WHAT TO WATCH FOR

- Ole Miss is bowl eligible for the third straight season under Hugh Freeze.
- The Rebels are 7-0 for the first time since 1962, when they went 10-0 and earned a share of the national title.
- A win over LSU would give Ole Miss its second 8-0 start in program history.
- Ole Miss' No. 3 ranking in the national polls is its highest since being ranked No. 1 in the 1964 preseason poll.
- Ole Miss is one of four remaining undefeated Division I FBS teams.
- Ole Miss leads the nation in scoring defense (10.6 ppg) and has given up a nation-low seven touchdowns.
- The Ole Miss defense has scored almost as many touchdowns (4) as it has allowed (6) this season.
- Ole Miss leads the SEC and is tied for first nationally with 15 interceptions.
- This game marks the 103rd all-time between the Ole Miss Rebels and LSU Tigers dating back to 1894 ... LSU is Ole Miss' second-most played opponent behind Mississippi State ... LSU holds a 58-40-4 advantage in the series, 38-24-1 in Baton Rouge ... Since the rivals started playing for the Magnolia Bowl trophy in 2008, the series is tied 3-3.
- The Rebels' 24 wins in Baton Rouge are second-most by any team (Alabama has 26).
- Ole Miss is 4-7 against ranked teams under Freeze, but is 2-0 this season.
- ESPN's "College GameDay" will air live from Baton Rouge, the second time they've been to an Ole Miss game.

OLE MISS REBELS IN 2014

"OLE MISS HAS TO BE CONSIDERED THE LEAGUE FAVORITE NOW, AND THAT'S GOOD ENOUGH TO MERIT THE NO. 1 SEED IN THE CURRENT PLAYOFF PROJECTION."

- JERRY PALM, CBSSSPORTS.COM (OCT. 12)

MARCUS SPEARS | SEC NETWORK ANALYST | OCT. 11

"This Ole Miss defense is the best defense in the country."

TIM TEBOW | SEC NETWORK ANALYST | OCT. 17

"What stands out is the heart they play with offensively and defensively. Everybody talks about the Landshark defense flying around, but you look at guys like Jaylen Walton fighting through tackles. That's just heart. They play together and they play as a family."

KIRK HERBSTREIT | ESPN ANALYST | OCT. 11

"They just attack the line of scrimmage and they have great depth. They outfight you in the trenches, and if you're not going to match their enthusiasm and effort, it's going to be a long day."

IVAN ROBINSON | TEXAS A&M DL | OCT. 11

on Bo Wallace and Dak Prescott

"Playing both of them, they're both great quarterbacks. They both will be in the running for the Heisman, definitely."

LEE FITTING | ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY PRODUCER | OCT. 5

"This was the best on-campus experience I've been part of as GameDay producer. It wasn't a show, it was an event, and it was because you have such a great natural character in The Grove ... It's a place, and an event, that every college football fan has to experience in person."

NICK SABAN | ALABAMA HEAD COACH | OCT. 4

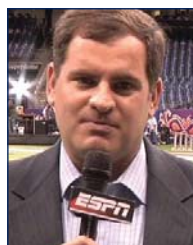

"They play hard. They are extremely aggressive on defense. Ole Miss has some big play-makers on offense and they made big plays today."

LEE CORSO | ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY | OCT. 4

"I've been at ESPN 27 years and I've always wanted to come to this place, The Grove. It's the most beautiful place I've ever been."

MARK SCHLABACH | ESPN.COM WRITER | OCT. 4

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Ole Miss holds its weekly fall press conference each Monday of the regular season at 12:15 p.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field. Coach Hugh Freeze will be followed by QB Bo Wallace at the podium. Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone beginning at 12:30 p.m.

PRACTICES: There is media availability on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon practices during the season. If you do not regularly attend practices, please contact Media Relations prior to your visit for exact details on times and location. Media attending practice should meet in the Manning Center team meeting room each open day, and media relations staff will escort them to practice for the select open periods. Interviews will be in the team room following practice. Media are advised to park in the lot behind the Track complex off Manning Way and walk along the sidewalk on the east side of the Manning Center to the outside entrance of the NFL hallway. Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. Photographers must use tight shots and no formations. Use of video footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day.

AUDIO/VIDEO RESTRICTIONS: Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live without prior consent of the athletics department. Audio/video use of content from press conferences and media opportunities is limited to five minutes per individual (coach or student-athlete) per day, and use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Athletics. Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Ole Miss Sports Productions at 662-915-3407 or micah@olemiss.edu.

WEEKDAY PARKING: Media members that attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events during the week should make arrangements with campus parking by visiting www.olemiss.edu/parking/media.html.

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspapers; (2) network affiliate television stations; (3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; (4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations.

MEDIA WILL-CALL: If not received by mail, credentials may be picked up at the media "Will Call" table at Gate 26 in the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, beginning three hours prior to kickoff. Please be mindful that parking passes cannot be picked up at will-call and must be received prior to gameday.

GAMEDAY PARKING: Gameday media parking passes should be requested at the same time as press box or sideline passes. Only a limited number of parking passes are available, and media may be confined to one pass per outlet. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes. All photographers must exchange their photo pass for an armband in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be done at the media "Will Call" table. Gameday flip cards will be available at that location.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Athletics Media Relations office representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Media Relations staff will collect interview requests at the start of the fourth quarter and will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, beginning with five minutes remaining in the game. For home games, Coach Freeze will hold a postgame press conference in the team meeting room of the Manning Center, and requested players and assistant coaches will be available in that room afterward. Visiting team interviews are held in the photo room outside of the visiting team locker room. For postgame press opportunities for either team, media should exit the sidelines through the visiting team tunnel in the southeast corner of the stadium.

