LSU, now 4-2 under head coach Ed Orgeron, will play its final game of the regular season on Thursday night when the 25th-ranked Tigers travel to College Station, Texas to face 22nd-ranked Texas A&M. Kickoff between the Tigers and Aggies is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. CT and will be televised on ESPN. It's the third straight year that LSU and Texas A&M play in the season finale. LSU, which is coming off a 16-10 loss to Florida last week, brings a 6-4 overall mark and a 4-3 league record into the game. Texas A&M beat Texas-San Antonio, 23-10, last week and stands at 8-3 overall and 4-3 in SEC action. LSU is 4-0 against the Aggies since A&M joined the SEC in 2012. Overall, LSU has won five straight against Texas A&M, which includes a 41-24 win in the 2011 Cotton Bowl, and leads the series, 31-20-3. LSU will play on Thanksgiving for the 27th time in program history and the Tigers are 11-10-5 in those games. Two years ago, LSU beat Texas A&M, 23-17, on Thanksgiving Night in College Station. Orgeron is 20-29 overall (4-2 at LSU, 6-2 at Southern Cal, 10-25 at Ole Miss) and he's 10-4 in his last 14 games as a head coach. LSU brings one of the nation's top defenses into the game as the Tigers have allowed just 11 touchdowns all season, the fewest in the FBS. Overall, LSU ranks No. 2 in the SEC in rush defense (115.2), No. 3 in scoring defense (14.1) and total defense (308.1) and No. 5 in pass defense (192.9). Interesting Notes on the LSU-Texas A&M Series

- Dana Bible coached the Tigers for the final three games in 1916, going 1-0-2 before taking over as the head coach at Texas A&M in 1917. In Bible's first meeting with the Tigers in 1917, he led the Aggies to a 27-0 win over LSU.
- When LSU played Texas A&M in the 1944 Orange Bowl, the team went to Miami by train and automobiles. The team returned to Baton Rouge in 18 used cars and most of them ran out of fuel stamps before making it back to campus.
- Former Tiger Jerry Stovall made his collegiate debut against Texas A&M, a 9-0 win in 1960. Stovall rushed for 22 yards, punted 11 times for a 40.9 average, returned a punt six yards and a kickoff 16 yards and made a huge stop on what appeared to be an Aggie touchdown on a punt return. LSU coach Paul Dietzel said of Stovall, "his debut was as impressive as any I've ever seen by a sophomore."
- Former Tiger Doug Moreau kicked the game-winning 34-yard field goal in a 9-6 win over Texas A&M to open the 1964 season. Moreau also caught six passes for 101 yards as LSU debuted its new offense – a flanker-type attack – against the Aggies.
- LSU snapped Texas A&M's 7-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at the time, with a 13-12 victory to open the 1968 season. With a 5-8, 160-pound quarterback named Fred Haynes starting for the first time of his career, the Tigers upset the 13th-ranked Aggies in Tiger Stadium.
- Texas A&M scored the go-ahead TD with 19 seconds left to beat the Tigers, 20-18, to open the 1970 season. It was the first time that LSU started 0-1 under Charles McClendon. LSU re-grouped and went on to post a 9-3 overall mark and claim the SEC title with a 5-0 league record.
- The Tommy Hodson era at LSU opened with a 35-17 win over Texas A&M in Tiger Stadium in 1986 in what was the first meeting between the teams since 1975. Hodson was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week after throwing for 193 yards and a score in the LSU upset of the No. 7-ranked Aggies.
- 34-year old Mike Archer's head coaching debut came in 1987 against Texas A&M as the Tigers posted a 17-3 win over the 15th-ranked Aggies in College Station. LSU went on to go 10-1-1 and finish the year ranked No. 5 in the nation.
- In a 1988 LSU win over Texas A&M a bank of lights went out in Tiger Stadium during a goal line stand by the Tigers.

LSU's A&M Ties

LSU tight end coach Steve Ensminger served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas A&M from 1994-96 ... The Aggies were 25-9-1 during Ensminger's three years in College Station, which included a 10-0-1 mark in 1994 and a 9-3 record in 1995 ... LSU chief of staff Steve Kragthorpe coached at Texas A&M for four years from 1997-2000, helping the Aggies to the Big 12 title in 1998 ... LSU offensive line coach Jeff Grimes served as a graduate assistant coach with the Aggies in 1996-97 and earned his master's degree at A&M ... LSU senior safety Corey Thompson's father, Tony Thompson, played wide receiver at Texas A&M in the late 1980s.

LSU Looks To Keep 8-Win Season Streak Alive

With a 6-4 overall mark, LSU is still within striking distance of winning 8 games this year, which would extend its streak of seasons with at least 8 victories to 17. Currently, LSU has won at least 8 games every year dating back to 2000. LSU's current streak of 16 seasons with at least 8 wins is the longest active streak among the Power 5 schools and ranks second to only Boise State (17) in the FBS.

Guice Goes Off, Sets Record For Longest Play From Scrimmage In Arkansas Win

Against Arkansas, sophomore running back Derrius Guice had arguably his best game in a Tiger uniform in rushing for a career-high 252 yards and two touchdowns in a 38-10 win in Fayetteville last Saturday night. It was the second most yards ever for an LSU back in a single game, following only Leonard Fournette's 284-yard performance against Ole Miss. On his last score of the night, Guice etched his name in the Tiger record books as he ran 96 yards for LSU's final score setting a new school record for the longest play from scrimmage. Guice had the fourth-most yards for any sophomore in a single game this season.

Tre'Davious White Named Finalist For Thorpe, Senior CLASS Award

LSU senior DB Tre'Davious White has been selected as one of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Award and one of 10 finalists at NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision institutions for the 2016 Senior CLASS Award. White could be the first Tiger since 2011 to win the award and just the third overall to claim it. To be eligible for the Senior CLASS award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I FBS senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition. White, a Shreveport, Louisiana, native majoring in sport administration has been a mainstay in the LSU defense since his career began in 2013, starting 44 of 46 games during that span. White has six interceptions and three punt return touchdowns in his career.

Arden Key Second in SEC in Sacks, First in Sacks Per Game Ranking Fifth in Nation

LSU sophomore OLB/DE Arden Key is second the SEC in total sacks with 10.0 and ranks fifth in the nation and tied for first in the conference in sacks per game with 1.00. Key has registered at least a .5 sack in eight of 10 games this year as he is now tied for third in the single-season category at LSU all-time, two away from Oliver Lawrence's record of 12 set back in 1989. His 12.5 tackles for loss ranks sixth in the SEC. Key is also seconde in the SEC and ranks 18th in the nation in fumbles forced with three.

