisting with managing the summer camps, on-campus recruiting visits, the recruiting database, the postseason banquet and the budget. Braud is a vital liaison to the booster organization, the Give & Geaux Club, and assists the organization with membership as well as key events such as the bowling and golf tournaments. In addition, she is heavily involved in Lady Tiger alumni relations, which also includes coordinating the Alumni weekend. Prior to joining the women's basketball staff, Braud worked two season with Tiger Football. She and her husband, Stan Braud, Jr., have three daughters: Kailey, Alli and Riley.

Micki Collins • Associate Athletic Trainer

Micki Collins enters her 16th year as an associate athletic trainer at LSU, and her 15th season working with the Lady Tiger basketball team. In addition to her duties as the athletic trainer for the women's basketball team, Collins serves as the primary athletic trainer for the LSU swimming and diving teams and assists with the women's tennis team. She served as the primary athletic trainer for the Tiger volleyball team in her first season at LSU. Collins has a master's degree in sports pedagogy from LSU and earned her bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Nebraska in 2000. While at Nebraska, Collins worked as a student trainer for the nationally-ranked Cornhusker football team and for the women's basketball and gymnastics teams. The Chariton, lowa, native is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association, having completed her certification requirements in April 2000. She has also worked various camps for volleyball and women's basketball both at Nebraska and at LSU. She married Ken Collins in July of 2005, and they have a six-year-old son, Granger and a three-year-old daughter, Gia. Collins was presented the Sue Gunter Award at the 2015-16 team banquet.

Jennifer Rodrigues • Senior Associate Communications Director
Jennifer Rodrigues is in her second year with the Sports Information staff. She is the primary contact for women's basketball, and assists with the day-to-day media relations responsibilities with the football program. A native of Slidell, La., Rodrigues came to LSU after a 17 -year stint in Memphis, Tenn. She served in multiple capacities during her 16 -year career at the University of Memphis, including as the assistant athletic director for media relations and as a marketing manager in the Division of Communications, Public Relations and Marketing. She was an account executive at inferno, an advertising agency in Memphis, prior to her appointment at LSU. Rodrigues worked with the $U$ of $M$ Athletic Department's media relations office from 1998-2012. She was named Director of Athletic Media Relations at the start of the 2004 football season, and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations in spring 2010. She was responsible for the publicity and promotion of the Tiger football team, as well as overseeing the Athletics Media Relations Office. In 2005, she spearheaded a highly-publicized Heisman Trophy campaign for running back DeAngelo Williams. Rodrigues received her bachelor's degree in journalism at UL-Lafayette in 1995 . While at ULL, she was a student assistant in the sports information office from 1991 to 1995, handling the publicity for volleyball and the nationally-ranked softball team. She has also worked in sports information at Northern Arizona and Mississippi State. She and her husband, Mike, have a daughter, Ally.

Melissa Seal • Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Melissa Seal, one of the top strength and conditioning coordinators in women's basketball, enters her 11th season working with the Lady Tiger basketball team. Seal, a native of Enon, La., also coordinates the strength and conditioning of the LSU softball team. Seal came to LSU after stints at both Georgia Tech and Elon University as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. She spent two years at Georgia Tech working with the Yellow Jackets' softball and women's tennis programs after a brief stint working with Elon University baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's basketball and track teams. While earning her master's degree at Southern Miss, Seal spent two years working with the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and volleyball programs. She earned her undergraduate degree from Southern Miss in 2000. Seal and her husband, Kevin, have a daughter Aubrey who was born in February 2014. The family lives in Baton Rouge.

Cokie Reed

Administrative Graduate Assistant

Cokie Reed joined the Lady Tigers in summer 2016 as a graduate assistant. The Waco, Texas, native was a McDonald's All-American out of Midway High School and signed with the University of Texas in 2009. She was plagued by injuries and missed the 2010-11 season before retiring from basketball in 2013, midway through her senior season. Reed graduated from UT in spring 2013 with a degree in corporate communications. Upon her graduation, she was one of 12 applicants selected from a pool of 1200 to serve as a brand ambassador for Oscar Mayer Foods for a year. In that capacity, she traveled the country in the 27-foot-long Wienermobile, interacting with thousands of people and marketing the company's products along the way. She was the marketing communications manager at Baylor for the business school before spending the last year at her alma mater, Midway High, teaching professional communications while coaching freshman volleyball and junior varsity basketball. She was also an assistant for the varsity squad that was a 6 A regional finalist.

Mark Membreno

 Graduate ManagerMark Membreno is in his first season as a graduate manager with the women's basketball program. He started assisting with the team in 2015 as an intern to fulfill his internship class requirement. In that role with the Lady Tigers, he assisted with filming practice footage as well as other duties with the student managers. He received his bachelor's degree in sports administration from LSU in December 2015 and continued to volunteer by shooting practice video and working closely with video coordinator, Mike Harkness, to learn how to cut and organize practice and game footage. Membreno was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon while an undergraduate at LSU and volunteered regularly in the chapter's philanthropic and charitable events. The Dallas, Texas, native prepped at Hebron High and played basketball in school and on AAU teams. He is working on his master's degree in public administration.

The Lady Tigers played what was considered one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2015-16, and when that schedule was crafted, it more than likely looked like a challenging, but viable schedule based on the predicted roster for that season. Fast forward through the 2015-16 season, and that schedule proved to be daunting for a squad that would ultimately be down to just seven scholarship players for the latter part of the season.

Just months before the season started, the makeup of the team began to change as two key players left the program. Then, four games into the season the roster morphed some more with season-ending injuries to two starters; but even that was not the end of the changes. In December, four walk-ons were added as injuries and illness ultimately left the Lady Tigers with just seven scholarship players for the bulk of their SEC schedule.

And, given all the adversity and losses that this Lady Tiger squad was not accustomed to, it would have been easy for the players to just shut down and give up. Though the 10-21 record will not show it, this team did not quit and the players embraced each other and the word "family" spoken after each huddle and continued to fight until the very last buzzer.
"Obviously the game didn't play out the way that we had hoped for but I am extremely proud to be the head coach of these LSU Lady Tigers," said head coach Nikki Fargas following the loss to 13th-ranked Kentucky in the second round of the SEC Tournament. "They have shown what it means to play through and handle adversity. They have shown what it means to stay together and the true meaning of family. They have shown that even through tough times that you still have to have less quit in you, and that's what today's game was about."

All throughout the season, Fargas continued to commend her team for their continued fight and determination. To fully understand how remarkable it was that this team did not do as many teams facing a losing season do and turn on each other and suffer internal squabbles and look as though they are not together each game, one must start in June with the first blow to the roster, which was going to be heavy with upperclassmen and four consistent starters.

In late June just as the team was going through preseason workouts, first-team all-SEC honoree Danielle Ballard left the program, opting to play ball overseas instead of completing her senior season at LSU. Ballard was named to the SEC first team and to the All-Defensive Team in 2014-15 despite only playing in 17 games because of a previous suspension.

Raigyne Moncrief, a preseason All-SEC pick last season, missed all but three games with an injury.

Nearly five months later and just prior to the exhibition meeting with Union, sophomore Stephanie Amichia decided to leave the game of basketball. Amichia was a consistent contributor who played in 24 games and averaged 3.0 points and 3.0 rebounds a game in her rookie season.

Even without Ballard and Amichia, the Lady Tigers opened the 2015-16 season with a 3-1 record with wins over UL-Monroe, Little Rock and Long Beach State and a loss to Wake Forest on the road in the season opener. And then, the first of a handful of injuries forced new changes to the lineup.

Junior Raigyne Moncrief, who was factored in along with Ballard as one of the top returnees, started the first three games of the season and was averaging 10.3 points and 7.0 rebounds before she was sidelined with a knee injury. Ultimately, Moncrief required surgery in late November and missed the rest of the season.

Now down three players, Fargas continued to tweak her lineup and received more bad news on the injury front when heralded freshman Ayana Mitchell was felled by a back injury. Mitchell opened the season as a starter against Wake Forest and was an impressive 6-of-6 from the field while scoring 14 points and hauling in five rebounds. She did not play in the next game against UL-Monroe and logged just nine and 12 minutes versus Little Rock and Long Beach State. Like Moncrief, Mitchell had surgery in late November and missed the remainder of her rookie campaign.

Without Moncrief and Mitchell, LSU suffered a 67-63 loss at Tulane before turning in a 1-2 record at the Gulf Coast Showcase during the Thanksgiving break. The Lady Tigers opened the tournament with a 69-52 loss to Purdue before defeating Marist, 72-49. In the final game of the tournament, LSU dropped a 52-41 decision to Maine. In that tournament, though, a junior transfer by the name of Alexis Hyder was beginning to get comfortable in the new system. Hyder joined the Lady Tigers from North Texas and sat out the 2014-15 season because of NCAA transfer rules. Against Marist and Maine, Hyder logged back-to-back double-doubles. She finished the tournament with 40 points and 31 rebounds.

Senior Anne Pedersen suffered a head injury against Marist in the tournament, and LSU was down to just eight players for the Maine contest, which sparked concern for Fargas. Upon returning to Baton Rouge, Fargas held an open tryout to, at the very least, gain more players for practice as the number of healthy bodies on the court continued to dwindle.

Again down to just eight players because of Pedersen's injury, the Lady Tigers defeated Texas Southern, 86-36, at the PMAC. Pedersen returned for the squad's $68-50$ win over UC Santa Barbara and gave LSU additional depth going forward -- depth it would need with the toughest of games coming up from that point on. Senior Akilah Bethel powered LSU's win over UCSB with 18 points, nine rebounds, five assists, four steals and a blocked shot and was named co-player of the week by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

The Lady Tigers set out for a tough road trip at Rutgers and UConn before the Christmas break and had 10 players see action in both of those games with the addition of Constance Quinn to the lineup. Quinn, a second baseman for the LSU softball team, joined the Lady Tigers following the December tryout and was cleared to make the trip. She played 12 minutes combined for the two games and while she did not pile up the statistics, she gave the Lady Tigers added depth and quickness and allowed guards Rina Hill, Shanice Norton, Jenna Deemer and Jasmine Rhodes to get a breather when needed.

Though Quinn only stayed with the team until softball began practicing in mid-January, she was praised often by Fargas for the dedication and energy she brought to the team when she was out on the court.
"She's been extremely helpful in a lot of different ways that aren't necessarily going to show up in a box score," Fargas said of Quinn during the season. "I was very excited about the fact that she would bring a toughness to our team that we were missing. We're missing a little toughness, Rina Hill brings it, but Connie also brings it."

Rina Hill was the only Lady Tiger to start all 31 games last season.

The Lady Tigers went toe-to-toe with Rutgers until the offense stalled out in the third quarter and the 10 -point deficit in that period proved to be the difference as Rutgers escaped with the 69-57 victory. Two days later, the topranked UConn Huskies dominated in an 86-40 win in front of their home crowd of over 10,000 fans despite their top player, Breanna Stewart, sitting out the game with an injury. Hill was the only Lady Tiger to score in double figures with 10 points, while Hyder led LSU with 12 rebounds.

The Lady Tigers had a couple of days of rest before meeting Samford at the PMAC following the Christmas break. The Bulldogs held LSU to just 7-of-26 (27\%) shooting in the first half and led by eight at the break before escaping with the 47-44 win. Pedersen had one of her better games of the season versus Samford with 15 points and six rebounds.

LSU finished its non-conference slate with a 6-7 record and opened SEC action at Alabama with a 62-45 loss. The Lady Tigers managed to snap the four-game losing streak with a convincing 76-57 victory over Ole Miss at the PMAC. Three Lady Tigers scored in double figures including Deemer (19), Bethel (16) and Hyder (15). Hyder paired her points with 10 rebounds in what would be her first of seven double-doubles against SEC competition. Two new Lady Tigers saw one minute of action late in the game as former manager Kayla Lee and Ashley Humbles, who played two seasons at Concordia, were dressed out for the first time after joining the team as walk-ons following the mid-December tryout.

The Lady Tigers found themselves struggling again and strung together another four-straight losses. In the $53-35$ setback to then-13th ranked Texas A&M, both teams came out flat in the first half as LSU held a 19-15 lead at the break. A&M made up for their lackluster offense in the second half, outscoring LSU, 38-16. Eager to leave the A&M loss behind, the Lady Tigers took to the road for their next two games against Vanderbilt and Florida. In Nashville, LSU suffered another blow to the roster as Deemer, the leading scorer at the time and top outside shooting threat, was sidelined with an illness. Deemer missed 12 of the final 15 games of the season because of the illness. Seven players saw action in the 58-42 loss to Vanderbilt as the Commodores scored 21 points from behind the arc and LSU was just 1-of-2 from long range in the game.

The Lady Tigers next traveled to Florida, which was ranked 20th nationally, and gave a valiant effort and came close to upsetting the Gators and gaining their first win over a ranked opponent. Heading into the fourth quarter, LSU held a 38-33 lead but the Gators took advantage of LSU's limited bench and turned up the pressure, outscoring the Lady Tigers, 20-7, in the fourth period for the eventual $53-45$ win. Again without Deemer, LSU was 0-of-6 from behind the arc.

LSU returned home to the PMAC and hosted Arkansas in what would be a low-scoring affair for both teams. As if the roster had not taken a great enough hit already, Fargas was forced to alter the starting lineup yet again upon Ann Jones suffering an ankle injury the day prior to facing the Razorbacks. With just six players seeing action against Arkansas, LSU fell 48-44, primarily because of a four-point third quarter that put the Lady Tigers in a hole heading into the fourth quarter. The Lady Tigers continued to battle and outscored Arkansas, 16-11, in the final quarter, but the deficit was too large to overcome. The game was not without its highlights as Bethel and Hyder both turned in double-double performances for the first of two times the duo would achieve the feat in 2015-16.

The Lady Tigers closed January with road trips to Georgia and Missouri, splitting those contests with a $53-46$ win against the Bulldogs and a 52-46 loss to the Tigers despite continuing to be down to just seven scholarship players. LSU dominated Georgia early and took a 21-15 lead into the locker room at the half. Four starters scored in double figures and the Lady Tigers had a 10-board advantage on the glass en route to the victory that snapped the team's second four-game losing skid of the season. Missouri used an outside game offensively and dominated the boards as LSU would again find difficulty in gaining consecutive wins in conference play. Mizzou scored 30 of its 52 points from three-point range and LSU didn't have an answer for the triples with its leading outside shooter, Deemer, still out with an illness.

The Lady Tigers struggled through the second half of the SEC schedule, which had LSU facing five national-ly-ranked opponents in eight contests. Despite four players scoring in double figures and forcing Auburn to cough up the ball 30 times, LSU fell to AU at home, 63-53. The Lady Tigers missed 13 of their 36 free-throw attempts in the game, with nine of the misses coming in the fourth quarter, and only capitalized on Auburn's 30 turnovers by scoring 18 points. Auburn, on the other hand, scored 26 points off 24 LSU miscues.

