LSU Opens 2019 Season with Top-10 Matchup

The LSU gymnastics team opens the 2019 season at 7:30 p.m. Friday night inside the Maravich Center against No. 8 Cal. The Tigers return 2017 NCAA national champions Sarah Finnegan and Kennedi Edney along with NCAA All-Americans Julianna Cannamela, Christina Desiderio, Ruby Harrold, McKenna Kelley and Lexie Priessman. The Tigers will be replacing five routines from a year ago with the departure of seniors Myia Hambrick and Erin Macadaeg. Friday night also marks the return of Kelley who missed the 2019 season after rupturing her Achilles in November 2017. The meet will be streamed live on SEC Network+ through WatchESPN.com and the app with first vault at 7:35 p.m. CT. Head Coach D-D Breaux enters her 42nd season as the head coach of LSU. On Friday night, Breaux will surpass Kentucky's Adolph Rupp as the longest tenured coach in Southeastern Conference history. She is joined on staff by seventh-year associate head coach Jay Clark, 20th-year assistant coach Bob Moore, and nine-year volunteer coach Ashleigh Clare-Kearney Thigpen.

STORY LINES

- LSU has gone undefeated at home for four-straight seasons. The Tigers are 34-0 in the Maravich Center since the start of the 2014 season. During that stretch, LSU has beaten No. 6 Kentucky, No. 7/9 Alabama, No. 14 Auburn, No. 2/3 Florida, No. 9 Georgia, No. 16 Minnesota and No. 1 Oklahoma. The last loss in the Maravich Center came to Alabama in 2013.

- The No. 4 preseason ranking marks the sixth-straight season that LSU is ranked in the top-five of the preseason poll.

- LSU will rely on a sophomore class that gained valuable experience a year ago. Reagan Campbell, Sami Durante and Christina Desiderio all competed at NCAA Championships a year ago and Bridget Dean is expected to fight for a spot in the bars and beam lineup.

- Freshman Bailey Ferrer out of Orlando, Florida, is also expected to be a major contributor in the leg events and fill the void left by Myia Hambrick.

- Tiger fans packed the PMAC in 2018 with the second-best average attendance in the nation. Five of six meets in 2018 ranked in the top-10 of the best gymnastics attendance figures in Maravich Center history.

D-D Breaux

HEAD COACH • 42nd SEASON

With each passing season, LSU gymnastics continues to collect more honors and titles to its storied program, and head coach D-D Breaux has been the catalyst behind LSU's sustained success.

Led by Breaux, LSU has seen increasing accomplishments that includes 16 NCAA Championships appearances in the last 17 seasons, seven Super Six appearances since 2008 and 12 individual national titles since 2002.

Under Breaux's leadership and coaching, LSU has reached new heights in individual and team success.

Now entering her 42nd season as the mastermind of the LSU gymnastics program, Breaux exudes the same passion and enthusiasm to coach the Fighting Tigers as she did in her first season on the job.

The 2018 season marked another one for the history books as the Tigers won SEC Championships, earned 33 wins and finished fourth nationally. Sarah Finnegan took home the SEC all-around title and was named the league's gymnast of the year. LSU gymnasts earned a school record 28 All-America honors.

Breaux led the 2017 squad to the best season in school history. From beginning to end, the Tigers were masterful on the floor with 34 wins and a historic sweep of the Southeastern Conference. Ashleigh Gnat along with Finnegan and Kennedy Edney also took home the most NCAA national championships at a meet in school history with three. The Tigers ultimately finished second in the nation to match the best finish in school history.

In 2016, Breaux reached the exclusive 700 career win milestone as the team compiled a 31-6 overall record, the first time in school history LSU had reached the 30-win mark.

In 2015, Breaux guided LSU to a 13-1 overall regular season record, which included a perfect 7-0 record against SEC competition for the first time in school history.

The list of achievements in 2014 includes a program-record third-place national finish in the NCAA Super Six Finals, another individual national title by Rheagan Courville on vault, the 13th regional title in school history, the highest score in program history on three different occasions, 20 total All-America honors including a nation-leading five First-Team All-Americans, and a then school-record 13 consecutive meets with at least a 197 score.

In 2013, LSU recorded the 12th regional team title in school history, and the Tigers reached the NCAA Super Six for the third time in 2013, recording a fifth-place finish.

In 2010 LSU reached the NCAA Championships for the ninth straight year while senior Susan Jackson became the first LSU gymnast to capture the NCAA All-Around national title, and she also won the 2010 balance beam title to become LSU's first three-time NCAA champion.

In 2008 LSU joined elite company by advancing to the NCAA Super Six Finals as Breaux and the Tigers broke through into the six-team field for the first time in program history to compete for college gymnastics' national championship. The Tigers placed fifth.

As the "Dean of Coaches" at LSU, Breaux has represented the University at the highest level both in the gym and, most importantly, in the classroom for more than 40 years. Her dedication to the student-athlete on an individual basis has transcended into academic success, community involvement, Coach of the Year honors, SEC Championships, NCAA Regional Championships and Top-10 national rankings throughout her tenure. In fact, there is a tremendous balance between academics and athletics as LSU has produced 239 ALL-AMERICANS and 150 Scholastic All-Americans during Breaux's tenure.

During her tenure Breaux has established and maintained LSU's reputation as one of the premier collegiate gymnastics programs in the country. Under her tutelage, the Tigers have placed among the nation's top-10 teams 29 times in 41 seasons, finishing a program-best second in 2016 and 2017, third in 2014, fourth in 1988 and 2018, fifth in 2008 and 2013 and sixth on four separate occasions.

Under her leadership, LSU has captured 13 individual national titles, 239 All-America honors and 85 All-SEC selections.
