LAST TIME OUT

The LSU volleyball team swept a pair of SEC matches at home, posting a five-game come-from-behind win over Alabama to take over first place in the SEC Western Division. The Tigers then scored a 3-1 win over Mississippi State on Sunday. LAUREN DEGIROLAMO was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week. Against Alabama, she was two kills shy of her career best with 17, while also leading LSU with six blocks, while posting a match-high .467 hitting percentage. DEGIROLAMO topped that performance against Mississippi State. DeGirolamo tied for the match high with 18 kills, one shy of her career best, while hitting at a match best .457 clip. She also led the match with nine blocks, one block shy of giving her the fifth double-double of her career. With 29 digs against Alabama, ELENA MARTINEZ recorded the second-most digs in a five-game match in school history, five behind her school record of 34 set earlier this year.

LSU'S KENTUCKY CONNECTIONS

LSU head coach Fran Flory was the head coach at Kentucky from 1993-1997 before coming to LSU. In her five seasons with the Wildcats, she posted a 78-80 overall record and led Kentucky to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 1993 with a 29-4 mark.

LSU IN THE CSTV/AVCA POLL

After taking a pair of SEC matches at home last weekend, including a win over Alabama to take over the lead in the SEC Western Division, the LSU volleyball team moved up two spots in the AVCA/CSTV Coaches poll to No. 18. It marks the 22nd consecutive week the Tigers have been among the Top 25, the longest streak since being ranked for 52 straight weeks from 1989 through 1993.

DIG FOR THE CURE

In an effort to raise awareness and money for the world's most common cause of cancer death in women, LSU volleyball kicks off the "Dig for the Cure" campaign against Alabama.

The month-long campaign will help to raise money for breast cancer awareness through the Susan B. Komen For The Cure Foundation. Donations will be accepted throughout the month of October, which has been designated Breast Cancer Awareness Month, with the proceeds of the campaign going directly to the Komen Foundation.

Fans are asked to make pledges either per dig for the Alabama and Arkansas matches, or they can make direct monetary contributions. Representatives from the Komen Foundation will be on hand at the matches to accept donations, along with several fan friendly fundraisers that will help raise money throughout the month.

The "Dig for the Cure" campaign was originally started in 2003 by Charlotte head coach Lisa Marston, whose mother was a breast cancer survivor, and has spread to volleyball programs across the country in recent years. Last year, the campaign raised over $72,000 nationally.

LSU VS. RANKED TEAMS

LSU is scheduled to play two matches against nationally ranked teams during the 2007 season, both against No. 6 Florida as part of the SEC round robin schedule. The Tigers also dropped a four-game match to Iowa State, which received votes in the poll at one point in the season, and defeated Ole Miss in three when the Rebels were receiving votes.

THE GOLD STANDARD

In a promotion dubbed the "Gold Game", the LSU volleyball team broke the single-match volleyball attendance record against South Carolina on Sept. 21. The Tiger faithful clad all in gold topped 2,300 as LSU shattered the previous record of an estimated 2,250 against Kentucky in 1992. With an attendance of 2,308, LSU marked its third 2,000-plus attendance in school history and the first since the 1992 record. Along with the 920 that attended the match against Florida the following Sunday, the 13th largest attendance in school history, and the two-day Mizuno Tiger Classic to start the year, the Tigers are averaging 992 in attendance this year, the largest average attendance in Fran Flory's 10-year tenure.

ON FIRE OR COLD AS ICE

LSU has one of the toughest serving teams in the league and when the Tigers are on track, they are very good, but with that risk can come consequences. The Tigers lead the SEC with 2.20 service aces per game, led by KYNA WASHINGTON with 40, MARINA SKENDER with 36 and ELENA MARTINEZ with 21. Eight Tigers have recorded an ace, all with four or more, including five with 10 or more. Conversely, LSU is also averaging 3.63 service errors per game. Recording a .868 serving percentage, the Tigers' best effort came against UL-Monroe when LSU had 17 aces. After recording a season worst 21 service errors against Auburn, the Tigers rebounded with their first single-digit service error total of the year with eight against Georgia, including a flawless third game.

After setting the school record with a .675 service ace per game average in 2006, the Zagreb, Croatia, native moved into the top 10 in career service aces per game. SKENDER now ranks fifth in career aces per game and against Mississippi State moved into the top 10 in career service aces in school history, where she is currently tied for ninth.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

The Tigers boast a pair of dominate players up the middle this season. LAUREN DEGIROLMAO made an immediate impact last year in her redshirt freshman season, and with the emergence of BRITNEE COOPER this year, LSU has one of the most impressive duos in the league.

DEGIROLMAO currently ranks third in the SEC and 32nd in the NCAA with 1.46 blocks per game, followed closely by COOPER in sixth in the league and 53rd nationally with 1.36 blocks per game, the only two players from the same team ranked in the top six. Offensively, DEGIROLMAO leads the team, ranks fourth in the league and 47th in the country with a .358 hitting percentage, while COOPER ranks second on the team at .274. DEGIROLMAO also ranks second on the team with 3.35 kills per game, followed by COOPER with the third best average on the team at 2.72 kills per game.

The duo also became the first LSU players to record double-figure blocking matches in the same season since REGAN HOOD and MEGAN HEINZ accomplished the feat in 2003. HOOD recorded a 10-block match against Mississippi State, while HEINZ had 10-block matches against Arkansas and Ole Miss.

MARTINEZ LEADS THE SEC, RANKS 13TH IN NCAA IN DIGS PER GAME

In her first year as the starting libero, junior ELENA MARTINEZ has recorded double-digit digs in every match this year, leads the SEC and ranks 22nd in the nation with 5.71 digs per game. Lara Newberry of Chattanooga leads the nation with 7.00 digs per game. MARTINEZ'S current mark would shatter the school record of 4.69 digs per game recorded by KASSI MIKULIK last season if she reaches 400 digs this year, she is now 29 shy of the 400-dig mark. In addition, she is on pace to also break the single-season digs mark of 535 set by MIKULIK last season. With 371 digs this year, she could break the record in November. MARTINEZ broke the LSU record with 34 digs in a five-game match against Iowa and again with 33 digs in a four-game match against Arkansas. MARTINEZ has now recorded 20 or more digs in nine of the Tigers' 13 matches this season.

SKENDER NEARS 700 CAREER DIGS

This season, she is second on the team in digs and digs per game. Last season, both KASSI MIKULIK and DANIELA ROMERO each topped the 700-dig plateau.

MARTINEZ POSTS 300 SEASON DIGS

With her 12 dig against Auburn on Sept. 28, junior ELENA MARTINEZ became just the second player since 2002 to record 300 digs in a season. She needs only 29 digs to move into the top 10 in single-season digs in school history.

WASHINGTON, SKENDER CLOSE TO 1,000-KILL MARK

Juniors KYNA WASHINGTON and MARINA SKENDER are both closing in the 1,000-kill mark. WASHINGTON is currently third in the SEC averaging 4.20 kills per game and is on pace to break the 1,000-kill mark in late October. SKENDER and could possibly reach the 1,000 mark this year, since moving from the right side to the outside, she has increased her swings.
