Trent Johnson

Head Coach • 3rd year at LSU (12th year as head coach)

Trent Johnson believes the LSU basketball program is moving forward.

With an outstanding recruiting class of student-athletes that fit the LSU program, Johnson is anxious to see this group "be a team" in 2010-11.

As Johnson, the 20th head men's basketball coach at LSU enters his third season, he seeks to build on more than a decade of excellence at LSU, Stanford and Nevada. Having earned Conference Coach of the Year in all three leagues (WAC, Pac-10 and SEC), Johnson and his staff continue toward maintaining LSU basketball as one of the premier programs in the country.

In his first season at LSU, Johnson led the Tigers to 27 wins, tied for the third most wins in a season in LSU history, and won the SEC regular season championships with a record of 13-3. LSU returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006, advancing to the second round before falling, 84-70, to North Carolina. In the opening round, LSU defeated nationally-ranked Butler.

Coach Johnson, who eats, sleeps and drinks college basketball year round, believes in both development on the court and also personal, social and academic development. As players grasp his vision for success, they have the opportunity to embrace playing in a face-paced system, executing in the half court and defending and rebounding at a high level.

Johnson has a record of success that continues here at LSU. His team will have to blend together and learn from a coach that is a fierce competitor who exudes and demands toughness.

His devotion to the team, his protective beliefs toward his players and his loyalty to his former players is evidenced by the fact that three of his former players are now members of the LSU basketball staff. Johnson is a program builder and he has re-established the base of the LSU program by visiting with former players and coaches to bring together the past, present and the future of the program.

Johnson also is charged with the development of athletes both on and off the court. Off the court, he is working hard to make sure student-athletes understand the "student" part of their days at LSU. At all three spots in his head coaching career, he has developed not just successful athletes and winning basketball teams, but young men who are having success in life.

In his head coaching career, he has taken teams in seven of the last eight seasons to post-season play, including five NCAA appearances. In addition, Johnson has seen six of his former assistant coaches become head coaches at successful programs.

Johnson has been rewarded as the consensus SEC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for four national coach of the year honors as he became the first LSU men's basketball coach to win the league title and take the team to post-season play in his first year at the school.

Under Johnson's watch, he has already coached an SEC POY in Marvyn Thomas who now plays for the NO Hornets, Garrett Temple who is in his second year in the NBA with the San Antonio Spurs and Tasmir Mitchell, who finished his career as the third all-time leading scorer and sixth all-time rebounder in school history.

Thornton, Temple and Mitchell represent Johnson's ability to teach and mold a well-rounded basketball player into having both a good offensive and defensive presence that can benefit the team and provide a chance to play at the next level.

Johnson has always been a big believer in special causes and joined former LSU basketball coach Dale Brown and star center Shaquille O'Neal in cutting series of commercials that aired nationally for the "Be A Match" organization in support of bone marrow donors.

This past June, Johnson was part of a 10-day trip to Africa as part of the TRIAD Trust program that was established to stop the transmission of HIV through culturally relevant, locally sustainable health and life skills education-based programs in communities affected by HIV/AIDS.

He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches and has served on the NABC Special Committee on Recruiting and Access.

Johnson, who was born in Berkeley, Calif., and call Seattle, Wash., his home, is married to Jackie and they have two children: a daughter, Tinishia, 27, and a son, Terry, 24.

A High School Correction

We must make note that there is a mistake in the written media guide publications on the high school of LSU's Andre Stringer ... He is actually from Forest HILL High School in Jackson, Miss., not Forest Park as appears in the guide ... He is one of two players from Jackson as Jalen Courtney came to LSU from Provine High.

Transactions

Center Andrew Del Piero was redshirted prior to the beginning of the season ... Dennis Harris sprained his left ankle the week of the season opener ... Missed the first seven games, but played six minutes in first appearance against Central Michigan (12/11).

The Numbers Game

Here are some of the important numbers with the LSU basketball program:

103 - This is the 103rd season of basketball at LSU.

32-4 - LSU record in Trent Johnson era when scoring at least 70 points.

