SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Jaquish Repeats as SEC Player of the Week

For the second time this season, junior Savannah Jacquish was named the SEC's Player of the Week the league announced on May 2. Jacquish had 10 RBIs in four wins for LSU against McNeese State and Arkansas, slugging .938 with a .647 on-base percentage. It's the second consecutive year Jacquish has earned the award twice in the season.

A Grand Win

LSU's 9-1 win over Arkansas on May 1 not only earned LSU its second-straight sweep, but win No. 1,000 for the program. It took just a shade over 1,300 games for the program to reach the milestone, beginning back in 1979 with the first over LSU-Alexandria, 11-0. Softball was played for three seasons from 1979-81 before the program was restarted in 1997 after shutting down, as since that time LSU has won at least 40 games 17 times, and have finished with a winning record since adoption by the SEC in 19 out of 20 seasons.

Smith Reaches Double Digits

With her 10th victory of the season May 1, LSU freshman pitcher Sydney Smith became the 14th freshman in program history to win at least 10 games in her debut season. It was the third consecutive win for the Maple Grove, Minnesota, native, as its the 17th time in LSU history an LSU pitcher in their first season has won at least 10 games in the circle.

We Love Free Bases

The LSU softball team isn't shy about its love for free bases. That case is no more evident than the past four seasons that drawing a walk leads to more offense and chances to score runs. For the third consecutive season the squad has broken the team walks record, earning 264 so far this year, six more than the team had all of last year. Since 2013 LSU's walks received have increased, with this team still having a series and postseason left to go.

Ring the Bell

With her three hits against McNeese State on April 26, senior Bianka Bell set the new career mark for total bases with 469, setting a new LSU program record in the process. Over the course of her four-year career, Bell has set or tied 13 game, season and career numbers as a Tiger, as she is currently within reach of the career walks record and is in the top 10 in a host of others.

#Consistency

In the history of the LSU softball program, seven players have finished a season with at least 50 RBIs, but only two have done it consistently over three years, that being LSU senior Bianka Bell and junior Savannah Jacquish. The duo are the only two to have at least 50 in each of their first three seasons, while Bell is currently over fifty, as she is the first to do so all four years. Jacquish, who set the record for RBIs in a single season with 73 last year, is second all-time in RBI only to Bell who set the career mark with over 200.

Smith Named To NFCA FOY Top 25 List

LSU freshman pitcher Sydney Smith was named to the Schutt Sports/NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year Top 25 list on April 21, the third consecutive year a Tiger has been named to the list. Smith won each of her first five starts before suffering her first loss, as this season she's thrown the fourth perfect game in LSU history to go along with a pair of one-hitters. She was one of nine selected from the SEC.

Going The Distance

In a see-saw game April 16 on the road at Mississippi State, the Tigers withstood the longest game of the season, coming out on top with a 5-2 win over the Bulldogs in 12 innings. It was the fourth time in program history that an LSU team has played a 12-inning contest, improving its record to 2-2 in those games, as it was the first since the 2014 season. It was the second-longest game by inning for an SEC team this season.

LSU Plays Third-Longest Game Ever

LSU's win over Mississippi State on April 16 took four hours and 21 minutes to finish, winding up as the third longest game the team has played in program history. It was the third time that an LSU softball game has lasted four hours in length, with the last being a four hour, 31 minute contest against Alabama on April 18, 2011. The first, and the longest, was a four hour, 45 minute game against Florida on March 9, 2002. By comparison, game one and three of the MSU series combined to last four hours and 31 minutes.

Professional Tigers

On Thursday, April 14, three senior members of the LSU softball team were picked by National Pro Fastpitch teams in Bianka Bell, Kelli Kloss and Sandra Simmons during the NPF College Draft presented by Bownet. Kloss was the first selected, picked 17th overall by the Chicago Bandits, while Simmons was selected 23rd overall by the Akron Racers and Bell being picked 36th by the Pennsylvania Rebellion. Two of the have teams have LSU ties, as former LSU player A.J. Andrews was selected by the Bandits last season, while former Tiger pitchers Rachele Fico and Brittany Mack were selected by the Racers.

