Aggie Takes on No. 17/18 LSU in Baton Rouge, La., Saturday; Listen to Jack Nixon on the Aggie Sports Network

LAS CRUCES, N.M. – The New Mexico State football team heads to Baton Rouge, La., Saturday, Sept. 27 to face off against No. 17/18 Louisiana State (LSU). The Aggies fell to 2-2 after suffering a 38-34 loss to Rio Grande rival New Mexico the previous weekend as LSU moved to 3-1 on the season after being upset by Mississippi State, 34-29, the same night.

The Tigers have been ranked in the top 25 teams in the nation for most of the last decade, having won the BCS National Championship in 2003 and 2007. 2012 was the last time the team played in the championship, losing to Alabama 21-0.

NM State Football on the Radio

The New Mexico State flagship radio station for football and men's basketball is changing from 103.9 FM to 98.7 FM in Las Cruces. All football and men's basketball games will be aired live and in their entirety.

This move took effect for the first home football game on Thursday, August 28 at 6 p.m. (MT). The pre-game show will begin at 5 p.m. with Jack Nixon and Preston Williams.

The flagship station this year will be 98.7 FM of the NM State Sports Network, which extends across the state of New Mexico. Other stations in the network carry all football and

Aggie Media Guidelines

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with head coach Doug Martin or any New Mexico State assistant football coach must be coordinated through Assistant Media Relations Director Eddie Morelos, 575-646-1885 or on his cell phone at 575-642-5746.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged by the Media Relations Office. Players have been instructed not to grant any interview, in person or by telephone, not arranged by the Media Relations staff. Player telephone numbers are private and will not be released.

Interviews with players must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office at least one day in advance to minimize demands on the student-athlete's time. All other requests for after practice must be made by 1 p.m. on the day of the interview. No player interviews will be conducted after Wednesday of each week. Player interviews will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday and Saturday after games. Interviews will be conducted after practice or by phone if arranged prior to the day.

Head coach Doug Martin will review ALL media requests for players both before or after practice or requests by phone. Approval by Martin is needed before interviews can be scheduled. Martin or Assistant Media Relations Director Eddie Morelos reserves the right to deny interview requests.

Phone interviews must also be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office with the requested player returning the call at an agreed upon time from the Athletic Media Relations Office.

Keep in mind, team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at ALL TIMES. Interviews during practice are strictly prohibited. New Mexico State football practices are open to the public and media is welcome to attend. Following each practice, Martin and selected players will be available for brief interviews if requested. Please coordinate with the Athletic Media Relations staff in attendance.

POSTGAME

New Mexico State provides equal access to all members of the working media.

At home games, Martin will hold a postgame press conference in the meeting room at the north end of Aggie Memorial Stadium. Access to this room can be found on the ramp leading to the field.

Requests for player interviews should be made to Assistant Media Relations Director Eddie Morelos or the opposing SID no later than the eight-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

New Mexico State players will be brought to the meeting rooms for interviews. The opponent's coach will be available either on the field or outside the visitor's locker room at the discretion of the visiting SID.

Head coach Doug Martin will review ALL media requests for players after each game and reserves the right to select players from the submitted list.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for New Mexico State home games are issued for working media ONLY and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations.

All members of the media must request credentials in writing through Eddie Morelos, Assistant Media Relations Director, (575) 646-1885.

Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of television and radio stations. Requests from individuals not employed by a media outlet WILL NOT be considered.

Looking Back

The Aggies fell to 2-2 on the season after suffering a loss to the New Mexico Lobos Saturday, Sept. 20, at Aggie Memorial Stadium. The Lobos moved to 1-2 on the season with the win.

NM running back Crusoe Gongbay led all rushers with 139 yards on 16 carries with one touchdown. NM State's Xavier Hall finished the game with 15 carries for 61 yards, recording a career high two touchdowns.

Aggie receiver Teldrick Morgan had another standout performance, catching nine passes for 122 yards. Joesph Matthews added 79 yards and a touchdown for the Aggies as well. The Lobo's Jeric Magnant led NM with four catches for 42 yards, recording one touchdown.

