STATE MAKES TRIP TO BATON ROUGE TO FACE LSU

Mississippi State will play its second Southeastern Conference game of the season, and its first SEC road contest when the Bulldogs take on LSU this evening. The game will kick off at 6:30 p.m. and will be televised nationally by ESPN2. LSU has won the last eight meetings in the series and the defending national champions have won 15 of the last 16 dating back to 1992.

BULLDOGS LOOK TO EVEN CONFERENCE MARK AT 1-1

Mississippi State is looking to return to .500 in Southeastern Conference play after dropping its first conference game of the season, a 3-2 loss to Auburn in Starkville. Last season the Bulldogs lost their opener to LSU at home before going on the road and defeating Auburn.

DOGS, TIGERS COMMON OPPONENTS THROUGH THE YEARS

Mississippi State and LSU have played each season since 1919 except for 1943, when MSU did not field a team due to World War II. In fact, since State began playing football in 1895, the two teams have met every year with only 5 exceptions (1895, 1901, 1904, 1914 and 1918).

STATE SEEKS TO END ESPN2 TREND

With an all-time record of 5-14 (.263) in games televised by ESPN2, Mississippi State will look for its first win on the national cable outlet since Sylvester Croom's first game on the sidelines for State, a 28-7 victory over Tulane in 2004. The Bulldogs have lost their last three appearances on ESPN2, including a pair of games this season.

LAST MSU WIN OVER LSU WAS CARRIED BY THE DUECE

Mississippi State will play LSU on ESPN2, the same broadcast partner the Bulldogs beat the Tigers 17-16 in front of in 1999, the last MSU victory in the series. MSU and LSU have played only once since on the national cable outlet, with LSU winning in overtime in Baton Rouge in 2000.

TELEVISED GAMES BECOMING THE NORM FOR MISSISSIPPI STATE

Last season, eight Mississippi State games were televised by a national or regional outlet. This weekend's game will mark the fourth of the first five MSU contests this season to be carried live. MSU is 55-79 (.410) all-time in televised games.

BATON ROUGE NIGHT GAME A RARITY IN MSU-LSU SERIES

Mississippi State has not played LSU at night since an overtime tilt in 2000. Each of the last three MSU games at Tiger Stadium have been 11:30 a.m. kickoffs.

CAMPBELL, FELKER WORKED WITH PEVETO AT ARKANSAS

Mississippi State linebackers coach Louis Campbell and running backs coach Rockey Felker both worked on Danny Ford's staff at Arkansas with LSU co-defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Bradely Dale Peveto. Peveto was the Razorbacks' linebackers coach in 1994 and 1995.

HARBISON COACHED AT LSU IN 2001-02

MSU defensive coordinator Charile Harbison coached defensive backs at LSU under Nick Saban in 2001 and 2002. In 2001, Harbison was part of the staff that led LSU to its first SEC Championship in 13 seasons.

PAIR OF BULLDOGS CALL LOUISIANA HOME

Despite the proximity, only two Mississippi State players hail from Louisiana, LaMarcus Williams (Bastrop) and Chrisan Ducre (LaCombe).

DOG 'D' RANKS AMONG NATION'S BEST IN PASS DEFENSE

A quarter of the way through the season, Mississippi State's defense ranks among the nation's leaders in pass defense. State is seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (87.58), fourth in the country in passing yards allowed per game (126.5) and 37th in total defense (308.0).

DEFENSE RACKING UP NEGATIVE PLAYS

Mississippi State defenders rank 19th nationally and third in the Southeastern Conference with an average of 7.5 tackles-for-loss each game. State posted a season-best 12 tackles behind the line of scrimmage against Auburn in its first conference game of the season.

MEDIA SERVICES

MONDAY TELECONFERENCE

MSU head football coach Sylvester Croom will conduct a Monday teleconference (10 a.m. CT) prior to Bulldog games this year. Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office (662-325-2703) for access info.

TUESDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Croom will conduct a weekly press conference each Tuesday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be held at the Bryan Athletic Administration Building. Coach Croom's press conference begins at 1 p.m. (CT). Selected players will be available following Croom's presentation (approximately 1:30 p.m.). To request specific players, media members must contact MSU Athletic Media Relations (662-325-2703) by 5 p.m. the Monday preceding each respective press conference.

WEDNESDAY SEC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Croom will join the league's other 11 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. Coach Croom's seven-minute segment is scheduled from 11:03-11:10 a.m. (CT). The teleconference phone number can be obtained by calling the MSU Athletic Media Relations office.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

During game week, all player interviews must be conducted by Tuesday evening and need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Players MAY NOT be interviewed after Tuesday evening. Players will be notified of requested telephone interviews via a message placed on the player's locker. The player will call following practice at his convenience.

Please coordinate all player requests with the MSU Athletic Media Relations office (662-325-2703).

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The first six periods (approximately one hour) of MSU's practice sessions are open to the media (still photo & TV video). The remainder of practice is closed to the media who may return following practice for interview purposes.

SEC PHOTO DATABASE

A digital image database for the SEC is available to media members throughout the year. Photos, logos and other images for all 12 schools can be found by going to www.secsportsmedia.com and registering as an accredited media outlet.

MSU SATELLITE SERVICES

Segments of MSU's weekly press conference and postgame highlights of the Bulldogs' six home games will be available to television outlets via satellite.

Weekly press conference feeds will be uplinked from each Tuesday prior to MSU games during the season. Information about the feeds will be available through the MSU Media Relations office (662-325-2703).

Highlights from MSU's home games will also be available. Please contact Bennie Ashford in the MSU Television Center (662-325-1332) for the time of each postgame uplink (times will vary each week).

BOWMAN BLOWS UP AGAINST TIGERS

Senior defensive tackle Jessie Bowman enjoyed the most productive game of his career with an eight-tackle performance against Auburn in Week 3. Bowman also notched three and a half tackles-for-loss and forced a fumble. The tackles-for-loss were the most by a Bulldog defender since Titus Brown recorded 3.5 TFLs against Tulane in 2006. For his efforts, Bowman was honored as the Southeastern Conference Defensive Lineman of the Week.

B-MAC BECOMING B.M.O.C. AFTER 10-CATCH GAME AGAINST TECH

After a disappointing two-catch season in 2007, junior wide receiver Brandon McRae is making up for lost time in a big way. The Chester, Va., native has hauled in a Southeastern Conference-best 24 passes on the season for 249 yards and a pair of touchdowns. McRae's 10-catch, 102-yard game against Georgia Tech set new career highs in both categories.

PEGUES CONTINUES TO CLIMB KICK RETURN CHARTS

Senior safety Derek Pegues has played in 39 games during his MSU career and he currently holds the Mississippi State record for kickoff returns in a career (88) and is 19 shy of setting the SEC career mark. His 1,985 career kickoff return yards is also a school record, as he passed Tony James (1,862, 1989-92) earlier this year. With 20 more yards, he will move ahead of Tony Jackson (Vanderbilt, 1989-93, 2,004) for fourth all time in the Southeastern Conference.

PEGUES FINDS NAME ON OTHER LISTS AS WELL

Pegues also holds the MSU school record with three interception returns for touchdowns, which is tied for second in the SEC. Also, his 10 total interceptions tie him for fifth in school history in that category.

He currently stands in sixth all time in the conference record books with 148 career total kick returns (62 punt/88 kickoff) and fifth in total return yardage with 2,666 (681 punt/1,985 kickoff).

PEGUES AGAIN NAMED TO THORPE AWARD LIST

Derek Pegues was selected to the 2008 Jim Thorpe Award watch list, an honor given annually to the nation's best college defensive back. Pegues was one of just 40 defensive backs nationally to be included on the initial watch list, one of only eight named to the list for the second-consecutive season. He was also selected first-team pre-season all-Southeastern Conference by both the league's coaches and the media.