LAST FIVE GAMES AGAINST LSU

October 19, 2013 • Oxford, Miss. • Ole Miss 27, #6 LSU 24: Ole Miss defeated No. 6 LSU 27-24 on a 41-yard field goal by senior kicker Andrew Ritter with two seconds left on the clock. The Ole Miss defense logged three interceptions, and sophomore running back Jaylen Walton, who was playing for injured running back Jeff Scott, rushed for 105 yards and two touchdowns, both career highs. Ole Miss junior quarterback Bo Wallace went 30-39 for 346 yards, and junior wide receiver Donte Moncrief had five catches for 107 yards.

November 17, 2012 • Baton Rouge, La. • #7 LSU 41, Ole Miss 35: Ole Miss sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief had a career day with 161 receiving yards and two touchdowns, but LSU scored with seconds remaining to win an offensive battle 41-35 in the fifth Magnolia Bowl in front of 92,872 at Tiger Stadium.

November 19, 2011 • Oxford, Miss. • #1 LSU 52, Ole Miss 3: Quarterback Barry Brunetti rushed for 74 yards on 15 carries, but Ole Miss fell to No. 1 LSU 52-3 on senior night at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ron Brooks returned an interception for a touchdown 28 seconds into the game and LSU built a 35-3 lead by halftime and rushed for 353 yards.

November 20, 2010 • Baton Rouge, La. • #5 LSU 43, Ole Miss 36: Brandon Bolden scored two touchdowns and Ole Miss tallied the most points against LSU by any team in 2010, but the fifth-ranked Tigers scored the go-ahead touchdown with 44 seconds left in the game to win the third Magnolia Bowl. Bolden rushed for 91 yards and two TDs and Jeremiah Masoli finished 15 of 23 for 177 yards, one TD and two picks.

November 21, 2009 • Oxford, Miss. • Ole Miss 25, #8 LSU 23: Time ran out on No. 8 LSU before it could attempt a short, potential game-winning field goal and Dexter McCluster and Ole Miss survived a frantic final minute to come away with the victory. McCluster ran for 148 yards and passed for a touchdown, a 27-yarder to wide-open Shay Hodge. Hodge had seven catches for 117 yards.

OLE MISS HEAD COACH HUGH FREEZE

Hugh Freeze (Southern Miss, 1992) is in his third season at the Ole Miss helm. He inherited a team that went 2-10 and winless in SEC games in 2011 and has brought them all the way to a 7-0 start and No. 3 national ranking in less than three years. He owns a 22-11 mark in Oxford and a career record of 52-18. The 2013 Grant Teaff FCA Coach of the Year has led the Rebels to back-to-back bowl victories and has also ramped up the Rebels' recruiting efforts with back-to-back top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 class that ranked top five in the nation. Under Freeze, Ole Miss has set numerous offensive school records and the program has also seen attendance and ticket sales soar to new heights. He was named the University's 37th head football coach on Dec. 5, 2011, coming to Oxford after one year as head coach at Arkansas State where he led the Red Wolves to a 10-2 season and the 2011 Sun Belt Conference title and was tabbed Sun Belt Coach of the Year. It is his second stint at Ole Miss, as he was a member of the Rebel coaching staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with two of the top classes in school history.

LSU HEAD COACH LES MILES

Les Miles (Michigan, 1976) is in his 10th year as the head coach of the Louisiana State football program. Miles, 61, came to LSU after four seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State, where he posted a 28-21 record and lost to Ole Miss in the 2004 Cotton Bowl. Miles has posted a 101-26 record with the Tigers and has captured the 2007 and 2011 SEC titles and the 2007 BCS National Championship. Last year, LSU went 10-3 overall (5-3 SEC) and beat Iowa in the Outback Bowl. In his career at Oklahoma State and LSU, Miles has posted a 6-4 record against the Rebels including a 5-4 mark as the head coach of the Tigers.

LSU SCOUTING REPORT

The LSU Tigers (6-2, 2-2 SEC) are ranked No. 23 in the country this week after a dominating 41-3 win over Kentucky this past Saturday. LSU's defense is allowing just 17.0 points per game (eighth-best in the country) and an SEC-best 156.2 passing yards per outing (fourth-best in the country). The defense has been particularly stingy on third down, allowing opponents to convert just 28.7 percent of the time, second-best in the SEC and ninth-best nationally. An inconsistent offense still ranks sixth in the SEC in rushing (220.9 ypg) and seventh in scoring (35.6 ppg). LSU has not had a bye week yet and won't until Nov. 1. The Tigers are looking to avenge last year's 27-24 loss to Ole Miss in Oxford.

HOME GAMES IN CAPS

AND THEN THERE WERE FOUR

- Ole Miss is one of just four remaining undefeated Division I FBS teams, along with Florida State (7-0), Marshall (7-0) and Mississippi State (6-0).
- Florida State is off this week before playing at Louisville next Thursday.
- Marshall hosts Florida Atlantic (3-4) on Saturday.
- Mississippi State travels to Kentucky (5-2) on Saturday.

BEST START SINCE 1962

- The Rebels are off to their best start since 1962, when the Rebels were 7-0 on their way to a perfect 10-0 season.
- Also in 1962, John F. Kennedy was the U.S. President, John Glenn became the first American to orbit the Earth, Lawrence of Arabia won the Oscar for best picture and the first flavored potato chips (salt & vinegar) were introduced.
- Those are the only two 7-0 starts in program history - 1962 and 2014.

SEC GAUNTLET

- This will be the third time in four weeks that Ole Miss will play a nationally ranked team out of the SEC West.
- The Rebels are 2-0 against SEC West teams and 2-0 against SEC East foes this season.
- The Rebels' remaining schedule includes No. 23 LSU, No. 5 Auburn, and No. 1 Mississippi State.
- The combined record of the Rebels' four remaining FBS opponents is 18-7.