Seven LSU Players Earn SEC Weekly Honors This Season

LSU senior Tre'Davious White, sophomore Arden Key, freshman Josh Growden, sophomore Derrius Guice, senior Ethan Pocic, junior Leonard Fournette and senior Lewis Neal have all earned SEC honors this season. White was named the SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Week the second week of the year after he returned a punt 60 yards against Jacksonville State to become the first non-offensive player to score touchdowns in the first two games of the season in LSU history. Key and Growden were instrumental in LSU's 23-20 win over Mississippi State to open conference play as Key was named the SEC's Defensive Lineman of the Week and Growden was named the SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Week. Key had five tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss, including a forced fumble and two sacks. Growden averaged 49.2 yards per punt with a 65 and 61-yarder, with the latter coming in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter. Guice rushed for a career-high 163 yards and three touchdowns in LSU's win over Missouri to earn SEC Offensive Player of the Week Honors, as Ethan Pocic was the SEC's Offensive Lineman of the Week after helping power the Tigers to a school conference record 634 yards of total offense, 418 of those on the ground. Fournette earned his seventh career weekly league honor after his record-setting performance against Ole Miss, while Pocic earned his second this season in being the Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week. Neal was named the defensive lineman of the week after his 11 tackle performance against Alabama, while Guice and Pocic pulled honors for the second time on the same week after Guice's 252 yards and two scores and Pocic helping anchor a line that produced 390 yards rushing and 547 yards of total offense.

LSU Could Have First Pair of 1,000-Yard Single-Season Rushers In School History

After some record performances over the course of the season, LSU running backs Leonard Fournette and Derrius Guice could become the first-ever Tiger pair to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season in program history. Guice currently leads the team with 962 yards and 10 touchdowns, while Fournette has 843 yards and eight touchdowns. Fournette set the single-game record for yards with 284 against Ole Miss, while Guice had 252 at Arkansas and set the school record for the longest play from scrimmage with a 96-yard run. It's only the second time in school history that LSU has a backfield that features two players with at least 800 yards, as the last was in 1976 with Terry Robiskie (1,117) and Charles Alexander (876).

Fournette, Guice First LSU RB Duo To Have 250-Yard Rushing Games In Same Season

With a school-record 284 yards against Ole Miss and 252 yards against Arkansas, LSU's Leonard Fournette and Derrius Guice have become the first Tiger running back duo to have 250-plus yard rushing games in the same season. It's only the second time in school history that multiple backs have had 200-yard rushing games in a year, as Cecil Collins (232) and Kevin Faulk (212) each did so in the 1997 season. They also became the second duo nationally this year to rush for 200 yards, joining Tulsa's D'Angelo Brewer and James Flanders, while being the only set to have over 250.

Etling Is 5-3 as Starter at LSU

LSU junior QB Danny Etling came off the bench to lead the Tigers to a win over Jacksonville State in week 2. Etling, a transfer from Purdue, has started eight straight games for the Tigers and is now 5-3 as LSU's starting quarterback earning wins over JSU, Missouri, Southern Miss, Ole Miss and Arkansas, with the only losses coming at the last second on the road at Auburn and at home to Florida and against Alabama.

Orgeron 4-2 As LSU Head Coach

Ed Orgeron is 4-2 as LSU's head coach, leading the Tigers to a 42-7 win over Missouri in his debut, a 45-10 win over Southern Miss, a 38-21 win over Ole Miss, 38-10 win over Arkansas. His only losses are a 10-0 defeat to No. 1 Alabama and 16-10 loss to Florida. The 35-point win over Mizzou was the second largest margin of victory for a LSU head coach in his first game with the Tigers. Nick Saban has the largest margin of victory in a debut, beating Western Carolina 58-0. However, the 87 points scored by Orgeron's LSU's teams in the first two games bests Saban's 86 in his first two games in charge. He's the first LSU football coach in the SEC era to win his first two games by 30 or more points and the first coach to win his first three by double-digits. Through six games LSU has outscored its opponents 174-74, which includes a 93-30 clip in the second half.

Beckwith, Riley Top 10 In Tackles In The SEC

LSU senior linebackers Kendell Beckwith and Duke Riley both rank in the top 10 in the SEC in tackles heading into the Texas A&M game. Beckwith is second SEC averaging 9.1 tackles per game and his 91 total tackles stand at No. 2 in the SEC. Riley, who is in his first year as a starter for the Tigers, ranks No. 4 in the league with 8.1 tackles a contest. Riley has 81 total tackles for the season. Beckwith and Riley make up one of two linebacking duo's in the SEC that rank in the Top 10 in the league in tackles. Beckwith had a career-best 16-tackle effort vs. Alabama, while Riley had a career-high 15 tackles in the win over Ole Miss. Beckwith has four double-digit tackle games this year (10 vs. Jacksonville State, 12 vs. Auburn, 15 vs. So. Miss, 16 vs. Alabama), while Riley has done it three times (13 vs. Auburn, 11 vs. So. Miss, 15 vs. Ole Miss).

Guice Reaches 1,000 Career Yards, Ranks in Top 10 In SEC In Rushing, Touchdowns, All-Purpose Yards

With a 21-yard rush late in the fourth quarter against Southern Miss, LSU sophomore running back Derrius Guice became the faster player in school history to reach the 1,000 career rushing yard mark. Guice, who is the 46th Tiger to rush for 1,000 yards in a career, reached the milestone in just 113 carries, which is 23 fewer than Charles Scott. Guice finished with 162 yards on 16 carries and a pair of scores in the win for LSU, as it was his fourth career 100-yard rushing game and the first time he's earned 100-plus yards and multiple touchdowns in consecutive contests. In the SEC, Guice ranks fourth in rushing averaging 96.4 yards per game, while his 8.0 yards per carry is fourth in the nation. He's fifth in the conference with 10 touchdowns, while his 120.1 all-purpose yards per game is second. Here is a list of the fastest LSU running backs to 1,000 yards by carry:

Fournette Reaches 40th Career Touchdown Milestone

Junior running back Leonard Fournette scored three times against the Arkansas Razorbacks, giving him 40 for his career to become the fourth player to do so, tying Charles Alexander for third all-time at LSU. Fournette stands six touchdowns away from tying Kevin Faulk's record of 46. Dalton Hilliard is second on the list with 44. It was his sixth game with multiple scores, one shy of the record he set in the Texas Bowl with four rushing touchdowns.