Aggie quarterback Tyler Rogers went 32-47 on the night, recording a career high 333 yards and two touchdowns. The lobos went 8-14 overall, throwing for 67 yards and two touchdowns.

The Aggies defense struggled to contain the Lobos ground game, recording 432 yards on 52 carries overall. The same could be said about the NM secondary, as the Aggies had 333 yards through the air. The total yards for both teams was almost dead even, with NM recording 499 yards of total offense while the Aggies had 498.

Turnovers played a role for both teams, with the Aggies throwing two interceptions and the Lobos fumbling twice, turning it over once. The Aggies were 13-of-20 on third down conversions and two of three on fourth down conversions. The lobos were a perfect 4-of-4 in the redzone, while the Aggies went 5-of-6.

Tyler Rogers Steps in as Aggie QB

Tyler Rogers has been named as the starting quarterback for the NM State Aggies for the 2014-15 season.

The Aggies are now 2-2 on the season, having dropped the last two games against UTEP and New Mexico. Rogers has recorded 1,056 yards on 97-of-158 passing, with nine touchdowns and six interceptions. Rogers has also scrambled for 40 yards this year.

In his debut behind center, the sophomore quarterback went 18-27 for 158 yards and two touchdowns. With a pass completion rating off 66.7 percent and only one interception, Rogers had an efficiency rating of 132.86 against Cal Poly.

Rogers is a transfer sophomore who played one year at Western Arizona. He played one season with Arizona Western as the team's starting quarterback. He threw for 1,832 yards and 14 touchdowns with only seven interceptions. Rogers also ran for 364 yards and a team-best 10 touchdowns. Rogers missed two and a half games down the final stretch of the season, but was able to dress for the Matadors third straight appearance in the Fisher Automotive El Toro Bowl.

In high school Rogers was the starting quarterback at Liberty High School for four years, leading his team to three league championships. He threw for 5,903 yards during his high school career, including 76 touchdown passes. Rogers also ran for 1,691 yards and 26 scores. As a senior, Rogers was the league and district player of the year, while also being selected as a first team all-section and second team all-state. He was one of two quarterbacks from Arizona selected to play in the California vs. Arizona All-Star game.

WR Teldrick Morgan Comes Up Big for Aggies

Redshirt sophomore wide receiver Teldrick Morgan has been recording some big numbers for the Aggies, leading NM State in receptions, yards and touchdowns. With 31 catches, 464 yards and four touchdowns, Morgan has become an integral part of the Aggies passing game.

With a career high 202 receiving yards against UTEP, Morgan made his way into the record books with his performance. After the New Mexico game, where Morgan recorded 122 yards on nine receptions, Morgan's 100+ yard streak is at two games and puts him just shy of the record books.

Morgan is on pace to be No. 1 on the receptions in a single season, averaging 7.75 catches per game. If he keeps this pace up, he will end the season with 93 catches, placing him at the top of the rankings. Morgan will also sit atop the single season receiving yards list as well.

Meet the NM State Backfield

The Aggies continue to look for production from their running backs, with high expectations for the ground game in the 2014-15 season. Headlining the backfield will be sophomore back Xavier Hall and senior Brandon Betancourt, assisted by true freshman Larry Rose III.

Rose leads the way for the Aggie backfield, recording 269 yards on 62 carries and scoring one touchdown. Rose also has five receptions for 36 yards and another touchdown. Hall has 37 carries for 146 yards and three touchdowns, while Bettencourt ran 34 times for 159 yards.

Hall and Betancourt are Las Cruces natives; both having successful careers at Las Cruces High and Mayfield High respectively. Rose is coming off of his senior season at Fairfield High in Fairfield, Texas, where he rushed for 2,924 yards on 237 carries and recorded 49 touchdowns.

Last year Betancourt played in eight games for the Aggies, rushing for 415 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 4.5 yards a carry. He also caught 13 receptions for 106 yards and one touchdown, averaging 8.2 yards per catch. Betancourt rushed for a career-high 139 yards against I-25 rival New Mexico (Oct. 5). He followed that performance with 103 yards rushing on 17 carries against Rice (Oct. 19). Versus No. 13 UCLA (Sept. 21) he rushed for 95 yards and one touchdown.

