Tigers Look for SEC Tournament Bye in Regular-Season Finale at Texas A&M

The LSU Tigers (9-7-2, 5-4-1 SEC) are looking to snap a four-game losing skid in Southeastern Conference play when they make the trip to College Station, Texas, on Thursday as they will wrap up the 2013 regular season with a match against the No. 23-ranked Texas A&M Aggies that is scheduled to kick off at 7 p.m. CT at Ellis Field. A victory will prove fruitful for both teams as the Aggies can clinch at least a share of the SEC Championship and the Tigers can earn a bye into the quarterfinal round of next week's SEC Tournament with a win on Thursday night. Texas A&M enters the match in a tie for first place atop the SEC standings with defending champion Florida as each team has posted an 8-2 mark with 24 points through 10 conference matches. LSU currently holds down the No. 7 seed in the 2013 SEC Women's Soccer Tournament as the Tigers own a 5-4-1 and 16 points in league play. The top six teams in the final SEC regular-season standings will each receive a bye into the SEC quarterfinals to be held on Wednesday, Nov. 6, while seeds Nos. 7-10 will open the tournament in the first round on Monday, Nov. 4. This year's SEC Tournament will be held Nov. 4-10 at the Orange Beach Sportsplex in Orange Beach, Ala. The Aggies had won eight-straight SEC matches before Sunday's 2-0 defeat at No. 7 Florida in Gainesville to head into their regular-season finale in a tie atop the SEC standings with the defending champion Gators. Texas A&M has been led this season by the performance of All-SEC striker Shea Groom, who leads the squad with 11 goals and 25 points on the campaign. A Second-Team All-SEC selection in 2012, Groom is poised to claim All-SEC honors for the second-straight season. Freshman striker Liz Keester has also enjoyed a strong rookie season with the Aggies as she trails with seven goals, while juniors Allie Bailey and Kelley Monogue have each scored six goals apiece this season.

STORYLINES

- The Tigers will look for their first win against the Texas A&M Aggies in their regular-season finale on Thursday night in a series that spans three matches since 2009.
- The Tigers are 0-2-1 in their all-time series with Texas A&M, which includes two NCAA Tournament matches prior to the Aggies joining the SEC. Texas A&M advanced 4-2 on penalties in the second round in Baton Rouge in 2009 and were 4-0 winners in the first round in College Station in 2011.
- An SEC Championship is on the line for Texas A&M as it enters the match tied with Florida for first place with a 8-2 mark and 24 points in SEC play.
- LSU hopes to lock up a bye into the second round of the SEC Tournament with a win at Texas A&M. The Tigers currently hold the No. 7 seed with a 5-4-1 record and 16 points in SEC play. The top six seeds will receive a bye to the quarterfinal round.
- The Tigers were unbeaten in six matches to open SEC play for the first time in program history as they opened with a 5-0-1 mark and 16 points before Friday's defeat.
- Emma Fletcher has set LSU's freshman record with 11 assists on the year, which ranks No. 1 in the SEC and tied for No. 8 in the NCAA for the 2013 season. She is also tops in the SEC with seven assists in SEC play.
- Texas A&M is the sixth nationally-ranked opponent LSU has faced this season as the Tigers defeated No. 13 Southern California, 1-0, on Sept. 8 while also falling to No. 6 BYU (2-4) on Sept. 2, No. 24 Ole Miss (0-1) on Oct. 18, No. 8 Florida (0-3) on Oct. 20 and No. 22 Kentucky (1-3) on Sunday.
- LSU features a diverse attack as 13 different Tigers have found the scoresheet with 28 goals scored through 18 matches this season.
- After playing 13 SEC games in the first year of SEC expansion in 2012, each of the 14 league teams will play an 11-game conference schedule in 2013. LSU will not face Auburn and South Carolina in the regular season.

