A Look Back - 2015 Season

- LSU finished the year with a 52-14 overall record, earning 50-plus wins in a season for the first time since 2007.
- It was the 10th time in program history that an LSU squad earned 50 wins in a season.
- The Tigers opened the season winning their first 25 games of the year, setting the program record for the longest winning streak and best start to a season in LSU history.
- The streak was also the best start in LSU athletics history and was also the second longest winning streak among all sports in department history.
- LSU earned its first No. 1 ranking in program history after taking two of three games at Florida, as it was the first time in department history that the LSU baseball and softball teams were at the top of the polls at the same time.
- The team would hold the No. 1 spot in the rankings for three weeks during the year, never falling out of the top 10 for the rest of the season.
- The Tigers finished the SEC campaign with a 15-9 mark, earning at least 15 wins in an SEC campaign for the third time in four years under Beth Torina.
- LSU earned a national seed and hosted the Baton Rouge Regional, making it out of the regional through the elimination bracket by winning three straight games between Saturday and Sunday.
- The next week the team hosted the first-ever Super Regional in Tiger Park, hosting Arizona in a rematch of a previous game played earlier in the year.
- LSU defeated Arizona in two games, earning a run-rule and 10-5 victory to advance to the Women's College World Series for the fourth time in team history.
- The Tigers earned wins over SEC rivals Alabama and Auburn, earning the only losses to eventual champion and runner-up Florida and Michigan to finish third.
- The third place finish tied the program-best from 2001 where that team also finished third overall.
- LSU finished the year ranked fourth in both polls, the second-highest ranking to finish the year in program history.
- The Tigers tied Michigan with the most All-Americans last season, with Bianka Bell on the first team, Savannah Jaquish and Bailey Landry on the second team and Carley Hoover and Allie Walljasper on the third team.
- LSU lost one starter in A.J. Andrews, with seven total starters returning for 2016, along with returning three of their four pitchers from the season.