BUTKUS AWARD CANDIDATE CHANEY OUT FOR SEASON; NUMBER STILL ACTIVE

Senior Jamar Chaney led the Bulldogs with 89 tackles from his middle linebacker position a year ago, and was named to the Butkus Award Watch List over the summer. Chaney was a second-team all-Southeastern Conference selection by both the league's coaches and media prior to this season. While leading State with 12 tackles against Louisiana Tech, Chaney suffered a broken ankle on the game's final play. He underwent surgery the following day, and will miss the rest of the 2008 campaign.

In his absence, members of the defense have worn his jersey twice this season. Keith Fitzhugh wore #22 against Southeastern Louisiana and Dominic Douglas wore the jersey against Auburn.

McADAMS CONTINUES HUNT FOR SEC PUNTING RECORDS

Senior punter Blake McAdams has started each game for the past four seasons for the Bulldogs, and his career numbers are approaching some of the all-time records set in the Southeastern Conference. McAdams set a new MSU school record for total punts with his 236 (previous: 217, Dana Moore, 1979-82). He is now only 41 shy of the SEC mark. His 9,323 total yards are a new school record and good for 12th in the history of the Southeastern Conference.

SENIOR PUNTER HAS NIGHT TO REMEMBER AGAINST AUBURN

Blake McAdams punted 10 times for 381 yards against Auburn in State's SEC opener, pinning the Tigers inside the 20 three times. He also held Auburn return specialist Robert Dunn - who entered the game as the SEC's top punt returner - to just two returns for 22 yards.

FITZHUGH PULLS IN ONLY PAIR OF PICKS

Senior safety Keith Fitzhugh picked off a pair of Louisiana Tech passes in the season opener, but the Bulldogs have not intercepted a pass since. Last season State defenders picked off 18 passes and returned five for touchdowns.

WRIGHT IN RIGHT PLACE, MAKES MOST OF FIRST CAREER STARTS

Sophomore linebacker K.J. Wright earned his first career start in the season opener and posted six total tackles and a team-best two tackles for loss. He followed that performance up against SLU with his first career sack. Wright leads the team with five tackles for loss and is third on the team with 17 total tackles.

DOUGLAS MAKES MOVE TO MIDDLE, AGAIN AMONG DEFENSIVE LEADERS

Senior Dominic Douglas racked up the second most tackles among all Bulldog defenders a year ago, and lead the team in stops twice. Against Louisiana Tech, Douglas was second on the squad with nine tackles, one shy of his career high (10, UAB, 2007). He currently ranks 12th in the SEC with a 7.0-tackle-per-game average, and last week at Georgia Tech was his first career game at middle linebacker. Douglas had started 14 times previously at weakside linebacker.

True freshman Sean Ferguson became just the second Mississippi State player in the past 22 years to start his first career game when he lined up at defensive end against Louisiana Tech.

BAILEY BECOMING DEFENSIVE FORCE

Senior Tim Bailey, in his first season as a starter at defensive end has been a constant in the offensive backfield. He finished with two tackles, two pass deflections and a career-best five quarterback hurries against Tech, recorded his first career sack against Southeastern Louisiana and currently is seventh in the conference with 4.0 tackles for loss on the season.

DIXON CONTINUES TO CLIMB UP MSU CAREER CHARTS

With 270 yards on 56 carries in the first four games, Mississippi State junior tailback Anthony Dixon has now compiled 2,004 rushing yards on 512 attempts in 29 career games. The Terry, Miss., native stands fourth all time in attempts and became the school's 10th 2,000-yard rusher last weekend. His 25 rushing touchdowns also ranks second on the schools charts (Michael Davis, 27, 1991-94).