3-19 -- Central Michigan win was team's third when scoring less than 60 in the Trent Johnson era (59-55)

5 -- No of wins in the Trent Johnson era when LSU trailed both at the 10 and 5 minute marks (last Central Michigan, 12/11)

1 -- One loss in Trent Johnson era when LSU scores at least 80 points (Aub, 1/20)

11 -- Number of career double doubles by Storm Warren (two this season)

1999 -- Last time a freshman scored at least 21 points in a season opener for LSU (Ralston Turner and Andre Stringer -- 2010-11; Ronald Dupree vs. Grambling in opening game of 1999-00 season.)

10-0 -- Record when LSU shoots 50 percent or better in the Trent Johnson era (3-0 this year)

7 -- Number of times LSU has won when outrebounded in Trent Johnson era (7-18 record)

35-11 -- Record when LSU out rebounds opponent, but two losses this year (Nicholls, Memphis).

40-5 -- Record when LSU out shoot opponents.

1403 -- Number of LSU wins in program history (1,400 came 11/24 vs. Centenary)

6 -- Number of SEC titles LSU has won since 1980 (second most in SEC)

3 - Number of SEC Championships won or shared since 2000 (2000, 2006, 2009)

10 -- Number of SEC championships LSU has won, second most in league.

Last Game - LSU 59, Central Michigan 55 (Dec. 11 -- Baton Rouge, La.)

LSU had to overcome an 11-point second-half deficit to rally to defeat Central Michigan Saturday night in the Maravich Center to win its fourth straight game ... After getting a five-point lead, 23-18, late in the half, LSU got its halftime lead slashed to two, 23-21, at the half when CMU hit a trey right before the halftime buzzer ... But that trey was the start of what would be an 18-2 run that ended up with CMU moving to an 11-point, 36-25, led with 13:55 to play in the game ... It would take LSU all the way down to the 2:03 mark and a Storm Warren layup to tie the game at 51-51 ... That would be LSU's last field goal of the game ... The teams traded points and the game was tied for the sixth and final time at 53-53 with 1:05 to play ... CMU would turn the ball over twice, while LSU's Andre Stringer made four free throws to make it 57-53 with 11 seconds left ... CMU got a field goal with four seconds to play and Chris Bass made two more free throws to ice it.

Malcolm White was the only LSU player in double figures with 12 points, although two players (Ralston Turner and Aaron Dotson) had nine and Warren and Stringer had eight each ... LSU helped itself by shooting 62.5 percent in the second half (10-16) and finished at 47.6 percent (20-42) for the game.

Numbers From the Game

LSU has now won four straight games for the first time since a December run of five straight wins a year ago ... LSU's winning 59 points marked just the third time in 22 games in the Trent Johnson era that LSU has scored less than 60 and won ... It also marked just the fifth time in the Johnson era that LSU has been able to win when trailing with 10 and 5 minutes to play ... LSU was 4-of-10 at the free throw line after Eddie Ludwig missed a free throw at the 7:25 mark ... But from that point, Aaron Dotson (4-4), Andre Stringer (6-6) and Chris Bass (1-1) were perfect at the line as LSU finished the game 16-of-22 of 72.7 percent.

After averaging just 12 turnovers a game against Memphis (11/21), Centenary (11/24) and South Alabama (11/28), the Tigers have turned the ball over 17 times against both Houston (11/28) and Central Michigan (12/11) ... In the four wins, LSU has 57 assists to 100 baskets ... The Tigers have now out rebounded the last seven opponents this season, 46 total in the Trent Johnson era (35-11 record).

Busy 12 Days Continues Tonight

The game with Central Michigan began a busy 12-day stretch in which LSU plays five games leading into a three-day Christmas break ... After Monday's game and then McNeese on Thursday (Dec.16) the Tigers go to Bossier City on Dec. 18 to meet Wichita State in a "neutral court" home game for LSU ... The sequence of games concludes on Dec. 22 when LSU hosts North Texas ... After that the team will have three days off for Christmas before practicing on Dec. 26 before a Dec. 27 home game with cross-town rival Southern.

