SEC FOOTBALL ... SECond To None

During the last six years (2006-11), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and, perhaps, in the college football history. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in BCS bowl games, including the BCS National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL

SEC IN THE BCS

• The SEC has won five consecutive national championships, seven BCS National Championships and 21 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). The SEC is guaranteed its sixth straight national title with Alabama and LSU playing in this year's BCS National Championship Game.

• Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.

• Since 2006, more than half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (7 of 12). The Big Ten and the Big 12 have two each and the Pac-10 has one.

• No other conference has won a BCS National Championship Game since Texas defeated Southern California, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season. The SEC has won the last five.

• An SEC team has led at the end of 16 of the last 20 quarters of BCS National Championship Game play.

• Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 26 of the 48 weeks, with four different teams holding the top spot. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for six weeks, Auburn for three and LSU for 10 weeks, including all eight polls of this season. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 13 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for five weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri once) and the Pac-10 four weeks (all Oregon).

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 11 of its 12 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 238 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (45), Alabama (35), Florida (33), Auburn (29), Georgia (23), Arkansas (23), South Carolina (21), Tennessee (14), Mississippi State (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 8-2 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.800) than any other conference. The win total doubles the next highest conference – Pac-10 (4). Here are the BCS bowl records of all conferences since 2006:

SEC	8-2	.800
Pac-10	4-2	.667
Mountain West	2-1	.667

Big 12	3-5	.375
Big Ten	3-6	.333
ACC	1-4	.200
Independents	0-1	.000

• The average scoring margin in the SEC's 10 BCS games has been 13.60 points per game (includes 2 losses by 19 points). Seven of the eight wins by the SEC since 2006 have been by double figures.

SEC IN OVERALL BOWL GAMES

• Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (30) and appearances (46) than any other conference. The conference's .652 bowl winning percentage is third behind the Mountain West (18-6, .750) and the Big East (20-8, .714) during that time.

The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last five completed seasons (2006-2010). HUGH FREEZE NEW HEAD COACH AT OLE MISS

Hugh Freeze was named head coach at Ole Miss on Dec. 5, 2011. Freeze comes to Oxford from Arkansas State University, where he directed the Red Wolves to a 10-2 record and a Sun Belt Conference title in 2011. He served as the ASU offensive coordinator in 2010.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

While maintaining his duties as recruiting coordinator, he moved to wide receivers coach in 2007 and tutored current NFL star Mike Wallace to a top-10 SEC finish in receiving yards.

Before going to Ole Miss, Freeze served 13 years at Briarcrest Christian School in Memphis, Tenn., as a classroom teacher, coach and administrator. He was the Saints' head football coach from 1995 to 2004, running the no huddle "spread system" for six years that led to six straight state championship games.

SEC MISC. NOTES

FIRST-YEAR COACHES IN THE SEC

This year, Florida's Will Muschamp and Vanderbilt's James Franklin are in their first seasons as head coaches in the Southeastern Conference. This season, both coaches finished 6-6 overall.

Since 1977, there have been 62 first-year coaches in the SEC. Of those, 30 of those have finished their inaugural season with a sub-.500 mark. The cumulative record for the 62 (including Muschamp and Franklin) coaches is 363-377-7 (.491).

There have been some exceptions to the rule since 1997. Auburn's Terry Bowden was 11-0 in 1993, LSU's Mike Archer was 10-1-1 in 1987, Tennessee's Phillip Fulmer was 10-2 in 1993 and LSU's Les Miles was 11-2 in 2005.

The average record of the 62 coaches in their inaugural seasons - 5.85 wins against 6.08 losses.

However, quite a few of the previous 60 went on to have stellar sophomore seasons in the SEC. Auburn's Gene Chizik and Florida's Urban Meyer won BCS National Championships in their second seasons. Alabama's Nick Saban went from 7-6 in 2007 to 12-2 and a Sugar Bowl game in 2008 and Georgia's Jim Donnan went from 5-6 in 1996 to 10-2 and an Outback Bowl berth in 1997. Mississippi State's Dan Mullen went from 5-7 in 2009 to 9-4 and a Gator Bowl game in 2010 and South Carolina's Lou Holtz went from 0-11 in 1999 to 8-4 and the Outback Bowl in 2000.

SEC FOOTBALL VIDEO REPLAY

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating calls to be immediately reviewed during all games hosted by SEC teams.

