WASHINGTON vs. #11/9 LSU Sarkisian Era Opens With Night Game vs. Tigers

THE GAME: The Steve Sarkisian era begins at Washington this Saturday when LSU visits for a 7:30 p.m. (PT) game at Husky Stadium. The game will air live nationwide on ESPN television. Sarkisian, the Huskies' first-year head man, comes to Washington having made a name for himself as a quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at USC, which went 77-15 and won six Pac-10 Conference titles during his seven seasons there. LSU enters the game ranked No. 11 in the preseason AP top 25 and No. 9 in the coaches' poll. The Tigers are just the third SEC team to visit Husky Stadium and the first since 1978, when Alabama rolled into Seattle.

UNDER THE LIGHTS: While night games at Husky Stadium have become a much more common occurrence over the last 10 years or so, Saturday's 7:30 p.m. kickoff time is the latest for a home game in Husky history. Previous games have kicked off at 7:00 and even 7:15, but never 7:30.

SEASON OPENERS: Washington is 81-32-6 all-time in season openers, good for a mark of .706. Since 1989, Washington has posted an 11-8 record in season openers – 6-1 at home, 5-6 on the road, 0-1 neutral site. The Huskies have played a home game in their season opener only twice in the last seven years, beating San Jose State in 2006 and falling to Fresno State in 2004 in those two. Prior to that, the UW had won eight straight times when opening the season with a home contest. In that 19-season span, the Huskies have opened vs. a ranked team nine times: vs. No. 15 Stanford in 1993 (W, 31-14), at No. 17 USC in 1994 (L, 24-17), at No. 20 Arizona State in 1996 (L, 45-42), vs. No. 19 BYU in 1997 (W, 42-20) at No. 8 Arizona State in 1998 (W, 42-38), vs. No. 11 Michigan in 2001 (W, 23-18), at No. 12 Michigan in 2002 (L, 31-29), at No. 2 Ohio State in 2003 (L, 28-9) and at No. 21 Oregon in 2008 (L, 44-10).

TELEVISION: The Washington-LSU game will air live to a national audience on ESPN television with Mark Jones and former Notre Dame head coach Bob Davie providing the commentary. Additionally, "Huskies All-Access" airs each Wednesday evening on FSN. The program is an up-close look at each Husky game, with features, one-on-one interviews and sideline video.

RADIO: The Washington ISP Sports Network, with its flagship station KJR 950-AM, will carry the live broadcast of every football game on 15 Northwest radio stations. Longtime play-by-play man Bob Rondeau and color analyst Chuck Nelson are joined by sideline reporter Elise Woodward. Many game broadcasts will also be carried on XM Satellite Radio on channel 193, 194 or 195 and can be heard over the internet via the Dawg Channel at gohuskies.com. The game will also air to a national audience on Sports Radio USA with Dan Fouts and Gary Barnett on the call.

