THE RECORDS

The Vandals are 0-2 after a home loss to Eastern Washington followed by a loss on the road at Bowling Green State. LSU is 2-0 after opening with home victories over North Texas and Washington.

THE COACHES

Robb Akey is in his sixth season as head coach at Idaho. After rebuilding in his first two seasons, his 2009 team won the Humanitarian Bowl and his 2010 team was on the verge of repeating as a bowl team. He is a graduate of Weber State University and coached for his alma mater (1988-94) as well as Northern Arizona University (1995-98) and Washington State University (1999-2006) before taking over at Idaho in his first head coaching job.

Les Miles is in his eighth season as head coach at LSU and is 77-18 with the Tigers. He is 105-39 in 11 seasons as a head coach. His career began at Michigan (his alma mater) where he was a graduate assistant for two seasons before moving on to Colorado (offensive line, 1982-86), back to Michigan (offensive line, 1987-1994), Oklahoma State (offensive coordinator, 1995-97), Dallas Cowboys (tight ends, 1998-2000) and then back to Oklahoma State as head coach from 2001-04. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he was an offensive lineman.

THE SERIES

The Vandals traveled to Baton Rouge to play the Tigers in 1998. LSU won 53-20.

TELEVISION

The game is one LSU's TigerVision, a pay-per-view service available only in Louisiana and Idaho as per Southeast Conference regulations. It also is available on ESPN's GamePlan, but it is blacked out in Idaho and Louisiana.

RADIO

Tom Morris (play by play) and Evan Ellis (analysis) again are calling the gameday action with KZFN (FM 106.1) as the flagship of the statewide, 14-station network. A complete list of stations is on page 3.

VANDAL CAPTAINS

Idaho's captains for the 2012 season are receiver Mike Scott (senior; Palo Alto, Calif.), cornerback Aaron Grymes (senior; Seattle, Wash), and punter Bobby Cowan (senior; Vancouver, Wash.).

ONTO THE FIELD

The Vandals have added a third element to their entrance onto the playing field. Traditionally, they have carried an American Flag and a battle ax commemorating the tradition of the Vandal. This year, they've added a flag that honors the memory of former Idaho receiver Ken McRoyal, who died last summer.

MEDIA POLICIES AND INFORMATION

NEWS CONFERENCES

Robb Akey's weekly news conferences are at 10:30 a.m. on Mondays in Team Room B on the first floor of the Kibbie Dome. Call UI media relations for teleconference access information.

Additionally, he is available on the Western Athletic Conference's weekly call, which is on Mondays and available by calling (877) 812-1320. You need to contact Dave Chaffin (dchaffin@wac.org) for a password to access the call. The WAC call schedule is (all times are Pacific):

9:30 Dave Chaffin, WAC
 9:32 Mike MacIntyre, San Jose State
 9:39 Larry Coker, UTSA
 9:46 Dennis Franchione, Texas State
 10:53 Sonny Dykes, Louisiana Tech
 10:00 DeWayne Walker, NMSU
 10:07 Gary Andersen, Utah State
 10:14 Robb Akey, Idaho

Individual interviews with Akey can be arranged through the athletic media relations office. Football players are available for interviews Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice. Contact the media relations department for individual player interviews.

Video highlights and interviews also are available. Game highlights, practice footage, interviews with Akey and selected players are available on a weekly basis through the athletic media relations office.

Idaho's locker room is closed to the public at all times.

Post-game interviews are in Team Room A/B on the ground level (northeast corner) of the Kibbie Dome. Coach Akey and players are available approximately 10 minutes after they have left the field at the conclusion of the game.

All photographers must wear a green sideline vest while working Vandal football games. Vests may be checked out at the ground level, southeast corner of the football field.

KIBBIE DOME ACCESS

The press box is on the north concourse. Access is at any of the general public doors of the Kibbie Dome or at the media entrance on the southeast ground level entrance. The only elevator to the concourse level is accessed through the southeast ground level entrance.

ROBB AKEY'S RADIO SHOW

Every week during the season, head coach Robb Akey and selected players and assistant coaches join in a live radio show from the University Inn-Best Western Convention Center.

The first show of 2012 is Tuesday, Aug. 28 from 6-7 p.m. Pacific. The show will air on Tuesdays this year (change from Thursdays) with a live audience and call-in availability at the University Inn Convention Center.