THE COACHES' CHALLENGE

The head coach may challenge the ruling of any reviewable play. He retains a challenge if his initial challenge is successful and thus results in a reversal by the replay official. The head coach will then have a single challenge that he may use anytime during the game if his team has not used all its timeouts. Thus a team may have a total of two challenges in the game, but only if the first results in a reversal of the on-field ruling.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video comes direct from either the television network broadcasting the game or other TV production facilities that meet established conference standards. The Southeastern Conference has used instant replay since 2005.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:
 - a. Scoring Plays, including the ball in possession of a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
 - b. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds
 - c. Recovery of loose ball in and out of bounds
2. Passing Plays:
 - a. Pass ruled complete/ incomplete/ intercepted in the field of play and end zones
 - b. Touching of a forward pass by a player or an official
 - c. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off beyond the line of scrimmage
 - d. Illegal forward pass or illegal handing off after change of possession
 - e. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage
 - f. Quarterback (Passer) starts arm forward, ball comes loose and play is ruled incomplete (if ball is quickly recovered)
 - g. Quarterback (Passer) throws incomplete swing pass that is close to being forward or backward, and pass is ruled forward (if ball is quickly recovered)
3. Miscellaneous:
 - a. Runner ruled not down.
 - b. Runner ruled down (when ball carrier is judged down by rule and the ball is fumbled, play may be reviewed if recovery of ball occurs in the immediate action following fumble and is prior to any official signaling ball is dead. Also reviewable when runner is ruled out of bounds near goal line.)
 - c. Forward progress with respect to first down
 - d. Touching of a kick
 - e. Number of players on field
 - f. Clock adjustments (in conjunction with reviewed plays)
 - g. Fourth-down/try fumble plays
 - h. Field Goal Attempts (only when ball is ruled below or above the crossbar, inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights.)
 - i. The game clock expires at the end of a half. If at the end of the game, the time may be restored to the clock only if the score is tied or the team that would next snap the ball trails by eight points or fewer.

Not Reviewable

Fighting participants, Off-sides/Encroachment, Pass interference, Roughing passer/kicker, Illegal formations, Taunting/Other unsportsmanlike conduct, Face mask, Taunting, Illegal blocks, Holding, Personal fouls.

THE PROCESS

Each SEC football stadium has a secured replay booth equipped with the HD Instant Replay system provided by XOS Digital. Three individuals work in the booth for the duration of the game: 1. Replay Official, 2. Communicator, 3. Technician. The Replay Official and the Communicator are selected and assigned by the Conference Office.

A live HD video feed is sent directly to the replay booth from the TV truck. The Technician watches the feed on an input monitor while recording it into the XOS Digital Replay System. The Technician also marks the beginning of each play while the Communicator marks all incoming replays.

Each play and subsequent replay then appears on a touch screen in front of the Replay Technician. As the Technician and the Communicator mark the incoming video, each view will appear as a small picture on the computer touch screen. At any time, the Replay Technician can touch the thumbnail and immediately send that play or replay to the Replay Official.

With the Communicator's assistance, the Replay Official can quickly jump between replays while playing back the video. All replay video navigation is done via a jog shuttle remote controlled by the Replay Official. All video is viewed on an HD monitor that sits in front of the Replay Official. The touch screen is only used to select the replays and to log specific play data in the event a call is overturned.

While all plays are reviewed between the whistle and the beginning of the next play, the Replay Official can stop play on the field by using a pager system. Five onfield officials wear pagers. If play is stopped the Referee announces on the stadium PA microphone that play has been stopped so the previous play can be reviewed. The Referee then proceeds to the sideline headset, which provides direct communication to the Replay Official in the booth. Once the play has been reviewed, the Replay Official notifies the Referee, who then announces the decision on the stadium PA system.

NEW FOR 2011

* Monitors may be used to view a live telecast or webcast in the football coaching booth. The home team is responsible for assuring identical television capability in the coaches' booths of both teams. This capability may not include replay equipment or recorders.

* If at the end of a half the game clock expires, either during a down in which it should be stopped by rule when the ball becomes dead or following the down upon a request for an available team timeout, the replay official may restore time only under these conditions:

1. The replay official has indisputable video evidence that time should have remained on the game clock when the ball became dead or when the team timeout was granted;
2. The team in possession when the ball became dead would next put the ball in play from scrimmage;
3. In the fourth quarter only, either the score is tied or the team that will next snap the ball is behind by eight points or fewer; and
4. The replay official's video evidence includes the timeout signal by an official in the case where the game clock should have stopped for a requested team timeout.