MATCHDAY LIVE: LSU VS. #23 TEXAS A&M

Date/Time: Thursday, Oct. 31 at 7 p.m. CT

Location: College Station, Texas – Ellis Field (3,500)

Radio/TV: None

Series Record: Texas A&M leads, 2-0-1

Series Notes: The Tigers will look for their first win in their series with the Texas A&M Aggies as the sides will meet for just the fourth time all-time in their 2013 regular-season finale on Thursday night at Ellis Field in College Station, Texas. The 10th-ranked Aggies took home a 1-0 victory over the Tigers in their first ever Southeastern Conference match as a new members of the league on Sept. 14 of last season. The sides have also met twice in the NCAA Tournament prior to Texas A&M's move to the SEC, playing to a 1-1 draw with Texas A&M advancing 4-2 in penalty kicks in the second round in Baton Rouge in 2009 and the Aggies emerging as 4-0 winners in the first round in College Station in 2011. Their match on Thursday night will kick off at 7 p.m. CT at Ellis Field.

LAST TIME OUT: LSU 1, #22 KENTUCKY 3 • LEXINGTON, KY.

Freshman Rebecca Pongetti broke the ice with her second goal of the season in the 51st minute to give the Tigers a 1-0 lead, but the homestanding Wildcats stormed back with three unanswered goals in the final 30 minutes as LSU dropped a 3-1 decision to 22nd-ranked Kentucky on Sunday afternoon at the UK Soccer Complex. After playing a scoreless first half, Pongetti put the visitors on the board just six minutes after the restart with second goal of the season on a shot from distance. Senior Nina Anderson dribbled into the final third and centered a pass to freshman Emma Fletcher running across the top of the box. Fletcher then played the ball wide right to Pongetti as the freshman defensive midfielder beat her defender and fired a 25-yard strike inside the left post from outside the area. Fletcher added to her freshman record at LSU with her 11th assist on the season as she now ranks No. 4 on LSU's all-time single-season list.

NOTEBOOK

Ole Miss Snaps LSU's School Record Unbeaten SEC Start

LSU suffered its first SEC defeat of the 2013 season on Oct. 18 with a 1-0 home defeat to No. 24-ranked Ole Miss to drop to 9-4-2 on the season and 5-1-1 in SEC play at the time. It marked the end of LSU's school-record unbeaten run to start SEC play as the Tigers were unbeaten in their first six SEC matches for the first time in the program's 19-year history at 5-0-1 entering the match. They improved upon their previous best unbeaten conference start of 4-0 during the 2009 and 2011 seasons. The Tigers finished both of those seasons in second place in the final SEC standings. LSU also had a seven-game unbeaten streak this year and nine-game unbeaten streak in SEC regular-season matches snapped against Ole Miss.

Clarke Finds Scoring Touch in SEC Play as Team's Top Scorer

Freshman striker Summer Clarke has certainly found her scoring touch in SEC play as she is now the team's leading goal scorer with eight goals and 19 points on the season as the Tigers wrap up the regular season on Thursday night at Texas A&M. She scored five of LSU's eight goals in an SEC road sweep in early October while scoring her first career hat trick in a 5-3 win at Arkansas on Oct. 4 and both goals in a 2-1 double overtime win at Alabama on Oct. 6. Clarke actually scored LSU's first hat trick in nearly four years when former All-American Malorie Rutledge scored three goals in a 7-0 shutout of Arkansas-Pine Bluff in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Nov. 13, 2009. She scored a goal in three-straight games that also included a 3-2 overtime win over Mississippi State on Sept. 29.

Clarke Named TopDrawerSoccer.com National Player of the Week

After scoring five goals in LSU's road sweep at Arkansas and Alabama two weeks ago, Clarke was honored as both the TopDrawerSoccer.com Women's National Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 7. Three other Tigers have earned National Player of the Week honors in program history with Michelle Makasini (Oct. 9, 2007), Mo Isom (Sept. 2, 2008) and Rachel Yopez (Sept. 28, 2009) being named Soccer America National Players of the Week.

Fletcher Climbs NCAA Charts with LSU Freshman Assists Record

Freshman standout Emma Fletcher has lived up to her reputation as one of the top attacking midfielders to join the NCAA Division I ranks as a freshman in 2013 following her career as a Canadian and New Zealand youth international. She is LSU's second-leading point scorer this season with 13 points, which includes one goal and 11 assists in 18 starts on the season. Fletcher's 11 assists this season is an LSU freshman record, eclipsing the previous mark of eight assists set by now senior defender Addie Eggleston during the 2010 season. Fletcher's 11 assists also tops the SEC scoring chart and ties her for the No. 8 spot in the NCAA rankings heading into Thursday's match. Fletcher now has her sights set on LSU's single-season record of 18 assists set by former Tiger All-American Malorie Rutledge during her senior season in 2009.