IN THE POLLS

- Ole Miss remained third in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches poll this week after its 34-3 victory over Tennessee ... The Rebels are receiving a handful of first-place votes for the second straight week.
- The No. 3 ranking is the Rebels' highest since being preseason No. 1 in 1964.
- The last two times Ole Miss cracked the top five were 2009 and 1970, both at No. 4.
- Ole Miss has been ranked top 25 in all nine weeks this season, which is its longest streak of being ranked since appearing in nine straight polls to end the 1990 season.
- This week is the first time one league has ever had four of the nation's top five teams in the AP Poll, much less the same division.
- This is the highest Ole Miss has been ranked when it plays LSU since 1963, when Ole Miss was No. 3 and defeated unranked LSU 37-3.
- This is the first time Ole Miss and LSU have met as ranked teams since 2003 (No. 3 LSU defeated No. 15 Ole Miss 17-14 in Oxford).
- This is the first time Ole Miss and LSU have met as ranked teams in Baton Rouge since 1970 (No. 8 LSU defeated No. 16 Ole Miss 61-17).
- The Rebels' No. 18 preseason ranking was its highest since it was No. 8 in the 2009 preseason polls.
- The Rebels have been ranked top 25 for a total of 14 weeks during Hugh Freeze's tenure as head coach.

REBELS VERSUS RANKED OPPONENTS

- In No. 23 LSU, Ole Miss encounters its third nationally ranked opponent of the season, all in the last four weeks.
- Ole Miss has defeated No. 1 Alabama (23-17) and No. 14 Texas A&M (35-20) in its previous outings this year.
- Last year, the Rebels went 1-3 against ranked teams, with their lone win over No. 6 LSU (27-24).
- Ole Miss is 62-144-2 all-time versus ranked teams and 4-7 with Hugh Freeze at the helm.

LOUISIANA REBELS

The Ole Miss roster features just two players from the neighboring state of Louisiana: Eugene Brazley (New Orleans) and Garrald McDowell (Covington).

REBEL-TIGER CONNECTIONS

- Ole Miss S Trae Elston and LSU LB Kwon Alexander were teammates in 2012 at Oxford High School in Oxford, Ala.
- Ole Miss RB Jaylen Walton and LSU DE Justin Maclin were teammates at Ridgeway High School in Memphis, Tenn.
- Ole Miss DT Lavon Hooks and LSU TE Logan Stokes were teammates in 2013 at Northeast Mississippi CC.
- Ole Miss strength coach Paul Jackson was an assistant strength coach at LSU from 2007-10.
- LSU RB coach and recruiting coordinator Frank Wilson served in the same positions at Ole Miss from 2005-07.

ESPN'S 'COLLEGE GAMEDAY' TO FEATURE OLE MISS AGAIN

- ESPN's "College GameDay" built by The Home Depot, will feature Ole Miss for the second time this year when it airs live from Baton Rouge this Saturday.
- The popular pre-game show is airing from the site of an Ole Miss game for the second time this year after not doing so in the previous 27 years.
- GameDay's episode from The Grove (Oct. 4) was its most-viewed of the 2014 season.
- Pop superstar Katy Perry was the celebrity guest picker and the only one at the table to correctly predict the Rebels' upset of the Alabama Crimson Tide.
- Lee Corso said about The Grove: "It's the most beautiful place I've ever been."
- Lee Fitting said it was "the best on-campus experience" he's been a part of in his 11 years as GameDay producer.

ROAD WARRIORS

- The Rebels showed they are just as capable of winning a big game on the road as they are at home with a 35-20 win over then-No. 14 Texas A&M on Oct. 4.
- Ole Miss jumped out to a 21-0 first-half lead on their way to the school's first road win over a ranked team since beating No. 4 Florida in The Swamp in 2008.
- Ole Miss is 3-0 this season away from home with wins over Boise State (Atlanta), Vanderbilt (Nashville) and Texas A&M (College Station).

NATION'S BEST DEFENSE?

- Ole Miss leads the nation in scoring defense (10.6 ppg) and has given up a nation-low seven touchdowns.
- The Rebel defense has allowed only 9.3 ppg (Alabama scored on a fumble recovery; Louisiana-Lafayette had a safety).
- The Ole Miss defense has scored almost as many touchdowns (4) as it has allowed (6) this season.
- The Rebels' first-string defense has allowed only three touchdowns (one to Alabama, two to Texas A&M) all year.
- Ole Miss is the only school in the nation that hasn't allowed an opponent to score more than 20 points this season.

- Memphis ran two plays inside the 20-yard line and one inside the 10 and came away with 3 points.
- Alabama ran eight plays inside the 20-yard line, four inside the 10 and four inside the 5 and came away with 10 points.
- Texas A&M ran six plays inside the 20-yard line, two inside the 10 and one inside the 5 and came away with 13 points.
- Tennessee ran three plays inside the 20-yard line and one inside the 10 and came away with 3 points.

DOWN GOES NO. 1

- Ole Miss posted its first ever win over the nation's No. 1 team with a 23-17 triumph over Alabama on Oct. 4.
- The Rebels are now 1-10 all-time against the top-ranked team in the land.
- It was the Rebels' first win over Alabama since 2003, snapping a 10-game skid in the series.
- Jaylen Walton hauled in the game-winning 10-yard touchdown pass from Bo Wallace.
- Wallace led a furious fourth-quarter comeback with game-tying and game-winning TD passes in the final six minutes.
- Senquez Golson had a late interception in the end zone to secure the historic victory.
- Students rushed the field after the game and took down both goalposts, carrying them through The Grove and the Oxford Square during the postgame celebrations.
- Ole Miss was fined $50,000 by the SEC (for fans rushing the field) and also had to replace $22,000 for the goalposts and another $3,000 for extra repairs ... Ole Miss set up an online giving site and Rebel Nation responded by donating $50,000 in less than 2 hours, covering the $75,000 goal within 4 hours, and donating a total of $105,000.

SEC'S TOP ACTIVE QUARTERBACK

Senior QB Bo Wallace is the SEC's active leader in several stat categories.

- SEC active leader in career total offensive yards (9,106), touchdown responsibility (73), completions (655), attempts (1,014), passing yards (8,239) and touchdown passes (57).
- SEC's top returning passer from last year with 3,346 yards through the air.
- Tied for school record with 10 300-yard passing games and ranks second in school history in total offensive yards, touchdown responsibility, passing yards, completions, attempts, passing touchdowns and total offensive plays.