Etling, Moore Named To CoSIDA Academic All-District Team

LSU junior QB Danny Etling and FB/TE J.D. Moore were both named to the College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-District Football Team for District 6. Recognizing the accomplishments of student-athletes both on the field and in the classroom, the duo were first team selections with Etling being the District 6 quarterback and Moore slotting in as the district's tight end. Majoring in mass communications with a concentration in public relations, Etling currently sports a 3.74 grade point average, while Moore has a 3.99 GPA in architecture. First-team Academic All-District honorees advance to the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team ballot, where first-, second- and third-team All-America honorees will be selected later this month. If either is selected, it would be the first time that LSU has had an Academic All-American since Rudy Niswanger did so in 2005.

Leonard Fournette Sets Single-Game Rushing Record in Win

Junior running back Leonard Fournette returned to the starting lineup against Ole Miss and set the school single-game rushing record with 284 yards on just 16 carries. Tehe LSU rushing record, passing Alley Broussard's record of 250, to go along with three touchdowns. Fournette had scoring runs of 59, 76 and 78 yards in the win over the Rebels, which moved him into a tie for 10th place in the SEC, while his 17.8 yard average is the second-most in an SEC game in conference history. The 284 yards is the fourth-most in a single game in the NCAA this season.

Etling-Fournette Third LSU Duo To Pass-Run For 200 Yards In Same Game

In Saturday's win against Ole Miss, LSU running back Leonard Fournette ran for a single-game record 284 yards, while quarterback Danny Etling went 19-for-28 for 204 yards and a touchdown. It marked just the third time in LSU history that the team had a quarterback throw over 200 yards while having a running back rush for 200 since Fournette had 212 yards on the ground while Brandon Harris had 261 in the air in the Texas Bowl. The first came when Kevin Faulk had 201 yards and Herb Tyler had 214 in 1998 against Alabama.

LSU In The Polls

LSU remained in the Top 25 for the sixth straight week on Sunday as the Tigers moved to No. 25 in the AP Top 25. The Tigers are also No. 16 in the College Football Playoff Rankings, which were released last Tuesday. The Texas A&M game will mark LSU's fourth straight contest against a Top 25 team. LSU beat No. 22/23 Ole Miss, 38-21, on Oct. 24, dropped a 10-0 decision to No. 1 Alabama, defeated No. 25 Arkansas 38-10 on the road and lost to No. 13 Florida 16-10 at home.

LSU Defense Has Allowed TDs on Consecutive Possessions Just Once This Year

LSU's defense goes into the Texas A&M game having allowed touchdowns on consecutive possessions just one time this year, that coming against Mississippi State in week 3. In 119 possessions by the opponent, LSU's defense has yielded just 11 TDs and 20 field goals. Wisconsin kicked two field goals and scored a TD on three straight possessions in the first game of the season and Auburn kicked field goals on three consecutive possessions in a 18-13 win over LSU. Those are the only two teams that have scored on 3 straight possessions this year. Ole Miss, Alabama and Florida are the only other teams to score on back-to-back possessions.

LSU Scores More Points Than Plays Run In Southern Miss Win

For the fourth time in program history, the LSU offense produced more points (45) than plays run (42) in a win over an opponent. Against Southern Miss last Saturday night, the Tigers scored touchdowns on drives of three plays twice and one play twice, scoring 35 unanswered points in the second half to pull away for good. Below is a look at the other times LSU had more points than plays:

Date	Opponent	Result	LSU Points	LSU Plays
Oct. 12, 1991	Arkansas State	W	70	62
Oct. 15, 2016	Southern Miss	W	45	42

Beckwith Named Butkus Award Finalist

LSU senior linebacker Kendell Beckwith has been named one of five finalists for the 2016 Butkus Award the organization announced. Beckwith, who was named to the watch list for the second consecutive year back in July, leads LSU with 91 tackles on the season, averaging 9.1 per game which is currently second overall in the SEC and 29th overall nationally. He was a semifinalist for the award as a junior last season. The Clinton, Louisiana, native has three double figure tackle games on the season so far through 2016 and has eight for his career which is the most among defenders currently on the squad. Against Alabama Beckwith netted a new career high in tackles with 16 against the Crimson Tide, while having 15 against Southern Miss and 10 against Jacksonville State.

Pocic Named Outland Trophy Semifinalist

LSU senior center Ethan Pocic was named one of five semifinalists for the Outland Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's premier interior lineman the Greater Omaha Sports Committee and Football Writers Association of America announced. Pocic has been a three-year starter for the Tigers, becoming one of the nation's top offensive linemen in that time. Returning to LSU for his senior season this year, the Lemont, Illinois, native has been a staple of the LSU front, earning 35 career starts (25 at center, 9 at right guard and 1 at right tackle). In four seasons Pocic has recorded an incredible 282 knockdown blocks, including 132.5 as a junior. This season, he's played in the most snaps of any other offensive lineman on the team with 603, earning 66 knockdown blocks.

Fournette Makes Two Halves a Whole

In Leonard Fournette's record 284-yard game against Ole Miss, 171 of those came in the first half alone. It was the fourth most by an LSU running back in any half, while he became just the sixth LSU player in team history to have 100 or more yards in each half, adding 113 more in the second. Here's a look at LSU rushers with the most rushing yards by half, and those that had 100 yards in each half:

Chark First With 70-Plus Yard Touchdown Plays Rushing and Receiving

With his 80-yard TD reception vs. Southern Miss, LSU WR D.J. Chark became the first (and only) player in school history to score TDs of 75 yards or more both rushing and receiving. Last year, Chark scored on a 79-yard run vs. Texas Tech in the Texas Bowl.

Tre'davious White Nearing Punt Return Record

Tre'Davious White is one punt return shy of tying the school record for punt returns for a touchdown following his spectacular 60-yard return vs. Jacksonville State in week 2. White has returned three punts for TDs during his career, one shy of tying Skyler Green's school record. Overall, White has scored four touchdowns during his career (3 punt returns, 1 interception return).

Shuffling The Deck

Snake bitten by the injury bug, the LSU offensive line has seen its fair share of changes throughout much of the 2016 season, as four different starting offensive line combinations have been used through 10 games of the Tigers' season. By comparison, there were only three combinations used in 12 total games for LSU last season and four in 13 games in 2014. The most units used in the last 12 seasons was six in 2011, with the fewest being the one group used for every game of the 2008 season. Here's a look at the number of starting offensive line combinations since 2005:

LSU Has Pair of 100-Yard Rushers vs. Missouri; Tigers 27-3 All-Time When That Happens

For fifth straight season, LSU produced a pair of 100-yard rushers in a game when Derrius Guice and Darrel Williams reached the milestone in the 42-7 win over Missouri. Guice led the way with a career-best 163 yards and 3 TDs, while Williams followed with his own career-highs of 130 yards and 3 TDs. LSU has had 30 games in which two players have reached the 100-yard mark and the Tigers are 27-3 in those games, which includes its current 11-game winning streak when it happens.