"BOOBIE" BREAKS BIG PLAY

Dixon, playfully called "Boobie" by friends, busted a 71-yard rush in the first quarter of State's game at Georgia Tech. It was the longest rush of his career, and the longest rush by a Bulldog since Jerious Norwood's 76-yard scamper against Florida in 2005. Dixon's previous career best was a 65-yard carry against Arkansas in 2006.

BRIGNONE BECOMING LEADER OF OFFENSIVE FRONT

Sophomore center J.C. Brignone has eclipsed the 80 percent mark in his blocking grade each of the past three weeks. He has played every snap of the last two games, posting nine knockdowns against Auburn and six at Georgia Tech.

BOWSER BLOCK PARTY BECOMING FAMILIAR

Junior cornerback Tay Bowser has found a specialty on special teams. The 6'3" Gilmer, Texas, native has blocked a pair of kicks this season and been close to several others. His first block was an extra point attempt at Louisiana Tech, and he followed that up with a blocked punt against Auburn in Week 3.

Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - LSU opened the 2007 season by showing why it's the No. 2-ranked team in the country Thursday night, downing homestanding Mississippi State 45-0 at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in the lidlifter for both squads. The loss was State's eighth in a row to the Tigers.

The Tigers picked off six State passes in the contest to aid in the shutout effort over MSU. State struggled offensively all evening against the highly touted LSU defensive unit, managing just 146 yards from scrimmage. MSU quarterback Michael Henig could not find a rhythm on the home field as he threw a school record-tying six interceptions.

Meanwhile, LSU's offense tallied 347 yards in total. Quarterback Matt Flynn was 12-of-19 for 128 yards through the air, including two touchdown passes, one to Early Doucet who had 78 yards receiving on the night. Tiger running back Keiland Williams ran in a pair of scores for the Tigers on the ground in the first half. Backup signal-caller Ryan Perrilloux rushed and threw for scores in the fourth quarter to round out scoring.

The offenses for both squads came out flat at first, not scoring a single touchdown in the first quarter. The only points came on a 27-yard field goal from LSU kicker Colt David. The Tigers held a 3-0 lead at the end of the period.

In the second quarter, the Bulldogs still couldn't muster up any offensive production. Henig threw four of his six interceptions in the first half. He was 11-of-28 for 120 yards in the game. On the other side of the ball, the Bulldog defense started to lose ground as the Tigers put up 14 points in the last six minutes of the first half to head into the locker room with a 17-0 lead. The Bulldogs were outgained 185-79 in the first half.

At the beginning of the second half, the Tigers continued their attack, scoring on their first drive, an 11-yard touchdown pass from Flynn to Doucet to push the lead to 24-0. LSU then capitalized on another Henig interception by scoring another touchdown, a Flynn pass to Charles Scott to go up 31-0.

LSU also kept State sophomore running back Anthony Dixon from breaking loose, only tallying 29 yards rushing on 13 carries. Senior Tony Burks led the Bulldog receiving corps with 45 yards on one catch.

Dominic Douglas, making his first career start, led the team with nine tackles on the night. He, along with Jimmie Holmes and preseason all-SEC defensive end Titus Brown, accounted for one sack apiece.

Junior defensive back Derek Pegues moved into fifth place on the MSU career list for kickoff return yardage. He is also fifth all-time in career kickoff returns. He had 100 all-purpose yards for the night.

GAME NOTES

- Tonight's captains were seniors Titus Brown and Royce Blackledge and junior Jamar Chaney.
- Junior Michael Henig's six interceptions tied Max Stainbrook's individual school record (vs. Cincinnati, 1949).
- MSU's longest reception of the game was a 45-yard pass to senior wide receiver Tony Burks from Henig.
- With his 86 yards recorded on kickoff returns this evening, junior returner Derek Pegues moves into fifth on the MSU career list for kickoff return yardage. Pegues is also now tied with Reid for fifth on the all-time list with 61 career kickoff returns.