THE COACH: First-year head coach Steve Sarkisian came to the UW with a wealth of experience as a quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. His string of success is nearly unprecedented as, during his time at USC, he coached two Heisman Trophy winners and oversaw one of the nation's most consistent and dominant offenses. Sarkisian spent 2007 and 2008 as the Trojans' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He had also previously served as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach (2005-06), quarterbacks coach (2002-03) and as an offensive assistant (2001) at USC, for a total of seven seasons there. During his seven seasons as a member of the Trojans' staff, the team has posted a combined 74-15 record. As offensive coordinator, his record was 22-3. Aside from his various roles at USC, Sarkisian, 35, also spent one season as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders in 2004 and as QBs coach at El Camino College in Torrance, Calif., in 2000, his first coaching job. A standout quarterback at BYU, Sarkisian actually faced his new team in Husky Stadium, on Sept. 14, 1996. That day, his Cougars suffered their only loss in a 14-1 season, falling to the Huskies, 29-17. Sarkisian completed 23-of-35 passes for 279 yards, no interceptions and two touchdowns. Known for mentoring quarterbacks, he coached an impressive line of signalcallers while at USC. Last year, Mark Sanchez wrapped up his college career with Pac-10 and Rose Bowl titles and was the fifth overall pick in the NFL Draft. Before Sanchez, Sarkisian helped John David Booty earn first-team All-Pac-10 status and a fifth-round NFL draft selection. In 2005, he helped Matt Leinart win the Johnny Unitas Award and first-team All-America before going 10th overall in the draft. In 2003, Leinart was also a first-team All-American and the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year. Sarkisian also mentored 2002 Heisman Trophy winner Carson Palmer in his first season as full-time quarterbacks coach. Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. After his standout career at Brigham Young University, he was played for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for three seasons (1997-99). He had a record-setting two-year (1995-96) career at BYU, playing under legendary coach Lavell Edwards. Sarkisian completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 touchdowns in his career. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating ranked third on the all-time NCAA list. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, No. 7 all-time) as the Western Athletic Conference champion. Cougars went 14-1 and won the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996, earned second-team All-America honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl. As a junior in 1995, he earned all-conference honors and led BYU to the WAC title. Sarkisian transferred to BYU from El Camino Junior College, where he played two seasons (1993-94). He was a first-team Junior College All-America selection as a sophomore and earned all-conference honors in 1993 as a freshman. He also played baseball at El Camino in 1993. He originally enrolled at USC as a baseball player before transferring. Sarkisian was a standout football and baseball player at West Torrance (Calif.) High. He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after receiving his associate's degree from El Camino in 1994.

COACHING STAFF: Washington's assistant coaching staff is entirely new this season. While there are a couple of coaches who made their way to Washington via USC, like head coach Steve Sarkisian, more notably, many of the new coaches have very specific ties to the Northwest. Nick Holt is the UW's defensive coordinator, the role he served at USC the last three seasons. Holt, however, is tied to the Pacific Northwest by way of the fact that he was head coach at Idaho in 2004 and 2005. He was also an assistant with the Vandals from 1990-97. Offensive coordinator and QBs coach Doug Nussmeier, who grew up in the Portland, Ore., area was a star quarterback at Idaho, where he passed for 10,824 career yards and won the Walter Payton Award (the I-AA Heisman). He's also in the Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame, just like running backs coach Joel Thomas. Thomas, a native of Port Angeles, Wash., is still the Vandals' all-time leader in rushes, rushing yards and rushing TDs. Offensive line coach and run game coordinator Dan Cozzetto, who went to high school in Spokane, is another Idaho grad. Cozzetto, who was also the Washington line coach in 2003, came to the UW from Arizona State, but has also coached at Idaho under former head coach Dennis Erickson. Safeties coach Jeff Mills, who played his college football at Western Washington, was a graduate assistant at the UW in 1990 and 1991 under coach Don James. He helped the Dawgs to Pac-10 titles both seasons and the national championship in '91. Mills has also coached at Idaho. Defensive line coach/special teams coordinator/recruiting coordinator Johnny Nansen grew up in Long Beach, Calif., but played football at Washington State and comes to Seattle after spending five seasons at Idaho (including two under Holt). Finally, as to the Idaho connection, linebackers coach Mike Cox is a native of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, played for the Vandals under Erickson and former Husky head coach Keith Gilbertson, and coached in Moscow from 1987-94. He came to Washington from the St. Louis Rams. Cornerbacks coach Demetrice Martin is new to the Northwest, having previously worked with Sarkisian at USC. Another newcomer to this part of the country, receivers coach Jimmie Dougherty, played at Missouri and most recently coached at the University of San Diego. Washington's two new graduate assistants are Mike Anderson (defense) and Brent Miller (offense). Anderson played at Idaho under Holt and is a native of Lewiston, Idaho. Miller, whose playing days at Arizona State ended with the 2007 season, once scored a game-winning touchdown in overtime at Husky Stadium.