LSU stumbled against 11th-ranked Mississippi State at the PMAC but refused to go without a fight. Despite being down 49-26 heading into the fourth quarter, the Lady Tigers battled and made a late rally, outscoring the Bulldogs, $26-22$, in the fourth period before falling, 71-52. Out on the road at #18 Kentucky, the Lady Tigers got off to a slow start and fell behind, $26-10$, in the first quarter. LSU held UK to 11 points in the second period and outscored UK, 22-12, in the final stanza, but that opening deficit proved to be a tough hole to climb out of as LSU dropped that decision, 70-58. Hill (17) and Hyder (16) combined for 33 points, and Hyder posted another double-double effort after hauling in 15 rebounds in the loss.

Despite another double-double from Hyder, Georgia came in to the PMAC and avenged their earlier loss with a $58-47$ win over LSU. Freshman Shanice Norton Led LSU in scoring with 15 points, nine of which were from the free-throw line. Playing in their second of three games in an eight-day span, the Lady Tigers finally had Deemer and Jones back in the lineup to face 12th-ranked Texas

Alexis Hyder led the SEC in total offensive rebounds with 122. She also led the squad in both scoring and rebounding in 2015-16.

A&M in College Station. LSU dropped the 68-54 decision to the Aggies after shooting 40 percent from the field and 85 percent from the free-throw line. The Aggies dominated on rebounding, 40-26, and LSU was never able to gain a lead in the game. Deemer scored nine points and Jones scored two points in their first games back in action.

Taking a six-game losing streak into their home contest against No. 24 Tennessee, the Lady Tigers continued to battle and pulled off an exciting victory over Fargas' alma mater courtesy of two key free throws by Hyder in the final three seconds of the game. Hyder finished the game with 17 points, including a 9-of-11 effort from the charity stripe. Deemer was back to her outside shooting form, hitting three treys in the game, including back-to-back triples late in the third quarter that allowed LSU to take a 39-37 lead into the fourth period. Also playing a key part in the win was Bethel, who posted 12 rebounds, all of which were defensive boards. As if snapping a six-game losing skid and getting their first win over a ranked opponent wasn't enough, Fargas placed herself second amongst all-time Lady Tiger basketball coaches in terms of total wins with 92 following the game. With the loss, UT fell out of the Associated Press national poll for the first time in 31 years, a streak of 565 consecutive weeks.

LSU closed out the regular season with an 82-56 loss to Florida at home and a 75-39 loss to league champion South Carolina. Deemer only played nine minutes of the first half against Florida because of issues related to her previous illness, and did not return to the lineup for the remainder of the season. Amber Jones, another walk-on added following the December tryout, saw her first action entering the game in the final minute versus Florida. In that contest, the Gators hit 11 three-pointers and LSU missed both attempts from behind the arc. Three days later, No. 3 South Carolina hit 10 treys and was 21-of-26 from the freethrow line while also scoring 27 points off 20 LSU turnovers en route to closing out the SEC season undefeated in front of a home crowd of more than 16,000 fans. Hill and Hyder combined for 26 of LSU's 39 points in the loss.

As the No. 13 seed in the SEC Tournament, LSU met No. 12 seed Alabama in the first round and sent the Tide packing with a $58-49$ win. Hyder scored 20 points off a 9-of-12 effort from the field. LSU shot 50 percent (25-50)

SEC SEC games with an average of 9.4 points in the 16 contests. She scored in double figures in nine of the final 12 games of the season.

While LSU had its offensive struggles during the season, the defense remained solid and consistent, particularly during the SEC schedule. Up until the final two games against Florida and the final two games against Florida and South Carolina, the Lady Tigers held each of their league foes below their scoring average, some by as many as 20 -plus points below average. The season did not play out the way many would have predicted. But, who would have predicted that LSU would be down to just seven scholarship players for the bulk of its league schedule, or that from the field and used a total team effort as evidenced by the Lady Tigers registering 21 assists on 25 baskets.

With confidence going into the second round, LSU met fifth-seeded Kentucky and gave a strong effort in the 79-71 loss. The Lady Tigers fell behind early and were down by 12 at the half, but as they did all season, they continued to battle until the final buzzer. Despite a fourth-quarter rally that saw LSU outscore UK, 29-21, the Lady Tigers ended their season with the loss in Jacksonville. Bethel and Hyder registered double-doubles as Hyder notched her third 20-point game of the season with 23 versus the Wildcats. UK benefited from 40 free-throw attempts in the game, hitting 28 freebie shots. Again, missed free throws could have been the difference in the game as LSU lost by eight, but missed 11 freethrow attempts (19-of-30) in the game.

With 20 points in the win over Alabama and 23 in the loss to 13th-ranked Kentucky, Hyder became the first Lady Tiger to score 20-plus points in consecutive games of the postseason event since the 2006 SEC Tournament when Seimone Augustus scored 30 versus Ole Miss, 29 against Kentucky and 24 versus Tennessee. In mid-March, Hyder was named an honorable mention selection to the All-SEC Team by the Associated Press after leading the Lady Tigers in scoring and rebounding in her first season in the purple and gold with 12.2 points and 7.9 rebounds a game. She ranked in the top 10 in both categories in SEC games and led the league in offensive rebounds in all games with 122.

Bethel, who led the team in steals with 55, was named to the SEC Community Service Team for her efforts in the community. She closed out her senior season averaging 8.4 points and 6.4 rebounds a game. She ranked eighth in the SEC in steals during conference action.

Hill was the only Lady Tiger to start all 31 games as LSU utilized 10 different starting lineup combinations. Hill was LSU's second-leading scorer in the season.

Moncrief wouldn't be vying for first-team All-SEC honors, or that Mitchell wouldn't be able to make a run for league freshman of the year honors?

And with all of the adversity the team faced, Fargas was steadfast on commending her squad for their fight and explaining how she will use this season as a learning experience.
"There's going to be ups and downs in life as well as ups and downs with your team," said Fargas. "The loyalty and level of commitment that my student-athletes have shown has been extraordinary."
"This is the first season that I can remember that I've been in a losing season, and I'm going back to when I was six years old," added Fargas. "I didn't lose a lot growing up. Coming from a prestigious program, my high school, we won state championships and only lost three games. In college we only lost 11 games the entire four years that I was there, and then Virginia, Tennessee, UCLA, and here."
"This has been a learning experience for me, and it's one that I truly feel is going to make me a better coach," added Fargas. "I definitely am taking this in stride, but make no mistake about it, this is not any place that I am comfortable. This is not a place that we ever want to go back to. We're going to do everything in our power to make sure that LSU Women's Basketball is back at that elite level, that we are competing for SEC championships, and that we are positioning ourselves to cut down nets. That's what I know."

Senior Akilah Bethel led the Lady Tigers in steals with 55.

Miscellaneous Individual Records

Cornelia Gayden is the only player in school history with multiple triple-doubles, and she is one of only two players in SEC history to achieve the feat twice.

Katherine Graham etched her name into LSU history with the school's third triple-double in a 102-101 triple-overtime loss to Ole Miss on Feb. 7, 2010 in Baton Rouge. Graham was the only player in the SEC with a triple-double during the 2009-10 season.

40 SEASONS • 708 WINS • BASKETBALL HALL OF FAMER

The late Sue Gunter, a 2005 inductee into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, will always be remembered as not only one of the greatest coaches in women's basketball history, but also as a pioneer in the game. Gunter passed away on Aug. 4, 2005.

Gunter, who became the third women's coach in history to reach 700 career victories with a win over Arkansas on Feb. 12, 2004, was with women's basketball on the collegiate level every step of the way and saw the sport evolve from a novelty back in the early 1960s to present day, where the Final Four is sold out years in advance and games are shown nightly on national television.
Gunter, who was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in June 2000, completed her career among the leaders in several NCAA coaching categories: seasons coached ( $N$ o. 1 40); games coached ( $N o .3-1,016$ ); wins ( $N o .3-708$ ); and 20-win seasons ( $N$ o. 4-22).

Gunter's influence was a catalyst behind the growth of the game and things were no different in Baton Rouge as the Lady Tigers continue to play before school-record crowds and media attention is at an all-time high. In Gunter's 22 -year tenure at LSU, her list of accomplishments are long and impressive -- 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, one trip to the Final Four, four NCAA Elite Eight appearances, eight NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, two SEC Tournament titles, a Women's NIT title, and a handful of Coach of the Year awards.

Gunter added one final accolade to her historic career when she was inducted into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame on April 24, 2010.

SUE GUNTER - THE COACH

Sue Gunter brought the LSU women's basketball program back to national prominence. After a three-year hiatus in the mid-1990's that saw the Lady Tigers suffer through the school's firstever losing seasons, LSU returned to the post-season, and in Gunter's final year as head coach in 2003-04, advanced to the program's first NCAA Final Four.
To realize just how far the Lady Tigers have come, one has to go back to the 1994-95 season, the worst year in school history as LSU posted a 7-20 overall mark. Strangely enough, it was the 1994-95 season that proved to be the turning point for the Lady Tigers as Gunter turned up her recruiting magic and promptly signed the best class in school history. That class, which included future All-SEC selections in Elaine Powell, Pietra Gay and Toni Gross, won 46 games over two years and resurrected the LSU women's basketball program. The Lady Tigers won an average of 22.5 games per season under Gunter since the 1994-95 campaign, including a then-school record 30 wins in 2002-03.

Her final season was undoubtedly one of Gunter's finest on the court, despite not being on the bench for over half the season due to illness. The Lady Tigers won 27 games, finished second in the SEC with a 10-4 mark, received a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament's West Region and advanced past Austin Peay, Maryland, No. 1 seed Texas and Georgia to reach the program's first Final Four right down the road in New Orleans. Gunter coached in her 1,000 game on Jan. 25, 2004 and recorded her 700th career victory later in the season against Arkansas. Sophomore Seimone Augustus earned Kodak All-American honors and was the Louisiana Player of the Year.

Gunter completed her career as the third winningest women's basketball coach in history with an overall record of 708-308, which included coaching stints at Middle Tennessee, Stephen F. Austin and LSU. Gunter's LSU record was 442-221, which makes her the winningest coach in school history.

Under the direction of Gunter, the Lady Tigers played in 14 NCAA Tournaments, one National Women's Invitational Tournament and two WNIT events. Gunter led LSU to one Final Four in 2004, and to the Elite Eight in 1986, 2000 and 2003, while leading the Lady Tigers to a championship at the National Women's Invitational Tournament in 1985. In addition, Gunter directed LSU to 14 20-plus-win seasons, including one 30 -win season.

"Sue Gunter was a wonderful friend, an exceptional person and an incredibly talented basketball coach. Sue was definitely one of the pioneers of women's collegiate basketball. She was one of my mentors. I learned so much from Sue about the X's and O's of the game of basketball. But more importantly, she taught me about the delicate balance of coaching and teaching the game and the value of great player-coach relationships. She made playing basketball fun due to her ability to connect with her players. Personally, I am going to miss her tremendously and I know the game is going to miss her."

- Pat Summitt

FORMER TENNESSEE HEAD COACH
"I loved her. There was always a lot of respect, not just as a coach, but in life. She was an unbelievable friend and sister. I will always cherish what we had. And she was a hell of a coach."

- Ann Meyers
"When I got the call from my agent and he told me that LSU was interested in me, the first thing I thought about was Sue Gunter. She came to mind right off the bat. Having played in the SEC and having played against those old Sue Gunter teams back in the 90 s , I was just moved because she has meant so much to a lot of us, our career, and our choices to go into college coaching because of what she has done for women's basketball."

- Nikki Fargas  LSU HEAD COACH FROM HER INTRODUCTORY PRESS CONFERENCE ON APRIL 4, 2011

"A person you absolutely loved. There was not a person I respected more than Sue Gunter. Not only did we lose a great coach, but we lost an even better person."

FORMER LSU HEAD COACH & HALL OF FAMER

"When you look at Sue's record and all the accomplishments throughout her career, it's easy to say that we have lost a great coach. But, in reality we have lost a better person."

- Jim Foster FORMER OHIO STATE HEAD COACH

"A lot of the things you see today in the game of women's basketball are due to a large price earlier paid by people such as Sue Gunter. I had the utmost respect for her as a person and as a coach. She will really be missed in our game. Her achievements and legacy will far exceed her wins and losses, even though they were very impressive in her case."

- Marsha Sharp FORMER TEXAS TECH HEAD COACH

"Personally I felt like I lost my best friend. Basketball lost one of its heroes. She is legendary. The things that she has done and the way she did them are just remarkable."

- Andy Landers FORMER GEORGIA HEAD COACH

"Just sadness ... that was my first thought. At the same time it made me relive the times I spent with Sue Gunter on the recruiting trail. Those were good times. The coaching profession has lost a great one today. No question she is one of the pioneers. She's a legend in the women's game."

- Kim Mulkey  BAYLOR HEAD COACH

"I am very saddened today. Sue's passing is a great loss for our sport and a personal loss of a close friend. My thoughts are with Sue's family and those at LSU at this sad time."

2004

With head coach Sue Gunter sitting out the last half of the season due to illness, acting head coach Pokey Chatman led the Lady Tigers to the program's first trip to the NCAA Final Four and ironically enough, it was just down to the road in New Orleans.

The Lady Tigers' road to the Final Four began at home in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center with victories over Austin Peay in the first round and Maryland in the second round. An 83-66 win over Austin Peay was sparked by a 21-point performance by All-American Seimone Augustus, while the Baton Rouge native poured in 26 in the 76-61 win over Maryland two nights later.

The fourth-seeded Lady Tigers now had a date with top seeded Texas in the West Regional semifinal in Seattle, Wash. LSU was looking for revenge from the year before when Texas had knocked off the top-seeded Lady Tigers in the Regional Final. Revenge is just what LSU got with a 71-55 victory over the Longhorns led by Augustus' career-high 29 points. SEC foe Georgia would be the opponent in the Regional Final.

It would prove to be one of best NCAA Tournament games in history with the lead going back and forth until Georgia took a seven point lead with six minutes to play. LSU did not falter, chipping away at the lead using an 8-1 run in the final four minutes to take the lead and hold it for a $62-60$ victory and the program's first trip to the NCAA Final Four.

Augustus matched her career-high with 29 points, including a late free throw, while Temeka Johnson added 19 points, including a 15 -foot jumper that gave the Lady Tigers the lead for good.

Augustus was named the West Regional Most Outstanding Player and Johnson joined her on the West Regional All-Tournament team.

LSU had a date with rival and SEC foe Tennessee in the national semifinal game in the New Orleans Arena, just 70 miles from the Baton Rouge campus.

The Lady Vols ended LSU's magical run, 52-50, with a dramatic late steal and lay-up for Tennessee.

LSU ended the season with a 27-8 overall record and a run to the Final Four, the school's first.

2005

After not advancing to the NCAA Final Four in the history of the program, the LSU Lady Tigers made it two straight trips with a visit in 2005.

First year head coach Pokey Chatman, who had guided LSU to the Final Four in her hometown of New Orleans as acting head coach in 2004, led the Lady Tigers back to the promise land.
Chatman and the Lady Tigers enjoyed one of the best seasons in school history, posting 33-3 overall record and claiming the program's first Southeastern Conference regular season title with a perfect 14-0 mark.