Simmons Swag

Against Southeastern Louisiana on April 13, senior Sandra Simmons went 4-for-5 with two RBIs and two runs scored in a 9-1 win for the Tigers. The four hits is a career high for the Californian, as she became one of five players to earn four hits on the season. Before Monday's game against Kentucky, she rode a nine-game hitting streak which was also a career long and the fourth longest for an LSU player this season.

Torina Hits 200

LSU's 5-1 win over Georgia on April 2 not only clinched a big road series for the Tigers, but also gave head coach Beth Torina her 200th win as LSU's head coach. Now in her fifth season, Torina, already the second-winningest coach in program history, needed just 285 games to reach the milestone as coming into this season she has half of LSU's Women's College World Series appearances and averaging over 40 wins per season.

Pinch-Hit Power

With two strikes and two outs in the top of the seventh, sophomore Allie Walljasper helped spark LSU's furious comeback on the road at Georgia by hitting her first home run of the season, a pinch hit two-run shot, to pull LSU within one. The Tigers would score four runs in the inning to take the lead, winning game one 5-4, leading to the team winning its first series win against Georgia in Athens since 2001.

Broken Record (Book)

LSU's 30-8 win over Louisiana Tech on March 15 was one of the most prolific offensive displays in Tiger softball history, scoring 15 runs in the sixth and setting a host of records in the process. It was the largest margin of victory in an LSU win in program history, as the hits are a new SEC record, while the runs and home runs tied conference records. The team also tied the record for at-bats in a single game with 48.

Tough 'Em All

Senior catcher Kellsie Kloss set a new program record for total bases in a single game with 14 against Louisiana Tech, breaking Ashlee Ducote's mark of 13 set in April of 2000. Kloss went 4-for-6 with a double, three home runs, four RBIs and four runs scored.

Nice Night for Nine

In a record that stood solo for all of 19 games, Bianka Bell tied Kellsie Kloss' record for most RBIs in a single contest with nine against Louisiana Tech, which was originally set against Bethune-Cookman on February 19 in California. Bell was 4-for-5 in the game, as three of the four hits were home runs, scoring four times. On the year, four LSU players have combined for eight games with four or more RBIs on the season.

We Tried to Tell You... (See: Fool Me Once...)

Never before had LSU have a player hit more than two home runs in a single game going into the contest against Louisiana Tech. That record was broken and doubled in one night as senior Kellsie Kloss became the first to hit three, with Bianka Bell following soon after in the same inning. Kloss already had a pair of two home run contests coming into the game, as she also matched her mark of hitting a homer in the same inning in the sixth. Going into the weekend, Bell had just one home run, as over the course of the next three games of the Alabama series and one against LaTech, hit five to increase that total to six in four contests.

More Awards For Tigers

Just before the game against Louisiana Tech March 15, Bianka Bell and Carley Hoover were named the LSWA's Player and Pitcher of the Week. Bell earns the LSWA award for the first time this season, while Hoover has earned the award for the second consecutive week and third overall on the season.

Bell Named USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Week

Already the SEC Player of the Week, senior Bianka Bell was named the USA Softball Collegiate National Player of the Week the organization announced on March 15. Bell is the second player in program history to earn the award twice in a career, as she won the award around the same time during the 2015 season. Emily Turner was the last, winning the award in 2006 and 2007.

Bell Named SEC Player of the Week

After hitting .467 with seven hits, a 1.000 slugging percentage, six RBIs and seven runs scored, LSU senior infielder Bianka Bell was named the SEC Player of the Week March 14. Four of Bell's seven hits were for extra bases, including belting two home runs in the series against Alabama. She was walked twice and hit twice, having a .579 on-base percentage as LSU went 4-1 last week.

Topping 200

Going into the weekend series against Alabama already the career leader in RBIs, senior Bianka Bell became the first LSU softball player in program history to cross the 200 threshold in the finale against the Crimson Tide March 13. With 196 heading into the series, Bell moved to 199 after her three on Friday, as the two she drove in on Sunday pushed her to 201 with much of the year remaining.