Tigers Feature Diverse Scoring Attack in 2013

The Tigers have featured a diverse attack during the 2013 season as 13 different goal scorers have accounted for the team's 28 goals thus far on the campaign. Freshman Summer Clarke is the team's leading goal scorer with eight goals on the year, while sophomore Fernanda Pina follows with four goals to match her career-high for a single season and junior Jodi Calloway has scored a career-high three goals this year. Junior Alex Arlitt, sophomore Heather Magee and freshman Rebecca Pongetti have scored two goals apiece this season, while seniors Nina Anderson, Megan Kinneman, Danielle Murphy and Alex Ramsey; sophomore Lexi Gibbs and freshmen Emma Fletcher and Megan Lee have also opened their account with a goal of their own. In addition, nine different Tigers have scored the team's 16 goals in SEC play through seven games as Anderson, Calloway Clarke, Fletcher, Lee, Magee, Murphy, Pina and Pongetti have found the scoresheet.

Kinneman Poised for Record-Setting Senior Season in 2013

Senior goalkeeper Megan Kinneman has shown tremendous form in goal as the defensive leader for the Tigers this season. Kinneman pitched six shutouts this season in wins over Louisiana Tech (1-0), UL-Monroe (6-0), Southern California (1-0), Rice (1-0) and Missouri (1-0), as well as a scoreless draw against TCU. With a 1-0 shutout of Missouri on Oct. 11, Kinneman has now matched her career single-season high of six set as a freshman in 2010. She is also moving up LSU's career charts as she is alone in second place with 17 shutouts and 244 saves during her collegiate career.

Kinneman Continues Scoring Touch from Penalty Spot in Senior Season

Senior goalkeeper Megan Kinneman has not only provided leadership for the Tigers on the defensive end of the field this season, but she has also proven herself as an asset on the offensive end of the field while scoring her third career goal from the penalty spot in the 65th minute of a 1-0 victory over the 13th-ranked USC Trojans back on Sept. 8 in LSU's finale at the Minnesota Gold Classic. Kinneman is the top scoring goalkeeper in the program's history as she has found the back of the net on all three of her penalty kick opportunities over the past two seasons. That also includes a conversion in a 2-1 overtime defeat to 18th-ranked Kentucky and the game-winner in the 93rd minute in a 3-2 win at Ole Miss last year.

Mexican International Pina Fluent in Language of Futbol

Much was expected of Mexican Under-20 international Fernanda Pina when she signed her National Letter of Intent with the Tigers as part of the Class of 2012, and she has certainly made an impact in the attack upon her arrival in Baton Rouge over the past two seasons. Pina is the team's second-leading goal scorer this season as she has netted four goals in 18 appearances in 2013 as the Tigers take on Texas A&M on Thursday. That matches her output in 21 appearances in 2012 as she netted a team-leading four goals as a freshman a season ago. Pina recorded her first career multi-goal game while scoring the first and last goals in a 6-0 rout of UL-Monroe on Aug. 27, while she also scored against No. 6 BYU on Sept. 2 and netted the game-winning Golden Goal in a 2-1 overtime win at Vanderbilt on Sept. 20.

Tigers Earn Best Non-Conference Win in Program History vs. USC Trojans

The Tigers earned perhaps their most impressive non-conference victory in the 19-year history of the program on the afternoon of Sunday, Sept. 8, when they scored a 1-0 victory over the 13th-ranked USC Trojans in the finale of the Minnesota Gold Classic held at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. Senior goalkeeper Megan Kinneman scored the game-winner on a penalty kick in the 65th minute while making a season-high seven saves in goal on the defensive end. The Tigers defeated their highest ranked non-conference opponent in program history with just their second victory over a nationally-ranked opponent in the non-conference all-time. LSU has now won seven matches to go along with nine draws over nationally-ranked opponents under the direction of head coach Brian Lee.