Lasting Legacy Of Mike The Tiger

After a four-month battle with spindle cell sarcoma, a rare form of soft-tissue cancer, LSU's beloved living tiger mascot Mike VI was humanely euthanized Oct. 11th at the age of 11. "Roscoe," soon to become Mike VI, came to LSU at the age of two in 2007 and was the first LSU mascot to make use of the new, $5 million, state-of-the-art habitat on campus next to Tiger Stadium. In a tradition that dates back to 1934, a search for Mike VII is currently underway. Here's a look at notable moments during the reign of each of the previous Mike's in LSU history:

Mascot	Years	Notable Moments
Mike I	1936-56	Purchased for $750, was the longest living mascot at 20 years, 115-83-14 record
Mike II	1956-58	The shortest reign with two tigers being used that season, 8-12 record
Mike III	1958-76	First football national title and three SEC titles during reign, 142-50-7 record
Mike IV	1976-90	Two SEC championships, 141-63-6 record
Mike V	1990-2007	Football national title, five baseball national championships, 120-72-1 record
Mike VI	2007-2016	Football national title, baseball national title, 92-30 record

LSU Produces Pair of 100-Yard Rushers and 200-Yard Passer vs. Missouri For Just 6th Time in School History

LSU's offense produced a pair of 100-yard rushers along with a 200-yard passer in the debut of Ed Orgeron and offensive coordinator Steve Ensminger. Derrius Guice rushed for 163 yards and 3 TDs, Darrel Williams added 130 yards and 3 TDs and Danny Etling threw for 216 yards in the win. Last year, LSU produced a 200-yard passer (Brandon Harris 228 yards) and two 100-yard rushers (Derrius Guice 161 yards; Leonard Fournette 158 yards) in the win over South Carolina. Prior to that, LSU hadn't had done it in an SEC game since 1997 vs. Kentucky when Kevin Faulk rushed for 212 yards, Rondell Mealey had 131 yards and Herb Tyler passed for 213 yards. Overall, LSU's had two 100-yard rushers and a 200-yard passer in only six games in school history. Here's a look at the games that it's happened:

Game (Year)	100-Yard Rushers/200-yard Passer	Results

Florida State (1982)	Dalton Hilliard 183, Garry James 116/Alan Risher 212	W, 55-21

Racking Up The Yards

LSU's 634 yards of total offense against Missouri was a new school record for the most yards in an SEC contest, four more than the previous high which was set in 1987 against Ole Miss (630) and 1967 against Mississippi State (630). On the ground, the team's 418 yards were the most in a contest since 1996 against Houston (433), and the most against a conference opponent since 1976 against Ole Miss (426). It was the seventh most yards gained in a single contest all-time at LSU overall. Here's a look at the top 10 games of total offense in LSU history:

Rank	Date	Opponent	W/L	Score	Total O	Location

So far this season, LSU quarterback Danny Etling has completed passes to 13 different players in the eight games he's played in. Four players in Malachi Dupre, Travin Dural, D.J. Chark and Leonard Fournette have double-digit receptions on the year at 20, 28, 21 and 15, respectively. Last season just five players had double-digit receptions, with 16 total catching passes on the year. Etling has passed for 200-plus yards in five of the nine games he's played in, while completing 58.5 percent of his passes.

Fournette Becomes Fastest Back To 3,000 Rushing Yards in LSU History

In his fourth carry of the game against Wisconsin, junior running back Leonard Fournette eclipsed the 3,000-yard mark, becoming just the fourth player in program history to do so and the fastest, needing just 26 games and 572 total rushing attempts. Fournette finished the game with 138 yards on the ground on 23 carries, his 16th career 100-yard rushing game at LSU, and for his career is averaging 126.1 yards on the ground, 6.4 yards per carry on 19.7 attempts per game. Here are the top five rushing leaders in LSU history:

Two Tigers Have Scored Defensive TDs

Two current Tigers – CB Tre'Davious White and LB Kendell Beckwith – have scored defensive touchdowns for the Tigers. White scored on a 21-yard interception return against Wisconsin in the season opener this year, while Beckwith scored on a 29-yard interception return against New Mexico State in 2014. LSU has scored at least one defensive TD for the past three years and for 14 of the last 15 seasons going back to 2002.

#NFLSU – Tigers Lead The Way On Week 1 NFL Rosters Since 2014

Since 2014, the LSU football program has had the most former players on active NFL rosters heading into week one than any program in the nation with a combined 121. In 2016, LSU again leads the way with 43 former players on NFL 53-man squads, topping all other schools for the third-straight season, as it's also the second consecutive year there have been at least 40 Tigers on active rosters. The SEC makes up four of the top five over that span, while being five of six schools with at least 100 players in the NFL over that time.

No. 18 Tradition Passed Down to Tre'Davious White

A tradition established in 2003 continues as senior cornerback Tre'Davious White was voted to wear the No. 18 jersey for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. White was presented the jersey following a vote of the coaching staff and former LSU No. 18s during the Tigers' first team meeting of fall camp in 2015 and then again this year. White is one of LSU's leading returners on defense after recording 44 total tackles, with 30 on the solo end and 1.5 tackles for losses. Against Syracuse in the Carrier Dome, White cleared 69 yards in a shade over nine seconds on a punt return for a touchdown in the win over the Orange. Jersey No. 18 was born when, in 2003, quarterback Matt Mauck guided LSU to its first national championship since 1958. His number became synonymous with success -- both on and off the field -- as well as a selfless attitude that has become the epitome of being an LSU football player. After his final year with the Tigers, Mauck passed the jersey number down to running back Jacob Hester, who then helped LSU to another national title in 2007. Here is a look at the jersey No. 18s:

Fournette A Semifinalist For Maxwell, Doak Walker Awards

Junior running back Leonard Fournette has been named a semifinalist for both the Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards. Fournette is one of four players from the Southeastern Conference to make the cut of 18 for the Maxwell Award, while being named as one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award. Even with missing three games due to injury, Fournette has rushed for 100 or more yards in all but two games this season, as against Ole Miss at the end of October he ran for an LSU single-game record 284 yards and three touchdowns in the win, as the yards are the fifth-most for any player in a game nationally this season. With 210 more yards, Fournette will become the fourth LSU rusher in history to reach 4,000 career yards, while also becoming the second player ever to have three 1000-yard rushing seasons in a career. Fournette was a finalist for both awards in 2015 as a sophomore.