Hoover Moves to 10-0 to Tie Record

With her 10th victory of the season on Sunday, Carley Hoover became just the second LSU pitcher to win 10 games without suffering a loss to start a season. It's the first since 2013, and with one more victory will own the record.

NCAA Active Leaders

With a four-year career nearly in the books, senior Bianka Bell is among some of the best in the country over that span, among the nation's leaders in RBIs and total bases. Currently, Bell is second in RBIs, while fifth in total bases. She's one of two players currently in the SEC in RBIs and three in total bases.

NFCA Tabs Hoover as National Pitcher of the Week

Hours before taking the circle later that night against Longwood on March 9, sophomore Carley Hoover pulled in another award as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association named her the Division I National Pitcher of the Week. She is the first LSU pitcher to earn the award and the ninth to earn one of the NFCA's weekly awards in program history.

Hoover Named SEC Pitcher of the Week

On Monday, March 7, sophomore pitcher Carley Hoover was named the SEC Player of the Week, giving the Clemson, South Carolina, native her first league weekly award of the season. It's the second for her in her LSU career. Hoover was 3-0 on the weekend with a 0.00 ERA and 26 strikeouts in 13.2 innings of work, allowing just two hits.

Hoover Earns First No-Hitter

In the LSU Invitational finale against Tennessee Tech March 6, sophomore Pitcher Carley Hoover earned her first no-hitter after striking out seven Golden Eagle batters and only three reaching base during the contest. It's the 37th no-hitter in LSU history and the 23rd to be done in six or fewer innings.

Jaquish Sets Career Multi-HR Mark

Sahvanna Jaquish set a new LSU record for most career multi-home run games with five. The previous record was four, set by Julie Wiese from 2001-04. The next closest is Kellsie Kloss who has four, earning three of those games this season and Bianka Bell with three.

Pitch Perfect

In the opener of the LSU Invitational against Tennessee Tech on March 4, LSU freshman pitcher Sydney Smith earned the fourth perfect game in LSU history as the Tigers won 8-0 in five innings. It was the first perfect game since Rachele Fico's in 2011 against Southeastern Louisiana, as Smith is just the third pitcher in program history to pitch a perfect game solo. The Maple Grove, Minnesota, native needed just 54 pitches to get through the contest, striking out six as it was the fourth to be done in five innings.

Hoover named LSWA Co-Pitcher of the Month for February

Carley Hoover started her sophomore campaign at LSU by winning each of her five starts, holding an earned run average of 1.93 with a shutout, three complete games and 48 strikeouts in 29 innings of work. Hoover is tied for the pitching staff lead in appearances with seven, as she has given up just eight earned runs and 28 total hits. She has two double-digit strikeout games this year, as against Texas Tech she fanned 15 which is a career high and is in the top 10 of most in a seven-inning game in LSU history.

Hoover Fans 15

LSU sophomore pitcher Carley Hoover struck out 15 Texas Tech batters in the team's 5-3 win over the Red Raiders on Feb. 28, netting a new career-high in the process. Hoover is the first pitcher to fan 15 in a game since 2008, while finishing two strikeouts shy of the record of 17 held by Britini Sneed for the most in a seven-inning game. It's tied for the 12th most in a game for a pitcher in LSU history and in the top 10 for most in a seven-inning contest.

Landry's Late-Inning Home Run Heroics

Coming into the season, junior outfielder Bailey Landry had not tallied a regular-season home run, with her career five all coming in the last two postseason LSU appearances. Two swings against Texas Tech changed all that as she drilled the walk off homer in extras on Feb. 27 and blasted a three-run shot on Feb. 28 in the finale of the Purple and Gold Challenge to give her two on the year. The first one was the first walk off home run in extra innings since 2011, and the 10th all-time in extra innings in program history.

Fool Me Once... Fool Me Twice??!

Kellsie Kloss has eight home runs this season, as seven of the eight have come in the same game, hitting two three-run home runs against Illinois State and two grand slams in the same inning against Bethune-Cookman. Dating back to last year, Kloss has four under her belt in her career. The only other player with more is junior Sahvanna Jaquish with five and Bianka Bell follows both with three.