RUSTON, La. – Five Mississippi State turnovers, coupled with a strong second-half defensive effort from Louisiana Tech, ultimately led to a 22-14 victory for the homestanding Bulldogs over the visiting Bulldogs Saturday night at Joe Aillet Stadium in the 2008 season opener for both teams.

It was Tech's second straight win over MSU, paired with a 1996 triumph in Starkville, and the first-ever meeting in Ruston. MSU still leads the series 7-3.

Star running back Anthony Dixon led State with 91 yards on 18 carries. Aubrey Bell hauled in six passes for 67 yards for the Bulldogs. Wesley Carroll and Tyson Lee platooned under center. Carroll was 12-of-25 for 172 yards and a touchdown, but was also picked off three times on the night. Lee was efficient in his backup role, completing 10-of-15 aerials for 85 yards. Jamar Chaney led MSU defensively with 12 tackles. Keith Fitzhugh picked off two passes for State as well.

State led 14-9 at halftime, but LTU shut out MSU in the second half of play, aided by three third-quarter miscues. On returning the opening kickoff of the third period, State's Wade Bonner fumbled while trying to elude a tackler, giving LTU excellent field position at the MSU 30. But after the first two plays of the drive netted just one yard, Tech's Taylor Bennett was intercepted by Fitzhugh, the second pickoff of the evening for the Bulldog defensive back.

After the teams traded stalled drives, another Mississippi State miscue would setup a go-ahead touchdown for the homestanding Bulldogs. LTU punter Chris Keagle's punt sailed over the shoulder of MSU's Jamayel Smith, who fumbled while trying to haul in the kick. The fumble was ultimately recovered by Tech at the State 9. Four plays later, Louisiana Tech was in the end zone. The short drive was capped by a six-yard run from Patrick Jackson and LTU led 16-14 with 6:30 to go in the third quarter.

Tech used yet another MSU turnover to add to its lead just before the end of the third. With State driving deep in Tech territory, Carroll was picked off for the third time on the night, as Deon Young returned the ball to the 50. A State personal foul added 15 more yards to the end of the runback, giving LTU another short field to work with. The home team was able to manufacture one first down and gain 24 yards to set up a Chad Oestriecher 28-yard field goal.

In the fourth, Tech continued its strong defensive effort, holding MSU without a first down in the quarter. Midway through the period, Oestriecher connected on a 50-yard field goal to hand the homestanding Bulldogs a 22-14 lead with 6:48 to go in the contest.

After mustering just a yard on three downs on the ensuing drive, State caught a big break when the resulting punt careened off the back of Tech's unsuspecting Steven Howze. MSU recovered at the LTU 47-yard line, but could not capitalize.

MSU recovered at the LTU 47-yard line, but could not capitalize.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – Behind a stout defensive effort and solid offensive performance, Mississippi State kicked off its 2008 home opener against Southeastern Louisiana in commanding fashion on Saturday night at Scott Field, 34-10.

The Bulldogs (1-1), who host Auburn next, totaled 401 yards and limited the Lions to just eight first downs and 148 yards of offense.

SLU attacked first with a 46-yard field goal by Jeff Turner in the opening frame, but MSU answered quickly with a 50-yard reception by Marcus Green to set up Anthony Dixon's 14-yard touchdown, giving the Bulldogs a 7-3 advantage, one it never relinquished.

The second quarter began with a drive by MSU, resulting in a 33-yard field goal by Adam Carlson. Two drives later, the Bulldogs marched down the field once again for another 41-yard field goal from Carlson, making the score 13-3. With 10 seconds left in the first half, Wesley Carroll connected with tight end Austin Wilbanks on a 1-yard pass, stretching MSU's lead to 20-3.