Leonard Fournette in LSU Top Five for Career 100-Yard Rushing Games

Since joining the program as a freshman in 2014, running back Leonard Fournette has rocketed up the LSU rushing charts, including ranking in the top five in reaching at least 100 yards in multiple games. This Day vs. Night Thing in Tiger Stadium

The facts indicate that LSU plays better at night in Tiger Stadium than they do during the day. The numbers show that since 1960, LSU is 245-65-4 (.780) at night under the lights compared to a 34-26-3 (.567) mark in Tiger Stadium during the day. Since 2000, LSU is 103-17 (.858) overall at home, which includes a 79-10 (.886) mark at night in Tiger Stadium and a 24-7 (.775) record during the day. Prior to 2000, LSU had only won 10 games at home during the day in 32 tries. From 1960 to 1999, LSU posted a 10-19-3 (.359) record at home during the day. The following is a breakdown of LSU's night record, day record and overall record in Tiger Stadium since 1960:

LSU Is 67-0 Under When Rushing For 100 Yards and Holding Opponents To Less Than 100 Yards

In the last 152 games, LSU's success is easy to predict when it comes to net rushing yards. Get to 100 yards rushing and LSU will more than likely win as the Tigers are 113-16 when that happens. Hold the opponent to fewer than 100 yards and the Tigers are 68-5. An even more telling stat is that when LSU rushes for 100-plus yards and holds the opponents to fewer than 100 yards, the Tigers are 67-0. The following is a look at LSU's rushing numbers and how the Tigers have fared in those games:

The Aussie Punting Connection

Since the 2011 season, LSU has had the unique connection of having an Australian native punter. Brad Wing, a native of Melbourne, was a 2011 first-team All-American and served as the Tigers' punter in 2012 as well. Jamie Keehn took over punting duties in 2013 and finished his career with the fourth-best punting average for a career last year as a senior while being a permanent team captain and was named to the 2015 SEC Academic Honor Roll. The next in the pipeline is redshirt freshman punter Josh Growden, a native of Sydney, Australia, who in 2016 was named the SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Week and had a career-long 68-yard punt against Southern Miss which is tied for the longest in the SEC this season.

FORBES RANKS LSU TOP 5

In Forbes Magazine's latest study in 2015, LSU was ranked as the nation's fourth-most valuable football team with a worth of $111 million. Forbes ranked LSU as the fourth-most valuable football franchise in 2012, 2013 and the fifth most in 2014, clearly stating LSU is one of college football's most valuable teams.

Of LSU, Forbes said, "we apply the heaviest weight to money that goes towards academic programming, which includes both football scholarships and direct contributions to university initiatives like a library fund or non-athletic scholarship programs. A shining example of this is LSU, which last year contributed over $7 million to academic programming."

Forbes said in its report that "athletic value, which is next in the weighting order, is the remaining football profit that goes toward supporting non-revenue sports like softball and soccer. The final two areas, conference and community, are comprised of money earned from playing in bowl games and the economic impact generated by home football games, respectively."

LSU set a school-record for attendance in 2014 as the Tigers averaged 101,723 fans for the seven home games. Overall, LSU drew a total of 712,063 fans to Tiger Stadium in 2014, the most combined fans for home games in school history.

LSU ATHLETICS TRANSFERS $10 MILLION TO UNIVERSITY

The LSU Athletic Department transferred over $10 million last fiscal year to other components of the university for use in supporting LSU's academic, research, public service and other missions, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Joe Alleva announced in August 2015.

"Our athletic department is sincerely committed to supporting the academic mission of the university, and we're extremely proud to transfer over $10 million this year," Alleva said. "These funds provide vital resources for our students, faculty and staff, and they help to sustain LSU as one of the top research institutions in the country."

The athletic department has contributed a total of $43.5 million to the LSU-Baton Rouge campus over the past five fiscal years.

Beginning in 2012, the athletic department has annually presented $7.2 million to the university in accordance with the Athletics Fund Transfer Policy approved by the LSU Board of Supervisors. The policy states that in years in which LSU Athletics yields a surplus, a portion of the surplus in addition to the $7.2 million may be provided to the university.

The surplus produced by the athletic department in fiscal year 2014-15 will allow an additional $2.85 million to be channeled to the university, creating a total fund transfer last year of $10.05 million.

LSU ATHLETICS FEATURES ACADEMIC CENTER THAT IS A 'MODEL OF EXCELLENCE'

LSU, in particular the efforts of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes, is one of eight colleges and universities nationwide being honored by University Business magazine in its Spring 2016 Models of Excellence recognition program.

Sponsored by Higher One, a leading provider of financial services to college and university campuses across the U.S., the Models of Excellence program recognizes innovative approaches to encouraging and nurturing student success on campus.

Since the launch of the CCACSA in 2001, LSU's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) has continued an upward trend each year, which includes its most recent score of 84 percent, an all-time high for the school. The 84 percent is up significantly from the school's first score of 67 percent in 2005. LSU has also gone from a GSR score of 69 percent in 2008 to a score of 84 in 2015, which represents one of the best improvements in the Southeastern Conference during that span.

LSU FOOTBALL RATED AS NATION'S NINTH MOST VALUABLE PROGRAM

LSU is rated as college football's ninth most valuable program according to a study done by Ryan Brewer, a finance professor at Indiana University-Purdue University.

Brewer, who also had LSU ranked No. 9 a year ago, had his rankings published today in the Wall Street Journal as well as online at wsj.com.

According to Brewer, the LSU football program has a value of 612.30 million dollars, which puts it firmly among the Top 10 programs in the nation. Ohio State is listed No. 1 with a value of 946.61 million, followed by Texas (885.05 million), Michigan (811.30 million), Notre Dame (723.59 million) and Alabama (694.87).

The ranking of other SEC teams in Brewer's study include Tennessee No. 12 at 401.98 million, South Carolina No. 14 (398.18 million), Texas A&M No. 17 (359.14 million), Auburn No. 19 (319.32 million), Arkansas No. 20 (311.85 million), Ole Miss No. 32 (216.20 million), Kentucky No. 34 (208.00 million), Missouri No. 51 (108.88 million), Mississippi State No. 53 (103.03 million), and Vanderbilt No. 68 (55.64 million).

LSU RANKED TENTH IN ACADEMIC POLL OF TOP 25 FOOTBALL TEAMS

When it comes to measuring success of the nation's top football programs both in the classroom and on the playing field, LSU finds itself among an elite group of schools that are excelling both areas.