The show airs live on KZFN on the Palouse and on these Vandal Radio Network stations: KVNI AM 1080 (Coeur d'Alene-Spokane), KCLK AM 1430 (Lewiston), KLER AM 1300 (Orofino), KOFE AM 1240 (St. Maries), KLIX AM 1310 (Twin Falls-Sun Valley), KFXD AM 630 (Boise-Treasure Valley), KPTQ AM 1280 (Spokane) and KSPZ AM 980 (Idaho Falls). It also is on the GoVandals.com website under the multi-media menu.

VANDALS 2012

THIS WEEK'S GAME

There is one thing of which Idaho coach Robb Akey is certain: The Louisiana State Tigers are one of the best college football teams in the country and no one expects his Vandals to damage that reputation.

"They call it Death Valley for a couple reasons," said Akey in reference to the nickname of LSU's Tiger Stadium. "I think a lot of people have lost the game before they go in there."

In all aspects of the game, the Vandals will face their most difficult test of the season. The beauty of it, though, Akey says, is it's a win-win for Idaho.

"They're a good football team," Akey said. "There's no question about it. They're big and athletic up front. They're strong and fast at the skill positions. They're a very talented football team that has great depth."

"It's going to be a great atmosphere – one of the great college football atmospheres in the country. We've got nothing to lose. We're going to pin our ears back and go after it."

Saturday's game (5 p.m. PT/7 p.m. CT) will be the second career start for junior quarterback Dominique Blackman, who threw for 352 yards on 30-of-37 passing in his Division I debut. He has a couple new receivers – Najee Lovett and Jahrie Level, who had sparkling outings in the Vandals' first two games with Lovett going for 110 yards on eight catches vs. Eastern Washington and Level covering 119 yards on 10 catches at Bowling Green.

Defensively, the Vandals continue to improve and are ranking in the top half of the nation in most defensive categories. In two games, safety is the team's tackle leader with 17 with linebackers Conrad Scheidt (16) and Su'a Tuala (14) right behind. Linebacker Homer Mauga and cornerback Solomon Dixon each have one interception.

NOTES

DAZZLING DEBUT

Vandal quarterback Dominique Blackman had one of the best first starts in school history. Here are some comparisons.

☞ In terms of total yards, his 352 are second to Ryan Fien's 542 in Fien's debut against Wyoming in 1996. Doug Nussmeier's debut included 313 yards against Montana State in 1990, while Scott Linehan had 232 against Portland State in 1984.

☞ Linehan's completion percentage at 81.8 was slightly better than Blackman's 81.1. Nussmeier's was 62.5 and Fien's was 62.1

☞ Fien had the most completions with 36 (in 58 attempts), with Blackman's 30 second (of 37), Nussmeier's 20 (of 32) third and Linehan's 18 (of 22) fourth.

☞ Linehan had the highest pass efficiency rating at 200.40. He is followed by Nussmeier with 174.60, Blackman at 164.51 and Fien at 159.88.

☞ Fien threw the most touchdowns with four. Nussmeier had three, Linehan two and Blackman one.

CATCHING ON

Transfer Jahrie Level, a receiver who joined the Vandals during fall camp, already is making a name for himself. His 10 receptions against Bowling Green State were the most by a Vandal receiver since Max Komar pulled in 10 at Nevada on Oct. 24, 2009. Level netted 119 yards for his efforts and is on the NCAA's list for most receptions in a game so far this season in a tie for 15th. His 119 yards mark the second successive game a Vandal receiver pulled in more than 100 yards worth of catches (Najee Lovett had eight for 110 against Eastern Washington). Prior to their 100-plus games, the most recent was Eric Greenwood's 114 against Utah State on Nov. 20, 2010.

HONORED

Senior punter Bobby Cowan, a member of the Ray Guy Award preseason watch list, received honorable mention recognition from College Football Performance Awards after averaging 47.2 yards on four punts.

VANDALS 2012

CAJUN COUNTRY

The Vandals venture to Louisiana twice this season with their Sept. 15 game at LSU and their Oct. 20 contest at Louisiana Tech. In their previous 10 trips to Louisiana over the years, the Vandals are 4-6.