ALL-AMERICAN CODY PREWITT

Senior free safety Cody Prewitt can say for the rest of his life that he was an All-American college football player.

- Prewitt is the first player to return to Ole Miss as a first team All-American since Patrick Willis in 2006.
- Tied for eighth in school history with 11 career interceptions.
- Has two interceptions this year, including a 75-yard return for a touchdown against Texas A&M.
- Led the SEC and ranked seventh nationally with six interceptions last year.
- Tops all active Rebels in career games (45) and starts (35).

GOLSON SHINES IN SENIOR YEAR

Cornerback Senquez Golson, in his third year as a starter, is enjoying a breakout senior season.

- Golson leads the SEC and is second nationally with seven interceptions ... Tied for best in the nation with 1.0 interceptions per game.
- Also leads the SEC and is tied for eighth nationally with 11 passes defended.
- His seven interceptions are tied for fourth-most in a season in school history.
- He's intercepted passes against Boise State, Louisiana-Lafayette (2), Alabama, Texas A&M and Tennessee (2).
- His interception in the end zone with 38 seconds left in the game secured Ole Miss' victory over No. 1 Alabama.
- He returned one of his two interceptions against the Ragin' Cajuns for a 59-yard touchdown.

FUN FACTS

- Pop superstar Katy Perry was the guest picker for ESPN's College GameDay in The Grove ... Other celebrities in Oxford for the Ole Miss-Alabama game: Woody Harrelson, Ronnie Dunn, Zac Efron, Liam Hemsworth, Octavia Spencer and several Memphis Grizzlies, including Mike Conley and Vince Carter.
- Ole Miss and Mississippi State are ranked in the top 10 at the same time for the first time in history.
- When Deterrian Shackelford was a freshman at Ole Miss in 2009, most of the members of this year's freshman class were starting the eighth grade.
- Denzel and Robert Nkemdiche entered the 2014 season with the third-most career tackles (151) among current college football brother tandems. Only Duke's Kelby and Kyler Brown (315) and Utah State's Zach and Nick Vigil (290) had more.
- Five current Ole Miss players have already earned their college degrees - Will Denny, Dylan Dyer, Chase Hughes, Deterrian Shackelford and Bo Wallace. In fact, Shackelford already has a bachelor's and master's degree.
- Quintavius Burdette and Kailo Moore also compete on the Ole Miss track & field team.
- Redshirt-freshman WR Cale Luke is a third-generation Ole Miss football player (father, Tom; grandfather, Tommy).

SUPER SOPHOMORES

- In the Rebels' sophomore class alone, there are four preseason All-Americans (Evan Engram, Robert Nkemdiche, Laquon Treadwell, Laremy Tunsil) and five preseason All-SEC picks (those four plus Tony Conner).
- Treadwell, last year's SEC Freshman of the Year, ranks sixth in the league in catches (4.9/game), sixth in receiving yards (65.4 ypg) and tied for seventh with four TD catches.
- Nkemdiche and Conner have been mainstays for a Rebel defense that leads the nation in scoring (10.6 ppg allowed) and fewest touchdowns allowed (six) ... Conner leads the team with 42 tackles and is second with 4.5 tackles for loss.
- Engram and Tunsil became the first ever Ole Miss freshmen to earn All-SEC honors after they were both named to the Associated Press second team last year.

OLE MISS SOLD OUT OF SEASON TICKETS

For the second straight year, Ole Miss has sold out of football season tickets - this year with a school-record 51,316. That surpasses the previous school record of 50,386 set last year.

- The sold-out Tennessee game crowd of 62,081 is the third-largest in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium history.
- The sold-out Alabama game crowd of 61,826 is the fifth-largest in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium history.
- The Auburn and Mississippi State games are also sold out ... Fans looking to purchase tickets are encouraged to visit Vivid Seats, the Official Ticket Reseller of Ole Miss Athletics:

- Tickets are on sale for the Presbyterian game ... Visit the ticket link at OleMissSports.com or call 888-REB-TKTS.

ODDS AND ENDS

- The Rebels are bowl eligible and have won at least seven games for the third straight year under Hugh Freeze.
- Ole Miss is 4-0 in SEC play for the first time since 2003, when it started 6-0 before a loss to LSU.
- With wins over No. 1 Alabama (Oct. 4) and No. 14 Texas A&M (Oct. 11), Ole Miss was victorious over ranked teams in consecutive weeks for the first time in program history.
- The last time Ole Miss had two regular-season wins over ranked teams was 2008.
- Ole Miss has out-scored opponents 55-3 in the first quarter and 82-25 in the fourth quarter this season.
- Ole Miss ranks second in the SEC and is tied for fifth nationally in turnover margin (+10).
- Fifteen different Rebels have scored a touchdown this season (11 on offense, four on defense).
- Ole Miss is 16-2 under Freeze when leading at the half, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 2013 and 6-0 mark this year.
- Ole Miss is 18-2 under Freeze when it rushes for 150 or more yards, 4-9 when it rushes for less than 150 yards.
- The team's 41-3 win over Vanderbilt was its largest SEC margin of victory since 2008 (45-0 over Mississippi State).
- The Vanderbilt game was the first time the Rebels did not punt in a game since 2002 vs. Arkansas State.
- Ole Miss faces Boise State and Presbyterian for the first time this year.
- The Rebels are one of a handful of schools in the country to keep their entire coaching staff intact from last season.
- Ole Miss played its first two games of the season at NFL stadiums (Atlanta's Georgia Dome and Nashville's LP Field).

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, "Landshark" is a term adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "fins up" also contributes to the players' persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the "Landshark" celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have even performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team.

Roots of the "Landshark" at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term "Landshark" originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the "Landshark."