The first stop for the Lady Tigers was Knoxville, Tenn., where No. 16 Stetson awaited. LSU took care of business in convincing fashion, posting a 70-36 victory. National Player of the Year Seimone Augustus scored 14 points, while National Point Guard of the Year Temeka Johnson had 15 points and seven assists.

No. 9 seed Arizona was the next victim as LSU advanced to the Sweet 16. The Lady Tigers continued its domination on defense in a $76-43$ victory. For the second straight game the opposition shot below 30.0 percent from the floor.

Augustus led the way with 18 points and eight rebounds, while Johnson added 14 points and 10 rebounds.

Upset-minded Liberty, the No. 13 seed, awaited LSU in Chattanooga for the Regional Semifinal. Defense again dominated the story line as the Lady Tigers defeated the Flames $90-48$. Augustus and Scholanda Hoston had 22 points, while Johnson added 12 points and 15 assists.

The Duke Blue Devils, the No. 2 seed, now stood between LSU and a return trip to the Final Four.

Duke jumped out to an early lead and led for all but a few seconds of the first half until LSU battled back to tie the score at $30-30$ just before halftime.

The Lady Tigers took control in the second half and held on for a 59-49 victory, earning them a trip to Indianapolis and a date with Baylor.

The RCA Dome was the site of the battle between the Lady Bears and the Lady Tigers in the National Semifinal. LSU jumped out to an early 15-point lead only to have Baylor chip back and eventually tie the score 28-28 at the break.

Unlike the Regional Final victory over Duke, this time Baylor, the eventual national champions, took control in the second half and pulled away with a 68-57 victory.

2006

After reaching the Final Four in 2004 and 2005, LSU would settle for nothing less than a return trip to the grandest spectacle in women's basketball.

Second-year head coach Pokey Chatman guided the Lady Tigers to a 31-4 overall record, including the program's second-straight Southeastern Conference regular season title with a 13-1 mark.

LSU took its momentum from the regular season and rode it to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight season and the third time in four years. The Lady Tigers were placed in the San Antonio Region and made the first stop in Nashville, Tenn., for the first- and second-round games.

No. 16 seed Florida Atlantic awaited LSU at Vanderbilt's Memorial Gymnasium. The Lady Tigers used a $20-0$ run midway through the first half and pulled away with a $72-48$ victory to advance to the second round to face No. 9 seed Washington.

Washington was, in fact, playing so well that they led LSU, 26-23, at the end of the first half. The lead would not last long as the Lady Tigers shot out on a 12-2 run to open the half and never looked back to earn a 72-49 victory and a trip to the Sweet 16 in San Antonio.

Fourth-seeded DePaul was next for LSU. The Blue Demons gave it a good fight in the opening 20 minutes and found themselves deadlocked at 31-31 with the Lady Tigers at the break. Another Lady Tigers' run to open the second half and LSU pulled way from DePaul for a $66-56$ victory.

No. 3 seed Stanford upset second-seeded Oklahoma in the other regional semifinal to set up an LSU-Stanford showdown for the right to advance to Boston.

The Cardinal took a 55-54 lead with four minutes left in the game before LSU posted six straight points to hold a 60-55 advantage with 2:07 remaining.

Just over a minute later, Stanford's Candice Wiggins nailed a three-pointer to cut the lead to 60-59, but Seimone Augustus hit a couple of free throws and drew a charging foul on the defensive end to seal a 62-59 victory for LSU.

Augustus earned Regional Most Outstanding Player honors after posting 18 points against DePaul and 26 in the win over Stanford.

In Boston, Duke, the No. 1 seed from the Bridgeport Region, controlled the game from the start and handed LSU a 64-45 loss in the National Semifinal game in the TD Banknorth Garden.

2007

Acting head coach Bob Starkey was faced with the daunting task of guiding the LSU Lady Tigers into the 2007 NCAA Tournament after closing out the regular season with three losses in the final five games, but guide he did.

After a nice run in the Southeastern Conference Tournament and a loss to Vanderbilt in the title game, LSU received a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and were placed in the Fresno Regional

The road to Cleveland's Quicken Loans Arena would begin in Austin, Texas at the University of Texas' Erwin Center. LSU made quick work of the Bulldogs with a 77-39 victory. Quianna Chaney and RaShonta LeBlanc carried LSU with 15 points each and combined to hit nine three-pointers in the game.

Up next was upset-minded West Virginia, the No. 11 seed. LSU had to rally from 11 points down in the final 12 minutes of play to secure a 49-43 victory. Fowles led the way with 21 points and 13 rebounds, while Chaney added 11 points.

The come-from-behind victory over WVU advanced LSU into the Sweet 16 and a trip to Fresno, Calif., and a date with №. 10 seed Florida State at Fresno State's Save Mart Center.

The Lady Tigers had little trouble with Florida State in a $55-43$ victory. LSU led the entire game and held a 27-18 lead at halftime before breaking it open with a $10-0$ to open the second half. Chaney led LSU with 22 points and Fowles added 20 points and nine rebounds.

In the Elite Eight, The Lady Tigers would face top-seeded Connecticut with a chance to avenge an earlier one-point loss at home.

LSU did just that and did it in convincing fashion with a 73-50 win over the Huskies in the Fresno Regional Final.

Fowles continued her dominance in the tournament with 23 points, 15 rebounds and six blocked shot on her way to being named Regional Most Outstanding Player. Allison Hightower and Ashley Thomas added 12 points each and White posted 11 points in the victory.

A disappointing outing versus Greensboro Regional Champion Rutgers in the national semifinal in Cleveland ended LSU's season, but the Lady Tigers could not hang their heads after a 30-8 season, the program's third straight 30 -win season.

LSU joined Connecticut as the only team in NCAA women's basketball history to advance to five straight Final Fours as first-year LSU head coach Van Chancellor led the Lady Tigers to a 31-6 overall record and a perfect 14-0 Southeastern Conference mark.

Going into the season, the squad knew the Pete Maravich Assembly Center would be a host site for the NCAA First and Second Rounds. LSU earned a No. 2 seed in the New Orleans Regional and awaited Jackson State in the first round from the friendly confines of the Maravich Center. What resulted was one of the most dominating performances in school history and a $66-32$ victory over the 15th seed. Sylvia Fowles led all scorers with 16 points, and Jackson State's 32 total points were the fewest allowed by LSU in its NCAA Tournament history.

Two days later, the Lady Tigers tangled with a ranked Marist team, the No. 7 seed. The Red Foxes were no match for home standing LSU, who snapped Marist's 22-game winning streak with a 68-49 win. Fowles became the SEC's all-time leading rebounder with 13 boards while adding 19 points. LSU's eight seniors also received a standing ovation in their final home game.

In the Sweet 16, another home atmosphere awaited at the New Orleans Arena as the Lady Tigers used a 15-0 run to top third-seeded Oklahoma State, 67-52. Erica White scored a team-high 18 points on 5-of-11 shooting.

All that stood between LSU and a fifth straight Final Four appearance was a battle with top-seeded and No. 1-ranked North Carolina. Fowles scored 21 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to lead her senior class to victory, 56-50. The senior earned New Orleans Regional Most Outstanding Player honors.

Guard RaShonta LeBlanc hit the most important shot of the game, a three pointer from the right wing with 4:30 to play that put LSU ahead by seven, 44-37, with 4:30 left.

In Tampa at the NCAA Final Four, LSU suffered a heartbreaking loss to Tennessee, 47-46. UT's Alexis Hornbuckle rebounded a missed shot and dropped in a layup with 0.7 seconds left to play to bail the Lady Vols out after LSU's Erica White hit two free throws with seven seconds to play. Fowles closed a brilliant career with 24 points, 20 rebounds and five blocked shots.

THE ONLY LADY TIGERS TO REACH THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME OF A POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT

With one of the most dominating forward-center combinations in LSU women's basketball history in Australians Julie Gross and Maree Jackson, the Lady Tigers enjoyed one of their finest seasons in 1976-77.

The Lady Tigers, behind the play of Gross and Jackson, started the season off slow, but ended its regular-season with a 21-5 mark.

The Lady Tigers then headed to the AIAW State Tournament in Ruston. LSU easily handled New Orleans in the first round, winning 85-58, followed by a 73-51 victory over Southern. Louisiana Tech stopped LSU in the semifinals as the Techsters posted a 101-88 win over LSU. The Lady Tigers then fell to Northwestern State, 87-82, but the Lady Tigers still managed to finish in second place at the state tournament.

By virtue of its second place finish at the state tournament, LSU advanced to the AIAW Regional Tournament in Monroe.

At the regional tournament, the Lady Tigers got on a roll as they whipped Texas, 95-67, in the first round followed by a 76-73 win over a Sue Gunter-coached Stephen F. Austin team in the semifinals. LSU beat Baylor, 92-76, in the championship game to advance to the AIAW National Tournament in Minneapolis, Minn.

At the AIAW National Tournament, the Lady Tigers drew Western Washington in the first round and had little trouble as the Lady Tigers, behind 40 points from Maree Jackson, raced out to 49-26 halftime lead and never looked back in their 91-53 win. Next up for the Lady Tigers was Baylor, a team that LSU had already beat twice during the season, which included a victory over the Bears in the regional finals.

LSU was once again victorious over Baylor as the Lady Tigers got 35 points and 26 rebounds from Maree Jackson and advanced with a 71-64 win.

The Lady Tigers then moved into the semifinal round against Immaculata, a powerhouse in women's basketball at the time. Immaculata was ranked №. 2 in the nation and was considered a huge favorite in the contest with the Lady Tigers.

The Lady Tigers upset Immaculata, 74-68, despite the fact that Jackson played after having root canal surgery and Brenda McGuffie played with a severely sprained ankle. In addition, Jackson and McGuffee played the final 10 minutes of the contest with four fouls. Jackson finished with 29 points and 19 rebounds, while Gross had 23 points and 11 boards.

It was on to the national championship game for LSU as the 11th-ranked Lady Tigers would face top-ranked Delta State for the title.

Delta State scored the first six points of the contest and the Delta Devils quickly built a nine point advantage, 13-4, on a jumper by Debbie Brock at the 15:14 mark. LSU could get no closer than seven points the rest of the way as Lady Tiger AllAmerican Jackson picked up her third foul with 5:54 to play in the first half. Delta State led 34-25 at intermission.

In the second half, Delta State never let the Lady Tigers back in the contest as the Delta Devils held Jackson to a careerlow six points in posting a $68-55$ victory. Lucy Harris, the best women's player in the country at the time, led Delta State with 23 points and 16 rebounds.

The Lady Tigers finished the year with an overall record of 29-8 and ranked №. 11 in the nation. That team still holds the distinction of being the only Lady Tiger team ever to reach the national championship game of a post-season tournament.

2007-08 FIML Foun R ovieall recona: 31-6

For only the second time in NCAA women's basketball history, a school had reached the Final Four for the fifth straight season as the Lady Tigers culminated a $31-6$ record in Tampa, Fla. LSU, which won its third SEC regular season title with a perfect 14-0 mark, defeated No. 15 seed Jackson State and No. 7 seed Marist in the NCAA First and Second Rounds in Baton Rouge. The Lady Tigers, the No. 2 seed in the New Orleans Region, topped No. 3 seed Oklahoma State and then upset top-seeded North Carolina, 56-50, in the New Orleans Regional Final. Senior All-American center Sylvia Fowles earned Most Outstanding Player honors after registering a double-double in four of LSU's five NCAA Tournament games.

NCAA Tournament Teams

2008-09 overall recoro: 19-11

After losing all five starters from its 2008 Final Four team, LSU's youthful roster put together a five-game winning streak to close the SEC regular season and reach the NCAA Tournament for the 11 th straight year Head coach Van Chancellor might have turned in the finest coaching job of his career. LSU finished tied for second in the SEC despite boasting one of the youngest teams in America. The Lady Tigers defeated Green Bay, 69-59, in the NCAA First Round at the Maravich Center. LSU then gave third-seeded Louisville all it could handle in the second round before falling to the eventual national championship game participants, $62-52$.

2009-10 overall recoop: 21-10

LSU reached the NCAA Tournament for the 12th straight season led by State Farm Honorable Mention All-American and All-SEC first teamer Allison Hightower. The Lady Tigers finished in a tie for third place during the SEC regular season and drew a seventh seed in the NCAA Tournament. After knocking off 10th-seeded Hartford, 60-39, in the first round, LSU took second-seeded and host Duke to the wire at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Blue Devils outlasted the Lady Tigers by a score of 60-52.

2011-12 оveall и हсор:: $23-11$

Under the direction of first-year head coach Nikki Fargas, LSU rode a six-game win streak late in the season to finish fourth in the SEC standings. The Lady Tigers, led by All-SEC forward LaSondra Barrett, reached the SEC Tournament championship game and made a return to the NCAA Tournament after a one-year absence. Playing both of its NCAA Tournament games at home, No. 5 seed LSU beat No. 12 seed San Diego State, $64-56$, in the first round before losing to fourth-seeded Penn State, $90-80$, in the second round.

2012-13 overall Recoop: 22-12

With a roster stricken by injuries and down to eight players, LSU developed the motto "Eight is Enough" and went on a six-game winning streak with victories over No. 4 Kentucky and a convincing $67-52$ victory at No. 14 Texas A&M to close the regular season. Junior forward Theresa Plaisance became the first LSU player to lead the SEC in scoring since Seimone Augustus. The Lady Tigers beat No. 20 Green Bay on their home floor in the first round and then pulled off one of the most remarkable victories in school history to reach the Sweet 16 . Without its spirited leader in Jeanne Kenney, who sustained an injury, LSU -- with a roster of seven players -- knocked off No. 8 Penn State 71-66 before a raucous crowd in the Maravich Center to reach the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2008. The Lady Tigers saw their season come to an end in the Spokane regional semifinal with a 73-63 loss to eventual Final Four participant California.

2013-14 overall recoro: 21-13

LSU won nine of its first 10 games which included a pair of dramatic victories over Rutgers and Michigan to claim the Barclays Invitational title in New York. The Lady Tigers climbed as high as No. 12 in the polls and began SEC play with a thrilling 80-77 victory over No. 5 Tennessee behind Danielle Ballard's 25 points. After a six-game losing streak to end the regular season, LSU refound its rhythm and used a high-octane offensive attack to set the school's postseason scoring record during an 98-78 win over Georgia Tech in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Tigers had to overcome key injuries to their second and fourth leading scorers - Jeanne Kenney and Raigyne Moncrief - but played with heart, fight, courage and determination to upend No. 7 West Virginia, 76-67, to advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 . LSU fell to No. 4 Louisville to conclude its third consecutive season with 20-plus victories under Nikki Fargas.