That game, with an early start time of 6 p.m., begins a three-game in seven day stretch that will conclude non-conference play prior to the start of league play on Jan. 8 at Auburn.

CST Adds Another Non-Conference Telecast

Cox Sports Television, the regional sports home of the New Orleans Hornets and LSU Athletics, has announced that it will pick up the broadcast of LSU's game this coming Saturday against Wichita State from the CenturyTel Center in Bossier City, La. The game is being televised by Cox Kansas throughout the state and CST will use their feed to broadcast the game in its two million viewing area along the Gulf South.

LSU will now have the next four Tiger games starting with the LSU-McNeese game on Thursday and then the North Texas (12/22) and Southern game (12/27).

About Coastal Carolina, The Series

Coastal Carolina comes in to the PMAC with a 7-2 record and a 1-0 mark in the Big South Conference ... The team has won five straight since an 81-60 loss to Georgetown in the first round of the Charleston Classic ... The Chanticleers opened conference play in its last game on Dec. 4, beating Charleston Southern, 73-71 ... Coastal Carolina is 5-0 at home, 0-1 away (losing at College of Charleston, 83-67) and 2-1 on neutral courts ... In the last game against Charleston Southern, a dunk by Chad Gray with one second left on the clock was the difference after Charleston Southern tied the game with seven seconds to play.

Gray finished with 18 points and is averaging 22.5 points over his last two games. Desmond Holloway tallied his second straight double-double with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Danny Nieman added 13 points. Coastal Carolina shot 46.2 percent from both the field (24-52) and three-point range (6-13) and has shot at least 41.0 percent from the field in all nine games this year.

The Chanticleers were 28-7 in 2010, 9-4 on road, losing in the NIT first round to UAB.

The head coach is very familiar to SEC followers as Cliff Ellis, who spent 10 years at Auburn, is in his fourth year at Coastal. He enters the game with 593 Division I head coaching wins, seven shy of 600. He is presently 10th on the list of all-time winningest active coaches ... Ellis was 10-10 against LSU in his tenure at Auburn ... Coastal is 1-9 against SEC teams, while LSU enters the game 2-1 against Big South schools.

This is the first of a home-and-home series between the two teams.

Season 40 At The PMAC

It was the 1971-72 season that the first game was played in the then LSU Assembly Center, although the Tigers had to open on the road for the first five games before returning home to open the building on Jan. 3, 1972 against Vanderbilt, an 80-73 loss. The Tigers got their first win in the building on Jan. 6, 1972 against Georgetown, 90-71.

Last year, LSU was 11-7 in the Maravich Center, 9-1 in non-conference games ... LSU is 5-1 this season and 458-155 (74.6) all-time in the building and 245-34 in non-conference games (.878) ... Trent Johnson is 26-3 in home non-conference games.

Success At Home

The PMAC has proved to be a difficult place to play as since the start of the 2002-03 season, LSU has won 113 games, an average of 13.6 wins per year. LSU's win total is second only to Florida in the same time period (through play on Sunday):

Florida 126
LSU 113
 Vanderbilt 106
 Kentucky 104
 Tennessee 103
 Alabama 98
 Arkansas 96
 Mississippi State 92
 South Carolina 90
 Auburn 87
 Ole Miss 86
 Georgia 80

On The Road

The win by the Tigers at South Alabama on Nov. 28 marked the first win on an opponent's home court since the Tigers beat Kentucky on Feb. 28, 2009 ... Between home and neutral courts a year ago, LSU was 0-13, compared to the championship year of 2009 when LSU was 8-6, including 6-3 in SEC play ... LSU's last "neutral" court win was its first round NCAA win over Butler in March 2009 ... In program history, LSU is 401-569 on opponent's home courts ... Trent Johnson is 7-12 in true road games and 9-20 in all games away from the Maravich Center.

LSU Second In SEC Titles Over Last 30 Years

LSU has won 10 Southeastern Conference titles in its first 102 seasons and six of those have come since the 1980-81 seasons, which is second only to the 12 that Kentucky has won during that time period. Florida is third with four. Tennessee (3), Mississippi State (2), Alabama (2) and Arkansas (2) are the only ones with multiple conference regular season titles in that time period.

