SETTING THE SCENE

- ▶ The LSU softball team returns to SEC play this weekend, traveling to take on the Alabama Crimson Tide at Rhoads Stadium in Tuscaloosa March 28-30 for a three-game series.
- ▶ The Tigers were 1-2 in non-conference games last week, dipping to 19-12 on the season after suffering consecutive losses to Oklahoma in Norman last weekend.
- ▶ LSU swept the Crimson Tide last year in the home series finale to clinch the program's ninth division title since 1997. At the time, Alabama was the fourth-ranked team in the nation.
- ▶ Winners of three of the last four and seven of the last 10 over Alabama, LSU holds a 38-29 advantage in all-time meetings between the two teams.
- ▶ LSU dropped the last series in Tuscaloosa two games to one back in the 2012 season.

WHAT'S NEXT

- LSU closes out a season-long seven-game road swing on Tuesday, heading north to take on the ULM Warhawks at the ULM Softball Complex.
- The two teams were originally supposed to square-off against one another back on March 3, but the game was postponed due to wintry conditions in the Monroe area.
- The Tigers are 7-0 all-time against ULM. This is the first meeting between the two teams since the 2010 season when LSU won 6-1 in Austin, Texas.
- Heading into this week, the Warhawks are 15-10 on the season, with a 10-3 record in home games.

2013 SEASON SERIES
NO. 12 LSU 3, NO. 4 ALABAMA 2 • 4/25

BATON ROUGE - Sandra Simmons delivered a walkoff RBI single to left field with two outs to vault the No. 12 LSU softball team to a dramatic 3-2 eight-inning victory over No. 4 Alabama Thursday in front of a raucous 1,917 fans at Tiger Park.

With the win, LSU (38-11, 13-6 SEC) moved a game ahead of the Crimson Tide (40-8, 12-7 SEC) in the SEC Western Division standings. The Tigers have won six straight home decisions over Alabama going back to the 2008 season. The 1,917 fans was the fifth-largest crowd in program history.

Blanka Bell and Simone Heyward put together a pair of 2-for-3 performances, while Kelsi Kloss provided a two-run home run to spark a seven-hit attack for the Tigers.

Rachele Fico went the distance for LSU in the circle and improved to 23-9 on the season. She allowed two runs on six hits and picked up two strikeouts versus four walks. The senior right-hander is now six Ks away from passing fellow All-American Emily Turner for third place on LSU's all-time list.

"It was really exciting," head coach Beth Torina said. "I'll start off by saying Simone (Heyward) did a great job of starting us off and putting the ball in play. The slappers are such tough outs. They did exactly what we needed them to do. It was good for Sandra (Simmons) to come through. The freshmen were awesome tonight. Kelsi (Kloss) and Sandra were the heroes tonight."

Simmons' heroics were set up by a Heyward leadoff infield single on a chopper to shortstop. LSU kept the rally going as A.J. Andrews drew a four-pitch walk. Jacee Blades reached on a fielder's choice to put runners on the corners. Alabama elected to fill the bases and issued an intentional walk to Bell.

Two batters later, Simmons cranked a 1-2 offering that deflected off the glove off a diving Danae Hays from her shortstop post and squirted into left field which enabled Heyward to race home with the game-winner.

"I was seeing her (Jackie Traina) well all night," Simmons said. "I knew it was my chance to end this game. We wanted to be done with it. After I started having my intelligence to get on top of the ball more, I knew I could produce it. I had nerves, but good nerves to where I knew I could do it. I just wanted to be the one to end it."

Alabama had an opportunity to take the lead during the top of the 8th inning. The Crimson Tide loaded the bases with a pair of singles and a walk. However, Fico buckled down and got Hays to foul out which kept the score knotted at 2-2.

"That is one thing this team is really good about," Torina said. "That is what I just told them. They never lost hope. They never had a doubt. They never second-guessed themselves. They have a ton of fight and I think that is the best quality this team has."

LSU grabbed a 2-0 advantage in the fourth inning. After making a jumping catch to end an Alabama threat during the third inning, Allison Falcon coaxed a one out walk. Two batters later, Kloss connected for a two-run homer, her fifth of the season, to straight-away centerfield on a 3-1 pitch.

Fico sat down the first eight Alabama hitters she faced. She added another run of eight consecutive batters retired ignited by the Falcon catch in the third inning.

Down to their final out, the Crimson Tide pieced together back-to-back singles from Jadyn Spencer and Leona Lafaele. Hays was plunked by an 0-2 pitch, while Andrea Hawkins and Kayla Braud tacked on consecutive walks to even the tally at 2-2. Fico regained her form and snagged a Haylie McCleney line drive back to the circle.

Alabama's Jackie Traina was tagged with the loss and dropped to 17-5 on the season. She was touched up for three runs on seven hits. She added three strikeouts versus four walks.

"My team had my back tonight big time," Fico said. "In the seventh inning, I got a little too anxious. We were able to get out of it, and we came back strong. We kept them off the scoreboard. I did everything I could to give my team a chance to score a run for us. We really came up big with it tonight, and it was an awesome team effort."