ALL NEW STAFF: Every member of the UW's 2009 coaching staff is in his first season (at least of this stint) with the Huskies, meaning the entire staff, including graduate assistants, is new. According to research conducted by Utah State's sports information department, Washington is one of only two Division I FBS schools this year with an entirely new staff, including GAs (Utah State is the other). Auburn, Iowa State, Miami (Ohio), New Mexico and Toledo also have new full-time staffs, but retained at least one GA from the previous season.

HUSKIES vs. TIGERS HISTORY: Washington and LSU have faced one another only one time in history, on Sept. 24, 1983. The ninth-ranked Huskies came into Baton Rouge 2-0 on year after wins at Northwestern and at home over Michigan, but left with a 40-14 loss in front of 82,390 fans at Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to a 20-7 halftime lead and built that lead to 34-7 early in the fourth quarter as the Tigers cruised to the win. The Huskies couldn't get the ball moving on the ground with RB Jacque Robinson as they netted just 28 yards rushing for the game. The Huskies did find out though that they could move on the Tigers through the air, but every time the Huskies got a drive going, out came a penalty flag, as they where whistled for nine penalties for 107 yards. LSU's "Dalton-James" gang (Dalton Hilliard and Garry James) combined to rush for 226 yards and sophomore QB Jeff Wickersham added a career-high 259 passing yards and a touchdown. Wickersham also recorded two more touchdowns running the ball, both of them on play-action rollouts. His 259 yards passing were the second most in LSU school history. LSU kicker Juan Betanzos added to the Tigers scoring by booting two field goals, one from 32 yards out and the other from 37. Washington's two scores came on a two-yard run by Robinson, which made the score 10-7 LSU, and when Steve Pelluer scored on a one-yard QB sneak four minutes into the fourth quarter, cutting the Tigers lead to 34-14 at that point. Pelluer connected on 27-of-42 passes for a career-high 312 yards. He threw seven completions to receiver Mark Pattison, six to Danny Greene, and five times to tight end Larry Michael. Washington went on to an 8-4 season and a berth in the Aloha Bowl while LSU finished the season 4-7.

WASHINGTON-LSU TIES: Not surprisingly, Washington's roster doesn't include any players from the state of Louisiana, nor are there any Tigers from Washington. The closest it gets are a pair of Tigers from the West Coast: freshman WR Karl Acker (Portland, Ore./Grant HS) and junior DL Akiem Hicks (Elk Grove, Calif./Del Campo), who attended the same Sacramento-area high school as Husky senior linebacker Donald Butler and freshman cornerback Anthony Gubern. Additionally, Husky safety Victor Aiyewa is from the Houston area, home to a long list of LSU players, though none of them attended Aiyewa's high school (Hightower). A much less subtle connection is the fact that LSU wide receivers coach D.J. McCarthy is a Washington graduate. McCarthy played at the UW from 1991 to 1993, having transferred from Long Beach CC. He was on the roster when current UW safeties coach Jeff Mills was a grad assistant here (1991) and was on the same staff as Mills at Idaho from 2000 to 2003. Also an obvious connection is the fact that University of Washington president Mark Emmert (a UW graduate) was previously chancellor at LSU, where he worked with current Husky athletic director Scott Woodward, a native of Baton Rouge and an LSU graduate. Additionally, Cheryl Taplin, the UW's assistant to the head coach, was a three-time national champion sprinter at LSU and is a member of the school's Hall of Fame.

HUSKIES vs. THE SEC: LSU is only the third Southeastern Conference team ever to visit Husky Stadium, joining Alabama and Mississippi State. In fact, the Huskies have only played four of the 12 current members of the SEC, home, away or neutral. Washington has gone 0-4 vs. Alabama (including losses in the 1926 Rose Bowl and the 1986 Sun Bowl; also lost in 1975 in Tuscaloosa and in 1978 in Seattle). The Dawgs beat Florida, 34-7, in the 1989 Freedom Bowl, and lost to Mississippi State, 28-17, in a regular-season game in 1977 in Seattle. The Huskies have never faced Arkansas, Auburn, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee or Vanderbilt.