2014-15 оveall हесор:: 17-14

Going into conference play sitting at 6-6 after the team's final holiday tournament of the year, the Lady Tigers went on a tear during conference play, finishing in a tie for fourth place in the league standings, finishing with a 10-6 SEC record. LSU began the league slate with a win over Florida, and over the course of the new year went on a four-game winning streak, including knocking off ranked Texas A&M, Mississippi State and Kentucky. The Lady Tigers were able to take wins over the Aggies in consecutive games over the course of the end of the season and the conference tournament, making it to the semifinals of the league tournament. The Lady Tigers earned their fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament by earning the No. 11 seed in the Albany Regional, falling in the first round to host and No. 25 USF 73-64.

2007-08 SEC Champions

In 2007-08, LSU claimed the program's third outright Southeastern Conference regular season title and did so with a perfect 14-0 league record. The unblemished run through the SEC schedule was the second time in school history the Lady Tigers had achieved the feat and the second time in four seasons.

LSU's second league title in three years began on the road with a tough challenge against №. $20 / 18$ Arkansas, but the Lady Tigers quickly put the Lady Razorbacks away with a $76-54$ win. Three days later, LSU opened its home league slate with a $62-51$ victory over Vanderbilt followed by a decisive blowout of Mississippi State at home, 84-31. The 53 -point win broke the largest margin of victory by the Lady Tigers over an SEC opponent in school history.
LSU then took to the road for two crucial games and both went in favor of the Lady Tigers. Following a $79-59$ win at No. 25/22 Auburn, LSU ran its SEC record to 5-0 with a 72-46 blowout of Kentucky at Rupp Arena for the program's 700th victory. For 283 consecutive minutes, the Lady Tigers had not trailed until South Carolina took an early lead on LSU on Jan. 31. That 6-4 deficit proved to be shortlived as the Lady Tigers closed the month of January with a 67-37 win to run their record to 6-0.
Two more road wins followed, including a decisive $85-71$ win at Florida before a hostile crowd at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.
 LSU faced its toughest test to date when the Lady Tigers pulled out a 63-57 road win at No. 24/21 Georgia on Feb. 10. With its record at 9-0, LSU traveled to Knoxville for a showdown with №. 1 Tennessee and what resulted was one of the most thrilling victories in school history.

Down 21-2 eight minutes into the game, №. 7 LSU outscored Tennessee, 76-41, the rest of the game to stun the top-ranked Lady Vols, 78-62. Head coach Van Chancellor then defeated his former Ole Miss team, 78-48, and the Lady Tigers held on for a 52-48 home win to sweep Kentucky on the season series. LSU closed its regular season home schedule by beating Arkansas, 83-46, and the Lady Tigers completed a magical run through the conference schedule with a 69-49 win at Mississippi State to punctuate a 14-0 record.

[^2] Southeastern Conference title, but by doing it in convincing fashion.
The Lady Tigers completed the SEC schedule unblemished, posting a 14-0 record.
LSU began the conference season with a home game against №. 17 Georgia on national television. The Lady Tigers, ranked No. 1 at the time, handed the Lady Bulldogs a 76-52 loss and took that momentum into Gainesville, Fla., for a date with the Lady Gators.

The Lady Tigers rolled past Florida, 64-47, and then returned home to host both Alabama and Arkansas. LSU handed Alabama a 76-51 loss and defeated Arkansas, 91-45, in impressive fashion.

A trip to Nashville to face Vanderbilt in Memorial Coliseum was next. The Lady Tigers had not had much success when facing the Commodores on their home floor, but this time LSU prevailed, 79-68, over 17th-ranked Vanderbilt.
The end of January had the Lady Tigers return to Baton Rouge to host pesky Auburn. A hard fought 57-52 victory boosted LSU to a 6-0 league mark with eight games left.

A road swing through Mississippi saw the Lady Tigers hand Ole Miss a 82-58 loss and Mississippi State a 67-40 loss.
Those two wins meant a showdown in the Pete Maravich Center between top-ranked LSU at 8-0 in the league and fifth-ranked Tennessee, also with a perfect 8-0 league mark.
The Lady Tigers took care of business in front of the largest home crowd in LSU women's basketball history, defeating the Lady Vols 68-58 on national television. A 66-36 victory at South Carolina and an 81-58 home victory over Kentucky followed and LSU had 11 league wins, the most in the program's history.

The final three games awaited, including trips to Auburn and Arkansas.
Once again, the Auburn Tigers proved pesky, but LSU prevailed 62-57.
Things were much easier in Fayetteville as LSU rolled to a 90-64 win, clinching at least a share of the league crown for the Lady Tigers.

LSU returned home with a chance to claim the program's first outright league title and a perfect 14-0 record.

Florida stood in the way, but not for long. In front of a crowd of over 10,000 fans, LSU defeated the Lady Gators, 76-52, and the first SEC Champions banner was dropped from the rafters of the PMAC.

In 2004-05 the Lady Tigers made history, not only by winning the program's first

1991 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

LSU claimed its first Tournament title in 1991 as the Lady Tigers had one of the most impressive runs in conference tournament history.
Entering the tournament as the No. 4 seed, the Lady Tigers had a first round bye and then beat Kentucky, 96-76, in the second round.
The Lady Tigers, who were ranked No. 12 in the nation, then upset fourth-ranked Georgia, 83-74, in the semifinals.
In the title game, point guard Pokey Chatman scored 30 points, including 16 straight at one point, as the Lady Tigers knocked off third-ranked Tennessee, 80-75.
Chatman was named most valuable player of the tournament, while Sheila Johnson and Annette Jackson-Lowery were named to the alltournament team.

2003 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The LSU's run through the Southeastern Conference Tournament was something special in 2003. It had been 12 years since LSU had last won a tournament title and the Lady Tigers were hungry for the crown.
Standing in the way of the second seeded and sixth-ranked Lady Tigers in the opening game were the No. 23 Arkansas Lady Razorbacks, a team that had handed LSU its first defeat of the season in Fayetteville earlier during the season.

It would prove to be the closest margin of victory in LSU's run to the title. LSU defeated
 Arkansas 78-72 thanks to some clutch free throw shooting down the stretch, including Seimone Augustus' two free throws with 19 seconds to play to give the freshman her 21st and 22nd points of the game and LSU a four-point lead.

Four of the five starters for LSU scored in double figures in the opening round victory over Arkansas. In addition to Augustus, Temeka Johnson added 15 points, while Doneeka Hodges and Aiysha Smith both hit for 11 points.

15th-ranked Vanderbilt was the next item on the menu for the Lady Tigers. The Commodores were also a team that had defeated LSU during the regular season. In fact, the defending SEC Tournament champions had knocked off LSU just the week before in Nashville and were playing with a lot of confidence heading into the semifinals of the SEC Tournament.
Vandy had so much confidence in themselves they led by as many as nine in the first half and took a 39-35 lead into the locker room at halftime after shooting 51.7 percent from the floor in the opening 20 minutes of play. LSU did not take its first lead of the game until Seimone Augustus hit a pair of free throws with 17 minutes to play to give the Lady Tigers a 44-43 advantage. The lead went back and forth for most of the second half until LSU closed the game with a 12-2 run in the final four minutes to advance to their second-straight SEC Tournament title game.

Augustus took over the game during the final run, scoring 14 of her 20 points in the final four minutes of play. Aiysha Smith led LSU with 21 points, while Temeka Johnson added 12 points and Augustus had nine rebounds to go along with her point total.
The stage was set for the SEC title game, sixth-ranked LSU vs. No. 3 Tennessee for the SEC Championship. It marked a rematch of the 68-65 Lady Vol victory during the regular season in Baton Rouge.

The Lady Tigers took control of the game early, jumping out to a 7-0 lead while taking a 42-25 lead at the break. Tennessee managed to trim the margin down to 13 with 15 minutes to play before the Lady Tigers took the largest lead of the game at 18 with 10 minutes left.
Temeka Johnson took home MVP honors after scoring a career-high 24 points in the victory. She added nine rebounds and seven assists in the win. Aiysha Smith added 18 points, while Seimone Augustus had 12 points and eight rebounds on her way to an all-tournament team selection.

LSU avenged all three of its regular season losses with three wins over three top 25 teams in three days to win the 2003 SEC Tournament Championship.

Final Four legacy

LSU Lady Tiger Basketball and Final Fours are synonymous. LSU has a proud tradition of Final Four teams that began a historic streak in 2004. From Hall of Famer Sue Gunter to the players who have donned a Lady Tiger jersey since that season, Final Four basketball at LSU is a legacy that carries on and the pinnacle to which every player aspires to reach.

The Drive for Five ended in Tampa as first-year LSU head coach Van Chancellor reached the Final Four. LSU became only the second program in NCAA Division I history to advance to five-straight Final Fours, doing so behind the play of All-American and SEC Player of the Year Sylvia Fowles. The Lady Tigers edged №. 2 North Carolina in the New Orleans Regional Final.

Under associate head coach Bob Starkey, LSU overcame a late season adversity and hoisted a fourth Final Four trophy by winning the Fresno Regional over top-seeded Connecticut. State Farm All-American Sylvia Fowles shattered the LSU record books for blocked shots and rebounds.

Seimone Augustus leaves a magnificent legacy as the most decorated player in school history. The 2006 National Player of the Year guided the Lady Tigers to a third-straight Final Four with a 31-4 record, another Southeastern Conference championship and a victory over Stanford in the regional final. The trip to Boston culminated a year of record-breaking attendances for LSU.

33-3 overall. 27-1 regular season. 14-0 perfect SEC regular season. It was unchartered territory for an LSU program in the national spotlight. In one of the most dominating seasons in school history, the Lady Tigers made it back-to-back Final Four appearances after topping Duke in the regional final. Seimone Augustus became the school's first National Player of the Year.

When LSU began its run in the 2004 NCAA Tournament, it was the culmination of a season of destiny that ended in New Orleans. Legendary coach Sue Gunter had to miss the final 20 games due to illness, but the Lady Tigers fought on. LSU reached the program's first Final Four behind sophomore All-American Seimone Augustus and point guard Temeka Johnson as the Lady Tigers defeated Georgia in the regional final.

Great MOMENTS

LSU BEATS NO. 2 IMMACULATA
Minneapolis, Minn. • March 25, 1977
LSU used a dominating forward-center combination to upset powerhouse Immaculata in the AIAW National Tournament in Minneapolis, Minn. Maree Jackson scored 29 points and had 19 rebounds while Julie Gross had 23 points and 11 boards to send the Lady Tigers to the national title game with a 74-68 victory. That team still holds the distinction of being the only Lady Tiger team ever to reach the national championship game of a postseason tournament.

FINAL FOUR BOUND

Bank of America Arena Seattle • March 28, 2004

LSU, No. 19 in the nation and the No. 4 seed in the West Region, knocked off top-seeded Texas, 71-55, in the Sweet 16 to advance to the school's fourth Elite Eight. The Lady Tigers then upended SEC rival Georgia, 62-60, to advance to the program's first NCAA Final Four. Seimone Augustus, the NCAA West Regional Most Outstanding Player, scored 16 points in the clinching game and averaged 26.3 points for the tournament.

1991 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS
Albany, Ga. • March 4, 1991
The No. 4 seed in the 1991 SEC Tournament, LSU soared through the field for its first tournament title. The No. 12 Lady Tigers upset No. 4 Georgia before knocking off third-ranked Tennessee, 80-75, to win the crown. Tournament MVP Pokey Chatman scored 30 points and was joined by Sheila Johnson and Annette Jackson-Lowery on the all-tournament team.

DOWN GOES NO. 1
Maravich Center • Feb. 21, 1999
LSU earned its first-ever win over a No. 1-ranked team on Feb. 21, 1999, when the Lady Tigers beat top-ranked Tennessee, 72-69, in the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Katrina Hibbert converted a threepoint play with 11.8 seconds left to play to seal the win.

FIVE STRAIGHT FINAL FOURS

New Orleans Arena • March 31, 2008

State Farm All-American Sylvia Fowles poured in 21 points and grabbed 12 rebounds to earn Most Outstanding Player honors as LSU knocked off top-seeded and second-ranked North Carolina, 56-50, in the New Orleans Regional Final. First-year LSU head coach Van Chancellor guided the Lady Tigers to their fifth straight NCAA Final Four. LSU became only the second program in NCAA Division I history to achieve the feat, joining Connecticut who did it from 2000-04.

2003 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS Little Rock, Ark. • March 9, 2003

LSU avenged all three of its regular season losses with three wins over three Top 25 teams in three days to win the 2003 SEC Tournament Championship. Temeka Johnson earned tournament MVP honors, scoring 24 points in the final 78-62 win over No. 3 Tennessee. Aiysha Smith added 18 points and Seimone Augustus scored 12 points with eight boards.

14-O IN 2005

Maravich Center • Feb. 27, 2005
No. 1 LSU defeated Florida in the final game of the 2005 season and dropped a championship banner from the rafters of the Maravich Center to celebrate the Lady Tigers' first Southeastern Conference regular season championship. LSU rolled to the league crown with a perfect 14-0 record, marking only the 13th time an SEC school completed the schedule unblemished.

LSU STUNS UCONN

Fresno, Calif. • March 26, 2007

Sylvia Fowles dominated top-seeded Connecticut to lead the Lady Tigers to its fourth consecutive Final Four with a resounding $73-50$ win in Fresno, Calif. The Fresno Region's Most Outstanding Player, Fowles scored 23 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to carry LSU into a Final Four matchup with Rutgers in Cleveland, Ohio.

SWEET 16

March 26, 2013 • LSU 71, No. 8 Penn State 66
With an active roster of only seven players, LSU returned to the Sweet 16 with a gritty 71-66 win over Penn State. Adrienne Webb pumped in a career-best 29 points on a 10 -for-16 shooting performance. She swished the go-ahead three during the closing three minutes and sealed the victory with two free throws with 21 seconds remaining.

LSU is entering its 42nd season of women's basketball. The Lady Tigers first played basketball as a varsity sport in 1975-76 and since that inaugural season, LSU has posted 36 winning seasons, played in 24 NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the AIAW National Championship game in 1977 and the NCAA Final Four in 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008.

the coaches

LSU women's basketball has featured illustrious Hall of Fame coaches since its inception. Jinks Coleman coached the Lady Tigers for three and a half years before stepping down midway through the 1978-79 season. In three-plus years, Coleman guided LSU to a 91-32 overall mark. Her crowning moment with LSU came during the 1976-77 season as she led the Lady Tigers to the AIAW National Championship game. LSU fell to top-ranked Delta State, but that 1977 team remains the only squad in school history to play for a national title. Coleman's 197778 team holds the school record for most victories with 37.

Coleman was replaced by Barbara Swanner midway through the 1979 season and Swanner coached the Lady Tigers for the next three years. She led LSU to an overall mark of 57-50 before ending her coaching career at the conclusion of the 1981-82 season.

Hall of Famer Sue Gunter joined the Lady Tigers for the 1982-83 season. In 22 seasons with the Lady Tigers, Gunter led the Lady Tigers to 442 victories and guided her teams to 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, the 1991 and 2003 SEC Tournament titles and the 2004 NCAA Final Four. Gunter, who retired following the 2003-04 season, is a member of both the Naismith Hall of Fame and the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. She added another accolade to her historic career in the spring of 2010 when she was inducted into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Gunter was a true pioneer for the sport and her legacy at LSU remains the foundation of the program.