Hall ran for 247 yards on 48 carries and two touchdowns during the 2013 season and recorded seven receptions for 47 yards in 11 games. He averaged 5.1 yards a rush and 6.7 yards a catch, starting the final four games of the year. His best game came against Boston College (Nov. 9), where Hall recorded career-high 95 yards on 14 carries and one touchdown. He also recorded four receptions for 32 yards in the same game.

NM State rushed for 1,701 yards last season on 444 carries. Averaging 3.8 yards a carry and 141.8 yards a game, the Aggies scored 14 touchdowns on the ground last season.

Return of the Lefty

In the 2013-14 season, NM State was one of only two schools in the nation that boasted left footed kickers starting at both punter and place kicker. While punter Cayle Chapman-Brown has left the Aggies, kicker Maxwell Johnson is returning for his senior year.

In his 2014 season debut, Johnson went 4-4 in PATs for a total of four points against the Cal Poly Mustangs on Aug. 28.

On the season, Johnson is 16-16 on PATs and 3-4 on field-goals, with a long of 41 yards against Georgia State Sept. 6.

Johnson played in 12 games for the Aggies in 2013 as a place kicker, kicking 29-of-32 PATs, 10-of-12 field goal and 20 kickoffs. He was 2-of-2 on field goals attempts three times in the season against Rice (Oct. 19), Abilene Christian (Oct. 26) and Boston College (Nov. 9). Johnson recorded his longest field goal of his career, against Rice, a 49-yard kick. Over the last six games of the season, Johnson made 18 straight extra point attempts, including a 5-of-5 performance against Louisiana (Nov. 2).

Johnson on Lou Groza Award Watch List

New Mexico State's Maxwell Johnson was named to the thirty-player Watch List for the 2014 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, as announced by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission.

Johnson returns after he was NM State's leading scorer in 2013. His 10 field goals came in the span of the final eight games, including a pair in the 4th quarter of a 34-29 victory over Abilene Christian.

On the season, Johnson is 16-16 on PATs and 3-4 on field-goals, with a long of 41 yards against Georgia State on Sept. 6.

Accomplishments are tabulated throughout the season and the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award will announce its 20 semifinalists on Thursday, November 6th. From this list, a panel of more than 300 FBS head coaches, SIDs, media members, and former Groza finalists selects the top three finalists for the award by Monday, November 24th. That same group then selects the national winner, who will be announced on Thursday, December 11th during the Home Depot College Football Awards, broadcast live from Orlando, Fla.

Valerian Ume-Ezeoke named to Rimington Trophy Watch List

The Rimington Trophy Committee has released its 2014 Fall Watch List, which features 66 of the best centers in Division I football, including three centers from the Sun Belt Conference. Valerian Ume-Ezeoke was listed among the preseason candidates for the award that annually goes to the nation's best center.

Ume has played all 163 offensive downs for the Aggies while recording three pancakes and a team high 12 knockdowns on the season.

Ume-Ezeoke started at center for the Aggies offensive line during the 2013 season, recording 56.5 knockdowns, second highest on the team. He had a season-high 10 knockdowns against Louisiana (Nov. 2). Ume-Ezeoke's play helped the Aggies' leading rusher Geremi Morrison rush for an average of 4.1 yards a rush on 109 carries for 451 yards and a team-high four rushing touchdowns. His blocking ability also allowed quarterback Andrew McDonald lead the Aggies in passing, throwing for 2,497 yards and 15 touchdowns, averaging 208.1 yards a game. Ume-Ezeoke was also named to the Remington Trophy Watch List last season as well.

While more than a dozen All-America teams are selected annually, the Rimington Trophy committee uses the Walter Camp Foundation, Sporting News and Football Writers Association of America teams to determine a winner. The winner will be recognized at the Rimington Trophy Presentation at the Rococo Theatre in Lincoln, Neb., on Saturday, Jan. 17, 2015.

New Mexico Talent on Display in 2014

The 2014 NM State football team is filled with local players from N.M. The team boasts 17 players from the land of enchantment, with six from the Las Cruces area and nine from the Albuquerque area.