NO. 12 LSU 1, NO. 4 ALABAMA 1

BATON ROUGE - The No. 12 LSU softball team used solid performances in all three phases of the game to secure a hard-fought 2-1 victory over No. 4 Alabama Friday as a program-record 2,651 spirited fans gathered at Tiger Park.

With the win, LSU (39-11, 14-6 SEC) extends its lead to two games over the Crimson Tide 40-9, 12-8 SEC) in the SEC Western Division standings. The Tigers have collected seven straight home decisions over Alabama going back to the 2008 season.

LSU's slappers of A.J. Andrews, Jacee Blades and Simone Heyward combined for a 5-for-7 effort and scored both runs. Andrews and Blades picked up their team-leading 16th and 15th multi-hit performances of the season. Bianka Bell and Allison Falcon accounted for RBIs on sacrifice flies.

"This was exciting and awesome for the fans who came out and gave us support," head coach Beth Torina said. "What a great atmosphere we have had the last few nights at Tiger Park. I thought the defense was the key tonight. They have some really quick slappers at the top of their lineup like we have. We handled them really well from the left side of our infield. Then we came up with some key hits at some good moments. The slappers (A.J. Andrews, Jacee Blades and Simone Heyward) on our side were awesome. They were on-base all night. I thought they caused a lot of problems for their defense."

Ashley Czechner went the distance in the circle for the Tigers and moved her unblemished mark to 10-0 for the season. The South Carolina native scattered one run on eight hits and recorded one strikeout versus two walks.

"Her (Czechner) track record before she came to LSU was she is a big game pitcher," Torina said. "The more pressure she has, the better she is. I think she is showing us that all the time. I am glad she pitched the entire game tonight. I thought she was fantastic. I felt really confident putting her back out there in the seventh, and she did exactly what we needed her to do."

LSU's defense neutralized the Crimson Tide running game as catcher Kellsie Kloss threw out a pair of Alabama baserunners attempting to steal bases. The Tiger infield registered nine ground ball outs highlighted by Bell's four assists from the shortstop position.

"Bianka [Bell] and Kellsie [Kloss] just played a phenomenal game," Czechner said. "Bianka was basically playing second base with some of those plays she made. Kellsie threw out two runners. To throw out two people especially against Alabama, is just phenomenal. Tammy [Wray], Sandra [Simmons] and Allison [Falcon] also made some really great plays on the infield. I could not have done it without them."

The Crimson Tide threatened to dent the scoreboard during the first inning. Alabama opened the contest with back-to-back singles from Kaila Braud and Haylie McCleney. Two batters later, Molly Fichtner coaxed a walk to load the bases with one out.

Czechner found her bearings and kept the Crimson Tide scoreless. She induced a popup and a ground ball back to circle. LSU jumped out to a 1-0 advantage in the home half of the frame. Andrews and Blades set the table with a double and single, respectively. Andrews raced to the plate after Falcon lifted a sacrifice fly to centerfield for the game's first run.

Alabama attempted to respond with the equalizer during the second inning. With runners on first and second base and two outs, McCleney punched a single to right field. Danielle Richard sprinted toward home plate, but Heyward gunned her down at the plate for the third out of the frame.

LSU added another run in the third inning. Heyward, Andrews and Blades pieced together three straight singles to load the bases. Bell cranked a sacrifice fly to deep left field to push LSU's lead to 2-0. The Crimson Tide broke through and trimmed the deficit down to 2-1 with a Richard home run to left field with one out during the fourth inning.

Alabama put the tying run into scoring position in the fifth and sixth innings. Czechner forced the Crimson Tide into a fly out with a runner at third base during the fifth and caught Richard attempting to swipe third base to end the threat in the sixth. Leslie Jury was tagged with the loss and dropped to 15-4 on the season. She surrendered two runs on six hits and came away with one strikeout against three walks.

Czechner retired the Crimson Tide in order for her first 1-2-3 stanza to wrap up the 2-1 triumph.

2013 SEASON SERIES
NO. 12 LSU 4, NO. 4 ALABAMA 3 • 4/27

BATON ROUGE - The No. 12 LSU softball team erased three separate deficits and completed a series sweep with a dramatic 4-3 Senior Day triumph over No. 4 Alabama to clinch a share of the SEC Western Division title Saturday as another program-record crowd of 3,231 fans packed Tiger Park.

"Our seniors have definitely left their mark, and a lot of credit goes them," head coach Beth Torina said. "They continued to raise the bar and raise the level for this program. Honestly, it's not about Alabama at all for me. It is about these Tiger fans, and this team being able to be in the spot they are in the toughest conference in the nation. We have the best fans in the country. They came out today and supported us. They changed the game multiple times in multiple ways. They were unbelievable all weekend."

With the victory, LSU (40-11, 15-6 SEC) secured its 12th 40-win regular season in program history and opened up a three-game lead over the Crimson Tide (40-10, 12-9 SEC) heading into the season's final week. The Tigers have won eight straight home decisions over Alabama dating back to the 2008 season.