Pokey Chatman replaced Gunter after serving as the acting head coach for 20 games in 2003-04, guiding the team to a $15-5$ mark, including the program's first trip to the NCAA Final Four. She finished her career during the 2006-07 season with a 90-14 record. Bob Starkey served as acting head coach during the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Starkey led the Lady Tigers to a fourth straight Final Four appearance as he produced a 4-1 record, including a 73-50 upset of Connecticut in the Fresno Regional Final.

Van Chancellor was named the sixth head coach in LSU history on April 11, 2007. Chancellor, a Naismith Hall of Famer and the all-time winningest head coach in WNBA history, led the Lady Tigers to a Final Four and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. Chancellor coached for four seasons and stepped down following the 2010-11 season. He finished his LSU tenure with a 90-40 record.

In April 2011, LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva named Nikki Fargas (formerly Nikki Caldwell) the seventh head coach in the history of the program.

Fargas stepped to the podium on April 4 and delivered the following message: "The first thing I thought about was Sue Gunter. She came to mind right off the bat. Having played in the SEC and having played against those old Sue Gunter teams back in the 90 s, I was just moved because she has meant so much to a lot of us, our career, and our choices to go into college coaching because of what she has done for women's basketball. I can't tell you enough how honored I am to be a part of such a great legacy."

Fargas brought a winning attitude back to the program as she has guided LSU to three consecutive seasons of 20 -plus victories, four NCAA Tournament appearances and back-toback NCAA Sweet 16 trips in 2013 and 2014.

THE 19705

The decade of the 1970s saw the start of women's basketball as a varsity sport at LSU. The Lady Tigers played their first game in November of 1975, losing to Whitworth, 64-58. LSU's first win came a week later with a 75-62 victory over Southwestern Louisiana. The win was the first of 17 for the Lady Tigers in their inaugural season as LSU posted a first-year mark of 17-14.

A year later, LSU, behind the play of a couple of Australians in Maree Jackson and Julie Gross, was playing for the AIAW National title. After going unrecognized for much of the year, LSU finally began to gain some respect with wins over three ranked teams in February. The Lady Tigers entered the AIAW State Tournament on a roll, however, LSU lost to Louisiana Tech and Northwestern State, but they were still able to advance to the AIAW Regional Tournament. At Regionals, the Lady Tigers beat Texas, Stephen F. Austin and Baylor to advance to the AIAW National Tournament.

By this time the Lady Tigers were ranked No. 11 in the nation and after wins over Western Washington and Baylor, LSU was in the Final Four. LSU knocked off second-ranked Immaculata, 74-68, in the semifinals and then fell to top-ranked Delta State, 68-55, in the national title game. LSU finished with a 29-8 overall mark, the second-most victories recorded in school history in a single year at the time.
In 1977-78, the Lady Tigers achieved their first No. 1 ranking as LSU spent most of January and February atop the Associated Press poll, after having started the year ranked No. 2 in the nation. The Lady Tigers stayed there until Feb. 15 when Tennessee moved ahead of LSU. Despite being ranked No. 2 in the nation, LSU couldn't advance out of the Regionals as the Sue Gunter-coached Stephen F. Austin Lady Jacks eliminated the Lady Tigers in the semifinals. LSU still won 37 games, which remains the school record for victories in a season.

LSU closed out the decade of the 1970s with a coaching change as Jinks Coleman stepped down after 15 games in the 197879 season. With an 8-7 mark, Coleman was replaced by Barbara Swanner, who guided LSU to a 5-5 mark over the final 10 games of the year. LSU finished with a 13-12 record.

THE 19805

The decade of the 80s saw LSU establish itself as one of the top programs in the country.

LSU opened the decade under Barbara Swanner and posted a 17-17 mark and reached the semifinals of the AIAW Regional Tournament.

A year later, Joyce Walker came to Baton Rouge and put women's basketball at LSU back on the map. Walker, who was way ahead of her time, could do it all. In her first year with the Lady Tigers she averaged 20.7 points a contest and led the Lady Tigers to a 17-15 mark.

A year later, the NCAA became the governing body of women's athletics and the NCAA Tournament was started. The Lady Tigers didn't make the NCAA Tournament in 1982, but still posted an 18-13 overall mark as Walker averaged 24.9 points a contest. That season was Swanner's last year as head coach of the Lady Tigers.

LSU's first team - 1975-76

The 1982-83 season was the first for the Lady Tigers under Sue Gunter, who came to LSU from Stephen F. Austin in Nacogdoches, Texas. In her first year with LSU, Gunter guided the Lady Tigers to a 20-7 mark and a tie for first place in the Western Division of the SEC.

Walker's last year with LSU in 1983-84 marked the Lady Tigers' first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. LSU went 23-7 and reached the Sweet 16 at the NCAA Tournament before falling to Louisiana Tech.

In 1984-85, the Lady Tigers claimed the National Women's Invitational Tournament (NWIT) title with a 74-54 win over Florida in the championship game.

LSU's best season since 1977 occurred in 1985-86 as the Lady Tigers climbed all the way to No. 8 in the nation and reached the Elite Eight at the NCAA Tournament before falling to Tennessee in the final seconds, 67-65.

Another 20-win season followed in 198687 as the Lady Tigers spent most of the year ranked in the top 10 . However, the Lady Tigers lost their last three games, including a 70-56 setback to Southern Illinois in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The 1987-88 season saw the arrival of Dana "Pokey" Chatman, the best point guard in school history. Chatman helped guide the Lady Tigers to an 18-11 mark and another NCAA Tournament appearance. LSU closed out the 1980s with its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance as LSU reached the Sweet 16 before falling to Louisiana Tech.

THE 19905

The decade of the 1990s was one of ups and downs for the Lady Tigers. LSU opened the decade with a 21-9 overall mark and its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance.

A year later, the Pokey Chatman era came to an end as the Lady Tigers posted a 24-7 overall mark, won the school's first SEC Tournament title and were seeded No. 2 in the Midwest Region of the NCAA Tournament.

The 1991-92 season started the Cornelia Gayden era, but it was also the beginning of a stretch that saw the Lady Tigers go five years without an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. LSU posted a 16-13 overall mark, but five straight losses in mid-February kept the Lady Tigers home in March.

A year later in 1992-93, the Lady Tigers had their first-ever losing record as LSU went 9-18 and was winless in the SEC for the first time. Things weren't much better in 1993-94 as LSU went 11-16 overall and tied for 10th in the SEC.

One of the bright spots in 1994-95 was Sue Gunter's 500th career victory on the same night Gayden set an NCAA record with 12 3-point goals in a 92-62 win over Jackson State on Feb. 9 in Baton Rouge. LSU suffered through its worst record ever that year as the Lady Tigers posted a 7-20 mark.

Despite the losing record the year prior, LSU signed one of the nation's best recruiting classes for the 1995-96 season and the results were immediate. LSU had the biggest turnaround in SEC history as the Lady Tigers went from 7-20 in 1994-95 to 21-11 in 199596. Junior college transfers Elaine Powell and Pietra Gay help lead LSU to a win over secondranked Georgia in the SEC Tournament as the Lady Tigers appeared to be headed for its first NCAA Tournament appearance in five years, but was denied. The Lady Tigers settled for the NWIT, where they placed third out of eight teams.

The following year, LSU posted its best record in the 90s as they went 25-5 overall, won nine SEC games and reached the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1989. In 1997-98, the Lady Tigers, in what was supposed to be a rebuilding year, posted a 19-13 overall mark and reached the semifinals of the Women's NIT.

In 1998-99 the Lady Tigers, behind the play of senior point guard Latasha Dorsey, the only senior on the team, reached the Sweet 16 for the second time in three years and finished second in the SEC with a school-record 10 league wins. LSU's 22-8 overall mark in 199899 was LSU's fourth 20 -win season of the 1990s.

THE 20005

The Lady Tigers rolled into the new millennium much like the way they ended the old one. In 1999-2000, LSU was 25-7 overall and 11-3 in the SEC, the best record for the program since 1996-97. The 11-3 conference mark was at the time, the best in school history. LSU rode that success all the way to the program's second Elite Eight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, falling to Connecticut in the regional final.

Another 20 -win season greeted the Lady Tigers in 2000-01, compiling a $20-11$ mark, including the fifth straight winning conference record at 8-6.

The 2001-02 season could have been one of the finest in recent history. Gunter's group of just six healthy players collected 18 victories, including a trip to the SEC Tournament Championship game and a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Building on the success of the previous two seasons, the 2002-03 team went even further, ending the season with a 30-4 record, winning the SEC Tournament title, advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight and finishing the season ranked №. 3 in the national rankings. The SEC Tournament title was the second in program history and the first since 1991.

It was in 2003-04 that the much eluded goal of the Lady Tigers was reached, advancing to the Final Four. The 2003-04 team posted at 27-8 record and steamed through the NCAA Tournament on its way to New Orleans and the Final Four. Despite the success, the 2003-04 season was full of adversity. Hall of Fame head coach Sue Gunter missed most of the season due to illness and ultimately retired following the season. Gunter was replaced during the season and on a full-time basis with former All-American guard Pokey Chatman.

The next season, in her first full year, Chatman, again guided the Lady Tigers to success. In 2004-05, LSU posted a 33-3 overall record, was ranked №. 1 in the nation for 11 weeks, won the program's first SEC regular season title with a perfect 14-0 mark, and advanced to the NCAA Final Four in Indianapolis. Chatman and guard Seimone Augustus earned numerous national honors, including sweeping the National Coach and Player of the Year honors.

The Lady Tigers continued their success in 2005-06 with a return to the Final Four and a repeat as SEC regular season champions. LSU posted a 31-4 overall record and a 13-1 league mark. Seimone Augustus completed her collegiate career as the 2006 National Player of the Year. LSU fell to Duke in the national semifinal in Boston, Mass.

The 2006-07 season once again saw the Lady Tigers reach the NCAA Final Four after overcoming some late season adversity. LSU posted a 30-8 overall record and junior center Sylvia Fowles earned Kodak All-American honors. Associate head coach Bob Starkey served as acting head coach during the NCAA Tournament run that saw the Lady Tigers knock off Connecticut, 73-50, in the Fresno Regional Final. LSU took on Rutgers in the national semifinal in Cleveland, Ohio. The Scarlet Knights ended LSU's season by a score of 59-35.

The 2007-08 season saw LSU reach its fifth straight Final Four, becoming only the second program in NCAA women's history to achieve that feat. Connecticut was the other. First-year head coach Van Chancellor came to LSU after a successful career at Ole Miss and the WNBA's Houston Comets. Chancellor was named SEC Coach of the Year as he was a perfect fit for a program as prominent as LSU. The Lady Tigers won the Southeastern Conference regular season championship with a perfect 14-0 record while finishing 31-6

- 3 SEC Player of the Year Honors (Seimone Augustus, 2005 & 2006 & Sylvia Fowles, 2008)
overall. Sylvia Fowles was named to the State Farm All-America Team for the second straight season. LSU suffered a heartbreaking loss to Tennessee in the final seconds of the national semifinal in Tampa, Fla., but another Final Four banner would hang in the Maravich Center rafters.

The 2008-09 season might have been Chancellor's finest coaching job. LSU lost all of its key players from the 2009 Final Four team, but the Lady Tigers fought on winning five SEC games in a row to close the regular season and reach the NCAA Tournament for the 11th consecutive year. Allison Hightower was LSU's leader as she became the first player in school history to lead the team in points (14.9), steals (1.9), assists (3.0) and blocks (1.2) in the same season. Hightower was an honorable mention State Farm All-American and freshman LaSondra Barrett made a significant impact as the 2009 SEC Co-Freshman of the Year. LSU's season came to an end at home in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, losing to eventual Final Four participant Louisville in the Maravich Center.

A new decade

LSU closed the books on the 2000 s as one of the most successful programs in women's college basketball. From 2004-09, LSU won 171 contests and no team had advanced to more Final Fours. In Chancellor's third season during the 2009-10 year, Hightower returned for her senior campaign. It was one of the most productive years by a player in school history. Hightower was named a second-team AllAmerican by the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award and she was a finalist for the Wooden Award and Naismith Trophy. For the second straight season, she recorded honorable mention AllAmerica honors by State Farm.

Her 18.2 points per game average, sparked LSU to a 21-10 overall record and a 9-7 mark in conference play. The Lady Tigers finished with a share of third place in the final SEC standings. LSU earned a tough draw in the NCAA Tournament, faced with the task of defeating Duke on its home floor of Cameron Indoor Stadium. In a place where the Blue Devils rarely lose, LSU gave Duke all it could handle before falling 60-52 in the NCAA Second Round. Hightower closed out her career as the 13th all-time leading scorer in LSU history.

The 2010-11 season would be the last for Chancellor as LSU posted a 19-13 record and an 8-8 mark in SEC play. The Lady Tigers scored a huge upset of No. 9 UCLA in Los Angeles to highlight non-conference play. LSU also held No. 20 Georgia to its lowest point total ever in an SEC game in a 47-41 win on Jan. 30. The Lady Tigers topped Alabama in the SEC Tournament first round before losing to Kentucky, 60-58, in the SEC Tournament quarterfinal. Junior forward LaSondra Barrett was a first-team All-SEC performer and a State Farm Honorable Mention All-American after averaging 12.2 points and a team-high 6.3 rebounds per game. LSU led the SEC in scoring defense for the seventh straight season, allowing only 52.9 points per contest.

Nikki Fargas ushered in a new era of Lady Tiger basketball in 2011-12. Using the motto "it's not an option" to miss the NCAA Tournament, Fargas sparked LSU to a sixgame win streak late in the year. Barrett, playing in her final season, lifted the Lady Tigers to an SEC Tournament run that included beating regular season champion Kentucky for the second time. LSU met Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game as Fargas dueled against her mentor Pat Summitt in what would be Summitt's final SEC game. Though the Lady Vols won 70-58, the Lady Tigers made a return to the NCAA Tournament and reached the second round of the event in the Maravich Center.

The following season, LSU recorded 22 wins in Fargas' second year and overcame several key injuries. The Lady Tigers went on a seven-game winning streak late in the season, reached the NCAA Tournament and then its first Sweet 16 since 2008. The team developed the motto "Eight is Enough," and it was said every time they took the floor.

After defeating Green Bay in the NCAA Tournament first round in Baton Rouge, the Lady Tigers left the fans with one of the most spectacular victories in school history.

Playing without its injured leader in Jeanne Kenney, LSU knocked off third-seeded Penn State, 71-66, in the second round. Senior Adrienne Webb, playing in her final home game, poured in a career-high 27 points that ignited a celebration when the final horn sounded.

The 2013-14 season was filled with numerous memorable moments as LSU took on the nation's toughest schedule and fired out to a 17-4 start highlighted by a Barclays Invitational Championship and the program's first victory at Tennessee since the 2007-08 season.