THE EQUIPMENT

Each SEC member institution uses the HD Replay System developed by XOS Digital of Orlando, FL. The replay systems are maintained by the home institution with technical support from XOS Digital.

SEC BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send nine of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 2011 season.

The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls.

The Capital One Bowl has the second selection, making its pick following the BCS selections. The bowl must select the team with the next best overall record or a team that is within one win of the team with the next best overall record.

The AT&T Cotton and the Outback Bowls share the third and fourth selections from the SEC. The Cotton Bowl has the first preference of teams from the Western Division and the Outback Bowl has first preference of teams from the Eastern Division. The Cotton or Outback Bowl can select teams outside of its divisional preference, but must not select them before the opposite bowl selects from its divisional preference.

The Chick-fil-A Bowl has the fifth selection of preference from the SEC.

The TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl has the sixth selection and the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl has the seventh pick from the SEC.

The AutoZone Liberty and BBVA Compass Bowls share the eighth and ninth selections.

SEC MISSION STATEMENT

"The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference sponsors championships in 20 sports – 11 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball.

Earlier in the fall, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became members of the Southeastern Conference and will begin play in the league for the 2012-13 academic year. It was the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the league now has 14 members and

SEC captures six national titles; five more finish national runners-up

The Southeastern Conference had either the national champion or the national runners-up in ten sports in 2010-11.

SEC teams won six national championships in 2010-11. These include football (Auburn), men's indoor track and field (Florida), baseball (South Carolina), women's tennis (Florida), gymnastics (Alabama) and rifle (Kentucky). The SEC also had national runners-up finishes in baseball (Florida), men's golf (Georgia), softball (Florida), women's swimming and diving (Georgia) and bowling (Vanderbilt).

In all, the SEC had at least one team finish in the top five in 15 of its 20 sponsored sports. The SEC does not sponsor championships in rifle or bowling.

In its 78 year history, the Southeastern Conference has won 189 team national championships, including 67 since 2000. Since 2000, the SEC has won at least one national championship in 16 of its 20 sponsored sports with the exception of women's cross country, volleyball, soccer and softball.

SEC leads all conferences in 2010-11 Men's Sports Conference vs. Conference Survey; 3rd in Women's Sports

In a statistical survey that is based on NCAA championship and rankings, the Southeastern Conference placed first in the nine men's sports it sponsors and third in the 11 women's sports the league sponsors.

The survey, compiled each year since 1986 by Bo Carter, takes into account final NCAA championship standings in each sport and poll rankings in football. Each conference gets 20 points for a team that wins a national championship, 19 for a second place finish and down to 1 point for a 20th place finish.

In the nine men's sports the SEC sponsors, the SEC had 398 points with the Pac-10 coming in second with 322.5 points, followed by the Big 12 with 304.5 points, Big Ten with 260 points, ACC with 255 points and the Mountain West with 85.5 points.

In the 11 women's sports the SEC sponsors, the Pac-10 was first with 572.5 points followed by the Big 12 with 440.5 points and the SEC with 403 points. The ACC was fourth with 276 points followed by the Big Ten at 220.5 and the Big East with 200.5 points.

Combining the 20 sponsored sports, the Pac-10 had 895 points followed by the SEC with 801 points, Big 12 with 745 points, ACC with 531 points, Big Ten with 480.5 points and the Big East with 255.5 points.

The SEC has had the highest men's point total in 18 of the last 20 seasons (exceptions: 2007-08: Big 12; 1997-98: Pac-10). The Pac-10 has had the highest women's point totals each year since 1986 with the exception of five years the SEC has had the highest total (1990-91; 1995-96; 2004-05; 2006-07; 2009-10).

SEC LEADS NATION IN CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

The Southeastern Conference had 43 Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2010-11, more than any other conference. The league had 23 student-athletes earn first-team honors, an all-time high for the SEC.

The Capital One Academic All-America Teams are voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The 43 student-athletes represent 11 of the 12 SEC schools while 10 schools had someone on the first-team. Since 2003, the SEC has had 148 student-athletes earn first-team Capital One Academic All-American status.

