LSU LADY TIGER SEASON UPDATES

SUSAN DIXON

5-10, Forward, 1-VL

13

Susan was a freshman walk-on who earned a scholarship this year...A smart player, she has a deadly set shot from the corner...Though primarily a forward, she saw double duty as a guard last year...She has already equalled her 1982 scoring output this season and doubled her rebound statistics...Her best game of the season was against Northwestern State when she scored 13 points and had six rebounds... A nominee for academic SEC honors, she has a 3.64 grade point average.

LESLIE SACRE

6-3, Center, 2-VL

Junior - Vancouver, B.C.

14

Leslie can step in and give immediate help on the boards...She led the team in rebounding through the early part of the season as the squad adjusted to new offenses and defenses...Her size can be intimidating as she has a knack for getting position under the basket...She was the LSU rebound leader and a starter as a freshman, but she has been even more valuable in her reserve roll...Her best game of the season was against Centenary when she scored 13 points and hit the boards for 16 rebounds.

DENISE MORELL

5-6, Guard, JC

15

Denise brought experience to the LSU point guard spot as she spent last year as the starting guard for the Santa Monica Junior College team which was undefeated and won the California championship...She can come off the bench to maintain the tempo of a game...While she does not score a lot, she is capable of adding points as she tallied 17 against Centenary...Denise started the first three games of the season for the Ben-Gals...Her arrival put two guards from the state of Washington in the same backcourt for LSU.

JOYCE WALKER
5-8, Guard, 2-VL
Junior - Seattle, Wash.

21

An All-Southeastern Conference and Basketball News All-America choice last year, Joyce is a Wade Trophy finalist and a nominee for Kodak All-America honors this season...She leads the SEC in scoring with a 27.6 average, fourth in the nation... Her 43 points against Mississippi this year was the second highest single game point total in Lady Tiger history...Her 2,086 career points in three years ranks third in LSU history among men and women players...Joyce can definitely make things happen...She leads LSU in steals with 74, is second in assists with a 3.2 average, and is third in rebounds with a 7.0 average...She is third in career assists at LSU with 305 and sixth on the career rebound list with 475...Walker scored in double figures in every game this season, over thirty in seven of the final eight games.

RHONDA HAWTHORNE
5-5, Guard, HS
Freshman - Gulfport, Miss.

23

Though only 5-5, Rhonda has packed a lot of dynamite for LSU...She has played like a true veteran, earning a starting berth quickly, with 23 starts in 26 games this season while learning to play the point guard role...An accurate outside shooter, she takes what the opposition gives...She scores well with a 11.7 average but leads the team in assists with a 5.5 average...She was credited with 12 twice this year against Northwestern State and McNeese...She ranks third in the conference in that category...Her career total of 142 assists puts her fifth on the list of LSU career leaders, just eight short of the fourth spot of 150 set back in 1976...She played her prep basketball and was a Converse High School All-America for now Alabama coach Ken Weeks.

DANA PASSMAN
6-0, Forward, HS
Freshman - Baton Rouge, La.

30

Dana has played her way into a top reserve roll, seeing plenty of action in critical games and getting the starting nod twice...A pure shooter, she can hit accurately from the outside...She has also learned to play defense this season... Her best game offensively was a 16-point output against McNeese...Another Tiger scholar, she has a 3.5 average in the classroom.

HEIDI OLSEN
6-5, Center, 2-VL
Senior - Tulsa, Okla.

32

The only veteran senior on the squad, Heidi has started every game for LSU this year...In just one season she has almost doubled the output of her previous two years as a Lady Tiger...She has proven her worth on the inside, blocking 102 shots, the highest individual total since that statistic was first kept in 1979... While plagued by foul problems early in the season, she has not fouled out of the final 13 contests.

RAMONA DOZIER
6-0, Forward, 2-VL
Junior, Dallas, Tex.

33

A three year starter for the Ben-Gals, Ramona is fourth in LSU career rebounds with 656, having hit the boards for over 200 in each of her three seasons at LSU...She led the Lady Tigers in rebound averages the last two years, and her 9.8 average this season is well above the previous years...Her best game of the 1982-83 season included 28 points and 17 rebounds against Northwestern State, as she hit 12 of 15 attempts from the field...Her scoring average of 10.8 is fourth for LSU this season...She missed two games early in the year with a knee injury and was slowed for several more games as she recovered.

MADELINE DOUCET

34

Madeline joins Ramona Dozier to make the LSU inside game work...She plays taller than her 5-10 height, jumps well, and has fine moves which make her tough under the basket...She is the second leading scorer on the team with a 15.1 average and the second rebounder with a 7.5 average...She is also third in assists with 3.0... She has scored in double figures in all but three games this season...Her best effort was 22 points and 12 rebounds in the first LSU-Auburn contest in Baton Rouge...She hit 13 of 14 free throw attempts against Mississippi state to lead LSU to a victory in Starkville...Also outstanding in the classroom, Madeline has a 3.10 grade point average in Arts and Sciences.