In a poll conducted by Washington D.C.-area think tank New America and published in Time Magazine, the results took into account a teams' national ranking based on the College Football Playoff Standings and its graduation success rate (GSR). LSU was ranked No. 20 in the final College Football Playoff Standings and were No. 10 among all college football teams in the Top 25 in GSR score.

Combine the two polls and LSU finds itself sitting at No. 15 in the nation, which ranks third among all Southeastern Conference schools. Alabama is first among league schools with a combined ranking of No. 2 followed by Ole Miss, who came in at No. 11. Other SEC schools in the combined Top 25 include Florida at No. 17, and Tennessee at No. 23.

In the academic-only ranking for the Top 25 teams, LSU's No. 10 placement is second in the SEC behind only Alabama, who checked in at No. 6.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in the football playoff poll, while Northwestern was No. 1 in the academic poll.

Fournette Sets LSU Single-Season Rushing Record As Tigers Beat Aggies, 19-7

Leonard Fournette set the school's single-season rushing record and the LSU defense turned in its best effort of the season as the Tigers beat Texas A&M, 19-7, in what was an emotional night in Tiger Stadium. LSU honored 15 seniors prior to the game, and then head coach Les Miles was carried off the field on the shoulders of some of his players in what many are calling one of the most memorable moments in Tiger Stadium history. LSU opened the scoring with back-to-back field goals on its first two possessions of the game. Trent Domingue connected on a 32-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead at the 10:58 mark and then followed that with a 38-yard field goal less than two minutes later for a 6-0 LSU advantage. The Aggies scored their only points of the game on a 7-play, 80-yard drive late in the first quarter when Kyle Allen hit Ricky Seals-Jones with an 8-yard TD pass for a 7-6 lead. The teams were scoreless in the second quarter, and the Aggies led 7-6 at halftime. Derrius Guice returned the second half kickoff 75 yards to the Aggie 25-yard line, but the Tigers weren't able to capitalize as Domingue's 46-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. After the Aggies missed a 54-yard field goal, LSU regained the lead for good on a 50-yard run by Guice that gave the Tigers a 13-7 lead. The score remained that way until late in the fourth quarter when the Tigers burned 8:11 off the clock with a 13-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a 4-yard TD run by Fournette to stretch the lead to 19-7. LSU's Donte Jackson intercepted an A&M pass at the 5-yard line to halt an Aggie drive that reached the Tiger 38-yard line. After a 30-yard punt by LSU, the Tigers forced the Aggies to turn the ball over on downs to end the contest. For the game, Fournette rushed for 159 yards and a TD, pushing his season total to 1,741 yards, which moved him past Charles Alexander as the school's single-season record holder. Alexander rushed for 1,686 yards in 1977. Deion Jones led LSU with 11 tackles as the Tigers had their best defensive effort of the year by allowing only seven points and 250 total yards to the Aggies.

Wisconsin Kicks Late Field Goal to Break LSU Streak

LSU rallied from a 13-point deficit at Lambeau Field before Wisconsin placekicker Rafael Gaglianone made a 47-yard field goal that proved to be the game winner, as LSU lost its season opener for the first time since 2002. LSU (0-1) scored twice in a 67-second span of the third quarter to take a lead, and after falling behind again, the Tigers had a first down at the Wisconsin (1-0) 30-yard line with a minute to play. However, quarterback Brandon Harris was intercepted at the Badgers 25. Cornerback Tre'Davious White had a 21-yard interception for touchdown and then recovered a fumble three plays later to setup a 10-yard touchdown reception by Travin Dural from Harris. Harris finished 12-of-21 passing for 131 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Dural caught five passes for 50 yards. Running back Leonard Fournette had 23 rushes for 138 yards and added three catches for 38 yards. Gaglianone made field goals of 30 and 48 yards to give Wisconsin a 6-0 halftime lead. Fifth-year senior quarterback Bart Houston was 19-of-31 passing for 205 yards with two interceptions. Running back Corey Clement led the Badgers with 86 yards on 21 carries, while tight end Tony Fumagalli caught seven passes for 100 yards and a touchdown. LSU was outgained 339-257, as Wisconsin had a 36:57-23:03 advantage in time of possession.

Etling Leads Football Past Gamecocks, 34-13

Quarterback Danny Etling led the LSU football team to three-straight touchdowns and Tre'Davious White added a highlight-reel punt return, as No. 21 LSU used a 27-point second quarter to defeat FCS powerhouse Jacksonville State, 34-13, in Tiger Stadium. Etling, a junior transfer, energized the Tigers with a 46-yard touchdown pass to tight end DeSean Smith early the second quarter to give LSU a 6-3 lead. With Leonard Fournette unavailable due to injury, running back Derrius Guice carried 19 times for 155 yards including a 4-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. LSU added two more touchdowns in 47 seconds just before the half - a 2-yard dive by fullback Bry'Kiethon Mouton and a 60-yard punt return by White - and the Tigers took a 27-10 lead into the lockerroom. While Etling sparked the Tigers offense, the highlight of the game belonged to White. The senior fielded a punt at his 40-yard line, evaded tacklers and retreated all the way to the LSU 19 before turning up field and out-running everyone for a touchdown with 20 seconds left in the half. Etling finished 6-of-14 passing for 100 yards with one passing touchdown and a 2-yard bootleg score in the third quarter. He entered in the second quarter for Brandon Harris, who struggled to a 1-for-4 start. LSU amassed 244 rushing yards on 37 carries. Kendell Beckwith posted a team-leading 10 tackles followed by Rickey Jefferson with eight stops and Donnie Alexander, who also set a career mark with eight tackles.