Double Figure Scoring

10 of LSU's wins this season have come with LSU scoring 10 or more runs in a single contest. Since 2012, LSU has won 42 games when scoring in the double-digits, having 14 wins last year which was the most.

Year	Wins When Scoring In Double Figures
2016	10
2015	14
2014	13
2013	14
2012	5

Record-Setting Kellsie

It took just two swings of the bat for senior catcher Kellsie Kloss to etch her name among LSU greats after her performance at the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic, as against Bethune-Cookman she belted two grand slams, becoming the first Tiger ever to do so in a single game. With those shots, she also drove in nine RBI, the most in a single game up until that point, besting the record of seven, most recently done by Stephanie Hill in 2007.

Clearing the Table

With five grand slams this season, the Tigers have tied their entire total from 2015 of five. It is the fourth time in program history that an LSU squad has had five in a season, matching the 2007, 2009 and 2015 teams. Since 2012, LSU has hit 16 grand slams, as from 1997-2009 there were 23, with none from 2009-2012.

Owning the Third

So far this season, LSU is outscoring its opponents 65-31 in the third inning alone. Even without the UConn 13-run frame, the Tigers would still be outscoring teams 52-31, scoring in the frame in 21 of the team's games so far this season. When LSU scores in the third, the Tigers are 21-0.

Jaquish Named SEC Player of the Week

Junior Sahvanna Jaquish was named the SEC's Player of the Week on Feb. 15 after her nine-hit, nine-RBI performance in the Tiger Classic. It's the third time in her career she's earned the award and fourth time she's been honored by the league as a Tiger.

Double-Digit Innings

Three times this season the Tigers have plated double-digit runs in a single inning, as LSU first scored double-digit runs in a single inning with 13 in the third against UConn. Since then the Tigers have done it twice more, tying the record of 15 on the road at Louisiana Tech in a 30-8 victory. Before the current staff took over, there were five instances of this happening, since then there have been 10.

Calling for Mercy

In the Tiger Classic, LSU run-ruled every team and won four of their games five games via mercy rule, earning a pair of 9-0 wins over Ohio State and North Florida, a 13-2 win over UConn and 10-1 win in the finale against Pacific. It's the first time in LSU history that the Tigers have run-ruled its first three opponents, and matches the 2008 team for most run-rule victories in the first five games. LSU has had 63 run-rule games since 2012, with 20 coming last season.

LSU Returns SEC-Best Five All-Americans

LSU had a record five All-American selections last season in the program's history in Bianka Bell, Sahvanna Jaquish, Carley Hoover, Bailey Landry and Allie Walljasper, tying for the most in the nation. This year, all five return giving LSU the most All-American's on a single team in the SEC.

Season Openers

LSU has had the luxury of opening the season at home for the last six seasons, as coming into 2016 LSU is 15-4 all-time in season-opening contests, while holding a 17-2 mark in home season openers. LSU has won three of the last five in both coming into the opener against Ohio State.

Trio Named to USA Softball POY Top 50 Watch List

For the first time, LSU has had three players selected to the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 50 Watch List, as Bianka Bell, Carley Hoover and Bailey Landry all made the cut. The three selections tied for the most nationally along with Georgia and Michigan, as Bell is on the list for the second year, with Hoover and Landry are on the list for the first time in their careers.

Bell, Hoover Preseason All-SEC

LSU's duo of Bianka Bell and Carley Hoover were selected to the 14-member Preseason All-SEC Team before the start of the regular season. Bell earned a spot on the preseason list for the second consecutive year, while Hoover was picked for the first time in her LSU career as both finished last year as first team All-SEC selections. LSU was one of four member institutions to earn multiple selections on this year's list along with Florida and Auburn with three each and Alabama with two picks.