Some of the local players returning from last year are wide receivers Adam Shapiro and Joshua Bowen, running backs Xavier Hall and Brandon Bettencourt and linemen Abram Holland and Matt Ramondo.

Hall and Bettencourt have combined for 305-yards and five touchdowns on 71 carries on the season thus far, while Bowen has seven receptions for 60 yards and one touchdown.

Aggie Walk On Awarded Scholarship

Sophomore Rayvean Moore was awarded with a football scholarship after playing the 2013 season as a walk on. Head coach Doug Martin said Moore earned the scholarship because of his hard work on the field and in the class room.

Moore played in nine games during the 2013 season at wide receiver and on special teams. He had one reception for two yards against San Diego State Sept. 28. Moore red-shirted as a freshman.

Las Cruces Aggies in the Backfield

Sophomore Xavier Hall and senior Brandon Bettencourt both hail from Las Cruces, N.M., and are a just a few of the local talent playing a big role for the Aggies this season.

Hall has 37 carries for 146 yards and three touchdowns, while Bettencourt has run for 159 yards on 34 carries.

In their most recent outing against New Mexico, Hall recorded 61 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries while Bettencourt recorded 19 yards on seven carries.

In the season opener against Cal Poly, Bettencourt, who played for Mayfield HS, had seven carries for 42 yards, with an average of six yards a carry and a long of 17 yards. Hall, who played for Las Cruces HS, had six carries for 22 yards, with a 3.7 yard-average, one touchdown and a long of 13 yards. The two Aggie running backs combined for almost one-fifth of NM State's total offense against the Mustangs.

NM State RB Named to Award Watch List

Aggie freshman running back Larry Rose III was named to the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List Aug. 20, one of 43 players and one of only two freshman named to the list.

The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose award recognizes the top offensive player in Div. 1 football who also exhibits the enduring characteristics that define Earl Campbell: integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, drive, community and tenacity. More specifically the tenacity to overcome adversity and injury in pursuit of reaching goals.

In addition to those attributes, the athlete must be born in Texas and/or graduated from a Texas high school and/or played at a Texas-based junior college or four year college.

Rose is from Fairfield, Texas, where he attended Fairfield High School. Playing running back and defensive back, as a senior Rose was named the Associated Press Sports Editor Class 3A Offensive Player of the Year and a first team all-state selection.

He rushed for 2,924 yards on 237 carries and 49 touchdowns his senior year. He also caught nine passes for 114 yards and three touchdowns. His season high was six scores in one game. Rose helped his team to a 15-1 record, the state championship game, and the No. 19 ranking in the state of Texas. Defensively Rose recorded seven tackles, six pass breakups and one interception.

Of the 43 players to be named to the watch list, there are nine conferences represented as well as three independent schools. By position, 17 wide receivers, 12 running backs, eight quarterbacks, three tight ends, two fullbacks and one halfback were selected for the watch list.

In the season opener against Cal Poly on Aug. 28, Rose had 30 carries for 149 yards and one rushing touchdown, with a long of 24 yards. Rose also had four receptions for 13 yards and a receiving touchdown.

Aggies in the Sun Belt

After playing an independent schedule in the 2013-14 season, the Aggies are now members of the Sun Belt Conference for the 2014-15 season.

After a win against Georgia State on Sept. 6 (34-31), the Aggies are tied with UL Monroe and Georgia Southern for first place in the conference, all three sitting at 1-0 in the conference.

Only three conference games have been played in the Sun Belt thus far. UL Monroe has the best overall record at 2-1, with Georgia Southern and the Aggies both having 2-2 overall records. Arkansas State is 2-2 on the season but has yet to play a conference game.

Founded in 1976, the Sun Belt has adapted and evolved in its nearly 40 year existence. The Sun Belt Conference has a permanent seat on the NCAA's 18-member Board of Directors. With the 2014-15 year marking the debut of the College Football Playoff (CFP) the Sun Belt continues to find itself among the 10 premier college football conferences and the new system is guaranteed universal access based on performance – there are no automatic qualifiers for the playoff system. Additionally, the CFP will mean that a spot among the premier bowl games of college football will be guaranteed to the highest-ranked champion from the other “Group of Five” conferences: the Sun Belt Conference, American Athletic Conference, Mountain West Conference, Mid-American Conference and Conference USA.