OFFENSIVE NOTES

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

In the spring, graduate LB Deterrian Shackelford became the first ever two-time recipient of the Chucky Mullins Courage Award, which goes to a defensive player each year. The award, in its 25th year of existence, honors the late Chucky Mullins, who had his Ole Miss career come to an end during the 1989 Homecoming game against Vanderbilt when he was paralyzed after making a tackle. After returning to his studies at Ole Miss, Mullins passed away May 6, 1991. Shackelford wears the No. 38 jersey in Mullins' honor this season.

SHACKELFORD HONORED FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Linebacker Deterrian Shackelford is a member of the SEC Community Service Team for the second straight year and has also been selected to the AFCA Good Works Team.
- Shackelford is a graduate student with a master's degree in higher education, and he is currently pursuing a second master's degree.
- Among his many community service efforts since becoming a Rebel, he helped lead a 2013 spring break mission trip to Panama and a 2014 spring break mission trip to Haiti.

LONG-TIME OLE MISS RADIO REPORTER STAN SANDRONI PASSES AWAY

Long-time sideline reporter Stan Sandroni passed away suddenly of a heart attack Sept. 10. In his 26th season with Ole Miss, Sandroni handled the football sideline reports and Locker Room Show until his passing. In his career in Oxford, he had also announced men's and women's basketball games and served various other roles on the Ole Miss Radio Network.

WESLEY WALLS ELECTED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Ole Miss All-American Wesley Walls will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame this December and was honored on the field during the Alabama game (Oct. 4) as part of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame On-Campus Salutes. He received a Hall of Fame plaque that will go on permanent display at Ole Miss. One of the most acclaimed players in Ole Miss history, Walls received first team All-America honors in 1988 at tight end while also being recognized as an NFF National Scholar-Athlete. The Pontotoc, Mississippi, native, who went on to enjoy a successful NFL career, is the ninth former player or coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an Ole Miss Rebel. Two other members of the Ole Miss family have also been enshrined in the hall.

BOISE STATE NOTES

GENERAL: This was the first meeting all-time between Ole Miss and Boise State ... The Rebels are now 6-3 all-time against current members of the Mountain West Conference ... Attendance at the Georgia Dome was 32,823 ... Ole Miss improved to 89-26-5 all-time in season openers and have won 16 of the last 19 ... The Rebels won their seventh straight season opener away from home ... Ole Miss remains perfect in August games with an all-time record of 8-0 ... After a slow start, Ole Miss ended up tying the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record with 35 points in the game ... The Rebels' 28 fourth-quarter points were the most points in a quarter since scoring 28 in the fourth quarter against Memphis in the 2009 season opener ... Ole Miss and Boise State's combined seven interceptions set a Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record.

OFFENSE: Senior QB Bo Wallace finished 25-of-36 through the air for 387 yards and four touchdowns, setting a Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record for TD passes ... Wallace moved ahead of Romaro Miller into third place on the school's all-time passing touchdowns list with 44 and passed Archie Manning into second place with 59 career touchdowns responsible for ... Sophomore WR Laquon Treadwell recorded his first career 100-yard receiving game with a career-high 105 yards on seven catches ... He has made a catch in every game of his Rebel career (14 straight) ... Junior WR Cody Core made his first career start a memorable one with four catches for a career-high 110 yards and two touchdowns (30 yards and 76 yards from Wallace) ... Those were his first career scores, and he set a Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record with two receiving TDs ... Sophomore RB Mark Dodson led the team with 27 rushing yards (four carries) and scored a 19-yard fourth-quarter touchdown.

DEFENSE: With four INTs, Ole Miss recorded its most since picking off four passes against Southern Illinois in 2011 ... Their four INTs tied a Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game record ... The Landshark "D" racked up eight tackles for loss and three sacks ... Senior CB Senquez Golson made the Rebels' first interception of the year and the seventh of his career ... Junior DE C.J. Johnson intercepted a pass off a deflection, the first pick of his career ... Senior FS Cody Prewitt snagged his first interception of the year after he led the SEC with six picks last season ... Sophomore DB Tony Conner recorded his second career interception.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Redshirt-freshman P Will Gleeson had a nice college debut with four punts for a 47.2-yard average with three inside the 20 and a long punt of 70 yards.

VANDERBILT NOTES

GENERAL: This was the 89th meeting all-time between Ole Miss and Vanderbilt dating back to 1894 ... The Rebels now lead the series 49-38-2 and 49-20-2 in SEC games ... Attendance at LP Field was 43,260 ... Ole Miss improved to 32-46-3 all-time in SEC openers ... @COACHHUGHFREEZE

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

Inheriting a team that won just two games in 2011 and had lost 14 straight Southeastern Conference games, Freeze has turned Ole Miss into the No. 3 nationally ranked team with a 5-0 record and one of the nation's top defenses in 2014.

Freeze led Ole Miss to 15 wins in his first two years, including six SEC victories, and two bowl wins.

After guiding the Rebels to a 2013 Music City Bowl win, Freeze became just the third coach in school history to take the team to a postseason bowl in each of his first two seasons at the helm. For his efforts, he was named the 2013 Grant Teaff Coach of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

The Rebels' 8-5 record after defeating Georgia Tech 25-17 in the Music City Bowl gave Ole Miss consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since the 2008-09 seasons. With the support of a rabid Rebel Nation, Ole Miss set a season attendance record and a season ticket sales record.

Those fans that filled Vaught-Hemingway Stadium each Saturday were treated to another exciting offensive season in 2013. The Rebels eclipsed 500 total yards in four of their final five home games, including a program-record 751 yards in a rout of Troy. The Rebel offense finished the season with a school-record 6,153 total yards and ranked 21st nationally and fifth in the SEC in total offense (473.3 ypg).

