SETTING THE SCENE

- ▶ LSU closes out its seven-game home stand against the Georgia Bulldogs with a three-game SEC series at Tiger Park in Baton Rouge.
- ▶ Game times for this weekend are 6 p.m., 6 p.m. and noon.
- ▶ Saturday's game will be televised live on CSS/CST, with Lyn Rollins and Brittany Mack.
- ▶ The game on Saturday is also the third-annual "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" game where the team will wear teal jerseys to raise awareness for GYN cancers.
- ▶ The Bulldogs won all three meetings against the Tigers last year, including knocking LSU out of the SEC tournament just four days after the series ended between the two teams.
- ▶ Georgia has won 10 of the last 11 meetings against the Tigers dating back to the 2010 season.

2013 SEASON SERIES
GEORGIA 10, NO. 8 LSU 7 - 5/3

ATHENS, Ga. - Bianka Bell and Simone Heyward posted a pair of three-hit efforts to equal career-highs, but the No. 8 LSU softball team was unable to overcome an eight-run third inning as Georgia claimed a 10-7 decision to open the final weekend of the regular season Friday at Jack Turner Stadium.

The Tigers (40-12, 15-7 SEC) nearly erased a seven-run deficit and sent the tying run to the plate during the sixth inning. Georgia (36-18, 13-9 SEC) has won eight of its last nine meetings with LSU dating back to the 2009 season.

A.J. Andrews turned in a 2-for-3 performance highlighted by a three-run homer, while Sandra Simmons added a 2-for-4 effort and a RBI for the Tigers. In the circle, Meghan Patterson turned in a strong relief outing and allowed two runs on four hits over 3.2 innings. She tallied one strikeout against one walk.

The Bulldogs were led by Paige Wilson's two solo home runs, Christine Olney's three-run double and Niaja Griffin's two-run triple. UGA also received RBIs from Tina Iosefa, Kaylee Pualloa and Anna Swafford.

"I was proud of our offensive effort," head coach Beth Torina said. "They were fantastic and fought back after their big inning. I thought that took a lot of heart and guts from our offense. It's nice seeing the slappers and the middle of the lineup continuing to do so well. Meghan came in under difficult circumstances and gave us a great effort. She did what we needed her to do. She fought hard for us and threw some great pitches."

LSU grabbed a 2-0 advantage during the first inning. Andrews coaxed a leadoff walk and advanced to second base on a passed ball. Two batters later, Bell blasted her team-leading 12th home run of the season over the left centerfield wall.

The Bulldogs cut the LSU lead down to 2-1 as Wilson connected for a solo shot of her own in the home half of the inning.

UGA put together an eight-run frame and grabbed a 9-2 advantage in the third inning. The Bulldogs filled the bases and got the equalizer after Iosefa was plunked. Pualloa followed with a RBI single through the middle to give Georgia a 3-2 edge.

The Bulldogs cleared the bases and pushed their lead to 6-2 on a three-run double courtesy of Olney into the right centerfield gap. Two batters later, Griffin tacked on a two-run triple and Swafford capped the eight-run inning with a RBI groundout to make it 9-2.

LSU chipped away at the deficit and pulled back to 9-3 during the fourth inning. Lauren Houston opened the stanza by getting hit-by-a-pitch. After a Heyward double moved Houston into scoring position, she crossed the plate on a Jacee Blades infield single.

The Tigers continued to rally with a four-run sixth inning. Tammy Wray reached on a UGA fielding error, and Heyward added a bunt single to set the table for Andrews, who cranked a three-run bomb on a 1-1 offering to draw LSU to within 9-6.

Bell slapped her third hit of the contest, a single through the middle. She scampered home on Simmons' RBI triple that appeared to clear the left centerfield wall and bounce back into the field of play. With the tying run at the plate, Kelsi Kloss hit a hard ground ball to second base for the third out of the inning.

Wilson cranked her second dinger of the game over the scoreboard in left field with one out in the seventh inning for the final margin of 10-7.

Rachele Fico, the reigning NFCA National Player of the Week, was issued the loss and dropped to 24-10 on the season. The senior right-hander was tagged for eight runs on five hits. She tacked on three strikeouts versus three walks. The three Ks enabled Fico to eclipse fellow All-American Emily Turner for third place on the program's all-time list.

UGA's Chelsea Wilkinson picked up the victory to improve her season's ledger to 7-4. She tossed 5.1 innings and gave up six runs, five earned, on nine hits. She totaled two strikeouts against three walks. The Bulldogs turned to Morgan Montemayor for the final five outs. She notched her second save sparked by two Ks and surrendered an unearned run on two hits.

2013 SEASON SERIES
GEORGIA 10, NO. 8 LSU 5-3/5

ATHENS, Ga. - The No. 8 LSU softball team was handed a 10-5 defeat by Georgia behind the Bulldogs seven-run rally in the sixth inning Sunday during the regular season finale for both teams as 1,202 fans gathered at Jack Turner Stadium.

Kellsie Kloss turned in a 3-for-4 performance with two RBIs to fuel the Tigers, the three hits for Kloss were a career-high. Bianka Bell added a 2-for-3 effort and scored two runs. For Bell, it was her 16th multi-hit game of the season. Sandra Simmons tacked on a RBI, while Rikki Alcaraz ripped a two-run double.

Ashley Czechner was tagged with her first loss of the season and fell to 10-1. She was touched up to a career-best 10 runs, nine earned, on 10 hits. She registered two strikeouts against one walk.