With the College Football Playoff included with the league's other bowl arrangements, the Sun Belt Conference is tied to seven total bowl games. The R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, the GoDaddy Bowl, the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl, the Cure Bowl (debuting in 2015) all guarantee a home for a bowl eligible Sun Belt Conference team each year. And beginning with the 2016 season, the Sun Belt is also part of a rotation of conferences that will send a team to the Bahamas Bowl and the Miami Beach Bowl.

The Sun Belt's 21 non-conference football wins in the 2013 season was a new record for the league - eclipsing the mark of 19 set the year prior. Additionally of note for the league's non-conference win total was that the Sun Belt fared well against its peer opponents in the non-AQ BCS ranks. The Sun Belt finished a combined 8-1 against members of Conference-USA (4-1), the Mid-American Conference (3-0) and the Mountain West Conference (1-0). The Sun Belt also had the best overall non-conference win percentage when comparing the four non-AQ conferences.

Aggie Linebackers

The Aggies will have a large void to fill after the departure of senior linebackers Trashaun Nixon and Bryan Bonilla who were second and third respectively for most tackles on the team last year. As a team, NM State recorded 47 tackles for loss a season ago. Nixon and Bonilla accounted for 19 of those 47 tackles for loss. Nixon also led the team with three sacks in his final season with the Aggies.

NM State will be expecting senior returning starter Clint Barnard to make a big impact on the field as he did a season ago. With a very young defense, Barnard will be leaned on for his veteran leadership throughout the course of the season. With 67 tackles last year, which was good for fourth on the team, Barnard will be wreaking havoc in a different way this year after making the move from linebacker to defensive end.

The linebacker position will be totally different from the core that took the field a year ago in terms of experience, but there will not be a drop off in talent. NM State is excited about two young linebackers who look to be cemented in the rotation. True freshman linebacker Derek Ibekwe is looking forward to making a difference for the Aggies after starring at Lamar Consolidated High School in Rosenberg, Texas. Sophomore linebacker Rodney Butler will also be a key factor for this defense after a solid freshman season where he spent time on special teams and finished the season with 39 tackles.

Aggie Underclassmen and Seniors on the Two-Deep

The Aggies rank No. 5 in the nation for most freshman and sophomores on the two-deep roster. Oklahoma state is first with 32 underclassmen in the rotation, followed by Colorado (29) and Utah, Pitt and Wake Forest all with 28.

The Aggies are tied with Texas A&M and place right above Arizona State, Florida and San Jose State all with 26 underclassmen.

NM State also ranks No. 5 in the Nation for fewest seniors in the rotation, with only nine seniors. The Aggies are tied with Washington State and USC, behind Pitt and Arizona State with eight seniors, Baylor (7) and Temple with six.

Looking Ahead

The Aggies’ next game is a Sun Belt Conference game against Georgia Southern, Saturday, Oct. 4 in Aggie Memorial Stadium in Las Cruces, N.M. Kickoff is set for 6 p.m. (MT) and will be aired on TV as AggieVision will be producing the game. The game is also featured as the “Tough Enough to Wear Pink” game, honoring those who have fought against breast cancer, while also raising funds for cancer research.

Head Coach Doug Martin

Doug Martin begins his second season at the helm of the NM State football program in 2014. Martin and the Aggies played as an independent team during Martin's inaugural season at NM State and will play as a member of the Sun Belt Conference in 2014.

Martin was officially announced as the Aggies' 34th head football coach on Feb. 1, 2013, after the departure of former head coach DeWayne Walker to the NFL. Martin was no stranger to the NM State program as he was the Aggie offensive coordinator under Walker in 2011.

NM State went 2-10 in 2013 during Martin's first season as head coach after playing one of the toughest schedules in the school's history. The Aggies faced five teams that had participated in a bowl game the previous season while also playing two teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

NM State kicked off the season with a trip to Austin, Texas, to face the 15th-ranked Texas Longhorns and also made a trip to Los Angeles during the season to play No. 13 UCLA. The Aggies' home schedule included games versus Minnesota, which was the first school out of the Big Ten to play at Aggie Memorial Stadium, and Boston College, which was the first school out of the Atlantic Coast Conference to make a trip to Las Cruces.