The SEC placed 43 on the first, second and third teams, which was four more than the Big 12, which was second, and the eight more than the Pac-10, which was third. The 23 first-teamers from the SEC were five more than the Pac-10, which was second with 18.

"Student-athletes from the SEC achieve amazing results both on and off the playing courts and fields," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "Student-athletes can realize their hopes and dreams and create a solid foundation for life in the Southeastern Conference."

The SEC had two of its student-athletes earn Capital One Academic All-American of the Year for their respective sports – Alabama's Kayla Hoffman (Gymnastics) and Alabama's Greg McElroy (Football).

The list of student-athletes from the SEC that achieved Academic All-America status is:

Ingram led the Gamecocks with 13.5 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks. He also intercepted two passes, was credited with six quarterback hurries and scored three touchdowns, including a 68-yard scamper on a fake punt in the Gamecocks' win at Georgia.

DE Jadeveon Clowney (6-6, 254, Fr., Rock Hill, S.C.)

Clowney was credited with 32 tackles on the season. He was ninth in the SEC with 6.0 sacks, the only freshman in the top 20, and was tied for 14th in the league with 10.0 tackles for loss. He also tied for third in the SEC and tied for eighth in the country with five forced fumbles.

OT Rokevious Watkins (6-4, 340, Sr., Fairburn, Ga.)

KEY PLAYERS

P/PK Brett Maher (6-0, 185, Jr., Kearney, Neb.)

Maher connected on 19-of-22 field goals, including a perfect 16-of-16 from inside 50 yards. His 19 field goals tie for the second-most in school history and Nebraska now has a streak of 31 straight games without a missed field goal from less than 50 yards. In the punting department, Maher leads the Big Ten with a 45.0-yard average per kick. He has had 24 of his punts downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line and 20 of his punts have traveled 50 or more yards.

RB Rex Burkhead (5-11, 210, Jr., Plano, Texas)

He rushed for 1,268 yards and 15 touchdowns, while being on the receiving end of another two scores. He posted seven 100-yard rushing games, including five in Big Ten Conference action, and he scored at least one touchdown in 11 of 12 games in 2011.

LB Lavonte David (6-1, 225, Sr., Miami, Fla.)

David was a finalist for the Butkus Award, a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award and a quarter-finalist for the Lott Trophy this season. In 2011, David leads Nebraska with 122 tackles, 11 TFLs, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions heading into the Capital One Bowl in Orlando on Jan. 2, against South Carolina. He ranks third in the Big Ten in tackles per game and 18th nationally.

DB Alfonzo Dennard (5-10, 205, Sr., Rochelle, Ga.)

Dennard had six pass breakups and was at his best against the league's top receivers, shutting down Iowa's Marvin McNutt, the Big Ten's Receiver of the Year, and Michigan State's B.J. Cunningham. Dennard's selection gives Nebraska five first-team all-conference defensive backs in the past three seasons.

SERIES/GAME NOTES

Record: UN leads, 3-0 Last: NU, 30-21 (1987 at Lincoln)

SERIES: The meeting will be the first between the two schools since 1987. Nebraska holds a 3-0 edge in the all-time series with the closest contest coming in the lone game played in Columbia, S.C., a 27-24 Husker win.

GAME NOTES: The matchup is not without some interesting side notes as South Carolina head coach Steve Spurrier and Nebraska Athletics Director Tom Osborne squared off in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl for that season's national championship... While South Carolina's lone appearance in Orlando came in the 1975 Tangerine Bowl, Nebraska's 1991 appearance against Georgia Tech in the City Beautiful featured the only game with national title implications to be played in the Citrus Bowl. ...South Carolina makes its first trip to the Capital One Bowl by way of a 10-2 record (6-2 SEC)... Despite the reputation of Coach Spurrier as the head of an offensive aerial attack, it's the Carolina defense that is stout against the pass, boasting the No. 2 pass defense in the country... The Gamecocks allow a mere 133.0 yards per game through the air and feature the fourth-ranked overall defense in the country, giving up just 268.9 yards per game... The Cornhuskers also have one of the nation's top defenses against the pass (18th, 189.1 ypg) while bringing with it its traditionally-strong rushing attack, averaging 223.9 yards per game (13th nationally)... Head coach Bo Pelini will now have taken Nebraska to bowl appearances in each of his four seasons as head coach, posting a 2-1 mark prior to this year's game.