A month after the Rebels capped off the 2012 season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

The Rebel offense saw a dramatic turnaround under Freeze in 2012. With many of the same players, he took a team that had ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the league and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 19 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. In the best debut season ever by an A-State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. The Sun Belt Coach of the Year also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program. Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

LAST MEETING: OLE MISS 27, #6 LSU 24

Game #7 • Oct. 19, 2013

Attendance: 61,160 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - The last time the Ole Miss football team defeated a top-10 ranked opponent its highly touted freshman class was in the midst of its freshman year in high school, and head coach Hugh Freeze was leading the now defunct Lambuth University football program.

Four years later, facing the same school it did Nov. 21, 2009, Ole Miss (4-3, 2-3 Southeastern Conference) defeated No. 6 LSU 27-24 on a 41-yard field goal by senior kicker Andrew Ritter with two seconds left on the clock.

"I'm extremely proud and thankful that God chose to bless us tonight," Freeze said. "Sometimes God wets the wood before he lights it. We've gone through our share of being drenched a little. We're thrilled to represent our university and Rebel Nation out there in a battle between two good football teams. I couldn't be more proud of those young kids. We still didn't make it pretty. We did some things that made it a bit difficult, but we found a way to get it done."

Playing in front of 61,160 fans, the ninth-largest crowd in program history, the Ole Miss defense logged three interceptions, and sophomore running back Jaylen Walton, who was playing for injured running back Jeff Scott, rushed for 105 yards and two touchdowns, both career highs. Ole Miss junior quarterback Bo Wallace went 30-39 for 346 yards, and junior wide receiver Donte Moncrief had five catches for 107 yards.

The Ole Miss defense, decimated by injuries to four starters, tallied its most interceptions in a game (three) since picking off three passes against Tulane last season. The Rebels' 10-0 lead at the half marked the first time LSU (6-2, 3-2 SEC) had been shutout in the opening half of a game since the 2011-12 national championship game against Alabama.

The win over No. 6 LSU was the highest ranked opponent Ole Miss has defeated since 2008, when the Rebels topped No. 4 Florida.

Junior safety Cody Prewitt, who recorded his team-high fourth interception Saturday, reminded Rebel Nation after the game of the promise he made at the beginning of the season.

"Buckle up," Prewitt said. "It's going to be a long, fun ride."

Game #7 • Oct. 18, 2014

OXFORD, Miss. - Gosh almighty, that defense is good.

As it has done all season, the No. 3 Ole Miss football team displayed an impressive performance en route to a victory, and as has been the case throughout the year, it was the Rebels' famed "Landshark" defense that shined brightest. Holding the visiting Tennessee Volunteers to zero yards rushing, Ole Miss cruised to a 34-3 victory and improved to 7-0 on the year and 4-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

"I'm really proud of a lot of things tonight. There are also a lot of things that will most certainly keep us grounded," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "We need to work on some things to be more efficient and get better. We're a team that plays to our strengths until we get the right opening. We're playing so well right now. We held them to zero rushing yards. Our punt and coverage unit is playing so solid. ... We found some things right before the half and were able to get more efficient rushing the ball. Offensively, we didn't turn the ball over. That's huge in league games. Hopefully that trend will continue."

Playing in front of the third-largest crowd in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium's history (62,081), Ole Miss forced four turnovers and a turnover on downs. As a unit, the Rebels now have 15 interceptions on the year, which leads the country, and the Ole Miss defense has forced a turnover in 30 straight games, which is the second longest active streak among FBS schools.

Individually, CB Senquez Golson continued his fantastic senior campaign by picking off two passes, giving him seven on the year, which is tied for the fourth most in a season in program history. Similarly, DE Marquis Haynes continued his fantastic freshman campaign with 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery.

With the defense playing as well as it is, Freeze said it has allowed them to be a bit more conservative with their offensive play calling so as to not give the opposition a shorter field with a turnover.

"You can tell from our play calling that we're comfortable as long as the defense is playing like they are," Freeze said. "We're very cautious at times. You have to figure if we can score 17-20 points then we have a chance to win a lot of games with the way we're playing."

Senior QB Bo Wallace threw for 199 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers. Wallace still has yet to turn the ball over in SEC play, while throwing seven touchdowns and running in another two.

#18 OLE MISS 35, BOISE STATE 13

Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game • Game #1 • Aug. 28, 2014
Attendance: 32,823 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA - Beauty, as they say, is in the eye of the beholder. For the No. 18 Ole Miss football team, it wasn't always pretty Thursday night at the Georgia Dome, but at the end of the night the Rebels accomplished their goal and sit at 1-0 after a 35-13 victory over Boise State in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game.

For those who love strong defense, the Rebels opened the season with flying colors. For the folks who love seeing touchdowns, the first three quarters were forgettable, while the fourth quarter was a thing of beauty. Either way, Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze knows his team has room to improve, and it will do so with a victory in hand.

The Ole Miss defense caused three turnovers in the opening half, all interceptions, and despite the Broncos recording seven plays inside the Ole Miss 5-yard line, the Rebels held Boise State to just three points and went into the half with a 7-3 lead.

After the Broncos cut the Rebels' lead to one on a field goal with 1:02 remaining in the third quarter, Ole Miss broke the game open in the fourth quarter. After scoring just seven points in its first 59 plays, the Ole Miss offense then scored 28 points over a nine-play stretch.

The Rebels' 28 fourth-quarter points were the most points in a quarter by an Ole Miss team since scoring 28 in the fourth quarter against Memphis in the 2009 season opener.

With interceptions from Senquez Golson, C.J. Johnson, Cody Prewitt and Tony Conner, the Ole Miss defense recorded its most interceptions in a game since picking off four passes against Southern Illinois in 2011. On the ground, Ole Miss racked up eight tackles for loss and three sacks.

In special teams play, redshirt-freshman punter Will Gleeson hit four punts for a 47.2-yard average. Three of Gleeson's punts landed inside the 20-yard line, including a long punt of 70 yards which settled on the Broncos' 7.

So while the first half was a struggle at times, and the number of penalties was eyebrow-raising, Ole Miss was still able to come away with a convincing victory on a big stage on college football's opening night. Now that is a thing of beauty.