The Aggies averaged 20.9 points per game and 382.2 yards per game in 2013, including 141.8 yards per game on the ground and 240.5 yards per game through the air. The team had a season-high 224 yards rushing against Abilene Christian on Oct. 26 and a season-high 380 yards passing and receiving versus Boston College on Nov. 9.

Martin's influence and system began to take shape during the final five games of the season as NM State went 2-3 in those games and had fourth-quarter chances for a win in two of the three losses.

Martin would start making an impact on the squad as soon as he accepted the head coaching position. Before the season began, the Aggies had four players placed on six different preseason watch lists, the most for any NM State football team in the school's history. NM State also had 12 players honored on the College Sports Madness Independent Preseason All-Conference team and 11 players on the Phil Steele College Football Preview All-Independent team.

During the season, senior safety Davis Cazares was nominated as a Bulsworth Trophy finalist, honoring the most outstanding collegiate football player who began his career as a walk-on. Linebacker Clint Barnard would be named to the Capital One Academic All-District VII first team. The Aggies would also pick up three FBS Independent Player of the Week nods in 2013 under Martin, Cazares and Barnard on the defensive side and punter Cayle Chapman-Brown on special teams.

At the conclusion of the 2013 season, NM State would place five players on the All-Independent Football team including Cazares, Trashaun Nixon, Austin Franklin, Andy Cunningham and Davonte Wallace.

In 2012, Martin left his offensive coordinator position at NM State to take the same position for Boston College out of the ACC. The Eagles ranked 47th in the nation in passing offense, as Martin guided wide receiver Alex Amidon and offensive tackle Emmett Cleary to All-ACC honors. Amidon finished the season ranked 11th among all receivers in the country in receiving yards per game (100.8). He ranked second among all ACC receivers in both receptions per game (6.5) and receiving yards per game.

As the offensive coordinator for the Aggies in 2011, Martin helped NM State rank 47th in the country in total offense and 26th in passing offense. He helped guide the Aggies to a win over Minnesota, the program's first win against a team from the Big Ten. Under Martin, the Aggies had three All-WAC selections in wide receiver Taveon Rogers, offensive tackle Davonte Wallace and running back Kenny Turner. Quarterback Matt Christian led the Aggies with 2,158 yards passing and 15 touchdowns in 2011.

With seven seasons under his belt as the head coach at Kent State University and eight as the offensive coordinator, Martin was instrumental in building a true football program at the university. A total of 20 Golden Flashes earned All-Mid-American Conference accolades from 2007-10, including Eugene Jarvis, who was atop the active Football Bowl Subdivision running backs list with 3,722 career yards on the ground, and Brian Lainhart, whose 17 career interceptions was also tops among active FBS players.

In 2010, Roosevelt Nix was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year under Martin's watch. Also under Martin, four players were selected in the NFL draft including Jameson Konz (2010 - 7th round, Seattle Seahawks), Usama Young (2007 - 3rd round, New Orleans Saints), Jack Williams (2008 - 4th round, Denver Broncos) and Julian Edelman (2009 - 7th round, New England Patriots), with Young becoming the sixth-highest pick in the history of the program.

Over the past four years, Martin's offense at Kent State recorded a remarkable 16,907 yards of total offense, averaging 422.6 yards per game during that spanned including 26.3 points a game.

In December of 2006, Martin signed a four-year extension that kept him in Blue and Gold through 2010. The extension rewarded a 2006 campaign that saw Kent State pull off the fourth-largest turnaround in the nation, improving by five wins over the previous year's total.

Included in the performance was a five-game winning streak, including four straight MAC victories - the Flashes' longest conference streak ever. Furthermore, the nation's 25th-ranked team in total defense in 2006, limited Miami and Bowling Green to a combined 17 points as Kent State won road games against the RedHawks and Falcons in the same season for the first time since 1972. Kent State saw five players earn All-MAC accolades.

In addition to his head coaching duties, Martin also served as quarterbacks' coach and was the offensive coordinator for all but the 2009 season.