Gold-Clad LSU Holds Off State, 23-20

Leonard Fournette had 147 rushing yards and scored twice and first-time starting quarterback Danny Etling threw for 215 yards, as LSU built a 20-point lead before holding off a rally by Mississippi State, 23-20. LSU led 23-3 after dominating the first 30 minutes of play. The Tigers held a 282-80 advantage in total offense in the first half. Mississippi State used an onside kick recovery to score twice in 40 seconds late in the fourth quarter. However, LSU linebacker Arden Key came up with LSU's fifth sack of the night and forced a fumble to seal the victory. Etling completed 19-of-30 passes for 215 yards with a touchdown. He became the 13th-straight Tiger quarterback to win his first start in Tiger Stadium. Fournette ran 28 times for 17 yards with touchdown runs of 5 and 25 yards in the first half. LSU outgained Mississippi State, 392-270, while converting 7-of-16 third downs. The Bulldogs managed only 1-of-14 third-down conversions. On the ground, LSU outgained the Bulldogs, 177-56. LSU grabbed a 7-0 lead at the 9:28 mark of the first quarter when Etling hit wide receiver D.J. Chark on a 37-yard touchdown connection in the back of the north endzone. The aerial culminated a seven-play, 64-yard drive and marked Chark's first career TD reception. Fournette dashed 25 yards for a touchdown with 8:25 remaining in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 20-0 lead after Colby Delahoussaye's PAT attempt was blocked. Delahoussaye booted a 27-yard field goal in the second quarter to lift LSU to 23-3. The Bulldogs recovered an onside kick and needed only two plays to pull within a field goal in the fourth quarter. Damian Williams completed passes of 25 and seven yards to Fred Ross, who leaped into the endzone with 3:30 to play. The Tigers defense came to life on the final series, forcing Williams into consecutive incomplete passes before Key came up with a game-clinching sack on fourth down with 42 seconds to play.

Winning TD Ruled Too Late at Auburn

Danny Etling's 15-yard game-winning touchdown pass to D.J. Chark was overturned by video review citing no time remaining on the clock, and LSU fell to Auburn, 18-13, on a steamy night at Jordan-Hare Stadium. On the previous play, LSU was flagged for an illegal shift after picking up a first down at the Auburn 2-yard line with 0:01 to play. With the clock starting on the official's whistle, Etling - who rolled out of the pocket and found Chark for a tip-toe grab in the back-right corner of the endzone - was ruled to have received the snap after time had expired. Auburn, which kicked six field goals in the contest, celebrated its first league win of the season by running the length of the field to its student section. Etling finished 15-of-27 passing for 118 yards with a touchdown. He was sacked three times and left the game for a play with cuts to his head and lip in the first half. Etling ran the ball 11 times for 23 yet yards including runs of 12 and 18 yards on the final drive. Running back Leonard Fournette had 16 carries for 101 net yards. Derrius Guice added 62 yards on three rushes, while Chark had an end-around for 35 yards. Auburn's Daniel Carlson made field goals of 51, 29, 29, 31, 37 and 29 yards were the only points the Tigers scored. Jamal Adams (13) Duke Riley (13) and Kendell Beckwith (12) all posted double-digit tackles in the game to mark the first time since the 2015 Western Kentucky game that three Tigers tallied double-digit stops in a single game.

Football Blasts Missouri in Orgeron Debut

In Ed Orgeron's debut, LSU amassed 634 yards of total offense and dominated Missouri on both sides of the ball to hand the first-time visitors to Tiger Stadium a 42-7 defeat. Orgeron took over as interim head coach on Sunday when Les Miles was relieved of his duties following a 2-2 start to the 2016 season. LSU running backs Derrius Guice and Darrel Williams led the Tigers to a school record for total offense in SEC games, previously 630 yards set in 1987 at Ole Miss and 1967 against Mississippi State. With Leonard Fournette sidelined with an injury, both had career nights. Guice carried 17 times for 163 yards, while Williams had 21 carries for 130 yards. Each scored three touchdowns. Quarterback Danny Etling also had a splendid outing, 19-of-30 for 216 yards. He completed passes to nine different receivers, with Malachi Dupre and Travin Dural catching four passes apiece. LSU's 418 rushing yards was its most in an SEC game since Oct. 30, 1976, against Ole Miss (426). The homestanding Tigers had possession for 42:33 - its highest on record (dating to 1978). LSU opened the scoring at the 6:46 mark of the first quarter on a brilliant 42-yard touchdown run by Guice. The dash, which featured a key block from wide receiver Russell Gage, culminated an 85-yard, nine-play march to give the Bayou Bengals a 7-0 lead. LSU halted a Missouri drive early in the second quarter when Tre'Davious White intercepted Mizzou's Drew Lock at the Bayou Bengals' 11-yard line. The interception was the sixth of White's career and his second this season. LSU took advantage of the turnover, driving 89 yards on 13 plays, with the march ending on Guice's four-yard scoring burst. The touchdown gave Guice, a sophomore from Baton Rouge, the first multi-TD game of his career. Guice increased the lead to 21-0 with 4:40 left in the first half with a 37-yard touchdown sprint, capping a 93-yard, five-play march, the longest TD drive of the season for LSU. LSU started strong in the second half, covering 75 yards in eight plays on the first drive of the third quarter, with Williams finishing the drive on a 1-yard TD surge. LSU added another touchdown at the 10:00 mark of the fourth quarter, when Williams scored a on two-yard TD run to cap an 86-yard, 10-play march. Williams scored for the third time on a 9-yard run with just under five minutes left in the game. Kendall Beckwith led the way in tackles with nine stops, followed by Duke Riley and Dwayne Thomas who each posted five tackles.

Big-Play LSU Too Much for USM, 45-10

LSU had five touchdown drives of three plays or less, as the quick-strike Tigers shook off an unexpected week of rust to defeat Southern Miss, 45-10, on Saturday in Tiger Stadium. Danny Etling connected on touchdown passes of 80 and 63 yards, while running back Derrius Guice had touchdown runs of 61 and 20 yards in a 28-point third-quarter outburst that ended the Eagles' upset bid. The Tigers extended a non-conference winning streak to 47 games in Tiger Stadium. Etling completed 11-of-18 passes for a season-high 276 yards with three touchdowns and his first interception in 104 pass attempts. Malachi Dupre caught two of the touchdowns and finished with three catches for 100 yards, while D.J. Chark added 91 yards on three grabs with an 80-yard touchdown. Guice, who moved over 1,000 career rushing yards, needed only 16 carries to gain 162 of LSU's 182 net yards. He scored back-to-back touchdowns early in the third quarter. After being tied at 10-10 at halftime, the Tigers outscored Southern Miss 35-0 in the second half and outgained the Eagles, 338-107. LSU was 5-of-9 on third downs. Entering the contest, Southern Miss ranked No. 4 nationally allowing only 14 third-down conversions in six games this season. The Tigers averaged 10.9 yards per play - 459 yards on 42 plays - a modern-day school record. Defensively, the Tigers allowed only 81 rushing yards on 36 attempts. Kendell Beckwith led the way with a career-best 15 tackles including two behind the line.