LSU Soccer's Recruiting Class Ranked in Top 15 Nationally for 2013

LSU Soccer's heralded 2013 recruiting class solidified its reputation as one of the nation's best during the preseason when it was selected the No. 1-ranked class in the SEC and the No. 14-ranked class in the NCAA ahead of the 2013 season by the editorial staff at AllWhiteKit.com. The Tigers welcomed five recruits with an international pedigree to campus for the 2013 season as junior transfer Natalia Gomez-Junco (Monterrey, Mexico) joined freshmen Summer Clarke (Richmond, British Columbia, Canada), Emma Fletcher (Victoria, British Columbia, Canada), Megan Lee (Massey, Auckland, New Zealand) and Rebecca Pongetti (Hamilton, Ontario, Canada) to bolster a young but talented roster in 2013. Each earned starting experience for their countries at the FIFA Women's World Cup at the U-17 and U-20 levels as youths.

LSU Picked Second in SEC West by Coaches in Preseason Poll

The four-time SEC Western Division champion LSU Tigers were selected to finish in second place in the final SEC West standings during the 2013 season in a preseason vote of the league's 14 head coaches. The Tigers received one first-place vote to be crowned the SEC Western Division champion, although the league's athletic directors voted to eliminate the divisional format for women's soccer following the SEC's preseason release. LSU captured four SEC West titles in a five-year span under the previous format with wins in 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011. Texas A&M was selected to defend its SEC West crown won in its inaugural season in the league in 2012, while also being tabbed as the preseason favorite to win the SEC regular season title with eight first-place votes. The Florida Gators received six first-place votes to defend the SEC crown they won a season ago, as well as 11 first-place votes to repeat as the SEC Eastern Division champion.

SEC TOURNAMENT

The 2013 Southeastern Conference Women's Soccer Tournament returns to the Orange Beach Sportsplex in Orange Beach, Ala. It will be 10th time that the facility has served as the host of the SEC Tournament, having hosted the event in 2003 and then every season since 2005.

The format of the tournament is a single-elimination tournament of the top 10 teams in the Conference based on winning percentage of Conference games (regardless of division). The tournament shall be played in a Monday-Wednesday-Friday-Sunday format with Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday designated as days off (practice days).

The winner of the nine-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship.

The 2013 SEC Tournament will be the 21st in league history and the 10h in Orange Beach. The first 10 SEC Tournaments were played at campus sites with Vanderbilt serving as the inaugural host in 1993. The tournament returned to Nashville in 1999. It has also been played at Fayetteville (1994), Auburn (1995), Lexington (1996), Gainesville (1997), Tuscaloosa (1998), Athens (2000), Baton Rouge (2001) and Oxford (2002).

Florida leads the league with 10 SEC Tournament titles. Tennessee is second with four while Kentucky and Vanderbilt each have two championships.

Points System: A win counts as three points, a tie as one, and a loss as zero points. If a game(s) is cancelled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game.

Seeding: The tournament will be seeded 1-10 regardless of division based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings. If teams are tied, the following procedures, in order as follows, will be used to break the tie:

Two-Team Tie – The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- A. Head-to-head competition between the tied teams.
- B. Points earned versus common opponents.
- C. Goal differential versus common opponents.
- D. Goals scored versus common opponents.
- E. Won-Lost record of the two teams versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- F. Goal differential versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- G. Goals scored versus highest seeded common opponent and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- H. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more) – The following procedure will be used until the tie is broken. If at any time this tie breaker results in only two remaining tied teams, then the two-team tiebreaker will be used beginning with Subsection A in that procedure and continuing from that point:

- A. If all teams have played one another, then most points earned in those matches only.
- B. If all teams have not played, but one team has defeated all teams in the tie break, then that team breaks the tie and shall be placed highest. Remaining teams will continue with the tie break procedure.
- C. If all teams have not played one another and a team does not have all wins over the tied teams, then use Subsection B in the two-team tie break procedures and continue through the two team tie-break procedures until ties between all teams are broken (except Subsection H will read "if three or more teams are still tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw").