Martin is widely regarded as one of the nation's premier quarterback mentors. His list of protégés includes three-time All-Conference USA selection and current NFL passer David Garrard, record-setting CFL quarterback Marcus Crandell and other pros Richard Alston and Joshua Cribbs, who both played quarterback in college under Martin before switching positions in the NFL.

In 2005, Martin's spread passing attack posted the third-highest yardage total in school history while the team's 15 touchdown passes were the sixth most in a single year at Kent State. The Flashes also reached the 30-point mark three times in 2005, running the total number of games with at least that many points to 16 since 2003.

In Martin's first season, the Golden Flashes posted a 5-6 overall record, winning their final four games for the program's longest winning streak since 1976. The team also finished in fourth place in the MAC East Division with a 4-4 mark while producing three All-MAC players and two honorable mention All-Americans.

Martin also handled the offensive play-calling duties and the unit responded to his coaching, scoring 335 points and racking up 4,168 yards, the second- and third-highest totals, respectively, in school history.

Under his guidance, the Flashes averaged 30.5 points per game, just the third time in school history a team averaged 30 or more points. The team also set a single-game scoring mark in its 69-17 win over Eastern Michigan Nov. 13. Four times in 2004 the Flashes totaled more than 400 yards on offense, including two games over 500.

Additionally, in two years tutoring All-MAC quarterback Joshua Cribbs, Martin saw Cribbs develop into one of the top dual threats in the country. Always a talented runner, Cribbs finished his career as the owner of KSU career records for total offense, passing yardage, touchdowns, points and completions. He also ranked fourth nationally in total offense and completed a school-record 64.5 percent of his passes. As a team, the Flashes had a completion rate of 62.8 percent, also a school record.

While his spread offensive style is his calling card, Martin revamped his defensive coaching staff and saw that unit go from ranking 12th of 14 teams in the MAC in total defense in 2003 to first in the league in 2004. It marked the first time since 1987 that the team led the MAC in total defense and just the second time since joining the conference in 1951. Kent State also ranked 15th nationally in total defense.

Martin was named the school's 19th head coach on March 1, 2004, replacing Dean Pees. Martin joined the Kent State staff in January 2003 as offensive coordinator. After just one year on the staff, Martin made an instant impact on the Golden Flashes' offense. In its first season under Martin's system, Kent State averaged 26.8 points per game, the second-highest in the last 30 years, and scored 30-or-more points in each of the final six games and did so in a school-record eight games overall.

From 2002-04 Martin's teams averaged nearly 30 points per game and posted the highest offensive totals in back-to-back years in school history. From 2002-03 alone, scoring offense increased by 10 points, touchdowns grew from 24 to 40, total offense was up by more than 40 yards per game and passing yardage increased by nearly 100 yards per game.

In 2004, that trend continued as the Flashes' increased their scoring, touchdowns, passing yards and total yards per game.

Martin arrived at Kent State following 11 seasons at East Carolina University, the last seven of which he was in charge of the team's offense. He was at ECU for all of Steve Logan's tenure there, serving as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator for two seasons (1992-93), then another two years as wide receivers coach (1994-95) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1996.

At East Carolina, Martin played a significant role in the development of quarterback David Garrard, who broke 28 school passing records and total offensive records from 1998-01. In addition, Martin coached the top three receivers in ECU history. During Martin's time at ECU, the team advanced to five bowl games; the Liberty Bowl in 1994 and 1995, the GMAC (formerly Mobile Alabama) Bowl in 1999 and 2001 and the galleryfurniture.com Bowl in 2000.

Prior to joining the staff at East Carolina, Martin was a graduate assistant at the University of Kentucky, his alma mater, from 1986-87 and then spent the 1988-91 seasons at East Tennessee State University, where he coached the running backs his first year; then served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/wide receivers coach his final three seasons.

Martin was a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky from 1981-84, spending time as a part-time starter at quarterback before injuries limited him to the holder role. A native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Martin earned a bachelor's degree in history from Kentucky in 1985.

Martin and his wife Vicki have a daughter, Molly, and two sons, Cory and Bobby.
