JULIA SELL

CO-HEAD COACH • FIFTH SEASON

Julia Sell has changed the culture of the LSU women's tennis program and has helped lead the Lady Tigers back to national prominence on the recruiting trail and on the courts in four seasons as the head coach.

In 2016, Julia Sell was joined by her husband Michael Sell as co-head coaches of the LSU women's tennis team. Julia Sell spearheaded the signing of the top class in the country by tennisrecruiting.net.

On the court, the squad started out strong with the program's first appearance ever at the ITA Team Indoor Championships. At the championships, the team defeated ninth-ranked Oklahoma State for the fifth top-10 win in the last 24 seasons.

The Lady Tigers broke the record for the highest ranking in school history on three separate occasions during the season. Prior to the 2016, the highest team ranking was 15th, but LSU went on to reach rankings of 14th, 13th and eventually ninth to shatter the record.

LSU reached the quarterfinal of the SEC Tournament hosted in Baton Rouge at the brand new tennis facility. The squad qualified for the NCAA Tournament and moved on to the second round. Joana Valle Costa was named to the All-SEC first team along with All-SEC freshman team selection Jessica Golovin. The two qualified for NCAA Singles Championships to become the first pair of teammates to reach the postseason event in the same season.

Abby Owens became the sixth player in school history to reach the 30-win mark in a single season and the third under Sell. Julia Sell secured her 50th victory at LSU during the 2016 season and brought her career record to 62-53

During the 2014-15 season, her third in Baton Rouge, Sell directed LSU to a 20-11 record. The team reached the 20-win mark for just the fourth time in school history and the semifinal of the SEC Tournament for the third time. The Lady Tigers also reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Sell.

Under the direction of Sell, Valle Costa and Skylar Kuykendall became the 14th and 15th players in school history to reach the 30-win mark. It was only the fifth time in school history and the first time since the 1984-85 season that two teammates won 30 matches or more in a season.

Valle Costa became just the sixth player in the program's history to reach the NCAA Single Championships. The Lisbon, Portugal native also earned the highest singles win for an LSU player since 2009 with her victory over No. 7 Sydney Campbell of Vanderbilt. Valle Costa along with Noel Scott also defeated No. 7 Pleun Burgman and Emily Flickinger of Auburn for the highest doubles win since 2002.

Sell came to LSU from Boca Raton, Florida where she assisted the USA as a Regional Training Center Coach since August 2011.

Prior to her stint with the USA, Sell served as an assistant coach for Notre Dame for three years from September of 2008 until August of 2011. She helped propel the Irish to their best results in program history, back to back Final Four appearances in the NCAA Team Tournament and a No. 5 year end ranking in 2009 and 2010. While at Notre Dame, she helped the Irish capture three Big East titles as well as reaching the semifinals of the 2009 ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

Off the court, Notre Dame's women's tennis team earned the highest grade point average among all of the Irish's teams with a 3.6 GPA in 2009 followed by a 3.65 in 2010.

In May of 2010 Sell was selected as a coach for the USTA Summer Collegiate Team, which serves as an elite training program for the top American collegiate tennis players who are trying to make the transition into professional tennis.

Sell got her start in coaching at the collegiate level in September of 2007 when she was named an assistant coach at Harvard. In her one season at Harvard, she helped recruit the nation's seventh-best signing class in 2007 followed by the nation's No. 2 rated class the following year.

A 2003 graduate of the University of Florida, Sell served as team captain for the Gators from 2000-03 and played the No. 1 singles position for the 2003 National Championship Team. During her time in Gainesville, Florida won a national championship, two Southeastern conference championships, three SEC tournament championships and finished as the NCAA runner-up and National Team Indoor runner-up.

She received Florida's Most Improved Player award, the SEC Outstanding Senior award and was named the ITA South Region Player of the Year as a senior in 2003. The former Scaringe achieved a career- high ITA singles ranking of 24th and 7th in doubles.