Georgia was led by Paige Wilson's 3-for-4 performance and four RBIs. She belted a three-run homer followed by a Geri Ann Glasco solo shot to cap the Bulldogs seven-run sixth inning.

LSU (40-13, 15-8 SEC) and Georgia (37-18, 14-9 SEC) will meet again Thursday in the quarterfinal round of the SEC Tournament. First pitch is slated for 12:30 p.m. CT, and the game will be televised by ESPNU.

"It's tough for our team to have to go on the road the week before their final exams," head coach Beth Torina said. "Overall, I think it takes a toll on our team because they are spread in a lot of different directions. That's not taking anything away from Georgia, they are a quality program. They do a great job with their offense and are difficult outs up-and-down their lineup."

The Bulldogs ran out to a 2-0 advantage in the second inning. With runners on the corners and two outs, Anna Swafford attempted to steal second base. Her slide on the tag attempt by Bell jarred the ball loose and enabled Niaja Griffin to cross the plate with the game's first run. Wilson followed with a RBI double off the right field wall to make it 2-0.

LSU fired back with two runs of its own in the fourth inning. Bell opened the frame and reached base on a fielding error by the UGA second baseman. Two batters later, Kloss knocked a single into centerfield. Both runners were able to score as Alcaraz laced a 1-2 offering for a two-run double into the left centerfield gap to knot the score at 2-2.

The Tigers added three more runs during the fifth inning. Simone Heyward chopped a single into centerfield and advanced to second base as A.J. Andrews reached on another fielding miscue by the UGA second baseman.

A Jacee Blades ground out moved both runners into scoring position. Bell was issued a walk, and Simmons was hit-by-a-pitch to give LSU a 3-2 edge. Kloss smacked a two-run single to left field to extend the lead to 5-2.

Georgia got back to within 5-3 on a Swafford solo home run down the left field line to open up the home half of the fifth inning.

The Bulldogs sent 10 batters to the plate and exploded for seven runs during the sixth inning. LSU thought it had the frame's second out at third base, but an interference call on Alcaraz at second base for running into pinch runner Samantha LaZear put runners on the corners.

Katie Browne connected for a two-run double that knotted the score at 5-5 and found a spot on the grass past a diving Blades and Andrews in the left centerfield gap.

Griffin legged out an infield single to place runners on the corners. Swafford notched the go-ahead RBI on a fielding error by LSU third baseman Tammy Wray. Wilson and Glasco cranked back-to-back dingers to straight-away centerfield for the final margin of 10-5.

"Our defense wasn't as solid today as it usually is," Torina said. "It's hard to play perfect defense all the time because Georgia's offense hits the ball extremely hard and makes you cover the entire field. Ashley did a good job overall and kept them off-balanced for several innings. She just couldn't finish it and got a couple of tough breaks. I think it's tough for any pitcher to finish it against that type of offense."

LSU put together a threat in the seventh inning as the Tigers loaded the bases. However, pinch hitter Hailey Smith grounded out for the game's final out.

UGA's Morgan Montemayor fired two innings of three-hit ball in relief to tally the victory and improve to 12-6 on the season. Glasco went the first five innings for the Bulldogs in the circle and surrendered five runs, three earned, on six hits. She picked up four strikeouts versus one walk.

2013 SEASON SERIES
GEORGIA 7, NO. 10 LSU 0 - 5/9

LEXINGTON, Ky. - The No. 10 LSU softball team was handed a 7-0 loss by Georgia during the quarterfinal round of the SEC Tournament Thursday at John Cropp Stadium on the University of Kentucky campus.

LSU (40-14) was shutout for only the second time on the season and dropped its third straight decision to the Bulldogs (38-18) over a six-day stretch. UGA advances to face top-seeded and No. 3 Florida in Friday's semifinal round.

The Bulldogs received hits from eight of their nine starters fueled by multi-hit efforts from Kaylee Puailoa and Katie Browne. Chelsea Wilkinson was effective and efficient en route to a five-hit shutout in the circle. She recorded three strikeouts against one walk and improved to 8-4 on the season.

Trailing 4-0, LSU's best opportunity to score came during the sixth inning when A.J. Andrews and Bianka Bell strung together a pair of singles two batters part. However, Sandra Simmons fouled out to right for the frame's final out.

"Georgia definitely deserves a lot of credit," head coach Beth Torina said. "Obviously, they have our number. I didn't think my team played very well today. Of course, I'm not trying to take any credit away from Georgia, but I didn't think we played our best game. I thought we got a better effort on the mound, but I thought we got a worse effort defensively and offensively. One positive about this is that we have a lot more time to prepare for next weekend and get some extra practice days. We're at a point where we obviously need it."

Georgia opened the scoring and took a 1-0 edge in the second inning courtesy of a Katie Browne solo home run to left field. The Bulldogs threatened for more and placed runners on the corners. LSU's catcher Lauren Houston made a diving catch on a foul ball to keep the score at 1-0.

UGA pushed its lead to 3-0 during the fifth inning. With runners on second and third base, Puailoa smacked a two-run single that deflected off the glove of LSU's second baseman Allison Falcon and squirted into right field.

The Bulldogs took advantage of LSU's third error of the game and scored an unearned run in the sixth inning. Tina Iosefa and Tess Sito tallied RBIs to spark a three-run UGA seventh to complete the 7-0 win.

LSU's Rachele Fico was issued the loss and dropped to 24-11 for the season. The senior right-hander surrendered seven runs, six earned, on 10 hits. She registered seven strikeouts versus three walks.