LSU Earns Top Three Preseason Rank

After finishing the season ranked in the top five after earning the program's fourth berth in the Women's College World Series, the LSU softball team will begin 2016 where they left off last year as the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN/USA Softball Division I Preseason Polls were released having the Tigers sitting in third place in both. LSU is no stranger to beginning the season in the top 10 in both polls, as this is the 10th time in team history that the Tigers have been slotted there by the NFCA and the fifth time being selected by USA Softball. The early ranking is the highest to start the year in program history, besting the 2002 ranking that had the Tigers open the year fourth by the NFCA and seventh by USA Softball in 2007 and 2008.

New Year, 'Not-So' New Tiger Park

After having a year with record crowds, fans in 2016 will notice some new enhancements to Tiger Park, such as new entrances, updated tailgating options and the renovation of the berm to the new Tiger Park Terrace. The section in the outfield has been updated and made safer, where over 900 fans can enjoy softball for the upcoming season. Now, there is a walkway and steps that lead to the area that begins just before the left field foul pole and goes all the way into left center, stopping just short of reaching dead center. There is a new entrance in center where fans can enter to get to the Terrace, with tailgating in the grass area next to the soccer stadium where permanent restrooms will be available two hours prior to the first pitch of all LSU games.

Many Happy Returns

Losing just three players to graduation, LSU will return over 80 percent of its hits, runs and RBI producers in 2016. Also included are three pitchers that combined for 43 of the pitching victories, 33 complete games and 15 shutouts between them.

LSU Picked to Finish Second in SEC

In a vote of the league's head coaches, the Southeastern Conference released its annual preseason poll on Thursday as LSU was picked to finish second after earning three first place votes and 128 overall points. The Tigers finished fourth last year and have won at least 15 conference games in three of the last four years.

LSU Featured Nine Times Nationally

Nine of LSU's games this season will be nationally televised on the ESPN family of networks the Southeastern Conference announced today, with more than 70 contests featuring SEC teams scheduled for air this year. Now in its second year of operation, the SEC Network will serve as the outlet for six of the nine games which will begin in March right at the start of league play. The other three games will be on one of the host of ESPN channels available for fans. Two games will be shown regionally on CST, when LSU travels to take on Louisiana Tech in March and Southeastern Louisiana in April.

Three Selected For USA Softball National Teams

A trio of LSU softball players were selected to a pair of teams that will represent the United States on the international level this summer, as senior infielder Bianka Bell was picked for the U.S. Women's National Team, while outfielders in sophomore Emily Griggs and junior Bailey Landry were picked for the Women's Elite Team the Amateur Softball Association of America and USA Softball announced. Bell and Griggs will be participating with the national teams for the second consecutive year, while Landry will make her inaugural debut in the Red, White and Blue later this year. Bell is one of 18 total selections for the WNT group, as well as being one of 12 veterans to make a return to the squad, while Griggs is one of three that was on the USA Softball Women's Junior National Team last year. LSU assistant coach Howard Dobson has been an assistant on the national team staff for the last four years.

Softball Signs Highly-Rated Class

LSU head softball coach Beth Torina announced the signing of seven high school standouts that will join the Tigers for the 2017 season in Aliyah Andrews, Michal Cunningham, Nicky Dawson, Amanda Doyle, Maribeth Gorsuch, Sydney Springfield and Claire Weinberger. After inking a very versatile class last year, this year's group is considered one of the best in the nation as website FloSoftball ranked the class No. 2 overall. In all, LSU signed two players from Louisiana, two from Texas and one from California, Ohio and Florida.

LSU Releases Home-Heavy Schedule

Coming off of a 50-win season and the program's fourth trip to the Women's College World Series in 2015, the LSU softball team released the 2016 regular season schedule that features 37 games in the friendly confines of Tiger Park in a 56-game slate, hosting the likes of Alabama, Florida and Washington and contests against 14 teams that were in last year's NCAA tournament field. The Tigers will have a chance to get the year off on the right foot, playing 21 of their first 26 games in Tiger Park over the month of February and beginning of March, traveling just once during that time. The highlight of that stretch is a streak of 16-straight games in Baton Rouge from February 24-March 13. LSU was 38-5 at home last season.