After a six-game losing streak to end the regular season, Fargas and the Lady Tigers regrouped for the NCAA Tournament.

LSU came out clicking on all cylinders and collected a 98-78 win over Georgia Tech during the opening round. The 98 points were a program NCAA Tournament single-game mark.
The Lady Tigers lost All-SEC Freshman Team guard Raigyne Moncrief to injury during the Georgia Tech game, and senior guard Jeanne Kenney was injured in the first half of LSU's NCAA Second Round matchup versus No. 7 West Virginia.

The Lady Tigers dug deep and put together a 20-4 finishing kick over the last five minutes and scored on their final 10 possessions to come away with a 76-67 victory over the Mountaineers.

Danielle Ballard turned in a NCAA Tournament effort for the ages as she racked up 23.3 points and 14.0 rebounds per game over LSU's three postseason games. At the team's end of the year banquet, each studentathlete received a courage award instead of individual accolades.

The 2014-15 Lady Tigers extended their NCAA Tournament streak to four-straight years under Nikki Fargas after posting a 17-13 regular-season record and a 10-6 record in SEC action. LSU posted wins over ranked foes four times, including consecutive victories over Texas A&M. The Aggies came into the final game of the regular season ranked 12th

Seimone Augustus helped the program soar to national prominence after being named two-time National Player of the Year and leading the Lady Tigers to three NCAA Final Fours.

Sylvia Fowles went down as the most dominant post player in school history. A two-time State Farm AllAmerican, Fowles was a member of a Final Four team every year of her career.

Allison Hightower, one of the most influential players in school history, perpetuated the LSU NCAA Tournament legacy when she guided the team to appearances in 2009 and 2010.

The $\mathbf{2 0 0 4}$ LSU Lady Tigers became the first team in school history to advance to a Final Four.
nationally, and LSU handed Texas A&M an 80-63 loss in the PMAC. The loss dropped the Aggies to 18th nationally, and just five days later in the opening round of the SEC Tournament, the Lady Tigers stunned A&M again, advancing to the second round with a 71-65 victory. Other wins over ranked foes included an $84-79$ defeat of 10th-ranked Kentucky and a 71-69 double-overtime win over 15th-ranked Mississippi State.

Despite missing the first 14 games of the season because of a violation of team rules, junior Danielle Ballard earned All-SEC FirstTeam and All-SEC Defensive Team honors. She led the Lady Tigers in scoring and rebounding with averages of 14.2 points and 7.2 rebounds a game. She also registered eight blocks, 50 assists and 52 steals in just 17 games. Ballard and Raigyne Moncrief each earned one SEC Player of the Week honor, and freshman Jenna Deemer was named to the Miami Holiday AllTournament Team.

In their fourth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, the Lady Tigers fell to No. 25 USF, 73-64, in the first round at the Sun

Dome in Tampa, Fla., despite LSU's backcourt of Ballard, Moncrief and senior DaShawn Harden scoring 46 of LSU's 64 points. Moncrief recorded a double-double in the loss with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

An uncharacteristic stumble for the program in 2015-16, following a rash of injuries that sidelined some of the team's top talent, saw the Lady Tigers turn in a losing record (10-21) for the first time since the 1994-95 season. The Lady Tigers played what was considered one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2015-16, and when that schedule was crafted, it more than likely looked like a challenging, but viable schedule based on the predicted roster for that season. Fast forward through the 2015-16 campaign, and that schedule proved to be daunting for a squad that would ultimately be down to just seven scholarship players for the latter part of the season.

Just months before the season started, the makeup of the team began to change as two key players, All-SEC honoree Danielle Ballard and Stephanie Amichia, left the program. Then, four games into the season the roster morphed even more with season-ending injuries to starters junior Raigyne Moncrief and freshman Ayana Mitchell; but even that was not the end of the changes. In December, four walk-ons were added as injuries and illness ultimately left the Lady Tigers with just seven scholarship players for the bulk of their SEC schedule.

Nikki Fargas was introduced as the seventh head coach in April 2011 and has guided the Lady Tigers to four NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Lady Tigers showed tremendous heart and fight through the adversity. Fargas' squad gave it their all from the tip-off to the final buzzer every game. While LSU had its offensive struggles during the season, the defense remained solid and consistent, particularly during the SEC schedule. Up until the final two games against Florida and South Carolina, the Lady Tigers held each of their league foes below their scoring average, some by as many as 20 -plus points below average.

Transfer Alexis Hyder blossomed into one of the top players in the conference, closing the year in the top 10 in scoring and rebounding, and also leading the league in offensive rebounds with 122. One of the most memorable games of the 2015-16 season was LSU's $57-56$ win over Fargas' alma mater and eventual Elite Eight participant, 24th-ranked Tennessee, that snapped a six-game losing streak. Hyder hit two clutch free throws with 3.4 seconds remaining in the game to seal the win. At the end of the season, she was named an honorable mention pick to the Associated Press' All-SEC Team, the LSWA Newcomer of the Year, and an All-Louisiana second team honoree.

Junior Rina Hill was the only Lady Tiger to start all 31 games as LSU utilized 10 different starting lineup combinations. Hill was LSU's second-leading scorer in SEC games with an average of 9.4 points in the 16 contests. She scored in double figures in nine of the final 12 games of the season. Over the summer, Hill was invited to participate in a training camp for the Japanese University Team that will compete in the 2017 Summer Universiade in Taipei, Chinese Taipei.

VAN CHANCELLOR 2004 USA Head Coach

Former LSU coach, Van Chancellor was the head coach of the 2004 United States Olympic team that won the gold medal in Athens. Chancellor posted a 36-0 record as head coach of Team USA in international competition.

SUE GUNTER  1980 USA Head Coach, 1976 Assistant Coach

Sue Gunter's coaching career extended beyond the boundaries of the Southeast with an international resume that laid the groundwork for today's Olympic success story. Gunter was the head coach of the USA National Team in 1976, which set the table for her assistant coaching position under Billie Moore and the 1976 Olympic team. In their first Olympic appearance, the USA brought home the silver medal in Montreal. Gunter was then named head coach of the USA national team in both 1978 and 1980, leading to her being named the head coach of the USA Olympic team in 1980. The 1980 Olympic team included such great players like Denise Curry, Carol Blazekowski, Anne Donovan, Rosie Walker and Lynette Woodard. The USA stormed to a 6-1 record during the qualifying tournament. However, the dream for Team USA's first Olympic gold medal was cut short when President Jimmy Carter ordered a boycott of the 1980 Olympic games in protest of the Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan.

Seimone Augustus (top) and Sylvia Fowles (bottom) are the only athletes in LSU history with three Olympic gold medals.

2008, 2012, 2016 OLYMPIC GAMES

How many athletes get to live out their childhood dreams of winning Olympic gold? How many have that opportunity three times? Count LSU's Seimone Augustus and Sylvia Fowles in that elite group. The duo became the first Olympic gold medalists in the history of LSU women's basketball in the 2008 Beijing Olympics. Over the next eight years, Augustus and Fowles added to their collection, earning gold in 2012 in London and again in 2016 in Rio. USA Basketball continued its dominance in 2016, claiming its sixth-straight Olympic gold medal and extending its winning streak to 49 games.
Augustus and Fowles became the first LSU athletes - past or present - in any sport to claim multiple Olympic gold medals as the U.S. Women's National team put a punctuation mark on its perfect 2012 London run with an $86-50$ victory over France in the gold medal contest. From coach Sue Gunter's silver medal at the 1976 Games to coach Van Chancellor's gold medal at the 2004 Games, LSU women's basketball has been associated with eight Olympic medals.

In addition to Augustus and Fowles, there are only 10 other women's basketball players who have accomplished the feat of being named to three or more U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Teams. LSU and UConn are the only two collegiate women's basketball programs to boast multiple players with three or more Olympic gold medals.

USA Basketball's run through the Rio Olympics concluded less than a week following one of the worst flood events that struck Baton Rouge and the surrounding area. More than $\mathbf{2 0 , 0 0 0}$ people were reportedly rescued and upwards of 40,000 homes had flooded. Seimone Augustus, a Baton Rouge native, had an emotional press conference following the 2016 Gold Medal Game where she expressed joy in being able to make her friends, family and everyone affected by the devastating August flooding proud. She closed the press conference with, "Baton Rouge, this is for you."

"I had to hold tears back. Rethinking the last two or three years for myself and being back and winning a gold medal, honestly, I had this as my screen saver a year ago before they even announced the team. So, it's a dream come true." - Seimone Augustus; Aug. 11, 2012

"The experience was awesome, and it was more than I could have ever imagined. When you represent your country at the highest level with USA across your jersey, it is an honor." - Sylvia Fowles; Aug. 23, 2008

THE JINKS COLEMAN TEAM ROOM

The Jinks Coleman Team Room has spacious well lit lockers for each Lady Tiger. Jinks Coleman was LSU women's basketball's first head coach from 1975-79.

ELITE COMPANY

Large displays commemorate LSU's five straight Final Four appearances in 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008.

SUE GUNTER
A display of Hall of Fame Coach Sue Gunter sits on the Maravich Center concourse. Gunter, enshrined in the Naismith and Women's Basketball Halls of Fame, led the Lady Tigers to 442 victories in 22 years.

STATE-OF-THE-ART TEAM FILM ROOM

The team film room with spacious theater-seating for the entire team and staff has a large projection screen for viewing scout and practice films. The room is equipped with state-of-the-art electronics, including overhead projection, VCRs and DVD players.

LADY TIGER GRADUATES

Every Lady Tiger player to graduate, including Seimone Augustus, is enshrined in the hallway of the LSU Women's Basketball Complex.

WALL OF CHAMPIONS
LSU's former players in the WNBA are among the many displays that don the Wall of Champions in the complex.

LOUNGE/STUDY AREA

Lady Tiger student-athletes have a spacious and comfortable lounge where they can study and relax before and after practices and games.

Practice FACILITY

The new $$ 13.9$ million LSU Basketball Practice Facility officially opened its doors on Sept. 23,2010 , culminating years of vision, planning and a groundbreaking that occurred in the summer of 2008. One of the finest facilities of its kind in the nation, the building is attached to the north side of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and provides the Lady Tigers with state-of-the-art features.

The LSU Basketball Practice Facility was designed by Guy Hopkins Construction of Baton Rouge based on the designs by the firm of Tom Holden Architects of Baton Rouge in a joint venture with RDG Sports of Des Moines, lowa.

Both the men's and women's teams benefit from beautiful separate full-sized practice gymnasiums. Each gym features two portable goals and four overhead retractable goals, and both are exact replicas of the PMAC competition court. Each gym is outfitted with a scoreboard, a video filming balcony and a scorer's table with video and data connection. Each gym spans 11,324 square feet and includes a regulation NCAA court in length with two regulation high school courts in the opposite direction.
"What this building symbolizes to me is excellence and the striving for excellence," said LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva. "This building gives our coaches the opportunity to acquire the talent that we need to win and compete for championships, and that is what we are all about here. Striving for excellence and competing for championships."

PRACTICE COURTS

TRAINING SPACE

The new practice facility features two 11,324 square foot fully functional gymnasiums. One of the largest practice areas in the nation, Lady Tiger players can work on their game whenever they want to. Five NCAA Final Four banners hang on the walls of the state-of-the-art facility.

ATRIUM
Legends of the past, Final Fours, championships and great moments in LSU Basketball history are recognized in the two-story grand atrium of the practice facility.

LEGENDS CLUB

The Legends Club of the LSU Basketball Practice Facility includes more than 2,700 square feet of prefunction area that opens to the north side of the upper concourse of the Maravich Center. The meeting space can comfortably accommodate more than 500 people.

The building also includes a central two-story lobby and staircase that ascends to the second level that has a room that can hold approximately 500 people for pre-game and post-game functions that leads into the Maravich Center concourse. The lobby showcases team displays and graphics, trophy cases and memorabilia from the past. The displays and wall graphics were designed by ZE Design of Centerville, Ohio.

The total project area covered 58,960 square feet of new construction and 1,100 square feet of renovated construction. In September 2011, a 900-pound bronze statue of LSU legend Shaquille $0^{\prime}$ Neal was unveiled in front of the facility greeting visitors and Tiger fans.

Former Lady Tiger point guard and 2009 WNBA champion Temeka Johnson was on hand for the ribbon cutting ceremony.
"When I was here we had to share the facilities with volleyball, men's basketball, and if there was any event in the PMAC we had to share it with them too," she said. "This allows you to come in on your own time. They don't have to go in and practice with anybody. There are enough courts on the side where you can have your own goal and participate whenever you want. I think it's great."

> "I talked to them about taking in the atmosphere, feeling the energy that's in this butlding with the fans and making sure that they understand that this game is going to be won. It's going to be won because it may not show up in the stat sheet. It's not going to be won in a quiet way, but it's going to be won in a ferocious way." - NFkki Fargas following LSU's 2014 Sweet 16 win

HOME DOMINANCE

It has proven to be a difficult task for opposing teams to win in the Maravich Center. Since the 1996-97 season, the Lady Tigers have posted a remarkable home record of 257-52 (.832), an average of 13 victories per year.

In conference games, the Lady Tigers are 107-34 (.759) at home over the past 19 years inside the friendly confines of the Maravich Center.

CONCOURSE

The newly renovated Maravich Center concourse features four interactive quadrants: Pete Maravich Pass, Walk of Champions, Heroes Hall and Midway of Memories. Each quadrant includes kiosks with photos of great moments, great athletes and memories of the four sports, women's basketball, men's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics, all which compete in the Maravich Center.

Over the last 19 seasons, LSU has established the Pete Maravich Assembly Center as one of the toughest road playing sites in not only the SEC but the nation.

Since the 1996-97 season, the Lady Tigers have posted a remarkable home record of 25752 (.832), an average of 13 victories per year.

Dating back to the 2002-03 season when LSU appeared in the NCAA Elite 8 followed by five consecutive NCAA Final Fours, LSU is an impressive $173-42$ (.805) inside the friendly confines of the Maravich Center.

LSU has proven to be tough to beat in SEC play in the venue. In conference games, the Lady Tigers are 107-34 (.759) at home over the past 19 years and an astounding 79-26 (.752) over the past 14 seasons.

LSU has secured a 51-25 mark at home versus Top 25 foes over the last 19 years. The Lady Tigers knocked off a Top 10 opponent (#8 Penn State - 03/26/13 and #7 West Virginia - 03/25/14) during the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons to punch their ticket to the NCAA Sweet 16 which enables the PMAC to back up its claim as one of the nation's most-feared road sites. In Nikki Fargas' first season as head coach in 2011-12, LSU increased attendance by over 1,000 more fans than the previous season. Fargas guided the Lady Tigers to their best home record since the 2008 Final Four season with a 13-4 mark sparked by a flawless 4-0 record against ranked teams during the regular season.

Fargas' squad followed that up with a 15-3 record in 2012-13, a 12-4 mark during the 2013-14 season and an 11-4 showing in 201415. In five seasons, Fargas has fueled the Lady Tigers to a 57-22 (.722) mark inside the Maravich Center.