#15 OLE MISS 41, VANDERBILT 3

Game #2 • Sept. 6, 2014
Attendance: 43,260 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - No. 15 Ole Miss scored early and often, while the Rebel defense gave up only a field goal in the fourth quarter en route to a dominating 41-3 win over Vanderbilt in both teams' SEC opener Saturday.

With the exception of that first half against Boise State, Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze is very happy with how his Rebels have started this season.

Bo Wallace threw for 320 yards and a touchdown to lead the charge. He is now one passing touchdown shy of Jevan Snead (46) for second place on the Rebels' all-time list.

The Rebels (2-0) have beaten Vanderbilt in Nashville in consecutive seasons after the Commodores had won five of the previous six. The Rebels won in dominating fashion with their largest margin of victory against an SEC opponent since beating Mississippi State 45-0 in 2008.

Ole Miss scored on seven of its first eight possessions with the shortest drive covering 67 yards, and the Rebels never punted. Jaylen Walton started the scoring with a 20-yard TD, and I'Tavius Mathers and DeVante Kincade also ran for TDs.

Wallace put the Rebels up 20-0 with a 20-yard TD pass to Cody Core, and he was sacked as the first half ended with Ole Miss threatening to score again. Playing an hour north of his hometown in Pulaski, Tennessee, Wallace had 249 yards by halftime, and his day was done after Mathers' TD with 9:29 left in the third quarter.

Ole Miss outgained Vandy 331-76 in total offense at halftime and finished 547-167. The Rebels also piled up 34 first downs -- the most in a game under Freeze.

Cliff Coleman returned an interception 39 yards less than a minute into the second half, and Mathers, from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, padded the lead to 34-0 with a 2-yard TD run.

Vanderbilt didn't get past midfield against the Rebels until the final couple minutes of the third quarter, and the Commodores had to settle for a field goal after recovering Kincade's fumble at the Ole Miss 5 in the fourth quarter.

#14 OLE MISS 56, LOUISIANA-LAFAYETTE 15

Game #3 • Sept. 13, 2014

Attendance: 60,937 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss - On a cloudy Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Ole Miss football team's offense and defense shined brightly, shutting down the Louisiana-Lafayette offense and shredding the Ragin' Cajun defense en route to a 56-15 victory in the Rebels' home opener.

The Rebel offense accumulated 554 total yards of offense, including 340 yards through the air and 214 yards on the ground. The defense held Louisiana-Lafayette to 322 total yards, including just 129 through the air. The Rebels' "Landshark Defense" has now allowed just 189 yards passing over the past two games combined, and has allowed just two touchdowns all season.

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace completed 23 of his 28 pass attempts for 316 yards, four touchdowns and one interception. With his four touchdown passes, the Pulaski, Tennessee, native passed Jevan Snead for second all-time in Ole Miss history with 49 career touchdowns. Saturday was also the 10th 300-yard passing game of Wallace's career, which ties him with former Rebel great Eli Manning for the most in program history.

Ole Miss had a balanced rushing attack, as juniors Jaylen Walton and I'Tavius Mathers totaled 146 yards and two touchdowns on just 10 carries. Walton's day was highlighted by a career-high 71-yard touchdown run, while Mathers opened the scoring for Ole Miss with a 56-yard scamper to the endzone.

Through the air, senior Vince Sanders had a career day with eight receptions for 125 yards and two touchdowns (all career highs). Even more impressive, all of the Macon, Mississippi's production came in the first half of the game.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson picked off two passes Saturday, and returned one of the two interceptions 59 yards for a touchdown.

#10 OLE MISS 24, MEMPHIS 3

Game #4 • Sept. 27, 2014

Attendance: 61,291 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss - On a night where the Ole Miss offense couldn't avoid the dreaded turnovers, the Rebel defense bowed up to shut down the visiting Memphis Tigers for a 24-3 victory on a beautiful Saturday night at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

"Our kids showed great resolve and I'm extremely proud of our defense," said Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze, whose birthday was Saturday. "We haven't had a better effort than that in our two and a half years here. They were phenomenal, and Memphis is a team that has been putting up really good numbers."

Ole Miss (4-0) recognized the M-Club Class of 2014 at halftime, and celebrated the career and life of former player Chucky Mullins, after renaming Coliseum Drive in his honor on Friday. It was fitting then that the defense was led by linebacker Deterrian Shackelford, the only two-time recipient of the Chucky Mullins Courage Award. Shackelford, who wears the No. 38 jersey in Mullins' honor, led the Rebels with eight total tackles, including four solo tackles and one tackle for loss.

The Rebels allowed just 104 total yards the entire evening, including 23 rushing yards on 31 carries. Excluding one 42-yard pass play by Memphis (2-2) in the first quarter, the Rebel defense allowed just 62 total yards on the other 61 plays from scrimmage.

Sophomore Tony Conner and junior Denzel Nkemdiche each had two tackles for loss, while junior C.J. Johnson, freshman Marquis Haynes, senior Bryon Bennett and senior Lavon Hooks each had a sack. Haynes also forced a fumble, which junior Issac Gross recovered, and junior Trae Elston recorded an interception.

The Ole Miss offense generated 426 total yards, but 10 penalties for 117 yards, four turnovers and two missed field goals limited its final score. Sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell had five catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns, while junior running back Jaylen Walton had 10 carries for 78 yards and a touchdown. Senior quarterback Bo Wallace finished 22-37 for 248 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions.

Ole Miss opened the game's scoring on a 63-yard strike from Wallace to Treadwell with 12:01 remaining in the first quarter. The first quarter ended with the Rebels leading just 7-3 though, as Memphis hit a 40-yard field goal with 2:51 remaining.

The Rebels didn't get on the board again until the fourth quarter, but they scored 17 points in the final frame to stretch their lead out to 21 points. Following a 19-yard field goal from senior Andrew Fletcher, Walton ran 23 yards to pay dirt, and Treadwell caught a 17-yard pass in the back of the end zone with 1:18 remaining.