Early in the third frame, MSU showed no mercy as Dixon rushed for another touchdown. SLU tried to fight back, coming up short with a fumble recovered by MSU's Cortez McCraney. The recovery put the Bulldogs at the SLU 27-yard line. Déjà vu occurred as Dixon rushed eight yards for yet another MSU touchdown, which placed him second on the school's all-time list behind Michael Davis with 25.

The Lions (1-1) finally found the end zone at the 4:54 mark of the fourth quarter when Jay Lucas rushed for a 1-yard scoring plunge for the game's final points.

SLU finished with just 33 yards on the ground, while MSU amassed 216. The junior Dixon led all rushers with 80 yards on 18 carries, while Christian Ducre totaled 67 yards on 10 carries.

The Bulldogs, who bounced back nicely following their 22-14 setback at Louisiana Tech last week, also threw for 185 yards, as three different quarterbacks saw action. Carroll, who started the game, was 15 of 23 for 158 yards and two touchdowns. Tyson Lee came off the bench and completed all three of his attempts for 27 yards.

GAME NOTES

- Tonight's captains were seniors Jessie Bowman, Christian Ducre and Anthony Strauder
- State fell to 7-3 all-time against Louisiana Tech.
- Sean Ferguson became the first true freshman to start for the Bulldogs since Quinton Culberson did so in 2003.
- Senior punter Blake McAdams became the all-time leader in MSU history with 221 career punts.
- Junior running back Anthony Dixon climbed to 13th all-time in MSU history in rushing yardage with 1825 career yards.

A No. 9 Auburn 3
M Mississippi State 2

September 3, 2008

Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – With 7:28 left in the opening half, Wes Byrum connected on a 35-yard field goal to give Auburn a 3-0 advantage. As it turned out, that's all the points the No. 9 Tigers needed as they relied heavily on their defense the remainder of the game to hold off a stingy Mississippi State squad in front of 52,911 fans at Scott Field, the school's fifth-largest crowd.

For the Bulldogs, who fell to 1-2 overall and 0-1 in Southeastern Conference play, their only points were the result of a safety that came on a holding call charged to Auburn center Ryan Pugh in the end zone with 7:06 left in the game.

The play was set up when MSU senior punter Blake McAdams pinned the Tigers at their own 3-yard line following a 52-yard punt.

However, the Bulldogs failed to capitalize on their ensuing possession when they didn't convert on fourth-and-inches at the Auburn 41 in a drive that started at the 50.

MSU also missed out on a golden opportunity early in the third quarter when Adam Carlson missed a 38-yard field goal.

But it wasn't just Carlson that misfired on this muggy night, where the 1998 Western Division championship team was honored at the half. Byrum had two misses himself, from 42 and 22 yards, respectively.

The Tigers, who avenged last year's 19-14 setback on the Plains, also had three fumbles, while the Bulldogs' lone turnover was the result of an interception thrown by sophomore quarterback Wesley Carroll, who was 10-of-25 passing for 78 yards.

State, which travels to Georgia Tech next week, managed just 116 yards of total offense. And it certainly didn't help that starting running back Anthony Dixon was severely slowed with a pulled groin he aggravated early in the first quarter. He managed just five yards on seven carries, while Christian Ducre paced the Bulldogs with 49 yards on 16 touches.

Auburn (3-0, 1-0), which plays host to No. 7 LSU next week, amassed 315 yards, with 161 coming on the ground. Ben Tate did a bulk of the damage with 92 yards, 39 coming on one play in the waning seconds. Brad Lester accumulated 51 before being carted off the field early in the third with a neck injury.

The success Mississippi State enjoyed defensively can be attributed to Dominic Douglas and Jessie Bowman, who accounted for eight stops each.

Bowman's total was a career high, and he was also credited with 3.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

As for the score, the five combined points were the fewest ever in this series, which dates back to 1905. It was also the first time MSU has been involved in a game with the final outcome of 3-2.

It was the fewest points the Bulldogs have yielded since defeating Jacksonville State 35-3 on Oct. 14, 2006.