She also was a two-time Dorothy Anderson Award recipient, given to an athlete who displays the best combination of academics and character on and off the court, as well as being named a 2002 Sportsmanship Award honoree. Scaringe graduated 11th all-time in combined singles and doubles wins in Florida history and seventh all- time in doubles victories. She also was a member of Florida's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

As a junior player, Scaringe was a member of the U.S. National team, playing in all four junior Grand Slams and achieving a world ranking of 54th in singles and 42nd in doubles. Her best result came at the Australian Open where she reached the round of 16 in singles play.

A native of Marietta, Georgia, Sell earned her bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in 2003.

LSU TENNIS COMPLEX

In August 2015, the tennis programs opened the state-of-the-art LSU Tennis Complex. With more than 160,000 square feet of space, the facility features championship-caliber courts with 12 outdoors and six indoors. Housed inside the indoor facility are players' lounges, locker rooms, cardio room, satellite training room and coaches' offices for both the men's and women's teams.

Dual matches will take place on the north side of the facility at the W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Championship courts. The six remaining outdoor courts are located on the south side and allow the facility to host two matches at one time.

Fans may enjoy all the action with excellent sight lines from a total of 1,400 seats facing the 12 outdoor courts. The six indoor courts allow the Tigers to host different tournaments in front of more than 300 fans above the playing surface. The new facility also guarantees that both teams will never miss a practice or match due to unfavorable weather conditions.

Point-by-point scoring is available through Daktronics scoreboards on all 18 courts within the facility for an enhanced fan experience. Each set of courts also features a larger scoreboard with scores from all six courts. Fans off-site can track live matches online through StatBroadcast (www.StatBroadcast.com), which is directly linked to each judge's controller.

Spectators will also benefit from a permanent concession stand located on the west side of the facility between the two sets of outdoor courts. Members of the media will be able to provide coverage in the press box facing the W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Championship courts.

The LSU tennis programs are already reaping the benefits of the opening of the new facility. The men's team hosted a fall invitational in 2015, while the women hosted the SEC Tournament in April 2016 and the LSU Fall Classic in November 2016.

The LSU Tennis Complex is located on Gourrier Avenue across from LSU Baseball's Alex Box Stadium, Skip Bertman Field. The LSU Tennis Complex replaces W.T. 'Dub' Robinson Stadium, which had served as home of both men's and women's tennis programs since 1976.

1976 Lady Tigers: Inaugural Season

ILLUSTRIOUS TENNIS HISTORY

In the fall of 1973 the Lady Tigers' tennis team was formed as a club sport with Pat Newman as head coach and Jay McCreary as the Coordinator of Club Sports. The fledgling program began with eight players who bought their own racquets and balls. It has since developed into a national collegiate tennis power over the decades. From the early days of limited schedules and funding, the LSU program has come a long way, becoming a dominant tennis power in the state of Louisiana and making its presence known regionally and nationally.

In 1975, the Lady Tigers signed their first collegiate player to an athletic scholarship for the following season, acquiring Ann Ellis from Houston. Next was Karen McCarter, a walk-on from a big tennis family in Shreveport, La. The following year, Kay McDaniel, another Shreveport product, and Elizabeth Palfrey of Baton Rouge joined the Lady Tiger family, and LSU was on its way to becoming a national power, finishing in the top 20 in the nation for the first time.

The Lady Tigers experienced an outstanding recruiting season in 1976-77, signing the No. 1-ranked player in the South in Ebie Taylor of Mobile, Ala. From Texas came two outstanding players in Lisa Boettcher of Pasadena and Carol Reger of Fort Worth. With those players, LSU won the state championship, placed in the top 10 at nationals and produced the first Lady Tiger All-Americans in tennis, Kay McDaniel and Ebie Taylor.

The program has continued to flourish, finishing in the top 30 of the final national rankings 11 times since 1991.