Good Nights Shooting

Three times this season, LSU has been able to shoot at least 50 percent from the field ... The first came in the opening game of the season (Nov. 12) against Northwestern State when LSU shot 60 percent (24-of-40) ... It was a consistent performance as LSU was 13-of-22 in the first half (59.1 percent) and 11-of-18 (61.1 percent) in the second half ... It marked the first time LSU shot 60 percent from the field since shooting 63.6 percent against Grambling State on Dec. 13, 2008 ... LSU's 32 free throw makes in the game were the seventh most free throw makes in LSU history.

At South Alabama (11/28), LSU was 16-of-24 in the first half to propel a 25-of-47 shooting game (53.2 percent) ... LSU was 12-of-17 from the three-point arc and shot 70.6 percent, the best percentage LSU shot since 2006 ... LSU was 10-of-13 in the first half and 2-of-4 in the second 20 minutes.

LSU made it two straight games at 50 percent or better against Houston (11/30), making 17-of-30 in the first half enroute to a 26-of-52 night (50.0%).

The Tigers are now 3-0 this year when shooting 50 percent or better and 10-0 overall in the Trent Johnson era.

For the season, the Tigers are shooting 46.4 percent (185-399), compared to 36.8 percent for opponents ... Opponents have taken 39 more shots, but LSU has made 24 more field goals.

LSU is fourth in the SEC in field goal percentage and LSU and Tennessee are both at the top of the league in field goal percentage defense at 36.8 percent.

The Arc

LSU was not in a three-point shooting position Saturday night, but thanks to Ralston Turner's three treys, the Tigers were 3-of-7 for the game and now 51-of-125 for the season or 40.8 percent and that is the best in the league this year, ahead of the 40.3 percent by Kentucky.

LSU has made an average of 6.4 treys a contest, an improvement from last season when LSU made 141 threes (an average of 4.5 a game) ... LSU made just 28.7 percent a year ago from the arc ... Last year, Aaron Dotson as a freshman made seven treys ... Through eight games, he has 10; in fact, he is 10-of-15 for the season ... Andre Stringer has made 17, Turner 16 ... Dotson's three-point shooting percentage is second in the league.

The South Alabama game, with LSU making 70.6 percent, marked the first time LSU had hit 70 percent in a game since Jan. 7, 1989 when LSU was 7-of-9 from the three-point line against Auburn (77.8 percent).

The Free Throws Helped Win Saturday

LSU was 4-of-10 from the free throw line, trailing Central Michigan and struggling in a half-court game ... But LSU began to get to the line in the later stages and the free throws started dropping, finishing 16-of-22 (72.7%) ... LSU is averaging 26.7 free throw attempts through the first eight and LSU has made 149 or 70.0 percent (fifth in the league). LSU is averaging 18.6 makes a game.

Eddie Ludwig leads the team at 87.5 percent (21-of-24), with Stringer, thanks to making 17-of-18 in the last two games, is now at 82.8 percent. Aaron Dotson has made 25-of-33 or 75.8 percent. Ludwig is fifth in the league in free throw percentage, Stringer eighth.

1,400 And Counting

When LSU defeated Centenary on Nov. 24, the Tigers won their 1,400th game in the history of the basketball program that began in January 1909 ... LSU was at that time the 47th program in the modern basketball Division I to have won at least 1,400 games in its history.