OXFORD, Miss - There are times in people's lives when they will say to themselves, 'I will never forget this moment.' For the 61,826 fans that packed Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on a beautiful, cool, fall afternoon, No. 11 Ole Miss' thrilling 23-17 victory over No. 1 Alabama was a moment that won't soon be forgotten.

On one of the biggest weekends in Ole Miss football history, the Rebels' impressive defense stood tall once again, and the offense rallied and took advantage of opportune turnovers to top the Crimson Tide. It was the first win over a top-ranked team in program history, and it was the Rebels' first win over Alabama (4-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) since 2003.

A weekend that began with Ole Miss' (5-0, 2-0 SEC) first appearance on ESPN's popular pregame show "College GameDay," was closed out in style by outscoring Alabama 20-3 in the second half to move to 5-0 for the first time since 1962, and send thousands of the Rebel faithful onto the Hollingsworth Field in euphoria.

The Ole Miss defense's first string allowed its first touchdown of the season Saturday, but not much else, despite facing an opponent that entered the game averaging 42.0 points. The Rebels held Alabama to 3.8 yards a carry, which is nearly two yards fewer than its season average. The opportune Landshark Defense also created two turnovers, one of which the Rebels ultimately won the game on, and the other effectively ended the game as senior Senquez Golson picked off Alabama quarterback Blake Sims with 37 seconds left in the game.

Ole Miss senior quarterback Bo Wallace went 18-31 for 251 yards, three touchdowns and no turnovers. The oft-criticized senior from Pulaski, Tennessee, showed his moxie late in the game, completing each of his final three pass attempts for 57 yards and two touchdowns.

"Sometimes these kids take way more criticism than they deserve," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "I don't know that they get the equal treatment on the other side of it. ... In the second half, he made some big-time plays. He just played so solid. On that last touchdown, that ball was right where it needed to be for us. Who knows what the next week holds, but tonight, Bo led his team to defeat the No. 1 team in the country. He deserves credit for being a big part of that."

#3 OLE MISS 35, #14 TEXAS A&M 20

Game #6 • Oct. 11, 2014
Attendance: 110,633 • Kyle Field • College Station, Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Texas - If the No. 3 Ole Miss football team's win over Alabama last week was a statement win, Saturday night's 35-20 thumping of No. 14 Texas A&M on the road was a validation victory.

Throughout the week, the Rebels (6-0, 3-0 Southeastern Conference) faced questions as to whether they would experience a hangover of sorts coming off such a big victory as the one against Alabama. Those questions were answered quickly in front of a record-breaking crowd of 110,633 at Kyle Field.

Ole Miss scored 14 points in the first quarter and shutout the Aggies 21-0 in the first half, marking the first time ever that a Kevin-Sumlin coached team at Texas A&M had been shutout in the opening half. The win over Texas A&M (5-2, 2-2 SEC) was the Rebels' first-ever against the Aggies, and it marked the first time in program history Ole Miss had defeated AP top-25 ranked opponents in back-to-back weeks.

"I'm really pleased to come into Texas A&M, a very hostile environment, and I thought our kids handled it very well," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "They handled the preparation all week long very well. To come out of here with a victory in this difficult environment against a very difficult, talented team is very exciting for our program and our fans. We have some great fans who made the trip. I could hear them all night. You get into this deal to play in atmospheres like this and it was awesome to see."

Senior quarterback Bo Wallace went 13-19 for 178 yards, one touchdown and no turnovers, and ran for another 50 yards and two touchdowns on 14 rushes.

Sophomore wide receiver Laquon Treadwell had five catches for 53 yards, while fellow sophomore wideout Quincy Adebeyejo had two catches for a career-high 64 yards and a touchdown. On the ground, junior running back Jaylen Walton had nine carries for 49 yards.

Defensively, the Rebels forced three turnovers, upping their season total to an SEC-high 13, and returned two of the turnovers for scores. The front seven also had a very strong night. In addition to recording two sacks, Ole Miss held Texas A&M to 54 yards rushing, which is 134 yards shy of its season average.

Game #7 • Oct. 18, 2014

OXFORD, Miss. - Gosh almighty, that defense is good.

As it has done all season, the No. 3 Ole Miss football team displayed an impressive performance en route to a victory, and as has been the case throughout the year, it was the Rebels' famed "Landshark" defense that shined brightest. Holding the visiting Tennessee Volunteers to zero yards rushing, Ole Miss cruised to a 34-3 victory and improved to 7-0 on the year and 4-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

"I'm really proud of a lot of things tonight. There are also a lot of things that will most certainly keep us grounded," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said. "We need to work on some things to be more efficient and get better. We're a team that plays to our strengths until we get the right opening. We're playing so well right now. We held them to zero rushing yards. Our punt and coverage unit is playing so solid. ... We found some things right before the half and were able to get more efficient rushing the ball. Offensively, we didn't turn the ball over. That's huge in league games. Hopefully that trend will continue."

Playing in front of the third-largest crowd in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium's history (62,081), Ole Miss forced four turnovers and a turnover on downs. As a unit, the Rebels now have 15 interceptions on the year, which leads the country, and the Ole Miss defense has forced a turnover in 30 straight games, which is the second longest active streak among FBS schools.

Individually, CB Senquez Golson continued his fantastic senior campaign by picking off two passes, giving him seven on the year, which is tied for the fourth most in a season in program history. Similarly, DE Marquis Haynes continued his fantastic freshman campaign with 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery.

With the defense playing as well as it is, Freeze said it has allowed them to be a bit more conservative with their offensive play calling so as to not give the opposition a shorter field with a turnover.

"You can tell from our play calling that we're comfortable as long as the defense is playing like they are," Freeze said. "We're very cautious at times. You have to figure if we can score 17-20 points then we have a chance to win a lot of games with the way we're playing."

Senior QB Bo Wallace threw for 199 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers. Wallace still has yet to turn the ball over in SEC play, while throwing seven touchdowns and running in another two.