In addition to their success on the court, the Lady Tigers have also played before record crowds.

Over the past 14 seasons, LSU has established 14 of the top 15 crowds in PMAC history, including a record crowd of 15,233 against Tennessee on Feb. 10, 2005. During that span the Lady Tigers have played in front of 10 home crowds of over 10,000 fans.

LSU finished the 2005-06 season ranked 14th in the nation in average home attendance with 6,273 and played in front of five crowds of at least 8,000 people.

In 2004-05, LSU finished 10th in the nation in average home attendance with 7,317 fans per game, by far a record for the Lady Tigers. During that season four crowds of over 10,000 were recorded for games, including the record crowd of 15,233 against Tennessee. LSU ranked third in the SEC and among the top 15 in attendance nationally in 2011-12, averaging 4,315 fans per game and 73,348 total.

LSU rarely gets upset on its home floor. The Lady Tigers are 198-24 (.892) over the last 19 years against unranked teams.

LSU has put together undefeated records at home over non-ranked opponents in 200708 (11-0), 2006-07 (11-0), 2005-06 (10-0), 2004-05 (10-0), 2002-03 (8-0), 2001-02 (11-0), 1999-00 (17-0), 1998-99 (11-0) and 1996-97 (11-0).

During the 1999-2000 campaign, the Lady Tigers set a school-record with 17 home victories with their only loss coming at the hands of second-ranked Tennessee.

In 41 years of history at the PMAC, LSU's home court advantage can be compared with the best programs from across the country as the Lady Tigers have won close to 80 percent

LSU has also put together winning streaks of 43, 26, 24 and 22 games at home. The Lady Tigers also have gone undefeated at home four times: 15-0 in 2005-06, 12-0 in 2004-05, and 14-0 in both 1977-78 and 1985-86.

Built in 1971, the PMAC underwent complete renovations prior to the 2005-06 season that included an updated concourse with new concessions, new seats and a new sound system. The concourse features interactive kiosks and displays recognizing the history of LSU basketball, including one exhibit of the late Hall of Fame head coach Sue Gunter. It also houses the plaques of all members of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame. The capacity is 13,215 following the renovations.

During the summer of 1988, Louisiana Governor Buddy Roemer signed legislation changing the official name of the building to the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in honor of the LSU star who had died tragically earlier that same year. In addition to the normal basketball-seating configuration, a proscenium stage can be lowered into place at the north end allowing some 4,000 seats for theatrical productions. An additional 1,000 seats can be placed on the floor for graduations, convocations, lectures, concerts or other special events.

The Maravich Center has played host to several famous musical artists over the years, including KISS, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band, Def Leppard, Metallica, Guns N' Roses, Garth Brooks and Jimmy Buffett.

Also located in the building is an auxiliary practice gym used for basketball and volleyball practices; home and visitor dressing rooms; coaches dressing rooms, building administration offices; theater dressing rooms; Tiger Athletic Foundation offices; and the "L" Club meeting room with kitchen facilities.
In the summer of 2010, LSU's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility was officially completed and is connected to the PMAC through the Northwest portal. The facility gives both men's and women's teams ample practice room adjacent to their actual game playing floor of the Maravich Center.

The Maravich Center has been the site for both men's and women's NCAA Regional Tournaments, the 1981 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, the 1988 SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and two SEC Volleyball Tournaments. Since the current NCAA Tournament format began, LSU has played host to the NCAA women's first and second rounds six times since 2004, doing so in 2004, '08, '09, '12, '13 and most recently in 2014. LSU owns a 18-3 record in NCAA Tournament games played in the Maravich Center, including a 8-0 mark in first round contests.

Athletic training

NUTRITION FIRST

LSU is one of the few schools nationally who maintain a state-of-the-art nutritional program for today's student-athlete. LSU athletic trainers also meet one-on-one with student-athletes to give them expert nutritional information.

LSU boasts one of the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site $x$-ray room, an in-house pharmacy and a hydrotherapy pool. It is also one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, vision center and dental center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT
An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC

 TRAINING CENTER The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary athletic trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

ROAD TO RECOVERY

LSU is one of the top schools in the nation to get its student-athletes back on the field in a timely manner following an injury. The athletic training staff takes a progressive approach to injury identification and thinks "outside of the box." LSU consults with allied health professionals and uses state-of-the-art surgical procedures that give an athlete a quicker recovery time while looking out for his or her future.

DENTAL CENTER

A fully functional dental center, staffed by Dr. Robin Levy and Dr. John Vance, is located inside the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

REHABILITATION

LSU's Broussard Center for Athletic Training boasts some of the most technologically advanced equipment to aid the recuperation and rehabilitation of LSU's student-athletes.

REAL-TIME X-RAYS

A state-of-the-art fluoroscope was added in the summer of 2008 that provides LSU athletic trainers the opportunity to take x-rays on site in the Operations Center. The machine can provide real-time images of the internal structures of a patient.
"Micki Collins wasn't just a trainer during my tenure at LSU. She became a member of my family for the care she gave me and all of my teammates. In all of my baskethall travels, I've never had a trainer that goes the extra mile like Micki."

TEMEKA JOHNSON
LSU All-Time Assists Leader & 2005 WNBA Rookie of the Year

VISION CENTER

Dr. Don Peavy and Dr. Russell Saloom conduct eye exams for LSU student-athletes in a convenient location in the Broussard Center for Athletic Training.

PHARMACY

The LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy is the only one of its kind in college athletics. Staffed by pharmacists Kevin Denoux and Toni Cross, the LSU Athletic Training Pharmacy provides the Tigers with first-class service in a convenient location.

Strength & CONDITIONING

Measuring 10,000 -square feet, LSU boasts one of the finest strength and conditioning facilities in the nation. Originally built in 1997, LSU's North Stadium Weight Room underwent a renovation in 2008 that updated flooring and redesigned the layout to provide more functional flow.

Melissa Seal (above left), women's basketball strength and conditioning coordinator, provides players with one of the most unique training programs in the nation. Seal's plan is specifically geared to the development of basketball players and not only focuses on weight training but speed training, flexibility training, vertical jumping and conditioning as well. It is not uncommon to see the Lady Tigers on the track running resistance sprints with parachutes and bungee cords while also weaving through cones and ladders. The offseason program annually makes LSU one of the fittest and conditioned programs in the nation.

AMENTIES

- 28 multi-purpose power stations
- 36 assorted selectorized machines
- 10 dumbbell stations with 2 sets of 5-180 pound free weights
- Custom made equipment by Body Masters and Eleiko
- 2 Woodway treadmills
- 4 Life Fitness stationary bikes
- Elliptical cross trainers, steppers and a stepmill

"The process of winning championships begins by how hard you work in the offseason. We will make it a priority to be the best conditioned team in America."

Nikki Fargas
LSU Head Coach
"Melissa has taken the program to another level.
She is more than just a strength and conditioning coach. She has developed our quickness, explosiveness and verticals. She uses the most modern techniques to make the team better in all areas."

Sylvia Fowles  Former SEC Player of the Year and WNBA All-Star MVP

"We have a jumping program that trains them to jump better and higher, but also teaches them how to land correctly and prevent injuries. That is something we have been fortunate with. Some teams can be plagued with a lot of ligament tears, but we do everything we can to prevent those types of problems."

MODELS OF EXCELLENCE

LSU, in particular the efforts of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, is one of eight colleges and universities nationwide that was honored by University Business magazine in its Spring 2016 Models of Excellence recognition program. The Models of Excellence program recognizes innovative approaches to encouraging and nurturing student success on campus. "For student-athletes, pressure bears down from all angles - from classroom expectations to media scrutiny," says University Business senior editor Tim Goral. "LSU realizes the unique challenges this population faces, and offers a holistic solution that helps this group succeed outside of game day."

Education

Fostering a thirst for knowledge and promoting the discipline to pursue lifelong learning.

"ENTER TO LEARN, LEAVE TO SERVE"

 STUDY AREA
Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 12 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM
The 1,000-seat auditorium is used throughout the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as a group.

ACADEMIC CENTER

A $$ 15$ million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 put the Cox Communications Academic Center For Student-Athletes at the forefront of today's academic centers. The facility features over 54,000 square feet of working space, 136 computer workstations, study rooms and a 1,000-seat auditorium.

NO. 1 IN THE SEC IN GRADUATION SUCCESS

Did You Know? LSU tied for first in the SEC with a perfect score of 100 in graduation success rate that was released by the NCAA in October 2012.

CRITICAL TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE IS AN ADEQUATE ACADEMIC FACILITY AND CAPABLE STAFF TO FURTHER THE ATHLETE'S PROGRESS. The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is responsible for overseeing the educational development and progress toward graduation for all student-athletes. The staff acts as a liaison between the student-athlete and the academic communities and ensures that studentathletes comply with academic rules established by the University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference. The staff also coordinates academic programs designed to assist student-athletes in acquiring a quality education.
"When you go back and get your degree, it says a lot about your work ethic. This is No. 1 at the top of my list because I am the youngest of my mother's kids and I am the first to graduate. It says a lot about how much my mother means to me and how she prepared me for this."

- Sylvia Fowles

THE LADY TIGER WAY

The Lady Tigers spent an extensive amount of time and effort in the community following the August 2016 flooding that left tens of thousands of people in the area with damaged or destroyed homes. LSU women's basketball assisted in cleanup efforts at residential homes as well as at local churches in need. Above: The Lady Tigers pose following a successful day of cleaning up at Bethany Church in Baker, La.

OUTREACH

POSTGAME AUTOGRAPHS
After many games throughout the season, select Lady Tigers remain to sign autographs and interact with their fans.

greater baton rouge food bank
During 2016 National Volunteer Week, the Lady Tigers assisted with packaging meals that were provided to families in need in the greater Baton Rouge area. In just a couple of hours, the Lady Tigers packaged over 2,500 meals.

TOT BASKETBALL
The Lady Tigers are very involved with the TOT (Teams of Tomorrow) program locally. TOT Basketball is a fun and creative way for children to develop motor skills and is a non-competitive way for children to learn a skilled sport. TOT participants often perform at halftime of several games each season.

SCHOOL VISITS

CareerThe Lady Tigers attended a LEAP rally in May 2016 to inspire elementary kids to get to bed early, eat right and try their best on the standardized testing.

DEVELOPMENT

STUDENT AFFAIRS

and the Shaquille O'Neal Life Skills Program

CAREER/PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

In order for student-athletes to be truly prepared for their careers, it is the goal of the Student Affairs and the Shaquille O'Neal Life Skills Program to ensure that each student-athlete will leave LSU with a professional resume, cover letter, and interview experience. The program has three phases: career preparation, the "job project" and a career symposium. Many LSU student-athletes gain experience with career-developing jobs in the community during the summer months.

HEALTH/WELLNESS

The goal of the Health & Wellness component of the Student Affairs division is to inform and educate student-athletes about the various health and wellness related issues that they will encounter throughout their tenure at LSU and beyond.

HOW CAN CHAMPS HELP?

The CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success)/ Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS program not only assists student-athletes with meeting daily challenges but also enhances their growth in college years and beyond.

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes strives to celebrate, highlight, affirm, and embrace the diversity of LSU student-athletes. They provide an environment that is respectful of cultural, racial, and ethnic differences by acknowledging their individuality and uniqueness. In addition, the programs emphasize the importance of giving back and citizenship by engaging in the University and surrounding community.

CAMPUS LIfE

 first structures completed on the present campus and sits east of the quadrangle (above, left). It represents the University as a memorial to those who gave their lives during World War I. Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 156-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. The focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.
"LSU is my home. It was a place where I made my name and a place where I was able to come here and have fun. It was the best three years of my life. While you are here, have fun and become a master of time management. You need to do what you have to do to make it. Work hard. I have been blessed. Baton Rouge is the place that helped me become who I am. I will never forget this place."
"LSU has the greatest fans. Being a hometown girl from Baton Rouge, I knew LSU always took pride in its athletic program. You always hear about Tennessee and Connecticut, but I wanted to be able to help put LSU up there on the map with them. We accomplished a lot during my time. I wouldn't change it for anything. I got to play for one of the greatest coaches in history in Coach Gunter. I got to play with a group of women that became my family."

Seimone Augustus Guard (2002-06) Two-time National Player of the Year 2011 LSU Athletic Hall of Famer 2011,2013 & 2015 WNBA Champion
"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."
"How could you put a price tag on the experience I had at LSU? You couldn't pay me enough money to take away the College World Series championship or the things I learned from (former LSU head coach) Skip Bertman to the relationships I have with guys like (former LSU teammates) Victor Brumfield and Blair Barbier. You meet all these guys and you have lifelong friends. I could go on and on about guys I still keep in close contact with."

Did You Know?

- In the 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 editions of U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Colleges, LSU is ranked in the first tier for "Best National Universities."
- The LSU College of Engineering announced that more than 450 individual and corporate donors pledged $$ 52.5$ million in private funds, fulfilling the college's commitment to a $$ 100$ million public/private partnership to renovate Patrick F. Taylor Hall.
- LSU is the only public university in Louisiana with top-tier designation by U.S. News and World Report and "Very High Research Activity" designation by the Carnegie Foundation. LSU's commitment to coastal studies is world-renowned.
- According to a study published in the June 2014 Journal of Chemical Education, LSU is the top university in the nation in granting PhD degrees in chemistry to women and underrepresented minority students.
- LSU ranks among the top 30 public universities in total research awards. The University's total federal funding -- from agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, and the Department of Homeland Security -- has increased 86 percent or more than $$ 90$ million in recent years.
- LSU's student newspaper, The Daily Reveille, was recently awarded the prestigious Society of Professional Journalists' top honor, as it was named the "Best All-Around Daily Student Newspaper" in the United States.

- The E. J. Ourso College of Business was ranked in the Top 50 of the internationally known "Top Business Schools" in 2009 by Eduniversal and was recognized during the inaugural Eduniversal World Convention.
- Donors generously gave more than $$ 193$ million in support of LSU in 2014-15, setting a record for giving to the university during a single year. Gifts this year included LSU's largest in-kind gift ever, premier geoscience and engineering software valued at $$ 62$ million; an anonymous planned gift commitment of $$ 40$ million split between the LSU Foundation and TAF; the largest unrestricted endowed gift in LSU's history as part of Roger Ogden's $$ 12$ million Honors investment; and record membership in the LSU Alumni Association.
- Thanks to generous donations from loyal supporters and continued capital outlay from the Louisiana Legislature, campus construction continues on a number of major projects, including the $$ 110$ million College of Engineering renovation.
- For the second time, LSU researchers at LIGO in Livingston, La., observed gravitational waves - ripples in the fabric of spacetime. LIGO spokesperson and LSU physicist Gabriela Gonzalez made the announcement nationally and said it's a promising start to mapping black holes in the universe.
- LSU researchers have described a new genus and species of cavefish from Mexico - the Oaxaca Cave Sleeper. It has not been collected or seen in more than 20 years and lives in a cave system threatened by damming. LSU expert fish and TED Fellow Prosanta Chakrabarty recently spoke on the finding.
- Next year, LSU research associate and recent LSU Master of Public Administration graduate Alvaro Armas will be one of two Knauss Fellows from the Louisiana Sea Grant College Program serving in Washington, D.C.
- LSU microbiologists have concocted artificial seawater that can be used to successfully cultivate abundant marine microorganisms.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his ninth year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. He was named vice chancellor at LSU in August of 2009, marking the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

Alleva completed last spring a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. He has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/ Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program -- "LSU: Defined by Excellence" -- to confirm the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," a total of 83 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's Graduation Success Rate as reported by the NCAA remains at an all-time high for the university with a score of 84. LSU student-athletes in 2015-16 logged 5,612 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program.