While Fournette Runs Wild, LSU 'D' Shuts Down Rebels

Leonard Fournette set a school record with 284 rushing yards, as 25th-ranked LSU pitched a second-half shutout of No. 23 Ole Miss, 38-21, on a late Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. LSU, which was tied 21-21 at the half, dominated the final 30 minutes of play, allowing only 54 yards of total offense in the second half until the game's final drive. With the game decided, Ole Miss added 50 more as fans poured to the parking lots during the game's final drive. Fournette needed only 16 carries to break Alley Broussard's 2004 record of 250 yards, which was also set against Ole Miss. He scored on runs of 59, 76 and 78 yards, averaging a school-record 17.8 yards per carry (minimum 15 carries). Meanwhile, quarterback Danny Etling completed 19-of-28 passes for 204 yards with a 40-yard touchdown pass to D.J. Chark. Malachi Dupre caught a game-high five passes for 52 yards, while Travin Dural added four catches for 48 yards. After allowing 221 yards in the opening half, LSU's defense gave up only 37 in the third quarter while building a 10-point advantage. Derrius Guice slammed the door shut with a 6-yard touchdown run that capped an 11-play, 70-yard drive that lasted 6:03. Guice also had 16 carries for 67 yards. LSU outgained Ole Miss, 515-325. Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly, the SEC's leading passer, was held nearly 100 yards below his season average of 308.2 by a swarming LSU defense. Duke Riley logged a career-high 15 tackles in the contest. He had five solo stops as well as 1.5 TFL and an interception.

Hurts Leads Alabama Past LSU Late, 10-0

No. 13 LSU played No. 1 Alabama to a scoreless tie through three quarters, but the Tide scored on consecutive fourth-quarter possessions to win 10-0 Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. Alabama (9-0, 6-0 SEC) was shutout in the first half for the first time in 127 games, but quarterback Jalen Hurts' shook loose in the final quarter to secure the victory. Hurts ran for 114 yards and the game's only touchdown, while passing for 107 yards with an interception. Alabama managed 323 yards of total offense, though the Tide didn't score until Hurts' 21-yard run with 13:08 to play. LSU struggled to move the ball against the Tide defense, managing only 125 yards of total offense. Quarterback Danny Etling was 11-of-24 passing for 92 yards with an interception. He was sacked five times. Leonard Fournette ran 17 times for 35 net yards. Both teams missed field goals in the first half. Kendell Beckwith led LSU with a career-best 16 tackles, while Lewis Neal also added a career-best with 11 to go along with two quarterback hurries. LSU safety Jamal Adams intercepted Alabama quarterback Jalen Hurts on the Tide's first drive, giving the Tigers possession at the Alabama 33-yard line. The pick was Adams' first of the season and the fifth of his career. The Tigers, however, were not able to capitalize on the opportunity, as Colby Delahoussaye's 49-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Alabama defensive back Ronnie Harrison. The first half finished in a scoreless tie, marking the first time Alabama had been shut out in an opening half since 2007, when Florida State blanked the Tide through the first 30 minutes of play. LSU forced Hurts to fumble on a pass attempt, and the Tigers recovered at the Alabama 42-yard line with 5:42 left in the third quarter. Defensive tackle Frank Herron was credited with the sack, and outside linebacker Arden Key pounced on the football. Alabama responded by driving 90 yards on 12 plays for the game's first score, as Hurts dashed 21 yards to the end zone with 13:08 remaining in the contest. Hurts again led the Tide into the LSU redzone, rushing seven times for 47 yards. Adam Griffith finished off a nearly 10-minute drive with a 25-yard field goal from the right hash to push Alabama ahead, 10-0, with 2:41 to play.

No. 19 LSU Runs All Over Hogs, 38-10

Leonard Fournette scored three times and Derrius Guice had the second-best rushing performance in LSU history, as the No. 19 Tigers drummed Arkansas, 38-10, Saturday night. LSU (6-3, 4-2 SEC) became bowl eligible for the 17th-consecutive season while reclaiming "The Boot." Arkansas fell to 6-4 overall and 2-4 in the SEC. Fournette scored twice as the Tigers built a 21-0 lead in the first 20 minutes of play and never looked back. The junior ran 17 times for 98 yards with touchdown runs of 5, 7 and 3 yards. Guice, a sophomore from Baton Rouge, ran for 219 of his 252 rushing yards in the second half. Highlighting the effort was the longest play from scrimmage in LSU history: a 96-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Guice's 252 yards trails only Fournette's 284 yards earlier this season against Ole Miss in LSU single-game history. Guice had a career-high 21 carries. LSU finished with 390 rushing yards, an average of 7.6 per carry. Quarterback Danny Etling was steady for LSU, completing 10-of-16 passes for 157 yards. The Tigers were 6-of-12 on third down and held the ball for 35:11. The Tigers defense continued to shine, allowing only 81 rushing yards with three sacks in the first half. Linebacker Donnie Alexander's interception setup an LSU touchdown and Dwayne Thomas's pick off kept Arkansas out of the endzone. LSU's Kendell Beckwith also recovered a fumble in the endzone. Ten of Arkansas's 13 drives lasted five plays or fewer.

LSU Miscues Costly in 16-10 Loss to Florida

Three failed chances in the redzone and a fumble on a kickoff return cost the LSU football team, as the No. 16-ranked Tigers lost to No. 21 Florida in the home finale, 16-10. LSU amassed 423 yards of total offense but was 2-of-5 in the red zone including a fourth-and-goal fumble by running back Derrius Guice, who was stretching the ball toward the goal line as time expired. Florida clinched the SEC Eastern Division title and will meet Alabama in the Championship Game. The Gators gained 270 yards of offense including a 98-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. With Leonard Fournette hobbled, LSU quarterback Danny Etling put the Tigers in position to win with a 13-play, 74-yard drive that came up a yard short of paydirt. Etling was 14-of-25 passing for 204 yards. Fournette ran 12 times for 40 yards, while fellow Tiger running back Guice rushed 19 yards for 83 yards and a touchdown. Guice also had a fumble on first-and-goal at the Florida 7 in the second quarter. Wide receiver DJ Chark added 51 yards on three carries and added two catches for 46 yards. Colby Delahoussaye hit a 22-yard field goal to tie the game in the fourth quarter, after being robbed of a chance at a third-quarter field goal when the snap was bobbed. On its final drive, runs of 13 yards by Etling and 14 yards by Guice moved LSU into Florida territory. On fourth-and-10 from the Florida 48, Etling kept the drive alive with a 30-yard connection to Chark who ran to the Florida 18. Another first-down pass to Malachi Dupre setup first-and-goal from the Florida 7. Guice needed two runs to advance to the 1, but fullback J.D. Moore was stopped for no gain on third down and Guice fumbled attempting to stretch the ball to the goal line as time expired.