Player Efficiency Quota

Like the quarterback ratings in the NFL, the NBA uses an efficiency scale to determine its top players ... It's the plus or minus number coaches look at when determining the success of a player's game night ... The quotient is based on a plus-minus + total of: (Points + Rebounds + Assists + Steals + Blocks) minus ((Field Goal Attempts - Field Goals Made) + (Free Throw Attempts - Free Throws Made) + Turnovers) ... Here is what the crack research staff at LSU came up with when applying the formula to some of the LSU players and their efficiency quota average coming into last Saturday's game with Central Michigan:

Andre Stringer -- +13.28

Storm Warren - +12.86

Aaron Dotson -- +9.86

Malcolm White -- +9.42

Ralston Turner -- +9.00

Eddie Ludwig -- +8.14

Garrett Green -- +5.28

Chris Bass -- +4.57

Matt Derenbecker -- +4.29

The figure also comes into played in individual game totals for example against Houston (11/30), Storm Warren was a +24, but Aaron Dotson had the best single game total of the young season with a +25 against Memphis (11/21) ... In the game where Andre Stringer was MVP of the Coors Classic at South Alabama, he recorded a +22 (11/28).

Healthy Aaron Dotson

Hard work and patience has paid off for the Seattle sophomore as he has been able to play with confidence and full speed this season ... A knee injury at Rainier Beach HS that caused him to miss most of his senior season after signing with LSU and it shook his confidence as a college freshman ... Fans are now seeing what coaches saw in practices and scrimmages from day one this year how far he has come ... Against Northwestern State (11/12), Dotson hit 5-of-5 field goals (one of only two players in the SEC to be perfect from the field on opening night) and scored 17 points in 27 minutes of play ... Against UT-Martin, Dotson hit 4-of-8 field goal attempts and 5-of-6 at the line to get 13 points and six rebounds in 19 minutes ... Against Memphis (11/21), Dotson scored 12 points and had one of the rare four-point plays with a long three-pointer and a free throw ... He has been in double figures in four of the games this season and hit 26-of-46 overall from the field and 10-of-15 from the arc, averaging 10.9 points a game ... His field goal percentage of 56.5, is ranked fourth in the league.

Bass Turning Assist Numbers

The junior, whose brother Brandon, was 2005 SEC Player of the Year and plays now for the NBA Orlando Magic, last year was one of the tops in the SEC in assist-to-turnover ratio with 97 assists and just 38 turnovers ... After struggling in the first two games, Bass is turning the numbers back in his favor with 20 assists and 12 turnovers ... In his career, Bass has 160 assists and 64 turnovers.

Andre Stringer

The freshman from Jackson had a unique streak of being the Tigers top scorer in each of the first six games and double figures for the first seven ... He leads the team in scoring at 15.1 points per game (10h in the league), having made 17 three-pointers, including three games with four each ... Stringer is also good at getting to the line, averaging 7.2 free throw attempts a game ... He is averaging 26.6 minutes a game, 2.1 rebounds and 2.6 assists a contest ... And, if that isn't enough, on Nov. 28 at South Alabama, the 5-9 point guard was credited with his first block of his college career.

The Other Freshmen Contributing

The Tigers had all four freshmen on the floor in the opener with Northwestern State, one as a starter in Ralston Turner, while Andre Stringer, Jalen Courtney and Matt Derenbecker came off the bench ... Turner played 38 minutes, scoring 21 points with five rebounds, two assists and two steals ... Turner was one of three players on opening night in the league to play 38 minutes ... Stringer came off the bench to play 25 minutes at point guard, also scoring 21 points ... Both Turner and Stringer hit half their field goal attempts (Turner 6-of-12, Stringer 5-of-10) ... The two of them combined to make all of LSU's seven three-pointers.

Courtney scored two points in three minutes, while Derenbecker played six minutes. Derenbecker had his big game in the Nicholls State contest (11/16) with 14 points and six boards.

In game three, the UL freshman started as Stringer moved into the starting lineup.

Freshman players on the LSU team have accounted for 47.7 percent of LSU's scoring and they have had 13 of LSU's 23 double figure scoring games this season (Stringer 7, Turner 5, Derenbecker 1).

Storm Warren

The veteran member of this team without a senior as far as starts and playing time, Warren has started 38 consecutive games dating back to last year and broke out of mini-scoring drought getting nine points against South Alabama on Nov. 28 ... He then had his second double double at home against Houston (11/30) with 12 points and 11 rebounds ... In the last three games, Warren is 13-of-24 from the field and 3-of-4 from the line ... He now has 11 career double doubles, two this season ... The other came against UT-Martin (11/18) when he also had 12 points and 11 rebounds ... He had one of his double doubles as a freshman, eight last season and now two as a junior ... He was two off his career high in boards when he pulled down 14 against Nicholls State (11/16) ... He is averaging a team best 7.0 rebounds a game this season.