Bruna Colosio

All-Americans

In its 40-year history, the LSU women's tennis program has produced an All-American 12 times. Only three years after the official inaugural season, two Lady Tigers were named All-Americans in 1978 as Ebie Taylor and Kay McDaniel, Nos. 2 and 12 on the all-time wins list at LSU, respectively, earned the honor. Sixteen years later, the next selection came in the form of Suzana Rodrigues, who earned her status as a singles All-American as a freshman in 1994. Fifth on the list of all-time wins, Rodrigues was named an All-American again as a senior in 1997, that year receiving recognition for her outstanding doubles play. Her partner Laura Olave shared the All-America distinction that year. Another pair was recognized as All-Americans in 2000 when Bruna Colosio and Ana Paula Mores won the award. Fittingly, they each ended their careers with the same number of match wins, 97, which places them in a tie for eighth on the all-time wins list. Colosio was named a singles All-American again in 2001, finishing her career as one of the top players to wear the Purple and Gold.

Megan Falcon

2007 ITA SINGLES ALL-AMERICAN
2008 ITA SINGLES ALL-AMERICAN
2009 ITA SINGLES ALL-AMERICAN

LSU's latest All-American, Megan Falcon had arguably the most successful season in Lady Tiger history as a sophomore in 2006-07. The Alameda, Calif., native enjoyed a stellar debut, reeling off win after win at the ITA All-American Championships in the fall of 2006. By the time the tournament ended for Falcon, she had defeated nine ranked opponents, including five in the top 50.

After her fast start, Falcon began the spring of 2007 ranked No. 2 in the nation. Playing all of her dual season matches at the No. 1 spot in singles, Falcon went 24-0 and ran her record to an amazing 34-2 heading into the NCAA Individual Championships.

Accomplishing something no other Lady Tiger had ever done before, Falcon raced to the semifinals of the championships, only dropping one set along the way. En route to the final four, Falcon knocked off four ranked opponents, pushing her record against ranked adversaries to 26-2 on the year. However, Falcon's pursuit of the individual national championship was denied when USC's Lindsey Nelson defeated her, 7-6(2), 6-2. Overall, Falcon finished 38-3 and tied for seventh in school history with 38 wins in a single season in 2006-07.

After an amazing individual season, Falcon deservedly received several accolades. She was named an ITA All-American in singles - finishing ranked No. 2 in the nation - the 2007 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year, First Team All-SEC, Southwest Regional Player to Watch, ITA National Co-Player to Watch, Honda Award Finalist, LSWA Louisiana Player of the Year and the LSWA Newcomer of the Year.

One season later in 2007-08, Falcon followed up her brilliant sophomore campaign by earning a second singles All-America honor. To open the fall season Falcon was ranked

No. 1 in the nation - the first Lady Tiger to be crowned as the nation's top singles player. For the second straight season Falcon led LSU in wins with a 27-7 record, including 12 victories over ranked opponents, and she finished the year ranked No. 15. Falcon again captured the ITA All-American Championships consolation title in the fall. Just like in 2007, Falcon earned First-Team All-SEC honors and was named LSWA Louisiana Player of the Year as well as earning ITA Scholar-Athlete recognition for the first time in her career.

For her senior campaign, Falcon completed her incredible run at LSU, listing eighth on the program's all-times wins list with a 99-18 career record. The three-time Louisiana Player of the Year earned her third-consecutive singles All-America honors, while also being unanimously named First-Team All SEC for the third straight season.

Ebie Taylor

1978 SINGLES ALL-AMERICAN

Ebie Taylor, who played for LSU from 1977-80, racked up 132 wins in a Lady Tigers' uniform. That number places her second on the list of all-time winningest players in LSU women's tennis history. Taylor became the first LSU women's tennis All-America selection, along with Kay McDaniel, in 1978, a year that saw the Lady Tigers go 19-5 and earn the title of Louisiana AIAW Champion. Garnering 41 victories during that decorated 1977-78 season also places Taylor fifth on the list of match wins in a single season.

Taylor secured 111 doubles career doubles victories with partner Drew Myers from 1976-80, ranking them first among the all-time winningest doubles duos in LSU women's tennis history.

Taylor and Myers won the National 21 and Under Mixed Doubles Championship during their time at LSU.

Taylor attended St. Paul's Episcopal High School in Mobile, Alabama and is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. Through her successful prep career, Taylor received the first full scholarship offered for women's tennis in the SEC.

Taylor is still an active and vital part of the LSU women's tennis program today, as she was named to the L-Club Board of Directors and was appointed as the first director for women's and men's tennis.