BLACK HELMETS

The Vandals debuted their gold-flecked black helmets in the 2012 season opener. The trademark I-Vandal is outlined in gold on the sides. It's been a while but Vandals have worn black helmets in the past. The teams from 1965-67 were black.

INSIDE THE VANDALS

The weekly University of Idaho program showing casing Vandal Athletics begins this week. The 30-minute show is produced entirely by the Sports Journalism class under the direction of Julie Scott. It airs Thursdays throughout Idaho and in Eastern Washington.

PLAYING THE NAME GAME

Sophomore defensive end Maxx Forde is on Athlon Magazine's "All-Name Team," which is the effort of the publication's staff perusing college rosters nationwide and finding unique monikers.

IN HONOR

Senior linebacker Homer Mauga changed his number this season from 19 to 55 to honor the memory of his cousin, Junior Seau, who died over the summer.

ELITE COMPANY

Corey Sandberg, a redshirt freshman linebacker for the Vandals, is one of two FBS football players who has received a Purple Heart. Sandberg received his Purple Heart, which is the oldest award given to members of the U.S. Military who were injured or killed in action, after he was shot while serving in Afghanistan. The only other player is Clemson's Daniel Rodriguez.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Junior receiver Justin Veltung has shown great big-play potential. During his freshman season, he recorded a 94-yard kickoff return. As a sophomore, he had receptions of 59, 75 and 76 yards to go with an 84-yard kickoff return. As a junior, despite being hampered with a toe injury, he had punt returns of 81 and 64 yards.

FARQUHAR AND THE FIELD GOAL RECORD BOOK

Kicker Trey Farquhar's 55-yarder at San Jose State in 2011 put him in a tie for second with Mike Hollis (vs. Southwest Texas in 1993) and Ben Davis (vs. North Texas in 1998) on the all-time Idaho list. He already owned the third longest with a 54-yarder at Nevada in 2009.

WATCHING

Three Vandals - punter Bobby Cowan, receiver/returner Justin Veltung, and center Mike Marboe, are on pre-season watch lists. Cowan is among the punters on the Ray Guy Award Watch List, while Veltung is on the Paul Hornung Watch List (which honors college football's most versatile player), and Marboe is on the Rimington Award Watch List, which goes to the nation's top center. Cowan and Veltung are seniors; Marboe is a sophomore. Follow their seasons on their individual pages in this release.

THREE NEW FACES

Gordy Shaw, who coached at Idaho in 1989, is back with the Vandals as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach. There are two other newcomers to the staff in running backs coach Wayne Moses and passing game coordinator and receivers coach Mike Levenseller.

IT'S A RELATIVE THING

Idaho has three sets of brothers on its 2012 roster: senior running back Ryan Bass and his younger brother Dion Bass, a cornerback; Dallas (offensive line) and Corey (linebacker) Sandberg both are freshmen (Corey joined the team after a stint in the military), and linebacking brothers Robert (senior) and Russell (Siavii).

VANDALS 2012

OVERSEAS CONNECTIONS

The Vandals have two international players – sophomore long snapper/defensive lineman Marius Burgsmueller is from Germany and found his way to Idaho via former Vandal Patrick Venzke, an offensive lineman on the 1998 Humanitarian Bowl Championship team, and Chester Faiiai, who is from American Samoa. Another freshman, Kerey Kuheana, was born in Japan, spent his growing up years in Spokane and Post Falls, before winding up in England for high school.

SPEAKING OF COWAN

Despite booting a 71-yard punt against Bowling Green State last year, he still does not have the Idaho mark. That mark, which appears untouchable, is an 83-yarder by Vandal Athletics Hall of Famer Flip Kleffner in 1953. To his credit, Cowan has a 67-yarder as a freshman and a 65-yarder as a sophomore.

CLOSE CALLS

Coach Robb Akey's 2012 mantra of Finish has a lot to do with the Vandals having five games decided by one score or less last season - and going 1-4 in those contests with one overtime and one double overtime.

IN GOOD COMPANY

Senior kicker Trey Farquhar is in good company. He is one of two active kickers in the country with five field goals of 50 or more yards. He is tied with Florida's Caleb Sturgis, who also has been successful on five kicks of 50 or longer. Farquhar's kicks are 50 (twice), 52, 54, and 55.