HOME OPENERS: The Huskies are 85-27-5 in home openers (whether the first game of the season or not), a percentage of .748. (Washington did not play any home games in the 1890 or 1893 seasons.) That mark includes a 28-game streak of home-opener wins that ran from 1908 to 1935. Before falling to Air Force in the 1999 home opener, Washington had won 13 straight such games since falling to Oklahoma State on Sept. 7, 1985.

HOME vs. NON CONFERENCE: Washington has been very tough to beat in home, non-conference games over the last couple of decades or so. Going back to (and including) the 1981 season, the Huskies have posted a 49-11 record against non-Pac-10 foes in Husky Stadium. Those 11 losses have come to BYU (2008), Oklahoma (2008), Ohio State (2007), Notre Dame (2005), Fresno State (2004), Nevada (2003), Air Force (1999), Nebraska (1997), Notre Dame (1995), Colorado (1989) and Oklahoma State (1985). The wins during that stretch include victories over No. 22 Boise State in 2007, No. 11 Michigan in 2001, No. 4 Miami in 2000, and No. 12 Nebraska in 1992, to name just four. Prior to the 2004 loss to Nevada, Washington hadn't lost a home game to a non-league opponent since falling to Air Force, 31-21, on September 18, 1999. The Huskies had won 10 such games before that Nevada loss.

TEAM NOTES

CAPTAINS: At the "Raise the Woof!" kickoff celebration held on Aug. 28, the four captains, as voted by their teammates, for the coming season were revealed. They are senior LB Donald Butler (Sacramento, Calif.), junior QB Jake Locker (Fern-dale, Wash.), senior DE Daniel Te'o-Nesheim (Waikoloa, Hawai'i) and junior C Ryan Tolar (Pasco, Wash.). Te'o-Nesheim was also voted as a season captain at the end of last season.

ONLY THE BIG BOYS: As of the first weekend of this season, Washington will be one of just four NCAA Division I-A programs that has never faced a non-Division I-A opponent since the current division setup was established in 1978 (the division's names have undergone a change this year, but the setup is still the same). Michigan State was one of five such teams, but opens the 2009 season vs. FCS team Montana State. Both Michigan and Ohio State fell of the club as the Wolverines opened in 2007 with Appalachian State and the Buckeyes vs. Youngstown State, both on the same day. The four schools that have yet to play a non-Division I-A opponent since the advent of the current format are Notre Dame, USC, UCLA and Washington.

DECADE AFTER DECADE: Washington has won a conference title and a trip to the Rose Bowl in each of the last nine decades, dating back to the 1920s when Washington won the berth in 1923 and 1925. In the 1930s, the Dawgs won the '36 title. In the '40s, Washington earned the trip in 1943 and then barely slipped in under the wire in the 1950s, winning the 1959 crown. The Huskies won two Rose Bowl berths in the 1960s -- 1960 and 1963 -- and one in the 1970s (1977). Titles in 1980 and 1982 did it for that decade and three straight trips to Pasadena to begin the 1990s covered that 10-year span. In the 2000s, UW was the first team to earn Rose Bowl berths in nine straight decades. USC joined the Dawgs in that distinction in 2004 after their New Year's Day appearance in Pasadena.

FINISHING FIRST OR SECOND: Washington has finished either first or second in the conference (including ties) in 18 of the last 32 seasons, dating back to a fourth-place finish in 1976. Over that span, Washington has won the championship (outright or shared) eight times -- 1977, 1980, 1981, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995 and 2000 -- while finishing second 10 other times.

THE 100-YARD FACTOR: Since the 1947 season, Washington is 166-47-3 (.775) when a Husky player rushes for 100 yards in a game. The Huskies went 3-1 in such games in 2003, 1-1 in 2004, 2-3 in 2005, 2-1 in 2006; 3-4 in 2007 and went 0-2 last year.

HISTORY LESSON: Successfully rushing the football and winning go hand-in-hand for the Huskies. Since 1990, UW has rushed for 200 yards in a game 72 times. The Huskies' record stands at 59-12-1 (.826) in those contests. Since the 1995 season, Washington is 34-9-1 (.784) when rushing for 200 yards.

