ARKANSAS FOOTBALL

POSTGAME QUOTES

Nov. 23, 2012 vs. LSU— Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium

Arkansas Head Coach John L. Smith (opening statement) – “(You have) to give LSU credit, they are an awfully good football team as we all know. They have tremendous athletes on their side of the ball. I am very proud of our guys, they played hard, they battled and hung in there. They did everything that we asked them to do this week. We had an opportunity to win the football game. That is what you try to do, is to give them an opportunity to win. We had an opportunity. A big play here or a big play there and we would have been ok. The first half was a heck of a battle. They ended up making one great catch. That was a great athlete making a great play. We couldn’t ask our guy to cover much better than that. The second half we came out and told the defense they were going to have to battle and they did. They gave us plenty of opportunities. A couple miscues in there and turnovers and I can’t be more proud of our guys, the way they hung in there. They battled and fought until the very end. They gave us a chance to win. They have hung together all year and they have done what we asked. They have gone to the field every day. They work hard, they got better. It has been a great year. With their attitude and the way they have worked and what they have tried to give us. Plenty of times this year there has been adversity. You could have seen them slip and not hang together. To see guys quit, which we never saw. They hung together and they battled. We tried to tell them it was one program and one goal. We are still one program and these guys deserve a lot of credit for fighting through all of that. There were some good young kids out there. This program has a bright future. And they will hang together as well and continue to work hard. They know how to go to work and they are good. We have a nice future ahead. Whatever they do in life, academics, athletics, family life, go back to this past year in everything you do.”

Arkansas Head Coach John L. Smith (on the defensive effort) – “Our defense played their tail off, they really did. They stepped up and took away the run. It forced them to have to throw the ball. We missed a tackle or two. Again, you have to give credit to their guys, they are awfully good kids in those uniforms that are making you miss those tackles. Our defense played hard and I felt like we were really dominating defensively in the second half. We had to rely on those guys and say ‘go do it one more time.’ Go get the ball back one more time with six minutes to go. We had a chance to win.”

Arkansas Head Coach John L. Smith (on the season as a whole) – “This year has been a tremendous year. I love being with these guys. They did all they could do. It was a step in my life. You can’t turn your back on those guys and visa-versa. Those guys are going to love each other forever. There are a lot of great young men in there. I am going to look back at this opportunity I had to coach great young men at a great institution. I’m blessed.”

Arkansas QB-Tyler Wilson (on the game) – “The way we played defensively was incredible. Offensively we gave them a lot to look at and executed pretty well. We just didn’t execute those defining plays.”

Arkansas QB-Tyler Wilson (on the toughness of WR-Cobi Hamilton) – “This place is pretty special. To go out on your own terms is how everyone wants to play the game. He wanted to come out on his terms and I respect him for it.”

Arkansas QB-Tyler Wilson (on finishing his career at Arkansas) – “It’s been a fun ride. I talked to you media guys the other day about the previous seasons, it’s been great. We watched a power point last night and you see a picture of me at 175 pounds walking in here. Then you go through the ups, the Sugar Bowl, the Cotton Bowl and everything you go through. It’s been a life lesson for me, not only the records and that stuff, but it’s been a wonderful time and I’m glad I got to spend it at Arkansas.”

Arkansas WR-Cobi Hamilton (on his game) – “It was my last game as a senior. We couldn’t pull out a win like we wanted to, but it was fun. I played my butt off and I enjoy being out there with my teammates.”

Arkansas WR-Cobi Hamilton (on finishing his career as a Razorback) – “It wasn’t very tough. I’ve had so many memories in this stadium, in this state and as a Razorback. I leave here as a Razorback and I’m just so proud of that. I couldn’t ask for anything more.”

Arkansas WR-Cobi Hamilton (on fans chanting his name) – “I heard it a little bit. I heard Cobi, but I thought it was something on the sideline. It is pretty special to have that happen. It means a lot. The support we had throughout the season showed so much. It was a great feeling.”

Arkansas DE-Chris Smith (on the future of this team) – “I just love my team. Robert Thomas, Byron Jones, DD Jones, Jared Green, Alfred Davis those guys are hard to see go. We are going to pick it up next year. We fought our tails off tonight. We didn’t worry about the offense and just did our job. Time just wasn’t on our side tonight.”

LSU Head Coach Les Miles (opening statement) – “First of all, congratulations to a very strong effort by Arkansas. We came in here the last game of the season in their place and they played and gave everything they had. Great effort on their part. We’re a little nicked up. We need to heal. Our football team played extremely hard. Defensively, we felt like if we tackled better it would have been different. Offensively they had a nice game plan. They played it well. We needed to hit a couple passes. (It’s our) 10th victory. We’ll take the next day and a half and see how things go. Arkansas is a quality team. It’s very difficult for me to believe they are not bowl eligible. With their talent, they are very capable.”

LSU Head Coach Les Miles (on Arkansas’ defense) – “They came after us. They stunted, they blitzed, they did the right things. It was a nice addition to their plan. We have to throw the ball better and protect the quarterback better. I give credit to the opponent.”

LSU Head Coach Les Miles (on defending Arkansas) – “Our defense keeps it in front of them. We needed to tackle better on the short routes. I give credit to the Arkansas team. They played awfully well.”

LSU Head Coach Les Miles (on the game) – “The turnover at the two yard line was the key in the game. (Michael) Ford’s return was big. The interception was by a pretty special cornerback and it led to points. We didn’t have a lot of points, but we scored just enough.”

LSU Head Coach Les Miles (on playing the game in Fayetteville) – “I recognize that playing here is a big advantage for these Razorbacks. The stadium is a live venue. They give us fits in Little Rock as well.”

LSU RB-Jeremy Hill (on the game) – “It’s frustrating, you want to put them away. It’s tough when you don’t score touchdowns when you get in the red zone. We fought hard, we won the game. We just did enough to win the game. Sometimes you play games like this and just have to do enough to win. We did enough tonight.”

LSU RB-Jeremy Hill (on the Arkansas defense against the run) – “They were blitzing the safeties, shifting the line, slanting them, and bringing extra men in the box. It’s tough to go against that. We just have to go back to the drawing board. Sometimes the running back doesn’t see the right hole. It just happens.”