After the game, LSU paid tribute to Rachele Fico, Lauren Houston, Katie Guillory and student manager Lindsay Price as part of Senior Day festivities.

"This day was so special," Fico said. "I'm just so proud to be a Tiger. In my heart, I know this is the right place for me, and I'm so glad I made the decision I did. If I had to go back and do it all over again, I absolutely would come to LSU without a doubt. I bleed Purple and Gold now. I never really understood what this place is all about until I got down here. LSU sucks you up, and it turns you into a Tiger for life. I understand now. I get it now. I get why this place is so special. There's no place like it on Earth. I'm so proud to be a Tiger."

With LSU trailing by a 3-2 margin during the bottom of the fifth inning, Guillory ignited the Tigers by legging out an infield single deep into the hole at second base with two outs. A throwing error enabled Guillory to scamper into second base.

A.J. Andrews kept the two-out rally alive and ripped a 1-1 offering through the middle to plate pinch runner Simone Heyward with the game-tying run. A throwing error by Alabama centerfielder Haylie McCleney allowed Andrews to scoot all the way to third base.

Jacee Blades took the first pitch of the next at-bat and deposited a RBI single on a chopper to shortstop to vault LSU to a 4-3 lead.

"It was so cool that Katie Guillory was able to get that hit for us," Torina said. "She is one of our super seniors being her fifth year. She has worked so hard to be in the lineup. She really fought her way during that last at-bat. She really started the offense there. It was a motivating factor for our team to see her do that."

Alabama attempted a comeback of its own in the sixth inning. After a Danielle Richard leadoff single, Tammy Wray used her quick release from her third base post and erased Richard on a fielder's choice ground ball. The Crimson Tide got another single to right field courtesy of Jady Spencer, but Simone Heyward fired a one-hop bullet to Wray to gun down Ryan Iamurri for the second out of the frame.

"When I went into right field, I knew the game was on the line," Heyward said. "It was the sixth inning. I know that we needed to make a great play somewhere defensively. The last time a ball came to me like that it tailed off, and I couldn't get a hold on it. This time I was like, 'I've got to get it. I've got to get her out.' I knew I was going to throw to third base, and I just wanted to come up big for my team. I wanted to be the one to make a big play."

Rachele Fico retired the final four Alabama batters she faced to wrap up the 4-3 win. She fanned McCleney for the game's final out, who was previously 2-for-2 with two RBIs, in the contest.

"That inning was huge for us," Fico said. "We knew that we had the speed of their lineup coming up. They're absolutely so dangerous when they get on-base and make things happen. So, we knew that we were going to play really good defense. They put the ball in play. We were able to make good plays, and we were able to end it on a strikeout which is so awesome. That team is so talented. I have so much respect for the Alabama softball program. To be able to clinch the SEC West on this day is just such a special thing to me. It's something that I'm going to remember for the rest of my life."

Fico sprayed eight hits and allowed three runs, two earned, to improve her record to 24-9 for the season. The senior right-hander added four strikeouts versus one walk and moved one strikeout away from matching fellow All-American Emily Turner for third place on LSU's all-time list.

"I'll tell you what, Alabama has some great hitters in that lineup," Torina said.

"Kayla Braud is a fantastic player and was tough on us all weekend long. It was great to see Rachele Fico step up and get those last three tough outs in the seventh inning. She had a great performance today."

Alabama dented the scoreboard first and capitalized on a LSU fielding error to grab a 1-0 advantage in the opening frame. Richard squirted a two-out, RBI single through the left side to score McCleney for the game's first run.

The Tigers wasted no time and responded with a run during the home half of the inning. LSU manufactured the equalizer started by an Andrews leadoff single to left field. She advanced to second base on Blades' sacrifice bunt and touched the plate on Blanka Bell's RBI single down the left field line.

Alabama regained a 2-1 edge in the third inning. The Crimson Tide pieced together consecutive doubles with no outs, one to shallow left field by Kayla Braud followed by a McCleney two-bagger that bounced off the right field fence.

LSU knotted the score at 2-2 during the fifth inning. With two outs, Sandra Simmons ripped a solo home run, her fourth dinger of the season, to right field.

The Crimson Tide snatched back a 3-2 lead in the fifth inning. Braud knocked a one-out double to left field, moved up to third base on a wild pitch and raced home on McCleney's sacrifice fly to centerfield.

Alabama's Jackie Traina was dealt the loss and fell to 17-6 on the season. She surrendered four runs, two earned, on six hits. She picked up four strikeouts versus zero walks.

"It is definitely a great day," Heyward said. "As a team, I thought we took it one game at a time. It was for the SEC West. It was for pride. It was a great series, just everything. Today, just knowing that we could finally sweep a series at home for the first time since Kentucky, I just think that was a great win for the team. It was a whole team effort. Everybody in the lineup, everybody on defense all contributed to this."