PLAYING AT HOME: Washington has gone unbeaten at home 13 times in its history, including six times in the last 20 seasons. Washington has won 79 of its last 120 (.663) games at Husky Stadium with one tie (79-40-1). Since 1980, the Huskies stand 127-51-2 (.711) at home. Since 1990, the Huskies are 49-29-1 (.627) at Husky Stadium vs. Pac-10 opponents.

HISTORIC HUSKY STADIUM: The 2009 season marks the 90th season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. Thanks to several major renovations, Husky Stadium's seating capacity has increased to its current total of 72,500. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium currently stands at 344-163-21 (.671).

FAMILY TIES: As is the case with most seasons of Husky football, there are a number of players on the Washington football team related to either current or former Huskies. Linebacker Trenton Tuiasosopo is a first cousin of former Huskies Marques and Zach Tuiasosopo as well as older sister, Leslie, a standout Husky volleyball player and now an assistant coach for the UW volleyball team, and younger sister Ashley, a junior on the Husky softball team. Fullback Paul Homer is a cousin, by marriage, of former Husky offensive lineman Aaron Dalan, who married former Washington women's basketball player Gena Pelz. Cornerback Matt Mosley is a cousin to former Husky Luther Carr. Outside linebacker Fred Wiggs is the younger brother of former Husky defensive lineman Sekou Wiggs, while tailback Chris Polk and wide receivers Jordan Polk are cousins. Freshman linebacker Jordan Wallace is the younger brother of former Husky safety C.J. Wallace, who now plays for the Seattle Seahawks. Another freshman, Talia Crichton, is a cousin of senior DE Daniel Te'o-Nesheim while sophomore tailback Johri Fogerson is related to both Nate Robinson (former UW football and basketball player; current New York Knick) and former Husky basketball standout Dion Brown. Lastly, freshman quarterback Keith Price is a cousin of former UW tailback Jelani Harrison. Incidentally, at least four Huskies have close family ties to Washington State. Both T.J. Poe's and Cameron Elisara's fathers played at WSU, as did Husky cornerback Desmond Trufant's brother Marcus. Freshman safety Nate Fellner is the grandson of former WSU head coach Jim Sweeney.

OVERALL ATHLETIC SUCCESS: Having firmly established itself as one of the top broad-based Division I intercollegiate athletics programs in the country, the University of Washington once again placed in the top echelon in the annual U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup competition in the 2008-2009 academic year. Husky athletics finished 11th among all NCAA Division I institutions (271 schools earned at least a point and were ranked) in the annual standings. Washington scored a total of 1010.25 points in the Director's Cup, which is based solely on NCAA championship competition (and therefore didn't include the Huskies' national championship in men's rowing, which is not an NCAA sport). The 2008-09 Washington athletic season was highlighted by a number of team and individual successes, including NCAA championships in women's cross country and softball, plus the national title in men's rowing. The Huskies also won the Pac-10 championship in women's cross country (posting the best possible score), men's basketball and men's golf and posted top-10 NCAA finishes in men's golf, women's rowing, women's volleyball and women's tennis.

THE UW -- TOP OF ITS CLASS: Here are some interesting facts about the UW:

- For over 30 years, UW faculty have been tops in America in winning federal support for research. Since 1974, the UW has been the number one public university in America in receiving federal funding for its research.
- In recent rankings of universities all over the world published in The Economist magazine, the UW was judged to be the 17th best university on earth.
- The most recent U.S. News & World Reports rankings of American universities rated the UW as the No. 11 public institution in the country.
- As a measure of the University's commitment to public service, the UW has more of its graduates serving all over the world in the Peace Corps than any other university in the country.
- In a new program called "Husky Promise" announced last year and starting this fall, Washington state students from low income families will be able to attend the UW without ever having to worry about paying tuition--it will be free for them while they earn their bachelor's degree. The UW program is one of the largest in the nation making this commitment to those from economically disadvantaged backgrounds.