GAME NOTES

- Today's captains were Derek Pegues, Zach Smith and Aubrey Bell.
- In the fourth quarter, MSU recorded its first safety since 2004 versus Kentucky.
- Mississippi State had never previously been involved in a 3-2 game.
- Tonight's contest marked the lowest point total in a Mississippi State-Auburn game.
- With Derek Pegues' two kickoff returns for 61 yards, he becomes Mississippi State's all time leader in kickoff return yardage. Pegues also moved into fifth place all time in SEC history.

GT Georgia Tech 38

September 20, 2008

Bobby Dodd Stadium-Grant Field • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, Ga. - A potent Georgia Tech rushing attack, coupled with a solid defensive effort and Mississippi State miscues, led the Yellow Jackets to a 38-7 victory over the visiting Bulldogs Saturday afternoon at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Tech (3-1) rushed 54 times for 438 yards on the afternoon, including four touchdowns, and tallied exactly 500 yards in total. The effective ground game was led Jonathan Dwyer, who amassed 141 yards and a score on nine carries and also hauled in one pass for 20 yards. Three other Yellow Jackets - Jaybo Shaw, Greg Smith and Embry Peeples - rushed for over 50 yards and a touchdown each.

State (1-3) manufactured 407 yards of total offense of its own on the afternoon, but could never capitalize when it penetrated into GT territory other than a single score late in the contest. Highlighting MSU's offensive day was receiver Brandon McRae, who hauled in 10 aerials for 102 yards. Star running back Anthony Dixon tallied 94 yards on 13 rushes.

Tech opened the game with an impressive 11-play, 79-yard scoring drive, with all 11 plays being rushes. The touchdown came on a 7-yard run by the running back Peeples.

State would help assist Tech's second score of the afternoon, as a bad snap on the ensuing drive resulted in a fumble recovery for the Jackets at the MSU 40. On a second-and-long play from the 20-yard line, Shaw released the ball as he was being hit and found Demaryius Thomas in the end zone for a great catch as he was being shaded by State's defender. Tech led 14-0 with 6:06 to go in the first period.

State's next drive stalled as Adam Carlson's 18-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Michael Johnson.

The teams went scoreless until midway through the second period when the Yellow Jackets would take a 21-0 lead with 7:55 before halftime. Facing a fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 25-yard line, Tech elected to go for it as Shaw exercised the quarterback option off the left side, split the defenders and darted to the end zone.

After State's second-half opening drive stalled inside Tech territory, it would not take the Jackets long to put more points on the board. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Shaw pitched to Dwyer who went 88 yards for a score, giving GT a 28-0 lead.

The Yellow Jackets added to their lead on their next drive, driving 53 yards on six plays to set up a 28-yard field goal from Scott Blair with 7:05 left in the third period.

Georgia Tech's running attack struck again early in the fourth period. An eight-play, 87-yard drive - all rushes once again - was capped when Smith escaped down the left sideline for 45 yards. Blair's extra point put Tech up 38-0.

State lone score of the contest came with 8:09 to go. Robert Elliott capped a 38-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown run.

GAME NOTES

- Today's captains were Keith Fitzhugh, K.J. Wright and J.C. Brignone.
- Mississippi State lost its 19th consecutive game in which they gave up 25 points or more.
- Anthony Dixon's 71-yard run was the longest of his career.
- Brandon McRae caught a career best 10 passes for 102 yards.
- True freshman Bo Walters recorded the first sack of his career.
- With 94 yards on the afternoon, Anthony Dixon surpassed the 2000 yard mark for his career. Dixon now has 2004 career rushing yards making him the 10th Bulldog to pass the 2,000 yard mark.

* Quarterback hurries are not an officially recognized N.C.A.A. statistic, therefore not all pressboxes across the country - or throughout the SEC - keep them accurately. For more information about a specific player's hurry total as determined by the coaches' film, please refer to that player's updated bio near the end of this notes package.