Malcolm White

White became the 38th player in LSU history to grab at least 15 rebounds in a game, hitting that number against UTM (11/18) in recording his first collegiate double double ... White, who played at Ole Miss for two seasons, before transferring and sitting out last year under NCAA transfer rules, had 12 points, 15 rebounds and three blocks in 31 minutes ... White had his fourth double figure scoring game of the season against Central Michigan, leading the team with 12 points (12/11).

Dennis Harris

Harris, who has been and continues to battle a sprained left ankle, got on the floor against Central Michigan (12/11) to start his sophomore season, playing six minutes and hitting his first field goal attempt of the season ... Last year, Harris played in 29 games, starting nine, and averaged 4.6 points and 3.1 rebounds.

Six Former Tigers Playing In NBA This Season

When the NBA season got underway, there were seven former LSU players on rosters. That number is now six as the San Antonio Spurs recently waived Garrett Temple. Here are the six players and the teams they play on;

Brandon Bass, Orlando Magic – 2nd season with Orlando, sixth in NBA

Glen Davis, Boston Celtics – 4th season with Boston

Shaquille O’Neal, Boston Celtics – 1st season with Boston, 19th in the NBA

Anthony Randolph, New York Knicks – 1st season with Knicks, 3rd in the NBA

Tyrus Thomas, Charlotte Bobcats – 1st full season with Charlotte, fifth in NBA

Marcus Thornton, New Orleans Hornets – 2nd season with Hornets

The NBA D-League play is underway and former LSU point guard Randy Livingston is beginning his first season as the head coach of the Idaho Stampede. Rookie Tasmin Mitchell is playing for the Erie Bayhawks, while Darnell Lazare is on the roster of the Maine Red Claws. Lazare was a member of the 2006 Final Four team. Chris Johnson is on the roster for the Dakota Wizard.

LSU Adds Two Important Signees During Early Signing Period

Coach Trent Johnson announced on Wednesday that the LSU athletics department had received and approved two National Letters of Intent from players for the 2011-12 men’s basketball season.

The players are John Isaac, a 6-4, 215-pound guard from New Llano, La., who attends Pickering High School; and, Johnny O’Bryant, a 6-9, 245-pound power forward from Cleveland, Miss., and East HS.

“It is a good day for Tiger basketball,” said Coach Johnson. “Obviously, these are two quality young men who happen to be very, very good basketball players. They fit into the direction in which our program is headed, and that means playing elite level college basketball.”

Isaac missed all of last season with a torn left ACL, but as a sophomore he averaged a double double with 18.5 points and 11.5 rebounds. He shot 59 percent from the field and averaged 8.6 assists and 1.8 steals. He was First-Team All-District that year in his fourth season of varsity competition for Pickering. He has been a starter on the Pickering varsity since the seventh grade.

O’Bryant is the nation’s No. 6 ranked power forward by ESPN (21st overall in the country) and the No. 8 power forward and nation’s 38th player overall according to Rivals.com.

He averaged 15 points and 7.2 rebounds last season as a junior as East reached the Class 3A semifinals. Two years ago, O’Bryant was a member of the USA Basketball U16 team that captured gold in Mendoza, Argentina at the FIBA Americas Championship and followed that up with another gold medal in Hamburg, Germany with the U17 national team.

The 2011 Charleston Classic, a bracket-format tournament, will feature 12 games over the three days. Each team will compete in one game per day, advancing through a bracket-tournament format. The two teams that remain undefeated throughout will face off in a championship match Sunday, Nov. 20, 2011.

Next Up – Dec. 16 McNeese State at 7 p.m.

The Tigers have a couple of days to practice and regroup before facing the McNeese State Cowboys on Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Maravich Center. The game will be regionally televised on CST and broadcast on the LSU Sports Radio Network ... Tickets are available at LSUtix.net.