Alleva's strong commitment to academics ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that cultivates success in the classroom and the development of life skills. And with an emphasis on community outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local citizens and LSU student-athletes. Alleva has also bolstered the L-Club program to connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which former student-athletes return to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four 10-win seasons and 78 total victories by the football team. The Tigers have played in a bowl game in each of Alleva's eight gridiron seasons and LSU has finished in the Top 20 six times in that period. LSU under Alleva's leadership has claimed the 2009 baseball national championship and three College World Series berths, the 2015 men's golf national championship, two women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, four gymnastics Super Six berths, three softball College World Series appearances and 18 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

The Tigers in the past eight seasons have earned 37 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 14 Southeastern Conference team championships, and the Tigers have won 102 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term.

LSU in 2014-15 became the first school in SEC history to play in a football bowl game, have both its men's and women's basketball teams reach the NCAA Tournament, and advance to the College World Series in baseball and softball in the same athletic year.

LSU enjoyed another banner year in 2015-16, as the school produced five Top 5 NCAA finishes and earned a No. 19 national ranking in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup, which measures the overall excellence of collegiate athletic programs. Fifteen LSU teams competed in an NCAA championship event, and the Tigers finished in the Top 10 in seven sports.

The Fighting Tiger football squad played in a bowl game for a school-record 16th straight season and finished the year ranked №. 17 in the nation after posting a dominating $56-27$ win over Texas Tech in the Texas Bowl.

The gymnastics team completed the season No. 2 in the nation, the highest finish in program history, and the softball squad appeared in the Women's College World Series for the second straight year, reaching the semifinals to finish $N \mathrm{No} .3$ in the country.

LSU's storied track and field program produced three Top 10 finishes in 2015-16. The men's team placed fourth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and fifth at the NCAA Outdoor meet, while the Lady Tigers placed sixth outdoors. The men's golf team advanced to match play at the NCAA Championships for a school-record third straight season and the Tigers tied for fifth overall.

LSU in 2016 became just the second baseball program in NCAA history to earn five straight NCAA Tournament National Seeds. The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals and finished the year tied for ninth nationally.

LSU advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round in both men's and women's tennis, while also reaching NCAA postseason in women's golf, women's soccer, and men's and women's swimming and diving.

Alleva's vision keeps LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. Last year, LSU unveiled two new venues -- a magnificent Gymnastics Practice Facility and a tremendous Tennis Center featuring both indoor and outdoor courts. Construction will begin this year on a Nutrition Center within the expansive existing space at the South End of Tiger Stadium. The new facility will feature 30,000 square feet of dining and kitchen area and all of the elements necessary to ensure that the Tigers receive the absolute finest in dietary support.

In the fall of 2014, LSU opened the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium -- a project that added premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards -- continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation of new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas. The Football Operations Building is undergoing a significant renovation to maintain its status as a high-functioning workplace for coaches and players.

LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 gave the Tigers a first-class indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to play on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the stadium into fan-friendly venue.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975 . While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and he also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, the Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, and four grandchildren.

Verge Ausberry

Deputy Director of Athletics
A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations and was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006. He was named Deputy Director of Athletics in January of 2016 .

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football operations, football scheduling and football management. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin (11) and Jaiden (10).

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning
Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 57 , is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

GYMNASTICS

After winning its fourth straight NCAA Regional championship, the LSU gymnastics team easily qualified for its fifth NCAA Super Six appearance with an outstanding performance in the NCAA Semifinal on April 15, 2016. In a season of fantastic performances, none was more exciting than the Super Six. In that championship meet, the Tigers rallied from behind to finish as the 2016 National RunnerUp, the best finish in school history. With a second-place finish in the Super Six, LSU defeated rivals Alabama, Florida and Georgia by posting a 197.450. Not only was it the highest finish in school history, it marked the fifth Super Six appearances in nine years and the third Top-5 national finish in the last four years, cementing LSU as one of the nation's best gymnastics teams.

TRACK & FIELD

For the 15th time in 17 seasons, the Tigers cracked the Top 5 of the final men's team standings at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2016. The Tigers tallied 41 points to take fifth place. The Lady Tigers clinched sixth place at the Outdoor Championships, giving the LSU track & field teams one of the best finishes of any team in 2016.

SOFTBALL

The LSU softball team has made three of its five total appearances in the Women's College World Series in the last five years, qualifying for the postseason in each of the last 11 years which is a program-record run. In 2016 the Tigers finished third at the Women's College World Series for the secondstraight season, and the Tigers wrapped up the year with a 52-18 record.

MEN'S GOLF

One year after clinching the NCAA national title, the LSU men's golf team reached the quarterfinal round of match play at the NCAA Championships, making the 2016 season another rousing success. LSU is only the third team in the match-play era to qualify for "Match Play 8 " in three-straight seasons, and the Tigers also earned a Top-5 finish for the third-consecutive season.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The 2015-16 season marked another year of firsts for the LSU women's tennis team under the direction of Julia and Michael Sell. LSU reached the ITA Team Indoor Championships for the first time in school history and also reached a program-best ranking on three separate occasions. The Lady Tigers cracked the Top 10 for the first time in program history, reaching №. 9 in March.

Elite Student-Athletes

Ashleigh Gnat
GYMNASTICS
Ashleigh Gnat had one of the finest seasons in LSU gymnastics history. The junior ranked No. 1 nationally on vault and floor and led the nation with an LSU single-season record six perfect 10.0 scores. An 11-time All-American, Gnat was named the 2016 SEC Specialist of the Year, the 2016 Central Region Gymnast of the Year, and she won the SEC floor exercise title with a perfect 10 at the SEC Championship. She was a major catalyst in LSU's national runnerup finish.

Nethaneel Mitchell-Blake
MEN'S TRACK & FIELD
Before anchoring the Tigers to the NCAA title in the $4 \times 100$-meter relay to end the 2016 season, Nethaneel Mitchell-Blake won the SEC Commissioner's Trophy as the top individual point scorer at the SEC Outdoor Championships. MitchellBlake was crowned the SEC Champion in the 100 meters, 200 meters and $4 \times 100$-meter relay to become the first Tiger to sweep all three events since three-time Olympic Silver Medalist Richard Thompson in 2008.

Ben Simmons
MEN'S BASKETBALL
Ben Simmons was the consensus National Freshman of the Year and was named the SEC Freshman of the Year in 2015-16. The No. 1 overall draft pick of the Philadelphia 76ers, Simmons averaged 19.2 points, 11.8 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game, which ranked in the top five in the SEC in each category. Simmons also led all major conference players with 23 double-doubles and posted six of the SEC's eight 20-10-5 games during the season.

Sahvanna Jaquish
SOFTBALL
Sahvanna Jaquish became only the third player in LSU softball history to earn three All-America honors when she earned the distinction in 2016. She batted .343 with a team-high 19 doubles to go along with 13 home runs this past season. She tied her own school record of 76 RBI which also ranked fifth nationally. Jaquish started all but one of LSU's 70 games and served as a catalyst in LSU's run to a third-place national finish at the Women's College World Series.

Zach Wright
MEN'S GOLF
In his final season at LSU, Zach Wright led the Tigers back to match play at the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships for the third-straight season as they tied for fifth-place nationally in defense of their national championship from the spring of 2015. Wright was the team's leading scorer with a careerlow 71.51 scoring average while finishing the 201516 season as the No. 13 -ranked player in the country in the final Golfweek rankings. Wright was honored for that performance as a PING Second-Team All-American by the Golf Coaches Association of America, as well as a First-Team All-SEC performer for the first time in his career.

Jordan Daigle

MEN'S TENNIS
Jordan Daigle spent his junior season exclusively on court one for the Tigers. He was named to the 2016 All-SEC Second Team, which marked the second time in his career that he earned All-SEC honors. Daigle and doubles partner Boris Arias finished the season ranked 13th in the nation after compiling a 16-11 record overall after advancing to their secondstraight NCAA Round of 16. Arias and Daigle were named ITA All-Americans in their second-straight season, which marked the first time in LSU history that a pair earned honors in back-to-back years.

Alex Lange

BASEBALL
Alex Lange in his first two seasons at LSU has established himself as one of the top pitchers in college baseball. The right-hander was named the 2015 National Freshman Pitcher of the Year, the SEC Freshman of the Year and a First-Team All-American after posting a 12-0 mark and a 1.97 ERA with 131 strikeouts in 114 innings. He became the first freshman in LSU history to record over 100 strikeouts in a season, and he helped lead the Tigers to the College World Series. Lange fired 125 strikeouts in 111.2 innings in 2016, and he was named to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Lange will enter the 2017 season with a 20-4 LSU career record in 34 starts with 256 strikeouts in 225.2 innings.

Jorian Baucom

Jorian Baucom proved to be one of the most prolific strikers in college soccer throughout the 2015 season while scoring 15 goals in 22 appearances on the season to lead the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history. Among her 15 goals were a team-leading five gamewinning goals, including a 1-0 win over 15th-ranked and eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Baucom's performance earned her a First-Team All-SEC selection by the league's head coaches and a FirstTeam All-South Region selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Top 20 Director's Cup Finishes

10 of the Last 11 Years

LSU has garnered a top-20 finish in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings in ten of the last 11 years.

ON THE PROWL
Mike the Tiger was recently ranked by ESPN as the best mascot in the SEC. Mike's habitat is one of the most visited attractions in the state of Louisiana, located in the shadows of the north endzone of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE the tiger

HISTORY OF MIKE

Few mascots in the country are as admired as Mike the Tiger. LSU's live Bengal mascot serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams. The school has had six mascots, with the most recent, Mike VI, taking over the reign prior to the 2007 national championship football season.

The Bengal/Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," was donated to LSU by Great Cats of Indiana in Idaville, Ind., a nonprofit sanctuary and rescue facility for big cats and other large carnivores. Mike VI passed away on October 11, 2016, at the age of 11 following his four-month battle with cancer.

Traditionally, Mike rides through Tiger Stadium in a travel trailer topped by the LSU cheerleaders before home games. Before the field parade, Mike is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast corner of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's trailer to reach their locker room.

It was believed that the Tigers would score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward.

In the mid-1980s, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminiscent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

Prior to kickoff, Mike the Tiger and the LSU cheerleaders parade around the field of Tiger Stadium.

MIKE I

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $$ 750$, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia.

MIKE'S HABITAT
In 2005, a new environment (above) was created for Mike that is 15,000 square feet with lush foliage, a large Live Oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. The habitat has, as a backdrop, an Italianate tower - a campanile - that creates a visual bridge to the Italianate architectural vernacular that is the underpinning of the image of the entire LSU campus. This spectacular habitat features state-of-the-art technologies, research, conservation and husbandry programs, as well as educational, interpretive and recreational activities. It is, in essence, one of the largest and finest Tiger habitats in the United States.

SNEAUX DAY

On Dec. 11, 2008, a winter storm blanketed Baton Rouge that hadn't been seen in decades. The early white Christmas gave Mike VI a chance to relax and play in nearly two inches of accumulation.

MIKE II

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo in New Orleans and came to LSU on Sept. 28, 1956. The young tiger was held overnight in Tiger Stadium and unveiled Sept. 29 , the opening day of the football season.

MIKE III
Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $$ 1,500$ for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

MIKE IV

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

MIKE V

Mike V was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February of 1990 . He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger habitat across from Tiger Stadium. Mike V died on May 18, 2007, at the age of 17.

MIKE VI

Mike VI arrived on Aug. 25, 2007, thanks to the donation by Great Cats of Indiana. He was designated as the successor to Mike V on Sept. 8, when LSU played Virginia Tech On Sept. 14, 2007, a ceremony was held to honor Mike V and dedicate the habitat to Mike VI. The Bengal/ Siberian mix, formerly known as "Roscoe," reigned over a football national title in his first year and a 2011 SEC championship and perfect regular season. He was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in May 2016 and underwent first-of-itskind radiation treatment at Mary Bird Perkins Cancer Center at OLOL in Baton Rouge. He passed away at the age of 11 on Oct. 11, 2016. Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman, the No. 19 for Ben McDonald and the No. 36 for Eddy Furniss. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010. Furniss joined the prestigious list in April 2016.

50 BOB PETTIT

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000 -plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

33 Shaduille o'neal

Shaquille O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, $0^{\prime}$ Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 pete maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

15 SKIP BERTMAN

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Skip Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

20 billy CANNoN

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 30 le Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

40 RUDY MACKLIN

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single-game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

ABOUT LSU RETIRED JERSEYS

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, Furniss, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.

37 tommy casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

36 EDDY FURNISS

Eddy Furniss enjoyed one of the best four-season stretches (1995-98) in college baseball history. Furniss is still the Southeastern Conference all-time leader in hits (352), home runs (80), RBI (308), doubles (87) and total bases (689). He was selected in the fourth round of the 1998 Major League Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates and played five seasons in the minor leagues before retiring to concentrate on a career in medicine.

19 ben mcdonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 selmone augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year, and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also led the United States to Olympic gold medals at the 2008 Beijing, 2012 London and 2016 Rio Games.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame showcases the finest student-athletes and coaches to wear the Purple and Gold. To be eligible for the LSU Hall of Fame in the Athlete category, an individual must have earned a college degree and gained national distinction through superlative performance. Hall of Fame candidates must also have established a personal reputation for character and citizenship.

To be eligible in the Coach/Administrator category, the individual must have made significant contributions to LSU Athletics and gained national distinction through exceptional accomplishments in his or her field of expertise while establishing an image that reflects favorably upon the University.

The LSU Athletics Hall of Fame presently includes 136 members, which includes the latest Class of 2015: gymnast April Burkholder; hurdler Kim Carson; javelin thrower and Olympian Laverne Eve; Olympic gold medalist in women's basketball Sylvia Fowles; swimmer Todd Torres; football NFL All-Pro Ebert Van Buren; athletic trainer Mike Chambers, for whom LSU's live mascot "Mike" The Tiger is named; and trainer Herman Lang, who worked with three generations of LSU athletes. The next class to the Hall will be inducted in 2017.

NOMINATIONS
Nominations for the LSU Athletics Hall of Fame are accepted each fall. Nomination forms may be obtained by calling (225) 578-3600, or may be downloaded at: LSUsports.net/nominations.
