2013 SEASON SERIES
NO. 10 LSU 1, NICHOLLS STATE 0 • 02/17

BATON ROUGE – The No. 10 LSU softball team rode Meghan Patterson's right-arm to a masterful four-hit shutout fueled by eight strikeouts as the Tigers completed a perfect weekend with a 1-0 victory over Nicholls State at Tiger Park.

LSU (10-1) has won 10 of its first 11 games, the program's best start since opening the 2007 campaign with an 11-0 mark.

Patterson stranded a baserunner during every frame, three in scoring position, en route to her second shutout of the season. In the process, the junior right-hander improved to 3-1 on the season.

"Luckily, we got a great pitching performance out of Meghan Patterson today," head coach Beth Torina said. "She was so solid for us. I think her coming out and getting the final win of the tournament for us is fitting. She deserves it. She's earned it, and I was happy to see her do that. Of course, we want to see more out of our offense today, but we will take our five wins and call it a good weekend."

The Tigers used some two-out lighting during the first inning to score the game's lone run. Allison Falcon ripped her team-leading fifth double of the season. After a Bianka Bell walk, Tammy Wray connected for a RBI single to left field to plate Falcon.

LSU continued its trend of scoring early and has scored in the first inning on seven occasions this season. The Tigers have outscored their opponents by a 19-0 margin this season.

"There is a little bit more stress on you when you get to the plate with two outs and runners in scoring position," Wray said. "It is a mental thing. You have to calm yourself down. I knew that all I had to do is hit something fair and hope that (Allison) Falcon is fast enough to score the run. I pulled the pitch, it fell in and it all worked out."

Nicholls State (4-5) had its best opportunity to score during the fourth inning after a Leah Andrus leadoff double. Patterson bucked down with a groundout followed by consecutive strikeouts to escape the threat and keep the score 1-0 in favor of LSU.

"There is definitely some pressure," Patterson said. "One run isn't always enough. You just have to rely on your defense. As a pitcher, you just have to keep your team in the game. I had a good mix of pitches. I had the high and low stuff today. They got a couple hits today, but our defense was solid."

The Colonels put another runner into scoring position in the fifth inning, but Patterson shut the door again with a strikeout.

Nicholls' Ashton Bennett was dealt the hard-luck loss and fell to 3-2 on the season. She scattered one run on five hits and recorded one strikeout versus one walk.

"This pitcher was really different from anyone we saw this weekend," Torina said. "She did a nice job. She has to get some of the credit. At the same time, we have to go back to the drawing board and work a little bit harder too."
